Consolidated Business Results

For fiscal 2004 ended March 31, 2004, consolidated operating revenue was ¥700,885 million (US$6,612.1 million), rising 3.5% over the previous year. During fiscal 2004, the average value of the yen was 7.8% higher against the U.S. dollar, but 8.7% lower against the euro, compared to fiscal 2003.

In fiscal 2004, the Company changed its business segment classification for certain businesses. Results related to DVD drives for personal computers (PCs) have been moved from Others to Home Electronics, and results related to plasma displays for business use have been moved from Home Electronics to Others. Corresponding figures for the previous fiscal year have been restated accordingly.

Home Electronics sales increased 1.3% from the previous year to ¥281,482 million (US$2,655.5 million). In Japan, sales decreased by 9.2% to ¥78,798 million (US$743.4 million), due to a decline in sales of DVD players, recordable DVD drives for PCs, and plasma displays for home use, in spite of the increase in sales of DVD recorders. Overseas sales increased 6.0% to ¥202,684 million (US$1,912.1 million), due to rises in sales of our home-use plasma displays and DVD recorders worldwide, and recordable DVD drives in Europe and Asia, despite lower sales of DVD players and audio products worldwide, cable TV set-top boxes in North America, and digital broadcast set-top boxes in Europe.

Car Electronics sales amounted to ¥292,187 million (US$2,756.5 million), up 3.9% over the previous year. In Japan, sales increased 15.1% to ¥121,708 million (US$1,148.2 million), reflecting growth in sales of car navigation systems to both consumers and automobile manufacturers as well as increased sales in car audio products to automobile manufacturers. Overseas sales decreased 2.8% to ¥170,479 million (US$1,608.3 million), primarily due to lower sales of car audio products to both consumers and automobile manufacturers in North America, despite higher sales of car navigation systems in North America and Europe and car audio products in other regions.

Royalty revenue from Patent Licensing decreased 6.1% from the previous year to ¥11,821 million (US$111.5 million). This was due to a decline in royalty revenue resulting from expiration of the Company's optical disc-related patents in certain areas.

Others sales increased 9.3% from the previous year to ¥115,395 million (US$1,088.6 million). In Japan, sales were slightly higher by 1.1%, at ¥62,792 million (US$592.4 million). This is attributed primarily to increased sales of organic electroluminescent (OEL) display panels in cellular phones, despite the decrease in sales of commercial karaoke products resulting from the sale of the Company's karaoke business subsidiaries. Overseas, sales were up 21.0% over the previous year to ¥52,603 million (US$496.3 million), primarily due to increased sales of optical disc manufacturing systems in Asia, semiconductors related to laser pickups in China, and business-use plasma displays worldwide.

Table of Contents

Operating income increased 42.1% from the previous year to ¥43,719 million (US$412.4 million) mainly as a result of increased sales and improved gross profit margin as well as decreased selling, general and administrative expenses. Lower average value of the yen against the euro during the year compared to the previous year affected gross profit margin favorably. Net income also increased 54.5% from the previous year to ¥24,838 million (US$234.3 million), reflecting an increase in operating income and income from discontinued operations recorded in connection with the sale of subsidiaries engaged in the audio/video software business.

Basic net income per share of common stock was ¥141.58 (US$1.34), compared with ¥90.24 in the previous year. Diluted net income per share was ¥140.52 (US$1.33), compared with ¥90.24 in the previous year.

Cash Flows

Net cash provided by operating activities was ¥60,378 million (US$569.6 million), a decrease of ¥31,131 million from ¥91,509 million provided in the previous year. The decrease is mainly attributable to increase in operating capital requirement as a result of increased inventories and accounts receivable. Net cash used in investing activities was ¥52,754 million (US$497.7 million), an increase of ¥17,526 million compared with ¥35,228 million used in the previous year, mainly due to increase in capital expenditure for expansion of plasma display production capacity. Financing activity included the issuance of convertible bonds of ¥60,000 million in aggregate principal amount in March 2004. The net proceeds of the issue will be applied principally towards investment in plasma display business and enhancement of distribution channels in Europe and China. As a result of the activities above, cash and cash equivalents at the end of the year came to ¥192,419 million (US$1,815.3 million), a ¥49,939 million increase compared with the end of the previous year.

Dividend Policy and Year-End Dividend

The Company's policy on dividends allows for continued and stable dividend payment. The Company determines the appropriate dividend amount, taking into consideration its financial condition, consolidated business results and other factors.

In line with the Company's policy, it has been determined that a year-end cash dividend of ¥12.5 (US$0.12) per share of common stock, a ¥2.5 increase over the previous year, will be paid, subject to approval at the ordinary general meeting of shareholders to be held on June 29, 2004. When added to the interim dividend, this brings the annual cash dividend to ¥25 (US$0.24), a ¥7.5 increase over the previous year.

Addressing Current Challenges

The business environment remains severe, characterized by uncertain economic conditions in our major markets, Japan, North America and Europe, intensifying price competition in our major product categories, and exchange rate fluctuations. Thus, the Company is concentrating management resources on strategic businesses to achieve the targets set forth in the medium-term management plan. For example, we converted production lines of optical discs to plasma displays, and we sold to a third party three of our audio/video software business subsidiaries in Japan and the United States. We will continue our efforts to increase profits and improve management efficiency through our select and focus policy.

In April 2004, we made a change in our internal company structure. Plasma Display Business Company, a new internal company, was created to further promote and expand our plasma display business. At the same time, we integrated the Components Business Company into the Home Entertainment Company, aiming to achieve more powerful synergy in the DVD business. Now, we are advancing our strategic business plans with the following four internal companies:

Home Entertainment Company, which is in charge of audio/video product business and business in devices such as recordable DVD drives for PCs;

Plasma Display Business Company, which is managing a comprehensive, plasma display business;

Mobile Entertainment Company, which is responsible for car electronics business overall; and Industrial Solutions & Entertainment Company, which is applying business plans and system products to operate in industrial and business markets.

In our plasma display business, we are working to build a more efficient production system to meet fast-growing demand. Pioneer Display Products Corporation, our subsidiary dedicated to plasma display production, is currently expanding its capacity and strengthening its operations. In February 2004, Pioneer Corporation and NEC Corporation (NEC) reached an agreement in principle under which NEC will transfer to Pioneer all the shares NEC holds in its subsidiary, NEC Plasma Display Corporation, and all the intellectual property rights NEC holds for plasma displays. This fall, we plan to establish an overall production system that yields more than one million panels annually. We also plan to continue to differentiate our products from those of our competitors by developing new display panels with higher picture quality and energy efficiency, while lowering production costs.

Table of Contents

In our DVD business, demand for DVD recorders for home use, especially those with hard disk drives (HDDs), has been growing in the market, and we plan to develop products with added values and advanced features, reinforcing the line of HDD models. Also, demand for recordable DVD drives for PCs is rising sharply. To accommodate this growing demand, we are strengthening our production capacity in China. With these products, we aim to bolster sales both in home audio/video and PC markets.

In our car electronics business, we continue our efforts to strengthen our market leadership. In the car navigation system business, our HDD models with advanced functions, and affordably priced, easy-to-operate DVD models enjoy excellent reputations in Japan. We also plan to expand this business overseas, in Europe and North America in particular. In the car audio business, we plan to fortify our current strong market position with such new products and innovations as car CD players with OEL displays to satisfy diversifying consumer demand.

We continue our efforts to minimize operating costs and expenses worldwide. To reduce our overall manufacturing costs, we are expanding production in China. Also, we are implementing an expense supervision system to lower the ratio of our selling, general and administrative expenses to consolidated operating revenue. We are applying supply chain management to optimize efficiency of inventory control worldwide. We believe that such initiatives help us improve cash flows and profitability.

Business Forecasts for Fiscal 2005

Assuming average yen-U.S. dollar and yen-euro exchange rates for fiscal 2005 of ¥105 and ¥125, respectively, Pioneer announced its consolidated business forecasts for fiscal 2005, ending March 31, 2005, as follows:

	(In millions of yen except per share information)
	Projections for fiscal 2005	Results for fiscal 2004	Percent changes
Operating revenue	¥ 800,000	¥ 700,885	+14.1%
Operating income	¥ 50,000	¥ 43,719	+14.4%
Income before income taxes	¥ 48,000	¥ 41,848	+14.7%
Net income	¥ 25,000	¥ 24,838	+0.7%
Net income per share	¥ 142.51	¥ 141.58

Operating revenue is expected to increase, because we anticipate a large increase in sales, reflecting expanding demand for home-use plasma displays and DVD recorders; continued solid sales of car navigation systems and increased sales of such business-use products as AV systems with plasma displays and factory automation systems.

Table of Contents

Operating income and income before income tax are expected to grow, because we anticipate increased income from the Home Electronics business, centering on home-use plasma displays and DVD recorders, increased income from the Others business including business-use AV systems with plasma display and factory automation systems, and continued high profitability from the Car Electronics business, although income from Patent Licensing should decrease.

Net income is expected to remain almost the same as in fiscal 2004, because net income for fiscal 2005 does not include income from discontinued operations of approximately ¥4,500 million recorded during fiscal 2004 in connection with the sale of subsidiaries engaged in the audio/video software business.

Corporate Policy

It is our corporate policy to make customer satisfaction our highest priority. We strive to develop and provide advanced, high-quality, value-added electronics products that deliver satisfaction, comfort and convenience, and create new forms of entertainment. This keeps us faithful to Pioneer group's philosophy to Move the Heart and Touch the Soul.

Accordingly, we created a medium-term management plan in August 1998, and set the following four business targets, and two financial targets to be achieved by March 2006.

Business targets:

No.1 in DVD worldwide

Establishing a business foundation for plasma displays and OEL displays

From stand-alone to network

Towards the key-device, key-technology business

Financial targets for fiscal year ending March 2006:

1.2 trillion yen of consolidated operating revenue

ROE (Return on Equity) in excess of 10%

Today, DVD-related products and plasma displays have grown to become our core businesses. To realize these goals, we will continue implementing a range of measures in every field of our business.

Pioneer's Corporate Governance

I. Basic Principles

Pursuant to the Commercial Code of Japan, the Company applies the Corporate Auditors System, in which the Board of Directors is a decision-making and supervisory body, Representative Directors are responsible for business operations, and the Board of Corporate Auditors is an auditing body of corporate accounting and directors performance regarding corporate affairs. In addition, to clarify management responsibilities, speed up business operations, improve transparency of decision-making and strengthen legal and regulatory compliance, Pioneer introduced an Internal Companies System in 1997, a Corporate Executive Officer System in 1999 and Management Committee Meetings in 2002.

Pioneer's corporate governance is based on the Corporate Auditors System, and comprises the Internal Companies System and Corporate Executive Officer System, which ensure swift and effective business operations, Management Committee Meetings, at which important business issues are decided through thorough discussion, and the Board of Directors, which performs supervisory functions. Our management believes that this current corporate governance system is functioning effectively.

Table of Contents

Also, we are devising measures to enforce compliance among the group. In 2001, we adopted the Pioneer Group Charter for Corporate Operations and Code of Conduct for Business Practices. Through these new rules, Pioneer has been promoting and enforcing high ethical standards and strengthening its role as a trusted and respected company in every aspect of its activities. In 2002, Rules of the Pioneer Group were adopted to stipulate fundamentals that every company of the group should observe, defining responsibilities and authorities of each group company and basic principles of compliance.

II. Governance in Effect

(1) Current structure of decision-making, business operation and supervision is as follows:

We apply the Corporate Auditors System.

We consult with outside legal counsel in Japan and the United States regarding legal compliance of our management decisions and information disclosures. We also have independent certified public accountants audit or review our financial statements to ascertain fairness of our financial reporting in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

(2) Personal, capital, business and other interests of independent directors and corporate auditors:

For fiscal 2004, we had 13 directors on the board, including one independent director and five corporate auditors, including three independent auditors. We propose an agenda to newly elect one independent director at the upcoming ordinary general meeting of shareholders to be held on June 29, 2004. With the approval of the shareholders, we will have two independent directors and three independent corporate auditors. None of our independent directors or corporate auditors are, or have been, employed by Pioneer or its subsidiaries, nor do they have any personal, capital, business or other particular interests in Pioneer or its subsidiaries, or with their respective directors, executive officers or corporate auditors.

Independent director:

Mr. Tatsuhiro Ishikawa (Attorney-at-Law and Professor at Asia University)

Independent corporate auditors:

Mr. Terumichi Tsuchida (Advisor of Meiji Yasuda Life Insurance Company)

Mr. Isao Moriya (Certified Public Accountant)

Mr. Keiichi Nishikido (Attorney-at-Law)

Candidates for independent director:

Mr. Shunichi Sato (Former Japanese Ambassador to Belgium)

(3) Measures taken in the past year for better corporate governance

Shortening Terms of Office

With the approval of the ordinary general meeting of shareholders in June 2003, the term of office for directors was shortened from two years to one year. This change may give shareholders more frequent opportunities to review and appoint directors, so that we can clarify directors' responsibilities and respond promptly to changing business environments.

Independent Corporate Auditors Elected

With the approval of the ordinary general meeting of shareholders in June 2003, a certified public accountant Isao Moriya and an attorney-at-law Keiichi Nishikido were elected as independent corporate auditors to oversee our management with their accounting and legal expertise.

Disclosure Committee Established

Pioneer is listed on the New York Stock Exchange, and as a result, is subject to various U.S. laws and regulations, including the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. Pioneer is constantly improving its corporate governance system, including for example, establishment in April 2003 of the Disclosure Committee to ensure complete and timely disclosure of the Company's material information.

Management Committee Meetings

The Meetings consist of directors and executive officers with important executive responsibilities. In fiscal 2004, the Meetings were held 24 times, deliberating on about 100 important issues related to our tasks on businesses operations, investment projects, group reorganization, group management strategies and medium- and long-term strategic policies. The Meetings play an important role in supporting smooth decision-making by the Board of Directors.

Other Important Information

On March 5, 2004, Pioneer issued Euro Yen Zero Coupon Convertible Bonds due 2011 (bonds with stock acquisition rights, tenkanshasaigata shinkabu yoyakuken-tsuki shasai) in aggregate principal amount of ¥60,000 million (the Bonds). The net proceeds of the issue of the Bonds will be applied principally towards investment in plasma display business, and enhancement of distribution channels in Europe and China.
