Item 1.01          Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On November 18, 2010, the Board of Directors (the Board ) of Semtech Corporation (the Company ) approved the adoption of a form of Amended and Restated Indemnification Agreement for directors and executive officers of the Company and its subsidiaries (the Indemnification Agreement ).

The Indemnification Agreement requires the Company, to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law, and subject to certain exceptions specified in the Indemnification Agreement, to indemnify the director or officer party thereto (the Indemnitee ), if the Indemnitee is a party to or threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any Proceeding (as defined in the Indemnification Agreement) by reason of (or arising in part out of) any event or occurrence related to the fact that the Indemnitee (i) is or was or has agreed to become a director of the Company, or (ii) is or was an officer, employee, agent or fiduciary of the Company or any of its wholly-owned subsidiaries, or (iii) is or was serving at the request of the Company as an officer, employee, agent or fiduciary of another entity, against all Expenses and Losses (each as defined in the Indemnification Agreement), reasonably incurred by the Indemnitee, or on Indemnitee's behalf, in connection with such Proceeding. In the event of a change in control transaction which results in members of the Board in office immediately prior to such transaction constituting less than a majority of the Board thereafter, the Company will obtain substantially equivalent directors and officers liability insurance covering a six-year period following the transaction. Indemnification and the advancement of expenses are subject to certain terms and conditions described in the Indemnification Agreement.

This summary of the Indemnification Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the form of Indemnification Agreement filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto.
