Section 5 Corporate Governance and Management

Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws.

On January 25, 2018, the Board of Directors of Hilltop Holdings Inc., or the Company, amended and restated the Company's bylaws to, among other things, address recent developments in corporate governance and to make certain other technical, conforming and clarifying changes. Among the changes effected by the amendment and restatement are the following:

- a reduction in the maximum number of directors of the Company from 21 to 20;
- the addition of a provision providing stockholders the right to amend the Company's bylaws by unanimous written consent;
- the reduction in the ownership threshold required to call a special meeting of the stockholders with respect to any matter from a majority of all the votes entitled to be cast on such matter at such meeting to 15% of all the votes entitled to be cast on such matter at such meeting;
- the addition of a requirement that stockholders seeking to call a special meeting must have continuously held the required ownership threshold for a period of one year as of the record date fixed to determine who may call such special meeting;
- the expansion of information required to be provided by stockholders calling a special meeting;
- the addition of restrictions on the ability for stockholders to call multiple special meetings relating to a similar item;
- clarifications to the advance notice deadline for stockholder proposals to be brought at any annual or special meeting of stockholders;
- clarifications to the provision governing when annual and regular meetings of the Board of Directors of the Company may be held;
- clarifications to the provision governing compensation of directors;
- clarifications to the provisions governing officers of the Company;
- clarifications to the provisions governing indemnification by the Company, including the advancement of expenses and the procedure for making indemnification claims and Company determinations with respect to such indemnification; and
- the addition of an provision designating any state court located in the State of Maryland (or if no state court located within the State of Maryland has jurisdiction, the federal district court for the District of Maryland) as the exclusive forum for certain legal actions unless the Company consents in writing to the selection of an alternative forum.

The foregoing summary does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Company's Third Amended and Restated Bylaws, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 3.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated herein by reference.
