Item 8.01. Other Events

Litigation Settlement

On October 27, 2008, Discover Financial Services (the "Company") announced that it entered into an agreement (the "Settlement") with MasterCard Incorporated and MasterCard International Incorporated (collectively "MasterCard") and with Visa, Inc. ("Visa") to settle the Company's federal antitrust lawsuit captioned Discover Financial Services, Inc. v. Visa USA Inc., MasterCard Inc. et al. A copy of the Settlement and a copy of the Company's press release announcing the Settlement are included as Exhibits 99.1 and 99.2 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and are hereby incorporated by reference.

Under the Settlement, Visa and MasterCard have agreed to pay the Company up to $2.75 billion in exchange for the Company's agreement to dismiss the lawsuit and release all claims. MasterCard has agreed to pay the Company a lump sum in the amount of $862,500,000 by November 14, 2008. Visa has agreed to pay the Company up to an aggregate amount of $1,887,500,000, in four installments of up to $471,875,000 each on December 15, 2008, March 13, 2009, June 15, 2009 and September 28, 2009, plus interest. The payments from Visa are contingent on the Company achieving certain financial performance measures. For each of the first three fiscal quarters in 2009, the Company will receive an amount equal to 5% of each fiscal quarter's total combined transaction sales volume for Company payment cards, including payment cards issued by the Company and payment cards issued by third parties on the Discover, PULSE and Diners Club networks, up to the maximum amount for each fiscal quarter stated above. For the fourth payment, which covers a three-week period in the fourth fiscal quarter, the Company will receive an amount equal to 21% of the period's total combined transaction sales volume, up to the maximum quarterly payment amount stated above. The Settlement provides for adjustments to the maximum amounts and for other adjustments based on whether the Company achieves the financial performance measures. The effectiveness of the Settlement is subject to the approval of Visa's Class B shareholders.

At the time of the 2007 spin-off of the Company by Morgan Stanley, both parties entered into an agreement governing the manner in which the antitrust case against Visa and MasterCard was to be pursued and settled and how proceeds of the litigation were to be shared. For more information, see the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended August 31, 2008. The Company has notified Morgan Stanley that Morgan Stanley is in breach of the agreement and the amount of Morgan Stanley's special dividend is a matter of dispute.

LIBOR Impact

The Company intends to announce on the conference call (see below) that increases in one-month LIBOR during the quarter will result in a reduction in the Company's securitization income for the fourth quarter ending November 30, 2008. Interest rates on the Company's floating rate public securitization transactions are reset in the middle of each month based on the level of one-month LIBOR on the reset date and affect the Company's securitization income until the next monthly reset date. One-month LIBOR was set at 4.59% at the October reset date of October 10, 2008, in contrast to the September reset of 2.49%. As of August 31, 2008, the Company's credit card securitization trust had approximately $19.6 billion in principal amount of one-month LIBOR floating rate notes outstanding. The incremental negative impact on securitization income of this 210 basis point increase in LIBOR is estimated by the Company to be approximately $39 million pretax. The interest rate on the floating rate public securitization transactions will reset again on November 13, 2008 and the level of one month LIBOR at that date will impact securitization income for the latter portion of the Company's fourth quarter.
