Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On October 7, 2005, Waddell & Reed Financial, Inc. (the Company) entered into a credit agreement with the lenders party thereto, JPMorgan Chase Bank, as Administrative Agent for the lenders and Bank of America, N.A., as Syndication Agent for the lenders (the Credit Agreement). The information regarding the Credit Agreement provided in Item 2.03 below is incorporated herein by reference.

The description of the borrowings described in this report does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Credit Agreement filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this report and incorporated herein by reference. The Credit Agreement has been included to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company. The Credit Agreement contains representations and warranties of the Company made to and solely for the benefit of the lenders. The statements embodied in the representations and warranties of the Company are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules that the Company provided in connection with signing the Credit Agreement. While the Company does not believe that the disclosure schedules contain information that the securities laws require to be publicly disclosed, the disclosure schedules do contain information that modifies, qualifies, and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the Credit Agreement. Accordingly, investors and security holders should not rely on the representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts, since they were only made as of the date of the Credit Agreement and are modified in important part by the underlying disclosure schedules. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Credit Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's public disclosures.

Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

Immediately prior to the Company entering into the $200 million credit agreement referenced in Item 2.03 below, the Company terminated its existing $200 million credit facility on October 7, 2005. The lending commitments under the prior credit facility were evidenced by a prior credit agreement, and were scheduled to expire on October 7, 2005.

Item 2.03 Creation of a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement of a Registrant.

General

The Credit Agreement provides for an unsecured $200 million revolving credit and competitive advance facility, which the lenders may, upon the Company's request, expand up to $300 million. The lending commitments under the Credit Agreement are scheduled to terminate on October 6, 2008. Upon the credit facility's termination, the Company must repay all outstanding loans under the credit facility.

The credit facility is available for general corporate purposes, including repurchases of the Company's Class A common stock and consummating permitted acquisitions. As of the date of this Report, there were no loans outstanding under the credit facility.

Interest and Fees

At the Company's election, loans under the credit facility will bear interest at one of the following options: (1) the alternative base rate which is the greater of (a) the effective prime rate announced by JPMorgan Chase Bank, or (b) the effective federal funds rate, plus 0.5%, (2) an adjusted LIBO rate, plus a margin of 0.295% to 0.825% (depending upon the Company's credit rating), (3) pursuant to the competitive bid features of the credit facility, the effective LIBO rate, plus a margin specified by the lender advancing the loan, or (4) pursuant to the competitive bid features of the credit facility, a fixed rate specified by the lender advancing the loan. The Company is required to pay accrued interest at established intervals, which is based upon the Company's elected interest period.

The Company pays a quarterly facility fee of .080% to 0.175% (depending upon the Company's credit rating) on the aggregate commitment of the credit facility, whether used or unused, plus an additional fee of 0.375% to 1%

(depending on the Company's credit rating), when facility is first drawn upon. The Company also pays a fee of 0.5% to 1.125% (depending on the Company's credit rating) when the facility is fully drawn upon.

The Company pays a utilization fee of 0.125% per annum for each day upon which the Company's borrowings exceed 50% of the amount committed under the credit facility.

Covenants and Events of Acceleration

The Credit Agreement contains customary covenants, including but not limited to, restrictions on the Company's ability, and in certain instances its subsidiaries' ability, to incur liens, make acquisitions, investments and capital expenditures, pay dividends, sell or transfer assets and stock, and enter into hedging agreements. The Credit Agreement also limits the Company's subsidiaries' ability to incur additional indebtedness. Additionally, the Company may not permit its consolidated leverage ratio to equal or exceed 3.0 to 1.0 or its consolidated interest coverage ratio to equal or be less than 4.0 to 1.0 during specified periods.

Upon the occurrence of certain events of default, the Company's obligations under the credit facility may be accelerated and the lending commitments under the credit facility terminated. Such events of default include payment defaults to the lenders, material inaccuracies of representations and warranties, covenant defaults, material payment defaults (other than under the credit facility), voluntary and involuntary bankruptcy proceedings, material money judgments, material ERISA events, change of control of the Company and other customary defaults.

Existing Relationships with Lenders

The Company has ongoing relationships with all of the lenders that are parties to the Credit Agreement for which they have received customary fees and expenses. Certain of the lenders provide commercial banking services, including custody and cash management services. The Company has also entered into an interest rate swap agreement with two of our lenders. Affiliates of certain of the lenders have also acted as underwriters for issuances of our senior notes and equity securities, and also provide various services to our affiliated mutual funds. JPMorgan Chase Bank also acts as trustee for the senior notes of the Company.

The description set forth in this Item 2.03 is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Credit Agreement filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Form 8-K. See also Item 1.01, which describes information set forth on disclosure schedules, which are omitted from this filing.
