Unilever set to dispose of oils business and plantation interests Planned acquisition of regional soap business

Unilever announced that it has signed an agreement to sell its edible oil business in Côte d'Ivoire together with its interests in local oil palm plantations, Palmci and PHCI. At the same time it plans to acquire the soap business of Cosmivoire, an Ivorian producer with a market presence throughout Francophone West Africa. Cosmivoire is a subsidiary of SIFCA, an Ivorian agro-industry company. The acquisition will strengthen Unilever's consumer business position both in the sub-region and in Côte d'Ivoire

The deal, which is still subject to approval by the regional authorities, is expected to be completed by the end of 2008.

The plantations interests and the edible oils business will be sold to SIFCA and to a 50:50 joint venture company between SIFCA and two Singapore-based companies, Wilmar International Limited and Olam International Limited.

Wilmar is the world's largest palm-oil processor and OLAM is a leading global supply chain manager of agricultural products with extensive operations across

Africa

. Their experience and expertise will greatly increase the competitiveness of the palm oil industry in Côte d'Ivoire

This deal is in line with Unilever's on-going strategy of increasing its focus on core business areas.
