NOTE B - INTERIM REPORTING

Interim Reporting

-----

While the information presented in the accompanying interim three and nine months financial statements is unaudited, it includes all adjustments, which are, in the opinion of management, necessary to present fairly the financial position, results of operations and cash flows for the interim periods presented in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. These interim financial statements follow the same accounting policies and methods of their application as the December 31, 2006 audited annual financial statements of Enviro Voraxial Technology, Inc. All adjustments are of a normal recurring nature. It is suggested that these interim financial statements be read in conjunction with the Company's audited December 31, 2006 annual financial statements.

NOTE C - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Revenue recognition

The Company derives its revenue from the sale and short-term rental of the Voraxial (R) Separator. The Company presents revenue in accordance with Staff Accounting Bulletin (SAB) No. 104 "Revenue Recognition in Financial Statements". Under SAB 104, revenue is realized when persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, delivery has occurred, the price is fixed or determinable and collectibility is reasonably assured.

Revenues that are generated from sales of equipment are typically recognized upon shipment. Our standard agreements generally do not include customer acceptance or post shipment installation provisions. However, if such provisions have been included or there is an uncertainty about customer acceptance, revenue

ENVIRO VORAXIAL TECHNOLOGY, INC.
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
March 31, 2007

is deferred until we have evidence of customer acceptance and all terms of the agreement have been complied with. There were no agreements with such provisions as of June 30, 2007.

The Company recognizes revenue from the short term rental of equipment, ratably over the life of the agreement, which is usually three to six months.

Net Loss Per Share

Basic and diluted loss per share has been computed by dividing the net loss available to common stockholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. The warrants and stock options have been excluded from the calculation since they would be anti-dilutive.

Such equity instruments may have a dilutive effect in the future and include the following potential common shares:

The warrants now expire in February 2008. The purchase price of the stock under these warrants ranges from $6.00 - $9.00 per share. The Company calculated the fair value of the extended warrants by using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following weighted average assumptions: no dividend yield for all the years; expected volatility of 25%; risk-free interest rate of 5% and an expected life of five years. Based on the above, the options were not considered to have a fair value associated with them.

Revenue

Our revenues were $53,631 for the three months ended March 31, 2007 as compared to $22,164 for the three months ended March 31, 2006. The $31,467 or 141% increase is due to additional rental income from the Voraxial(R) Separator and related equipment during 2007 as compared to 2006. The Company is currently leasing the Voraxial(R) Separator for a specific project to a customer in the oil industry. In addition, we rent our Voraxial(R) Separator to potential clients for trials. Favorable trial results may lead to purchase orders in the future. The Company continues to focus on its sales and marketing program for the Voraxial(R) Separator and management believes such efforts will result in increasing revenues in 2007.

Cost of Goods Sold

Our cost of goods sold increased to $11,686 for the three months ended March 31, 2007 as compared to $4,778 for the three months ended March 31, 2006, an increase of $6,908, which is a directly related to the increase in revenues reflected above.

Research and Development Expenses

Research and Development expenses decreased by 43% to $82,595 for the three months ended March 31, 2007, as compared to $145,696 for the previous three months ended March 31, 2006. Although the Company has finalized the development of the Voraxial(R) Separator, we targeted expenditures for specific applications for the technology within the oil industry during the three months ended March 31, 2007.

General and Administrative Expenses

General and Administrative expenses increased to $1,086,494 for the three months ended March 31, 2007 from $88,409 for the three months ended March 31, 2006. The increase was primarily due to (i) non cash expenses relating to the issuance of options to employees and consultants; (ii) consulting fees; and (iii) increased professional fees. We continue to focus our efforts on marketing of the Voraxial(R) Separator.

Liquidity and Capital Resources:

Cash at March 31, 2007 was $225,235. Working capital at March 31, 2007 was $50,194 as compared to a working capital deficit at December 31, 2006 of approximately $1,822.

At March 31, 2007 the Company had an accumulated deficit of $7,085,180. We anticipate generating positive cash flow from the Voraxial(R) Separator by the end of 2007. To the extent such revenues and corresponding cash flows do not materialize, we will require infusion of capital to sustain our operations. We cannot be assured that we will generate revenues or that the level of any future revenues will be self-sustaining. Furthermore, we cannot provide any assurances that required capital will be obtained or that terms of such required capital may be acceptable to us.

The Company has funded working capital requirements and intends to fund current working capital requirements through third party financing, including the private placement of securities. However, the Company cannot provide any assurances that it will be able to obtain adequate financing. If the Company is unable to obtain adequate financing, it may reduce its operating activities until sufficient funding is secured or revenues are generated to support operating activities.

Continuing Losses

We may be unable to continue as a going concern, given our limited operations and revenues and our significant losses to date. Since 2001, we have encountered greater expenses in the development of our Voraxial(R) Separators and have had limited sales income from this development. Consequently, our working capital may not be sufficient and our operating costs may exceed those experienced in our prior years. In light of these recent developments, we may be unable to continue as a going concern. However, we believe that the exposure received in the past year for the Voraxial Separator has positioned the Company to begin generating sales and supply us with sufficient working capital. As a result of the above, the accompanying condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Company will continue as a going concern. The condensed consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.
