Item 8.01. Other Events	mem o.vi	. Ouier	Events
-------------------------	----------	---------	---------------

On January 8, 2009, a judgment was entered by the District Court of Tulsa County, Oklahoma in the matter captioned H.B. Krug, et al v. Helmerich & Payne, Inc. This judgment, totaling $126.368 million included $6.845 million of actual damages and an additional $119.523 million of profits Helmerich & Payne, Inc. (H&P) allegedly earned on the $6.845 million.

Although H&P is identified in the caption of this litigation, H&P does not believe that it will incur any damages with respect to such litigation since H&P is indemnified for these damages by Cimarex Energy Co. (Cimarex). The Krug litigation relates to the exploration and production (E&P) business that was separated from H&P pursuant to a spin-off transaction consummated in 2002. In connection with the spin-off, H&P and Cimarex entered into a Distribution Agreement pursuant to which Cimarex (i) assumed all of the assets and liabilities relating to the E&P business and (ii) indemnified H&P for E&P-related liabilities, including the Krug litigation. Since that time, and in accordance with the Distribution Agreement, Cimarex has assumed and conducted the defense of the Krug litigation.

Cimarex will appeal the Tulsa County District Court s judgment.
