- 6.75% Senior Secured Notes due 2014; and
- Five series of Pennsylvania Economic Development Financing Authority's outstanding Exempt Facilities Revenue Bonds (Reliant Energy Seward, LLC Project) (collectively, the Bonds):
- Series 2001A;

The expiration date has been extended to 5 p.m., EDT, on Friday, September 1, 2006, unless further extended or the consent solicitation is terminated by Reliant Energy.

The new terms include an increase in the consent fee payable in connection with the consent solicitation from $1.25 to $2.50 for each $1,000 in principal amount of Notes or Bonds for which a consent is validly delivered and not revoked. The Company will cause the consent fee to be paid, promptly after the expiration of the consent solicitation and the satisfaction or waiver of all conditions to the consent (as set forth in the consent solicitation statement described below) applicable to a series of Notes or Bonds, to each holder of Notes or Bonds of such series who has delivered (and has not revoked) a valid consent prior to the expiration of the consent solicitation.

In addition to the increase in the consent fee, the new terms include changes to certain of the proposed amendments to the indentures governing the Notes and the guarantee agreements governing Reliant Energy's guarantees of the Bonds, as well as other changes to the terms of the consent solicitation. The new terms of the consent solicitation are set forth in a supplement dated August 28, 2006 (the Supplement) to the consent solicitation statement dated July 26, 2006 (the Consent Solicitation Statement). Except as set forth in the Supplement, all terms and conditions of the consent solicitation as set forth in the Consent Solicitation Statement are unchanged and remain in full force and effect.

The amendments to the terms of the consent solicitation are contained in a supplement dated August 28, 2006 to the consent solicitation statement dated July 26, 2006. The supplement is included with this Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENTS REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION

This Form 8-K contains forward-looking statements within meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Act of 1934. Forward-looking statements are statements that contain projections, estimates or assumptions about our revenues, income and other financial items, our plans for the future, future economic performance, transactions and dispositions and financings related thereto. Forward-looking statements relate to future events and anticipated revenues, earnings, business strategies, competitive position or other aspects of our operations or operating results. In many cases you can identify forward-looking statements by terminology such as anticipate, estimate, believe, continue, could, intend, may, plan, potential, predict, should, will, expect, objective, projection, outlook, effort, target and other similar words. However, the absence of these words does not mean that the statements are not forward-looking.

We have based our forward-looking statements on management's beliefs and assumptions based on information available to management at the time the statements are made. Actual results may differ materially from those expressed or implied by forward-looking statements as a result of many factors or events, including the ongoing negotiation of the retail credit structure, legislative and regulatory developments, the effects of competition, financial market conditions, the timing and extent of changes in commodity prices and interest rates, weather conditions, changes in our business plan and other factors we discuss in our other filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the discussions under Risk Factors and Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operation in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005.

Each forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date of the particular statement and we undertake no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
