Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (“DGCL”) empowers a Delaware corporation to indemnify its current or former directors and officers, as well as other current or former employees and individuals, against expenses, including attorneys’ fees, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually or reasonably incurred in connection with specified actions, suits or proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, other than actions by or in the right of such corporation. The director or officer must have acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. A Delaware corporation is similarly empowered by the DGCL, subject to the same limitation described in the previous sentence, with respect to actions by or in the right of the corporation, except that indemnification only extends to expenses, including attorneys’ fees, incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such actions, and court approval is required to indemnify an individual adjudged to be liable to the corporation. Where directors and officers are successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of such actions, or in the defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, the corporation is required to indemnify them against the expenses, including attorneys’ fees, actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense. The DGCL permits a corporation to advance expenses, including attorneys’ fees, incurred by a director or officer in defending such actions, provided that the director or officer undertakes to repay the advanced amount if it is ultimately determined that the director or officer is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation. The statutory indemnification provided under Section 145 of the DGCL is not exclusive of other indemnification that may be granted by a corporation’s charter, bylaws, disinterested director vote, stockholder vote, agreement or otherwise.

The Registrant’s certificate of incorporation provides, as permitted by the DGCL, that the Registrant’s directors shall have no personal liability to the Registrant or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except: (1) for any breach of the director’s duty of loyalty to the Registrant or its stockholders; (2) for acts or omissions not in good faith or that involve intentional misconduct or knowing violation of law; (3) under Section 174 of the DGCL; or (4) for any transaction from which a director derived an improper personal benefit.

The Registrant’s bylaws provide that the Registrant shall indemnify, to the fullest extent permitted by DGCL, any and all of its directors and officers, or former directors and officers, or any person who may have served at the Registrant’s request as an employee or other agent. However, indemnification of a present director or officer in a specific case initiated by such director or officer is not required unless: (1) such indemnification is expressly required to be made by law; (2) the proceeding was authorized by the Board of Directors of the Registrant; or (3) such indemnification is provided by the Registrant, in its sole discretion, pursuant to the powers vested in the Registrant under DGCL.

The Registrant has entered into Indemnity Agreements with each of its directors and officers, under which the Registrant will be obligated, to the extent permitted by DGCL, to indemnify such directors and officers against all expenses, judgments, fines and penalties incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of any actions brought against them by reason of the fact that they served as directors or officers or assumed certain responsibilities at the Registrant’s direction. As permitted by the DGCL and in accordance with the Indemnity Agreements, the Registrant has purchased and maintains directors and officers liability insurance.

Item 9. Undertakings.

(a) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

1. To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the Registration Statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the Registration Statement or any material change to such information in the Registration Statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act that are incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement.

2. That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

3. To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Exchange Act) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new Registration Statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
