(1) This Registration Statement relates to 1,232,340 shares of common stock of the Registrant issuable to holders of common stock of Sierra Vista Bank in the proposed merger of Sierra Vista Bank with and into Central Valley Community Bank, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Registrant. Assuming exercise, prior to the merger, of those outstanding warrants and options to purchase shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock whose exercise prices are less than $5.20 per share, Sierra Vista Bank would have outstanding 4,903,210 shares of common stock at the time of the merger. In addition, Central Valley Community Bancorp is registering an additional 184,851 shares of its common stock (15% above the expected maximum) to be available for issuance if the trading price of Central Valley Community Bancorp stock materially underperforms immediately prior to the closing of the merger, and the parties proceed with the merger based on Central Valley Community Bancorp including additional shares as merger consideration. Pursuant to SEC Rule 457(f), the registration fee was computed on the basis of the book value of the common stock of Sierra Vista Bank as of the latest practicable date prior to the date of filing this registration statement (including the proceeds from exercise of warrants and options to achieve the maximum 4,903,210 outstanding shares), net of the estimated maximum cash merger consideration of $10,708,611 to be paid by Registrant to Sierra Vista Bank shareholders. So calculated, the aggregate offering price for the maximum 1,417,191 shares of common stock of the Registrant registered hereunder would be $8,945,364.00.

(2) Estimated for the purpose of calculating the registration fee required by Section 6(b) of the Securities Act and computed pursuant to Rule 457, based on a rate of $100.70 per $1,000,000 of the proposed maximum aggregate offering price.

The registrant hereby amends this Registration Statement on such date or dates as may be necessary to delay its effective date until the registrant shall file a further amendment which specifically states that this Registration Statement shall thereafter become effective in accordance with Section 8(a) of the Securities Act of 1933 or until the Registration Statement becomes effective on such date as the Commission, acting pursuant to said Section 8(a), may determine.

Proxy Statement-Prospectus

Sierra Vista Bank, Central Valley Community Bancorp and Central Valley Community Bank (“CVC Bank”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Central Valley Community Bancorp, entered into a merger agreement on April 28, 2016 (the “Signing Date”). The merger agreement provides that Sierra Vista Bank will merge with and into CVC Bank, with CVC Bank being the surviving bank in the merger. A copy of that agreement is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement-prospectus.

In the merger, each share of common stock of Sierra Vista Bank will be converted into merger consideration to be paid in cash, shares of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock (“CVCY Shares”), or a combination of cash and CVCY Shares. The estimated value of the merger consideration is subject to potential adjustment depending on the average closing prices of CVCY Shares prior to closing and the value of Sierra Vista Bank’s shareholders equity account on the final day of the month before the closing. The various potential adjustments to the merger consideration are described in the section of this proxy statement-prospectus entitled “The Merger—Calculation of Consideration to be Paid to Sierra Vista Bank Shareholders.” In addition, the market value of the merger consideration will fluctuate with the market price of the common stock of Central Valley Community Bancorp and will not be known at the time you vote on the merger. At the Signing Date, the estimated value per share of Sierra Vista Bank common stock was $5.20, based on a price of $12.00 per CVCY Share in the merger agreement. On August 1, 2016, the closing share price of the common stock of Central Valley Community Bancorp was $15.34 per share as reported on the NASDAQ Capital Market; the approximate implied value of merger consideration per share of Sierra Vista Bank common stock would have been $6.04 (an aggregate merger consideration value of approximately $26,052,000). However, because of the material over-performance of the CVCY Share price since the Signing Date, the merger agreement would have given Central Valley Community Bancorp the right to terminate the merger unless Sierra Vista Bank accepted a reduction to merger consideration, which would have made the August 1, 2016 approximate implied value of merger consideration per share of Sierra Vista Bank common stock $5.87 (an aggregate merger consideration value of approximately $25,336,000).

We are sending you this proxy statement-prospectus to notify you of, and to invite you to, a special shareholders’ meeting for the purpose of approving the merger transaction. The special meeting of Sierra Vista Bank shareholders will be held at 3:30 p.m. on Thursday, September 1, 2016 at the Granite Bay Country Club, 9600 Golf Club Dr., Granite Bay, California.

We cannot complete the merger unless the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock approve the merger agreement. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, please take the time to vote by completing and mailing the enclosed proxy card to Sierra Vista Bank. If you sign, date and mail your proxy card without indicating how you want to vote, your proxy will be counted as a vote “FOR” the proposal to adopt and approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. If you do not return your proxy card, abstain from voting or do not instruct your broker how to vote any shares held for you in “street name,” the effect will be a vote “AGAINST” such proposal.

The Board of Directors of Sierra Vista Bank recommends that you vote “FOR” approval of the merger and the merger agreement.

Central Valley Community Bancorp’s common stock is quoted on the NASDAQ Capital Market, under the symbol “CVCY.”

Please read the section entitled “Risk Factors” beginning on page 14 for a discussion of certain factors that you should consider when deciding on how to vote on the merger.

None of the Securities and Exchange Commission, the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, California Department of Business Oversight or any state securities regulators or any other banking regulatory agency have approved the Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock to be issued in the merger, nor have they determined if this proxy statement-prospectus is accurate or adequate. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

Notice of Special Meeting of Shareholders
Thursday, September 1, 2016

To: The Shareholders of Sierra Vista Bank

Notice is hereby given that, pursuant to its bylaws and the call of its Board of Directors, the special meeting of shareholders of Sierra Vista Bank will be held at the Granite Bay Country Club, 9600 Golf Club Dr., Granite Bay, California on Thursday, September 1, 2016 at 3:30 p.m., for the purpose of considering and voting upon the following matters:

1. Approval of the Merger Agreement and Merger. To approve the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger dated April 28, 2016 (the "Signing Date") attached as Appendix A to the proxy statement-prospectus, providing for the merger of Sierra Vista Bank with and into Central Valley Community Bank, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Central Valley Community Bancorp, and the transactions contemplated by that merger agreement.
2. Adjournment. To approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to permit further solicitation of proxies in favor of the merger proposal, which is referred to as the adjournment proposal.

The Board of Directors of Sierra Vista Bank has fixed the close of business on July 18, 2016 as the record date for determining the shareholders entitled to notice of, and the right to vote at, the special meeting of shareholders.

The merger is more fully described in this proxy statement-prospectus and in the merger agreement. The affirmative vote of shareholders holding at least a majority of the outstanding common stock of Sierra Vista Bank as of the record date is required to approve the merger and merger agreement. The affirmative vote of shareholders represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting is required to approve the adjournment proposal.

The directors and executive officers of Sierra Vista Bank and certain principal shareholders owning an aggregate of 43.7% of the common stock as of July 18, 2016 have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the merger. These shareholders also may exercise warrants or options prior to the record date for the special meeting that would have the result of ensuring approval of the merger.

The merger agreement sets forth the terms of the merger of Sierra Vista Bank into Central Valley Community Bank. Subject to the limitations in the merger agreement, all holders of Sierra Vista Bank common stock will be entitled to elect whether to receive merger consideration in the form of cash, newly issued shares of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock, or a combination thereof, in exchange for their common shares of Sierra Vista Bank.

You are urged to vote in favor of the merger proposal and adjournment proposal by signing and returning the enclosed proxy as promptly as possible, whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting of shareholders in person. If you submit a proxy and then decide to attend the meeting in person, you need not vote at the meeting unless you wish to change your proxy voting instructions. The proxy may be revoked at any time prior to its exercise.

By Order of the Board of Directors

Dated: August 4, 2016 G. Eric Northman, Corporate Secretary

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

This question and answer summary highlights selected information contained in other sections of this proxy statement-prospectus. To understand the merger more fully, you should carefully read this entire proxy statement-prospectus, including all appendices and financial statements. References in this Q&A section to “you” and “your” refer to holders of common stock of Sierra Vista Bank who are being asked to cast votes on the matters described herein.

Q: What am I being asked to vote on?

A: You are being asked to vote on a merger agreement which provides for the merger of Sierra Vista Bank with and into Central Valley Community Bank (“CVC Bank”), a wholly owned subsidiary of Central Valley Community Bancorp.

You are urged to vote in favor of the merger by signing and returning the enclosed proxy as promptly as possible, whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting of shareholders in person. If you submit a proxy and then decide to attend the meeting in person, you need not vote at the meeting unless you wish to change your proxy voting instructions. The proxy may be revoked at any time prior to its exercise.

Q: Who is eligible to vote?

A: Holders of Sierra Vista Bank common stock are eligible to vote their shares at the Sierra Vista Bank special meeting of shareholders if they were holders of record of those shares at the close of business on July 18, 2016 (the “record date”).

Q: What is the vote needed for approval of the merger agreement?

A: Approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of shareholders holding at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Sierra Vista Bank as of the record date. A majority vote would require the affirmative vote of at least 2,161,335 shares of the 4,322,669 shares of common stock outstanding as of the record date. The directors and executive officers of Sierra Vista Bank and certain principal shareholders owning an aggregate of 43.7% of the common stock outstanding as of July 18, 2016 have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the merger.

Q: What is the effect, and vote needed for approval, of the adjournment proposal?

A: The adjournment proposal would approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to permit further solicitation of proxies in favor of the merger proposal. The affirmative vote of shareholders represented in person or by proxy at the special meeting is required to approve the adjournment proposal.

Q: What will happen if Sierra Vista Bank shareholders approve the merger?

A: If the Sierra Vista Bank shareholders approve the merger, and other conditions set forth in the merger agreement are fulfilled, Sierra Vista Bank will merge with and into CVC Bank. Sierra Vista Bank will cease to exist as a separate entity. Branch offices of Sierra Vista Bank will become branch offices of CVC Bank.

The directors and executive officers of Sierra Vista Bank and certain principal shareholders owning an aggregate of 43.7% of the common stock outstanding as of July 18, 2016 have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the merger. These shareholders also may exercise warrants or options prior to the record date for the special meeting that would have the result of ensuring approval of the merger. Any unexercised warrants or options held by these individuals as of the record date will not be eligible to vote with respect to the merger, but shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock purchased upon exercise of those warrants or options would be entitled to receive the merger consideration described herein.

Q: What will I receive in exchange for my Sierra Vista Bank shares in the merger?

A: Under the merger agreement, each Sierra Vista Bank share will be exchanged for merger consideration to be paid in the form of cash, newly issued shares of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock (“CVCY Shares”) or a mix of cash and CVCY Shares. Under the merger agreement, the ratio of cash and CVCY Shares constituting the aggregate merger consideration is fixed, at 42% cash and 58% CVCY Shares (calculated at $12.00 per CVCY Share under the merger agreement). Recent trading prices for CVCY Shares are higher than the $12.00 per share price used in the merger agreement. However, since the proportions of the aggregate cash and CVCY Share merger consideration are fixed under the merger agreement, Sierra Vista Bank shareholders who elect to receive all CVCY Share merger consideration may instead receive an allocation of CVCY Shares and a portion in cash. See the discussion of the allocation process at “The Merger—Merger Consideration—Election of Form of Payment.”

The estimated value of the merger consideration is subject to potential adjustment depending on the average closing prices of CVCY Shares prior to closing and the value of Sierra Vista Bank’s shareholders equity account on the final day of the month before the closing.

If the value of Sierra Vista Bank’s shareholders’ equity account is less than $18,050,000 on the final day of the month before the Closing (“Closing SVB shareholders’ equity”), any shortfall will be deducted from the amount of the Total Merger Consideration. On June 30, 2016, the Sierra Vista Bank shareholders’ equity account stood at approximately $18,279,439, after taking into account adjustments under the merger agreement consisting of (a) subtracting $149,250 for the exercise, at $2.00 per share, of 74,625 warrants to purchase Sierra Vista Bank common stock, and $53,318 of Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income, and (b) adding $70,947 of merger expenses. Under the merger agreement, the following will all be excluded in calculating the Closing SVB shareholders' equity: (1) specified gains or losses in the value of the Sierra Vista Bank securities portfolio occurring after April 28, 2016, (2) specified merger expenses up to $2,350,000, (3) amounts paid to terminate in-the-money warrants and options to purchase Sierra Vista Bank common stock in accordance with the merger agreement, (4) increases in shareholders' equity arising from the exercise of warrants or options to purchase Sierra Vista Bank common stock that were outstanding on April 28, 2016, and (5) adjustments to Sierra Vista Bank's account values made at the request of Central Valley Community Bancorp to make accounting for those accounts consistent with the accounting used by Central Valley Community Bancorp. The parties are not currently aware of any additional adjustments that should be made to the SVB shareholders' equity.

Under the merger agreement, it is also possible that the merger consideration could be adjusted by a date that is within 10 days of the expected Closing date for the merger, if the trading price of the CVCY Shares both materially changes and materially outperforms or underperforms the NASDAQ Bank Index. Such adjustments would be calculated on the later of (a) the date following the date of the special meeting of Sierra Vista Bank shareholders or (b) 10 days prior to the expected Closing date (the "Determination Date") in the following circumstances:

Material Underperformance, Sierra Vista Bank shall have the right to terminate the merger if (i) the 20-day volume-weighted average trading price of the CVCY Shares (the "Lower Determination Date Price") is less than $10.20 and (ii) the percentage decline in the price of a CVCY Share from $12.00 exceeds by 15% the percentage decline in the 20-day closing price of the NASDAQ Bank Index between the Signing Date and the Determination Date; provided, however, that Sierra Vista Bank may not terminate the merger agreement if Central Valley Community Bancorp elects to increase the aggregate merger consideration (in cash and/or stock as determined by Central Valley Community Bancorp) to make up the difference as calculated under the merger agreement.

Material Overperformance, Under the merger agreement, Central Valley Community Bancorp has the right to terminate the merger (an "Over-Performance Termination") if:

(i) the volume-weighted average price of the CVCY Shares on NASDAQ for the 20 consecutive trading dates ending on and including the Determination Date is greater than $13.80 (which is 115% of the $12.00 negotiated price of a CVCY Share on the Agreement Date), and

(ii) the volume-weighted average price of the CVCY Shares for the 20 consecutive trading dates ending on and including the Determination Date is such that the CVCY Shares have outperformed the NASDAQ Bank Index by more than 15% since the 20 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date of the merger agreement.

However, Sierra Vista Bank can prevent an Over-Performance Termination by accepting an adjustment to the aggregate merger consideration that reduces the otherwise-payable aggregate merger consideration by an amount equal to number of CVCY Shares included in the aggregate merger consideration (prior to any such adjustment) multiplied by the lesser of (1) the amount by which the volume-weighted average price of the CVCY Shares exceeds $13.80 or (2) the amount by which the volume-weighted average price of the CVCY Shares exceeds the product of 115% of the percentage change in the 20-day average closing price of the NASDAQ Bank Index since the Signing Date multiplied by $12.00. Central Valley Community Bancorp would determine whether the adjusted aggregate merger consideration would be in the form of CVCY Shares, cash, or any combination of CVCY Shares and cash, provided that the adjustment does not result in an aggregate amount of cash that would prevent the merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

On August 1, 2016, the latest practicable date prior to the date of filing this proxy statement-prospectus, the 20-day volume-weighted average price of the CVCY Shares was $14.84, which is greater than $13.80 and represents a 20.4% increase relative to the change in the 20-day average closing price of the NASDAQ Bank Index since the Agreement Date. As a result, Central Valley Community Bancorp would have had the right to terminate the merger agreement if the Determination Date were August 1, 2016. However, Sierra Vista Bank would have had the right under the merger agreement to prevent Central Valley Community Bancorp from terminating the merger agreement, by agreeing to reduce the otherwise payable aggregate merger consideration by approximately $716 thousand. As a result of this adjustment and based on the actual closing price of $15.34 per CVCY Share on August 1, 2016 and without any other adjustments, the implied per share value of the merger consideration received by Sierra Vista Bank shareholders would have been reduced from $6.04 to $5.87, compared to the merger agreement's negotiated value per share of $5.20, which assumed a value of $12.00 per CVCY Share.

If the merger agreement and merger are approved by the Sierra Vista Bank shareholders at the special shareholders meeting, the Sierra Vista Bank Board would regard such approval as including approval of the board's authority to accept a reduction in the aggregate merger consideration in order to prevent termination of the merger in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement. The Sierra Vista Bank Board would not re-solicit shareholder approval of the transaction if Central Valley Community Bancorp elected to exercise its termination right in these circumstances.

Therefore, by voting to approve the merger agreement and the merger, shareholders will also be authorizing adjustments in the aggregate merger consideration in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

Central Valley Community Bancorp has not advised Sierra Vista Bank whether it would terminate the merger agreement under these circumstances. Further, the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors has not decided whether it would elect to allow Central Valley Community Bancorp to terminate the merger agreement or proceed with an adjustment in the aggregate merger consideration in these circumstances. In deciding whether to prevent an Over-Performance Termination, Sierra Vista Bank's board of directors would be obligated to act in good faith and with due care. In making such a decision, Sierra Vista Bank's board of directors would consult with its financial advisor and legal counsel. Among other things, Sierra Vista Bank's board of directors would consider whether the adjusted merger consideration fairly reflects the board of directors' view of Sierra Vista Bank's value; the total value of the adjusted merger consideration, including after giving effect to any other adjustments; whether and the extent to which Sierra Vista Bank's board of directors believed CVCY Shares would increase or decrease in value after the completion of the merger; Central Valley Community Bancorp's prospects generally; Sierra Vista Bank's prospects on a stand-alone basis compared to the aggregate value of the merger consideration; the likelihood that Sierra Vista Bank could enter into, and consummate, an alternative transaction of equal or superior value within an appropriate period of time; and various macro-economic conditions and factors.

The meeting of Sierra Vista Bank shareholders, at which shareholders will vote to approve the merger and the merger agreement, is set for September 1, 2016. The Closing is expected to occur on or about October 1, 2016.

Additional discussion of factors that may affect the actual value of the merger consideration paid per share to any Sierra Vista Bank shareholder is set out in this proxy statement-prospectus in the section "The Merger—Calculation of Consideration to be Paid to Sierra Vista Bank Shareholders"; "The Merger—Adjustments to Merger Consideration"; and "The Merger—Election of Form of Payment."

Subject to availability, you will be able to elect to receive (a) cash, (b) CVCY Shares, or (c) a combination of cash and CVCY Shares in exchange for your Sierra Vista Bank shares. The form of merger consideration you receive will depend upon the factors described in the section "The Merger—Merger Consideration—Election of Form of Payment."

IMPORTANT NOTE: Casting your shareholder vote regarding the merger and making your election on the form of merger consideration you would prefer (cash, CVCY Shares, or a combination) are separate actions. Separate materials and envelopes are provided with this proxy statement-prospectus for taking each action.

Q: How does a Sierra Vista Bank shareholder elect the form of merger consideration he or she prefers to receive?

A: An election form with instructions for making the election as to the form of consideration has been mailed to all Sierra Vista Bank shareholders as of the record date. To make an election, a Sierra Vista Bank shareholder must submit an election form, to Central Valley Community Bancorp's exchange agent before 5:00 p.m., Pacific Time, on the later to occur of September 2, 2016, which is the date following Sierra Vista Bank's shareholder meeting, and the date that that is the 10th business day prior to the completion of the merger. This date is referred to as the "election deadline." Election choices and election procedures are described under the section entitled "The Merger—Merger Consideration—Election of Form of Payment."

Q: May a Sierra Vista Bank shareholder change his or her election once it has been submitted?

A: Yes. An election may be changed so long as the new election is received by the exchange agent prior to the election deadline. To change an election, an Sierra Vista Bank shareholder must send the exchange agent a written notice revoking any election previously submitted.

Q: How will a Sierra Vista Bank shareholder know when the election deadline is?

A: The actual election deadline is not currently known. Central Valley Community Bancorp and Sierra Vista Bank will issue a press release announcing the date of the election deadline at least five business days before that deadline. See "The Merger—Merger Consideration—Election of Form of Payment."

Q: How are outstanding Sierra Vista Bank stock options and warrants addressed in the merger agreement?

A: The holders of options and warrants to purchase Sierra Vista Bank common stock will have the ability to participate in the merger, whether or not the options or warrants are exercised. If the warrants or options are exercised prior to the record date for the special meeting, the shares that are issued will be eligible to participate in the voting on the merger. Any Sierra Vista Bank common stock issued upon exercise of the warrants or options prior to the completion of the merger will be eligible to receive merger consideration. Immediately prior to the completion of the merger, each outstanding and unexercised Sierra Vista Bank stock option or warrant will be terminated by Sierra Vista Bank and shall entitle the holder to a cash payment at the effective time of the merger equal to the positive difference, if any, between the exercise price and the equivalent dollar value of the merger consideration.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: After you have carefully read this proxy statement-prospectus and have decided how you wish to vote your shares, please vote your shares promptly so that your shares are represented and voted at the special meeting. If you hold your shares in “street name” through a bank or broker, you must direct your bank or broker to vote in accordance with the instructions you have received from your bank or broker. “Street name” shareholders who wish to vote at the special meeting will need to obtain a proxy form from the institution that holds their shares.

If you vote for the merger and want to make an election regarding the form of the merger consideration you are to receive, you should also complete and mail the separate Election Form. If you vote against the merger and will seek dissenter’s rights, you should not submit an Election Form.

Q: What happens if I do not return my proxy card?

A: If you fail to execute and return your proxy card, it will have the same effect as voting against the merger, unless you vote in person at the meeting.

Q: What risks should I consider before I vote on the merger?

A: Certain risks that you should consider in deciding how to vote on the merger are described in the section of this proxy statement-prospectus entitled “Risk Factors.” You are urged to read that section, as well as the rest of this proxy statement-prospectus, before deciding how to vote.

Q: How do I vote?

Sign and mail your proxy card in the enclosed envelope as soon as possible so that your shares will be represented at the Sierra Vista Bank special shareholders’ meeting. Alternatively, you may attend the meeting and vote in person.

Giving a proxy means that a Sierra Vista Bank shareholder authorizes the persons named in the enclosed proxy card to vote its shares at the special meeting in the manner it directs.

If you sign and send in your proxy card and do not indicate how you want to vote, your shares will be voted in favor of the merger and in favor of the adjournment proposal.

If you do not sign and send in your proxy card or you abstain from voting, it will have the same effect as voting your shares against the merger.

• You may vote by phone using the toll-free number on your proxy card.

• You may vote on the Internet by visiting the website shown on your proxy card.

• You may attend the meeting and vote your shares in person, rather than voting by proxy.

A: If you do not agree with the merger, and if you do not vote in favor of it, and if you take certain other actions required by California law, you will have dissenter’s rights under California law. Exercise of these rights will result in Sierra Vista Bank purchasing your shares at their “fair market value” as of the date immediately prior to the public announcement of the merger as determined in accordance with California law. Please read the section entitled “The Merger—Dissenters’ Rights of Sierra Vista Bank’s Shareholders” and Appendix B for additional information.

Special Shareholders' Meeting (Page 18)

Sierra Vista Bank will hold its special shareholders' meeting at the Granite Bay Country Club, 9600 Golf Club Dr., Granite Bay, California on Thursday, September 1, 2016, at 3:30 p.m. At this meeting, Sierra Vista Bank shareholders will consider and vote upon the approval of the merger. You may vote at the Sierra Vista Bank special shareholders' meeting if you owned shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock at the close of business on the record date of July 18, 2016.

Approval of the merger agreement will require the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding shares, or 2,161,335 of the 4,322,669 shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock outstanding at the record date.

The directors and executive officers of Sierra Vista Bank and certain principal shareholders owning an aggregate of 43.7% of the common stock outstanding as of July 18, 2016 have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the merger.

These shareholders also may exercise warrants or options prior to the record date for the special meeting that would have the result of ensuring approval of the merger.

You are urged to vote in favor of the merger by signing and returning the enclosed proxy as promptly as possible, whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting of shareholders in person. If you submit a proxy and then decide to attend the meeting in person, you need not vote at the meeting unless you wish to change your proxy voting instructions. The proxy may be revoked at any time prior to its exercise. Under the provisions of the California Corporations Code, Central Valley Community Bancorp's shareholders are not required to approve the merger. Please read the section entitled "The Sierra Vista Bank Meeting" for additional information.

The Merger (Page 21)

The merger will result in Sierra Vista Bank being merged with and into CVC Bank and is subject to shareholder and regulatory approvals, as well as other closing conditions required in the merger agreement. Please read the sections entitled "The Merger—Structure of the Merger" and "—Certain Effects of the Merger" for additional information.

The Merger Agreement (Page 48)

The merger agreement is the legal document that embodies the merger's terms and governs Central Valley Community Bancorp's, CVC Bank's, and Sierra Vista Bank's merger process, including the issuance of CVCY Shares and cash to holders of Sierra Vista Bank's common stock in connection with the merger. Please read the entire merger agreement which is attached to this proxy statement-prospectus as Appendix A. Also, please read the section entitled "The Merger Agreement" for additional information.

Consideration to be Paid to Sierra Vista Bank Shareholders (Pages 26 to 30)

Under the merger agreement, each Sierra Vista Bank share will be exchanged for merger consideration with an estimated value as of the filing date of $5.20, to be paid in the form of cash, CVCY Shares, or a mix of cash and CVCY Shares. The estimated value of the merger consideration is subject to potential adjustment depending on the average closing prices of CVCY Shares prior to closing and the value of Sierra Vista Bank's shareholders' equity account on the final day of the month before the closing.

If the value of Sierra Vista Bank's shareholders' equity account is less than $18,050,000 on the final day of the month before the Closing ("Closing SVB shareholders' equity"), any shortfall will be deducted from the amount of the Total Merger Consideration. On June 30, 2016, the Sierra Vista Bank shareholders' equity account stood at approximately $18,279,439, after taking into account adjustments under the merger agreement consisting of (a) subtracting $149,250 for the exercise, at $2.00 per share, of 74,625 warrants to purchase Sierra Vista Bank common stock and $53,318 of Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income, and (b) adding $70,947 of merger expenses. Under the merger agreement, the following will all be excluded in calculating the Closing SVB shareholders' equity: (1) specified gains or losses in the value of the Sierra Vista Bank securities portfolio occurring after April 28, 2016, (2) specified merger expenses up to $2,350,000, (3) amounts paid to terminate in-the-money warrants and options to purchase Sierra Vista Bank common stock in accordance with the merger agreement, (4) increases in shareholders' equity arising from the exercise of warrants or options to purchase Sierra Vista Bank common stock that were outstanding on April 28, 2016, and (5) adjustments to Sierra Vista Bank's account values made at the request of Central Valley Community Bancorp to make accounting for those accounts consistent with the accounting used by Central Valley Community Bancorp.

The parties are not currently aware of any additional adjustments that should be made to the SVB shareholders' equity.

Under the merger agreement, it is also possible that the merger consideration could be adjusted by a date that is within 10 days of the expected Closing date for the merger, if the trading price of the CVCY Shares both materially changes and materially outperforms or underperforms the NASDAQ Bank Index. Such adjustment would be calculated on the later of (a) the date following the date of the special meeting of Sierra Vista Bank shareholders or (b) the Determination Date in the following circumstances:

Material Underperformance. Sierra Vista Bank shall have the right to terminate the merger if (i) the Lower Determination Date Price is less than $10.20 and (ii) the percentage decline in the price of a CVCY Share from $12.00 exceeds by 15% the percentage decline in the 20-day closing price of the NASDAQ Bank Index between the Signing Date and the Determination Date; provided, however, that Sierra Vista Bank may not terminate the merger agreement if Central Valley Community Bancorp elects to increase the aggregate merger consideration (in cash and/or stock as determined by Central Valley Community Bancorp) to make up the difference as calculated under the merger agreement.

Material Overperformance. Under the merger agreement, Central Valley Community Bancorp has the right to terminate the merger (an “Over-Performance Termination”) if:

(i) the volume-weighted average price of the CVCY Shares on NASDAQ for the 20 consecutive trading dates ending on and including the Determination Date is greater than $13.80 (which is 115% of the $12.00 negotiated price of a CVCY Share on the Agreement Date), and

(ii) the volume-weighted average price of the CVCY Shares for the 20 consecutive trading dates ending on and including the Determination Date is such that the CVCY Shares have outperformed the NASDAQ Bank Index by more than 15% since the 20 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date of the merger agreement.

However, Sierra Vista Bank can prevent an Over-Performance Termination by accepting an adjustment to the aggregate merger consideration that reduces the otherwise-payable aggregate merger consideration by an amount equal to number of CVCY Shares included in the aggregate merger consideration (prior to any such adjustment) multiplied by the lesser of (1) the amount by which the volume-weighted average price of the CVCY Shares exceeds $13.80 or (2) the amount by which the volume-weighted average price of the CVCY Shares exceeds the product of 115% of the percentage change in the 20-day average closing price of the NASDAQ Bank Index since the Signing Date multiplied by $12.00. Central Valley Community Bancorp would determine whether the adjusted aggregate merger consideration would be in the form of CVCY Shares, cash, or any combination of CVCY Shares and cash, provided that the adjustment does not result in an aggregate amount of cash that would prevent the merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

On August 1, 2016, the latest practicable date prior to the date of filing this proxy statement-prospectus, the 20-day volume-weighted average price of the CVCY Shares was $14.84, which is greater than $13.80 and represents a 20.4% increase relative to the change in the 20-day average closing price of the NASDAQ Bank Index since the Agreement Date. As a result, Central Valley Community Bancorp would have had the right to terminate the merger agreement if the Determination Date were August 1, 2016. However, Sierra Vista Bank would have had the right under the merger agreement to prevent Central Valley Community Bancorp from terminating the merger agreement, by agreeing to reduce the otherwise payable aggregate merger consideration by approximately $716 thousand. As a result of this adjustment and based on the actual closing price of $15.34 per CVCY Share on August 1, 2016 and without any other adjustments, the implied per share value of the merger consideration received by Sierra Vista Bank shareholders would have been reduced from $6.04 to $5.87, compared to the merger agreement’s negotiated value per share of $5.20.

If the merger agreement and merger are approved by the Sierra Vista Bank shareholders at the special shareholders meeting, the board would regard such approval as including approval of the board’s authority to accept a reduction in the aggregate merger consideration in order to prevent termination of the merger in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement. The Board would not re-solicit shareholder approval of the transaction if Central Valley Community Bancorp elected to exercise its termination right in these circumstances. Therefore, by voting to approve the merger agreement and the merger, shareholders will also be authorizing adjustments in the aggregate merger consideration in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement.

Central Valley Community Bancorp has not advised Sierra Vista Bank whether it would terminate the merger agreement under these circumstances. Further, the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors has not decided whether it would elect to allow Central Valley Community Bancorp to terminate the merger agreement or proceed with an adjustment in the aggregate merger consideration in these circumstances. In deciding whether to prevent an Over-Performance Termination, Sierra Vista Bank’s board of directors would be obligated to act in good faith and with due care. In making such a decision, Sierra Vista Bank’s board of directors would consult with its financial advisor and legal counsel. Among other things, Sierra Vista Bank’s board of directors would consider whether the adjusted merger consideration fairly reflects the board of directors’ view of Sierra Vista Bank’s value; the total value of the adjusted merger consideration, including after giving effect to any other adjustments; whether and the extent to which Sierra Vista Bank’s board of directors believed CVCY Shares would increase or decrease in value after the completion of the merger; Central Valley Community Bancorp's prospects generally; Sierra Vista Bank's prospects on a stand-alone basis compared to the aggregate value of the merger consideration; the likelihood that Sierra Vista Bank could enter into, and consummate, an alternative transaction of equal or superior value within an appropriate period of time; and various macro-economic conditions and factors.

The meeting of Sierra Vista Bank shareholders, at which shareholders will vote to approve the merger and the merger agreement, is set for September 1, 2016. The Closing is expected to occur on or about October 1, 2016.

Additional discussion of factors that may affect the actual value of the merger consideration paid per share to any Sierra Vista Bank shareholder is set out in this proxy statement-prospectus in the sections "The Merger—Calculation of Consideration to be Paid to Sierra Vista Bank Shareholders"; "The Merger—Adjustments to Merger Consideration"; and "The Merger—Election of Form of Payment."

Subject to availability, you will be able to elect to receive (a) cash, (b) CVCY Shares, or (c) a combination of cash and CVCY Shares in exchange for your Sierra Vista Bank shares.

Table of Contents

IMPORTANT NOTE: Casting your shareholder vote regarding the merger and making your election on the form of consideration you would prefer (cash, CVCY Shares, or a combination) are separate actions.

Please read the sections entitled “Risk Factors—Risks Regarding the Merger” and “The Merger—Calculation of Consideration to be Paid to Sierra Vista Bank Shareholders” for additional information.

Regulatory Approvals (Page 32)

CVC Bank and Sierra Vista Bank must receive approvals from the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and the California Department of Business Oversight in order to consummate the merger. FDIC approval was obtained on July 18, 2016, and California Department of Business Oversight approval was received on July 25, 2016. Please read the section entitled “The Merger—Regulatory Approvals” for additional information.

Opinion of Sierra Vista Bank’s Financial Advisor (Pages 38 to 48)

In deciding to recommend approval of the merger, Sierra Vista Bank’s Board of Directors considered, among other things, the April 28, 2016 opinion of Sandler O’Neill & Partners, L.P. (“Sandler O’Neill”), Sierra Vista Bank’s financial advisor, regarding the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the consideration to be received by Sierra Vista Bank’s shareholders as a result of the merger. A copy of the Sandler O’Neill report is attached as Appendix C to this proxy statement-prospectus. You should read it carefully to understand the assumptions made, matters considered and limitations of the review undertaken by the advisor in providing its opinion. Subject to the terms and limitations set forth in their report, Sandler O’Neill concluded that the combination of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock and cash to be received by holders of Sierra Vista Bank common stock in the merger is fair from a financial point of view.

Recommendation of Sierra Vista Bank’s Board of Directors (Pages 18, 21 and 24)

On April 28, 2016, Sierra Vista Bank’s Board of Directors approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by it. Moreover, they believe that the merger’s terms are fair to you and in your best interests. Accordingly, they recommend a vote “FOR” the proposal to approve the merger agreement and the merger. The conclusions of Sierra Vista Bank’s Board of Directors regarding the merger are based upon a number of factors. In reaching its decision to adopt and approve the merger agreement and recommend the merger to its shareholders, Sierra Vista Bank’s board of directors consulted with Sierra Vista Bank’s management, as well as its legal and financial advisors, and considered a number of positive factors, including, but not limited to, the following:

- the belief that the combination with Central Valley Community Bancorp would enable Sierra Vista Bank shareholders to participate in a combined company that would have enhanced future prospects as compared to those that Sierra Vista Bank is likely to achieve on a stand-alone basis;
- the potential of combining with a larger company that will provide additional products and services to better grow and retain Sierra Vista Bank’s customers, that the combined, more diversified, customer base will improve and diversify future revenue sources, and that future earnings prospects will be stronger on a combined basis;
- the current and prospective economic and competitive environment facing the financial services industry generally, including the continued consolidation in the industry and the increased importance of operational scale and financial resources in maintaining efficiency and remaining competitive over the long term;
- the complementary nature of the respective markets, customers and asset/liability mix of Sierra Vista Bank and Central Valley Community Bank;
- the reports of Sierra Vista Bank’s management to the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors concerning the operations, financial condition and prospects of Central Valley Community Bancorp and the expected financial impact of the merger on the combined company, including pro forma assets, earnings, deposits and other financial metrics;
- the belief of the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors that the two companies share a common vision of the importance of customer service and that management and employees of Sierra Vista Bank and Central Valley Community Bancorp possess complementary skills and expertise;
- assuming no adjustment to the merger consideration under the merger agreement, Sierra Vista Bank shareholders can elect to receive in exchange for a share of Sierra Vista Bank stock (a) 0.4333 shares of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock, (b) $5.20 in cash or (c) a mixed consideration equal to approximately 0.2513 shares of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock and $2.18 in cash;

•while the merger agreement provides for the potential downward adjustment to the merger consideration if the Closing SVB shareholders' equity is less than $18,050,000, (taking into account the negotiated list of exclusions under the merger agreement for calculating whether the $18,050,000 threshold is met), Sierra Vista Bank shareholders' equity was $18,053,000 at March 31, 2016;

Table of Contents

- the fact that the contractual value of the merger consideration for holders of Sierra Vista Bank common stock of approximately $5.20, based on the assigned $12.00 per share stock price of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock, represents a premium of approximately 22% over the $4.25 last reported trading price of Sierra Vista Bank common stock on the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board trading system on April 27, 2016 (the last trading day prior to the day of the board meeting on which Sierra Vista Bank shares of common stock were traded), as compared to other similar transactions of a comparable nature in the view of the board of director's financial advisor;
- the greater market capitalization and trading liquidity of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock, which is listed on NASDAQ, in the event that Sierra Vista Bank shareholders desire to sell the shares of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock to be received by them following completion of the merger;
- the fact that Central Valley Community Bancorp has paid cash dividends on its common stock in every quarter but one since November 13, 2012, and recently increased its quarterly dividend in 2015, and that Sierra Vista Bank shareholders would benefit from the anticipated future cash dividends paid by Central Valley Community Bancorp;
- the Board's ability, under certain circumstances, to withdraw its recommendation to Sierra Vista Bank shareholders or terminate the merger agreement and to consider an acquisition proposal superior to the terms of the merger agreement in certain circumstances, subject to the potential payment by Sierra Vista Bank a termination fee of $800,000 to Central Valley Community Bancorp and the reimbursement of up to $100,000 of Central Valley Community Bancorp's merger-related expenses, which the board of directors concluded was reasonable in the context of termination fees in comparable transactions and in light of the overall terms of the merger agreement;
- Sierra Vista Bank will have the right to terminate the merger agreement if the Central Valley Community Bancorp determination price (as defined in the merger agreement) decreases by more than 15% and underperforms the NASDAQ Bank Index by more than 15%, although Central Valley Community Bancorp could agree to increase the merger consideration and terminate Sierra Vista Bank's termination right, as contemplated by the merger agreement.
- the review by the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors with its legal and financial advisors of the structure of the merger and the financial and other terms of the merger agreement, including the exchange ratio and Central Valley Community Bancorp's agreement to appoint Gary Gall, who is the President and Chief Executive Officer and a member of Sierra Vista Bank board of directors, to the boards of directors of both Central Valley Community Bancorp and CVC Bank;
- the opinion, dated April 28, 2016, delivered to the Sierra Vista Bank Board of Directors by Sandler O'Neill that, as of the date of the opinion and based upon and subject to the considerations in its opinion, the merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to holders of Sierra Vista Bank common stock;
- the likelihood of receiving regulatory approvals in a timely fashion without unacceptable conditions and the likelihood that the merger would be completed;
- the agreement of Central Valley Community Bancorp to provide indemnification for Sierra Vista Bank's directors and executive officers and to honor certain existing employee benefits; and
- the expectation that the merger will constitute a tax-free "reorganization" under Section 368(a) of the Code to Sierra Vista Bank shareholders with respect to the Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock received by them. Please read the section entitled "The Merger—Background and Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the Board of Directors" for additional information.

Please read the sections entitled "The Merger—Background and Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of the Board of Directors," and "—Opinion of Sierra Vista Bank's Financial Advisor" for additional information.

Conditions to the Parties' Obligations (Pages 53 and 54)

In addition to receipt of regulatory and shareholder approvals, the completion of the merger will depend on fulfillment of certain conditions, unless waived by the parties.

If all required regulatory and shareholder approvals are received as planned, and if the conditions to the merger have either been met or waived, the parties anticipate that the merger will close during the fourth quarter of 2016. However, the parties cannot assure you whether or when the merger will actually close. Please read the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—The Closing" for additional information.

Federal Income Tax Consequences (Pages 30 to 32)

For United States federal income tax purposes, you generally will not recognize any gain or loss with respect to that portion of your shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock that are converted to CVCY Shares in the merger, but you will recognize gain or loss with respect to any cash received, either as merger consideration or in lieu of a fractional share interest in a CVCY Share.

Table of Contents

If you perfect dissenter's rights and receive payment for your shares, you will be treated as if the shares were redeemed and, if shares are held by you as a capital asset, you will recognize a capital gain or loss measured by the difference between the cash received and your basis in the shares of Sierra Vista Bank stock surrendered.

The tax laws are complex. Therefore, you should consult your individual tax advisor regarding the federal income tax consequences of the merger to you. You should also consult your tax advisor concerning all state, local and foreign tax consequences of the merger.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger (Page 32)

Central Valley Community Bancorp will account for the merger as a purchase under the acquisition method of accounting as required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Under this method of accounting, the tangible and identifiable intangible assets and liabilities of the company acquired are recorded at their respective fair value as of completion of the merger, and are added to those of the acquiring company. In addition, any excess or deficiency of the difference between the total acquisition cost as compared to the net sum of these assets and liabilities will result in goodwill or a bargain purchase price being recorded. Financial statements of the acquiring company issued after the merger takes place reflect these values, but are not restated retroactively to reflect the historical financial position or results of operations of the company that was acquired.

Please read the section entitled "The Merger—Accounting Treatment" for additional information.

Central Valley Community Bancorp's and CVC Bank's Management and Board of Directors After the Merger (Pages 33 and 52)

Central Valley Community Bancorp has agreed to, contingent upon the closing of the merger, increase the authorized number of directors by one director and appoint Gary D. Gall, Sierra Vista Bank's President and Chief Executive Officer, to fill the newly-created vacancy on the board of directors of Central Valley Community Bancorp, to hold office until the next annual meeting of shareholders of Central Valley Community Bancorp, until his successor is elected and qualified or until otherwise removed. Central Valley Community Bancorp has also agreed, timing of the merger permitting, to nominate Mr. Gall for election to the Central Valley Community Bancorp board at the 2017 annual shareholder meeting, provided that he satisfies the standards of the Central Valley Community Bancorp nominating committee and subject to the fiduciary duties of the Central Valley Community Bancorp board and nominating committee.

Please read the section entitled "The Merger—Certain Effects of the Merger" and "—Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger" for additional information.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger That Are Different From Yours (Page 33)

The directors and executive officers of Sierra Vista Bank have financial interests in the merger that are in addition to their interests as Sierra Vista Bank shareholders. You should consider these interests in deciding how to vote. Please read the section entitled "The Merger—Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger" for additional information.

Differences in Your Rights as a Shareholder (Pages 58 to 62)

As a Sierra Vista Bank shareholder, your rights are currently governed by Sierra Vista Bank's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. When you receive Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock in exchange for your Sierra Vista Bank common stock, you will become a Central Valley Community Bancorp shareholder. Please read the section entitled "Comparison of Shareholder Rights" for additional information.

Dissenters' Rights (Pages 37 to 38)

In the event Sierra Vista Bank's shareholders approve the merger and you have not voted in favor of the merger and you do not wish to accept the merger consideration offered for your shares, you have the right to dissent from the merger and receive the fair market value of your shares determined as of the date immediately prior to the public announcement of the merger under the provisions of Chapter 13 of the California Corporations Code. Please read the section entitled "The Merger—Dissenters' Rights of Sierra Vista Bank's Shareholders" and Appendix B for additional information.

RISK FACTORS

This proxy statement-prospectus relates to the proposed merger of Sierra Vista Bank with and into CVC Bank, a wholly owned subsidiary of Central Valley Community Bancorp. Unless the context otherwise requires, references to Central Valley Community Bancorp refer to Central Valley Community Bancorp and CVC Bank on a consolidated basis. In addition to general investment risks and the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement-prospectus, including the matters addressed under the section “Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements.” you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding how to vote for the proposals presented in this proxy statement-prospectus. In addition, you should read and consider the risks associated with each of the businesses of Sierra Vista Bank and Central Valley Community Bancorp because these risks may relate to the combined company and may be different than the risks associated with either Sierra Vista Bank or Central Valley Community Bancorp individually. Descriptions of some of these risks can be found in the Annual Report on Form 10-K filed by Central Valley Community Bancorp for the year ended December 31, 2015, as updated by other reports filed with the SEC, are incorporated by reference into this proxy statement-prospectus. References in this document to “you” and “your” refer to holders of common stock of Sierra Vista Bank who are being asked to cast votes on the matters described herein. You should also consider the other information in this proxy statement-prospectus and the other documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement-prospectus. See “Where You Can Find More Information.”

Sierra Vista Bank shareholders cannot be certain of the market value of the merger consideration they will receive, because (a) the merger consideration is subject to downward adjustment, and (b) the market price of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock will fluctuate.

Under the merger agreement, each Sierra Vista Bank share will be exchanged for merger consideration with an estimated value as of the Signing Date of $5.20, to be paid in the form of cash, newly issued shares of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock (“CVCY Shares”), or a mix of cash and CVCY Shares, calculated using the aggregate value of the merger consideration calculated under the merger agreement (the “Total Merger Consideration”). The merger agreement sets a baseline value for the Total Merger Consideration at $22,127,851, which represents approximately $5.20 for each of the 4,255,356 outstanding Sierra Vista Bank shares outstanding on the Signing Date. The baseline value of the Total Merger Consideration is subject to downward dollar-for-dollar adjustment if the value of the Sierra Vista Bank shareholders’ equity account (excluding items identified in the merger agreement) is less than $18,050,000 as of the end of the month ending prior to closing of the transaction (the “Closing.”). At June 30, 2016, the value of the Sierra Vista Bank shareholders’ equity account (excluding items identified in the merger agreement) was approximately $18,279,439. Certain other adjustments to merger consideration may be made if the trading price of the CVCY Shares both materially changes and materially outperforms or underperforms the NASDAQ Bank Index. See “Merger Consideration—Adjustments to Merger Consideration.”

If no downward adjustment is made to the Total Merger Consideration, the value for each share of Sierra Vista Bank common stock calculated under the merger agreement will be approximately $5.20 based on an assumed value of $12.00 per CVCY Share. In that case, a Sierra Vista Bank shareholder who elected, or received, a payment of merger consideration entirely in cash would receive approximately $5.20 per Sierra Vista Bank share.

Under the merger agreement, 58% of the Total Merger Consideration amount will be comprised of CVCY Shares, based on a fixed per share price of $12.00 per CVCY Share. The merger agreement assigns the $12.00 per CVCY Share solely for the purpose of calculating the number of CVCY Shares to be issued in the merger. Because the stock market price of shares in Central Valley Community Bancorp will fluctuate, a Sierra Vista Bank shareholder who elects, or receives, a payment of merger consideration consisting partially or entirely of CVCY Shares could receive merger consideration with a value that is more or less than $5.20 per Sierra Vista Bank share. As of August 1, 2016, the closing price per share of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock was $15.34 as reported on the NASDAQ Capital Market, substantially higher than the price used in the merger agreement ($12.00 per CVCY Share).

Further, the aggregate merger consideration is subject to potential adjustment if the trading price of CVCY Shares materially overperforms or underperforms the NASDAQ Bank Index. Please read the sections entitled “The Merger—Calculation of Consideration to be Paid to Sierra Vista Bank Shareholders.”

The market price of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock after the merger may be affected by factors different from those affecting the shares of Sierra Vista Bank or Central Valley Community Bancorp currently.

Upon completion of the merger, many holders of Sierra Vista Bank common stock will become holders of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock. Central Valley Community Bancorp’s business differs from that of Sierra Vista Bank, and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock after the completion of the merger may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations of each of Central Valley Community Bancorp or Sierra Vista Bank.

You may not receive merger consideration in the specific form (cash, CVCY shares, or a combination of cash and CVCY Shares) that you have elected.

Each Sierra Vista Bank shareholder shall be entitled to elect whether he, she or it would prefer to receive payment of merger consideration in the form of cash (a “Cash Election”), CVCY Shares (a “Stock Election”), or a combination of cash and CVCY Shares (a “Mixed Election”).

The Sierra Vista Bank shares held by any Sierra Vista Bank shareholder who does not make an election as to a preferred form of merger consideration, or who does not correctly complete the Election Form within the time specified to make an election, will be deemed “No Election Shares” for purposes of the allocation process described below. It is the individual shareholder’s responsibility to complete and submit the Election Form correctly; the Exchange Agent will not notify a shareholder if an election form is incomplete or missing.

While CVCY will attempt to honor elections regarding the form of consideration paid, no assurances can be given that all elections will be honored. For example, if the value of all Cash Elections exceeds 42% of the Total Merger Consideration, shareholders who wanted all cash would receive a portion of their payments in the form of CVCY Shares. Similarly, if Stock Elections exceed the amount of Stock Merger Consideration, shareholders who wanted all CVCY Shares would receive a portion of their payments in the form of cash. See the section entitled “The Merger—Merger Consideration—Election of Form of Payment.”

Combining the two companies may be more difficult, costly or time consuming than expected.

Central Valley Community Bancorp and Sierra Vista Bank have operated and, until the completion of the merger will continue to operate, independently. The success of the merger, including any anticipated cost savings, will depend, in part, on whether the parties to the merger agreement successfully combine the businesses of Central Valley Community Bancorp and Sierra Vista Bank. To realize these anticipated benefits, after the completion of the merger, Central Valley Community Bancorp expects to integrate Sierra Vista Bank’s business into its own. It is possible that the integration process could result in the loss of key employees, the disruption of each company’s ongoing businesses or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies that adversely affect the combined company’s ability to maintain relationships with clients, customers, depositors and employees or to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger. The loss of key employees could adversely affect Central Valley Community Bancorp’s ability to successfully conduct its business in the markets in which Sierra Vista Bank now operates, which could have an adverse effect on Central Valley Community Bancorp’s financial results and the value of its common stock. If Central Valley Community Bancorp experiences difficulties with the integration process, the anticipated benefits of the merger may not be realized fully or at all, or may take longer to realize than expected. As with any merger of financial institutions, there also may be business disruptions that cause Sierra Vista Bank to lose customers or cause customers to remove their accounts from Sierra Vista Bank and move their business to competing financial institutions.

Integration efforts between the two companies will also divert management attention and resources. These integration matters could have an adverse effect on each of Sierra Vista Bank and Central Valley Community Bancorp during this transition period and for an undetermined period after completion of the merger.

The fairness opinion obtained by Sierra Vista Bank from its financial advisor will not reflect changes in circumstances between signing the merger agreement and the completion of the merger.

Sierra Vista Bank has not obtained an updated fairness opinion as of the date of this proxy statement-prospectus from Sandler O'Neill, Sierra Vista Bank's financial advisor. Changes in the operations and prospects of Sierra Vista Bank or Central Valley Community Bancorp, general market and economic conditions and other factors that may be beyond the control of Sierra Vista Bank and Central Valley Community Bancorp, and on which the fairness opinion was based, may alter the value of Sierra Vista Bank or Central Valley Community Bancorp or the prices of shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock or Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock by the time the merger is completed. The opinion does not speak as of the time the merger will be completed or as of any date other than the date of such opinion. Because Sierra Vista Bank does not anticipate asking its financial advisor to update its opinion, the April 28, 2016 opinion does not address the fairness of the merger consideration, from a financial point of view, at the time the merger is completed. The opinion is attached as Appendix C to this proxy statement-prospectus. For a description of the opinion that Sierra Vista Bank received from its financial advisor, see “The Merger—Opinion of Sandler O’Neill + Partners, L.P.” For a description of the other factors considered by Sierra Vista Bank’s board of directors in determining to approve the merger, see “The Merger—Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of Sierra Vista Bank’s Board of Directors.”

Some of the directors and executive officers of Sierra Vista Bank may have interests and arrangements that may have influenced their decisions to support or recommend that you approve the merger agreement.

The interests of some of the directors and executive officers of Sierra Vista Bank may be different from those of Sierra Vista Bank shareholders, and directors and officers of Sierra Vista Bank may be participants in arrangements that are different from, or in addition to, those of Sierra Vista Bank shareholders. These interests are described in more detail in the section entitled “The Merger—Interests of Sierra Vista Bank’s Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger.” Termination of the merger agreement could negatively impact Sierra Vista Bank.

If the merger agreement is terminated, there may be various consequences. For example, Sierra Vista Bank’s businesses may have been impacted adversely by the failure to pursue other beneficial opportunities due to the focus of management on the merger, without realizing any of the anticipated benefits of completing the merger. If the merger agreement is terminated and Sierra Vista Bank’s board of directors seeks another merger or business combination, Sierra Vista Bank shareholders cannot be certain that Sierra Vista Bank will be able to find a party willing to pay the equivalent or greater consideration than that which Central Valley Community Bancorp has agreed to pay in the merger. In addition, if the merger agreement is terminated under certain circumstances, including circumstances involving a change in recommendation by Sierra Vista Bank’s board of directors, Sierra Vista Bank may be required to pay Central Valley Community Bancorp a termination fee of $800,000 plus specified merger related expenses incurred by Central Valley Community Bancorp (up to $100,000).

Sierra Vista Bank will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the merger is pending. Uncertainty about the effect of the merger on employees and customers may have an adverse effect on Sierra Vista Bank. These uncertainties may impair Sierra Vista Bank’s ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel until the merger is completed, and could cause customers and others that deal with Sierra Vista Bank to seek to change existing business relationships with Sierra Vista Bank.

Retention of certain employees by Sierra Vista Bank may be challenging while the merger is pending, as certain employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles with Sierra Vista Bank or Central Valley Community Bank, if any. If key employees depart because of issues relating to the uncertainty and difficulty of integration or a desire not to remain with Sierra Vista Bank, the combined bank’s business following the merger could be harmed. To mitigate this risk, Sierra Vista Bank has entered into retention agreements with certain key employees, but these agreements do not guarantee continued employment by these individuals continuing through and for a period after the merger. In addition, subject to certain exceptions, Sierra Vista Bank has agreed to operate its business in the ordinary course prior to closing. See “The Merger Agreement—Conduct of Business Before the Merger” for a description of the restrictive covenants applicable to Sierra Vista Bank.

During 2015 and 2014, respectively, Central Valley Community Bancorp declared and paid cash dividends to its shareholders of $0.18 and $0.20 per common share. Central Valley Community Bancorp’s primary source of income with which to pay cash dividends is dividends from the Bank. The Bank would not pay any dividend that would cause it to be deemed not “well capitalized” under applicable banking laws and regulations.

On August 1, 2016, the closing price of a CVCY Share reported on NASDAQ was $15.34.

SIERRA VISTA BANK SPECIAL MEETING OF SHAREHOLDERS

Date, Time and Place

The special meeting of Sierra Vista Bank shareholders will be held at the Granite Bay Country Club, 9600 Golf Club Dr., Granite Bay, California at 3:30 p.m., Pacific Time, on Thursday, September 1, 2016. On or about August 4, 2016, Sierra Vista Bank commenced mailing this proxy statement-prospectus and the enclosed form of proxy to its shareholders entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Purpose of the Special Meeting

At the special meeting, Sierra Vista Bank shareholders will be asked to:

- approve the merger and approve and adopt the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement-prospectus, which is referred to as the merger proposal; and
- approve one or more adjournments of the special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, including adjournments to permit further solicitation of proxies in favor of the merger proposal, which is referred to as the adjournment proposal.

Recommendation of the Sierra Vista Bank Board of Directors

The Sierra Vista Bank board of directors recommends that you vote "FOR" the merger proposal and "FOR" the adjournment proposal (if necessary or appropriate). Please see the section entitled "The Merger—Reasons For the Merger and Recommendation of the Sierra Vista Bank Board of Directors" beginning on page 21.

As of the record date, directors and executive officers of Sierra Vista Bank owned and were entitled to vote 1,066,994 shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock, representing approximately 24.7% of the shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock outstanding on that date. The members of the board of directors and executive officers of Sierra Vista Bank have each entered into a cooperation agreement with respect to the merger in which they have agreed to vote their shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock in favor of the merger proposal and the adjournment proposal. For further information, please see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Cooperation Agreements" beginning on page 55. As of the record date, Central Valley Community Bancorp beneficially held no shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock.

Sierra Vista Bank Record Date and Quorum

The Sierra Vista Bank board of directors has fixed the close of business on July 18, 2016 as the record date for determining the holders of Sierra Vista Bank common stock entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the special meeting.

As of the record date, there were 4,322,669 shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting held by approximately 223 holders of record. Each share of Sierra Vista Bank common stock entitles the holder to one vote at the special meeting on each proposal to be considered at the special meeting.

A majority of the shares entitled to vote, represented either in person or by a properly executed proxy, will constitute a quorum at the special meeting. Votes cast will be counted by the inspectors of election at the special meeting. The inspectors will treat abstentions and "broker non-votes" as shares that are present and entitled to vote for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum, but they are not treated as shares voted on any proposal. Broker non-votes are shares held by brokers or nominees as to which instructions have not been received from the beneficial owners or persons entitled to vote and the broker or nominee does not have discretionary voting power under applicable rules of the stock exchange or other self-regulatory organization of which the broker or nominee is a member.

Required Vote to approve the adjournment proposal

Assuming a quorum is present, the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock represented (in person or by proxy) at the special meeting and entitled to vote on the proposal is required to approve the adjournment proposal.

Treatment of Abstentions; Failure to Vote

For purposes of the special meeting, an abstention occurs when a Sierra Vista Bank shareholder attends the special meeting, either in person or by proxy, but abstains from voting.

For the merger proposal, an abstention or a failure to vote will have the same effect as a vote cast "AGAINST" this proposal.

For the adjournment proposal, abstentions will have no effect on such proposals, unless there are insufficient votes in favor of these proposals, such that the affirmative votes constitute less than a majority of the required quorum. In such cases, abstentions will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" this proposal.

Voting on Proxies; Incomplete Proxies

Giving a proxy means that a Sierra Vista Bank shareholder authorizes the persons named in the enclosed proxy card to vote its shares at the special meeting in the manner it directs. A Sierra Vista Bank shareholder may vote by proxy or in person at the special meeting. If you hold your shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock in your name as a shareholder of record, to submit a proxy, you, as a Sierra Vista Bank shareholder, may use one of the following methods:

By telephone: Use any touch-tone telephone to vote your proxy 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Have your proxy card available when you call. You will be prompted to enter your control number, which is located on your proxy card, and then follow the directions given.

Through the Internet: Use the Internet to vote your proxy 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Have your proxy card available when you access the website. You will be prompted to enter your control number, which is located on your proxy card, to create and submit an electronic ballot.

By mail: Complete and return the proxy card in the enclosed envelope. The envelope requires no additional postage if mailed in the United States.

Sierra Vista Bank requests that shareholders vote by telephone, over the Internet or by completing, signing and dating the accompanying proxy and returning it to Sierra Vista Bank as soon as possible in the enclosed postage-paid envelope. When the accompanying proxy is returned properly executed, the shares of Sierra Vista Bank stock represented by it will be voted at the special meeting in accordance with the instructions contained on the proxy card. If any proxy is returned without indication as to how to vote, the shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock represented by the proxy will be voted as recommended by the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors, including "FOR" the merger proposal and "FOR" the adjournment proposal, in which case you will be prohibited from asserting dissenters' rights. Unless a Sierra Vista Bank shareholder checks the box on its proxy card to withhold discretionary authority, the proxy holders may use their discretion to vote on any other matters voted upon at the special meeting. If a Sierra Vista Bank shareholder's shares are held in "street name" by a broker, bank or other nominee, the shareholder should check the voting form used by that firm to determine whether it may vote by telephone or the Internet. Every Sierra Vista Bank shareholder's vote is important. Accordingly, each Sierra Vista Bank shareholder should complete, sign, date and return the enclosed proxy card, or vote via the Internet or by telephone, whether or not the Sierra Vista Bank shareholder plans to attend the special meeting in person.

Shares Held in Street Name

If you are a Sierra Vista Bank shareholder and your shares are held in "street name" through a bank, broker or other holder of record, you must provide the record holder of your shares with instructions on how to vote your shares. Please follow the voting instructions provided by the bank or broker. You may not vote shares held in street name by returning a proxy card directly to Sierra Vista Bank or by voting in person at the special meeting unless you provide a "legal proxy," which you must obtain from your broker, bank or other nominee. Further, brokers, banks or other nominees who hold shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock on behalf of their customers may not give a proxy to Sierra Vista Bank to vote those shares with respect to any of the proposals without specific instructions from their customers, as brokers, banks and other nominees do not have discretionary voting power on these matters. Therefore, if you are a Sierra Vista Bank shareholder and you do not instruct your broker, bank or other nominee on how to vote your shares:

your broker, bank or other nominee may not vote your shares on the merger proposal, which broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" this proposal; and your broker, bank or other nominee may not vote your shares on the adjournment proposal, which broker non-votes will have no effect on the vote count for such proposal, unless there are insufficient votes in favor of this proposal, such that the affirmative votes constitute less than a majority of the required quorum. In such cases, abstentions will have the same effect as a vote "AGAINST" this proposal.

Revocability of Proxies and Changes to a Shareholder's Vote

You have the power to change your vote at any time before your shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock are voted at the special meeting by:

• sending a notice of revocation to Sierra Vista Bank, Attention: Corporate Secretary, 1710 Prairie City Road, Suite 100, Folsom, California 95630, stating that you would like to revoke your proxy;

• logging onto the Internet website specified on your proxy card in the same manner you would to submit your proxy electronically or by calling the telephone number specified on your proxy card, in each case if you are eligible to do so and following the instructions on the proxy card;

• sending a completed proxy card bearing a later date than your original proxy card; or

• attending the special meeting and voting in person.

If you choose any of the first three methods, you must take the described action no later than the beginning of the special meeting. If you choose to send a completed proxy card bearing a later date than your original proxy card or a notice of revocation, the new proxy card or notice of revocation must be received before the beginning of the special meeting. If you have instructed a bank, broker or other nominee to vote your shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock, you must follow the directions you receive from your bank, broker or other nominee in order to change or revoke your vote.

Solicitation of Proxies

The cost of solicitation of proxies from shareholders will be borne by Sierra Vista Bank. Sierra Vista Bank will reimburse brokerage firms and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for reasonable expenses incurred by them in sending proxy materials to the beneficial owners of common stock. In addition to solicitations by mail, Sierra Vista Bank's directors, officers and regular employees may solicit proxies personally or by telephone without additional compensation.

Attending the Special Meeting

All Sierra Vista Bank shareholders as of the record date, or their duly appointed proxies, may attend the special meeting.

If you hold your shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock in your name as a shareholder of record and you wish to attend the special meeting, please bring your proxy and evidence of your stock ownership, such as your most recent account statement, to the special meeting. You must also bring valid photo identification.

If your shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock are held in "street name" in a stock brokerage account or by a bank or nominee and you wish to attend the special meeting, you need to bring a copy of a bank or brokerage statement to the special meeting reflecting your stock ownership as of the record date. You must also bring valid photo identification.

Merger Proposal

As discussed throughout this proxy statement-prospectus, Sierra Vista Bank is asking its shareholders to approve the merger proposal. You should carefully read this proxy statement-prospectus in its entirety, including the appendices, for more detailed information concerning the merger agreement and the merger. In particular, you are directed to the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement-prospectus.

The Sierra Vista Bank board of directors recommends a vote "FOR" the merger proposal.

Each of the directors and executive officers of Sierra Vista Bank has entered into a cooperation agreement with Central Valley Community Bancorp and CVC Bank, pursuant to which they have agreed to vote "FOR" the merger proposal. For more information regarding the cooperation agreements, please see the section entitled "The Merger Agreement—Cooperation Agreements" beginning on page 55.

Adjournment Proposal

The special meeting may be adjourned to another time or place, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger proposal.

If, at the special meeting, the number of shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock present or represented and voting in favor of the merger proposal is insufficient to approve the merger proposal, Sierra Vista Bank intends to move to adjourn the special meeting in order to enable the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors to solicit additional proxies for approval of the proposal. In that event, Sierra Vista Bank will ask its shareholders to vote only upon the adjournment proposal, and not the merger proposal.

In the adjournment proposal, Sierra Vista Bank is asking its shareholders to authorize the holder of any proxy solicited by the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors to vote in favor of granting discretionary authority to the proxy holders, to adjourn the special meeting to another time and place for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies. If the Sierra Vista Bank shareholders approve the adjournment proposal, Sierra Vista Bank could adjourn the special meeting and use the additional time to solicit additional proxies, including the solicitation of proxies from Sierra Vista Bank shareholders who have previously voted.

The Sierra Vista Bank board of directors recommends a vote “FOR” the adjournment proposal.

Each of the directors of Sierra Vista Bank has entered into a cooperation agreement with Central Valley Community Bancorp and CVC Bank, pursuant to which they have agreed to vote “FOR” the adjournment proposal. For more information regarding the cooperation agreements, please see the section entitled “The Merger Agreement—Cooperation Agreements” beginning on page 55.

Other Matters to Come Before the Special Meeting

No other matters are intended to be brought before the special meeting by Sierra Vista Bank, and Sierra Vista Bank does not know of any matters to be brought before the special meeting by others. If, however, any other matters properly come before the special meeting, the persons named in the proxy will vote the shares represented thereby in accordance with their best judgment on any such matter.

THE MERGER

This section of the proxy statement-prospectus describes certain aspects of the proposed merger. Because this is a summary, it does not contain all the information that may be important to you. You should read this entire proxy statement-prospectus, including the appendices. A copy of the merger agreement is attached as Appendix A to this proxy statement-prospectus. The following discussion, and the discussion under the subsection entitled “The Merger Agreement,” describes important aspects of the merger and the material terms of the merger agreement. These descriptions are qualified by reference to Appendix A.

Background and Reasons for the Merger

The terms of the merger agreement were the result of arm’s length negotiations between representatives of Central Valley Community Bancorp and Sierra Vista Bank. The following is a brief description of the events that led to the execution of the merger agreement.

Each of Central Valley Community Bancorp’s and Sierra Vista Bank’s board of directors has from time to time separately engaged with senior management of their respective companies in modeling exercises and discussions of potential strategic alternatives, and has considered ways to enhance their respective companies’ performance and prospects in light of competitive and other relevant developments. For each company, these modeling exercises have included periodic discussions with respect to potential transactions that would further its strategic objectives, and the potential benefits and risks of those transactions.

In the normal course of its business the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors has periodically discussed and evaluated strategic planning alternatives and whether they would be in the best interests of shareholders. Discussions have included the possibility of making acquisitions and whether to remain independent or to consider a combination with another financial institution. Discussion of these topics has typically involved a review of current and projected market conditions, the results of operations of Sierra Vista Bank, certain peer group performance comparisons and selected industry information and analysis, including information and analysis provided to the board of directors by its financial advisors. Sierra Vista Bank has from time to time received unsolicited inquiries from other parties regarding possible interest in a business combination transaction. The general policy of the board of directors has been to refer these proposals to its standing Strategic Committee.

In December 2015, Sierra Vista Bank received an unsolicited, nonbinding written indication of interest from a financial institution, which we refer to as Bank A, offering an aggregate of approximately $18.6 million, assuming the exercise of all warrants to purchase Sierra Vista Bank common stock and depending on certain other factors, in the form of approximately 46% cash and 54% Bank A common stock. The Strategic Committee reviewed and considered Bank A's offer and determined that it was not in the best interests of Sierra Vista Bank or its shareholders to pursue the proposed transaction with Bank A at that time. The committee determined that the proposed pricing was not acceptable.

Also in December 2015, Robert Perry-Smith, the Chair of both the Board of Directors of Sierra Vista Bank and its Strategic Committee, called Daniel J. Doyle, the Chair of the Board of Directors of Central Valley Community Bancorp and CVC Bank, to inquire about the potential for the two organizations to begin discussions about a combination. Mr. Perry-Smith was familiar with the personnel and business of Central Valley Community Bancorp. Mr. Perry-Smith was founder of a Sacramento-based accounting firm that was acquired in 2011 by the national accounting firm Crowe Horwath LLP, which serves as independent auditor for both Central Valley Community Bancorp and Sierra Vista Bank. Until December 2011, Mr. Perry-Smith also provided consulting services to Central Valley Community Bancorp in connection with its strategic planning process. Mr. Perry-Smith retired from Crowe Horwath in March 2013.

Also in December 2015, the Chief Executive Officer of another financial institution, which we refer to as Bank B, contacted Gary Gall, Sierra Vista Bank's President and CEO, to discuss their respective banks and a potential merger of equals between Sierra Vista Bank and Bank B. In late December 2015, Mr. Gall also had conversations with the President and CEO of another financial institution, which we refer to as Bank C, regarding their respective banks and discussions toward a merger would be beneficial for both sides.

In early January 2016, Sierra Vista Bank contacted Sandler O'Neill about rendering financial advisory and investment banking services.

Mr. Gall and the President and CEO of Bank C had further conversions about a potential transaction in early 2016. Sierra Vista Bank and Bank C entered into a confidentiality agreement on January 11, 2016 and exchanged information. In mid-January 2016, Bank A again expressed interest in pursuing strategic discussions with Sierra Vista Bank and reiterated its December 2015 proposal.

At a regular meeting on January 25, 2016, the Sierra Vista Bank Board of Directors established a Mergers and Acquisitions Committee entirely comprised of independent directors to evaluate and make recommendations to the full Board of Directors regarding potential merger transactions. A representative of Sandler O'Neill discussed the current market conditions, the stand-alone value of Sierra Vista Bank and various potential strategic alternatives before the Board of Directors, including potential transactions with Central Valley Community Bancorp, Bank A, Bank B, Bank C and a potential acquisition of branch offices from another financial institution. After discussion, the Board of Directors directed Sandler O'Neill, Mr. Gall and Mr. Perry-Smith to pursue further discussions with Central Valley Community Bancorp and Bank C.

On January 29, 2016, Central Valley Community Bancorp President and CEO, James M. Ford, and Mr. Gall met in Stockton to discuss their respective banks and to consider whether discussions toward a merger would be beneficial for both sides.

Following the January discussion, Mr. Ford reviewed the publicly available information he had obtained with the Central Valley Community Bancorp management team and all members of the Board of Directors. On February 4, 2016, Central Valley Community Bancorp and Sierra Vista Bank entered into a non-disclosure agreement under which they agreed to share financial and business information.

In mid-February 2016, Mr. Gall and a representative of Sandler O'Neill met with representatives of Bank C and its financial adviser and discussed a potential merger transaction.

Also during the first half of February 2016, Central Valley Community Bancorp conducted an analysis using the information obtained from Sierra Vista Bank under the non-disclosure arrangement, and developed a preliminary model of a potential transaction. In addition to developing its own analyses of the potential transaction, Central Valley Community Bancorp consulted with an outside adviser and discussed financial and strategic aspects of the potential transaction with the Board of Directors.

On February 18, 2016, Mr. Gall and a representative of Sandler O'Neill met with representatives of Bank C and its financial adviser and discussed a potential transaction involving the companies. Following that meeting, Sierra Vista Bank provided Company C additional information that had been requested. After further discussion, Company C verbally expressed to Sierra Vista Bank that it was prepared to offer $4.50 per share of outstanding Sierra Vista Bank stock, payable 30% in cash and 70% in newly issued shares of Company C common stock.

On February 26, 2016, Central Valley Community Bancorp delivered to Sierra Vista Bank a formal written Expression of Interest with an initial proposal for transaction terms. Thereafter, the management teams of the two institutions continued to engage in discussions on various elements of a potential transaction. On March 2, 2016, at a special meeting, the Sierra Vista Bank Board of Directors discussed the Expression of Interest and analyzed the price, terms, risks and advantages of the proposed transaction with Central Valley Community Bancorp. The Board of Directors also discussed the status of discussions with Bank C. Representatives of Sandler O'Neill and Manatt Phelps attended the meeting. After discussion, the Board directed Messrs. Perry-Smith and Gall to continue discussions with Central Valley Community Bancorp and Bank C.

The parties did not move forward on a transaction based on the terms contained in the initial Expression of Interest, but on March 10, 2016, Messrs. Perry-Smith and Gall met with Messrs. Doyle and Ford to continue discussions. Representatives of Sierra Vista Bank continued to have discussions with the Chief Executive Officer of Bank C about a potential transaction during the first half of March 2016, but ultimately Bank C did not present an offer or written indication of interest.

On March 17, 2016, Central Valley Community Bancorp provided to Sierra Vista Bank an updated written Expression of Interest in which Central Valley Community Bancorp proposed a transaction price of $5.20 per share of outstanding Sierra Vista Bank stock, payable 42% in cash and 58% in newly issued shares of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock; the appointment of Gary D. Gall to the Board of Directors of Central Valley Community Bancorp; and contemplating that Sierra Vista Bank would redeem for cash any outstanding warrants or options to purchase Sierra Vista Bank common stock that are exercisable at a price less than $5.20 per share.

Table of Contents

At a regular meeting on March 23, 2016, the Sierra Vista Bank Board of Directors discussed the status of discussions with Central Valley Community Bancorp and the updated Expression of Interest and directed management to commence due diligence of Central Valley Community Bancorp and to permit Central Valley Community Bancorp to conduct due diligence of Sierra Vista Bank.

On April 5, 2016, Sierra Vista Bank created an electronic data room in which key financial information regarding each bank was made available to the other.

On April 9-10, 2016, personnel from Central Valley Community Bancorp conducted a review of the loans issued by Sierra Vista Bank, to evaluate loan terms, quality of loans, quality of collateral, existence of potential risks and deficiencies, completeness of documentation and other factors that might affect the willingness of CVC Bank to merge with Sierra Vista Bank.

Due diligence continued on both sides through mid-April 2016. At the same time, negotiations on the terms of a definitive merger agreement reflecting the terms of the March 17, 2016 Expression of Interest were commenced between Downey Brand LLP, counsel for Central Valley Community Bancorp, and Manatt, Phelps & Phillips, LLP, which we refer to as Manatt Phelps, counsel for Sierra Vista Bank.

The initial draft of a definitive merger agreement was delivered by Downey Brand LLP to Manatt Phelps on April 15, 2016. Thereafter, the parties negotiated specific elements of the merger agreement. Members of the Boards of Directors of each institution and Sierra Vista Bank's Mergers and Acquisitions Committee were provided with copies of drafts of the definitive merger agreement and provided comments on drafts to management and legal counsel as negotiations progressed.

On April 26, 2016, the Mergers and Acquisitions Committee of the Sierra Vista Bank Board of Directors reviewed and discussed a draft of the definitive merger agreement and its related agreements with a representative of Manatt Phelps. Negotiations between the parties regarding the definitive merger agreement and its related agreements continued following the meeting.

On April 27, 2016, the Board of Directors of Sierra Vista Bank met at a regular meeting to review and consider the transaction with Central Valley Community Bancorp. Representatives of Sandler O'Neill reviewed the terms and financial aspects of the merger in detail. A representative of Manatt Phelps advised the Board of Directors about its fiduciary duties and reviewed the terms of the draft the definitive merger agreement and the related agreements in detail.

On April 28, 2016 the Central Valley Community Bancorp Board of Directors met with its management, financial advisors and legal counsel, who reviewed with the Board the terms of the merger agreement, the strategic rationale for the transaction, financial considerations that were material to the transaction, and the Board's fiduciary duties. The Board of Directors then unanimously adopted a joint resolution of the Boards of Directors of Central Valley Community Bancorp and CVC Bank approving the merger and directing Mr. Ford to execute the merger agreement.

On April 28, 2016, the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors convened a special meeting to consider the merger agreement and the merger. A representative of Manatt Phelps reviewed the changes to the merger agreement and related exhibits that had been made as a result of further negotiations since the previous board meeting. A representative of Sandler O'Neill reviewed the financial aspects of the proposed merger and rendered an opinion to the effect that, as of April 28, 2016 and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered, and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill as set forth in its written opinion, the merger consideration to be received by the holders of Sierra Vista Bank common stock in the proposed merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. The Board of Directors then approved the merger by the unanimous vote of all directors present and directed Mr. Gall to execute the merger agreement.

The parties executed the merger agreement on the afternoon of April 28, 2016, following the closing of trading on the NASDAQ Stock Market.

A press release prepared with the involvement of both parties regarding to the transaction was released on April 29, 2016.

Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Sierra Vista Bank Board of Directors

The Sierra Vista Bank board of directors believes the proposed merger with Central Valley Community Bancorp is fair and in the best interests of the shareholders, as well as its employees and the communities served by Sierra Vista Bank. In reaching this conclusion, the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors discussed the proposed merger with its senior management and with its financial and legal advisors and considered the relative advantages and disadvantages of remaining independent rather than entering into the merger. The directors recommend that Sierra Vista Bank shareholders vote in favor of the merger agreement and consummation of the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

In approving the merger with Central Valley Community Bancorp, the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors considered a variety of factors, both positive and negative. The primary factors that favor the merger include, but are not limited to, the following:

the belief that the combination with Central Valley Community Bancorp would enable Sierra Vista Bank shareholders to participate in a combined company that would have enhanced future prospects as compared to those that Sierra Vista Bank is likely to achieve on a stand-alone basis;

the potential of combining with a larger company that will provide additional products and services to better grow and retain Sierra Vista Bank's customers, that the combined, more diversified, customer base will improve and diversify future revenue sources, and that future earnings prospects will be stronger on a combined basis;

the current and prospective economic and competitive environment facing the financial services industry generally, including the continued consolidation in the industry and the increased importance of operational scale and financial resources in maintaining efficiency and remaining competitive over the long term;

the complementary nature of the respective markets, customers and asset/liability mix of Sierra Vista Bank and Central Valley Community Bank;

the reports of Sierra Vista Bank's management to the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors concerning the operations, financial condition and prospects of Central Valley Community Bancorp and the expected financial impact of the merger on the combined company, including pro forma assets, earnings, deposits and other financial metrics;

the belief of the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors that the two companies share a common vision of the importance of customer service and that management and employees of Sierra Vista Bank and Central Valley Community Bancorp possess complementary skills and expertise;

- assuming no adjustment to the merger consideration under the merger agreement, Sierra Vista Bank shareholders can elect to receive in exchange for a share of Sierra Vista Bank stock (a) 0.4333 shares of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock, (b) $5.20 in cash or (c) a mixed consideration equal to approximately 0.2513 shares of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock and $2.18;

in connection with a potential downward adjustment to the merger consideration if the Closing SVB shareholders' equity is less than $18,050,000 (compared to Sierra Vista Bank's shareholders' equity of $18,053,000 at March 31, 2016), the parties negotiated a list of exclusions under the merger agreement for calculating the Closing SVB shareholders' equity, consisting of: (1) specified gains or losses in the value of the Sierra Vista Bank securities portfolio after April 28, 2016, (2) specified merger expenses up to $2,350,000, (3) amounts paid to terminate in-the-money warrants and options to purchase Sierra Vista Bank common stock in accordance with the merger agreement, (4) increases in shareholders' equity arising from the exercise of warrants or options to purchase Sierra Vista Bank common stock that were outstanding on April 28, 2016, and (5) adjustments to Sierra Vista Bank account values made at the request of Central Valley Community Bancorp to make accounting for those accounts consistent with the accounting used by Central Valley Community Bancorp.

the fact that the contractual value of the merger consideration for holders of Sierra Vista Bank common stock of approximately $5.20 based on the assigned $12.00 per share stock price of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock, represents a premium of approximately 22% over the $4.25 last reported trading price of Sierra Vista Bank common stock on the Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board trading system on April 27, 2016 (the last trading day prior to the day of the board meeting on which Sierra Vista Bank shares of common stock were traded), as compared to other similar transactions of a comparable nature in the view of the board of director's financial advisor;

the greater market capitalization and trading liquidity of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock, which is listed on NASDAQ, in the event that Sierra Vista Bank shareholders desire to sell the shares of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock to be received by them following completion of the merger;
the fact that Central Valley Community Bancorp has paid cash dividends on its common stock in every quarter but one since November 13, 2012, and recently increased its quarterly dividend in 2015, and that Sierra Vista Bank shareholders would benefit from the anticipated future cash dividends paid by Central Valley Community Bancorp;

the board's ability, under certain circumstances, to withdraw its recommendation to Sierra Vista Bank shareholders or terminate the merger agreement and to consider an acquisition proposal superior to the terms of the merger agreement in certain circumstances, subject to the potential payment by Sierra Vista Bank a termination fee of $800,000 to Central Valley Community Bancorp and the reimbursement of up to $100,000 of Central Valley Community Bancorp's merger-related expenses, which the board of directors concluded was reasonable in the context of termination fees in comparable transactions and in light of the overall terms of the merger agreement;

Sierra Vista Bank will have the right to terminate the merger agreement if the Central Valley Community Bancorp determination price (as defined in the merger agreement) decreases by more than 15% and underperforms the NASDAQ Bank Index by more than 15%, although Central Valley Community Bancorp could agree to increase the merger consideration and terminate Sierra Vista Bank's termination right, as contemplated by the merger agreement.

the review by the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors with its legal and financial advisors of the structure of the merger and the financial and other terms of the merger agreement, including the exchange ratio and Central Valley Community Bancorp's agreement to appoint Gary Gall, who is the President and Chief Executive Officer and a member of Sierra Vista Bank board of directors, to the Central Valley Community Bancorp board of directors;

the opinion, dated April 28, 2016, delivered to the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors by Sandler O'Neill that, as of the date of the opinion and based upon and subject to the considerations in its opinion, the merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to holders of Sierra Vista Bank common stock;

the likelihood of receiving regulatory approvals in a timely fashion without unacceptable conditions and the likelihood that the merger would be completed;

the agreement of Central Valley Community Bancorp to provide indemnification for Sierra Vista Bank's directors and executive officers and to honor certain existing employee benefits; and the expectation that the merger will constitute a tax-free "reorganization" under Section 368(a) of the Code to Sierra Vista Bank shareholders with respect to the Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock received by them.

In the course of its deliberations regarding the merger, the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors also considered the following factors and risks, which the board of directors determined did not outweigh the expected benefits to Sierra Vista Bank and its shareholders:

the challenges of combining the businesses, assets and employees of Sierra Vista Bank and Central Valley Community Bancorp, which could affect the post-merger success and the ability to achieve anticipated cost savings and other potential synergies;

the fixed exchange ratio component of the merger consideration will not adjust to compensate for potential changes in the price of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock or Sierra Vista Bank common stock prior to completion of the merger if such prices are within the collar specified in the merger agreement.

the possibility that the merger consideration will be decreased dollar-for-dollar by the amount, if any, by which Sierra Vista Bank's shareholders' equity (as defined in the merger agreement) is less than $18.05 million as of the end of the month prior to the completion of the merger;

the possibility that Central Valley Community Bancorp could terminate the merger agreement if the Central Valley Community Bancorp determination price (as defined in the merger agreement) increases by more than 15% and outperforms the NASDAQ Bank Index by more than 15%, although Sierra Vista Bank could agree to accept a decrease in the merger consideration and terminate Central Valley Community Bancorp's termination right, as contemplated by the merger agreement;

the interests of Sierra Vista Bank executive officers and directors with respect to the merger apart from their interests as holders of Sierra Vista Bank common stock, and the risk that these interests might influence their decision with respect to the merger, as described below in "The Merger—Interests of Sierra Vista Bank Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger";

the risk that the terms of the merger agreement, including provisions relating to the payment of a termination fee under specified circumstances, although required by Central Valley Community Bancorp as a condition to its willingness to enter into a merger agreement, could have the effect of discouraging other parties that might be interested in a transaction with Sierra Vista Bank from proposing such a transaction;

the restrictions contained in the merger agreement on the operation of Sierra Vista Bank's business during the period between the signing of the merger agreement and completion of the merger which may delay or prevent Sierra Vista Bank from pursuing business opportunities that could arise before completion of the merger;

the possibility that the merger might not be completed and the impact of a public announcement of the termination of the merger agreement on, among other things, the market price of Sierra Vista Bank common stock and Sierra Vista Bank operating results, particularly in light of the costs incurred in connection with the transaction; and the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors also considered other factors described under the section of this proxy statement-prospectus entitled “Risk Factors.”

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors, both positive and negative, considered by the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors. In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement, the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The Sierra Vista Bank board of directors considered all these factors as a whole, including discussions with, and questioning of, Sierra Vista Bank’s management team, its legal counsel and financial advisor. The Sierra Vista Bank board of directors determined that overall, the totality of information and factors (positive and negative) considered by the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors, was favorable to, and supported, its determination.

This explanation of Sierra Vista Bank’s reasons for the merger and other information presented in this section is forward-looking in nature and should be read in light of the section entitled “Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements” beginning on page 16 of this proxy statement-prospectus.

For the reasons set forth above, the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors has approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and recommends that Sierra Vista Bank shareholders vote “FOR” the merger proposal and “FOR” the adjournment proposal (if necessary or appropriate).

Each of the directors of Sierra Vista Bank has entered into a cooperation agreement with Central Valley Community Bancorp, pursuant to which they have agreed to vote “FOR” the merger proposal and “FOR” the adjournment proposal (if necessary or appropriate). For more information regarding the cooperation agreements, please see the section entitled “The Merger Agreement—Cooperation Agreements” beginning on page 55.

Structure of the Merger

The merger agreement provides that Sierra Vista Bank will merge with and into CVC Bank. After the merger, the offices operated by Sierra Vista Bank will become banking offices of CVC Bank. Each share of Sierra Vista Bank common stock issued and outstanding (other than shares with respect to which dissenters’ rights have been perfected) will be converted into the right to receive merger consideration in the form of cash, CVCY Shares, or a combination thereof. Each share of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock outstanding will remain outstanding after the merger. Please read the sections entitled “The Merger—Calculation of Consideration to be Paid to Sierra Vista Bank Shareholders” and “The Merger—Dissenters’ Rights of Sierra Vista Bank’s Shareholders” for additional information.

Calculation of Consideration to be Paid to Sierra Vista Bank Shareholders

Under the merger agreement, each Sierra Vista Bank share will be exchanged for merger consideration valued under the merger agreement at approximately $5.20 based on an assumed price of $12.00 per CVCY Share, to be paid in the form of cash, CVCY shares or a mix of cash and CVCY Shares. The actual value of the merger consideration paid per share to any Sierra Vista Bank shareholder (the “Per Share Merger Consideration”) may be more or less than $5.20, depending on factors described below.

Each Sierra Vista Bank shareholder will be entitled to make an election regarding the form of merger consideration the shareholder would prefer to receive: (a) cash, (b) CVCY Shares, or (c) a combination of cash and CVCY Shares. See “The Merger—Merger Consideration—Election of Form of Payment.”

Notwithstanding such election, the Sierra Vista Bank shareholder may receive a combination of cash and CVCY Shares, depending on (1) the elections made by other Sierra Vista Bank shareholders and (2) the closing date value of the merger consideration calculated under the merger agreement (the “Total Merger Consideration”).

The merger agreement sets a baseline value for the Total Merger Consideration at $22,127,851 (approximately $5.20 at the Signing Date for each of the 4,255,356 outstanding Sierra Vista Bank shares outstanding at the time the merger agreement was signed). The baseline value of the Total Merger Consideration is subject to downward adjustment if the value of the Sierra Vista Bank shareholders' equity account falls below the minimum value set out in the merger agreement. The Total Merger Consideration will be adjusted upward by $5.20 for each additional share that Sierra Vista Bank issues prior to Closing pursuant to its outstanding options or warrants. See "The Merger—Merger Consideration—Adjustments to Merger Consideration."

Once the value of the Total Merger Consideration is established, 42% of the value of the Total Merger Consideration will be paid to Sierra Vista Bank shareholders in cash (the "Cash Merger Consideration"), and 58% of the value of the Total Merger

Consideration will be paid in CVCY Shares (the “Stock Merger Consideration”), with the number of CVCY shares to be issued calculated using an assigned value of $12.00 per CVCY Share. The Per Share Merger Consideration will be calculated by dividing the Total Merger Consideration by the number of Sierra Vista Bank shares outstanding at Closing.

If no downward adjustment is made to the Total Merger Consideration, the Per Share Merger Consideration for each share of Sierra Vista Bank common stock will be approximately $5.20, as calculated under the merger agreement. In that case, a Sierra Vista Bank shareholder who elected, or received, a payment of Merger Consideration entirely in cash would receive approximately $5.20 per Sierra Vista Bank share.

Under the merger agreement, the Stock Merger Consideration amount is divided by $12.00, a fixed per share price assigned to CVCY Shares solely for the purpose of calculating the number of CVCY Shares to be issued in the merger. Because the stock market price of shares in Central Valley Community Bancorp will fluctuate, the actual value of a payment made in CVCY Shares will depend upon the market price.

If the market value of CVCY Shares is greater than $12.00 per share at the Closing, the value of each share of Sierra Vista Bank common stock would be greater than $5.20, for any holder who elected, or received, a payment of Merger Consideration entirely or partly in the form of CVCY Shares. If the market value of CVCY Shares is less than $12.00 per share at the Closing, the value of each share of Sierra Vista Bank common stock would be less than $5.20, for any holder who elected, or received, a payment of Merger Consideration entirely or partly in the form of CVCY Shares. As of August 1, 2016, the closing price per share of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock was $15.34 as reported on the NASDAQ Capital Market, substantially higher than the price used in the merger agreement ($12.00 per CVCY Share).

NOTE: If the Total Merger Consideration is adjusted downward because of a shortfall in the Sierra Vista Bank shareholders’ equity amount at Closing, the Per Share Merger Consideration paid in the merger for each share of Sierra Vista Bank stock would be adjusted pro rata. See “The Merger—Merger Consideration—Adjustments to Merger Consideration.”

Merger Consideration—Adjustments to Merger Consideration

The merger agreement sets a baseline value for the Total Merger Consideration at $22,127,851 (approximately $5.20 for each of the 4,255,356 Sierra Vista Bank shares outstanding at the time the merger agreement was signed). The baseline value of the Total Merger Consideration is subject to downward adjustment if the value of the Sierra Vista Bank shareholders’ equity account falls below the minimum value set out in the merger agreement. The Total Merger Consideration will be adjusted upward by $5.20 for each additional share that Sierra Vista Bank issues prior to Closing pursuant to exercises of its outstanding options or warrants. As of July 18, 2016, Sierra Vista Bank had 4,322,669 outstanding shares of common stock, resulting in an adjusted value of the Total Merger Consideration calculated under the merger agreement of $22,477,879.

If the value of Sierra Vista Bank’s shareholders’ equity account is less than $18,050,000 on the final day of the month before the Closing (“Closing SVB shareholders’ equity”), any shortfall will be deducted from the amount of the Total Merger Consideration. On June 30, 2016, the Sierra Vista Bank shareholders’ equity account stood at approximately $18,279,439, after taking into account adjustments under the merger agreement consisting of (a) subtracting $149,250 for the exercise, at $2.00 per share, of 74,625 warrants to purchase Sierra Vista Bank common stock and $53,318 of Accumulated Other Comprehensive Income, and (b) adding $70,947 of merger expenses. Under the merger agreement, the following will all be excluded in calculating the Closing SVB shareholders’ equity: (1) specified gains or losses in the value of the Sierra Vista Bank securities portfolio occurring after April 28, 2016, (2) specified merger expenses up to $2,350,000, (3) amounts paid to terminate in-the-money warrants and options to purchase Sierra Vista Bank common stock in accordance with the merger agreement, (4) increases in shareholders’ equity arising from the exercise of warrants or options to purchase Sierra Vista Bank common stock that were outstanding on April 28, 2016, and (5) adjustments to Sierra Vista Bank’s account values made at the request of Central Valley Community Bancorp to make accounting for those accounts consistent with the accounting used by Central Valley Community Bancorp. The parties are not aware of any additional adjustments that should be made to the SVB shareholders’ equity.

At July 18, 2016, Sierra Vista Bank had outstanding 596,916 outstanding options and warrants (excluding options whose exercise price exceeds the $5.20 estimated value of the Per Share Merger Consideration). Sierra Vista Bank expects to redeem those options and warrants for cash by paying an amount equal to the difference between $5.20 and the exercise price for such options and warrants. The total amount of such redemption payments would be approximately $1.9 million.

Accordingly, if no downward adjustment is made to the Total Merger Consideration as a result of a change in the Sierra Vista Bank shareholders' equity account, the minimum and maximum values of the Total Merger Consideration, Total Stock Consideration and Total Cash Consideration would be as set forth below (the maximum number assumes exercise of all outstanding Sierra Vista Bank options and warrants exercisable for less than $5.20), based on an assumed value of $12.00 per CVCY Share under the merger agreement:

Table of Contents

Total Merger Consideration	Total Cash Merger Consideration	Total Share Merger Consideration	Number of CVCY Shares
Minimum: $ 22,477,879	$ 9,440,709	$ 13,037,170	1,086,431
Maximum: $ 25,496,692	$ 10,708,611	$ 14,788,081	1,232,340

Under the merger agreement, it is also possible that the merger consideration could be adjusted by a date that is within 10 days of the expected Closing date for the merger, if the trading price of the CVCY Shares both materially changes and materially outperforms or underperforms the NASDAQ Bank Index. Such adjustment would be calculated on the later of (a) the date following the date of the special meeting of Sierra Vista Bank shareholders or (b) the Determination Date in the following circumstances:

Material Underperformance. Sierra Vista Bank shall have the right to terminate the merger if (i) the Lower Determination Date Price is less than $10.20 and (ii) the percentage decline in the price of a CVCY Share from $12.00 exceeds by 15% the percentage decline in the 20-day closing price of the NASDAQ Bank Index between the Signing Date and the Determination Date; provided, however, that Sierra Vista Bank may not terminate the merger agreement if Central Valley Community Bancorp elects to increase the aggregate merger consideration (in cash and/or stock as determined by Central Valley Community Bancorp) to make up the difference as calculated under the merger agreement.

Material Overperformance. Under the merger agreement, Central Valley Community Bancorp has the right to an Over-Performance Termination if:

(i) the volume-weighted average price of the CVCY Shares on NASDAQ for the 20 consecutive trading dates ending on and including the Determination Date is greater than $13.80 (which is 115% of the $12.00 negotiated price of a CVCY Share on the Agreement Date), and

(ii) the volume-weighted average price of the CVCY Shares for the 20 consecutive trading dates ending on and including the Determination Date is such that the CVCY Shares have outperformed the NASDAQ Bank Index by more than 15% since the 20 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date of the merger agreement.

However, Sierra Vista Bank can prevent an Over-Performance Termination by accepting an adjustment to the aggregate merger consideration that reduces the otherwise-payable aggregate merger consideration by an amount equal to number of CVCY Shares included in the aggregate merger consideration (prior to any such adjustment) multiplied by the lesser of (1) the amount by which the volume-weighted average price of the CVCY Shares exceeds $13.80 or (2) the amount by which the volume-weighted average price of the CVCY Shares exceeds the product of 115% of the percentage change in the 20-day average closing price of the NASDAQ Bank Index since the Signing Date multiplied by $12.00. Central Valley Community Bancorp would determine whether the adjusted aggregate merger consideration would be in the form of CVCY Shares, cash, or any combination of CVCY Shares and cash, provided that the adjustment does not result in an aggregate amount of cash that would prevent the merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

On August 1, 2016, the latest practicable date prior to the date of filing this proxy statement-prospectus, the 20-day volume-weighted average price of the CVCY Shares was $14.84, which is greater than $13.80 and represents a 20.4% increase relative to the change in the 20-day average closing price of the NASDAQ Bank Index since the Agreement Date. As a result, Central Valley Community Bancorp would have had the right to terminate the merger agreement if the Determination Date were August 1, 2016. However, Sierra Vista Bank would have had the right under the merger agreement to prevent Central Valley Community Bancorp from terminating the merger agreement, by agreeing to reduce the otherwise payable aggregate merger consideration by approximately $716 thousand. As a result of this adjustment and based on the actual closing price of $15.34 per CVCY Share on August 1, 2016 and without any other adjustments, the implied per share value of the merger consideration received by Sierra Vista Bank shareholders would have been reduced from $6.04 to $5.87, compared to the merger agreement's negotiated value per share of $5.20.

If the merger agreement and merger are approved by the Sierra Vista Bank shareholders at the special shareholders meeting, the board would regard such approval as including approval of the board's authority to accept a reduction in the aggregate merger consideration in order to prevent termination of the merger in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement. The Board would not re-solicit shareholder approval of the transaction if Central Valley Community Bancorp elected to exercise its termination right in these circumstances. Therefore, by voting to approve the merger agreement and the merger, shareholders will also be authorizing adjustments in the aggregate merger consideration in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement.

Central Valley Community Bancorp has not advised Sierra Vista Bank whether it would terminate the merger agreement under these circumstances. Further, the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors has not decided whether it would elect to allow Central Valley Community Bancorp to terminate the merger agreement or proceed with an adjustment in the aggregate merger consideration in these circumstances. In deciding whether to prevent an Over-Performance Termination, Sierra Vista Bank's board of directors would be obligated to act in good faith and with due care. In making such a decision, Sierra Vista Bank's board of directors would consult with its financial advisor and legal counsel. Among other things, Sierra Vista Bank's board of directors would consider whether the adjusted merger consideration fairly reflects the board of directors' view of Sierra Vista Bank's value; the total value of the adjusted merger consideration, including after giving effect to any other adjustments; whether and the extent to which Sierra Vista Bank's board of directors believed CVCY Shares would increase or decrease in value after the completion of the merger; Central

The meeting of Sierra Vista Bank shareholders, at which shareholders will vote to approve the merger and the merger agreement, is set for September 1, 2016. The Closing is expected to occur on or about October 1, 2016.

Central Valley Community Bancorp has registered an additional 184,851 shares of common stock (15% above the maximum number of shares expected to be issued in the merger) to be available for issuance if the parties proceed with the merger (following a termination resulting from a Lower Determination Date Price) based on Central Valley Community Bancorp including additional shares as merger consideration. Registration of such additional shares is for the convenience of the parties only. Any decision by Central Valley Community Bancorp to continue with the merger based on the issuance of additional merger consideration would be made under circumstances prevailing at the time. See "The Merger Agreement—Termination" for additional information on this possible adjustment to the merger consideration.

Merger Consideration—Election of Form of Payment

Each Sierra Vista Bank shareholder will, as a result of the merger, be entitled to receive cash, CVCY shares, or a combination of cash and CVCY shares in exchange for the shares of Sierra Vista Bank stock outstanding prior to the merger. The merger agreement sets out the value to be exchanged for Sierra Vista Bank shares, and the process for determining how the form of merger consideration (cash, CVCY Shares, or a combination) shall be allocated among Sierra Vista Bank shareholders after the merger.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Casting your shareholder vote regarding the merger and making your election on the form of merger consideration you would prefer (cash, CVCY Shares, or a combination) are separate actions. Separate materials and envelopes are provided herein for taking each action.

The Total Merger Consideration to be paid to Sierra Vista Bank shareholders shall be determined at the time of the merger as described under the heading "The Merger—Merger Consideration—Adjustments to Merger Consideration." The Cash Merger Consideration will represent 42% of the Total Merger Consideration. The Stock Merger Consideration will represent 58% of the Total Merger Consideration, with the number of CVCY Shares to be issued in the merger calculated by dividing the value of the Stock Merger Consideration by $12.00.

Each Sierra Vista Bank shareholder shall be entitled to elect whether he, she or it would prefer to receive payment of merger consideration in the form of cash (a "Cash Election"), CVCY Shares (a "Stock Election"), or a combination of cash and CVCY Shares (a "Mixed Election").

If a Sierra Vista Bank shareholder does not make an election as to a preferred form of merger consideration, or if the Sierra Vista Bank shareholder does not correctly complete the Election Form within the time specified to make an election, that shareholder's shares will be deemed "No Election Shares" for purposes of the allocation process described below. It is the individual shareholder's responsibility to complete and submit the Election Form correctly; the Exchange Agent will not notify a shareholder if an election form is incomplete or missing. To make an election, a Sierra Vista Bank shareholder must submit an election form to Central Valley Community Bancorp's exchange agent before 5:00 p.m., Pacific Time, on the later to occur of August 31, 2016, which is the date following Sierra Vista Bank's shareholder meeting, and the date that that is the 10th business day prior to the completion of the merger.

While CVCY will attempt to honor elections regarding the form of consideration paid, no assurances can be given that all elections will be honored. For example, if the value of all Cash Elections exceeds the Cash Merger Consideration, shareholders who wanted all cash would receive a portion of their payments in the form of CVCY Shares.

Similarly, if Stock Elections exceed the amount of Stock Merger Consideration, shareholders who wanted all CVCY Shares would receive a portion of their payments in the form of cash.

Once the merger is approved, the Exchange Agent will tabulate all elections respecting the form of merger consideration that Sierra Vista Bank shareholders would prefer to receive. If the total elections (including the respective cash and stock payment components of Mixed Elections) for cash either exceed or fall below the Cash Merger Consideration amount, the allocation procedures described below will be used to determine which elections as to specific form of payment will be honored.

Table of Contents

If Cash Elections exceed Cash Merger Consideration

If the total dollar amount to be paid out to honor all Cash Elections and Mixed Elections would exceed the Cash Merger Consideration, the Exchange Agent shall:

• Pay cash to any dissenting shares;

• Treat all Stock Elections, Mixed Elections and No Election Shares as being converted to CVCY Shares (subject to the Stock Merger Consideration limit); and

• Pay cash pro rata to the maximum extent possible with respect to the Sierra Vista Bank shares that were subject to Cash Elections, with the balance of the Per Share Merger Consideration to be paid to such shareholders in the form of CVCY Shares.

If Cash Elections are less than the Cash Merger Consideration

If the total dollar amount to be paid out to honor all Cash Elections and Mixed Elections would be less than the Cash Merger Consideration, the Exchange Agent shall:

• Pay cash to any dissenting shares;

- Treat all Cash Elections, and the cash portion of all Mixed Elections, as filled;
- Select from among the No Election Shares to be paid in cash (and if necessary, calculate pro rata among Stock Elections the amount to be paid in cash).

Fractional Shares

It is very likely that most of Sierra Vista Bank's shareholders will be entitled to receive a fractional interest of a share of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock in addition to a whole number of shares of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock. The merger agreement provides that, in lieu of receiving a fractional share, Sierra Vista Bank's shareholders entitled to a fractional share will receive cash equal to the value of the fractional interest, calculated by reference to the merger agreement price.

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences

Completion of the merger is conditioned on, among other things, the receipt by Sierra Vista Bank and Central Valley Community Bancorp of a tax opinion from Downey Brand LLP, or "Downey Brand," that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. These opinions will rely on certain assumptions, including assumptions regarding the absence of changes in existing facts and law and the completion of the merger in the manner contemplated by the merger agreement, and representations and covenants made by Central Valley Community Bancorp and Sierra Vista Bank, including those contained in representation letters of officers of Central Valley Community Bancorp and Sierra Vista Bank. If any of those representations, covenants or assumptions is inaccurate or is not complied with, these opinions may not be relied upon, and the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger could differ from those discussed here and in the tax opinion. In addition, the tax opinions will not be binding on the Internal Revenue Service, and neither Central Valley Community Bancorp nor Sierra Vista Bank intends to request any ruling from the Internal Revenue Service as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger.

The following is a summary of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger. This discussion is based on the Internal Revenue Code, its legislative history, existing and proposed U.S. Treasury regulations thereunder and published rulings and decisions, all as currently in effect as of the date hereof and all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect. Any such change could affect the continuing validity of this discussion. Tax considerations under state, local and foreign laws, or federal laws other than those pertaining to the income tax, are not addressed in this document. The actual tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on your specific situation and on factors that are not within the control of Central Valley Community Bancorp, Central Valley Community Bank, or Sierra Vista Bank. You should consult with your own tax advisors as to the tax consequences of the merger in your particular circumstances, including the applicability and effect of the alternative minimum tax and any state, local or foreign and other tax laws and of changes in those laws.

This discussion addresses only those shareholders of Sierra Vista Bank who are U.S. holders and who hold their Sierra Vista Bank common stock as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Internal Revenue Code. It does not address all the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to particular shareholders of Sierra Vista Bank in light of their individual circumstances or to shareholders of Sierra Vista Bank who are subject to special rules, such as financial institutions; investors in pass-through entities; regulated investment companies; real estate investment companies; insurance companies; tax-exempt organizations; dealers in securities or currencies; traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting; persons that hold Sierra Vista Bank common stock as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale or conversion transaction; certain expatriates or persons that have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar; persons who are not U.S. holders; shareholders who acquired their shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation or through a tax-qualified retirement plan; persons liable for the alternative minimum tax; and partnerships or other pass-through entities for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

If a partnership, including for this purpose any entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes, holds Sierra Vista Bank common stock, the tax treatment of a partner generally will depend on the status of the partners and the activities of the partnership. If you are a partner of a partnership holding Sierra Vista Bank common stock, you should consult your tax advisor.

For purposes of this discussion, a “U.S. holder” is a beneficial owner of Sierra Vista Bank common stock who for U.S. federal income tax purposes is an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States; a corporation, or an entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any state or political subdivision thereof; a trust that (i) is subject to (a) the primary supervision of a court within the U.S. and (b) the authority of one or more U.S. persons to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or (ii) has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury regulations to be treated as a U.S. person; or an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source.

The Merger. Based upon the foregoing, and subject to the limitations, assumptions and qualifications described herein, it is the opinion of Downey Brand that the material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger applicable to U.S. holders of Sierra Vista Bank common stock who exchange their shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock in the merger, will be as follows:

- the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code;
- none of Sierra Vista Bank, Central Valley Community Bancorp or Central Valley Community Bank will recognize gain or loss as a result of the merger;
- a shareholder of Sierra Vista Bank generally will not recognize any gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a result of the exchange of the holder’s Sierra Vista Bank shares solely for Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock pursuant to the merger, and will recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount not to exceed any cash received as part of the merger consideration (except with respect to any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock, as discussed below under “Cash Received in Lieu of a Fractional Share of Central Valley Community Bancorp Common Stock”);
- gain (but not loss) will be recognized by shareholders of Sierra Vista Bank who receive shares of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock and cash in exchange for shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock pursuant to the merger, in an amount equal to the lesser of (i) the amount by which the sum of the fair market value of the Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock and cash received by a shareholder of Sierra Vista Bank exceeds such shareholder’s basis in its Sierra Vista Bank common stock, and (ii) the amount of cash received by such shareholder (except with respect to any cash received in lieu of fractional share interests in Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock, as discussed below under “Cash Received In Lieu of a Fractional Share of Central Valley Community Bancorp Common Stock”);
- the aggregate basis of the Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock received in the merger will be the same as the aggregate basis of the Sierra Vista Bank common stock for which it is exchanged, decreased by the amount of cash received in the merger and decreased by any basis attributable to fractional share interests in Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock for which cash is received, and increased by the amount of gain recognized on the exchange other than in respect of fractional shares (regardless of whether such gain is classified as capital gain or as ordinary dividend income, as discussed below under “Additional Considerations-Recharacterization of Gain as a Dividend”); and
- the holding period for the shares of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock received in exchange for shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock in the merger by a shareholder of Sierra Vista Bank (including fractional shares deemed received) will include the holding period of the shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock exchanged therefor.

Taxation as Capital Gain. Except as described under “Additional Considerations-Recharacterization of Gain as a Dividend” below, gain that Sierra Vista Bank shareholders recognize in connection with the merger generally will constitute capital gain and will constitute long-term capital gain if such shareholders have held (or are treated as having held) their Sierra Vista Bank common stock for more than one year as of the date of the merger. For Sierra Vista Bank shareholders that are non-corporate holders of Sierra Vista Bank common stock, long-term capital gain generally will be taxed at preferential rates.

Additional Considerations-Recharacterization of Gain as a Dividend. All or part of the gain that a particular shareholder recognizes could be treated as dividend income rather than capital gain if (i) such shareholder is a significant shareholder of Central Valley Community Bancorp or (ii) such Sierra Vista Bank shareholder’s percentage ownership, taking into account constructive ownership rules, in Central Valley Community Bancorp after the merger is not meaningfully reduced from what its percentage ownership would have been if it had received solely shares of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock rather than a combination of cash and shares of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock in the merger. This could happen, for example, because of ownership of additional shares of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock by such Sierra Vista Bank shareholder or ownership of shares of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock by a person related to such Sierra Vista Bank shareholder. The Internal Revenue Service has indicated in rulings that any reduction in the interest of a minority shareholder that owns a small number of shares in a publicly and widely held corporation and that exercises no control over corporate affairs would result in capital gain as opposed to dividend treatment. Because the possibility of dividend treatment depends primarily upon such Sierra Vista Bank shareholder's particular circumstances, including the application of certain constructive ownership rules, Sierra Vista Bank shareholders should consult their own tax advisors regarding the potential tax consequences of the merger to them.

Cash Received in Lieu of a Fractional Share of Central Valley Community Bancorp Common Stock. A U.S. holder that receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock in the merger generally will be treated as if the fractional share of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock had been distributed to them as part of the merger, and then redeemed by Central Valley Community Bancorp in exchange for the cash actually distributed in lieu of the fractional share, with the redemption generally qualifying as an "exchange" under Section 302 of the Internal Revenue Code. Consequently, those holders generally will recognize capital gain or loss with respect to the cash payments they receive in lieu of fractional shares measured by the difference between the amount of cash received and the tax basis allocated to the fractional shares, and such gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if, as of the effective date of the merger, the holding period of such shares is greater than one year. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitation under the Internal Revenue Code.

Miscellaneous. If a holder of Sierra Vista Bank common stock receives Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock in the merger and owned immediately before the merger (i) 5% or more, by vote or value, of the common stock of Sierra Vista Bank or (ii) securities of Sierra Vista Bank with a tax basis of $1 million or more, the holder will be required to file a statement with its U.S. federal income tax return for the year of the merger. The statement must set forth such holder's adjusted tax basis in, and the fair market value of, the shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock it surrendered in the merger, the date of the merger, and the name and employer identification numbers of Central Valley Community Bancorp and Sierra Vista Bank, and such holder will be required to retain permanent records of these facts.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting. Any cash proceeds received by a holder of Sierra Vista Bank common stock pursuant to the merger may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding. Backup withholding will not apply if the holder provides proof of an applicable exemption or furnishes its taxpayer identification number on an Internal Revenue Service Form W-9 (or substitute), and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a holder under the backup withholding rules are not additional tax and will be allowed as a refund or credit against the holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished to the Internal Revenue Service. The backup withholding tax rate is currently 28%.

This discussion of the material U.S. federal income tax consequences does not purport to be a complete analysis or listing of all potential tax effects that may apply to a holder of Sierra Vista Bank common stock. Further, it is not intended to be, and should not be construed as, tax advice. Holders of Sierra Vista Bank common stock are urged to consult their independent tax advisors with respect to the application of U.S. federal income tax laws to their particular situations as well as any tax consequences arising under the U.S. federal estate or gift tax rules, or under the laws of any state, local, foreign or other taxing jurisdiction or under any applicable tax treaty.

Accounting Treatment

Central Valley Community Bancorp will account for the merger as a purchase under the acquisition method of accounting as required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Under this method of accounting, the tangible and identifiable intangible assets and liabilities of the company acquired are recorded at their respective fair value as of completion of the merger, and are added to those of the acquiring company. In addition, any excess or deficiency of the difference between the total acquisition cost as compared to the net sum of these assets and liabilities will result in goodwill or a bargain purchase price being

The Sierra Vista Bank board of directors was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby and making its recommendation that Sierra Vista Bank shareholders vote to approve the merger proposal. These interests are described in further detail below.

Insurance

Pursuant to the merger agreement, Central Valley Community Bancorp is required to maintain in effect the current policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance maintained by Sierra Vista Bank (or comparable coverage) for a period of six years from the effective date of the merger with respect to possible claims against directors and/or executive officers of Sierra Vista Bank arising from facts or events which occurred prior the effective time of the merger.

Indemnification

Central Valley Community Bancorp agreed to indemnify the directors and officers of Sierra Vista Bank, against all losses, claims, damages, costs, expenses (including attorneys' fees), liabilities or judgments or amounts that are paid in settlement of or in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding, investigation or other legal proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of matters existing or occurring at or before the

Cooperation Agreements

As a condition to consummation of the merger, each of the directors and executive officers of Sierra Vista Bank has signed and delivered to Central Valley Community Bancorp a cooperation agreement that may not be revoked prior to the effective time of the merger. The agreement will remain in effect for twenty-four months following the effective time of the merger. The agreement includes provisions permitting Central Valley Community Bancorp to seek remedies for breach, including injunctive relief and specific performance.

Dissenters' Rights of Sierra Vista Bank's Shareholders

Dissenters' rights will be available to the Sierra Vista Bank shareholders in accordance with Chapter 13 of the California Corporations Code. The required procedure set forth in Chapter 13 of the California Corporations Code must be followed exactly or any dissenters' rights may be lost.

The information set forth below is a general summary of dissenters' rights as they apply to Sierra Vista Bank shareholders and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Chapter 13 of the California Corporations Code which is attached to this proxy statement-prospectus as Appendix B.

Fair Market Value of Shares

If the merger is approved, Sierra Vista Bank shareholders who dissent from the merger by complying with the procedures set forth in Chapter 13 of the California Corporations Code will be entitled to receive an amount equal to the fair market value of their shares as of April 28, 2016, the last business day before the public announcement of the merger.

Voting Procedure

In order to be entitled to exercise dissenters' rights, the shares of Sierra Vista Bank capital stock which are outstanding on the record date and entitled to vote at the special shareholders' meeting must not have been voted "FOR" the merger by the holder of such shares. Thus, any Sierra Vista Bank shareholder who wishes to dissent and executes and returns a proxy in the accompanying form or votes at the special shareholders' meeting must not vote "FOR" the merger. If the shareholder returns a proxy without voting instructions or with instructions to vote "FOR" the merger, or votes in person at the special shareholders' meeting "FOR" the merger, his or her shares will be counted as votes in favor of the merger and the shareholder will lose any dissenters' rights.

Written Demand

Furthermore, in order to preserve his or her dissenters' rights, a Sierra Vista Bank shareholder must make a written demand upon Sierra Vista Bank for the purchase of dissenting shares and payment to the shareholder of their fair market value, specifying the number of shares held of record by the shareholder and a statement of what the shareholder claims to be the fair market value of those shares as of April 28, 2016. The demand must be addressed to Sierra Vista Bank, 1710 Prairie City Road, Suite 100, Folsom, California 95630; Attention: G. Eric Northman, Corporate Secretary, and the demand must be received by Sierra Vista Bank not later than 30 days after the date on which the written notice of approval, described below, is sent to shareholders who have not voted "FOR" approval of the merger. A vote "AGAINST" the merger does not constitute the written demand.

Notice of Approval

If the merger is approved by the Sierra Vista Bank shareholders, Sierra Vista Bank will have 10 days after the approval to send to those shareholders who have not voted "FOR" approval of the merger a written notice of the approval accompanied by a copy of sections 1300 through 1312 of the California Corporations Code, a statement of the price determined by Sierra Vista Bank to represent the fair market value of the dissenting shares as of April 28, 2016, and a brief description of the procedure to be followed if a shareholder desires to exercise dissenters' rights. The statement of price determined by Sierra Vista Bank to represent the fair market value of dissenting shares, as set forth in the notice of approval, will constitute an offer by Sierra Vista Bank to purchase the dissenting shares at the stated price if the merger becomes effective and the dissenting shares do not otherwise lose their status as such.

Surrender of Certificates

Within 30 days after the date on which the notice of the approval of the merger is mailed, the dissenting shareholder must surrender to Sierra Vista Bank, at the office designated in the notice of approval, both the written demand and the certificates representing the dissenting shares to be stamped or endorsed with a statement that they are dissenting shares or to be exchanged for certificates of appropriate denomination so stamped or endorsed. Any shares of Sierra Vista Bank capital stock that are transferred prior to their submission for endorsement lose their status as dissenting shares.

Agreement on Price and Payment

If Sierra Vista Bank and the dissenting shareholder agree that the surrendered shares are dissenting shares and agree upon the price of the shares, the dissenting shareholder will be entitled to the agreed price with interest thereon at the legal rate on judgments from the date of the agreement between Sierra Vista Bank and the dissenting shareholder. Payment of the fair market value of the dissenting shares will be made within 30 days after the amount thereof has been agreed upon or 30 days after any statutory or contractual conditions to the merger have been satisfied, whichever is later, subject to the surrender of the certificates therefor, unless provided otherwise by agreement.

Table of Contents

Disagreement on Price and Court Determination

If Sierra Vista Bank denies that the shares surrendered are dissenting shares, or Sierra Vista Bank and the dissenting shareholder fail to agree upon a fair market value of the shares of Sierra Vista Bank capital stock, then the dissenting shareholder of Sierra Vista Bank must, within six months after the notice of approval is mailed, file a complaint at the Superior Court of the proper county requesting the court to make the determination or intervene in any pending action brought by any other dissenting shareholder. If the complaint is not filed or intervention in a pending action is not made within the specified six-month period, the dissenters' rights are lost. If the fair market value of the dissenting shares is at issue, the court will determine, or will appoint one or more impartial appraisers to determine, the fair market value.

Withdrawal of Demand

A dissenting shareholder may not withdraw his or her dissent or demand for payment unless Sierra Vista Bank consents to the withdrawal.

Opinion of Sierra Vista Bank's Financial Advisor

Opinion of Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P.

By letter dated March 16, 2016, Sierra Vista Bank retained Sandler O'Neill, to act as financial advisor to Sierra Vista Bank's board of directors in connection with Sierra Vista Bank's consideration of its strategic alternatives including a possible business combination. Sandler O'Neill is a nationally recognized investment banking firm whose principal business specialty is financial institutions. In the ordinary course of its investment banking business, Sandler O'Neill is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions.

Sandler O'Neill acted as financial advisor in connection with the proposed Merger and participated in certain of the negotiations leading to the execution of the Merger Agreement. At the April 28, 2016 meeting at which Sierra Vista Bank's board of directors considered and discussed the terms of the Merger Agreement and the Merger, Sandler O'Neill delivered to Sierra Vista Bank's board of directors its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of such date, the Merger Consideration was fair to the holders of Sierra Vista Bank common stock from a financial point of view. The full text of Sandler O'Neill's opinion is attached as Appendix C to this proxy statement-prospectus. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill in rendering its opinion. Sandler O'Neill has not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw its opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date of its opinion. The opinion was directed to Sierra Vista Bank's board of directors in connection with its consideration of the Merger and is directed only to the fairness of the Merger Consideration to the holders of Sierra Vista Bank common stock from a financial point of view. It does not address the underlying business decision of Sierra Vista Bank to engage in the Merger or any other aspect of the Merger and is not a recommendation to any holder of Sierra Vista Bank's common stock as to how such shareholder should vote at the special meeting with respect to the Merger or any other matter. Sandler O'Neill's opinion does not address the underlying business decision of Sierra Vista Bank to engage in the Merger or any other aspect of the Merger, the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any other alternative business strategies that might exist for Sierra Vista Bank or the effect of any other transaction in which Sierra Vista Bank might engage. Sandler O'Neill did not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the Merger by Sierra Vista Bank's officers, directors or employees, or class of such persons, relative to the per share consideration to be received by Sierra Vista Bank's shareholders.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion was approved by Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion committee.

Vista Bank's or Central Valley Community Bancorp's assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to Sandler O'Neill. Sandler O'Neill assumed in all respects material to its analysis that Sierra Vista Bank and Central Valley Community Bancorp would remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to its analyses.

Sandler O'Neill's analyses were necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Sandler O'Neill as of, the date thereof. Events occurring after the date thereof could materially affect Sandler O'Neill's opinion. Sandler O'Neill has not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw its opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date thereof. Sandler O'Neill expressed no opinion as to the trading values of Sierra Vista Bank common stock or Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock at any time or what the value of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock would be once it is actually received by the holders of Sierra Vista Bank common stock.

In rendering its opinion, Sandler O'Neill performed a variety of financial analyses. The summary below is not a complete description of the analyses underlying Sandler O'Neill's opinion or the presentation made by Sandler O'Neill to Sierra Vista Bank's board of directors, but is a summary of all material analyses performed and presented by Sandler O'Neill. The summary includes information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses, these tables must be read together with the accompanying text. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. The process, therefore, is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. Sandler O'Neill believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the factors and analyses to be considered without considering all factors and analyses, or attempting to ascribe relative weights to some or all such factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying its opinion. Also, no company included in Sandler O'Neill's comparative analyses described below is identical to Sierra Vista Bank or Central Valley Community Bancorp and no transaction is identical to the Merger. Accordingly, an analysis of comparable companies or transactions involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that could affect the public trading values or merger transaction values, as the case may be, of Sierra Vista Bank or Central Valley Community Bancorp and the companies to which they are being compared. In arriving at its opinion, Sandler O'Neill did not attribute any particular weight to any analysis or factor that it considered. Rather, Sandler O'Neill made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor. Sandler O'Neill did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor (positive or negative) considered in isolation supported or failed to support its opinion; rather, Sandler O'Neill made its determination as to the fairness of the Merger Consideration on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all its analyses taken as a whole. In performing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill also made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and various other matters, many of which cannot be predicted and are beyond the control of Sierra Vista Bank, Central Valley Community Bancorp and Sandler O'Neill. The analyses performed by Sandler O'Neill are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, both of which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Sandler O'Neill prepared its analyses solely for purposes of rendering its opinion and provided such analyses to Sierra Vista Bank's board of directors at its April 28, 2016 meeting. Estimates on the values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or their securities may actually be sold. Such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty and actual values may be materially different. Accordingly, Sandler O'Neill's analyses do not necessarily reflect the value of Sierra Vista Bank's common stock or the prices at which Sierra Vista Bank's common stock or Central Valley Community Bancorp's common stock may be sold at any time. The analyses of Sandler O'Neill and its opinion were among a number of factors taken into consideration by Sierra Vista Bank's board of directors in making its determination to approve the Merger Agreement and the analyses described below should not be viewed as determinative of the decision of Sierra Vista Bank's board of directors or management with respect to the fairness of the Merger.

As discussed with senior management of Sierra Vista Bank, the analysis assumed that no dividends are paid to shareholders.

To approximate the terminal value of a share of Sierra Vista Bank common stock at December 31, 2020, Sandler O’Neill applied price to 2020 earnings multiples ranging from 10.0x to 18.0x and multiples of December 31, 2020 tangible book value ranging from 75% to 125%. The terminal values were then discounted to present values using different discount rates ranging from 10.0% to 16.0%, which were chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of Sierra Vista Bank common stock. To approximate the terminal value of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock at December 31, 2020, Sandler O'Neill applied price to 2020 earnings multiples ranging from 10.0x to 20.0x and multiples of December 31, 2020 tangible book value ranging from 90% to 160%. The terminal values were then discounted to present values using different discount rates ranging from 10.0% to 15.0%, which were chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding required rates of return of holders or prospective buyers of Central Valley Community Bancorp's common stock. As illustrated in the following tables, the analysis indicated an imputed range of values per share of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock of $8.26 to $19.21 when applying earnings multiples and $7.98 to $16.57 when applying multiples of tangible book value.

Sandler O'Neill also considered and discussed with the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors how this analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including variations with respect to net income. To illustrate this impact, Sandler O'Neill performed a similar analysis assuming Central Valley Community Bancorp's net income varied from 25% above estimates to 25% below estimates. This analysis resulted in the following range of per share values for Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock, applying the price to 2020 earnings multiples range of 10.0x to 20.0x referred to above and a discount rate of 13.99%.

In connection with its analyses, Sandler O'Neill considered and discussed with the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors how the present value analyses would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions. Sandler O'Neill noted that the net present value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent upon the numerous assumptions that must be made, and the results thereof are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results.

Pro Forma Merger Analysis. Sandler O'Neill analyzed certain potential pro forma effects of the Merger, based on the following assumptions: (i) the Merger closes in the third calendar quarter of 2016, and; (ii) 59% of the value of the outstanding Sierra Vista Bank common stock is converted into the number of shares of Central Valley Community Bancorp stock equal to the Exchange Ratio and 41% of the value of the outstanding Sierra Vista Bank common stockholders receive the Per Share Cash Consideration. Sandler O'Neill also incorporated the following assumptions, as provided by Central Valley Community Bancorp's senior management and its representatives: (a) internal financial projections for Sierra Vista Bank for the years ending December 31, 2106 through December 31, 2020 as provided by the senior management of Central Valley Community Bancorp; (b) purchase accounting adjustments consisting of (i) a credit mark on loans, (ii) an interest rate mark on loans, (iii) a core deposit intangible; (c) estimated annual cost savings; (d) estimated, pre-tax, one-time transaction costs; (e) an annual pre-tax opportunity cost of cash; and (f) a reduction in the cost of deposits for Sierra Vista Bank. The analysis indicated that the Merger could be accretive to Central Valley Community Bancorp's estimated earnings per share in 2017 (excluding transaction expenses) and dilutive to estimated tangible book value per share at close.

In connection with this analyses, Sandler O'Neill considered and discussed with the Sierra Vista Bank board of directors how the analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including the impact of final purchase accounting adjustments determined at the closing of the transaction, and noted that the actual results achieved by the combined company may vary from projected results and the variations may be material.

Sandler O'Neill's Relationship. Sandler O'Neill is acting as financial advisor to Sierra Vista Bank's board of directors in connection with the Merger and will receive a transaction fee of $375,000, which fee is contingent upon closing of the Merger. Sandler O'Neill also received a fee in an amount equal to $75,000 upon rendering its fairness opinion, which opinion fee will be credited in full towards the transaction fee that will become due and payable to Sandler O'Neill on the day of closing of the Merger. Sierra Vista Bank has also agreed to reimburse Sandler O'Neill for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with its engagement and to indemnify Sandler O'Neill and its affiliates and their respective partners, directors, officers, employees and agents against certain claims and liabilities arising out of Sandler O'Neill's engagement.

Sandler O'Neill did not provide any other investment banking services to Sierra Vista Bank in the two years preceding the date of its opinion nor did Sandler O'Neill provided any investment banking services to Central Valley Community Bancorp in the two years preceding the date of its opinion. In the ordinary course of its business as a broker-dealer, Sandler O'Neill may purchase securities from or sell securities to Sierra Vista Bank, Central Valley Community Bancorp or their respective affiliates. Sandler O'Neill may also actively trade the securities of Sierra Vista Bank or Central Valley Community Bancorp for its own account and for the accounts of its customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

Summary of the Merger

Central Valley Community Bancorp, CVC Bank, and Sierra Vista Bank entered into the merger agreement on April 28, 2016, which is incorporated into this prospectus by reference to Appendix A hereto. Under the merger agreement's terms, Sierra Vista Bank will merge with and into Central Valley Community Bancorp's sole subsidiary, CVC Bank. The separate corporate existence of Sierra Vista Bank will cease, and CVC Bank will be the survivor. Each share of Sierra Vista Bank common stock issued and outstanding (other than shares with respect to which dissenters' rights have been perfected) will be converted into the right to receive merger consideration consisting of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock and cash. Please read the sections entitled "The Merger—Calculation of Consideration to be Paid to Sierra Vista Bank Shareholders" and "The Merger—Dissenters' Rights of Sierra Vista Bank's Shareholders" for additional information.

Each share of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock outstanding immediately before the effectiveness of the merger closes will remain outstanding after the effectiveness of the merger.

Central Valley Community Bancorp and Sierra Vista Bank have structured the merger with the intent to qualify it as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368 of the Internal Revenue Code. However, under Section 368, the tax-free designation would apply only to the stock consideration that Sierra Vista Bank shareholders would receive in connection with the merger and, accordingly, they are expected to have taxable income depending on the actual amount of cash consideration they receive in the merger and their individual tax situations. For more information, you are urged to read the section entitled "The Merger—Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences" for additional information.

Prior to the Effective Time, the vesting of outstanding options to purchase shares of Sierra Vista Bank stock ("SVB Options") shall accelerate and all SVB Options shall become immediately exercisable. Immediately prior to the Effective Time, Sierra Vista Bank shall redeem each unexercised SVB Option for cash in an amount equal to the difference between the exercise price of the SVB Option and the Per Share Merger Price. Any SVB Option that is exercisable at a price higher than the Per Share Merger Price shall not be redeemed, and such SVB Options shall be canceled without payment at the Effective Time. The 261,875 SVB Options outstanding on the Signing Date that had exercise prices lower than the Per Share Merger Price of $5.20 had a weighted average exercise price of $2.88. If none of those SVB Options are exercised prior to the Effective Time, Sierra Vista Bank would pay an aggregate $607,550 immediately prior to the Effective Time to redeem them.

Prior to the Effective Time, Sierra Vista Bank shall obtain amendments to all outstanding warrants to purchase shares of Sierra Vista Bank stock ("SVB Warrants), to permit Sierra Vista Bank to purchase each unexercised SVB Warrant immediately prior to the Effective Time for cash in an amount equal to the difference between the exercise price of the SVB Warrant and the Per Share Merger Price. The amendments to the SVB Warrants shall further provide that no SVB Warrant shall remain exercisable after the earlier of the Closing Date or December 31, 2016 (with an automatic extension to February 28, 2017, if regulatory approvals for the merger have not been obtained by December 31, 2016). The 385,979 SVB Warrants outstanding on the Signing Date had an exercise price of $2.00 per share. If none of those SVB Warrants are exercised prior to the Effective Time, Sierra Vista Bank would pay an estimated aggregate $1,252,890 immediately prior to the Effective Time to redeem them.

The Closing

The merger will be effective at the date and time an agreement of merger (substantially in the form attached to the merger agreement as Appendix B) is filed with the California Department of Business Oversight following its prior certification by the California Secretary of State. At the closing the parties will exchange various documents, including officers' certificates, as required by the merger agreement. The merger agreement provides that the merger shall be effective within ten calendar days after each of the closing conditions in the merger agreement (described in greater detail below) have been satisfied or waived, including the receipt of all regulatory approvals and the expiration of all applicable waiting periods in connection with the regulatory approvals, or such other date as the parties shall mutually agree.

Based upon the timing for Sierra Vista Bank's special shareholders' meeting and the present and anticipated timing of the regulatory approvals, it is presently anticipated that the merger will close on or about October 1, 2016. Neither Central Valley Community Bancorp, CVC Bank, nor Sierra Vista Bank can assure you that the merger will close when anticipated.

Letter of Transmittal; Exchange Agent; and Exchange Procedure

Following the effectiveness of the merger, a letter of transmittal form will be sent by an exchange agent containing instructions for endorsing and surrendering the Sierra Vista Bank stock certificates to those shareholders who have not previously returned a letter of transmittal with their form or election. Under the merger agreement, Central Valley Community Bancorp has appointed Computershare Shareholder Services, Inc. as exchange agent for the purpose of exchanging the merger consideration for Sierra Vista Bank stock certificates. Sierra Vista Bank shareholders must follow the instructions on the letter of transmittal to send in the Sierra Vista Bank stock certificates for exchange. For information on the amount and nature of the consideration Sierra Vista Bank shareholders would be entitled to receive in exchange for his, her or its shares of Sierra Vista Bank stock, including the shareholder's election of the form of merger consideration, and the process for determining whether the election of some shareholders will not be honored, please see "The Merger – Calculation of Consideration to be Paid to Sierra Vista Bank Shareholders."

IMPORTANT NOTE: Despite an election to receive a particular form of merger consideration, any individual Sierra Vista Bank shareholder may receive merger consideration in a different form, depending on the number and kind of elections made by other shareholders of Sierra Vista Bank Shares.

Sierra Vista Bank Shareholders will not receive any dividends or other distributions of any kind which are declared payable to shareholders of record of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock after the effective time of the merger until such shareholder properly surrenders his, her or its Sierra Vista Bank stock certificates. Upon proper surrender, such shareholder will be paid, without interest, any dividends or other distributions with respect to the shares of Central Valley Community Bancorp common stock as to which the record date and payment date occurred on or after the effective time of the merger and on or before the date on which the shareholder surrendered his, her or its Sierra Vista Bank stock certificates.

Neither Sierra Vista Bank nor Central Valley Community Bancorp will be liable to Sierra Vista Bank shareholders for such shares (or dividends or distributions thereon) or cash delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

In order for Sierra Vista Bank shareholder stock certificate surrender to be accepted by the exchange agent, the letter of transmittal must be properly completed and signed and accompanied by the applicable Sierra Vista Bank stock certificates or instruments of transfer as described in the letter of transmittal. If a shareholder is unable to locate his, her or its stock certificate, the shareholder must follow instructions in the letter of transmittal regarding lost stock certificates.

Following the completion of the merger and upon surrender of all of the certificates representing former shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock registered in the shareholder's name, or a satisfactory indemnity if any of such certificates are lost, stolen or destroyed, together with a properly completed letter of transmittal form, the exchange agent will mail to the shareholder the cash and/or Central Valley Community Bancorp Shares to which such shareholder is entitled, less the amount of any required withholding taxes. Sierra Vista Bank shareholders will not receive interest on any cash.

Some of these obligations are mutual, and others are specific to one party or the other. The following discussion is intended to summarize the covenants contained in the merger agreement, but investors should consult the merger agreement at Appendix A for complete details.

Actions by Sierra Vista Bank

The merger agreement places significant restrictions on Sierra Vista Bank regarding the conduct of its businesses between the date of the merger agreement and the Closing. In addition, Sierra Vista Bank has agreed that until the Closing and subject to certain exceptions, including Central Valley Community Bancorp's prior approval, Sierra Vista Bank will not, other than in the ordinary and usual course of business:

Sierra Vista Bank has also agreed to use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain and deliver to Central Valley Community Bancorp at the closing of the merger, the waivers, approvals and consents to assignment for all material contracts identified as requiring such waivers, approvals and consents, and, after receipt of all regulatory approvals required to consummate the merger, to permit Central Valley Community Bancorp to provide notice to the customers of Sierra Vista Bank to describe the merger, the effect on customers and planned transition procedures.

Prior to the merger Sierra Vista Bank shall, as requested by Central Valley Community Bancorp, modify certain of its accounting practices so as to make such practices consistent with those of Central Valley Community Bancorp.

Actions by Central Valley Community Bancorp

Central Valley Community Bancorp and CVC Bank have each agreed to take no action that would reasonably be expected to materially impair or delay consummation of the merger, or prevent the merger from qualifying as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. In addition, each of Central Valley Community Bancorp and CVC Bank agrees not to declare or pay any distributions on or in respect of any of its capital stock, other than ordinary quarterly cash dividends in conformity with past practice, and except for dividends made by Central Valley Community Bank to Central Valley Community Bancorp to fund consummation of the merger. Both CVC Bank and Sierra Vista Bank have agreed to cooperate in the filing with the SEC of the registration statement that includes this proxy statement-prospectus, and by which the shares of Central Valley Community Bancorp Shares shall be registered for issuance in connection with the merger. The parties also made representations and warranties relating to the accuracy and completeness of the information that is provided to one another in connection the preparation of the registration statement and the exhibits thereto. The parties have agreed to consult with one another regarding the preparation and distribution of any press releases relating to the merger.

The parties have agreed to exchange information relating to each of their respective financial statements and the preparation thereof, including advising one another as to the existence and content of any management letters provided by their respective auditors.

In addition to the actions describe above, prior to the Closing Sierra Vista Bank has agreed to:

Director Appointment and Indemnification After the Merger

Central Valley Community Bancorp has agreed to, contingent upon the closing of the merger, increase the authorized number of directors by one director and appoint Gary D. Gall to fill the newly-created vacancy on the board of directors of Central Valley Community Bancorp, to hold office until the first annual meeting of shareholders of Central Valley Community Bancorp, until his successor is elected and qualified or until otherwise removed. Central Valley Community Bancorp has also agreed to nominate Mr. Gall for election to the Central Valley Community Bancorp board at the 2017 annual shareholder meeting, provided that he satisfies the standards of the Central Valley Community Bancorp nominating committee and subject to the fiduciary duties of the Central Valley Community Bancorp board and nominating committee.

To provide Mr. Gall with an opportunity to make resales of Central Valley Community Bancorp Shares following the merger without incurring liability under Section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act, Central Valley Community Bancorp has agreed to adopt resolutions to include any CVCY Shares issued to Mr. Gall in connection with the merger within the exemption under SEC Rule 16b-3.

CVC Bank has agreed to indemnify and hold harmless (and to advance expenses as incurred), to the fullest extent permitted by law, each present and former director and officer of Sierra Vista Bank (when acting in such capacity) from and against any costs, expenses, judgments, fines, losses, and similar damages arising out of matters existing or occurring prior to the merger. Subject to maximum premium expenditures under the merger agreement, Central Valley Community Bancorp has agreed to maintain in effect a directors' and officers' liability insurance policy for a period of six years after the merger on terms equivalent to those currently in force for Sierra Vista Bank, for claims arising from facts or events which occurred prior to the merger.

The foregoing is a summary of some of the negative and affirmative covenants of the merger agreement. Each shareholder is encouraged to carefully read the terms of the merger agreement attached as Appendix A, including the specific covenants contained in Article III and Article V.

Sierra Vista Bank's Ability to Solicit or Accept Competing Proposals

The merger agreement provides that Sierra Vista Bank shall immediately cease any written or oral discussions, negotiations or communication with any other parties that may be ongoing with respect to the possibility or consideration of an acquisition proposal (any inquiry, proposal or offer related to the acquisition or purchase of the material assets or deposits of Sierra Vista Bank, or more than five percent of any class of equity securities of Sierra Vista Bank, or merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, tender offer, stock purchase, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving Sierra Vista Bank). Sierra Vista Bank has also agreed not to solicit, encourage or facilitate third party acquisition proposals which would reasonably be expected to lead to an acquisition proposal, and requires that if such a proposal is received, notification must be given to Central Valley

Table of Contents

Community Bancorp. Notwithstanding the prohibition on soliciting or encouraging such proposals, the merger agreement recognizes that an unsolicited third party proposal might be received. Moreover, the merger agreement permits Sierra Vista Bank to engage in discussions or negotiations with the third party to the extent necessary to prevent a violation of the fiduciary duties of the board of directors of Sierra Vista Bank, if the proposal is determined, after consultation with counsel and a financial advisor, to be superior, from the shareholders' perspective, to the merger. Sierra Vista Bank has agreed to keep Central Valley Community Bancorp apprised of any developments, discussions and negotiations related to such superior proposal.

In the event the merger agreement is terminated by Sierra Vista Bank in connection with a superior proposal or if the board of directors of Sierra Vista Bank approves, or if Sierra Vista Bank authorizes, recommends, publicly proposes or publicly announces its intention to authorize, recommend or approve an acquisition proposal from any third party, Sierra Vista Bank will be obligated to pay a termination fee to Central Valley Community Bancorp in the amount of $800,000 plus the out of pocket costs incurred by Central Valley Bancorp in working on the merger (up to a total of $100,000).

The foregoing is a summary of the provisions of the merger agreement regarding discussions with third parties. You are encouraged to read the terms of the merger agreement attached as Appendix A, including the specific provisions contained in Sections 5.7 and 7.2 of the merger agreement.

by either party, if the merger has failed to occur by February 28, 2017, except to the extent such failure shall be due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement to perform or observe the covenants and agreements of such party;

by either party if the approval of any governmental authority required for the consummation of the merger has been denied by final nonappealable action or withdrawal, except to the extent such denial or withdrawal shall be due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement to perform or observe the covenants and agreements of such party;

by Central Valley Community Bancorp or CVC Bank if Sierra Vista Bank breaches its covenants and obligations related to the non-solicitation of third-party acquisition proposals, set forth in Section 5.7 of the merger agreement;

by Central Valley Community Bancorp or CVC Bank if Sierra Vista Bank's board of directors alters or modifies its favorable recommendation of the merger and the merger agreement in a manner adverse to Central Valley Community Bancorp or CVC Bank or recommends, endorses, accepts or agrees to an acquisition proposal by any other party; and by Central Valley Community Bancorp or CVC Bank if Sierra Vista Bank enters into a written agreement to effect an acquisition transaction with a third party in connection with a superior proposal.

In addition to the termination provisions described above, under the merger agreement, it is also possible that the merger consideration could be adjusted by a date that is within 10 days of the expected Closing date for the merger, if the trading price of the CVCY Shares both materially changes and materially outperforms or underperforms the

NASDAQ Bank Index. Such adjustment would be calculated on the later of (a) the date following the date of the special meeting of Sierra Vista Bank shareholders or (b) the Determination Date in the following circumstances: Material Underperformance. Sierra Vista Bank shall have the right to terminate the merger if (i) the Lower Determination Date Price is less than $10.20 and (ii) the percentage decline in the price of a CVCY Share from $12.00 exceeds by 15% the percentage decline in the 20-day closing price of the NASDAQ Bank Index between the Signing Date and the Determination Date; provided, however, that Sierra Vista Bank may not terminate the merger agreement if Central Valley Community Bancorp elects to increase the aggregate merger consideration (in cash and/or stock as determined by Central Valley Community Bancorp) to make up the difference as calculated under the merger agreement.

Material Overperformance. Under the merger agreement, Central Valley Community Bancorp has the right to an Over-Performance Termination if:

(i) the volume-weighted average price of the CVCY Shares on NASDAQ for the 20 consecutive trading dates ending on and including the Determination Date is greater than $13.80 (which is 115% of the $12.00 negotiated price of a CVCY Share on the Agreement Date), and

(ii) the volume-weighted average price of the CVCY Shares for the 20 consecutive trading dates ending on and including the Determination Date is such that the CVCY Shares have outperformed the NASDAQ Bank Index by more than 15% since the 20 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date of the merger agreement.

However, Sierra Vista Bank can prevent an Over-Performance Termination by accepting an adjustment to the aggregate merger consideration that reduces the otherwise-payable aggregate merger consideration by an amount equal to number of CVCY Shares included in the aggregate merger consideration (prior to any such adjustment) multiplied by the lesser of (1) the amount by which the volume-weighted average price of the CVCY Shares exceeds $13.80 or (2) the amount by which the volume-weighted average price of the CVCY Shares exceeds the product of 115% of the percentage change in the 20-day average closing price of the NASDAQ Bank Index since the Signing Date multiplied by $12.00. Central Valley Community Bancorp would determine whether the adjusted aggregate merger consideration would be in the form of CVCY Shares, cash, or any combination of CVCY Shares and cash, provided that the adjustment does not result in an aggregate amount of cash that would prevent the merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

On August 1, 2016, the latest practicable date prior to the date of filing this proxy statement-prospectus, the 20-day volume-weighted average price of the CVCY Shares was $14.84, which is greater than $13.80 and represents a 20.4% increase relative to the change in the 20-day average closing price of the NASDAQ Bank Index since the Agreement Date. As a result, Central Valley Community Bancorp would have had the right to terminate the merger agreement if the Determination Date were August 1, 2016. However, Sierra Vista Bank would have had the right under the merger agreement to prevent Central Valley Community Bancorp from terminating the merger agreement, by agreeing to reduce the otherwise payable aggregate merger consideration by approximately $716 thousand. As a result of this adjustment and based on the actual closing price of $15.34 per CVCY Share on August 1, 2016 and without any other adjustments, the implied per share value of the merger consideration received by Sierra Vista Bank shareholders would have been reduced from $6.04 to $5.87, compared to the merger agreement's negotiated value per share of $5.20.

Central Valley Community Bancorp has registered an additional 184,851 shares of common stock (15% above the maximum number of shares expected to be issued in the merger) to be available for issuance if the parties proceed with the merger (following a termination resulting from a Lower Determination Date Price) based on Central Valley Community Bancorp including additional shares as merger consideration. Registration of such additional shares is for the convenience of the parties only. Any decision by Central Valley Community Bancorp to continue with the merger based on the issuance of additional merger consideration would be made under circumstances prevailing at the time. In the event the merger agreement is terminated by Sierra Vista Bank in connection with a superior proposal or if the board of directors of Sierra Vista Bank approves, or if Sierra Vista Bank authorizes, recommends, publicly proposes or publicly announces its intention to authorize, recommend or approve an acquisition proposal from any third party, Sierra Vista Bank will be obligated to pay a termination fee to Central Valley Community Bancorp in the amount of $800,000 plus the out of pocket costs incurred by Central Valley Bancorp in working on the merger (up to a total of $100,000).

The foregoing is a summary of the termination provisions of the merger agreement. You are encouraged to read the terms of the merger agreement attached as Appendix A, including the specific provisions contained in Article VII of the merger agreement.

Expenses

The merger agreement provides that Central Valley Community Bancorp, CVC Bank, and Sierra Vista Bank shall bear their own costs and expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement and the merger.

Cooperation Agreements

Central Valley Community Bancorp has entered into cooperation agreements with each of Sierra Vista Bank's directors, executive officers and certain principal shareholders who hold shares of Sierra Vista Bank's common stock. The cooperation agreements require each of those shareholders to vote in favor of the merger at Sierra Vista Bank's shareholders' meeting or consent to the merger with CVC Bank in any applicable action by written consent of the shareholders. The cooperation agreements signed by executives and directors of Sierra Vista Bank contain non-material variations with respect to non-competition and non-solicitation terms; under the cooperation agreement for Taylor International Fund, Ltd., the shareholder has modified rights under a prior securities purchase agreement.

The directors and executive officers of Sierra Vista Bank and certain principal shareholders owning an aggregate of 43.7% of the common stock outstanding as of July 18, 2016 have agreed to vote their shares in favor of the merger. The cooperation agreements also require each of those shareholders to vote against any merger agreement, share exchange, or merger (other than the proposed merger with CVC Bank), consolidation, combination, sale of substantial assets, merger, recapitalization, dissolution, liquidation, or winding-up of or by Sierra Vista Bank or any amendment of Sierra Vista Bank's Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws or other proposal or transaction involving Sierra Vista Bank, which would impede or prevent the merger with CVC Bank.

Each cooperation agreement also provides that the shareholder will not take any action that will alter or affect in any way the shareholder's right to vote his or her shares of Sierra Vista Bank common stock.

The cooperation agreements bind the actions of the directors only in their capacities as Sierra Vista Bank shareholders. The directors are not and could not be contractually bound to abrogate their fiduciary duties as directors of Sierra Vista Bank. Accordingly, while the directors are contractually bound to vote as a Sierra Vista Bank shareholder in favor of the merger, their fiduciary duties as directors nevertheless require them to act in their capacities as directors in the best interests of Sierra Vista Bank when they consider the merger. In addition, the directors will continue to be bound by their fiduciary duties as Sierra Vista Bank's directors with respect to any further decisions they make in connection with the merger.

Sources of Business

In marketing its services, Sierra Vista Bank emphasizes its identity as a local, community bank, with officers, directors and shareholders who have business and personal ties to the community. Small and medium-size businesses are targeted, as well as accounting, insurance, legal and medical professionals.

Sierra Vista Bank competes with other financial institutions in its service areas through localized promotional activities, personalized service, and personal contact with potential customers by its officers, directors, employees and shareholders. Promotional activities include direct mail, media advertising, community advisory groups and its officers' participation in community business and civic groups. Sierra Vista Bank's executive officers and directors are active members of the community who call personally on their business contacts and acquaintances in the Greater Sacramento, El Dorado and Placer County areas to become customers of the bank.

Competition

The banking business in California generally, and the areas of the Greater Sacramento, El Dorado and Placer Counties in particular, is highly competitive with respect to both loans and deposits and is dominated by a relatively small number of major banks which have offices operating over wide geographic areas. The bank competes for deposits and loans with these banks as well as with savings and loan associations, credit unions, mortgage companies, money market funds, stock brokerage firms, insurance companies, and other traditional and non-traditional financial institutions.

The major banks and some of the other institutions have the ability to finance extensive advertising campaigns and to shift their resources to regions or activities of greater potential profitability. Many of the competing banks and other institutions offer diversified financial services that the bank may not offer. The major banks also have substantially more capital and higher lending limits than the bank.

The bank competes for customers' funds with governmental and private entities issuing debt or equity securities or other forms of investments which may offer different or higher yields than those available through bank deposits. Based upon statistics published by the FDIC, management estimates that as of June 30, 2015, there were 226 banking offices, including offices of major banks, regional and independent banks, and savings and loan associations in the in Sacramento County, 43 in El Dorado County and 109 in Placer County.

The name of Central Valley Community Bank as the surviving entity of the Merger shall remain “Central Valley Community Bank.” From and after the Effective Time, Central Valley Community Bank, as the surviving entity of the Merger, shall possess all of the properties and rights and be subject to all of the liabilities and obligations of SVBank.

(c) Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Surviving Entity. The Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of Central Valley Community Bank, as in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of Central Valley Community Bank, as the surviving corporation of the Merger, until either is thereafter amended in accordance with applicable law.

(d) Directors and Officers of the Surviving Entity. The directors and officers of Central Valley Community Bank immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be the directors and officers of Central Valley Community Bank, as the surviving corporation of the Merger, until their respective successors shall be duly elected and qualified or otherwise duly selected.

2.2. Filing of Agreement of Merger. As soon as practicable, but in no event later than the tenth calendar day after which each of the conditions set forth in Article VI hereof has been satisfied or waived (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at Closing) or such other time as the parties may agree, SVBank and Central Valley Community Bank will file, or cause to be filed, with the DBO and the California Secretary of State an agreement of merger in substantially the form of Annex B to this Agreement effecting the Merger. The Merger shall become effective at the time that such agreement of merger has been filed with the DBO as provided in Section 4887(c) of the California Financial Code (the “Effective Time”).

2.3. Conversion of Common Stock.

(a) SVBank Common Stock. At the Effective Time, each issued and outstanding share of SVBank Common Stock (other than Dissenting Shares) shall be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder thereof as provided in and subject to the provisions of Section 2.4(b), either: (i) a number of shares of Purchaser Common Stock equal to the Exchange Ratio (the “Per Share Stock Consideration”), or (ii) cash in an amount equal to the Per Share Consideration Value (the “Per Share Cash Consideration”) or (iii) a unit consisting of CVCY Common Stock and cash in the amount set forth in Section 2.4(b) (such unit, together with the Per Share Stock Consideration, the Per Share Cash Consideration and any cash in lieu of fractional shares as specified in Section 2.3(b), the “Merger Consideration”).

(b) No Fractional Shares. No fraction of a share of CVCY Common Stock will be issued, but in lieu thereof, each SVBank shareholder who would otherwise be entitled to a fraction of a share of CVCY Common Stock (based on the aggregate number of shares of SVBank Common Stock held by such shareholder) shall be entitled to receive from CVCY an amount of cash (rounded to the nearest whole cent) equal to the product of (i) such fraction, multiplied by (ii) the closing price of CVCY Common Stock reported on Nasdaq on the last Trading Day (as defined in Section 7.1(g)(v)(A)) preceding the Closing Date.

(c) Adjustments. If, between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, the outstanding shares of CVCY Common Stock shall have been increased, decreased, changed into or exchanged for a different number or kind of shares or securities as a result of a reorganization, recapitalization, reclassification, stock dividend, stock split, reverse stock split or other similar change in capitalization, an appropriate and proportionate adjustment shall be made to the Exchange Ratio.

(d) No Effect on Stock of Other Parties. The Merger shall have no effect on the capital stock of CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank.

2.4. Election and Proration Procedures.

(a) CVCY shall cause an election statement permitting each holder of an Exchangeable Share the ability to elect consideration pursuant to Section 2.3(a) and subject to 2.4(e) (the "Election Statement") to be mailed with the Proxy Statement on the date of mailing of the Proxy Statement to each holder of record of SVBank Common Stock as of the record date for the SVBank Shareholder Meeting (the "Record Date").

(b) Each Election Statement shall permit the holder to elect to receive (i) the Per Share Stock Consideration in respect of all of such holder's Exchangeable Shares ("Stock Election Shares"); (ii) the Per Share Cash Consideration in respect of all of such holder's Exchangeable Shares ("Cash Election Shares"); or (iii) the Per Share Stock Consideration in respect of that portion of such holder's Exchangeable Shares equal to the Stock Percentage, rounded to the nearest whole share (the "Mixed Stock Shares") (with, for the avoidance of doubt, cash in lieu of any fractional shares in accordance with Section 2.3(b)), and the Per Share Cash Consideration in respect of that portion of such holder's Exchangeable Shares equal to the Cash Percentage, rounded to the nearest whole share (the "Mixed Cash Shares," and together with the Mixed Stock Shares, the "Mixed Election Shares"). If a holder makes no election with respect to such holder's Exchangeable Shares, or if there are any Exchangeable Shares with respect to which the Exchange Agent has not otherwise received an effective, properly completed Election Statement on or before 5:00 p.m., Pacific Time, on the date prior to the Determination Date (or such other time and date as CVCY and SVBank may mutually agree) (the "Election Deadline"), such shares shall be deemed to be "No Election Shares."

(c) CVCY shall make available one or more Election Statements as may reasonably be requested from time to time by all persons who become holders (or beneficial owners) of SVBank Common Stock between the Record Date and the close of business on the business day prior to the Election Deadline, and SVBank shall provide to the Exchange Agent all information reasonably necessary for it to perform as specified herein.

(d) Any such election shall have been properly made only if the Exchange Agent shall have actually received a properly completed Election Statement by the Election Deadline, and such election is not revoked or changed prior to the Election Deadline. Any Election Statement may be revoked or changed by the person submitting such Election Statement at or prior to the Election Deadline. Subject to the terms of this Agreement and of the Election Statement, the Exchange Agent shall have reasonable discretion to determine whether any election, revocation or change has been properly or timely made and to disregard immaterial defects in the Election Statements, and any good faith decisions of CVCY regarding such matters shall be binding and conclusive. Neither CVCY nor the Exchange Agent shall be under any obligation to notify any person of any defect in an Election Statement. To the extent the holder of Dissenting Shares submits an Election Statement, such holder's election shall have no effect, the Exchange Agent will disregard such Election Statement, and the Dissenting Shares shall be converted in accordance with Section 1.4(f).

(e) Within ten (10) business days after the Election Deadline, unless the Effective Time has not yet occurred, in which case as soon thereafter as practicable, CVCY shall cause the Exchange Agent to effect the allocation among the holders of Exchangeable Shares of rights to receive CVCY Common Stock or cash in the Merger in accordance with the Election Statements as follows:

(i) Cash Election Shares and Mixed Cash Shares More Than Aggregate Cash Consideration. If the aggregate cash amount that would be paid upon the conversion in the Merger of the Cash Election Shares and the Mixed Cash Shares is greater than the Aggregate Cash Consideration, then:

(A) all Proposed Dissenting Shares shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Section 2.4(e)(i), to be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Cash Consideration;

(B) all Mixed Stock Shares, Stock Election Shares and No Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Stock Consideration;

(C) the Exchange Agent shall then select from among the Cash Election Shares, by a pro rata selection process, a sufficient number of shares ("Stock Designated Shares") such that the aggregate cash amount that will be paid in the Merger equals as closely as practicable the Aggregate Cash Consideration, and all Stock Designated Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Stock Consideration; and

(D) the Cash Election Shares that are not Stock Designated Shares and all Mixed Cash Shares will be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Cash Consideration.

(ii) Cash Election Shares and Mixed Cash Shares Less Than Aggregate Cash Consideration. If the aggregate cash amount that would be paid upon conversion in the Merger of the Cash Election Shares and the Mixed Cash Shares is less than the Aggregate Cash Consideration, then:

(A) all Proposed Dissenting Shares shall be deemed, for the purposes of this Section 2.4(e)(ii), to be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Cash Consideration

(B) all Cash Election Shares and Mixed Cash Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Cash Consideration;

(C) the Exchange Agent shall then select first from among the No Election Shares and then (if necessary) from among the Stock Election Shares, by a pro rata selection process, a sufficient number of shares (“Cash Designated Shares”) such that the aggregate cash amount that will be paid in the Merger equals as closely as practicable the Aggregate Cash Consideration, and all Cash Designated Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Cash Consideration; and

(D) the Stock Election Shares and the No Election Shares that are not Cash Designated Shares and all Mixed Stock Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Stock Consideration.

(iii) Cash Election Shares and Mixed Cash Shares Equal to Aggregate Cash Consideration. If the aggregate cash amount that would be paid upon conversion in the Merger of the Cash Election Shares, Proposed Dissenting Shares and the Mixed Cash Shares is equal or nearly equal (as determined by the Exchange Agent) to the Aggregate Cash Consideration, then subparagraphs (i) and (ii) above shall not apply, and all Cash Election Shares and Mixed Cash Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Cash Consideration, and all Stock Election Shares, Mixed Stock Shares and No Election Shares shall be converted into the right to receive the Per Share Stock Consideration, and all Proposed Dissenting Shares shall be converted in accordance with Section 2.4(f).

(f) The pro rata selection process to be used by the Exchange Agent shall consist of such equitable proration processes consistent with the foregoing and as shall be determined in good faith by CVCY and reasonably satisfactory to SVBank.

2.5. Exchange Procedures; Dissenting Shares.

(a) Exchange Agent. At least 10 Business Days prior to the Effective Time, CVCY shall designate Computershare Shareholder Services, Inc. or another Person reasonably acceptable to SVBank to act as Exchange Agent (the "Exchange Agent") in the Merger.

(b) Exchange Procedures. Subject to SVBank's timely delivery of all information necessary therefor, within a reasonable period of time (but not more than 10 Business Days) after the Closing, CVCY shall cause to be mailed to each holder of record of a certificate or certificates (the "Certificates") which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented outstanding shares of SVBank Common Stock (each a "Shareholder" and collectively, the "Shareholders"), (A) a letter of transmittal form (the "Letter of Transmittal") and (B) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for the Merger Consideration payable in exchange therefor. Following the Effective Time and delivery to the Exchange Agent of a duly completed and validly executed Letter of Transmittal, together with surrender of a Certificate (or Certificates) for cancellation, each Shareholder shall be entitled to receive in exchange therefor the Merger Consideration to which such Shareholder is entitled pursuant to Section 2.3(a) at the times set forth in this Article II and the Certificate(s) so surrendered shall be canceled. Certificates shall be appropriately endorsed or accompanied by such instruments of transfer as Central Valley Community Bank may reasonably require.

(c) CVCY to Provide Aggregate Merger Consideration to Exchange Agent. On or before the date of the Closing, CVCY shall deposit with the Exchange Agent, for payment in accordance with this Section 2.4, (1) a number of shares of CVCY Common Stock equal to the Aggregate Stock Consideration payable to the holders of Certificates and (2) an amount in cash equal to the Aggregate Cash Consideration plus an additional amount of cash sufficient to deliver to the Shareholders any cash in lieu of fractional shares payable pursuant to Section 2.3 as determined by CVCY. Any shares of CVCY Common Stock and any deposited cash remaining with the Exchange Agent on the 12-month anniversary of the Closing Date shall be remitted to CVCY and thereafter any Shareholder shall direct any claims for payment hereunder to CVCY.

(d) No Further Rights. At the Effective Time, holders of Certificates shall cease to have rights with respect to SVBank Common Stock previously represented by such Certificates, and their sole rights (other than the holders of Certificates representing Dissenting Shares) shall be the right to receive the Merger Consideration and/or cash in lieu of fractional shares into which the shares of SVBank Common Stock represented by such Certificates have been converted pursuant to this Section 2.5 and Section 2.3, as well as any dividends to which holders of SVBank Common Stock become entitled in accordance with Section 2.3(c). After the Effective Time, there shall be no further transfer of Certificates on the records of SVBank, and if such Certificates are presented to CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank for transfer, they shall be canceled against delivery of the Merger Consideration in respect of the shares represented thereby. Neither CVCY nor Central Valley Community Bank shall be obligated to deliver any merger consideration pursuant to this Article II to any former holder of SVBank Common Stock until such holder surrenders the Certificates as provided herein. Neither Central Valley Community Bank nor any party to this Agreement nor any Affiliate thereof shall be liable to any holder of SVBank Common Stock represented by any Certificate for any merger consideration paid to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws. Central Valley Community Bank shall be entitled to rely upon the stock transfer books of SVBank to establish the identity of those persons entitled to receive merger consideration specified in this Agreement, which books shall be conclusive with respect thereto. In the event of a dispute with respect to ownership of stock represented by any Certificate, Central Valley Community Bank shall be entitled to deposit the Merger Consideration in respect thereof in escrow with an independent third party and thereafter be relieved with respect to any claims thereto.

(e) No dividends or other distributions with respect to CVCY Common Stock shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered Certificate with respect to the shares of CVCY Common Stock represented thereby, in each case unless and until the surrender of such Certificate in accordance with this Section 2.5. Subject to the effect of applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws, following surrender of any such Certificate in accordance with this Section 2.5, the record holder thereof shall be entitled to receive, without interest, (i) the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore payable with respect to the whole shares of CVCY Common Stock represented by such Certificate and paid prior to such surrender date, and/or (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions payable with respect to shares of CVCY Common Stock represented by such Certificate with a record date after the Effective Time (but before such surrender date) and with a payment date subsequent to the issuance of the CVCY Common Stock issuable with respect to such Certificate.

(f) Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Certificates. In the event any Certificates shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, the Exchange Agent shall issue in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificates, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the holder thereof, the Merger Consideration in respect of the shares represented by those Certificates required pursuant to Section 2.4 at the times set forth in Article II; provided, that the owner of such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificates shall deliver, if requested by CVCY, at the owner's expense, a non-refundable bond in such amount as CVCY may determine and provide an indemnity acceptable to CVCY against any claim that may be made against CVCY, Central Valley Community Bank, SVBank or the Exchange Agent with respect to the Certificates alleged to have been lost, stolen or destroyed and make any processing fee payments to the Exchange Agent.

(g) Dissenting Shares. Any shares of SVBank Common Stock held by a Person who dissents from the Merger in accordance with the provisions of applicable law shall be herein called "Dissenting Shares." Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, any Dissenting Shares shall not, after the Effective Time, be entitled to vote for any purpose or receive any dividends or other distributions and shall be entitled only to such rights as are afforded in respect of Dissenting Shares pursuant to applicable law. The Merger Consideration for any Dissenting Share shall be paid over to CVCY pending the determination as to the rights of any Dissenting Share to consideration under applicable laws. For purposes of Section 2.4 of this Agreement, Dissenting Shares shall be deemed to be Cash Election Shares.

(h) Stock Options. Prior to the Effective Time, the vesting of stock options (each, a "Stock Option") granted by SVBank to its organizers, directors, officers and employees under the 2006 Equity Incentive Plan (the "Equity Incentive Plan") of SVBank shall accelerate and become fully exercisable in accordance with the provisions of the Equity Incentive Plan. For purposes of this Agreement, each Stock Option in which the Per Share Consideration Value exceeds the exercise price in respect to such Stock Option shall sometimes hereinafter be referred to as an "In-the-Money Stock Option." Immediately prior to the Effective Time, SVBank shall purchase each outstanding and unexercised In-the-Money Stock Option for an amount equal to Per Share Consideration Value less the exercise price in respect of each such Stock Option. The aggregate amount payable to purchase all outstanding Stock Options is sometimes referred to herein as the "Stock Options Redemption Amount." If the exercise price per share of any Stock Option is equal to or greater than the Per Share Consideration Value, such Stock Option shall be canceled at the Effective Time without any payment being made in respect thereof. At the Effective Time, each Stock Option shall terminate and be of no further effect and any rights thereunder to purchase shares of SVBank Common Stock shall also terminate and be of no further force or effect. From and after the Effective Time, the Equity Incentive Plan shall terminate and all right under any provision under any other plan, program, or arrangement providing for the issuance or grant of any other interest in respect to the SVBank Common Stock shall be cancelled. SVBank shall ensure that after the Effective Time, no Person shall have any right to acquire any capital stock arising from, relating to or in connection with the Equity Incentive Plan or any other plan, program, arrangement or agreement of SVBank.

(i) Warrants. SVBank shall obtain all amendments and modifications necessary for each warrant to purchase shares of SVBank Common Stock ("Warrant") that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time to cease to represent a right to acquire shares of SVBank Common Stock immediately prior to the Effective Time and to automatically convert immediately prior to the Effective Time into the right to receive cash, without interest and less any amounts required to be deducted and withheld under applicable laws, equal to the product of (x) the excess, if any, of the Per Share Consideration Value over the per share exercise price of such Warrant, multiplied by (y) the number of shares of SVBank Common Stock issuable upon exercise of such Warrant; provided, however, that if the exercise price per share of any such Warrant is equal to or greater than the Per Share Consideration Value, such Warrant shall be canceled immediately prior to the Effective Time without any cash payment being made in respect thereof. The aggregate amount payable pursuant to this Section 2.4(i) is referred to herein as the "Warrants Redemption Amount." The Warrants Redemption Amount shall be paid by SVBank immediately prior to the Effective Time. SVBank shall use all commercially reasonable efforts to obtain all amendments, modifications and permits necessary to extend, and upon receipt thereof shall extend, the final date on which the Warrants may be exercised by the holders thereof to the earlier of (i) the Closing Date or (ii) December 31, 2016 (with an automatic extension to February 28, 2017 if the condition set forth at Section 6.1(a) (Regulatory Approvals) has not been satisfied by December 31, 2016 and any related application is pending at such time).

SVBank is duly licensed or qualified to do business and is in good standing in each jurisdiction where its ownership or leasing of property or assets or the conduct of its business requires it to be so licensed or qualified, except where the failure to be so licensed or qualified would not have nor reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. CVCY, Central Valley Community Bank and SVBank shall consult with each other before issuing any press release with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby or this Agreement and shall not issue any such press release or make any such public statements without the prior consent of the other parties, which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; provided, however, that a party may, without the prior consent of the other parties (but after such consultation, to the extent practicable under the circumstances), issue such press release or make such public statements as may upon the advice of outside counsel be required by law or the rules or regulations of the securities exchange on which it trades, to the extent applicable.

5.6. Access; Information.

(a) Upon reasonable notice from CVCY and subject to applicable laws relating to the exchange of information, SVBank shall afford CVCY, Central Valley Community Bank and their respective officers, employees, counsel, accountants and other authorized representatives such access during normal business hours throughout the period prior to the Effective Time to the books, records (including, without limitation, Tax Returns and work papers of independent auditors), properties, personnel and advisors of SVBank and to such other information relating to SVBank as CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank may reasonably request and, during such period, it shall furnish to CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank all information concerning the business, properties and personnel of SVBank as CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank may reasonably request. Upon reasonable notice from SVBank and subject to applicable laws relating to the exchange of information, CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank shall afford SVBank and their respective officers, employees, counsel, accountants and other authorized representatives such access during normal business hours throughout the period prior to the Effective Time to the books, records (including, without limitation, Tax Returns and work papers of independent auditors), properties, personnel and advisors of CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank and to such other information relating to CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank as SVBank may reasonably request and, during such period, it shall furnish to SVBank all information concerning the business, properties and personnel of CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank as SVBank may reasonably request.

(b) Until the Effective Time, a representative of CVCY shall be entitled and shall be invited to attend meetings of the Board of Directors of SVBank and all committees thereof. At least five (5) days’ prior to written notice of the dates, times and places of such meetings shall be given to CVCY except that in the case of special meetings CVCY shall receive the same number of days’ prior notice as the directors of SVBank receive for such meetings; provided, however, that such representative shall excuse himself or herself from any portion of any such meetings that (i) relate to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated thereby, or the exercise of any rights thereunder, by SVBank, (ii) involve discussions between the Board of Directors or Loan Committees and legal counsel for SVBank that are entitled to be protected from disclosure under an attorney-client privilege which would be lost due to the presence of such representative of CVCY, or (iii) constitute the Executive Session of any Board of Directors meeting. SVBank shall furnish CVCY, as soon as practicable, and in any event within five (5) days after it is prepared, or concurrent with distribution to the Board of Directors or any committees thereof if prepared for such purpose, a copy of any report, package, materials, or agenda submitted to the Board of Directors of SVBank or any of its committees and access to the working papers and materials related thereto prepared for and distributed to the Board of Directors, whether prior to, at or subsequent to a meeting, provided, however, that SVBank need not furnish CVCY any materials relating to deliberations of the Board of Directors of SVBank, as the case may be, with respect to (i) this Agreement, or the transactions contemplated thereby, or the exercise of any rights thereunder, by SVBank, (ii) communications of legal counsel of SVBank with the Board of Directors or officers of SVBank regarding SVBank’s rights against or obligations to CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank under this Agreement, or (iii) books, records and documents covered by the attorney-client privilege or which are attorneys’ work product. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, SVBank shall provide to Central Valley Community Bank a list of all loans, which when aggregated with all other loans outstanding or committed to each customer and its affiliates would exceed $250,000 for such customer and its affiliates, scheduled to be considered by the SVBank Loan Committee and, within five (5) days following such meetings, a copy of the related credit authorization documentation. The Board or committee materials to be distributed to CVCY pursuant to this Section 5.7(b) shall be delivered to James M. Ford at the address listed in Section 8.7 hereof.

(c) SVBank shall cooperate, and use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause its independent auditor to cooperate, at SVBank's expense, with CVCY and its independent auditor in order to enable CVCY and its Affiliates to prepare financial statements, including, without limitation, pro forma financial information, for SVBank that may be required by CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank in connection with the filing of regulatory applications with Governmental Authorities or otherwise required in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, SVBank agrees that it will: (i) consent to the use or incorporation of such audited and/or reviewed financial statements in any registration statement, periodic report or other document that it is required to be delivered to shareholders of CVCY or filed by CVCY or any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates and (ii) execute and deliver, and cause its officers to execute and deliver (including former officers of SVBank after the Closing), such “representation” letters as are customarily delivered in connection with audits and as the independent auditors or SVBank or CVCY may respectively reasonably request under the circumstances.

(d) Until the Effective Time, CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank shall furnish SVBank, as soon as practicable, and in any event within five (5) days after it is prepared, or concurrent with distribution to the Board of Directors or any committees thereof if prepared for such purpose, a copy of any material report, package, materials or agenda submitted to the Board of Directors of CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank or any of its committees and access to the working papers and materials related thereto prepared for and distributed to the Board of Directors, whether prior to, at or subsequent to a meeting, provided, however, that CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank need not furnish SVBank any materials relating to deliberations of the Board of Directors of CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank, as the case may be, with respect to (i) this Agreement, or the transactions contemplated thereby, or the exercise of any rights thereunder, by CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank, (ii) communications of legal counsel of CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank with the Board of Directors or officers of CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank regarding CVCY’s or Central Valley Community Bank’s rights against or obligations to SVBank under this Agreement, or (iii) books, records and documents covered by the attorney-client privilege or which are attorneys’ work product. The board or committee materials to be distributed to SVBank pursuant to this Section 5.6(d) shall be delivered to Gary D. Gall at the address listed in Section 8.7 hereof.

(e) All information furnished to SVBank, CVCY or Central Valley Bank pursuant to this Section 5.6 shall be subject to the provisions of the confidentiality agreement, dated as of February 4, 2016, between CVCY and SVBank (the “Confidentiality Agreement”).

(f) No investigation by any of the parties or their respective representatives shall affect the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements of the other parties set forth herein.

5.7. Acquisition Proposals.

(a) SVBank shall, and shall cause its Affiliates, directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives (including, without limitation, any investment banker, financial advisor, attorney, accountant or other representative retained by it) (all of the foregoing, collectively, “Representatives”) to, immediately cease any written or oral discussions, negotiations or communication with any other parties that may be ongoing with respect to the possibility or consideration of any Acquisition Proposal, and will enforce any confidentiality or similar agreement relating to any Acquisition Proposal, including by requesting the other party to promptly return or destroy any confidential information previously furnished by or on behalf of SVBank or any Affiliate thereunder and by specifically enforcing the terms thereof in a court of competent jurisdiction. SVBank has cancelled access to any third party which has been granted access to any virtual or other data room maintained by or on behalf of SVBank other than CVCY, Central Valley Community Bank and its financial and legal advisors.

(b) From the date of this Agreement through the Effective Time, SVBank shall not, and shall cause its Representatives not to, directly or indirectly through another Person, (i) solicit, initiate or knowingly encourage (including by way of knowingly furnishing information or assistance), or take any other action designed to facilitate or that could reasonably be expected to result in, any inquiries or the making of any proposal or offer that constitutes, or could reasonably be expected to lead to, any Acquisition Proposal, (ii) provide any confidential information or data to any Person relating to any Acquisition Proposal, (iii) participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding any Acquisition Proposal, (iv) waive, terminate, modify or fail to enforce any provision of any contractual “standstill” or similar obligations of any Person other than CVCY, Central Valley Community Bank or their respective Affiliates, (v) approve or recommend, propose to approve or recommend, or execute or enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, merger agreement, asset purchase agreement or share exchange agreement, option agreement or other similar agreement related to any Acquisition Proposal or propose to do any of the foregoing, or (vi) make or authorize any statement, recommendation or solicitation in support of any Acquisition Proposal. For purposes of this Agreement, the term “Acquisition Proposal” means any inquiry, proposal or offer, filing of any regulatory application or notice (whether in draft or final form) or disclosure of an intention to do any of the foregoing from any Person relating to any (x) direct or indirect acquisition or purchase of any material assets or deposits (as applicable) of SVBank,

(y) direct or indirect acquisition or purchase of more than 25% of any class of Equity Securities of SVBank, or (z) merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, tender offer, stock purchase, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving SVBank, other than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. SVBank agrees that any violation of this Section 5.7 by any Representative of SVBank with the knowledge of SVBank shall be deemed a breach of this Section 5.7 by SVBank. SVBank acknowledges that this Section 5.7 is a significant inducement for CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank to enter into this Agreement and the absence of such provision would have resulted in either (i) a material reduction in the consideration to be paid to shareholders of SVBank in the Merger, or (ii) a failure to induce CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank to enter into this Agreement.

(c) SVBank agrees that it will promptly (and, in any event, within 48 hours) notify CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank if any inquiries, proposals or offers with respect to an Acquisition Proposal are received by, any such information is requested from, or any such discussions or negotiations are sought to be initiated or continued with, SVBank or any of their respective Representatives indicating, in connection with such notice, the name of such Person and the material terms and conditions of any proposals or offers (including, if applicable, copies of any written requests, proposals or offers, including proposed agreements) and thereafter shall keep CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank informed, on a current basis, of the status and terms of any such proposals or offers (including any amendments thereto) and the status of any such discussions or negotiations, including any change in SVBank's intentions as previously notified.

(d) Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event SVBank receives an unsolicited bona fide Acquisition Proposal and SVBank Board concludes in good faith that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes or is reasonably likely to result in a Superior Proposal (as defined below), SVBank may take any action described in this Section 5.7(d) to the extent that the Board of Directors of SVBank concludes in good faith (after receipt of advice from its legal counsel) that failure to take such actions would more likely than not result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law. Prior to providing any nonpublic information permitted to be provided pursuant to this Section 5.7(d), SVBank shall have entered into a confidentiality agreement with such third party on terms no less favorable to SVBank than the Confidentiality Agreement. SVBank will promptly advise CVCY following receipt of any Superior Proposal of the substance thereof (including the identity of the person making such Superior Proposal), and will keep CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank apprised of any related developments, discussions and negotiations (including the terms and conditions of the Superior Proposal) on a current basis. "Superior Proposal" means any bona fide written Acquisition Proposal which the SVBank Board concludes in good faith to be more favorable from a financial point of view to its shareholders than the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement, (i) after receiving the advice of its financial advisor (who shall be a regionally recognized investment banking firm), (ii) after taking into account the likelihood of consummation of such transaction on the terms set forth therein (as compared to, and with due regard for, the terms herein), and (iii) after taking into account all legal (after receipt of advice from its legal counsel), financial (including the financing terms of any such proposal), regulatory and other aspects of such proposal and any other relevant factors permitted under applicable laws.

5.8. Approval by Shareholders. As promptly as practicable, but in no event more than five (5) Business Days, after the Registration Statement is declared effective by the SEC pursuant to the Securities Act, SVBank shall submit this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby (including the Merger) for approval by holders of SVBank Common Stock at a special meeting to be called and held in accordance with applicable laws (the "SVBank Shareholder Meeting"). SVBank shall cause the SVBank Shareholder Meeting to take place as promptly as reasonably practicable. In connection with its call of such shareholder meeting, SVBank shall cause its proxy materials to set forth each of their respective directors' commitment to vote the stock for which he or she has voting authority in favor of the transactions contemplated hereby, to include the recommendation of the SVBank Board that the SVBank's shareholders approve this Agreement, the Merger and the transactions contemplated herein, and to be mailed to the respective SVBank's shareholders (the proxy materials, together with any amendments or supplements thereto, being herein referred to as the "Proxy Statement") as soon as practicable following the date hereof. After the execution of this Agreement, SVBank shall promptly prepare its Proxy Statement, which shall be included in the Registration Statement and subject to CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank's review and approval prior to delivery to holders of SVBank capital stock. The SVBank Board shall at all times prior to and during the SVBank Shareholder Meeting, any adjournments and until the Requisite Shareholder Approval is obtained, recommend that the transactions contemplated hereby be adopted and approved and use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the Requisite Shareholder Approval. To the extent SVBank's shareholders include any Benefit Plan or trust maintained in connection therewith, the SVBank Board shall cause the administrator or other applicable fiduciary for such Benefit Plan to adopt or maintain procedures for the voting of the SVBank capital stock held by the Benefit Plan or its trust which are consistent with applicable fiduciary responsibilities and otherwise reasonably satisfactory to CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank. Except with the prior approval of CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank, neither SVBank nor any member of the SVBank Board shall, at the SVBank Shareholder Meeting, submit any other matters for approval of its shareholders.

5.9. Certain Policies and Actions. Prior to the Closing Date, SVBank shall, consistent with GAAP and applicable banking laws and regulations, to the extent requested by CVCY, modify or change its loan, OREO, accrual, reserve, tax, litigation and real estate valuation policies and practices (including loan classifications and levels of reserves) so as to be applied on a basis that is consistent with that of CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank; provided, however, that no such modifications or changes need be made prior to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Sections 6.1(a) and 6.1(c); and further provided that in any event, no accrual or reserve made by SVBank pursuant to this Section 5.9 shall constitute or be deemed to be a breach or violation of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement under this Agreement or otherwise be considered in determining whether any such breach or violation shall have occurred; and provided further, that no such modifications or changes will reduce SVBank's Closing Shareholders' Equity except to the extent that they exceed in the aggregate the maximum amount of Transaction Expenses specified in the definition thereof. The recording of any such adjustments shall not be deemed to imply any misstatement of previously furnished financial statements or information and shall not be construed as concurrence of SVBank or its management with any such adjustments. SVBank shall tender notices of termination of any vendor agreement requested by Central Valley Community Bank; provided, however, that no such notices need be made prior to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Sections 6.1(a) and 6.1(c) unless Central Valley Community Bank agrees to indemnify SVBank for taking any such requested actions;

5.10. Notification of Certain Matters. SVBank shall give prompt notice to CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank of any fact, event or circumstance known to it that (i) is reasonably likely, individually or taken together with all other facts, events and circumstances known to it, to result in any Material Adverse Effect with respect to SVBank, (ii) would cause or constitute a material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained herein, or (iii) lead to litigation or regulatory action that would delay or prevent the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

5.11. Estoppel Letters and Consents. SVBank shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain and deliver to Central Valley Community Bank at the Closing the waiver, approval and/or consents to assignment for all Material Contracts so identified as requiring consent on the Disclosure Schedule of SVBank (the “Consents”). Any fees and charges or other consideration, however designated, that are payable in connection with any Consent or estoppel letter shall be promptly paid by, and shall be the sole responsibility of SVBank. Where required by law or by agreements with third parties, SVBank shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain from third parties, prior to the Closing Date, all other consents to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, where failure to obtain such consents would or would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on SVBank, CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank or that will or would reasonably be expected to prevent CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank from realizing any substantial portion of the economic benefits of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

5.12. Antitakeover Statutes. Each of CVCY, Central Valley Community Bank and SVBank and their respective boards of directors shall, if any state antitakeover statute or similar statute becomes applicable to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, take all action reasonably necessary to ensure that the transactions contemplated hereby may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated hereby and otherwise to minimize the effect of such statute or regulation on this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby.

5.13. Notice to SVBank Customers. On and after the receipt of all regulatory approvals required to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, SVBank shall permit Central Valley Community Bank to provide one or more written notices (which may be joint notices from SVBank and Central Valley Community Bank) to customers of SVBank to describe the proposed transactions, the effect on customers and planned transition procedures. SVBank shall have the right to review and approve the substance of any such communications, provided that SVBank shall not unreasonably withhold, delay or condition its approval.

5.14. SVBank Financial Statements.

(a) Until the Closing Date, SVBank shall promptly deliver or make available to CVCY true and correct copies of (w) all financial statements provided to SVBank’s shareholders and/or provided to its directors on or after the date hereof and through the Closing Date, (x) all Reports of Condition and Income required to be submitted to the FDIC with respect to quarters after December 31, 2015, (y) its statements of income, comprehensive income, changes in shareholders’ equity and cash flows for all quarters and years ending after December 31, 2015, and (z) balance sheets for all quarters and years ending after December 31, 2015. Such financial statements for years ending after December 31, 2015, shall be audited by Crowe Horwath LLP, and shall include an opinion of such firm to the effect that such financial statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP and present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position, results of operations and cash flows of SVBank at the date indicated and for such period then ending. Such Reports of Condition and Income shall be prepared in accordance with applicable Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council instructions.

(b) SVBank shall deliver to CVCY copies of all annual management letters and opinions, and shall make available to CVCY for inspection all reviews, correspondence and other documents in the files of SVBank, prepared by Crowe Horwath LLP or any other certified public accountant engaged by SVBank and delivered to SVBank since January 1, 2013.

(c) To confirm satisfaction of the condition in Section 6.3(j) and for purposes of assisting CVCY in the calculation of the Aggregate Merger Consideration, at least five (5) Business Days before the Closing Date, SVBank shall provide to CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank (i) SVBank’s financial statements as of the date that the Closing Shareholders’ Equity is measured and (ii) a certificate of its chief financial officer as to the accuracy of such financial statements and confirming that SVBank is not aware that such financial statements required any material modifications in order to comply with GAAP, including regulatory guidelines and requirements with respect to loan classifications, appraisals and the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses. CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank shall be permitted reasonable review and inquiry with respect to all elements of the financial statements and the supporting certificate.

5.15. CVCY Financial Statements.

(a) Until the Closing Date, CVCY shall promptly deliver or make available to SVBank true and correct copies of all financial statements provided to CVCY shareholders and/or provided to its directors on or after the date hereof and through the Closing Date. Such consolidated financial statements for years ending after December 31, 2015, shall be audited and shall include an opinion of CVCY's auditing firm to the effect that such financial statements have been prepared in accordance with GAAP and present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position, results of operations and cash flows of CVCY at the date indicated and for such period then ending.

(b) CVCY shall deliver to SVBank copies of all annual management letters and opinions, and shall make available to SVBank for inspection all reviews, correspondence and other documents in the files of CVCY, prepared by Crowe Horwath LLP or any other certified public accountant engaged by CVCY and delivered to CVCY or any of its subsidiaries since January 1, 2013.

5.16. Indemnification; Directors and Officers Insurance.

(a) From and after the Effective Time, Central Valley Community Bank shall indemnify and hold harmless, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law (and shall also advance expenses as incurred to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law and the SVBank Articles and the SVBank Bylaws), each present and former director and officer of SVBank (in each case, when acting in such capacity), determined as of the Effective Time (collectively, the “Indemnified Parties”) against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys’ fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of matters existing or occurring at or prior to the Effective Time, including the transactions contemplated by this Agreement; provided that the Indemnified Party to whom expenses are advanced provides an undertaking to repay such advances if it is ultimately determined that such Indemnified Party is not entitled to indemnification by Central Valley Community Bank.

(b) Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under Section 5.16(a), upon learning of any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation described above, will promptly notify CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank; provided that failure to so notify will not affect the obligations of Central Valley Community Bank under Section 5.16(a) unless and to the extent that Central Valley Community Bank is actually and materially prejudiced as a consequence.

(c) The rights of each Indemnified Party under this Section 5.16 shall be in addition to any rights such individual may have under the SVBank Articles and the SVBank Bylaws or any other applicable laws or under any agreement of any Indemnified Party with SVBank. If Central Valley Community Bank or any of its successors or assigns consolidates with or merges into any other entity and is not the continuing or surviving entity of such consolidation or merger or transfers all or substantially all of its assets to any other entity, then and in each case, Central Valley Community Bank will cause proper provision to be made so that the successors and assigns of Central Valley Community Bank will assume the obligations of Central Valley Community Bank set forth in this Section 5.16.

(d) CVCY shall (and SVBank shall cooperate prior to the Effective Time in these efforts) maintain in effect for a period of six (6) years after the Effective Time SVBank’s existing directors’ and officers’ liability insurance policy (provided that CVCY may substitute therefor (i) policies of at least the same coverage and amounts containing terms and conditions which are substantially no less advantageous or (ii) with the consent of SVBank given prior to the Effective Time, any other policy) with respect to claims arising from facts or events which occurred prior to the Effective Time and covering persons who are currently covered by such insurance; provided that CVCY shall not be obligated to make aggregate annual premium payments for such six (6)-year period in respect of such policy (or coverage replacing such policy) which exceed, for the portion related to SVBank’s directors and officers, 250% of the annual premium payments on SVBank’s current policy in effect as of the date of this Agreement (the “Maximum Amount”). If the amount of the premiums necessary to maintain or procure such insurance coverage exceeds the Maximum Amount, CVCY shall maintain the most advantageous policies of directors’ and officers’ liability insurance obtainable for a premium equal to the Maximum Amount. In lieu of the foregoing, CVCY, or SVBank with the prior written consent of CVCY (not to be unreasonably withheld) (in the case of the SVBank, with an aggregate cost not to exceed $100,000), may obtain on or prior to the Effective Time, a six (6)-year “tail” prepaid policy providing equivalent coverage to that described in this Section 5.16(d).

(e) The provisions of this Section 5.16 are intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party as if he or she was a party to this Agreement.

5.17. Termination of Participation in 401(k) Plan. SVBank shall use all commercially reasonable best efforts to terminate SVBank’s participation in the Insuperity 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan (the “401(k) Plan”) prior to the Closing Date. Such actions shall include, but shall not be limited to, the adoption by SVBank Board prior to the Closing of a resolution in a form and substance satisfactory to CVCY pursuant to which:

(a) Participation in the 401(k) Plan is terminated effective as of the date immediately preceding the Closing Date.

(b) No person is permitted to become a participant in the 401(k) Plan on or after the Closing Date.

(c) No contributions are made to the 401(k) Plan with respect to service or compensation after the Closing Date.

5.18. Director Nominee. Concurrent with and contingent upon the Effective Time and subject to any fiduciary obligations of each of the Boards of Directors of CVCY (the “CVCY Board”) and Central Valley Community Bank (the “CVCB Board” and collectively with CVCY Board, the “Boards”), each of the Boards shall cause the number of its directors to be increased by one (1) director, if necessary, and shall cause Gary D. Gall (“Board Nominee”), to be appointed to or fill the newly-created vacancy on each of the Boards, in accordance with the Bylaws of CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank, respectively. Such Board Nominee shall hold office on the Boards until the first annual meeting of shareholders of CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank, respectively, following the appointment, until his or her successor is elected and qualified or until otherwise removed. The Board Nominee shall be entitled to compensation, indemnification and expense reimbursement in connection with his role as a director to the same extent as currently offered to other directors on the Boards. Subject to the fiduciary duties of the nomination committees, the Board Nominee shall be nominated for reelection to the Boards at the annual shareholder meeting for both CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank immediately following the Effective Time, and CVCY's proxy materials with respect to such annual meetings shall include the recommendation of the CVCY Board that CVCY's shareholders vote to reelect such Board Nominee to the same extent as recommendations are made with respect to other directors on the CVCY Board.

5.19. Rule 16b-3. CVCY shall take all such steps as may be required to cause the transactions contemplated by Article I and any other or acquisitions of equity securities of CVCY in connection with this Agreement by each individual who at the Effective Time is or will become a director or officer of CVCY subject to Section 16 of the Exchange Act to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Exchange Act.

ARTICLE VI

CONDITIONS TO CONSUMMATION OF THE TRANSACTION

6.1. Conditions to Each Party's Obligation to Effect the Transactions Contemplated Hereby. The respective obligation of each of the parties hereto to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby (the "Closing") is subject to the fulfillment or, to the extent permitted by applicable law, written waiver by the parties hereto prior to the Closing Date, of each of the following conditions:

(a) Regulatory Approvals. All regulatory approvals required to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, including but not limited to the Merger, shall have been obtained and shall remain in full force and effect and all statutory waiting periods in respect thereof shall have expired, and no such approvals shall contain any nonstandard conditions, restrictions or requirements which CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank reasonably determine in good faith would or could reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, materially and adversely reduce the financial benefits of the transactions contemplated hereby to such a degree that CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank would not have entered into this Agreement had such conditions, restrictions or requirements been known at the date hereof have a Material Adverse Effect on CVCY, Central Valley Community Bank or SVBank (any such condition, restriction or requirement, a "Burdensome Condition").

(b) No Injunction. No Governmental Authority of competent jurisdiction shall have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any statute, rule, regulation, judgment, decree, injunction or other order (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) which is in effect and prohibits or makes illegal consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby.

(c) Corporate Approvals. This Agreement, the Merger and the transactions contemplated herein shall have been duly approved by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of SVBank Common Stock (the "Requisite Shareholder Approval").

(d) Effectiveness of Registration Statement. The Registration Statement shall have been declared effective by the SEC pursuant to the Securities Act and the Registration Statement shall not be subject to any stop order, and no action, suit, proceeding or investigation seeking a stop order or to suspend the effectiveness of the Registration Statement shall have been initiated and be continuing or have been threatened in writing and be unresolved.

6.2. Conditions to Obligations of SVBank. The obligations of SVBank to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby are also subject to the fulfillment or written waiver by SVBank prior to the Closing Date of each of the following conditions:

(a) Representations and Warranties. (c) No Material Adverse Effect. There shall not have occurred any event, circumstance, change, occurrence or state of facts that, individually or in the aggregate with all such other events, circumstances, changes, occurrences or states of facts, has resulted in or would reasonably be expected to result in, a Material Adverse Effect on CVCY.

(d) Nasdaq Listing of CVCY Stock. The shares of CVCY Common Stock to be issued as part of the Merger Consideration shall have been authorized for listing on the NASDAQ, subject to official notice of issuance.

(f) Other Actions. CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank shall have furnished SVBank with such certificates of its respective officers or others and such other documents to evidence fulfillment of the conditions set forth in Sections 6.1 and 6.2 as SVBank may reasonably request.

6.3. Conditions to Obligation of CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank. The obligations of CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank to consummate the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby is also subject to the fulfillment or written waiver by CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank prior to the Closing Date of each of the following conditions:

(a) Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties of SVBank set forth in this Agreement shall be true and correct as of the date of this Agreement and as of the Closing Date as though made on and as of the Closing Date (except that representations and warranties that by their terms speak as of the date of this Agreement or some other date shall be true and correct as of such date), except where the failure to be so true and correct (without giving effect to any limitation as to “materiality” or “Material Adverse Effect” set forth therein), individually or in the aggregate, has not had and would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, provided that the representations of SVBank set forth in the first three sentences in Section 4.2(a), the second sentence of Section 4.2(d), Section 4.2(e)(1) and Section 4.2(e)(2) shall be true and correct as of such dates in all respects, and CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank shall have received a certificate, dated the Closing Date and signed on behalf of SVBank by its Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer, to such effect.

(d) No Regulatory Approval. By CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank, on the one hand, or SVBank, on the other hand, in the event the approval of any Governmental Authority required for consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby shall have been denied by final nonappealable action of such Governmental Authority or an application therefor shall have been permanently withdrawn at the request of a Governmental Authority, or by CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank in the event the approval of any Governmental Authority required for consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby will not be granted without the imposition of a Burdensome Condition; provided, however, that no party or parties shall have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 7.1(d) if such denial shall be due to the failure of the party or parties seeking to terminate this Agreement to perform or observe the covenants of such party or parties set forth herein.

the obligations of SVBank under Sections 5.7 and 5.8 above.

(i) By SVBank, upon its written notice to CVCY within the two (2) Business Days following the Determination Date (as defined below), in the event of all of the following:

A-35

Table of Contents

(A) CVCY does not have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Sections 7.1(b)(ii), 7.1(e) or 7.1(f) of this Agreement, or CVCY has the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Sections 7.1(b)(ii), 7.1(e) or 7.1(f) of this Agreement and does not exercise such right;

(B) The CVCY Determination Price (as defined below) on the Determination Date is less than eighty-five percent (85%) of the Assigned CVCY Common Share Price (the “Lower Collar Price” and the difference between the CVCY Determination Price and the Lower Collar Price, the “Lower Determination Price Difference”); and

(C) (1) the number obtained by dividing the CVCY Determination Price by the Assigned CVCY Common Share Price (the “CVCY Change Ratio”) is less than eighty-five percent (85%) of (2) the Index Change Ratio (as defined below).

(ii) If SVBank elects to exercise its termination right pursuant to Section 7.1(g)(i), it shall give written notice to CVCY within two (2) Business Days after the Determination Date, and such termination will be effective on the third Business Day after the giving of such notice; provided that within two (2) Business Days after CVCY’s receipt of such notice, CVCY shall have the option to increase the Aggregate Merger Consideration by an amount equal to (A) the number of shares of CVCY Common Stock comprising the Aggregate Stock Consideration immediately preceding this adjustment, multiplied by (B) the lesser of (I) the absolute value of the Lower Determination Price Difference or (II) the amount by which the CVCY Determination Price is less than the amount that would yield a CVCY Change Ratio of eighty-five percent (85%) of the Index Change Ratio if such amount were the CVCY Determination Price. Such adjustment, if any, to the Aggregate Merger Consideration can be effected by an increase in the Aggregate Cash Consideration, the Aggregate Stock Consideration (with such additional shares of CVCY Common Stock valued at the CVCY Determination Price) or a combination of the Aggregate Cash Consideration and the Aggregate Stock Consideration, at CVCY’s discretion; provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, any such adjustment shall not result in an aggregate amount of cash that would prevent the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. If CVCY so elects, it shall timely give written notice to SVBank of such election and of the CVCY Increase, whereupon no termination shall be deemed to have occurred pursuant to Section 7.1(g)(i) and this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms (except that the Aggregate Merger Consideration shall have been so modified).

(iii) By CVCY, upon its written notice to SVBank within the two (2) Business Days following the Determination Date, in the event of all of the following:

(A) SVBank does not have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(b) of this Agreement, or SVBank has the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(b) of this Agreement and does not exercise such right;

(B) The CVCY Determination Price on the Determination Date is greater than one hundred fifteen percent (115%) of the Assigned CVCY Common Share Price (the “Upper Collar Price” and the difference between the CVCY Determination Price and the Upper Collar Price, the “Upper Determination Price Difference”); and

(C) The CVCY Change Ratio is greater than one hundred fifteen percent (115%) of the Index Change Ratio.

(iv) If CVCY elects to exercise its termination right pursuant to this Section 7.1(g)(iii), it shall give written notice to SVBank within two (2) Business Days after the Determination Date, and such termination will be effective on the third Business Day after the giving of such notice; provided that within two (2) Business Days after SVBank’s receipt of such notice, SVBank shall have the option to accept a decrease in the Aggregate Merger Consideration by an amount equal to (A) the number of shares of CVCY Common Stock comprising the Aggregate Stock Consideration immediately preceding the adjustment, multiplied by (B) the lesser of (I) the Upper Determination Price Difference or (II) the absolute value of the amount by which the CVCY Determination Price is greater than the amount that would yield a CVCY Change Ratio equal to one hundred fifteen percent (115%) of the Index Change Ratio if such amount were the CVCY Determination Price. Such adjustment, if any, to the Aggregate Merger Consideration can be effected by a decrease in the Aggregate Cash Consideration, the Aggregate Stock Consideration (with such decrease in shares of CVCY Common Stock valued at the CVCY Determination Price) or a combination of the Aggregate Cash Consideration and the Aggregate Stock Consideration, at CVCY’s discretion; provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, any such adjustment shall not result in an aggregate amount of cash that would prevent the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. If SVBank so elects, it shall timely give written notice to CVCY of such election and of the SVBank Decrease, whereupon no termination shall be deemed to have occurred pursuant to Section 7.1(g)(iii) and this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms (except that the Aggregate Merger Consideration shall have been so modified).

In the event of a material breach by any party of any of its covenants or agreements contained herein, any other party shall be entitled, without terminating this Agreement, to specifically enforce the terms hereof against the breaching party. Each party acknowledges that there is not an adequate remedy at law to compensate the other party relating to the non-consummation of the Merger. To this end, each party, to the extent permitted by law, irrevocably waives any bond or any defense it might have based on the adequacy of a remedy at law which might be asserted as a bar to specific performance, injunctive relief or other equitable relief. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event that SVBank terminates this Agreement pursuant to Section 7.1(i), or in the event of any other Acquisition Event (as hereinafter defined) within twelve (12) months of the termination of this Agreement, SVBank shall immediately pay Central Valley Community Bank the sum of $800,000 plus all out-of-pocket expenses incurred by CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank arising from, relating to or in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement (such out-of-pocket expenses not to exceed $100,000). 8.10. Enforcement of the Agreement. The parties hereto agree that irreparable damage would occur in the event that any of the provisions of this Agreement were not performed in accordance with their specific terms or were otherwise breached. It is accordingly agreed that the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof in any court of the United States or any state having jurisdiction, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity. In the event attorneys' fees or other costs are incurred to secure performance of any of the obligations herein provided for, or to establish damages for the breach thereof, or to obtain any other appropriate relief, whether by way of prosecution or defense, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred therein.

8.11. Waiver of Conditions. The conditions to each of the parties' obligations to consummate the Merger are for the sole benefit of such party and may be waived by such party in whole or in part to the extent permitted by applicable laws.

8.14. Alternative Structure. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, (a) CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank may at any time modify the structure of the acquisition of SVBank set forth herein, including to provide for a merger of a newly formed subsidiary of CVCY with and into SVBank, followed by the merger of SVBank with and into CVCY as part of an integrated transaction, provided that the consideration to be paid to the holders of SVBank Common Stock is not thereby changed in kind or reduced in amount as a result of such modification, and (b) CVCY reserves the right to increase the portion of the Aggregate Merger Consideration represented by the Aggregate Stock Consideration (using the Assigned CVCY Common Stock Price to value any such increase) and decrease the Aggregate Cash Consideration in the same amount as the value of such increase in the Aggregate Stock Consideration if CVCY reasonably believes that it is necessary or appropriate to ensure that the Merger would qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code; provided, however, that, notwithstanding the foregoing, neither CVCY nor Central Valley Community Bank shall have any responsibility whatsoever for making any such determination. In the event CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank elect to make any such changes, the parties agree to execute appropriate documents to reflect the change.

FORM OF COOPERATION AGREEMENT

COOPERATION AGREEMENT

THIS COOPERATION AGREEMENT (“Agreement”) is made and entered into as of _____, 2016, by and between the undersigned shareholder (“Shareholder”) of Sierra Vista Bank, a California banking corporation (“SVBank”), and Central Valley Community Bancorp, a California corporation (“CVCY”).

SVBank, CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank, a California banking corporation and wholly-owned subsidiary of CVCY (“Central Valley Community Bank”), are, concurrently herewith or following the execution of this Agreement, entering into an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger, dated as of _____, 2016 (the “Merger Agreement”). The Merger Agreement generally provides for the merger of SVBank into Central Valley Community Bank (the “Merger”) and the conversion of the issued and outstanding shares of SVBank common stock (the “Common Stock”) into a combination of shares of the common stock of CVCY and cash. The Merger is subject to, among other things, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Common Stock, the receipt of certain regulatory approvals, and the satisfaction of other conditions. Certain defined terms are set forth on Exhibit A attached hereto. Capitalized terms used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the meanings assigned to such terms in the Merger Agreement.

The Shareholder is a member of the Board of Directors, a senior executive officer and/or significant shareholder of SVBank and is the owner of the number of shares of Common Stock, Stock Options and Warrants as set forth on Exhibit B attached hereto (along with any shares of Common Stock acquired by the Shareholder after the execution of this Agreement, the “Shares”). In order to induce CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank to enter into and consummate transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the Shareholder is entering into this Agreement with CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank to set forth certain terms and conditions governing the actions to be taken by the Shareholder solely in his or her capacity as a shareholder of SVBank with respect to the Shares until consummation of the Merger.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and the mutual promises and covenants contained herein, the parties agree as follows:

1. Share Ownership. The Shareholder represents and warrants that the Shareholder owns beneficially all of the Shares free and clear of all Liens and except pursuant hereto, there are no options, warrants or other rights, agreements, arrangements or commitments of any character to which the Shareholder is a party relating to the pledge, disposition or voting of any of the Shares and there are no voting trusts or voting agreements with respect to the Shares.
2. Restrictions on Transfer. Without the prior written consent of CVCY, the Shareholder shall not transfer, sell, assign, convey, or encumber (except for such encumbrances that are made with recourse) any of the Shares during the term of this Agreement except for transfers (i) by operation of law, by will, or pursuant to the laws of descent and distribution, or (ii) in which the transferee shall agree in writing to be bound by the provisions of paragraphs 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 of this Agreement as fully as the Shareholder. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Shareholder shall not grant to any party any option or right to purchase the Shares or any interest therein.
3. Agreement to Vote in Favor of Merger. At any meeting of shareholders of SVBank or at any adjournment thereof, in response to any consent solicitation, and in other circumstances upon which the vote, consent, or other approval of SVBank’s shareholders is sought with respect to the Merger Agreement or the Merger, the Shareholder will vote or consent with respect to (or cause to be voted or consented with respect to) all of the Shares over which the Shareholder has voting authority (other than in a fiduciary capacity) in favor of the Merger Agreement and the Merger. Upon the written request of CVCY at any time after the Registration Statement is declared effective by the SEC pursuant to the Securities Act, the Shareholder shall deliver to CVCY a written shareholder consent with respect to the adoption of the Merger Agreement and approval of the Merger in substantially the form of Exhibit C attached hereto with respect to all Shares for which the Shareholder has the power or authority to vote.

4. Additional Actions. At any meeting of shareholders of SVBank or at any adjournment thereof, in response to any consent solicitation, and in other circumstances upon which the vote, consent, or other approval of SVBank's shareholders is sought, the Shareholder will vote or consent with respect to (or cause to be voted or consented with respect to) all of the Shares over which the Shareholder has voting authority (other than in a fiduciary capacity) against (i) any merger agreement, share exchange, or merger (other than the Merger Agreement and the Merger), consolidation, combination, sale of substantial assets, merger, recapitalization, dissolution, liquidation, or winding-up of or by SVBank or (ii) any amendment of SVBank's Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws or other proposal or transaction involving SVBank, which amendment or other proposal or transaction would in any manner impede, frustrate, prevent, or nullify the Merger, the Merger Agreement, or any of the other transactions contemplated thereby.
5. Warrants. The Shareholder shall enter into an agreement to amend his, her or its warrant agreement with SVBank as contemplated by Section 2.5(i) of the Merger Agreement.

9. Equitable Relief. The Shareholder acknowledges and agrees that CVCY could not be made whole by monetary damages in the event of any default by the Shareholder of the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement. It is accordingly agreed and understood that CVCY, in addition to any other remedy which it may have at law or in equity, shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and specifically to enforce the terms and provisions hereof in any action instituted in any state or federal court having appropriate jurisdiction located in California.

10. Enforcement. Any term or provision of this Agreement which is invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability without rendering invalid or unenforceable the remaining terms and provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction. If any provision of this Agreement is so broad as to be unenforceable, the provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable.

11. Effect of Termination of Merger Agreement. The covenants and obligations set forth in this Agreement shall expire and be of no further force and effect upon termination of the Merger Agreement under Section 7.1 thereof.

ANNEX C
FORM OF SVBANK TAX CERTIFICATION

Tax Representation Certificate of Sierra Vista Bank

This certificate is being provided on the Closing Date as of the Effective Time of the Merger of Sierra Vista Bank, a California banking corporation (“SVBank”), with and into Central Valley Community Bank, a California banking corporation (“Central Valley Community Bank”), a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Central Valley Community Bancorp (“CVCY”), pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger dated as of _____, 2016, by and among CVCY, Central Valley Community Bank, and SVBank (the “Agreement”). References herein to the “Code” refer to the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and references to a “Treasury Regulation” refer to a regulation promulgated under the Code. Capitalized terms not defined herein have the meanings specified in the Agreement.

A. Statements and Representations.

SVBank hereby certifies and represents after consulting with its legal counsel, accountants and auditors regarding the meaning of and factual support for the following representations and, to the extent necessary, with its personnel and advisors having knowledge pertinent to the following that the statements and representations made herein are true, correct and complete in all respects at the date hereof and will be true, correct and complete in all respects as of the Effective Time (as if made as of the Effective Time):

1. The terms of the Agreement and all other agreements entered into in connection therewith, including the amount of cash, CVCY Common Stock, and cash in lieu of fractional shares to be received by the holders (“SVBank Stockholders”) of SVBank Common Stock (the SVBank Common Stock, together with any other issued and outstanding stock of SVBank, “SVBank Capital Stock”), were bargained for at arm’s length by the parties to the Agreement, and the fair market value of the cash, CVCY Common Stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares to be received by the SVBank Stockholders will be approximately equal to the fair market value of the SVBank Common Stock surrendered by such SVBank Stockholders in the Merger. In connection with the Merger, no SVBank Stockholder will receive in exchange for SVBank Capital Stock, directly or indirectly, any consideration from CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank or any related party (within the meaning of Treasury Regulation section 1.368-1(e)(4)) with respect to either of them other than CVCY Common Stock and cash pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, cash in lieu of fractional shares of CVCY Common Stock, and cash pursuant to the exercise of appraisal rights.

2. SVBank has not made and will not make any distributions with respect to or in redemption of SVBank Capital Stock in contemplation of the Merger or during the period beginning with the commencement of negotiations (whether formal or informal) between CVCY and SVBank regarding the Merger and ending at the Effective Time (the “Pre-Merger Period”).

3. Neither SVBank nor any person related to SVBank within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.368-1(e)(4) (a “SVBank Affiliate”) nor any partnership in which SVBank or a SVBank Affiliate is a partner has purchased, redeemed, or otherwise acquired, or made any distributions with respect to, any SVBank Capital Stock prior to or in contemplation of the Merger, or otherwise, as part of a plan of which the Merger is a part.

4. The business currently carried on by SVBank is its “historic business” within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.368-1(d), and no assets of SVBank have been sold, transferred or otherwise disposed of which would prevent CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank from continuing the “historic business” of SVBank or from using a “significant portion” of SVBank’s “historic business assets” in a business following the Merger, as such terms are used in Treasury Regulation Section 1.368-1(d).

5. SVBank Stockholders will receive in the Merger shares of CVCY Common Stock with a value, determined as of the date described in Treasury Regulation Section 1.368-1(e)(2)(i) (the “Valuation Date”), equal to at least forty percent (40%) of the total value, determined as of the Valuation Date, of all of the shares of CVCY Common Stock outstanding on the Valuation Date. For purposes of this representation, shares of CVCY Common Stock that were redeemed, sold, or otherwise transferred, directly or indirectly, in connection with the Merger to SVBank, CVCY, or any party related (within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.368-1(e)(4)) to either entity will be treated as outstanding shares of SVBank Common Stock on the Valuation Date. To the best of SVBank's knowledge, there is no plan or intention on the part of SVBank Stockholders who own one percent (1%) or more of the SVBank Capital Stock or who are directors or officers of SVBank, and SVBank knows of no plan or intention on the part of any remaining SVBank Stockholder, (i) to sell, exchange, transfer or otherwise dispose of CVCY Common Stock received in the Merger (except for fractional share interests) to CVCY, a corporation related to CVCY within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.368-1(e)(4) (a "CVCY Affiliate"), or any partnership in which CVCY or a CVCY Affiliate is a partner, or (ii) to enter into a transaction that reduces the risk of ownership of CVCY Common Stock received in the Merger with CVCY, a CVCY Affiliate, or any partnership in which CVCY or a CVCY Affiliate is a partner.

6. Immediately after the Merger, at least ninety percent (90%) of the fair market value of the net assets and at least seventy percent (70%) of the fair market value of the gross assets held by SVBank immediately prior to the Merger will be held by Central Valley Community Bank after the Merger. For the purpose of this representation, the following assets of SVBank will be treated as property held by SVBank immediately prior to the Merger but not held by Central Valley Community Bank subsequent to the Merger: (i) assets disposed of by SVBank (other than assets sold to unrelated third parties for fair market value) prior to the Merger and in contemplation thereof (including without limitation any asset disposed of, other than in the ordinary course of business, pursuant to a plan or intent existing during the Pre-Merger Period); (ii) assets used by SVBank prior to the Effective Time to pay other expenses or liabilities incurred in connection with the Merger or other liabilities or obligations that are not operating liabilities or obligations incurred in the ordinary course of business; (iii) assets used to make payments in lieu of fractional shares or pursuant to the exercise of appraisal rights; and (iv) assets used to make distributions, redemptions or other payments in respect of the SVBank Capital Stock or rights to acquire such stock (including payments treated as such for tax purposes) that are made in contemplation of the Merger, that are related thereto, or that are made during the Pre-Merger Period.

7. To the best of SVBank’s knowledge, except for the payment of cash in lieu of fractional shares of CVCY Common Stock otherwise to be issued in the Merger, there is no plan or intention by CVCY, any CVCY Affiliate, or any partnership in which CVCY or a CVCY Affiliate is a partner to purchase, redeem, or otherwise acquire, following the Merger, any CVCY Common Stock issued pursuant to the Agreement.

8. To the best of SVBank’s knowledge, with respect to each instance, if any, in which shares of SVBank Capital Stock have been purchased during the Pre-Merger Period (a “Stock Purchase”): (i) the Stock Purchase was not made by the purchaser as an agent, or for the benefit, of CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank; (ii) the purchase price paid or other obligation incurred by such purchaser was funded by such purchaser’s own assets and was not advanced, and will not be reimbursed, either directly or indirectly, by CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank; (iii) other than in the Merger pursuant to the Agreement, at no time was such purchaser or any other party required or obligated to surrender to CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank the SVBank Capital Stock acquired in the Stock Purchase, and neither such purchaser nor any other party will be required to surrender to CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank the CVCY Common Stock for which such shares of SVBank Capital Stock will be exchanged in the Merger; and (iv) the Stock Purchase was not a formal or informal condition to consummation of the Merger and was entered into solely to satisfy the separate interests of such purchaser and the seller.

9. To SVBank’s knowledge, during the past five (5) years, none of the outstanding shares of SVBank Capital Stock, including the right to acquire or vote any such shares have, directly or indirectly, been owned by CVCY, a CVCY Affiliate, or a partnership in which CVCY or a CVCY Affiliate is a partner.

10. It is SVBank’s understanding that if CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank pays or assumes any expenses of SVBank, it will pay or assume only those expenses that are solely and directly related to the Merger and will do so only in accordance with the guidelines established in Revenue Ruling 73-54, 1973-1 C.B. 187. SVBank Stockholders will pay their own expenses, if any, incurred in connection with the Merger.

11. There is no inter-corporate indebtedness existing between CVCY and SVBank or between Central Valley Community Bank and SVBank that was issued, acquired, or will be settled at a discount.

12. SVBank is not an “investment company” as defined in Sections 368(a)(2)(F)(iii) and (iv) of the Code.

13. SVBank is not under the jurisdiction of a court in a title 11 or similar case within the meaning of Section 368(a)(3)(A) of the Code.

14. The issuance in the Merger of cash in lieu of fractional shares of CVCY Common Stock represents a mere mechanical rounding off solely for the purpose of avoiding the expense and inconvenience to CVCY of issuing fractional shares, and does not represent separately bargained-for consideration. The total cash consideration that will be paid in lieu of issuing fractional shares of CVCY Common Stock will not exceed one percent (1%) of the total consideration that will be issued pursuant to the Agreement to the SVBank Stockholders in exchange for their SVBank Capital Stock. No SVBank Stockholder will receive cash pursuant to Section 2.3(b) of the Agreement in exchange for SVBank Common Stock in an amount equal to or greater than the value of one full share of CVCY

Common Stock valued in a manner consistent with Section 2.3(b) of the Agreement.

- To the best of SVBank's knowledge: (i) none of what is received nominally as, or in the form of, cash or other non-stock compensation for services by any stockholder-employees (including for the purposes of this paragraph any stockholder-independent contractors) of SVBank will be in fact separate consideration for, allocable to, or otherwise attributable to any of the SVBank Capital Stock held by such stockholder-employee; (ii) none of the
15. CVCY Common Stock that is received nominally as, or in the form of, consideration for SVBank Capital Stock by any stockholder-employees of SVBank will be in fact consideration for or otherwise attributable to services or allocable to any employment (or independent contractor) arrangement; (iii) the compensation paid to any stockholder-employees of SVBank by CVCY or by Central Valley Community Bank following the Merger will be for services actually rendered and will be commensurate with amounts that would be paid to third parties bargaining at arm's-length for similar services.

16. SVBank has a bona fide business reason for engaging in the Merger unrelated to taxes as summarized in the Information Statement or the Registration Statement, as applicable.
17. The Merger will not result in a transaction whereby gain or loss with respect to SVBank property not subject to tax under the Code prior to the Merger will become subject to tax under the Code after the Merger.
18. At the Effective Time, the fair market value of the assets of SVBank will equal or exceed the sum of its liabilities, plus the amount of liabilities, if any, to which its assets are subject.
There are no other agreements, arrangements or understandings between CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank and SVBank and/or any of their subsidiaries, affiliates or stockholders bearing on the terms of the Merger other than the agreements, arrangements and understandings described or referenced in the Agreement.
20. At the Effective Time, there will be no declared but unpaid dividends on SVBank Capital Stock.
The Merger will be consummated in compliance with the terms of the Agreement, none of the material terms and conditions therein has been waived or modified, and SVBank has no plan or intention to waive or modify any such terms or conditions.
22. SVBank Stockholders will exercise appraisal rights with respect to not more than ten percent (10%) of the SVBank Capital Stock issued and outstanding as of the Effective Time. SVBank Stockholders who have properly exercised and preserved appraisal rights with respect to their SVBank Capital Stock will be entitled only to such rights as are granted under Section 2.5(g) of the Agreement and Sections 1300 - 1313 of the CGCL.
23. The liabilities of SVBank were incurred by SVBank in the ordinary course of business.

FORM OF CVCY TAX CERTIFICATION

Tax Representation Certificate of CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank

This certificate is being provided on the Closing Date as of the Effective Time of the Merger of Sierra Vista Bank, a California banking corporation (“SVBank”), with and into Central Valley Community Bank, a California banking corporation (“Central Valley Community Bank”), a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Central Valley Community Bancorp (“CVCY”), pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger dated as of _____, 2016, by and among CVCY, Central Valley Community Bank, and SVBank (the “Agreement”). References herein to the “Code” refer to the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and references to a “Treasury Regulation” refer to a regulation promulgated under the Code. Capitalized terms not defined herein have the meanings specified in the Agreement.

A. Statements and Representations.

CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank hereby certify and represent after consulting with their legal counsel, accountants and auditors regarding the meaning of and factual support for the following representations and, to the extent necessary, with their personnel and advisors having knowledge pertinent to the following that the statements and representations made herein are true, correct and complete in all respects as of the Effective Time (as if made as of the Effective Time):

- The terms of the Agreement and all other agreements entered into in connection therewith, including the amount of cash, CVCY Common Stock (the CVCY Common Stock, together with any other issued and outstanding stock of CVCY, “CVCY Capital Stock”) and cash in lieu of fractional shares to be received by the holders (“SVBank Stockholders”) of SVBank Common Stock (the SVBank Common Stock, together with any other issued and outstanding stock of SVBank, “SVBank Capital Stock”), were bargained for at arm’s length by the parties to the Agreement, and the fair market value of the cash, CVCY Common Stock and cash in lieu of fractional shares to be received by the SVBank Stockholders will be approximately equal to the fair market value of the SVBank Capital Stock surrendered by such SVBank Stockholders in the Merger. In connection with the Merger, no SVBank Stockholder will receive in exchange for SVBank Capital Stock, directly or indirectly, any consideration from CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank or any related party (within the meaning of Treasury Regulation section 1.368-1(e)(4)) with respect to either of them other than CVCY Common Stock and cash pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, cash in lieu of fractional shares of CVCY Common Stock, and cash pursuant to the exercise of appraisal rights.
1. CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank expect that SVBank Stockholders will exercise appraisal rights with respect to not more than ten percent (10%) of the SVBank Capital Stock issued and outstanding as of the Effective Time.
 2. Except for the payment of cash in lieu of fractional shares of CVCY Common Stock otherwise to be issued in the Merger, there is no plan or intention by CVCY, any person related to CVCY within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.368-1(e)(4) (a “CVCY Affiliate”), or any partnership in which CVCY or a CVCY Affiliate is a partner to purchase, redeem, or otherwise acquire, following the Merger, any CVCY Common Stock issued pursuant to the Agreement.
 3. CVCY has not acquired and will not acquire any shares of SVBank Capital Stock, for consideration other than CVCY Common Stock, in contemplation of the Merger or during the period beginning with the commencement of negotiations (whether formal or informal) regarding the Merger and ending at the Effective Time (the “Pre-Merger Period”). No CVCY Affiliate and no partnership in which CVCY or a CVCY Affiliate is a partner has acquired or will acquire shares of SVBank Capital Stock, for consideration other than CVCY Common Stock, in contemplation of the Merger or during the Pre-Merger Period. Until the Effective Time, except as set forth in the Agreement and the documents referenced in the Agreement, neither CVCY nor any CVCY Affiliate will own beneficially or of record, or will have owned beneficially or of record during the five years immediately prior to the Effective Time, any shares of SVBank Capital Stock, or other securities, options, warrants, or instruments giving the holder thereof the right to acquire SVBank Capital Stock or other securities offered by SVBank.

Central Valley Community Bank is a California state chartered bank conducting active banking operations in the State of California. At all times since January 1, 2016, Central Valley Community Bank has been wholly owned directly by CVCY.

Immediately following the Effective Time, Central Valley Community Bank will be wholly owned directly by CVCY. CVCY has no plan or intention: (i) to liquidate Central Valley Community Bank, merge Central Valley Community Bank into another entity, or cause Central Valley Community Bank to cease its separate legal existence for federal income tax purposes; (ii) to sell or otherwise dispose of (or cause or permit Central Valley Community Bank to issue to any Person other than CVCY) any shares or securities of, or other interests in, Central Valley Community Bank; or (iii) to sell or otherwise dispose of, or to cause Central Valley Community Bank to sell or otherwise dispose of, any of Central Valley Community Bank's or SVBank's assets; except that CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank may: (x) make dispositions of assets to unrelated third parties for fair market value consideration in the ordinary course of business; (y) make transfers described in Section 368(a)(2)(C) of the Code, or in the applicable Treasury Regulation; or (z) make occasional sales of Central Valley Community Bank's assets to unrelated third parties for fair market value that do not prevent the continuation of SVBank's "historic business" or use of "historic business assets" as described in paragraph 7 below.

Assuming the accuracy of paragraph 4 of the Tax Representation Certificate of SVBank, executed as of the date hereof, following the Merger, CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank (or a member or members of the "qualified group," as defined in Treasury Regulation Section 1.368-1(d)(4)(ii), that includes CVCY as the "issuing corporation," as defined in Treasury Regulation Section 1.368-1(b)), will continue the "historic business" of SVBank or use a 7. "significant portion" (at least 33 $\frac{1}{3}$ percent by value) of SVBank's "historic business assets" in a business (all within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.368-1(d)). For purposes of this representation, CVCY will be treated as owning its proportionate share of SVBank's business assets used in a business of any partnership in which members of CVCY's qualified group either own a significant interest or have active and substantial management functions as partners with respect to that partnership business.

Pursuant to the Merger, SVBank will merge with and into Central Valley Community Bank, and Central Valley Community Bank will acquire substantially all of the assets and liabilities of SVBank. At least ninety percent (90%) of the fair market value of the net assets and at least seventy percent (70%) of the fair market value of the gross assets held by Central Valley Community Bank immediately prior to the Merger will continue to be held by Central Valley Community Bank after the Merger. In addition, after the Merger, at least ninety percent (90%) of the fair market value of the net assets and at least seventy percent (70%) of the fair market value of the gross assets held by SVBank immediately prior to the Merger will be held by Central Valley Community Bank after the Merger. For the purpose of this representation, the following assets of SVBank or of Central Valley Community Bank, as the case may be, will be treated as property held by SVBank or Central Valley Community Bank, as the case may be, immediately prior to the Merger but not by Central Valley Community Bank subsequent to the Merger: (i) assets 8. disposed of by SVBank or Central Valley Community Bank (other than assets transferred from SVBank to Central Valley Community Bank in the Merger or assets sold to unrelated third parties for fair market value) prior to or subsequent to the Merger and in contemplation thereof (including without limitation any asset disposed of, other than in the ordinary course of business, pursuant to a plan or intent existing during the Pre-Merger Period); (ii) assets used by SVBank or Central Valley Community Bank to pay other expenses or liabilities incurred in connection with the Merger or other liabilities or obligations that are not operating liabilities or obligations incurred in the ordinary course of business; (iii) assets used to make payments in lieu of fractional shares or pursuant to the exercise of appraisal rights; and (iv) assets used to make distributions, redemptions, or other payments in respect of SVBank Capital Stock or stock of Central Valley Community Bank or rights to acquire such stock (including payments treated as such for tax purposes) that are made in contemplation of the Merger, that are related thereto, or that are made during the Pre-Merger Period.

To CVCY's and Central Valley Community Bank's knowledge, with respect to each instance, if any, in which shares of SVBank Capital Stock have been purchased during the Pre-Merger Period (a "Stock Purchase"): (i) the Stock Purchase was not made by the purchaser as an agent, or for the benefit, of CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank; (ii) the purchase price paid or other obligation incurred by such purchaser was funded by such purchaser's own assets and was not advanced, and will not be reimbursed, either directly or indirectly, by CVCY or Central 9. Valley Community Bank; (iii) other than in the Merger pursuant to the Agreement, at no time was such purchaser or any other party required or obligated to surrender to CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank the SVBank Capital Stock acquired in the Stock Purchase, and neither such purchaser nor any other party will be required to surrender to CVCY the CVCY Common Stock for which such shares of SVBank Capital Stock will be exchanged in the Merger; and (iv) the Stock Purchase was not a formal or informal condition to consummation of the Merger and was entered into solely to satisfy the separate interests of such purchaser and the seller.

If CVCY or Central Valley Community Bank pays or assumes any expenses of SVBank, it will pay or assume only 10. those expenses that are solely and directly related to the Merger and will do so only in accordance with the guidelines established in Revenue Ruling 73-54, 1973-1 C.B. 187. SVBank Stockholders will pay their own expenses, if any, incurred in connection with the Merger.

11. There is no inter-corporate indebtedness existing between CVCY and SVBank or between Central Valley Community Bank and SVBank that was issued, acquired, or will be settled at a discount.

12. Neither CVCY nor Central Valley Community Bank is an “investment company” as defined in Sections 368(a)(2)(F)(iii) and (iv) of the Code.

13. To CVCY’s and Central Valley Community Bank’s knowledge, at the Effective Time the fair market value of the assets of SVBank will exceed the sum of its liabilities, plus the amount of liabilities, if any, to which its assets are subject.

14. SVBank Stockholders will receive in the Merger shares of CVCY Common Stock with a value, determined as of the date described in Treasury Regulation Section 1.368-1(e)(2)(i) (the “Valuation Date”), equal to at least forty percent (40%) of the total value, determined as of the Valuation Date, of all of the shares of CVCY Common Stock outstanding on the Valuation Date. For purposes of this representation, shares of CVCY Common Stock that were redeemed, sold, or otherwise transferred, directly or indirectly, in connection with the Merger to SVBank, CVCY, or any party related (within the meaning of Treasury Regulation Section 1.368-1(e)(4)) to either entity will be treated as outstanding shares of SVBank Common Stock on the Valuation Date. The issuance in the Merger of cash in lieu of fractional shares of CVCY Common Stock represents a mere mechanical rounding off solely for the purpose of avoiding the expense and inconvenience to CVCY of issuing fractional shares, and does not represent separately bargained-for consideration. The total cash consideration that will be paid in lieu of issuing fractional shares of CVCY Common Stock will not exceed one percent (1%) of the total consideration that will be issued pursuant to the Agreement to the SVBank Stockholders in exchange for their SVBank Capital Stock. No SVBank Stockholder will receive cash pursuant to Section 2.3(b) of the Agreement in exchange for SVBank Common Stock in an amount equal to or greater than the value of one full share of CVCY Common Stock valued in a manner consistent with Section 2.3(b) of the Agreement.

None of what is received nominally as, or in the form of, cash or other non-stock compensation for services by any stockholder-employees (including for the purposes of this paragraph any stockholder-independent contractors) of SVBank will be in fact separate consideration for, allocable to, or otherwise attributable to any of the SVBank Capital Stock held by such stockholder-employee. None of the CVCY Common Stock that is received nominally

15. as, or in the form of, consideration for SVBank Capital Stock by any stockholder-employees of SVBank will be in fact consideration for or otherwise attributable to services or allocable to any employment (or independent contractor) arrangement. The compensation paid to any stockholder-employees of SVBank by CVCY or by Central Valley Community Bank following the Merger will be for services actually rendered and will be commensurate with amounts that would be paid to third parties bargaining at arm's-length for similar services.

16. CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank have a bona fide business reason for engaging in the Merger unrelated to taxes as will be summarized in the Information Statement or the Registration Statement, as applicable.

17. The Merger will not result in a transaction whereby gain or loss with respect to SVBank property not subject to tax under the Code prior to the Merger will become subject to tax under the Code after the Merger.

There are no other agreements, arrangements or understandings among any of CVCY, Central Valley Community Bank, or SVBank and/or any of their subsidiaries, affiliates, or stockholders bearing on the terms of the Merger other than the agreements, arrangements and understandings described or referenced in the Agreement.

19. The Merger will be consummated in compliance with the terms of the Agreement, none of the material terms and conditions therein has been waived or modified, and CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank have no plan or intention to waive or modify any such terms or conditions.

20. Following the Merger, CVCY and Central Valley Community Bank will comply with the recordkeeping and filing requirements of Treasury Regulation Section 1.368-3 and will report the Merger on their U.S. federal income tax returns in a manner consistent with the Merger constituting a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

21. The undersigned are authorized to make all of the representations set forth herein.

CALIFORNIA CORPORATIONS CODE

TITLE 1. CORPORATIONS

DIVISION 1. GENERAL CORPORATION LAW

CHAPTER 13. Dissenters' Rights

1300. (a) If the approval of the outstanding shares (Section 152) of a corporation is required for a reorganization under subdivisions (a) and (b) or subdivision (e) or (f) of Section 1201, each shareholder of the corporation entitled to vote on the transaction and each shareholder of a subsidiary corporation in a short-form merger may, by complying with this chapter, require the corporation in which the shareholder holds shares to purchase for cash at their fair market value the shares owned by the shareholder which are dissenting shares as defined in subdivision (b). The fair market value shall be determined as of the day of, and immediately prior to, the first announcement of the terms of the proposed reorganization or short-form merger, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in consequence of the proposed reorganization or short-form merger, as adjusted for any stock split, reverse stock split, or share dividend that becomes effective thereafter.

(b) As used in this chapter, "dissenting shares" means shares to which all of the following apply:

(1) That were not, immediately prior to the reorganization or short-form merger, listed on any national securities exchange certified by the Commissioner of Corporations under subdivision (o) of Section 25100, and the notice of meeting of shareholders to act upon the reorganization summarizes this section and Sections 1301, 1302, 1303 and 1304; provided, however, that this provision does not apply to any shares with respect to which there exists any restriction on transfer imposed by the corporation or by any law or regulation; and provided, further, that this provision does not apply to any shares where the holder of those shares is required, by the terms of the reorganization or short-form merger, to accept for the shares anything except: (A) shares of any other corporation, which shares, at the time the reorganization or short-form merger is effective, are listed on any national securities exchange certified by the Commissioner of Corporations under subdivision (o) of Section 25100; (B) cash in lieu of fractional shares described in the foregoing subparagraph (A); or (C) any combination of the shares and cash in lieu of fractional shares described in the foregoing subparagraphs (A) and (B).

(2) That were outstanding on the date for the determination of shareholders entitled to vote on the reorganization and (A) were not voted in favor of the reorganization or, (B) if described in paragraph (1), were voted against the reorganization, or were held of record on the effective date of a short-form merger; provided, however, that subparagraph (A) rather than subparagraph (B) of this paragraph applies in any case where the approval required by Section 1201 is sought by written consent rather than at a meeting.

(3) That the dissenting shareholder has demanded that the corporation purchase at their fair market value, in accordance with Section 1301.

(4) That the dissenting shareholder has submitted for endorsement, in accordance with Section 1302.

(c) As used in this chapter, "dissenting shareholder" means the record holder of dissenting shares and includes a transferee of record.

1301. (a) If, in the case of a reorganization, any shareholders of a corporation have a right under Section 1300, subject to compliance with paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (b) thereof, to require the corporation to purchase their shares for cash, that corporation shall mail to each of those shareholders a notice of the approval of the reorganization by its outstanding shares (Section 152) within 10 days after the date of that approval, accompanied by a copy of Sections 1300, 1302, 1303, and 1304 and this section, a statement of the price determined by the corporation to represent the fair market value of the dissenting shares, and a brief description of the procedure to be followed if the shareholder desires to exercise the shareholder's right under those sections. The statement of price constitutes an offer by the corporation to purchase at the price stated any dissenting shares as defined in subdivision (b) of Section 1300, unless they lose their status as dissenting shares under Section 1309.

(b) Any shareholder who has a right to require the corporation to purchase the shareholder's shares for cash under Section 1300, subject to compliance with paragraphs (3) and (4) of subdivision (b) thereof, and who desires the corporation to purchase shares shall make written demand upon the corporation for the purchase of those shares and payment to the shareholder in cash of their fair market value. The demand is not effective for any purpose unless it is received by the corporation or any transfer agent thereof (1) in the case of shares described in subdivision (b) of Section 1300, not later than the date of the shareholders' meeting to vote upon the reorganization, or (2) in any other case, within 30 days after the date on which the notice of the approval by the outstanding shares pursuant to subdivision (a) or the notice pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder.

(c) The demand shall state the number and class of the shares held of record by the shareholder which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase and shall contain a statement of what the shareholder claims to be the fair market value of those shares as determined pursuant to subdivision (a) of Section 1300. The statement of fair market value constitutes an offer by the shareholder to sell the shares at that price.

1302. Within 30 days after the date on which notice of the approval by the outstanding shares or the notice pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder, the shareholder shall submit to the corporation at its principal office or at the office of any transfer agent thereof, (a) if the shares are certificated securities, the shareholder's certificates representing any shares which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase, to be stamped or endorsed with a statement that the shares are dissenting shares or to be exchanged for certificates of appropriate denomination so stamped or endorsed or (b) if the shares are uncertificated securities, written notice of the number of shares which the shareholder demands that the corporation purchase. Upon subsequent transfers of the dissenting shares on the books of the corporation, the new certificates, initial transaction statement, and other written statements issued therefor shall bear a like statement, together with the name of the original dissenting holder of the shares.

1303. (a) If the corporation and the shareholder agree that the shares are dissenting shares and agree upon the price of the shares, the dissenting shareholder is entitled to the agreed price with interest thereon at the legal rate on judgments from the date of the agreement. Any agreements fixing the fair market value of any dissenting shares as between the corporation and the holders thereof shall be filed with the secretary of the corporation.

(b) Subject to the provisions of Section 1306, payment of the fair market value of dissenting shares shall be made within 30 days after the amount thereof has been agreed or within 30 days after any statutory or contractual conditions to the reorganization are satisfied, whichever is later, and in the case of certificated securities, subject to surrender of the certificates therefor, unless provided otherwise by agreement.

1304. (a) If the corporation denies that the shares are dissenting shares, or the corporation and the shareholder fail to agree upon the fair market value of the shares, then the shareholder demanding purchase of such shares as dissenting shares or any interested corporation, within six months after the date on which notice of the approval by the outstanding shares (Section 152) or notice pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder, but not thereafter, may file a complaint in the superior court of the proper county praying the court to determine whether the shares are dissenting shares or the fair market value of the dissenting shares or both or may intervene in any action pending on such a complaint.

(b) Two or more dissenting shareholders may join as plaintiffs or be joined as defendants in any such action and two or more such actions may be consolidated.

(c) On the trial of the action, the court shall determine the issues. If the status of the shares as dissenting shares is in issue, the court shall first determine that issue. If the fair market value of the dissenting shares is in issue, the court shall determine, or shall appoint one or more impartial appraisers to determine, the fair market value of the shares.

1305. (a) If the court appoints an appraiser or appraisers, they shall proceed forthwith to determine the fair market value per share. Within the time fixed by the court, the appraisers, or a majority of them, shall make and file a report in the office of the clerk of the court. Thereupon, on the motion of any party, the report shall be submitted to the court and considered on such evidence as the court considers relevant. If the court finds the report reasonable, the court may confirm it.

(b) If a majority of the appraisers appointed fail to make and file a report within 10 days from the date of their appointment or within such further time as may be allowed by the court or the report is not confirmed by the court, the court shall determine the fair market value of the dissenting shares.

(c) Subject to the provisions of Section 1306, judgment shall be rendered against the corporation for payment of an amount equal to the fair market value of each dissenting share multiplied by the number of dissenting shares which any dissenting shareholder who is a party, or who has intervened, is entitled to require the corporation to purchase, with interest thereon at the legal rate from the date on which judgment was entered.

(d) Any such judgment shall be payable forthwith with respect to uncertificated securities and, with respect to certificated securities, only upon the endorsement and delivery to the corporation of the certificates for the shares described in the judgment. Any party may appeal from the judgment.

(e) The costs of the action, including reasonable compensation to the appraisers to be fixed by the court, shall be assessed or apportioned as the court considers equitable, but, if the appraisal exceeds the price offered by the corporation, the corporation shall pay the costs (including in the discretion of the court attorneys' fees, fees of expert witnesses and interest at the legal rate on judgments from the date of compliance with Sections 1300, 1301 and 1302 if the value awarded by the court for the shares is more than 125 percent of the price offered by the corporation under subdivision (a) of Section 1301).

1306. To the extent that the provisions of Chapter 5 prevent the payment to any holders of dissenting shares of their fair market value, they shall become creditors of the corporation for the amount thereof together with interest at the legal rate on judgments until the date of payment, but subordinate to all other creditors in any liquidation proceeding, such debt to be payable when permissible under the provisions of Chapter 5.

1307. Cash dividends declared and paid by the corporation upon the dissenting shares after the date of approval of the reorganization by the outstanding shares (Section 152) and prior to payment for the shares by the corporation shall be credited against the total amount to be paid by the corporation therefor.

1308. Except as expressly limited in this chapter, holders of dissenting shares continue to have all the rights and privileges incident to their shares, until the fair market value of their shares is agreed upon or determined. A dissenting shareholder may not withdraw a demand for payment unless the corporation consents thereto.

B-2

Table of Contents

1309. Dissenting shares lose their status as dissenting shares and the holders thereof cease to be dissenting shareholders and cease to be entitled to require the corporation to purchase their shares upon the happening of any of the following:

(a) The corporation abandons the reorganization. Upon abandonment of the reorganization, the corporation shall pay on demand to any dissenting shareholder who has initiated proceedings in good faith under this chapter all necessary expenses incurred in such proceedings and reasonable attorneys' fees.

(b) The shares are transferred prior to their submission for endorsement in accordance with Section 1302 or are surrendered for conversion into shares of another class in accordance with the articles.

(c) The dissenting shareholder and the corporation do not agree upon the status of the shares as dissenting shares or upon the purchase price of the shares, and neither files a complaint or intervenes in a pending action as provided in Section 1304, within six months after the date on which notice of the approval by the outstanding shares or notice pursuant to subdivision (h) of Section 1110 was mailed to the shareholder.

(d) The dissenting shareholder, with the consent of the corporation, withdraws the shareholder's demand for purchase of the dissenting shares.

1310. If litigation is instituted to test the sufficiency or regularity of the votes of the shareholders in authorizing a reorganization, any proceedings under Sections 1304 and 1305 shall be suspended until final determination of such litigation.

1311. This chapter, except Section 1312, does not apply to classes of shares whose terms and provisions specifically set forth the amount to be paid in respect to such shares in the event of a reorganization or merger.

1312. (a) No shareholder of a corporation who has a right under this chapter to demand payment of cash for the shares held by the shareholder shall have any right at law or in equity to attack the validity of the reorganization or short-form merger, or to have the reorganization or short-form merger set aside or rescinded, except in an action to test whether the number of shares required to authorize or approve the reorganization have been legally voted in favor thereof; but any holder of shares of a class whose terms and provisions specifically set forth the amount to be paid in respect to them in the event of a reorganization or short-form merger is entitled to payment in accordance with those terms and provisions or, if the principal terms of the reorganization are approved pursuant to subdivision (b) of Section 1202, is entitled to payment in accordance with the terms and provisions of the approved reorganization.

(b) If one of the parties to a reorganization or short-form merger is directly or indirectly controlled by, or under common control with, another party to the reorganization or short-form merger, subdivision (a) shall not apply to any shareholder of such party who has not demanded payment of cash for such shareholder's shares pursuant to this chapter; but if the shareholder institutes any action to attack the validity of the reorganization or short-form merger or to have the reorganization or short-form merger set aside or rescinded, the shareholder shall not thereafter have any right to demand payment of cash for the shareholder's shares pursuant to this chapter. The court in any action attacking the validity of the reorganization or short-form merger or to have the reorganization or short-form merger set aside or rescinded shall not restrain or enjoin the consummation of the transaction except upon 10 days' prior notice to the corporation and upon a determination by the court that clearly no other remedy will adequately protect the complaining shareholder or the class of shareholders of which such shareholder is a member.

(c) If one of the parties to a reorganization or short-form merger is directly or indirectly controlled by, or under common control with, another party to the reorganization or short-form merger, in any action to attack the validity of the reorganization or short-form merger or to have the reorganization or short-form merger set aside or rescinded, (1) a party to a reorganization or short-form merger which controls another party to the reorganization or short-form merger shall have the burden of proving that the transaction is just and reasonable as to the shareholders of the controlled party, and (2) a person who controls two or more parties to a reorganization shall have the burden of proving that the transaction is just and reasonable as to the shareholders of any party so controlled.

1313. A conversion pursuant to Chapter 11.5 (commencing with Section 1150) shall be deemed to constitute a reorganization for purposes of applying the provisions of this chapter, in accordance with and to the extent provided in Section 1159.

Fairness Opinion of Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P.

[Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P. Letterhead]

April 28, 2016

Board of Directors

Sierra Vista Bank

1710 Prairie City Road, Suite 100

Folsom, CA 95630

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Sierra Vista Bank (“SVBank”), Central Valley Community Bancorp (“CVCY”) and Central Valley Community Bank (“Central Valley Community Bank”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of CVCY, are proposing to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger (the “Agreement”) pursuant to which SVBank will merge with and into Central Valley Community Bank (the “Merger”) with Central Valley Community Bank surviving the Merger. Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, upon the Effective Time of the Merger, each share of common stock, no par value, of SVBank issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (“SVBank Common Stock”), except for certain shares of SVBank Common Stock as specified in the Agreement, shall be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder thereof and in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Agreement, either (i) the number of shares of CVCY Common Stock equal to the Exchange Ratio (the “Per Share Stock Consideration”), (ii) cash in an amount equal to the Per Share Consideration Value (the “Per Share Cash Consideration”), or (iii) the Per Share Stock Consideration in respect of that portion of such holder’s SVBank Common Stock equal to 58%, rounded to the nearest whole share, and the Per Share Cash Consideration in respect of that portion of such holder’s SVBank Common Stock equal to 42%, rounded to the nearest whole share (the “Mixed Consideration”). The Agreement provides, generally, that shareholder elections may be adjusted as necessary to result in an overall ratio of 42% of SVBank Common Stock being converted into the right to receive the Per Share Cash Consideration and 58% of SVBank Common Stock being converted into the right to receive the Per Share Stock Consideration. The terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Agreement. The Per Share Stock Consideration, the Per Share Cash Consideration and the Mixed Consideration are collectively referred to herein as the “Merger Consideration.” Capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the meanings assigned to them in the Agreement. You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to the holders of SVBank Common Stock. Sandler O’Neill & Partners, L.P. (“Sandler O’Neill”, “we” or “our”), as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed and considered, among other things: (i) a draft of the Agreement, dated April 26, 2016; (ii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of SVBank that we deemed relevant; (iii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of CVCY that we deemed relevant; (iv) internal financial projections for SVBank for the years ending December 31, 2016 through December 31, 2020, as provided by the senior management of SVBank; (v) publicly available mean analyst earnings per share estimates for CVCY for the years ending December 31, 2016 and December 31, 2017 as well as an estimated long-term earnings per share growth rate for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of CVCY; (vi) the pro forma financial impact of the Merger on CVCY based on assumptions relating to transaction expenses, purchase accounting adjustments, adjustments to the cost of deposits at SVBank and cost savings, as well as financial projections for SVBank for the years ending December 31, 2016 through December 31, 2020, as provided by the senior management of CVCY; (vii) the publicly reported historical price and trading activity for SVBank and CVCY common stock, including a comparison of certain stock market information for SVBank and CVCY common stock and certain stock indices as well as publicly available information for certain other similar companies, the securities of which are publicly traded; (viii) a comparison of certain financial information for SVBank and CVCY with similar institutions for which information is publicly available; (ix) the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the banking industry (on a regional and nationwide basis), to the extent publicly available; (x) the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and (xi) such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as we considered relevant. We also discussed with certain members of senior management of SVBank the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of SVBank and held similar discussions with certain members of senior management of CVCY regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of CVCY.

In performing our review, we have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to and reviewed by us from public sources, that was provided to us by SVBank or CVCY or their respective representatives or that was otherwise reviewed by us and we have assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering this opinion without any independent verification or investigation. We have further relied on the assurances of the respective managements of SVBank and CVCY that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. We have not been asked to and have not undertaken an independent verification of any of such information and we do not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. We did not make an independent evaluation or perform an appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of SVBank or CVCY or any of their respective subsidiaries, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. We render no opinion or evaluation on the collectability of any assets or the future performance of any loans of SVBank or CVCY or any of their respective subsidiaries. We did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of SVBank or CVCY, or the combined entity after the Merger and we have not reviewed any individual credit files relating to SVBank or CVCY or any of their respective subsidiaries. We have assumed, with your consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both SVBank and CVCY are adequate to cover such losses and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity.

In preparing its analyses, Sandler O'Neill used internal financial projections for SVBank for the years ending December 31, 2016 through December 31, 2020, as provided by the senior management of SVBank. In addition, in preparing its analyses Sandler O'Neill used publicly available mean analyst earnings per share estimates for CVCY for the years ending December 31, 2016 and December 31, 2017 as well as an estimated long-term earnings per share growth rate for the years thereafter, as provided by the senior management of CVCY. Sandler O'Neill also received and used in its pro forma analyses certain assumptions relating to transaction expenses, purchase accounting adjustments, adjustments to the cost of deposits at SVBank and cost savings, as well as financial projections for SVBank for the years ending December 31, 2016 through December 31, 2020, as provided by the senior management of CVCY. With respect to the foregoing information, the respective managements of SVBank and CVCY confirmed to us that such information reflected (or, in the case of the publicly available mean analyst earnings per share estimates referred to above, were consistent with) the best currently available projections, estimates and judgments of those respective senior managements of the future financial performance of SVBank and CVCY and we assumed that such performance would be achieved. We express no opinion as to such projections, estimates or judgments, or the assumptions on which they are based. We have also assumed that there has been no material change in SVBank's or CVCY's assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to us. We have assumed in all respects material to our analysis that SVBank and CVCY will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to our analyses.

We have also assumed, with your consent, that (i) each of the parties to the Agreement will comply in all material respects with all material terms and conditions of the Agreement and all related agreements, that all of the representations and warranties contained in such agreements are true and correct in all material respects, that the parties to such agreements will perform in all material respects all of the covenants and other obligations required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in such agreements are not and will not be waived, (ii) in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory or third party approvals, consents and releases with respect to the Merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on SVBank, CVCY or the Merger or any related transaction, (iii) the Merger and any related transaction will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Agreement without any waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and in compliance with all applicable laws and other requirements, (iv) the Merger will be consummated without SVBank's rights under Section 7.1(g)(i) of the Agreement having been triggered, (v) the Merger will be consummated without CVCY's rights under Section 7.1(g)(iii) of the Agreement having been triggered, and (vi) the Merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. Finally, with your consent, we have relied upon the advice that SVBank has received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Agreement.

Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof could materially affect this opinion. We have not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date hereof. We express no opinion as to the trading values of SVBank Common Stock or CVCY Common Stock at any time or what the value of CVCY Common Stock will be once it is actually received by the holders of SVBank Common Stock.

We have acted as SVBank's financial advisor in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee for our services, which fee is contingent upon consummation of the Merger. We will also receive a fee for rendering this opinion, which fairness opinion fee will be credited in full towards the fee becoming due and payable to us on the day of closing of the Merger. SVBank has also agreed to indemnify us against certain claims and liabilities arising out of our engagement and to reimburse us for certain of our out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with our engagement. In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may purchase securities from and sell securities to SVBank or CVCY and their respective affiliates. We may also actively trade the equity and debt securities of SVBank and CVCY or their respective affiliates for our own account and for the accounts of our customers.

Our opinion is directed to the Board of Directors of SVBank in connection with its consideration of the Agreement and the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of SVBank as to how any such shareholder should vote at any meeting of shareholders called to consider and vote upon the adoption of the Agreement and approval of the Merger. Our opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to the holders of SVBank Common Stock and does not address the underlying business decision of SVBank to engage in the Merger, the form or structure of the Merger or the other transactions contemplated in the Agreement, the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any other alternative transactions or business strategies that might exist for SVBank or the effect of any other transaction in which SVBank might engage. We also do not express any opinion as to the amount of compensation to be received in the Merger by any SVBank or CVCY officer, director or employee, or class of such persons, if any, relative to the amount of compensation to be received by any other shareholder. This opinion has been approved by Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion committee. This opinion shall not be reproduced without Sandler O'Neill's prior written consent, provided however Sandler O'Neill will provide its consent for the opinion to be included in regulatory filings to be completed in connection with the Merger.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration is fair to holders of SVBank Common Stock from a financial point of view.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P.

PART II
INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

The Bylaws of Central Valley Community Bancorp provide that Central Valley Community Bancorp shall, to the maximum extent and in the manner permitted by the California Corporations Code (the “Code”), indemnify each of its directors against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any proceeding arising by reason of the fact that such person is or was a director of Central Valley Community Bancorp. Furthermore, pursuant to Central Valley Community Bancorp’s Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws, Central Valley Community Bancorp has power, to the maximum extent and in the manner permitted by the Code, to indemnify its employees, officers and agents (other than directors) against expenses, judgments, fines, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with any proceeding arising by reason of the fact that such person is or was an employee, officer or agent of Central Valley Community Bancorp.

Under Section 317 of the Code, a corporation may indemnify a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation against expenses (including attorneys’ fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. In the case of an action brought by or in the right of a corporation, the corporation may indemnify a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation against expenses (including attorneys’ fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made: (1) in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless a court finds that, in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court shall deem proper, (2) of amounts paid in settling or otherwise disposing of a pending action without court approval, and (3) of expenses incurred in defending a pending action which is settled or otherwise disposed of without court approval.

Central Valley Community Bancorp’s Bylaws also provide that Central Valley Community Bancorp shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance covering its directors, officers and employees against any liability asserted against any of them, whether or not Central Valley Community Bancorp would have the power to indemnify them against such liability under provisions of applicable law or the provisions of Central Valley Community Bancorp’s Bylaws. Each of the directors and executive officers of Central Valley Community Bancorp has an indemnification agreement with Central Valley Community Bancorp that provides that Central Valley Community Bancorp shall indemnify such person to the full extent authorized by the applicable provisions of the Code and further provide advances to pay for any expenses which would be subject to reimbursement. Central Valley Community Bancorp is insured against liabilities which it may incur by reason of its indemnification of officers and directors in accordance with its Bylaws.

The foregoing summaries are necessarily subject to the complete text of the statute, Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws and agreements referred to above and are qualified in their entirety by reference thereto.

Item 22. Undertakings

The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1)

To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i)

To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act");

(ii)

To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement; and

(iii)

To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement.

(2)

That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3)

To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(4)

That prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is part of this Registration Statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(5)

That every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (4) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the Registration Statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(6)

To supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the Registration Statement when it became effective.

(7)

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(8)

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11, or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(9)

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration
