VOTING PROCEDURES

Registered stockholders may vote in one of three ways: By completing and returning the enclosed proxy card via regular mail or by voting via the Internet or telephone, as permitted by Delaware law. Specific instructions for using these methods are set forth on the enclosed proxy card. The Internet and telephone procedures are designed to authenticate the stockholder's identity and to allow stockholders to vote their shares and confirm that their instructions have been properly recorded.

Only holders of record of the Company's common stock at the close of business on April 14, 2009, the Record Date for the annual meeting, are entitled to notice of and to vote at the annual meeting. On the Record Date, there were 21,848,464 shares of the Company's common stock outstanding. Each share of common stock entitles the holder thereof to one vote upon each matter to be presented at the annual meeting. A quorum, consisting of a majority of the outstanding shares of the common stock entitled to vote at the annual meeting, must be present in person or represented by proxy before action may be taken at the annual meeting.

Each proxy returned to the Company will be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated thereon. Shares will be voted in the manner directed by the stockholders; provided, however, that if no direction is given by a stockholder, the shares will be voted as recommended by the Company's Board of Directors. If a stockholder abstains from voting on any matter, the abstention will be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present at the annual meeting for the transaction of business as well as shares entitled to vote on that matter. Under Section 216 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, on matters other than the election of directors, an action of the stockholders generally requires the affirmative vote of a majority of shares present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on the matter. Accordingly, an abstention on any matter other than the election of directors will have the same effect as a vote against that matter. A non-vote occurs when a nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner votes on one proposal, but does not vote on another proposal because the nominee does not have discretionary voting power and has not received instructions from the beneficial owner. Broker non-votes on a matter are counted as present for purposes of establishing a quorum for the meeting, but are not considered entitled to vote on that particular matter. Consequently, non-votes generally do not have the same effect as a negative vote on the matter.

A stockholder giving a proxy may revoke it at any time before it is exercised by (i) giving written notice of revocation to the Chief Financial Officer of the Company, (ii) delivering a duly executed proxy bearing a later date, or (iii) voting in person at the annual meeting. Presence at the annual meeting of a stockholder who has signed a proxy does not, alone, revoke that proxy; revocation must be announced by the stockholder at the time of the meeting.

The election of each director under Proposal One requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a plurality of the shares of the Company's common stock present in person or represented by proxy at the annual meeting. Adoption of each other proposal requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of such shares. The Board of Directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR each of the proposals set forth above.

While the Board of Directors knows of no other matters to be presented at the annual meeting or any adjournment thereof, all proxies returned to the Company will be voted on any such matter in accordance with the judgment of the proxy holders.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS (Proposal One)

The Board of Directors currently consists of eight directors, each of whom has been nominated for re-election by the Board of Directors. If re-elected, each nominee has consented to serve as a director of the Company, to hold office until the next annual meeting of stockholders, or until his successor is elected and shall have qualified. If any director nominee should withdraw or otherwise become unavailable for reasons not presently known, the proxies which would have otherwise been voted for that director nominee may be voted for a substitute director nominee selected by the Company's Board of Directors.

Description of Employment Agreements and Related Compensation

Employment Agreement with Jonathan Lewis, M.D., Ph.D.

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2006, Dr. Jonathan Lewis served as the Company's Chief Executive Officer under a written three-year employment agreement dated January 8, 2004. Under the agreement, Dr. Lewis received an annual base salary of $350,000 and a guaranteed annual bonus of $250,000. In addition, Dr. Lewis was eligible to receive an annual discretionary bonus of up to 100% of his base salary, as determined by the compensation committee of our Board of Directors, as well as stock options that may be granted in the discretion of the compensation committee. In December 2006, the Company and Dr. Lewis entered into a written extension to his existing employment agreement pursuant to which the Company extended the term of Dr. Lewis' employment to January 8, 2008 and increased his annual base salary to $385,000.

The Company's practice has been to evaluate compensation and related job performance at the end of each fiscal year and grants cash bonuses and/or stock options to employees based upon such evaluation. During fiscal 2007, the compensation committee determined to pay Dr. Lewis a discretionary cash bonus of $65,000 for his job performance in fiscal 2007. This determination was based on the Company meeting or exceeding previously set 2007 operational goals. In addition, the Company granted Dr. Lewis a stock option to purchase 35,000 shares of common stock at a per share exercise price of $4.85 on June 18, 2007 and a year-end stock option to purchase 100,000 shares of common stock at a per share exercise price of $2.73. Such options vest in annual installments over three years commencing on the one year anniversary of the date of grant.

On January 18, 2008, the Company entered into a new employment agreement with Dr. Lewis that was retroactively effective as of the January 8, 2008 expiration date of his prior agreement. Under the new agreement, which has a three year term commencing January 8, 2008, Dr. Lewis receives an annual base salary of $420,000, which is subject to increase at the discretion of the Board of Directors based on an annual review. In addition, Dr. Lewis is eligible to receive an annual bonus based on his performance as determined by the Board of Directors. The target amount of the annual performance is a range from $250,000 to $360,000. The agreement contemplates that Dr. Lewis and the Company's compensation committee will agree on certain performance targets each year. The actual amount received will be based on whether each of these targets have been achieved by the Company, with lesser amounts paid if substantial progress has been made to achieve the goal or it has been abandoned by the Company, and greater amounts paid if expectations are exceeded. Dr. Lewis is also eligible to receive an additional annual discretionary bonus in such amounts determined by the Board of Directors.

On December 5, 2008, the employment agreement with Dr. Lewis was amended to provide for a restricted stock grant of 150,000 shares, with restrictions that will lapse on December 3, 2009, in lieu of the cash bonus for fiscal 2008 that Dr. Lewis would otherwise have been eligible to receive. Replacing Dr. Lewis' cash bonus potential with a restricted stock grant was in accordance with the Company's efforts to conserve cash. The Company's other senior management employees also received restricted stock grants in accordance with these efforts.

Under his current agreement, Dr. Lewis is eligible for reimbursement of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by him in furtherance of the business and affairs of the Company, including reasonable travel and entertainment expenses, as well as for medical licensing fees, professional dues and memberships, journal subscriptions and up to $10,000 per year in costs associated with certain corporate consultants retained by Dr. Lewis. In addition, the Company has agreed to reimburse Dr. Lewis for premiums on life insurance policies having aggregate coverage limits of up to $800,000 and premiums on disability insurance policies covering Dr. Lewis in amounts up to $20,000 per month.

In connection with entering into the new employment agreement, the Company granted Dr. Lewis an award of restricted stock in the amount of 100,000 shares. The restricted stock award is governed by an agreement that prohibits Dr. Lewis from transferring the restricted shares and provides that the shares will be forfeited without consideration if Dr. Lewis's employment with the Company is terminated. The transfer restrictions and forfeiture obligations are scheduled to lapse in three equal annual installments on January 8, 2009, January 8, 2010 and January 8, 2011. Dr. Lewis will also be eligible to receive additional equity awards as determined by the Board of Directors in its sole discretion from time to time.

The employment agreement provides that Dr. Lewis will continue to receive his base salary, benefits and a pro-rata portion of his target performance bonus for a period of one year if he is terminated by the Company for a reason other than death, disability or Cause, or if Dr. Lewis resigns for Good Reason, each as defined in the employment agreement. In connection with any such termination, the pro rata portion of Dr. Lewis's performance bonus will be based on the number of days Dr. Lewis has been employed by the Company during the year of termination. In the event Dr. Lewis's employment is terminated without Cause prior to and in connection with a Change in Control, or within 18 months thereafter, he will continue to receive his base salary and benefits for a period of two years following such termination and will also receive the greater of the amount of his performance bonus for the year of termination or the average of the amounts received as a performance bonus under the new employment agreement or guaranteed bonus under the previous employment agreement for the two years preceding the year of termination. If Dr. Lewis's employment is terminated as a result of death or disability, Dr. Lewis (or his estate, as applicable) will receive his base salary for a period of one year following the date of termination. Upon occurrence of any of the above termination events, all stock options and restricted stock grants scheduled to vest by the end of the calendar year in which such termination occurs will be accelerated and deemed to vest as of the termination date.

The employment agreement provides that Dr. Lewis will not compete with the Company, or solicit employees, clients or customers of the Company, for twelve months after the termination of his employment with the Company; provided, however, that the Company will be obligated to pay Dr. Lewis his base salary and his performance bonus (based on Dr. Lewis's average performance bonus received for the prior two years) if the Company desires such non-competition and non-solicitation provisions to have effect following expiration of the employment agreement without renewal.

Employment Agreement with Richard E. Bagley

During the fiscal year ended December 31, 2007, Mr. Richard E. Bagley served as the Company's President, Chief Operating Officer, Chief Financial Officer, and Treasurer under a written three-year employment agreement dated July 21, 2004 and effective July 1, 2004. Under the agreement, Mr. Bagley received an annual base salary of $250,000 and a guaranteed annual bonus of $50,000. In addition, Mr. Bagley was eligible to receive an annual discretionary bonus as determined by the compensation committee of our Board of Directors, as well as stock options that may be granted at the discretion of the compensation committee. Following approval by the Company's Board of Directors at a meeting held June 18, 2007, the Company entered into an Employment Agreement Extension with Mr. Bagley, pursuant to which the Company extended the term of Mr. Bagley's employment for an additional one year period at his current annual base salary of $275,000.

During fiscal 2007, the compensation committee determined to pay Mr. Bagley a discretionary cash bonus of $55,000 for his job performance in fiscal 2007. This determination was based on the Company's meeting or exceeding its previously set 2007 operational goals. In addition, the Company granted Mr. Bagley a stock option to purchase 25,000 shares of common stock at a per share exercise price of $4.85 on June 18, 2007 and a year-end stock option to purchase 75,000 shares of common stock at a per share exercise price of $2.73. Such options vest in annual installments over three years commencing on the one year anniversary of the date of grant. As part of a year-end grant of stock awards to certain of the Company's employees, the Company granted Mr. Bagley an award of restricted stock in the amount of 25,000 shares. The restricted stock award is governed by an agreement that prohibits Mr. Bagley from transferring the restricted shares and provides that the shares will be forfeited without consideration if Mr. Bagley's employment with the Company is terminated. The transfer restrictions and forfeiture obligations are scheduled to lapse on December 1, 2008.

Effective June 25, 2008, the Company entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Bagley that provides for a three-year employment term beginning on July 1, 2008. Under the new agreement, Mr. Bagley is entitled to receive an annual base salary of $315,000, which is subject to increase at the discretion of the Board of Directors based on an annual review. In addition, Mr. Bagley is eligible to receive an annual bonus based on his performance as determined by the Board of Directors. The target amount of the annual performance bonus is $100,000, and the actual amount to be received will be based on the achievement of certain performance goals to be agreed upon by Mr. Bagley and the Board's compensation committee for each calendar year. Mr. Bagley is also eligible to receive an additional annual discretionary bonus in such amount as may be determined by the Board of Directors.

On December 5, 2008, the employment agreement with Mr. Bagley was amended to provide for a restricted stock grant of 50,000 shares, with restrictions that will lapse on December 3, 2009, in lieu of the cash bonus for fiscal 2008 that Mr. Bagley would otherwise have been eligible to receive. Replacing Mr. Bagley's cash bonus potential with a restricted stock grant was in accordance with the Company's efforts to conserve cash. The Company's other senior management employees also received restricted stock grants in accordance with these efforts.

Under his new agreement, Mr. Bagley is eligible for reimbursement of reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by him in furtherance of the business and affairs of the Company, including reasonable travel and entertainment expenses, as well as reasonable professional dues.

In connection with entering into the new employment agreement on June 25, 2008, the Company granted Mr. Bagley an award of 60,000 options to purchase the Company's common stock at a per share exercise price of $2.14, which options vest in three equal annual installments on June 25, 2009, June 25, 2010 and June 25, 2011.

The new employment agreement provides that Mr. Bagley will continue to receive his base salary and benefits for a period of one year if (i) he is terminated by the Company for a reason other than death, disability or Cause, as that term defined in the employment agreement, (ii) Mr. Bagley resigns for Good Reason, as that term defined in the employment agreement, or (iii) Mr. Bagley's employment is terminated without Cause prior to and in connection with a Change of Control, as that term is defined in the employment agreement, or within 18 months thereafter. In connection with any such termination, any of Mr. Bagley's stock options that have vested as of the date of the termination shall remain exercisable for a period of 90 days and any unvested stock options shall be deemed to have expired as of the date of termination. In the event of a Change of Control, Mr. Bagley's stock options that are scheduled to vest by the end of the calendar year in which the Change of Control occurs shall be accelerated and deemed to have vested as of the date immediately preceding the Change of Control. If Mr. Bagley's employment is terminated as a result of his death or disability, Mr. Bagley (or his estate, as applicable) will receive his base salary for a period of one year and any accrued but unpaid bonus payments.

The employment agreement provides that Mr. Bagley will not compete with the Company, or solicit employees, clients or customers of the Company, for twelve months after the termination of his employment with the Company; provided, however, that the Company will be obligated to pay Mr. Bagley his base salary if the Company desires such non-competition and non-solicitation provisions to have effect following expiration of the employment agreement without renewal.

Employment Agreement with Brian Schwartz, M.D.

Brian Schwartz, M.D., served as the Company's Senior Vice President, Medical and Regulatory, and Chief Medical Officer from June 1, 2006 until he resigned from the Company effective July 11, 2008. Dr. Schwartz's employment with the Company was governed by a written employment agreement dated May 10, 2006. Under the employment agreement, Dr. Schwartz initially received an annual base salary of $275,000, which was subsequently increased to $284,625 for fiscal 2007. In connection with the commencement of his employment with the Company, Dr. Schwartz received a $30,000 signing bonus and options to purchase 100,000 shares of the Company's common stock. These options, which had an exercise price of $5.35 per share, were granted on June 1, 2006 and were scheduled to vest in equal annual installments over three years commencing on May 10, 2007 (the first anniversary of the date of the employment). The stock option terminated with respect to 33,333 unvested shares upon Dr. Schwartz's resignation from the Company in July 2008. The employment agreement also entitled Dr. Schwartz to receive a guaranteed bonus of $40,000 on the first anniversary of his employment with the Company, which was paid on June 1, 2007. In addition, Dr. Schwartz was entitled to receive additional annual discretionary bonuses as determined by the compensation committee of our Board of Directors, as well as stock options granted at the discretion of the compensation committee. The Company was also required to either pay or reimburse Dr. Schwartz for the reasonable and actual expense of renting a one-bedroom apartment or comparable hotel accommodations for his use while working at the Company's Charlestown, Massachusetts office.

11

The agreement had no particular term and was terminable by either Dr. Schwartz or the Company at any time, with or without Cause, as defined in the employment agreement. However, in the event that his employment was terminated by the Company other than for Cause, and other than by reason of retirement, death or permanent disability, Dr. Schwartz would have been entitled to continue to receive his base salary for a period of one year. Dr. Schwartz terminated his employment with the Company effective July 11, 2008 without triggering any severance obligation on the part of the Company. Dr. Schwartz was also party to an Invention, Non-disclosure and Non-competition Agreement that prohibits him from, among other things, competing with Company for a period of one year following the July 11, 2008 termination of his employment.

During fiscal 2007, the compensation committee determined to pay Dr. Schwartz a discretionary cash bonus of $90,000 for his job performance in fiscal 2007. This determination was based on the Company's meeting or exceeding its previously set 2007 operational goals. In addition, the Company granted Dr. Schwartz a stock option to purchase 35,000 shares of common stock at a per share exercise price of $4.85 on June 18, 2007 and a year-end stock option to purchase 50,000 shares of common stock at a per share exercise price of $2.73. Such options were scheduled to vest in annual installments over three years commencing on the one year anniversary of the date of grant. These stock options terminated with respect to 23,333 and 33,333 unvested shares, respectively, upon Dr. Schwartz's resignation from the Company in July 2008. As part of a year-end grant of stock awards to certain of the Company's employees, the Company granted Dr. Schwartz an award of restricted stock in the amount of 25,000 shares. The restricted stock award was governed by an agreement that prohibits Dr. Schwartz from transferring the restricted shares and provided that the shares would be forfeited without consideration if Dr. Schwartz's employment with the Company was terminated. The transfer restrictions and forfeiture obligations were scheduled to lapse on December 1, 2008. Dr. Schwartz forfeited the restricted shares upon his resignation from the Company in July 2008.

Severance or Change of Control Payments

Depending upon the events surrounding a possible termination of employment with Dr. Lewis or Mr. Bagley, they may continue to receive compensation following such termination and the vesting of Dr. Lewis or Mr. Bagley s stock options may accelerate in whole or in part upon such termination. No severance payments were made to Dr. Schwartz upon his termination of employment with the Company in July 2008. Arrangements related to post-termination compensation and benefits applicable to Dr. Lewis and Mr. Bagley, as well as those that applied to Dr. Schwartz, are discussed above under the headings Description of Employment Agreements and Related Compensation Employment Agreement with Jonathan Lewis, M.D., Ph.D., Description of Employment Agreements and Related Compensation Employment Agreement with Richard E. Bagley and Description of Employment Agreements and Related Compensation Employment Agreement with Brian Schwartz, M.D.

Director Compensation

Effective June 18, 2007, the Company established its current director compensation arrangements. Under the current arrangements, each non-employee director of the Company receives a $3,750 quarterly cash retainer paid in arrears plus $2,000 for each Board of Director s meeting attended by such director. In addition, the chairmen of the Company s audit committee and compensation committee receive an additional quarterly cash retainer of $2,500 paid in arrears. With the exception of the chairmen of the audit committee and compensation committee, each other non-employee director serving on the Company s audit committee, compensation committee and nominating and corporate governance committee receives a $1,000 cash payment for each committee meeting attended by such director. Prior to June 18, 2007, each non-employee director of the Company received a $5,000 quarterly cash retainer paid in arrears and each non-employee director serving on the Company s audit committee, compensation committee and nominating and corporate governance committee received a $1,000 cash payment for each committee meeting attended by such director.

The Company s practice is to approve year-end equity incentive grants to non-employee directors in consideration for services provided to the Company as director during the preceding year. On December 3, 2008, the Board of Directors awarded each non-employee director 15,000 shares of the Company's common stock that are subject to transfer and forfeiture restrictions that lapse in their entirety on the first anniversary of the grant date.

The table below summarizes the compensation paid by the Company to its non-employee directors for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2008.

AMENDMENT TO 2003 STOCK OPTION PLAN (Proposal Two)

The Company currently maintains one stock incentive plan, the 2003 Stock Option Plan (the "2003 Plan"), which is currently approved to grant up to an aggregate of 4,002,436 shares of the Company's common stock. Of the shares reserved for issuance under the 2003 Plan, 597,728 were available for future grants as of December 31, 2008.

On December 3, 2008, the Board of Directors approved an amendment to the 2003 Plan, subject to approval at the annual meeting by the Company's stockholders, to increase the number of shares reserved for issuance thereunder by 2,000,000 shares so that the total shares reserved for issuance pursuant to the 2003 Plan would be increased to 6,002,436. Although the 2003 Plan does not limit the aggregate number of shares reserved for issuance thereunder that may be granted during any period of time, the Board of Directors anticipates that the proposed increase in shares reserved for issuance under the 2003 Plan will be sufficient to satisfy grants to recipients in accordance with the Company's compensation policies through fiscal 2009 and 2010.

The Board of Directors considered a number of factors in determining the appropriate number of shares for future issuance, including overhang levels at other similar sized competitive peer companies, the highly competitive labor market in the biotechnology industry, and the Company's strategy to attract and retain highly regarded and well-qualified directors, officers and employees, particularly at this current stage of the Company's growth and development.

Immediately below is a summary of the existing 2003 Plan and a discussion of the federal income tax consequences of the issuance and exercise of incentives under the 2003 Plan to recipients and to the Company. This summary of the existing 2003 Plan is qualified entirely by reference to the complete text of the 2003 Plan, a copy of which may be obtained by referring to the information that the Company files with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Description of the Existing 2003 Plan

General

The purpose of the 2003 Plan is to increase stockholder value and to advance the interests of the Company by furnishing a variety of economic incentives (Incentives) designed to attract, retain and motivate employees, certain key consultants and directors of the Company. The compensation committee (the Committee) of Board of Directors administers the 2003 Plan. The Committee may grant Incentives to employees (including officers) of the Company or its subsidiaries, members of the Board of Directors, and consultants or other independent contractors who provide services to the Company or its subsidiaries, in the following forms, each of which is discussed below: (a) performance shares; (b) incentive stock options and non-statutory stock options; (c) stock appreciation rights (SARs); (d) stock awards; and (e) restricted stock.

The maximum number of shares of common stock authorized for issuance under the 2003 Plan is 4,002,436 shares, subject to adjustment in the event of a recapitalization or other corporate restructuring. Of this amount, 2,975,817 shares remain available for issuance under existing Incentive grants that remain outstanding or future Incentive grants, representing approximately 13.6% of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock on the Record Date.

Stockholders are often interested in the potential for equity dilution resulting from grants of equity incentives (performance shares, stock options, restricted stock, etc.) under a company's equity compensation plans. The percentage amount by which current stockholders' equity interests may be diluted as a result of such grants is commonly referred to as the overhang. The overhang is calculated by dividing (i) the total number of incentives granted and available for grant under equity compensation plans, by (ii) the total shares outstanding assuming the exercise of all outstanding incentives and the grant and exercise of all available incentives. The current overhang for the 2003 Plan (which is currently the Company's only equity compensation plan) is approximately 12.0%, based on amounts as of the Record Date.

Description of Incentives

Performance Shares. Performance shares consist of the grant by the Company to an eligible employee of a contingent right to receive shares of common stock. Performance shares shall be paid in shares of common stock to the extent performance objectives set forth in the grant are achieved. The number of shares granted and the performance criteria are determined by the Committee.

Stock Options. The Committee may grant non-qualified and incentive stock options to eligible employees to purchase shares of common stock from the Company. The 2003 Plan confers on the Committee discretion, with respect to any such stock option, to determine the term of each option, the time or times during its term when the option becomes exercisable and the number and purchase price of the shares subject to the option.

Stock Appreciation Rights. A stock appreciation right or SAR is a right to receive, without payment to the Company, a number of shares, cash or any combination thereof, the amount of which is equal to the aggregate amount of the appreciation in the shares of common stock as to which the SAR is exercised. For this purpose, the appreciation in the shares consists of the amount by which the fair market value of the shares of common stock on the exercise date exceeds (a) in the case of an SAR related to a stock option, the purchase price of the shares under the option or (b) in the case of an SAR granted alone, without reference to a related stock option, an amount determined by the Committee at the time of grant. The Committee has the discretion to determine the number of shares as to which an SAR will relate as well as the duration and exercisability of an SAR.

Stock Awards. Stock awards consist of the transfer by the Company to an eligible employee of shares of common stock, without payment, as additional compensation for services to the Company. The number of shares transferred pursuant to any stock award is determined by the Committee.

Restricted Stock. Restricted stock consists of the sale or transfer by the Company to an eligible employee of one or more shares of common stock that are subject to restrictions on their sale or other transfer by the employee which restrictions will lapse after a period of time as determined by the Committee. The price at which restricted stock will be sold will be determined by the Committee, and it may vary from time to time and among employees and may be less than the fair market value of the shares at the date of sale. Subject to these restrictions and the other requirements of the 2003 Plan, a participant receiving restricted stock shall have all of the rights of a stockholder as to those shares.

Transferability of Incentives

Incentives granted under the 2003 Plan may not be transferred, pledged or assigned by the holder thereof except, in the event of the holder's death, by will or the laws of descent and distribution to the limited extent provided in the 2003 Plan or the Incentive, or pursuant to a qualified domestic relations order as defined by the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code) or Title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act, or the rules hereunder. However, stock options may be transferred by the holder thereof to the holder's spouse, children, grandchildren or parents (collectively, the Family Members), to trusts for the benefit of Family Members, to partnerships or limited liability companies in which Family Members are the only partners or stockholders, or to entities exempt from federal income taxation pursuant to Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

Amendment of the 2003 Plan

The Board of Directors may amend or discontinue the 2003 Plan at any time. However, no such amendment or discontinuance may adversely change or impair a previously granted Incentive without the consent of the recipient thereof. Certain 2003 Plan amendments require stockholder approval, including amendments which would increase the maximum number of shares of Common Stock which may be issued to all participants under the 2003 Plan, change or expand the types of Incentives that may be granted under the 2003 Plan, change the class of persons eligible to receive Incentives under the 2003 Plan, or materially increase the benefits accruing to participants under the 2003 Plan.

Effect of Sale, Merger, Exchange or Liquidation

Unless otherwise provided in the agreement for an Incentive, in the event of an acquisition of the Company through the sale of substantially all of the Company's assets or through a merger, exchange, reorganization or liquidation of the Company or a similar event as determined by the Committee (collectively a "transaction"), the Committee shall be authorized, in its sole discretion, to take any and all action it deems equitable under the circumstances, including but not limited to:

- Terminating the 2003 Plan and all Incentives and (i) granting the holders of outstanding vested options, in lieu of any shares of common stock they would be entitled to receive under such options, such stock, securities or assets, including cash, as would have been paid to such participants if their options had been exercised and such holder had received common stock immediately prior to such transaction (with appropriate adjustment for the exercise price, if any), (ii) granting the holders of performance shares and/or SARs that entitle the participant to receive common stock, in lieu of any shares of common stock each participant was entitled to receive as of the date of the transaction pursuant to the terms of such Incentive, if any, such stock, securities or assets, including cash, as would have been paid to such participant if such common stock had been issued to and held by the participant immediately prior to such transaction; and (iii) treating holders of any Incentive which does not entitle the participant to receive common stock in an equitable manner as determined by the Committee;
- (1) Providing that participants holding outstanding vested common stock-based Incentives shall receive, with respect to each share of common stock issuable pursuant to such Incentives as of the effective date of any such transaction, at the determination of the Committee, cash, securities or other property, or any combination thereof, in an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the fair market value of such common stock on a date within ten days prior to the effective date of such transaction over the option price or other amount owed by a participant, if any, and that such Incentives shall be cancelled, including the cancellation without consideration of all options that have an exercise price below the per share value of the consideration received by the Company in the transaction;
- (2) Providing that the 2003 Plan (or a replacement plan) shall continue with respect to Incentives not cancelled or terminated as of the effective date of such transaction and provide to participants holding such Incentives the right to earn their respective Incentives on a substantially equivalent basis (taking into account the transaction and the number of shares or other equity issued by such successor entity) with respect to the equity of the entity succeeding the Company by reason of such transaction; and
- (3) Providing that all unvested, unearned or restricted Incentives, including but not limited to restricted stock for which restrictions have not lapsed as of the effective date of such transaction, shall be void and deemed terminated, or, in the alternative, for the acceleration or waiver of any vesting, earning or restrictions on any Incentive.
- (4) In addition, the Committee may restrict the rights of participants in the event of a transaction to the extent necessary to comply with Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Internal Revenue Code or any other applicable law or regulation.

Federal Income Tax Consequences

The following discussion sets forth certain United States income tax considerations in connection with the ownership of common stock. These tax considerations are stated in general terms and are based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 in its current form and current judicial and administrative interpretations thereof. This discussion does not address state or local tax considerations with respect to the ownership of common stock. Moreover, the tax considerations relevant to ownership of the common stock may vary depending on a holder's particular status.

An employee who receives restricted stock or performance shares subject to restrictions which create a substantial risk of forfeiture (within the meaning of section 83 of the Code) will normally realize taxable income on the date the shares become transferable or are no longer subject to substantial risk of forfeiture or on the date of their earlier disposition. The amount of such taxable income will be equal to the amount by which the fair market value of the shares of common stock on the date such restrictions lapse (or any earlier date on which the shares are disposed of) exceeds their purchase price, if any. An employee may elect, however, to include in income in the year of purchase or grant the excess of the fair market value of the shares of common stock (without regard to any restrictions) on the date of purchase or grant over its purchase price. The Company will be entitled to a deduction for compensation paid in the same year and in the same amount as income is realized by the employee.

An employee who receives a stock award under the 2003 Plan consisting of shares of common stock will realize ordinary income in the year of the award in an amount equal to the fair market value of the shares of common stock covered by the award on the date it is made, and the Company will be entitled to a deduction equal to the amount the employee is required to treat as ordinary income. An employee who receives a cash award will realize ordinary income in the year the award is paid equal to the amount thereof, and the amount of the cash will be deductible by the Company.

When a non-qualified stock option granted pursuant to the 2003 Plan is exercised, the employee will realize ordinary income measured by the difference between the aggregate purchase price of the shares of common stock as to which the option is exercised and the aggregate fair market value of shares of the common stock on the exercise date, and the Company will be entitled to a deduction in the year the option is exercised equal to the amount the employee is required to treat as ordinary income.

Options that qualify as incentive stock options are entitled to special tax treatment. Under existing federal income tax law, if shares purchased pursuant to the exercise of such an option are not disposed of by the optionee within two years from the date of granting of the option or within one year after the transfer of the shares to the optionee, whichever is longer, then (i) no income will be recognized to the optionee upon the exercise of the option; (ii) any gain or loss will be recognized to the optionee only upon ultimate disposition of the shares and, assuming the shares constitute capital assets in the optionee's hands, will be treated as long-term capital gain or loss; (iii) the optionee's basis in the shares purchased will be equal to the amount of cash paid for such shares; and (iv) the Company will not be entitled to a federal income tax deduction in connection with the exercise of the option. The Company understands that the difference between the option price and the fair market value of the shares acquired upon exercise of an incentive stock option will be treated as an item of tax preference for purposes of the alternative minimum tax. In addition, incentive stock options exercised more than three months after retirement are treated as non-qualified options.

The Company further understands that if the optionee disposes of the shares acquired by exercise of an incentive stock option before the expiration of the holding period described above, the optionee must treat as ordinary income in the year of that disposition an amount equal to the difference between the optionee's basis in the shares and the lesser of the fair market value of the shares on the date of exercise or the selling price. In addition, the Company will be entitled to a deduction equal to the amount the employee is required to treat as ordinary income.

If the exercise price of an option is paid by surrender of previously owned shares, the basis of the shares surrendered is carried over to the shares received in replacement of the previously owned shares. If the option is a nonstatutory option, the gain recognized on exercise is added to the basis. If the option is an incentive stock option, the optionee will recognize gain if the shares surrendered were acquired through the exercise of an incentive stock option and have not been held for the applicable holding period. This gain will be added to the basis of the shares received in replacement of the previously owned shares.

When a stock appreciation right granted pursuant to the 2003 Plan is exercised, the employee will realize ordinary income in the year the right is exercised equal to the value of the appreciation which the employee is entitled to receive pursuant to the formula described above, and the Company will be entitled to a deduction in the same year and in the same amount.

The 2003 Plan is intended to enable the Company to provide certain forms of performance-based compensation to executive officers that will meet the requirements for tax deductibility under Section 162(m) of the Code. Section 162(m) provides that, subject to certain exceptions, the Company may not deduct compensation paid to any one of certain executive officers in excess of $1 million in any one year. Section 162(m) excludes certain performance-based compensation from the $1 million limitation.

The discussion set forth above does not purport to be complete analysis of the potential tax consequences relevant to recipients of options or to the Company or to describe tax consequences based on particular circumstances. It is based on federal income tax and interpretational authorities as of the date of this proxy statement, which are subject to change at any time.

Proposed Amendment to 2003 Plan

If approved by the Company's stockholders, the proposed amendment to the 2003 Plan will increase the maximum number of shares of the Company's common stock that are authorized for issuance under the 2003 Plan from 4,002,436 shares to 6,002,436 shares, subject to adjustment in the event of a recapitalization or other corporate restructuring. Of this amount, 4,975,817 would be available for issuance under existing Incentive grants that remain outstanding or future Incentive grants, representing approximately 22.8% of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock on the Record Date. The overhang calculation as of the Record Date assuming the increased number of shares reserved for issuance under the 2003 Plan would be approximately 18.5%.
