Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The officers and directors of our company are indemnified as provided by the Colorado Business Corporations Act (the "CBCA"), the Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws of our company.

Under Article 7-109-102 of the CBCA, a corporation may indemnify an officer or director made a party to a proceeding because the person is or was a director against liability incurred in the proceeding if:

- (a) The person conducted himself or herself in good faith; and
 - (b) The person reasonably believed:
 - (i) In the case of conduct in an official capacity with the corporation, that his or her conduct was in the corporation's best interests; and
 - (ii) In all other cases, that his or her conduct was at least not opposed to the corporation's best interests; and
 - (c) In the case of any criminal proceeding, the person had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful.
- A corporation may not indemnify a director under the CBCA:

- (a) In connection with a proceeding by or in the right of the corporation in which the director was adjudged liable to the corporation; or
- (b) In connection with any other proceeding charging that the director derived an improper personal benefit, whether or not involving action in an official capacity, in which proceeding the director was adjudged liable on the basis that he or she derived an improper personal benefit.

Under the CBCA, a corporation may not indemnify a director under section 7-109-102 unless authorized in the specific case after a determination has been made that indemnification of the director is permissible in the circumstances because the director has met the standard of conduct set forth in section 7-109-102.

Under Article 7-109-103 of the CBCA, a corporation shall indemnify an officer or director who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any proceeding to which the person was a party because the person is or was a director, against reasonable expenses incurred by him or her in connection with the proceeding, unless limited by the corporation's articles of incorporation. Our articles of incorporation do not contain any such limitation.

Our articles of incorporation provide that we shall indemnify, to the maximum extent permitted by Colorado law, any person who is or was a director, officer, agent, fiduciary or employee of our company against any claim, liability or expense arising against or incurred by such person made party to a proceeding because he is or was a director, officer, agent, fiduciary or employee of the corporation or because he is or was serving another entity or employee benefit plan as a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, fiduciary or agent at our request. We shall further have the authority to the maximum extent permitted by Colorado law to purchase and maintain insurance providing such indemnification.

The Bylaws of our company provide that we shall indemnify any officer and director against reasonably incurred expenses (including attorneys fees), judgments, penalties, fines (including any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan) and amounts paid in settlement reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if it is determined in accordance with the Bylaws of our company that he conducted himself in good faith and that he reasonably believed (i) in the case of conduct in his official capacity with our company, that his conduct was in our best interests, or (ii) in all other cases (except criminal cases), that his conduct was at least not opposed to our best interest, or (iii) in the case of any criminal proceeding, that he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

No indemnification shall be made under our Bylaws to an officer or director with respect to any claim, issue or matter in connection with a proceeding by or in the right of a corporation in which the officer or director was adjudged liable to the corporation or in connection with any proceeding charging the officer or director derived an improper personal benefit, whether or not involving action in an official capacity, in which he was adjudged liable on the basis that he derived an improper personal benefit. Further, indemnification under the Bylaws in connection with a proceeding brought by or in the right of our company shall be limited to reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred in connection with the proceeding.

The Bylaws also provide that we shall indemnify any officer or director who was wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in defense of any action, suit, or proceeding as to which he was entitled to indemnification under the Bylaws against expenses (including attorneys' fees) reasonably incurred by him in connection with the proceeding without the necessity of any action by us other than the determination in good faith that the defense has been wholly successful.

Item 9. Undertakings.

We hereby undertakes:

- (1) (a) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration:
 - (1) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;
 - (2) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement; and
 - (3) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement;
Provided however, that that paragraphs (a) (1) and (2) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by us pursuant to section 13 or section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference herein.
 - (b) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
 - (c) To remove from registration by means of post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
- (2) We hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of our annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at the time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
 - (3) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of our company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, we have been advised that in the opinion of the SEC such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by our company of expenses incurred or paid by the director, officer or controlling person of our company in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, we will, unless in the opinion of the counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to the appropriate jurisdiction the question of whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
