PART III -- NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On May 16, 2006, a third party published a report in which it reviewed certain stock option grants, available from the public domain, of approximately 100 public companies. It then indicated that more than 30 of these companies appeared to be at risk of having backdated various stock option grants. We are one of the companies so identified with respect to four option grants, two in 1997 and one each in 1999 and 2002. Shortly after the publishing of this third party report, on May 18, 2006, we received a letter from the United States Securities and Exchange Commission requesting our voluntary submission of documents and records regarding certain of our stock option grants since 1997. We are complying with this request from the SEC and intend to cooperate fully with this inquiry. We are also conducting our own internal review of these stock option grants.

Due to the volume of data subject to this ongoing internal review, we have been unable to complete and file by the prescribed due date our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended April 30, 2006. We are working diligently to file our Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q by the fifth calendar day following the required filing date as permitted by Rule 12b-25.
