Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Departure of John R. Serino as President, Chief Executive Officer and a Director

On August 22, 2011, the Company announced that John R. Serino will resign, effective as of September 16, 2011, as the President, Chief Executive Officer and a Director of the Company. Mr. Serino is not resigning because of a disagreement with the Company or on any matter relating to its operations, policies or practices. Mr. Serino will be entitled to severance and certain other benefits as provided for by a separation agreement entered into between the Company and Mr. Serino, conditioned upon compliance with the requirements of such agreement by Mr. Serino.

Appointment of Fred Perner as President and Chief Executive Officer

On August 22, 2011, the Company announced that Fred Perner will be appointed as President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company commencing September 19, 2011 (the "Start Date").

Fred Perner, age 57, has over 30 years of experience in healthcare, including sales and marketing experience in electrosurgery and endoscopy technologies. He joins the Company from the Association of periOperative Registered Nurses (AORN), a professional association representing 40,000 perioperative nurses. During the past three years, Perner served as AORN's Vice President, Segments and Business Development. Previously, he served as Global Education Leader and Solution Leader at GE Healthcare, a division of General Electric Company, from 2006 to 2008. From 2000 to 2006, he served as Senior Vice President and Chief Compliance Officer with HealthStream, Inc., a leading provider of learning and research solutions for the healthcare industry. Previously, for twelve years, he served in a number of sales and marketing roles with increasing responsibilities at Zimmer, Inc., which designs, develops, manufactures and markets orthopedic reconstructive, spinal and trauma devices, dental implants, and related surgical products. Mr. Perner holds B.S. and M.B.A. degrees from Indiana University and a law degree from the University of Denver.

The Company entered into the Employment Agreement with Mr. Perner on August 19, 2011. The Employment Agreement has an initial three-year term. Thereafter, the term automatically renews for additional one-year periods unless either party gives prior written notice that it does not wish to automatically renew the term. The Employment Agreement provides that Mr. Perner will receive an annual base salary of $205,000 ("Base Salary"). Mr. Perner will be entitled to receive a special cash bonus in the event that the Company is acquired during the next five years at a price for the Company's common stock of $10.00 per share or more. In the event of such an acquisition, Mr. Perner shall be entitled to a bonus amount equal to (i) such per share price, (ii) minus the Company's per share price on the Start Date, (iii) multiplied by 37,500.

Edgar Filing: ENCISION INC - Form 8-K

Mr. Perner will be eligible to participate in the Company's bonus programs for executive and non-executive officers, and receive bonuses thereunder as determined in the discretion of the Company's Board of Directors ( " Board "). In addition, the Employment Agreement provides that Mr. Perner is eligible to participate in the Company's standard benefit plans and programs.

As provided in the Employment Agreement, Mr. Perner will be granted stock options to purchase 200,000 shares of the Company's common stock (the " CEO Options "). The CEO Options vest over the five year period following the Start Date. The CEO options will have an initial per share exercise price equal to the Company's trading price on the Start Date. The vesting of the CEO Options will accelerate in the event of certain acquisition transactions involving the Company.

Under the Employment Agreement, if the Company terminates Mr. Perner without cause or Mr. Perner resigns for good reason, Mr. Perner will be entitled to receive a severance amount (ranging from zero to one times his Base Salary) based upon the length of time Mr. Perner was employed by the Company prior to the termination. Such severance will be paid out ratably over the twelve months following the termination. No severance will be paid if the term of the Employment Agreement expires or is not renewed. If the Company has two consecutive quarters (beginning with the quarter starting October 1, 2012) with a reported net loss (excluding extraordinary items), Mr. Perner may be terminated without any severance obligation.

The Employment Agreement requires Mr. Perner to maintain the confidentiality of the Company's proprietary information. The Employment Agreement also includes typical non-competition and non-solicitation provisions that Mr. Perner must comply with for a period of one year after termination of his employment with the Company.
