Time-based Restricted Stock Awards

At March 30, 2013, there was approximately $18.2 million of unrecognized compensation cost (net of estimated forfeitures) related to restricted stock which is expected to be recognized over a weighted-average period of approximately 3.0 years.

Performance-based Restricted Stock Awards

During the fiscal quarter ended March 31, 2012, the Company granted its executive officers an aggregate of 152,000 performance-based restricted shares at a fair market value of $42.61 per share. During the fiscal quarter ended March 30, 2013, the Company granted its executive officers an aggregate of 118,200 performance-based restricted shares at a fair market value of $59.27 per share.

Vesting of these shares is contingent upon meeting specific performance targets through 2014 (in the case of the fiscal 2012 awards) or 2015 (in the case of the fiscal 2013 awards). Currently, the Company believes that the respective targets will be achieved and has recorded compensation expense based on the proration of the total ultimate expected value of the award.

At March 30, 2013, there was approximately $11.7 million of unrecognized compensation cost (net of estimated forfeitures) related to performance-based restricted stock awards which is expected to be recognized over a weighted-average period of approximately 2.7 years.

NOTE 8 – EMPLOYEE BENEFIT PLANS

Service cost – benefits attributed to service during the period	$40	$17
Interest cost on accumulated post-retirement benefit obligation	58	53
Amortization net actuarial gain	(34) (18
Total net periodic post-retirement benefit cost	$64	$52

NOTE 9 – INCOME TAXES

As of March 30, 2013, the Company had gross unrecognized tax benefits of approximately $10.6 million, of which $7.4 million, if ultimately recognized, will affect the Company's effective tax rate in the period settled. The Company has recorded tax positions for which the ultimate deductibility is more likely than not, but for which there is uncertainty about the timing of such deductions. Because of deferred tax accounting, changes in the timing of these deductions would not affect the annual effective tax rate, but could accelerate the payment of cash to the taxing authorities.

Included in the reserves for unrecognized tax benefits are approximately $1.7 million of reserves for which the statute of limitations is expected to expire within the next fiscal year. If these tax benefits are ultimately recognized, such recognition, net of federal income taxes, may affect the annual effective tax rate for fiscal 2013 and the effective tax rate in the quarter in which the benefits are recognized.

The Company recognizes interest related to unrecognized tax benefits as a component of interest expense and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits as a component of income tax expense. During the first fiscal quarters of 2013 and 2012, interest expense recorded on uncertain tax positions was not significant. The Company had approximately $0.8 million, $0.7 million, and $0.6 million of interest accrued on uncertain tax positions as of March 30, 2013, December 29, 2012, and March 31, 2012, respectively.

NOTE 10 – FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

INVESTMENTS

Beginning in fiscal 2012, the Company began investing in marketable securities, principally equity based mutual funds, to mitigate the risk associated with the investment return on employee deferrals of compensation. The Company had approximately $3.9 million and $3.2 million of such Level 1 investments as of March 30, 2013 and December 29, 2012, respectively. There were no such investments as of March 31, 2012.

All of the marketable securities purchased are included in other assets in the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheets. During the first quarter of fiscal 2013, gains on the investments in marketable securities were approximately $0.1 million.

CONTINGENT CONSIDERATION

The following table summarizes the changes in the contingent consideration liability that relates to the Company's acquisition of Bonnie Togs on June 30, 2011:

(dollars in thousands)	For the fiscal quarters ended
	March 30, 2013	March 31, 2012

Edgar Filing: CARTERS INC - Form 10-Q

Balance at beginning of period	$29,704	25,566
Accretion expense	887	692
Foreign currency translation adjustment	(570) 509
Balance at end of period	$30,021	26,767

The contingent consideration liability is a Level 3 fair value measurement. As of March 30, 2013, the Company determined the fair value of contingent consideration based upon a probability-weighted discounted cash flow analysis, reflecting a high probability that the earnings targets will be met and a discount rate of 18%.

The Company also expects approximately $4 million in non-cash accelerated depreciation expense.

NOTE 15 – RECENT ACCOUNTING PRONOUNCEMENTS

In February 2013, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued guidance finalizing the reporting of amounts reclassified out of accumulated other comprehensive income. The new standard requires either in a single note or parenthetically on the face of the financial statements, the effect of significant amounts reclassified from each component of accumulated other comprehensive income based on its source and the income statement line items affected by the reclassification. The guidance is effective for annual reporting periods and interim periods within those years, beginning after December 15, 2012. In the first fiscal quarter of 2013, the Company adopted the guidance and determined that there were no significant amounts reclassified in the period that would require enhanced disclosure.

FISCAL QUARTER ENDED MARCH 30, 2013 COMPARED WITH FISCAL QUARTER ENDED MARCH 31, 2012

CONSOLIDATED NET SALES

In the first fiscal quarter of 2013, consolidated net sales increased $39.3 million, or 7.1%, to $591.0 million. The growth reflects higher sales in the Carter's retail and international segments, partially offset by lower sales in the other segments.

Total net sales	$591,009	100.0	% $551,662	100.0	%

CARTER'S WHOLESALE SALES

Carter's wholesale sales decreased $1.3 million, or 0.5%, in the first fiscal quarter of 2013 to $248.2 million. This decline was primarily due to a decrease in units shipped as compared to the first fiscal quarter of 2012.

CARTER'S RETAIL SALES

Carter's retail sales increased $31.2 million, or 17.6%, in the first fiscal quarter of 2013 to $208.4 million. The increase was driven by incremental sales of $19.3 million generated by new store openings, $13.3 million generated by eCommerce sales, and a comparable store sales increase of $0.8 million, or 0.6%, partially offset by the impact of store closings of $2.2 million. On a comparable store basis, the average transaction value increased 0.4% as compared to the first fiscal quarter of 2012.

During the first quarter of fiscal 2013, we opened 12 Carter's stores and closed two stores. There were a total of 423 Carter's retail stores as of March 30, 2013. In total, we plan to open approximately 60 and close five Carter's retail stores during fiscal 2013.

OSHKOSH RETAIL SALES

OshKosh retail sales decreased $2.6 million, or 4.6%, in the first fiscal quarter of 2013 to $55.3 million. The decline was driven by a comparable store sales decrease of $4.7 million, or 9.5%, and the impact of store closings of $2.5 million, partially offset by incremental sales of $2.8 million generated by eCommerce sales and $1.7 million from new store openings. On a comparable store basis, the number of transactions decreased 10.6% and the average transaction value increased 1.3% driven by an increase in average unit retail price.

During the first fiscal quarter of 2013, we closed four stores. There were a total of 164 OshKosh retail stores as of March 30, 2013. In total, we plan to open approximately 15 and close five OshKosh retail stores during fiscal 2013.

OSHKOSH WHOLESALE SALES

OshKosh wholesale sales decreased $2.1 million, or 10.3%, in the first fiscal quarter of 2013 to $18.2 million. This decrease was primarily due to an 18.4% decline in units shipped and a 9.9% increase in average price per unit as compared to the first fiscal quarter of 2012.

INTERNATIONAL SALES

International sales increased $14.2 million, or 30.3%, in the first fiscal quarter of 2013 to $60.9 million. Our international retail sales increased $8.7 million, or 36.1%, to $32.7 million, driven by incremental Canadian sales of $4.7 million (primarily from new store openings), sales by our Japanese operations of $3.5 million, and $1.5 million of incremental eCommerce sales, partially offset by a Canadian comparable store decline of $0.9 million, or 3.9%. In addition, international wholesale sales increased $5.5 million, or 24.1%, to $28.2 million, driven by higher wholesale sales primarily in Mexico and Canada.

During the first fiscal quarter of 2013, we opened six retail stores in Canada and closed one store. There were a total of 87 retail stores in Canada as of March 30, 2013. In fiscal 2013, we plan to open a total of approximately 22 retail stores in Canada and close one.

Consistent with our strategy to extend the reach of our brands, we began operations in Japan during the first quarter of fiscal 2013.

GROSS PROFIT

Our gross profit increased $48.3 million, or 24.8%, to $243.1 million in the first fiscal quarter of 2013. Gross margin increased from 35.3% in the first fiscal quarter of 2012 to 41.1% in the first fiscal quarter of 2013. Gross margin in the first fiscal quarter of 2013 was favorably affected by lower product costs and greater contribution from the direct-to-consumer business.

We include distribution costs in selling, general, and administrative expenses. Accordingly, our gross profit may not be comparable to other companies that include such distribution costs in their cost of goods sold.

SELLING, GENERAL, AND ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

Selling, general, and administrative expenses in the first fiscal quarter of 2013 increased $35.7 million, or 23.8%, to $185.4 million. As a percentage of net sales, selling, general, and administrative expenses increased from 27.1% to 31.4% in the first fiscal quarter of 2013.

The increase in selling, general, and administrative expenses as a percentage of net sales reflects:

$11.9 million in higher domestic and Canada retail store expenses;

$8.0 million in costs associated with the office consolidation;

$4.7 million in distribution and freight costs;

$3.9 million in costs associated with the commencement and operation of our Japanese subsidiary in the first fiscal quarter of 2013; and

$2.0 million in incremental operating expenses associated with the growth of the eCommerce business.

ROYALTY INCOME

We license the use of our Carter's, Just One You, Child of Mine, OshKosh B'gosh, OshKosh, Genuine Kids from OshKosh, and Precious Firsts brand names. Royalty income from these brands in the first fiscal quarter of 2013 was approximately $9.2 million (including $1.5 million of international royalty income), an increase of 5.4%, as compared to the first fiscal quarter of 2012. The increase reflects strength in domestic royalties, partially offset by lower international royalties.

OPERATING INCOME

Operating income increased $13.1 million, or 24.4%, to $66.9 million in the first fiscal quarter of 2013 due to the factors described above.

INTEREST EXPENSE, NET

Interest expense, net in the first fiscal quarter of 2013 decreased $0.7 million, or 37.9%, to $1.2 million, compared to the first fiscal quarter of 2012. Weighted-average borrowings for the first fiscal quarter of 2013 were $186.0 million at an effective interest rate of 2.58%, as compared to weighted-average borrowings for the first fiscal quarter of 2012 of $236.0 million at an effective interest rate of 3.22%. The effective interest rate in the first fiscal quarter of 2013 was lower than than the effective rate in the first fiscal quarter of 2012 due to the effect of the refinancing of our revolving credit facility in the second quarter of fiscal 2012. The effective interest rate calculation includes the amortization of debt issuance costs.

OTHER EXPENSE (INCOME), NET

During the first fiscal quarter of fiscal 2013, the Company recorded a loss of approximately $0.6 million related to foreign currency adjustments and gains of approximately $0.1 million on our investments in marketable securities.

During the first fiscal quarter of fiscal 2012, the Company recorded a $0.3 million net loss related to the mark-to-market adjustment on open foreign currency exchange contracts and other foreign currency adjustments.

INCOME TAXES

Our effective tax rate for the first fiscal quarter of 2013 was 36.5% for fiscal 2013 as compared to 37.4% for the first fiscal quarter of fiscal 2012. The decrease in our effective rate is attributable to the effect of federal tax legislation enacted during the first fiscal quarter of 2013 that retroactively reinstated certain federal tax credits for fiscal 2012.

NET INCOME

Our net income for the first fiscal quarter of 2013 increased $9.1 million, or 28.3%, to $41.4 million as compared to $32.3 million in the first fiscal quarter of 2012.

FINANCIAL CONDITION, CAPITAL RESOURCES, AND LIQUIDITY

Our primary cash needs are working capital and capital expenditures. Our primary source of liquidity will continue to be cash and cash equivalents on hand, cash flow from operations, and borrowings under our revolving credit facility, and we expect that these sources will fund our ongoing requirements for working capital and capital expenditures for the foreseeable future, although no assurance can be given in this regard.

Net accounts receivable at March 30, 2013 were $178.4 million compared to $178.7 million at March 31, 2012 and $168.0 million at December 29, 2012. Due to the seasonal nature of our operations, the net accounts receivable balance at March 30, 2013 is not comparable to the net accounts receivable balance at December 29, 2012.

Net inventories at March 30, 2013 were $284.5 million compared to $265.7 million at March 31, 2012 and $349.5 million at December 29, 2012. The increase of $18.8 million, or 7.1%, as compared to March 31, 2012, reflects growth in the business, partially offset by lower product costs. Due to the seasonal nature of our operations, the net inventories balance at March 30, 2013 is not comparable to the net inventories balance at December 29, 2012.

Net cash provided by operating activities for the first fiscal quarter of 2013 was $53.1 million compared to net cash provided by operating activities of $82.4 million in the first fiscal quarter of 2012. The decrease in operating cash flow primarily reflects unfavorable changes in net working capital, partially offset by an increase in earnings.

Our capital expenditures were $31.4 million in the first fiscal quarter of 2013 compared to $16.4 million in the first fiscal quarter of 2012, primarily reflecting expenditures of approximately $15.4 million for the Braselton, Georgia distribution facility, $9.0 million for our U.S. and international retail store openings and remodelings, and $5.2 million for information technology.

For the first fiscal quarter of 2013, cash used in financing activities was $6.0 million, primarily as a result of share repurchases, as compared to a source of funds of $1.0 million for the first fiscal quarter of 2012.

We plan to invest approximately $200 million in capital expenditures in fiscal 2013, primarily for U.S. and international retail store openings and remodelings, the expansion of our distribution capacity with the addition of the Braselton, Georgia facility, and expenditures related to the new corporate headquarters in Atlanta.

REVOLVING CREDIT FACILITY

The aggregate principal amount of the facility as of March 30, 2013, is $375 million consisting of a $340 million U.S. dollar revolving credit facility and a $35 million multicurrency revolving credit facility. The sub-limit for U.S. dollar letters of credit is $175 million. The revolving credit facility expires August 31, 2017. Amounts outstanding under the revolving credit facility currently accrue interest at a LIBOR rate plus 1.50%.

At March 30, 2013, we had approximately $186.0 million in revolver borrowings, exclusive of $13.9 million of outstanding letters of credit, leaving approximately $175.0 million available for future borrowings. Weighted-average borrowings for the first fiscal quarter of 2013 were $186.0 million at an effective interest rate of 2.58%, as compared to weighted-average borrowings for the first fiscal quarter of 2012 of $236.0 million at an effective interest rate of 3.22%. The effective interest rate calculation includes the amortization of debt issuance costs.

As of March 30, 2013, we were in compliance with our financial debt covenants.

FACILITY CLOSURES

In conjunction with the plan to close the Hogansville, Georgia distribution facility, we expect to incur, in fiscal 2013, closure-related charges of approximately $2.2 million, comprising $0.6 million for one-time termination benefits, $0.6 million in accelerated depreciation, and other closure costs of $1.0 million. The salvage value of this facility is estimated to be $2.0 million.

In conjunction with our plan to consolidate our Shelton, Connecticut and Atlanta, Georgia offices, as well as certain functions from our other offices, into a new headquarters facility in Atlanta, Georgia, we anticipate pre-tax consolidation-related expenses for the full year of fiscal 2013 to be approximately $35 - $39 million. Included in the total are cash charges of approximately $33 million, comprising $16 million of recruiting and relocation expenses, $5 million of employee severance and other benefit costs, $7 million of lease-related charges, and $5 million of other closure costs. We also expect approximately $4 million in non-cash accelerated depreciation expense. We expect to substantially complete this consolidation by the end of fiscal 2013.

BONNIE TOGS ACQUISITION

As of March 30, 2013, a discounted contingent consideration liability of approximately $30.0 million has been recorded related to our 2011 purchase of Bonnie Togs. The liability is based upon the high probability that Bonnie Togs will attain its earnings targets. Approximately $14.5 million of the total liability is included in other current liabilities and the remainder is included in other long-term liabilities on the accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated balance sheet.

SHARE REPURCHASES

Pursuant to the previously announced authorizations by the Board of Directors, during the first quarter of fiscal 2013, we repurchased and retired 156,600 shares, or approximately $8.9 million, at an average price of $57.10 per share. The total remaining capacity was approximately $50.0 million as of March 30, 2013. These authorizations have no expiration date.

Future repurchases may occur from time to time in the open market, in negotiated transactions, or otherwise. The timing and amount of any repurchases will be determined by the Company's management, based on its evaluation of market conditions, share price, other investment priorities, and other factors.

LIQUIDITY OUTLOOK

Based on our current outlook, we believe that cash generated from operations and available cash, together with amounts available under our revolving credit facility, will be adequate to meet our working capital needs and capital expenditure requirements for the foreseeable future, although no assurance can be given in this regard.

EFFECTS OF INFLATION AND DEFLATION

In recent years, we have experienced increased costs of cotton, labor, fuel, and transportation, and have also had higher costs for foreign sourced products as a result of the devaluation of the U.S. dollar relative to certain foreign currencies. We expect product costs will generally remain above historic levels in fiscal 2013.

SEASONALITY

We experience seasonal fluctuations in our sales and profitability due to the timing of certain holidays and key retail shopping periods, generally resulting in lower sales and gross profit in the first half of our fiscal year. Accordingly, our results of operations during the first half of the year may not be indicative of the results we expect for the full year.

CRITICAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND ESTIMATES

Our discussion and analysis of our financial condition and results of operations are based upon our consolidated financial statements, which have been prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP. Preparation of these financial statements requires us to make estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues, expenses, and related disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. We base our estimates on historical experience and on various other assumptions that we believe are reasonable under the circumstances, the results of which form the basis for making judgments about the carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. Actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions.

Our significant accounting policies are described in Note 2 to our audited consolidated financial statements for fiscal 2012, filed on Form 10-K. Our critical accounting policies and estimates, which are those policies that require management's most difficult and subjective judgments, often as a result of the need to make estimates about the effect of matters that are inherently uncertain. Our critical accounting policies and estimates include: revenue recognition, inventory, goodwill and tradename, accrued expenses, loss contingencies, accounting for income taxes, foreign currency, employee benefit plans and stock-based compensation arrangements. There have been no significant changes in the application of these policies since December 29, 2012.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Statements contained herein that relate to our future performance, including, without limitation, statements with respect to our anticipated results of operations or level of business for fiscal 2013 or any other future period, are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements are based on current expectations only and are subject to certain risks, uncertainties, and assumptions. Should one or more of these risks or uncertainties materialize, or should underlying assumptions prove incorrect, actual results may vary materially from those anticipated, estimated, or projected. We undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise. Our risks are described herein under Item 1A of Part II.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

CURRENCY AND INTEREST RATE RISKS

In the operation of our business, we have market risk exposures including those related to foreign currency risk and interest rates. These risks and our strategies to manage our exposure to them are discussed below.

We contract for production with third parties primarily in Asia. While these contracts are stated in United States dollars, there can be no assurance that the cost for the future production of our products will not be affected by exchange rate fluctuations between the United States dollar and the local currencies of these contractors. Due to the number of currencies involved, we cannot quantify the potential impact of future currency fluctuations on net income (loss) in future years. To date, such exchange fluctuations have not had a material impact on our financial condition or results of operations.

Transactions by our foreign subsidiaries may be denominated in a currency other than the entity's functional currency. Fluctuations in exchange rates primarily between the United States dollar and the Canadian dollar and the United States dollar and the Japanese Yen may affect our results of operations, financial position, and cash flows. From time to time, we employ foreign exchange contracts to hedge foreign currency exchange rate risk associated with the procurement of U.S. dollar denominated finished goods destined for the Canadian market. These foreign exchange contracts are marked to market at the end of each reporting period, which could result in earnings volatility. As of March 30, 2013, there are no outstanding foreign exchange contracts.

Our operating results are subject to risk from interest rate fluctuations on our revolving credit facility, which carries variable interest rates. As of March 30, 2013, our outstanding variable rate debt aggregated approximately $186.0 million. An increase or decrease of 1% in the effective interest rate on that amount would have increased or decreased our annual interest cost by $1.9 million.

OTHER RISKS

We enter into various purchase order commitments with our suppliers. We can cancel these arrangements, although in some instances, we may be subject to a termination charge reflecting a percentage of work performed prior to cancellation.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures

Our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have evaluated the effectiveness of the design and operation of our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined under Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act")) as of the end of the period covered by this report. Based upon that evaluation, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures are effective as of March 30, 2013.

Changes in Internal Control over Financial Reporting

There were no changes in the Company's internal controls over financial reporting during the first quarter of fiscal 2013 that have materially affected, or are reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

PART II

ITEM 1. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

The Company is subject to various claims and pending or threatened lawsuits in the normal course of our business. The Company is not currently a party to any legal proceedings that it believes would have a material adverse effect on its financial position, results of operations, or cash flows.

ITEM 1A. RISK FACTORS

You should carefully consider each of the following risk factors as well as the other information contained in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q and other filings with the SEC in evaluating our business. The risks and uncertainties described below are not the only ones we face. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to us or that we currently consider immaterial may also impact our business operations. If any of the following risks actually occur, our operating results may be affected.

Risks Relating to Our Business

The loss of one or more of our major customers could result in a material loss of revenues.

We derived approximately 25% of our consolidated net sales from our top four customers as of March 30, 2013. We do not enter into long-term sales contracts with our major customers, relying instead on product performance, long-standing relationships, and on our position in the marketplace. As a result, we face the risk that one or more of these or other customers may significantly decrease their business with us, face difficulties in meeting their obligations to us, or terminate their relationship with us. Any of the foregoing could result in a material decrease in our sales or operating results.

The acceptance of our products in the marketplace is affected by consumers' tastes and preferences, along with fashion trends.

We believe that continued success depends on our ability to provide a compelling value proposition for our consumers in the Company's distribution channels. There can be no assurance that the demand for our products will not decline, or that we will be able to successfully and timely evaluate and adapt our products to changes in consumers' tastes and preferences or fashion trends. If consumers' tastes and preferences are not aligned with our product offerings, demand for our products may decline, promotional pricing may be required to move seasonal merchandise, and our gross margins and results of operations could be adversely affected.

The value of our brand, and our sales, could be diminished if we are associated with negative publicity.

Although our employees, agents, and third-party compliance auditors periodically visit and monitor the operations of our vendors, independent manufacturers, and licensees, we do not control these vendors, independent manufacturers, licensees, or their labor practices. A violation of our vendor policies, licensee agreements, labor laws, or other laws by these vendors, independent manufacturers, or licensees could damage our brand image. As a result, negative publicity regarding our Company, brands or products, including licensed products, could adversely affect our reputation and sales. Further, while the Company takes steps to ensure the reputation of its brand is maintained through its license agreements, there can be no guarantee that the Company's brand image will not be negatively impacted through its association with products or actions of licensees.

Our failure to protect our intellectual property rights could diminish the value of our brand, weaken our competitive position, and adversely affect our results.

We currently rely on a combination of trademark, unfair competition and copyright laws, as well as licensing arrangements, to establish and protect our intellectual property rights. The steps taken by us or by our licensees to protect our proprietary rights may not be adequate to prevent infringement of our trademarks or proprietary rights by others. In addition, intellectual property protection may be unavailable or limited in some foreign countries where laws or law enforcement practices may not protect our proprietary rights and where third parties may have rights to conflicting marks, and it may be more difficult for us to successfully challenge the use of our proprietary rights by other parties in those countries. If we fail to protect and maintain our intellectual property rights, the value of our brand could be diminished and our competitive position may suffer. Further, third parties may assert intellectual property claims against us, particularly as we expand our business geographically, and any such claim could be expensive and time consuming to defend, regardless of its merit. Successful infringement claims against us could result in significant monetary liability or prevent us from selling some of our products, which could have an adverse effect on our results.

We may incur substantial costs as a result of investigations or other proceedings related to previously disclosed investigations.

As previously reported, beginning in the fourth quarter of fiscal 2009, the SEC and the United States Attorney's Office began conducting investigations, with which the Company cooperated, related to customer margin support provided by the Company, including undisclosed margin support commitments and related matters. In December 2010, the Company and the SEC entered into a non-prosecution agreement pursuant to which the SEC agreed not to charge the Company with any violations of the federal securities laws, commence any enforcement action against the Company, or require the Company to pay any financial penalties in connection with the SEC's investigation of customer margin support provided by the Company, conditioned upon the Company's continued cooperation with the SEC's investigation and with any related enforcement proceedings. The Company may continue to incur substantial expenses for legal services due to the SEC and United States Attorney's Office investigations. These matters may continue to divert management's time and attention away from operations. The Company also expects to bear additional costs pursuant to its advancement and indemnification obligations to directors and officers under our organizational documents in connection with proceedings related to these matters. Our insurance may not provide coverage to offset such costs.

The Company's and its vendors' databases containing personal information of our retail and eCommerce customers could be breached, which could subject us to adverse publicity, litigation, and expenses. In addition, if we are unable to comply with security standards created by the banks and payment card industry, our operations could be adversely affected.

We rely on the security of our networks and databases and, in certain circumstances, those of third parties, such as vendors, to protect our proprietary information and information about our customers. If unauthorized parties gain access to these networks or databases, they may be able to steal, publish, delete, or modify our private and sensitive third-party information. In such circumstances, we could be held liable to our customers or other parties or be subject to regulatory or other actions for breaching privacy law or failing to adequately protect such information. This could result in costly investigations and litigation, civil or criminal penalties, operational changes, and negative publicity that could adversely affect our financial condition, results of operations, and reputation. Further, if we are unable to comply with the security standards, established by banks and payment card industry, we may be subject to fines, restrictions, and expulsion from card acceptance programs, which could adversely affect our retail operations.

Increases in production costs and deflationary pressures on our selling prices may adversely affect our results.

The Company's product costs are subject to fluctuations in costs such as manufacturing, cotton, labor, fuel, and transportation. In recent years, we have experienced increased costs of cotton, labor, fuel, and transportation, and have also had higher costs for foreign sourced products as a result of the devaluation of the U.S. dollar relative to certain foreign currencies. While we raised our selling prices on many of our products over the past two years, we have been unable to fully absorb the cost increases and our profitability has been adversely impacted. In recent years, the Company experienced deflationary pressure on its selling prices, in part driven by intense price competition in the young children's apparel industry. If future product cost increases are more than anticipated and if we are unable to offset such cost increases through selling price increases or otherwise, our profitability could be adversely affected. Future deflationary pressures on our selling prices could also adversely affect our profitability.

Our business is sensitive to overall levels of consumer spending, particularly in the young children's apparel segment.

Consumers' demand for young children's apparel, specifically brand name apparel products, is impacted by the overall level of consumer spending. Discretionary consumer spending is impacted by employment levels, gasoline and utility costs, business conditions, availability of consumer credit, tax rates, interest rates, levels of consumer indebtedness, and overall levels of consumer confidence. Recent and further reductions, or lower-than-expected growth, in the level of discretionary spending may have a material adverse effect on the Company's sales and results of operations.

We source substantially all of our products through foreign production arrangements. Our dependence on foreign supply sources could result in disruptions to our operations in the event of political instability, unfavorable economic conditions, international events, or new foreign regulations and such disruptions may increase our cost of goods sold and decrease gross profit.

We source substantially all of our products through a network of vendors primarily in Asia, principally, coordinated by our sourcing agents and directly through our Hong Kong sourcing office. The following could disrupt our foreign supply chain, increase our cost of goods sold, decrease our gross profit, or impact our ability to get products to our customers:

- financial instability of one or more of our major vendors;

- political instability or other international events resulting in the disruption of trade in foreign countries from which we source our products;

- interruptions in the supply of raw materials, including cotton, fabric, and trim items;

- significant changes in the cost of labor in our sourcing locations;

- the imposition of new regulations relating to imports, duties, taxes, and other charges on imports;

- the occurrence of a natural disaster, unusual weather conditions, or an epidemic in foreign countries from which we source our products;

- changes in the United States customs procedures concerning the importation of apparel products;

- unforeseen delays in customs clearance of any goods;

- disruptions in the global transportation network such as a port strike, capacity withholding, world trade restrictions, or war;

- the application of foreign intellectual property laws;

- the ability of our vendors to secure sufficient credit to finance the manufacturing process including the acquisition of raw materials;

- exchange rate fluctuations between the Company's and/or its subsidiaries' functional currency and the currencies paid to foreign contractors; and

- other events beyond our control that could interrupt our supply chain and delay receipt of our products into the United States.

We currently source most of our products through a single port. Labor disruptions at that port or otherwise along our supply chain may adversely affect our relationships with customers, reputation with consumers, and results of operations.

Our business depends on our ability to source and distribute products in a timely manner. Labor disputes at independent factories where our goods are produced, the shipping port we use, or our transportation carriers create significant risks for our business, particularly if these disputes result in work slowdowns, lockouts, strikes, or other disruptions during our peak manufacturing and importing times. This may have a material adverse effect on our relationships with our customers and our business, potentially resulting in canceled orders by customers, unanticipated inventory accumulation, and reduced revenues and earnings.

We source substantially all of our products through a network of vendors. We have limited control over these vendors and we may experience delays, product recalls, or loss of revenues if our products do not meet our quality standards.

Our vendors may not continue to provide products that are consistent with our standards. We have occasionally received, and may in the future continue to receive, shipments of product that fail to conform to our quality control standards. A failure in our quality control program may result in diminished product quality, which may result in increased order cancellations and returns, decreased consumer demand for our products, or product recalls, any of which may have a material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition. Because we do not control our vendors, products that fail to meet our standards, or other unauthorized products, could end up in the marketplace without our knowledge. This could materially harm our brand and our reputation in the marketplace.

We may experience delays, product recalls, or loss of revenues if our products do not meet regulatory requirements.

Our products are subject to regulation of and regulatory standards set by various governmental authorities including the Consumer Product Safety Commission, with respect to quality and safety. These regulations and standards may change from time to time. Our inability, or that of our vendors, to comply on a timely basis with regulatory requirements could result in significant fines or penalties, which could adversely affect our reputation and sales. Issues with the compliance of merchandise we sell with these regulations and standards, regardless of our culpability, or customer concerns about such issues, could result in damage to our reputation, lost sales, uninsured product liability claims or losses, merchandise recalls, and increased costs.

Any significant disruption to our eCommerce business, including order acceptance and processing, order fulfillment, web-hosting, warehousing, and call center operations, could result in lost sales and could harm our brand and our reputation in the marketplace.

The operation of our eCommerce business depends on the ability to maintain the efficient and uninterrupted operation of online order-taking and fulfillment operations. We currently rely on a third party to host our eCommerce website, process and manage web orders, and operate a call center supporting our eCommerce business. Over the course of fiscal 2012, we transitioned fulfillment services in house and expect to transition additional services through 2013. Any significant disruption in the operations of our eCommerce business or in our ability to transition third party services effectively could result in lost sales and could harm our brand and our reputation in the marketplace.

The loss of a sourcing agent could negatively impact our ability to timely deliver our inventory supply and disrupt our business, which may adversely affect our operating results.

One sourcing agent managed approximately 80% of our inventory purchases as of March 30, 2013. Although we believe that other buying agents could be retained, or we could procure some of the inventory directly, the loss of this buying agent could delay our ability to timely receive inventory supply and disrupt our business, which could result in a material adverse effect on our operating results. In addition, we have recently increased the amount of our inventory that we source directly and plan to continue to further increase such amounts. We have limited experience in directly sourcing inventory purchases from foreign vendors and we may experience difficulty in the transition, which could disrupt our business, increase our costs, and have a material adverse effect on our operating results.

We operate in a highly competitive market and the size and resources of some of our competitors may allow them to compete more effectively than we can, resulting in a loss of market share and, as a result, a decrease in revenue and gross profit.

The baby and young children's apparel market is highly competitive. Both branded and private label manufacturers compete in the baby and young children's apparel market. Our primary competitors in our wholesale businesses include private label product offerings and Disney and Gerber. Our primary competitors in the retail store channel include Disney, Gymboree, Old Navy, The Children's Place, and The Gap. Because of the fragmented nature of the industry, we also compete with many other manufacturers and retailers. Some of our competitors have greater financial resources and larger customer bases than we have. As a result, these competitors may be able to:

- adapt to changes in customer requirements more quickly;

take advantage of acquisition and other opportunities more readily;

devote greater resources to the marketing and sale of their products; and adopt more aggressive pricing strategies than we can.

The Company's retail success and future growth is dependent upon identifying locations and negotiating appropriate lease terms for retail stores.

The Company's retail stores are located in leased retail locations across the United States and Canada, as well as in Japan. Successful operation of a retail store depends, in part, on the overall ability of the retail location to attract a consumer base sufficient to make store sales volume profitable. If the Company is unable to identify new retail locations with consumer traffic sufficient to support a profitable sales level, retail growth may be limited. Further, if existing stores do not maintain a sufficient customer base that provides a reasonable sales volume or the Company is unable to negotiate appropriate lease terms for the retail stores, there could be a material adverse impact on the Company's sales, gross margin, and results of operations.

Profitability and our reputation and relationships could be negatively impacted if we do not adequately forecast the demand for our products and, as a result, create significant levels of excess inventory or insufficient levels of inventory.

If the Company does not adequately forecast demand for its products and purchases inventory to support an inaccurate forecast, the Company could experience increased costs and lower selling prices due to the need to dispose of excess inventory. In addition, if we forecast demand for our products that is lower than actual demand, we may experience insufficient levels of inventory, which could result in damage to our relationships with customers and our reputation with consumers.

We may not achieve sales growth plans, cost savings, and other assumptions that support the carrying value of our intangible assets.

As of March 30, 2013, the Company had goodwill of $136.6 million for Carter's and goodwill of $52.2 million for Bonnie Togs, and tradename assets of $220.2 million for the Carter's brand, and $85.5 million for the OshKosh brand on its consolidated balance sheet. The carrying value of these assets is subject to annual impairment reviews as of the last day of each fiscal year or more frequently, if deemed necessary, due to any significant events or changes in circumstances. Estimated future cash flows used in these impairment reviews could be negatively impacted if we do not achieve our sales plans, planned cost savings, and other assumptions that support the carrying value of these intangible assets, which could result in impairment of the remaining asset values. Any impairment would adversely affect our results of operations.

The Company's success is dependent upon retaining key individuals within the organization to execute the Company's strategic plan.

The Company's ability to attract and retain qualified executive management, marketing, merchandising, design, sourcing, operations, and support function staffing is key to the Company's success. If the Company were unable to attract and retain qualified individuals in these areas, an adverse impact on the Company's growth and results of operations may result.

The consolidation of certain offices into a new headquarters facility in Atlanta, Georgia may adversely affect our results of operations, financial position, and cash flows more than anticipated.

Actual charges related to the Company's planned office consolidation could be greater than estimated. The office consolidation may not be completed during the expected timeframe. If we do not effectively transition our workforce by identifying and relocating key positions and hiring qualified candidates in Georgia, we could experience business disruption due to a loss of historical knowledge and a lack of business continuity. We may not be able to achieve all or any of the expected benefits of the office consolidation as a result of any such business disruption or other factors. Disruption to our operations as a result of the consolidation could adversely affect our operations and financial results.

Failure to implement needed upgrades to our information technology systems could adversely affect our business.

As our business grows in size, complexity, and geography, we expect our information technology infrastructure to be in regular need of enhancement and upgrades. Failure to upgrade as needed or complications encountered in upgrading systems could cause disruptions that may adversely affect our business results or operations. Further, additional investment needed to upgrade and expand our information technology infrastructure could require significant investment of additional resources and capital.

We may not effectively transition our distribution functions to our new Braselton, Georgia facility. If we encounter problems with our distribution facilities, our ability to deliver our products to the market could be adversely affected.

If we are unsuccessful in timely or effectively transitioning our distribution functions to this facility, we may not achieve planned efficiency improvements and may not have sufficient distribution capacity, which could cause sales to decline and costs to increase and could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations. In addition, our new distribution facilities in Braselton, Georgia are expected to be more complex to operate than our current facilities and we may face difficulty in hiring and training needed personnel. Our ability to meet customer expectations, manage inventory, complete sales, and achieve objectives for operating efficiencies depends on the proper operation of this facility. Disruptions could adversely affect our results of operations.

We may be unsuccessful in expanding into international markets.

Our business strategy includes expanding into new international markets, which may be accomplished either directly or through partners. For example, we recently acquired retail operations in Japan. We do not have significant experience operating in markets outside of the United States and Canada. Consumer demand, behavior, tastes, and purchasing trends may differ in international markets and, as a result, sales of our products may not be successful or meet our expectations, or the margins on those sales may not be in line with those we currently anticipate. We may encounter differences in business culture and the legal environment that may make working with commercial partners and hiring and retaining an adequate employee base more challenging. We may also face difficulties integrating foreign business operations with our current operations. Any of these challenges could hinder our success in new markets. Our entry into new markets may have upfront investment costs that may not be accompanied by sufficient revenues to achieve typical or expected operational and financial performance and such costs may be greater than expected. We cannot be sure that we can successfully complete any planned expansion or that new international business will be profitable or meet our expectations. If our international expansion plans are unsuccessful, our results could be materially adversely affected.

Our ability to conduct business in international markets may be affected by legal, regulatory, political, and economic risks.

Our ability to capitalize on growth in new international markets and to maintain the current level of operations in our existing international markets is subject to legal, regulatory, political, and economic risks. These include:

- the burdens of complying with foreign laws and regulations, including trade and labor restrictions;

- compliance with U.S. and other country laws relating to foreign operations, including the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, which prohibits U.S. companies from making improper payments to foreign officials for the purpose of obtaining or retaining business;

- unexpected changes in regulatory requirements; and

- new tariffs or other barriers in some international markets.

We are also subject to general political and economic risks in connection with our international operations, including:

- political instability and terrorist attacks;

- differences in business culture;

- different laws governing relationships with employees and business partners;

- changes in diplomatic and trade relationships; and

- general economic fluctuations in specific countries or markets.

We cannot predict whether quotas, duties, taxes, or other similar restrictions will be imposed by the U.S. or foreign countries upon the import or export of our products in the future, or what effect any of these actions would have, if any, on our business, financial condition, or results of operations. Changes in regulatory, geopolitical, social or economic policies, and other factors may have a material adverse effect on our business in the future or may require us to exit a particular market or significantly modify our current business practices.

The Company's future success and growth through expansion of its international operations could be adversely affected by violations of the United States Foreign Corrupt Practices Act and similar world-wide anti-bribery laws.

The United States Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, and similar world-wide anti-bribery laws prohibit companies and their intermediaries from making improper payments to non-United States officials for the purpose of obtaining or retaining business. The Company's policies mandate compliance with anti-bribery laws. The Company cannot provide assurance that our internal control policies and procedures, or those of our vendors, will protect from reckless or criminal acts committed by the Company's employees, agents, or vendors. Violations of these laws, or allegations of such violations, could disrupt the business and result in a material adverse effect on the Company's financial condition, results of operations, and cash flows.
