PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

As disclosed in the Current Report on Form 8-K filed by the Registrant on November 3, 2005, the Registrant's Audit Committee, on management's recommendation, concluded that the Registrant's financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2003 and December 31, 2004 and the quarters ended March 31, 2005 and June 30, 2005 should no longer be relied upon and should be restated. In connection with the restatement, an independent investigation was undertaken by Dorsey & Whitney, LLP at the direction of the Registrant's Audit Committee. The Registrant announced the completion of this independent investigation in its Current Report on Form 8-K filed on March 6, 2006.

Since that time, the Registrant's management worked diligently to finalize the restatement and subsequently, on July 24, 2006, the Registrant filed its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended September 30, 2005 and its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005, which reports included the restated financial statements. Since the filing of the reports for the 2005 periods, the Registrant's management has turned its attention toward and has worked diligently to finalize its financial statements for the quarters ended March 31, 2006 and June 30, 2006. However, due to the time and effort involved (and without unreasonable effort or expense), the Registrant has not been able to finalize its financial statements yet and is not able to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended June 30, 2006 within the prescribed time period. The Company now expects to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended June 30, 2006 later in the third quarter of 2006.

(Name) (Area Code) (Telephone Number)

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s). Yes No

The Registrant has not filed its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the three months ended September 30, 2005 or its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2005.

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Registrant anticipates that its results of operations for the three months ended March 31, 2006 will be a net loss and it expects that the net loss for the 2006 period will be greater than the net loss from operations for the three months ended March 31, 2005. The Company cannot estimate the amount of this anticipated change in results from 2005 to 2006 because it is still finalizing its financial statements and completing the matters discussed in Part III above.
