a total of 22 new European destinations from Dublin for Summer 2007.

Announcing these new routes today, Michael O'Leary, Ryanair's CEO said:

This summer, our 73 European routes will deliver record growth for Irish tourism. These new routes demonstrate that there is ample room for all European airlines to grow in Dublin airport and Ryanair is growing fastest by offering the lowest fares and the best service.

This offer will be extended for one week only and we urge passengers to book their seats as quickly as possible on www.ryanair.com because free seats will sell out fast".
