CF INDUSTRIES BRINGS LAWSUIT TO COMPEL TERRA INDUSTRIES TO HOLD ITS ANNUAL MEETING PROMPTLY

DEERFIELD, IL, August 31, 2009 CF Industries Holdings, Inc. (NYSE: CF) today announced that it has commenced litigation in Maryland to compel Terra Industries Inc. (NYSE: TRA) to hold its annual meeting promptly. CF Industries also announced that its exchange offer for all of the outstanding shares of Terra has expired and is not being extended.

We believe that Terra is legally required to hold its annual meeting promptly. Under Maryland law, annual meetings must be held on an annual basis, and Terra s last annual meeting was nearly 16 months ago, said Stephen R. Wilson, chairman, president and chief executive officer of CF Industries. We look forward to Terra stockholders having the opportunity to show their support for our proposed business combination by voting for CF Industries nominees at Terra s annual meeting. Our proposal provides an exchange ratio premium of more than 35%, as well as real and substantial synergies.

Wilson continued, Terra s annual meeting has always been the key event for CF Industries to advance its proposal for a business combination, and we are confident Terra stockholders will show their support. Given that the Terra board has rejected our proposal and the exchange offer could not be consummated without Terra board approval, we do not see any purpose in continuing to extend the exchange offer.

Morgan Stanley and Rothschild are acting as financial advisors and Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP is acting as legal counsel to CF Industries.
