FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

Certain information contained in this Form 6-K are forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. These forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of words or phrases such as "is expected to", "will", "is anticipated", "plan to", "estimate", "believe," "may," "intend," "should" or similar expressions, or the negative forms of these words, phrases or expressions, or by discussions of strategy. Such statements are subject to risks, uncertainties and other factors that could cause the registrant's actual results to differ materially from its historical results and those presently anticipated or projected. A discussion of the most significant risks, uncertainties and other factors is included in the annual report on Form 20-F that the registrant files with the Commission each year.

You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on any such forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date on which such statements were made. Among the factors that could cause the registrant's actual results in the future to differ materially from any opinions or statements expressed with respect to future periods include changes in the economic policies of the PRC government, an economic slowdown in the Pearl River Delta region and elsewhere in mainland China, increased competition from other means of transportation, delays in major development projects, a reoccurrence of Severe Acute Respiratory Syndrome epidemic in Hong Kong or China, foreign currency fluctuations and other factors beyond the registrant's control.
