JOINT PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS

PROPOSED MERGER YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

Yellow Corporation and Roadway Corporation have agreed on a merger transaction involving our two companies. Before we can complete the merger, we must obtain the approval of our companies' stockholders. We are sending you this joint proxy statement/prospectus to ask Yellow stockholders to approve the issuance of Yellow shares pursuant to and in accordance with the merger agreement and to ask Roadway stockholders to vote in favor of the merger transaction and related matters.

In the merger, Roadway stockholders will be entitled to receive 1.924 shares of Yellow common stock for each share of Roadway common stock that they own at the effective time of the merger, subject to the collar and other adjustments described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, or, at their election, $48.00 in cash in lieu of shares of Yellow common stock for each share of Roadway common stock they own. The consideration to be received by each Roadway stockholder is subject to proration and allocation provisions, which are designed to operate so that approximately one-half of the total consideration is paid in cash and approximately one-half of the total consideration is paid in Yellow common stock. Immediately following the merger (assuming Yellow's average closing price is within the collar), approximately 40% of the outstanding shares of Yellow common stock will be held by former holders of Roadway common stock. Each outstanding share of Yellow common stock will remain outstanding as a share of Yellow common stock after the merger. Shares of Yellow common stock, including shares issued to Roadway stockholders as a result of the merger, will continue to be quoted on the Nasdaq National Market under the trading symbol YELL. Shares of Roadway common stock, which are quoted on the Nasdaq National Market under the trading symbol ROAD, will be delisted if the merger is consummated.

Each company will hold a special meeting of its stockholders to consider and vote on the proposals described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus. At Yellow's special meeting, Yellow will also ask its stockholders to consider and vote on an amendment to Yellow's certificate of incorporation to change Yellow's name to Yellow Roadway Corporation. Completion of the merger requires Yellow stockholder approval of the stock issuance and Roadway stockholder adoption of the merger proposal. Approval of the name change is not a condition to the merger.

YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT. Whether or not you plan to attend your special meeting, please take the time to vote by completing the enclosed proxy card and mailing it to us. If you sign, date and mail your proxy card without indicating how you want to vote, your proxy will be counted as a vote FOR each of the proposals presented. If you do not return your card, or if you do not instruct your broker how to vote any shares held for you in street name, your shares will not be voted at your special meeting.

This joint proxy statement/prospectus is being furnished to Yellow stockholders in connection with the solicitation of proxies by Yellow's board of directors for use at its special meeting of stockholders and to Roadway stockholders in connection with the solicitation of proxies by

NOTICE OF SPECIAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS

TO BE HELD                   , 2003

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a special meeting of stockholders of Yellow Corporation, a Delaware corporation ( Yellow ), will be held at :00 a.m., C.S.T., on                   day,                   , 2003, at Yellow 's corporate headquarters at 10990 Roe Avenue, Overland Park, Kansas 66211. As described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the special meeting will be held for the following purposes:

1. To consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the issuance of shares of Yellow common stock pursuant to and in accordance with the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of July 8, 2003, by and among Yellow, Yankee LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Yellow ( Sub ), and Roadway Corporation ( Roadway ). As further described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the merger agreement provides for the merger of Roadway with and into Sub pursuant to which each outstanding share of Roadway common stock (other than shares owned directly or indirectly by Roadway or Yellow and those shares held by dissenting stockholders) will be converted into the right to receive a number of shares of Yellow common stock determined as follows (and subject to adjustment as described below):

If the average closing price of Yellow common stock is between $21.21 and $28.69, which we refer to as the collar , then 1.924 shares of Yellow common stock.

If the average closing price of Yellow common stock is greater than $28.69, then a number of shares of Yellow common stock equal to $55.20 divided by the average closing price of Yellow common stock.

If the average closing price of Yellow common stock is less than $21.21, then a number of shares of Yellow common stock equal to $40.81 divided by the average closing price of Yellow common stock.

If the average closing price of Yellow common stock is less than $16.63, Yellow may elect not to consummate the merger.

For purposes of determining the exchange ratio above, the average closing price of Yellow common stock is the average per share closing price of Yellow common stock for each of 20 consecutive trading days as of the date five trading days before the closing of the merger.

At their election, each Roadway stockholder may elect to receive $48.00 in cash in lieu of shares of Yellow common stock for each share of Roadway common stock they own at the effective time of the merger. The consideration to be received by each Roadway stockholder, however, is subject to proration and allocation provisions, which are designed to operate so that approximately one-half of the total consideration is paid in cash and approximately one-half of the total consideration is paid in Yellow common stock. You will not know the exact number of shares of Yellow common stock to be issued in the merger for each share of Roadway common stock until after the fifth trading day before the closing of the merger. Assuming that Yellow 's average closing price is within the collar, we anticipate an aggregate of approximately 20 million shares of Yellow common stock would be issued pursuant to and in accordance with the merger agreement. Immediately following the merger, assuming that Yellow 's average closing price is within the collar, approximately 40% of the outstanding shares of Yellow common stock will be held by former holders of Roadway common stock.

2. To consider and vote upon a proposal to amend Yellow's certificate of incorporation to change Yellow's name to Yellow Roadway Corporation to take effect only if the merger is consummated.

3. To consider and vote upon a proposal to approve adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the above proposals.

4. To consider and take action upon any other business that may properly come before the special meeting, or any reconvened meeting following an adjournment or postponement thereof.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF YELLOW HAS CAREFULLY CONSIDERED THE TERMS OF THE MERGER AGREEMENT AND THE MERGER AND BELIEVES THAT THE MERGER IS IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF YELLOW AND ITS STOCKHOLDERS. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS HAS UNANIMOUSLY APPROVED THE STOCK ISSUANCE AND UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS THAT STOCKHOLDERS VOTE FOR APPROVAL OF THE STOCK ISSUANCE.

The Board of Directors of Yellow has fixed the close of business on _____, 2003 as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Yellow special meeting or any reconvened meeting following an adjournment or postponement thereof. Only stockholders of record at the close of business on the record date are entitled to notice of and to vote at such meeting. A complete list of such stockholders will be available for examination at the Yellow special meeting and at Yellow's offices at 10990 Roe Avenue, Overland Park, Kansas 66211 during ordinary business hours, after _____, 2003, for the examination by any such stockholder for any purpose germane to the special meeting.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER

The following questions and answers briefly address some commonly asked questions about the special meetings and the merger. They may not include all the information that is important to you. We urge you to read carefully this entire joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the annexes and the other documents we refer to in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Frequently Used Terms

We have generally avoided the use of technical defined terms in this joint proxy statement/prospectus but a few frequently used terms may be helpful for you to have in mind at the outset. We refer to:

Yellow Corporation, a Delaware corporation, as Yellow ;

Roadway Corporation, a Delaware corporation, as Roadway ;

Yankee LLC, a newly formed Delaware limited liability company and a wholly owned subsidiary of Yellow, as Sub ;

the merger of Roadway into Sub and the conversion of shares of Roadway common stock into the right to receive cash and shares of Yellow common stock as the merger ;

the agreement and plan of merger among Yellow, Sub and Roadway as the merger agreement ;

the special meeting of holders of common stock of Yellow described on page 31 as the Yellow special meeting ;

the special meeting of holders of common stock of Roadway described on page 31 as the Roadway special meeting ;

the common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Yellow as shares of Yellow common stock , Yellow shares or Yellow common stock ;

the common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Roadway as shares of Roadway common stock , Roadway shares or Roadway common stock ;

the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended, as the HSR Act or the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act ; and the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware as the DGCL .

The Merger

Q1: What will the new company be called?

A1: Yellow Roadway Corporation if, at the Yellow special meeting, Yellow stockholders approve the proposal to amend Yellow's certificate of incorporation to change Yellow's name, and if not, Yellow Corporation.

Q2: Why are Yellow and Roadway proposing the merger?

A2: Our companies are proposing the merger for several reasons, including the following:

the merger will provide the combined company with the increased scale, strong financial base and market reach that are necessary to increase stockholder value and enhance customer service;

the merger has the potential to accelerate Yellow's strategy of offering a broad range of services for business to business transportation decision makers;

Yellow and Roadway have complementary operations with limited overlap in customer base;

the merger provides the opportunity for both Yellow and Roadway to more effectively compete against the industry's largest integrated service providers (UPS and Federal Express), numerous union and non-union less-than-truckload competitors and non-traditional competitors;

Yellow and Roadway expect significant combination benefits, including revenue synergies and cost savings; and the near-term and long-term earnings per share and cash flow of the combined entity are favorable compared to the companies on a stand-alone basis.

In addition, Roadway is proposing the merger because of the consideration to be received by Roadway's stockholders, which, as of July 8, 2003 when the proposed merger was publicly announced, represented a 49% premium over the average closing price for Roadway common stock during the 60 trading days immediately prior to the public announcement of the proposed merger.

Q3: What will happen in the merger?

A3: The proposed merger will combine the businesses of Yellow and Roadway. As a result of the merger, Roadway will cease to exist and Yellow will continue as a public company. Roadway stockholders will become Yellow stockholders and will own in the aggregate approximately 40% of the shares of Yellow common stock outstanding immediately after the merger assuming the average per share closing price of Yellow common stock for each of the 20 consecutive trading days as of the date five trading days before the closing of the merger is within the collar. The merger agreement is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex A. You should read the merger agreement carefully in its entirety. The merger agreement is the legal document setting forth the parties' rights with respect to the merger.

Q4: How do I elect to receive cash instead of Yellow common stock?

A4: You may elect to receive cash instead of Yellow common stock for any whole number of your shares of Roadway common stock by signing, dating and completing the enclosed cash election and transmittal form and mailing it to the exchange agent with your corresponding stock certificates or a guarantee of delivery or faxing the cash election and transmittal form with a guarantee of delivery to the exchange agent for receipt by 5:00 p.m., New York, New York time, on the fourth trading day prior to the merger's closing date. You will be notified of the specific date of the cash election deadline as soon as practicable after the closing date of the merger is determined. PLEASE DO NOT SEND YOUR CASH ELECTION AND TRANSMITTAL FORM WITH YOUR PROXY CARD. If your stock is held in street name, you will need to contact your broker and follow the procedures described by your broker to elect to receive cash for your shares.

Q5: Can I change my mind about receiving cash?

A5: Yes. You have the right to change or revoke your cash election at any time, provided that the exchange agent receives notice of your revocation before 5:00 p.m., New York, New York time, on the fourth trading day prior to the merger's closing date. You will be notified of the specific date of the cash election deadline as soon as practicable after the closing date of the merger is determined. If a cash election and transmittal form is revoked, it will be treated as if no cash election had been made, and you will receive solely Yellow common stock, subject to proration.

Q6: Do I have to return the cash election and transmittal form?

A6: No, but if you do not, your Roadway shares will be exchanged solely for Yellow common stock in the merger, subject to proration.

Q7: Am I entitled to dissenters appraisal rights?

A7: Yes, if you are a Roadway stockholder. Under the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware, any Roadway stockholder who does not wish to accept the merger consideration has the right to dissent from the merger and to seek an appraisal of, and to be paid the fair value (exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger) for such stockholder's shares of Roadway common stock, provided that the stockholder complies with the provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL. To review your dissenters' rights of appraisal under Delaware law, see pages 59 through 61 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Q8: Will the rights of a Roadway stockholder change as a result of the merger?

A8: Yes. Through the date of the merger, Yellow stockholder rights will continue to be governed by Yellow's certificate of incorporation and bylaws, and Roadway stockholder rights will continue to be governed by Roadway's certificate of incorporation and bylaws. Upon completion of the merger, Roadway stockholders will become Yellow stockholders and their rights will then be governed by Yellow's certificate of incorporation and bylaws. Please read carefully the summary of the material differences between the rights of Yellow stockholders and Roadway stockholders under "Comparison of Stockholders' Rights" beginning on page 101 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

A9: Each outstanding share of Yellow common stock will remain outstanding as a share of Yellow common stock.

Q10: Are there risks associated with the merger that I should consider in deciding how to vote?

A10: Yes. There are risks associated with all business combinations, including the merger of our two companies. In particular, you should be aware that, within the collar, the number of shares of Yellow common stock that Roadway stockholders will receive for each share of Roadway common stock they own is fixed and will not change as the market prices of Roadway common stock and Yellow common stock fluctuate in the period before the merger. Accordingly, the value of the Yellow common stock that Roadway stockholders will receive in return for their Roadway common stock may be less than or more than the value of the Yellow common stock as of the date of the merger agreement or the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. There are a number of other risks that are discussed in this document and in other documents incorporated by reference in this document. Please read with particular care the more detailed description of the risks associated with the merger discussed under "Risk Factors" beginning on page 23 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Q11: When do you expect to complete the merger?

A11: We expect to complete the merger as quickly as possible once all the conditions to the merger, including obtaining the approvals of our stockholders at the special meetings, are fulfilled or waived. Fulfilling some of these conditions, such as receiving specified governmental clearances or approvals, is not entirely within our control. We expect to complete the merger in the fourth quarter of 2003.

Q12: Will Roadway stockholders be able to trade the Yellow common stock that they receive in the merger?

A12: The shares of Yellow common stock issued in connection with the merger will be freely tradable, unless you are an affiliate of Roadway, and will be quoted on the Nasdaq National Market under the symbol "YELL". Generally, persons who are deemed to be affiliates (generally directors, officers and 10% or greater stockholders) of Roadway must comply with Rule 145 under the Securities Act of 1933 if they wish to sell or otherwise transfer any of the shares of Yellow common stock they receive in the merger. You will be notified if you are an affiliate of Roadway.

A13:

Edgar Filing: YELLOW CORP - Form S-4

The parties to the merger agreement intend that the merger will qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Internal Revenue Code ).

Tax counsel to Yellow and tax counsel to Roadway have each delivered opinions to Yellow and Roadway, respectively, to the effect that the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. It is a condition to the closing of the merger that these opinions be updated effective as of the closing date of the merger. These opinions will be updated effective as of the closing date of the merger if, among other things, the Roadway stockholders receive in the merger, in the aggregate, Yellow shares with a value equal to at least 45% of the combined value of the total consideration paid for all Roadway shares, taking into account, among other things, the amount of cash paid or deemed paid to Roadway stockholders in connection with the merger (including cash received by Roadway stockholders who perfect their dissenters' rights and cash received in lieu of fractional Yellow shares).

Assuming the merger qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, Roadway stockholders who exchange all their Roadway shares for Yellow shares will recognize neither gain nor loss, while Roadway stockholders who exchange some or all of their Roadway shares for cash will generally recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount equal to the lesser of the amount of cash received pursuant to the merger, and the amount, if any, by which the sum of the fair market value of the Yellow shares as of the effective time of the merger and the amount of cash received pursuant to the merger exceeds the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the Roadway shares.

If the U.S. holder holds Roadway shares as a capital asset, gain recognized upon the exchange generally will be capital gain, and any recognized capital gain will be long-term capital gain if the U.S. holder has held the Roadway shares for more than one year. See "Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences" beginning on page 62 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The summary of material United States federal income tax consequences contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is not a substitute for an individual analysis of the tax consequences of the merger to you. You are urged to consult a tax advisor regarding the particular federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences of the merger in light of your own situation.

Tax matters are complicated, and the federal income tax consequences described above may not apply to some of Roadway's stockholders. The tax consequences of the proposed transactions to you will depend on the facts of your own situation. You should consult your own tax advisors for a full understanding of the tax consequences to you as a result of the merger.

Q14: Where can I find the voting results of the meetings?

A14: The preliminary voting results of each special meeting will be announced at that special meeting. The final results will be published in a press release issued by Yellow upon consummation of the merger and in Yellow's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ending December 31, 2003.

Special Meetings; Votes Required

Q15: When are the special meetings?

A15: Each company's special meeting of stockholders will take place on _____, 2003. The time and location of each special meeting is specified on the cover page of this document.

Q16: What will happen at the special meetings?

A16: At the Roadway special meeting, Roadway stockholders will vote on a proposal to adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and on a proposal to approve adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger proposal. At the Yellow special meeting, Yellow stockholders will vote on the issuance of Yellow common stock to Roadway stockholders pursuant to and in accordance with the merger agreement, will vote on a proposal to amend Yellow's certificate of incorporation to change Yellow's name to Yellow Roadway Corporation, and will vote on a proposal to approve adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the stock issuance proposal. We cannot complete the merger unless, among other things, Roadway's stockholders vote to adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and Yellow's stockholders vote to approve the stock issuance. Approval of the name change is not necessary to permit consummation of the merger.

A17: Yellow stockholders of record as of the close of business on _____, 2003 will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Yellow special meeting or any reconvened meeting after any adjournments or postponements of the meeting. Roadway stockholders of record as of the close of business on _____, 2003 will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the Roadway special meeting or any reconvened meeting after any adjournments or postponements of the meeting.

Q18: What is a quorum?

A18: A quorum is the number of shares that must be present to hold the meeting. The quorum requirement for each of the special meetings is the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock that the company had as of the record date, present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote at the special meeting. A proxy submitted by a stockholder may indicate that all or a portion of the shares represented by the proxy are not being voted with respect to a particular matter. Proxies that are marked "abstain" or for which votes have otherwise been withheld and proxies relating to "street name" shares that are returned to the relevant company but not voted will be treated as shares present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum on all matters.

Q19: How many shares can vote?

A19: On the record date, Yellow had outstanding _____ shares of common stock, which constitute Yellow's only outstanding voting securities. Each Yellow stockholder is entitled to one vote on each proposal for each share of Yellow common stock held as of the record date. On the record date, Roadway had outstanding _____ shares of common stock, which constitute Roadway's only outstanding voting securities. Each Roadway stockholder is entitled to one vote on each proposal for each share of Roadway common stock held as of the record date.

Q20: What vote is required?

A20: The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Roadway common stock entitled to vote at the Roadway special meeting is required to adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. The approval of the share issuance requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the total votes cast at the Yellow special meeting on this proposal in person or by proxy. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Yellow common stock entitled to vote at the Yellow special meeting is required to approve the name change. For each company, approval of a proposal to adjourn or postpone the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the other proposal(s) requires the vote of a majority of shares present in person or by proxy at the special meeting and actually voted at that special meeting.

If a quorum is not present at the Yellow special meeting, the officers of the company or the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote who are present in person or by proxy at the meeting may adjourn or postpone the meeting. If a quorum is not present at the Roadway special meeting, the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote who are present in person or by proxy at the meeting may adjourn the meeting.

Even if the votes set forth above are obtained at the special meetings, we cannot assure you that the merger will be completed, because the completion of the merger is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of other conditions discussed in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Q21: What do I need to do to vote?

A21: Mail your completed and signed proxy card in the enclosed return envelope as soon as possible so that your shares may be represented at your special meeting. To assure that we obtain your vote, please vote as instructed on your proxy card even if you currently plan to attend your special meeting in person.

The members of the Roadway board of directors unanimously recommend that Roadway stockholders vote to adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

The members of the Yellow board of directors unanimously recommend that Yellow stockholders vote for the issuance of the Yellow shares pursuant to and in accordance with the merger agreement and the amendment to Yellow's certificate of incorporation to effect the name change.

The enclosed proxy card contains instructions for voting by mail. Please follow these instructions carefully. The proxies identified on the proxy card will vote the shares of which you are stockholder of record in accordance with your instructions. If you sign, date and return your proxy card without giving specific voting instructions, the proxies will vote your shares FOR the proposals. If you do not return your proxy card, your shares will not be voted at your special meeting.

A22: You should vote this proxy in accordance with the instructions provided to you by your bank, broker or nominee. If your shares are held in a stock brokerage account, your broker will not vote your shares unless the broker receives appropriate instructions from you.

A number of banks and brokerage firms participate in a program that also permits stockholders whose shares are held in street name to direct their vote by the internet or telephone. This option, if available, will be reflected in the voting instructions from the bank or brokerage firm that accompany this joint proxy statement/prospectus. If your shares are held in an account at a bank or brokerage firm that participates in such a program, you may direct the vote of these shares by the internet or telephone by following the voting instructions enclosed with the proxy from the bank or brokerage firm. Votes directed by the internet or telephone through such a program must be received by :00 p.m., New York, New York time, on , 2003. Directing the voting of your shares will not affect your right to vote in person if you decide to attend the meeting; however, you must first obtain a signed and properly executed proxy from your bank, broker or nominee in order to vote your shares held in street name at the special meeting. Requesting a proxy prior to the deadlines described above will automatically cancel any voting directions you have previously given by the internet or by telephone with respect to your shares. The internet and telephone proxy procedures are designed to authenticate stockholders' identities, to allow stockholders to give their proxy instructions and to confirm that those instructions have been properly recorded.

Q23: May I change my vote even after returning a proxy card?

Edgar Filing: YELLOW CORP - Form S-4

A23: Yes. If you are a Roadway stockholder and want to change your vote, you may do so at any time before the Roadway special meeting by sending to the Secretary of Roadway a properly executed and signed proxy with a later date. Alternatively, you may revoke your proxy by delivering to the Secretary of Roadway a written revocation prior to the Roadway special meeting or by voting in person at the Roadway special meeting. Similarly, if you are a Yellow stockholder and want to change your vote, you may do so at any time before the Yellow special meeting by sending to the Secretary of Yellow a properly executed and signed proxy with a later date. Alternatively, you may revoke your proxy by delivering to the Secretary of Yellow a written revocation prior to the Yellow special meeting or by voting in person at the Yellow special meeting. Roadway stockholders that require assistance in changing or revoking a proxy should contact Computershare Investor Services, Roadway's transfer agent, at (_____) ____ - _____. Yellow stockholders that require assistance in changing or revoking a proxy should contact Mellon Investor Services LLC, Yellow's transfer agent, at (_____) ____ - _____.

A24: By submitting your proxy card, you authorize the persons named on the proxy card to use their judgment to determine how to vote on any other matter properly brought before the special meeting. The proxies will vote your shares in accordance with your instructions. If you sign, date and return your proxy card without giving specific voting instructions, the proxies will vote your shares FOR the proposals. If you do not return your proxy card, or if your shares are held in street name and you do not instruct your bank, broker or nominee on how to vote, your shares will not be voted at your special meeting.

The boards of directors of Yellow and Roadway do not intend to bring any other business before the meeting, and they are not aware that anyone else intends to do so. If any other business comes before the meeting, it is the intention of the persons named on the proxy cards to vote as proxies in accordance with their best judgment.

Q25: What is a broker non-vote?

A25: A broker non-vote occurs when a bank, broker or other nominee submits a proxy that indicates that the broker does not vote for some or all of the proposals, because the broker has not received instructions from the beneficial owners on how to vote on these proposals and does not have discretionary authority to vote in the absence of instructions.

Q26: Will broker non-votes or abstentions affect the results?

A26: If you are a Yellow stockholder, broker non-votes and abstentions will have no effect on the outcome of the proposal relating to the stock issuance or adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies, but will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal relating to the amendment to Yellow's certificate of incorporation. If you are a Roadway stockholder, broker non-votes and abstentions will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, but will have no effect on the outcome of the proposal relating to adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies. If your shares are held in street name, we urge you to instruct your bank, broker or nominee on how to vote your shares for those proposals on which you are entitled to vote.

Q27: What happens if I choose not to submit a proxy or to vote?

A27: If a Roadway stockholder does not submit a proxy or vote at the Roadway special meeting, it will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, but will have no effect on the outcome of the proposal relating to adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies. If a Yellow stockholder does not submit a proxy or vote at the Yellow special meeting, it will have no effect on the outcome of the proposals relating to the stock issuance and adjournments or postponements of the special meeting, if necessary, to permit further solicitation of proxies but will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal relating to the amendment to Yellow's certificate of incorporation.

General

Q28: Should I send in my Roadway stock certificates now?

A28: If you elect to receive cash in the merger, you should complete the enclosed cash election and transmittal form and send in your Roadway stock certificates now. If you want to receive Yellow common stock, we would prefer that you complete the cash election and transmittal form and send in your stock certificates now. However, if you do not complete the cash election and transmittal form and send your stock certificates now, you will be sent written instructions after the merger is completed for sending in your Roadway stock certificates.

Q29: What does it mean if I get more than one proxy card?

A29: Your shares are probably registered in more than one account. You should vote each proxy card you receive.

Q30: If I have more questions about the merger or the two companies, where can I find answers?

A30: In addition to reading this document, its annexes, and the documents we have incorporated in this document by reference, you can find more information about the merger or about the two companies in our companies' filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission and with the Nasdaq National Market. Please see page 111 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The Merger (page 36)

General

On July 8, 2003, the companies agreed to the merger between Roadway and Sub under the terms of the merger agreement described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and attached in Annex A. The merger agreement is the legal document that governs the merger, and we urge you to read that agreement.

At the effective time of the merger, Roadway will merge with and into Sub. Sub will be the surviving company and remain a wholly owned subsidiary of Yellow. The separate corporate existence of Roadway will cease at the effective time of the merger.

At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding share of Roadway common stock (other than any shares owned directly or indirectly by Roadway or Yellow and those shares held by dissenting stockholders) will be converted into the right to receive a number of shares of Yellow common stock determined as follows (and subject to adjustment as described below):

If the average closing price of Yellow common stock is between $21.21 and $28.69 (the collar), then 1.924 shares of Yellow common stock.

If the average closing price of Yellow common stock is greater than $28.69, then a number of shares of Yellow common stock equal to $55.20 divided by the average closing price of Yellow common stock.

If the average closing price of Yellow common stock is less than $21.21, then a number of shares of Yellow common stock equal to $40.81 divided by the average closing price of Yellow common stock.

If the average closing price of Yellow common stock is less than $16.63, Yellow may elect not to consummate the merger.

For purposes of determining the exchange ratio above, the average closing price of Yellow common stock is the average per share closing price of Yellow common stock for each of 20 consecutive trading days as of the date five trading days before the closing of the merger (the 20-trading-day average).

The following graph shows the effective value per share of Roadway common stock under the possible exchange ratios assuming that one-half of the per share merger consideration consists of Yellow common stock and one-half of the per share merger consideration consists of $24.00 in cash.

The number of shares of Yellow common stock to be received in exchange for each share of Roadway common stock is referred to throughout this joint proxy statement/prospectus as the exchange ratio. At their election, Roadway stockholders may receive $48.00 in cash in lieu of shares of Yellow common stock for each share of Roadway common stock they own at the effective time of the merger. The merger consideration to be received by each Roadway stockholder, however, is subject to proration and allocation provisions, which are designed to operate so that approximately one-half of the total consideration is paid in cash and approximately one-half of the total consideration is paid in Yellow common stock.

No fractional shares of Yellow common stock will be issued in the merger. All Yellow shares that a Roadway stockholder is entitled to receive will be aggregated. Any fractional Yellow shares resulting from this aggregation will be paid in cash, without interest, in an amount equal to the fraction multiplied by the market value of a Yellow share, determined using the same 20-trading-day average closing price described above.

Roadway stock options will be cancelled as of the effective time of the merger. Holders of stock options with an exercise price of $24.00 or less will receive shares of Yellow common stock in an amount equal to the number of shares of Roadway common stock subject to the stock option multiplied by one-half of the exchange ratio and cash in an amount equal to $24.00 minus the exercise price per share of Roadway common stock subject to the stock option multiplied by the number of shares of Roadway common stock subject to the stock option. Holders of stock options with an exercise price of more than $24.00 will receive shares of Yellow common stock in an amount equal to:

$$\frac{\text{the exchange ratio}}{\text{ratio}} \times \frac{($48.00 - \text{exercise price of the Roadway stock option}) \times \text{number of Roadway shares subject to the Roadway stock option}}{$48.00}$$

Yellow's board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement and determined that the issuance of Yellow common stock in the merger and the amendment to Yellow's certificate of incorporation to change Yellow's name to Yellow Roadway Corporation are in the best interests of Yellow and its stockholders. Yellow's board of directors unanimously recommends that Yellow stockholders approve the issuance of Yellow common stock pursuant to and in accordance with the merger agreement and the amendment to the Yellow certificate of incorporation to change the name of the company to Yellow Roadway Corporation.

Roadway's board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement and determined that the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable and in the best interests of the Roadway stockholders. Roadway's board of directors unanimously recommends that Roadway stockholders adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Yellow's board of directors received a written opinion from its financial advisor, Deutsche Bank Securities Inc., to the effect that, as of the date of the opinion and subject to the factors, assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth therein, the merger consideration to be paid by Yellow pursuant to the merger agreement was fair to Yellow from a financial point of view. This opinion, dated July 8, 2003, is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex B. You should carefully read this opinion to understand the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations of the scope of the review undertaken. Deutsche Bank's opinion is addressed to the Yellow board of directors and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how any such stockholder should vote in connection with the merger, the issuance of Yellow common stock pursuant to and in accordance with the merger agreement or the proposal to change Yellow's name.

Edgar Filing: YELLOW CORP - Form S-4

In connection with the proposed merger, Roadway's financial advisor, Credit Suisse First Boston LLC, delivered a written opinion to Roadway's board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to the holders of Roadway common stock. The full text of Credit Suisse First Boston's written opinion, dated July 8, 2003, is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex C. We encourage you to read this opinion carefully in its entirety for a description of the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken. Credit Suisse First Boston's opinion was provided to Roadway's board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger consideration, does not address any other aspect of the proposed merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to any matters relating to the merger or the form of merger consideration, if any, to be elected by any stockholder.

Board of Directors of Yellow Roadway Following the Merger (page 58)

Immediately following the merger, the Yellow Roadway board will increase to ten directors. The Yellow Roadway board will then elect Frank P. Doyle, John F. Fiedler and Phillip J. Meek, all of whom are existing Roadway directors, to fill the newly created vacancies. The ten board members will serve until the Yellow Roadway 2004 annual meeting of stockholders or until their successors are elected and qualified.

Share Ownership of Directors and Executive Officers of Yellow and Roadway (pages 86 and 89)

At the close of business on the record date for the Yellow special meeting, directors and executive officers of Yellow and their affiliates beneficially owned and were entitled to vote approximately % of the shares of Yellow common stock outstanding on that date.

At the close of business on the record date for the Roadway special meeting, directors and executive officers of Roadway and their affiliates beneficially owned and were entitled to vote approximately % of the shares of Roadway common stock outstanding on that date.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger (page 53)

In considering the recommendation of the Roadway board of directors, you should be aware that certain members of Roadway's management and the Roadway board of directors have interests in the transaction that are or may be different from, or in addition to, your interests as a Roadway stockholder. These interests include, among other things, the following:

the appointment of three of Roadway's current directors to Yellow's board of directors;

under the terms of the change in control severance agreements entered into between Roadway and certain of its officers, if an officer's employment with Roadway (or its successor) is terminated during the severance period (as defined in the officer's change in control severance agreement), that officer is entitled to severance benefits, including excise tax gross-up payments;

as of the initial filing date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, acceleration of vesting of stock options and restricted stock for officers under the terms of the Roadway Equity Ownership Plan and the Roadway Management Incentive Stock Plan, and the acceleration of vesting of restricted stock for directors under the terms of the Roadway Non-Employee Directors' Equity Ownership Plan;

as of the initial filing date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, distribution of deferred shares and cash (including accelerated retirement credits) to officers under the terms of the Roadway Deferred Compensation Plan;

receipt of stock, and in some cases, a cash payment in exchange for the cancellation and termination of unexercised options held by officers and directors under the terms of the merger agreement;

indemnification of directors and officers of Roadway against certain liabilities arising both before and, in some cases, after the merger; and liability insurance for certain directors and officers of Roadway.

The Yellow and Roadway boards of directors were aware of these arrangements during their respective deliberations on the merits of the merger and in deciding to recommend that you vote for the approval of their respective proposals.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger (page 76)

Completion of the merger depends on a number of conditions being satisfied or waived. In addition to customary conditions relating to the accuracy of representations and warranties and compliance with the terms of the merger agreement, these conditions include the following:

adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement by the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding Roadway shares entitled to vote at the Roadway special meeting;

approval of the issuance of Yellow common stock pursuant to and in accordance with the merger agreement by the holders of a majority of the votes cast at the Yellow special meeting;

receipt of authorizations, consents, orders, or approvals of governmental entities, including expiration or early termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act and foreign antitrust laws, required to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement except where the failure to obtain them would not have a material adverse effect (as defined in the merger agreement) on Roadway, Yellow or the consummation of the merger;

absence of any statute, rule, regulation, decree, order, or injunction prohibiting the consummation of the merger, so long as the parties have used their reasonable efforts to have any applicable order or injunction lifted;

receipt of opinions by Yellow and Roadway from their respective tax counsel that the merger will constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code;

approval for listing of the Yellow shares to be issued in the merger on the Nasdaq National Market, upon official notice of issuance;

continued effectiveness of the registration statement of which this document is a part and the absence of a stop order by the Securities and Exchange Commission suspending the effectiveness of the registration statement;

receipt by Yellow of the financing contemplated by the commitment letters delivered to Roadway under the terms of the merger agreement;

absence of a material adverse change to either Roadway or Yellow; accuracy of each party's representations and warranties in the merger agreement, except as would not have a material adverse effect (as defined in the merger agreement) on the party making the representations; and material compliance by each party with its covenants in the merger agreement.

by mutual written consent of Yellow and Roadway, or by mutual action of their respective boards of directors;

by either Yellow or Roadway, if:

adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement by the Roadway stockholders is not obtained; approval by the Yellow stockholders of the issuance of shares of Yellow common stock pursuant to and in accordance with the merger agreement is not obtained;

the parties fail to consummate the merger on or before February 29, 2004, unless the failure is the result of a material breach of the merger agreement by the party seeking the termination; or any court or other governmental entity has issued a final and nonappealable order, decree or ruling or has taken any other final and nonappealable action that enjoins, restrains or prohibits the purchase of shares of Roadway common stock pursuant to the merger;

by Yellow, if:

(1) any inaccuracies exist in any of Roadway's representations or warranties in the merger agreement that have or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Roadway or (2) Roadway fails to materially perform any of its material covenants, agreements or obligations under the merger agreement and, in either case, Roadway has not cured the breach within 30 days; or Roadway's board of directors (1) withdraws or modifies, in any manner adverse to Yellow, its recommendation or approval of the merger agreement or the related transactions, or (2) recommends to the Roadway stockholders an alternative acquisition proposal.

by Roadway, if:

its stockholders have not adopted the merger agreement and approved the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, it has notified Yellow of its receipt of a superior proposal, it has not received a timely offer from Yellow that is no less favorable than the superior proposal, and it has paid a $25 million termination fee to Yellow;

(1) any inaccuracies exist in any of Yellow's or Sub's representations or warranties in the merger agreement that have or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Yellow or Sub or (2) Yellow or Sub fails to materially perform any of its material covenants, agreements or obligations under the merger agreement and, in either case, Yellow or Sub has not cured the breach within 30 days; or

Termination Fees and Expenses (page 79)

Roadway must pay a termination fee of $25 million to Yellow if the merger agreement is terminated:

by Yellow or Roadway, if the approval of the Roadway stockholders has not been obtained at its special meeting;

prior to the Roadway special meeting, a third party has made a bona fide written acquisition proposal that has not been withdrawn prior to the special meeting; and within 18 months of the termination of the merger agreement, Roadway or any of its subsidiaries enters into any acquisition agreement or completes a merger or other business combination or a third party acquires more than 50% of the equity or a material amount of the assets of Roadway;

by Roadway because it receives a superior proposal, subject to satisfaction of certain conditions described above;

by Yellow because Roadway's board of directors withdraws or modifies, in any manner adverse to Yellow, its recommendation of the merger agreement; or by Yellow because Roadway's board of directors recommends to its stockholders any acquisition agreement, merger, business combination, tender offer or other proposal for a third party to acquire more than 20% of the equity or a material amount of the assets of Roadway.

Yellow must pay a termination fee of $25 million to Roadway if the merger agreement is terminated by Roadway because Yellow's board of directors withdraws or modifies, in any manner adverse to Roadway, its recommendation or approval of the share issuance.

In general, each of Yellow, Sub and Roadway will bear its own expenses in connection with the merger agreement and the related transactions except that Yellow and Roadway will share equally the costs and expenses in connection with filings and related matters under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the merger agreement is terminated at the time it is terminable because inaccuracies exist in one of the parties' representations or warranties in the merger agreement that have or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the other party, or one of the parties fails to materially perform any of its material covenants, agreements or obligations under the merger agreement, that party must pay the other party's documented out-of-pocket expenses and fees in addition to any other remedies available to the non-breaching party.

No Solicitation by Roadway (page 77)

The merger agreement restricts the ability of Roadway to solicit or engage in discussions or negotiations with a third party regarding a proposal to acquire a significant interest in Roadway. However, if Roadway receives an acquisition proposal from a third party that is more favorable to Roadway stockholders than the terms of the merger agreement and Roadway complies with specified procedures contained in the merger agreement, Roadway may furnish nonpublic information to that third party and engage in negotiations regarding an acquisition proposal with that third party, subject to specified conditions.

Accounting Treatment (page 56)

The merger will be accounted for as a business combination using the purchase method of accounting. Yellow will be the acquiror for financial accounting purposes.

Certain Differences in the Rights of Stockholders (page 101)

As a result of the merger, the holders of Roadway shares will become holders of Yellow shares. Although both Roadway and Yellow are Delaware corporations governed by the DGCL, the rights of Roadway stockholders are currently governed by the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Roadway and the rights of Yellow stockholders are governed by the certificate of incorporation and bylaws of Yellow.

See page 101 for summaries of material differences between the rights of Roadway stockholders and Yellow stockholders arising because of differences in the certificates of incorporation and bylaws.

Regulatory Approvals (page 57)

The merger is subject to antitrust laws. Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act, the parties cannot complete the merger until they have notified and furnished information to the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice and specified waiting periods expire or are terminated. Yellow and Roadway filed the information required under the HSR Act on July 17, 2003. Yellow and Roadway received a second request for information from the Antitrust Division on August 18, 2003. The waiting period under the HSR Act will expire 30 days after the companies substantially comply with such request, unless early termination of the waiting period before that time is received. Each state and foreign country in which Yellow or Roadway has operations also may review the merger under state or foreign antitrust laws.

Yellow shares are traded on the Nasdaq National Market under the ticker symbol YELL , and Roadway shares are traded on the Nasdaq National Market under the ticker symbol ROAD . On July 7, 2003, the last full trading day prior to public announcement of the merger, Yellow shares closed at $24.49 per share and Roadway shares closed at $30.02 per share. On _____, 2003, the most recent practicable date prior to the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the closing price of each of the Yellow shares and the Roadway shares was $ _____ and $ _____, respectively. Even though the exchange ratio is fixed within the collar, the market price of Yellow shares will fluctuate prior to and after the merger. We urge you to obtain current market quotations prior to making any decision with respect to the merger.

Selected Yellow Historical Financial Data

Yellow derived the following historical information from its audited consolidated financial statements for the years ended December 31, 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001 and 2002 and from its unaudited consolidated financial statements for the six months ended June 30, 2002 and 2003. The unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared by Yellow on a basis consistent with the audited financial statements and include, in the opinion of management, all normal recurring adjustments necessary for a fair presentation of the information. Note: In 2002, Yellow completed the spin-off of SCS Transportation, Inc. ( SCST ). The data shown above has been reclassified to reflect SCST as discontinued operations for the periods prior to the spin-off. In 1998, Yellow completed the sale of Preston Trucking Company, Inc. ( PTC ). The data shown above has been reclassified to reflect PTC as discontinued operations for the periods prior to the sale.

- (1) The net loss of $28.7 million in 1998 is largely due to the loss from discontinued operations of PTC of $68.7 million, of which $63.6 million was a loss as a result of the sale.
- (2) The net losses in 2002 are largely due to a first quarter 2002 non-cash charge of $75.2 million for the impairment of goodwill related to Jevic Transportation, Inc. (a subsidiary of SCST) and a third quarter 2002 non-cash charge of $52.6 million for the difference between the carrying value of SCST and the fair value, as determined by the market capitalization of SCST at the spin-off date.
- (3) Excludes amounts related to discontinued operations.
- (4) The accounting for Yellow's asset backed securitization ( ABS ) facility has changed during the periods presented above. Prior to December 31, 2002, activity under the ABS facility was treated as a sale of assets for financial reporting purposes. As a result, Yellow did not reflect the receivables sold and the related ABS obligations on its Consolidated Balance Sheets, and ABS facility charges were shown as a separate line in the nonoperating expenses section of its Statements of Consolidated Operations. On December 31, 2002, Yellow amended the ABS agreement to, among other things, provide Yellow the right to repurchase 100% of the receivable interests. Because of this amendment, ABS borrowings and related receivables are included on Yellow's Consolidated Balance Sheets as of December 31, 2002. Starting in 2003, ABS facility charges are included in the interest expense line of Yellow's Statements of Consolidated Operations.

Selected Unaudited Condensed Combined Pro Forma Financial Data

We derived the following unaudited condensed combined pro forma financial data from Yellow's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2002, Roadway's audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2002, Yellow's unaudited consolidated financial statements for the six months ended June 30, 2003 and Roadway's unaudited consolidated financial statements for the twenty-four week period (two quarters) ended June 21, 2003. The financial data has been prepared as if the proposed merger, Yellow's recent offering of its 5.0% contingent convertible senior notes due 2023 and the consummation of Yellow's other currently contemplated financing transactions related to the proposed merger had occurred on January 1, 2002 for the operating data and as of June 30, 2003 for the balance sheet data. Because of the proximity of this joint proxy statement/prospectus to the date of the announcement of the proposed merger, the process of valuing Roadway's tangible and intangible assets and liabilities as well as evaluating accounting policies for conformity is still in the very preliminary stages. Material revisions to our current estimates could be necessary as the valuation process and accounting policy review are finalized. The unaudited pro forma operating data set forth below is not necessarily indicative of the results that actually would have been achieved had the proposed merger, Yellow's recent offering of its 5.0% contingent convertible senior notes due 2023 and the other currently contemplated financing transactions related to the merger been consummated on January 1, 2002, or that may be achieved in the future. The unaudited pro forma financial statements do not reflect any benefits from potential cost savings or revenue changes resulting from the proposed merger. You should read this information in conjunction with Yellow's Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, Yellow's consolidated financial statements and the notes thereto, Roadway's Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, Roadway's consolidated financial statements and notes thereto and the Unaudited Condensed Combined Pro Forma Financial Data included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus or included in Yellow's and Roadway's Annual Reports on Form 10-K and Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q incorporated by reference in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

COMPARATIVE PER SHARE INFORMATION

The following table presents income from continuing operations and book value per common share data separately for Yellow and Roadway on a historical basis, Yellow and Roadway on an unaudited pro forma combined basis per Yellow share and unaudited pro forma combined basis per Roadway equivalent share. The unaudited pro forma earnings per share data for the six months ended June 30, 2003 and the year ended December 31, 2002 reflect the assumption that the merger was effective as of January 1, 2002. The unaudited pro forma per share data gives effect to the proposed merger as a purchase under generally accepted accounting principles in the United States.

The unaudited pro forma Yellow income per share data is based upon the historical weighted average number of shares of Yellow common stock outstanding, adjusted to include the number of shares of Yellow common stock that would be issued in the proposed merger based upon an assumed exchange ratio of 1.924 and the assumption that 50% of the shares of Roadway common stock had been converted into shares of Yellow common stock. We have based the unaudited equivalent pro forma per share data for Roadway on the unaudited pro forma Yellow amounts per share, multiplied by 0.962.

You should read the information below together with the historical financial statements and related notes of Yellow and Roadway contained in each company's periodic filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission and incorporated in this joint proxy statement/prospectus by reference. ## RISK FACTORS

In deciding whether to approve the merger, you should carefully consider all of the information we have included in this document and its annexes and all of the information we have included in the documents we have incorporated by reference. See Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 111 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. In addition, you should pay particular attention to the following risks related to the merger and the business of the combined company:

Risks of the Merger

The merger is subject to certain conditions to closing that, if not satisfied or waived, will result in the merger not being completed.

The merger is subject to customary conditions to closing, as set forth in the merger agreement. The conditions to the merger include, among others, the receipt of required approvals from Yellow's stockholders and Roadway's stockholders. If any of the conditions to the merger is not satisfied or, if waiver is permissible, not waived, the merger will not be completed. In addition, under circumstances specified in the merger agreement, Yellow or Roadway may terminate the merger agreement. As a result, we cannot assure you that we will complete the merger. If we do not complete the merger, the price of Yellow common stock or Roadway common stock may decline to the extent that the current market price of both Yellow common stock and Roadway common stock reflect a market assumption that the merger will be completed. Furthermore, our respective businesses may be harmed to the extent that customers, suppliers and others believe that Yellow and Roadway cannot effectively compete in the marketplace without the merger, or otherwise remain uncertain about either of us. Yellow and Roadway will also be obligated to pay certain investment banking, financing, legal and accounting fees in connection with the merger, whether or not the merger is completed. Moreover, under specified circumstances, Yellow and Roadway may be required to pay a termination fee of $25 million to the other in connection with the termination of the merger agreement. See Description of the Merger for a further description of the terms of the merger agreement, conditions to the merger, including approval of the Department of Justice or expiration of the waiting period under the HSR Act, and termination fees and expenses.

Yellow and Roadway currently operate as separate companies. Management has no experience running the combined business, and we may not be able to realize the operating efficiencies, synergies, cost savings or other benefits expected from the merger. In addition, the costs we incur in implementing synergies, including our ability to terminate, amend or renegotiate prior contractual commitments of Yellow and Roadway, may be greater than expected. We also may suffer a loss of employees, customers or suppliers, a loss of revenues, or an increase in operating or other costs or other difficulties relating to the merger.

Certain directors and executive officers of Roadway have interests and arrangements that are different from Roadway's stockholders and that may influence or have influenced their decision to support or approve the merger.

When considering the recommendation of Roadway's board of directors with respect to the merger, holders of Roadway common stock should be aware that certain of Roadway's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, their interests as Roadway stockholders and the interests of Roadway stockholders generally. These interests include, among other things, the following:

the appointment of three of Roadway's current directors to Yellow's board of directors;

under the terms of the change in control severance agreements entered into between Roadway and certain of its officers, if an officer's employment with Roadway (or its successor) is terminated during the severance period (as defined in the officer's change in control severance agreement), that officer is entitled to severance benefits, including excise tax gross-up payments;

as of the initial filing date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, acceleration of vesting of stock options and restricted stock for officers under the terms of the Roadway Equity Ownership Plan and the Roadway Management Incentive Stock Plan and the acceleration of vesting of restricted stock for directors under the terms of the Roadway Non-Employee Directors Equity Ownership Plan;

as of the initial filing date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, distribution of deferred shares and cash (including accelerated retirement credits) to officers under the terms of the Roadway Deferred Compensation Plan;

receipt of stock, and in some cases, a cash payment in exchange for the cancellation and termination of unexercised options held by officers and directors under the terms of the merger agreement;

indemnification of directors and officers of Roadway against certain liabilities arising both before and, in some cases, after the merger; and

liability insurance for certain directors and officers of Roadway.

As a result, these directors and executive officers may be more likely to support and to vote to approve the merger than if they did not have these interests. Holders of Roadway common stock should consider whether these interests may have influenced these directors and officers to support or recommend approval of the merger. As of the close of business on the record date for the Roadway special meeting, these directors and executive officers owned and were entitled to vote approximately % of the shares of Roadway common stock outstanding on that date. These and additional interests of certain directors and executive officers of Roadway are more fully described in the sections entitled Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger beginning on page 53 and Board of Directors and Management of Yellow Roadway Following the Merger beginning on page 58 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The market value of shares of Yellow common stock that Roadway stockholders will receive in the merger will vary because the exchange ratio is fixed within a range of Yellow's stock price, potentially resulting in Roadway stockholders receiving a lower dollar value of Yellow common stock at the time of completion of the merger.

The exchange ratio is a fixed ratio within a range of $21.21 to $28.69 per share of Yellow common stock and will not be adjusted as a result of an increase or decrease in the price per share of Yellow common stock within that range or for any increase or decrease in the price per share of Roadway common stock. The prices of Yellow common stock and Roadway common stock at the time the merger is completed may be higher or lower than their price on the date of this document or on the date of the special meetings of Yellow stockholders and Roadway stockholders. Changes in the business, operations or prospects of Yellow or Roadway, market assessments of the benefits of the merger and of the likelihood that the merger will be completed, regulatory considerations, general market and economic conditions, or other factors may affect the prices of Yellow common stock or Roadway common stock. Most of these factors are beyond our control.

Because the merger will be completed only after the special meetings of our respective stockholders are held, there is no way to be sure that the price of the Yellow common stock now, or on the date of the special meetings, will be indicative of its price over the period used to determine the average closing price or at the time the merger is completed. We urge you to obtain current market quotations for shares of both Yellow common stock and Roadway common stock. Roadway does not have a right to terminate the merger agreement based solely upon changes in the market price of either Roadway common stock or Yellow common stock.

The pro forma financial data included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is preliminary and our actual financial position and results of operations may differ significantly and adversely from the pro forma amounts included in this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Because of the proximity of this joint proxy statement/prospectus to the date of the announcement of the proposed merger, the process of valuing Roadway's tangible and intangible assets and liabilities, as well as evaluating Roadway's accounting policies for conformity is still in the very preliminary stages. Material revisions to current estimates could be necessary as the valuation process and accounting policy review are finalized.

The unaudited pro forma operating data contained in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is not necessarily indicative of the results that actually would have been achieved had the recent offering of Yellow's 5.0% contingent convertible senior notes due 2023, the proposed merger and Yellow's other currently contemplated financing transactions related to the merger been consummated on January 1, 2002, or that may be achieved in the future. We can provide no assurances as to how the operations and assets of both companies would have been run if they had been combined, or how they will be run in the future, which, together with other factors, could have a significant effect on the results of operations and financial position of the combined company.

Yellow Roadway will have higher levels of indebtedness than either Yellow or Roadway had before the merger.

You should consider that following the merger Yellow Roadway will have higher levels of debt and interest expense than either company had immediately prior to the merger on a stand-alone basis. As of June 30, 2003, after giving effect to the merger, Yellow's recent offering of its 5.0% contingent convertible senior notes due 2023 and other currently contemplated related financings, the combined company and its subsidiaries would have had approximately $948.6 million of indebtedness outstanding. The significant level of combined indebtedness after the merger may have an effect on our future operations, including:

limiting our ability to obtain additional financing on satisfactory terms to fund our working capital requirements, capital expenditures, acquisitions, investments, debt service requirements and other general corporate requirements; increasing our vulnerability to general economic downturns, competition and industry conditions, which could place us at a competitive disadvantage compared to our competitors that are less leveraged; increasing our exposure to rising interest rates because a portion of our borrowings will be at variable interest rates; reducing the availability of our cash flow to fund our working capital requirements, capital expenditures, acquisitions, investments and other general corporate requirements because we will be required to use a substantial portion of our cash flow to service debt obligations; and limiting our flexibility in planning for, or reacting to, changes in our business and the industry in which we operate.

See "Recent and Proposed Financings" on page 107 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The occurrence of certain events may prevent tax counsel from issuing an opinion that the merger constitutes a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, which is a condition to closing the merger.

The completion of the merger is conditioned on, among other things, receipt of opinions from tax counsel for each of Yellow and Roadway that the merger will qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. These opinions will be delivered only if, among other things, the Roadway stockholders receive in the merger, in the aggregate, Yellow shares with a value equal to at least 45% of the combined value of the total consideration paid for all Roadway shares, taking into account, among other things, the amount of cash paid or deemed paid to

Roadway stockholders in connection with the merger (including cash received by Roadway stockholders who perfect their dissenters' rights and cash received in lieu of fractional Yellow shares).

In addition to the market value of the Yellow shares on the date of the merger and the other items described above, various factors affect the determination of whether the value of the Yellow shares received by the

Roadway stockholders in the merger is equal to at least 45% of the combined value of the total consideration paid for all Roadway shares, including:

the amount, if any, to be paid to Roadway stockholders who perfect their dissenters' rights;

whether prior to or in connection with the merger Roadway or Yellow (or parties related to either) redeems, repurchases or otherwise acquires Roadway shares or makes distributions to the Roadway stockholders (none of Roadway, Yellow or any corporation related to Roadway or Yellow has redeemed or purchased, or has any plan or intention to redeem or purchase, any Roadway shares in connection with the merger); and whether there will be any repurchases by Yellow (or parties related to Yellow) of the Yellow shares to be issued in the merger (neither Yellow nor any corporation related to Yellow has any plan or intention to repurchase any of the Yellow common stock to be issued in the merger).

Risks of Yellow Roadway Following the Merger

We are subject to general economic factors that are largely out of our control, any of which could significantly reduce our operating margins and income.

Our business is subject to a number of general economic factors that may significantly reduce our operating margins and income, many of which are largely out of our control. These include recessionary economic cycles and downturns in customers' business cycles and changes in their business practices, particularly in market segments and industries, such as retail and manufacturing, where we have a significant concentration of customers. Economic conditions may adversely affect our customers' business levels, the amount of transportation services they need and their ability to pay for our services. Customers encountering adverse economic conditions represent a greater potential for loss, and we may be required to increase our reserve for bad-debt losses.

The transportation industry is affected by business risks that are largely out of our control, any of which could significantly reduce our operating margins and income.

Businesses operating in the transportation industry are affected by risks that are largely out of our control, any of which could significantly reduce our operating margins and income. These factors include weather, excess capacity in the transportation industry, interest rates, fuel prices and taxes, license and registration fees, and insurance premiums and self-insurance levels. Our results of operations may also be affected by seasonal factors.

We operate in a highly competitive industry, and our business will suffer if we are unable to adequately address potential downward pricing pressures and other factors that may adversely affect our operations and significantly reduce our operating margins and income.

Numerous competitive factors could impair our ability to maintain our current profitability. These factors include the following:

Edgar Filing: YELLOW CORP - Form S-4

We compete with many other transportation service providers of varying sizes, some of which have more equipment and greater capital resources than we do or have other competitive advantages.

Some of our competitors periodically reduce their prices to gain business, especially during times of reduced growth rates in the economy, which limits our ability to maintain or increase prices or maintain significant growth in our business.

Our customers may negotiate rates or contracts that minimize or eliminate our ability to continue passing on fuel price increases to our customers.

Many customers reduce the number of carriers they use by selecting so-called "core carriers" as approved transportation service providers, and in some instances we may not be selected.

Many customers periodically accept bids from multiple carriers for their shipping needs, and this process may depress prices or result in the loss of some business to competitors.

The trend towards consolidation in the ground transportation industry may create other large carriers with greater financial resources and other competitive advantages relating to their size.

Advances in technology require increased investments to remain competitive, and our customers may not be willing to accept higher prices to cover the cost of these investments.

Competition from non-asset-based logistics and freight brokerage companies may adversely affect our customer relationships and prices.

If our relationship with our employees were to deteriorate, we may be faced with labor shortages, disruptions or stoppages, which could adversely affect our business and reduce our operating margins and income and place us at a disadvantage relative to non-union competitors.

Our operations rely heavily on our employees, and any labor shortage, disruption or stoppage caused by poor relations with our employees or the renegotiation of labor contracts could reduce our operating margins and income. Approximately 80% of Yellow's and approximately 78% of Roadway's employees are organized by the International Brotherhood of Teamsters and their wages and benefits are governed by a common labor agreement that is renegotiated every three to five years. The current five-year labor agreement will expire on March 31, 2008. It is possible that we could become subject to additional work rules imposed by agreements with labor unions, or that work stoppages or other labor disturbances could occur in the future, any of which could reduce our operating margins and income. Similarly, any failure to negotiate a new labor agreement when required might result in a work stoppage that could reduce our operating margins and income and place us at a disadvantage relative to non-union competitors.

Ongoing insurance and claims expenses could significantly reduce our income.

Our future insurance and claims expenses might exceed historical levels, which could significantly reduce our earnings. Yellow and Roadway currently self-insure for a portion of their claims exposure resulting from cargo loss, personal injury, property damage and workers compensation. If the number or severity of claims for which we are self-insured increases, our earnings could be significantly reduced. Yellow and Roadway also maintain insurance with licensed insurance companies above the amounts for which they self-insure.

We will have significant ongoing capital requirements that could reduce our income if we are unable to generate sufficient cash from operations.

The transportation industry is very capital intensive. If we are unable to generate sufficient cash from operations in the future, we may have to limit our growth, enter into additional financing arrangements, or operate our revenue equipment for longer periods, any of which could reduce our income. Our ability to incur additional indebtedness could be adversely affected by any increase in requirements that we post letters of credit in support of our insurance policies. See "Ongoing insurance and claims expenses could significantly reduce our income." Lack of availability of surety bonds in the future could result in our having to post additional letters of credit, which would in turn reduce borrowing availability under our credit agreement. If needed, additional indebtedness may not be available on terms acceptable to us.

We operate in a highly regulated industry, and costs of compliance with, or liability for violation of, existing or future regulations could significantly increase our costs of doing business.

The U.S. Department of Transportation and various state and federal agencies exercise broad powers over our business, generally governing such activities as authorization to engage in motor carrier operations and safety. We may also become subject to new or more restrictive regulations imposed by the Department of Transportation, the Occupational Safety and Health Administration or other authorities relating to engine exhaust emissions, security and other matters. Compliance with such regulations could substantially impair equipment productivity and increase our costs.

The Environmental Protection Agency has issued regulations that require progressive reductions in exhaust emissions from diesel engines through 2007. These reductions began with diesel engines manufactured late in 2002. The regulations currently include subsequent reductions in the sulfur content of diesel fuel in 2006 and the introduction of emissions after-treatment devices on newly manufactured engines in 2007. These regulations could result in higher prices for tractors and increased fuel and maintenance costs.

We are subject to various environmental laws and regulations, and costs of compliance with, or liabilities for violations of, existing or future regulations could significantly increase our costs of doing business.

Our operations are subject to environmental laws and regulations dealing with, among other things, the handling of hazardous materials, underground fuel storage tanks and discharge and retention of stormwater. We operate in industrial areas, where truck terminals and other industrial activities are located, and where groundwater or other forms of environmental contamination may have occurred. Our operations involve the risks of fuel spillage or seepage, environmental damage, and hazardous waste disposal, among others. If we are involved in a spill or other accident involving hazardous substances, or if we are found to be in violation of applicable laws or regulations, it could significantly increase our cost of doing business. Under specific environmental laws, we could be held responsible for all of the costs relating to any contamination at our past or present facilities and at third party waste disposal sites. If we fail to comply with applicable environmental regulations, we could be subject to substantial fines or penalties and to civil and criminal liability.

Following the merger, the combined company could be responsible for certain federal tax obligations of Roadway under a tax sharing agreement with its former parent corporation.

Roadway's former parent, Caliber System, Inc. (which subsequently was acquired by FDX Corporation, a wholly owned subsidiary of FedEx Corporation), is currently under examination by the Internal Revenue Service for tax years 1994 and 1995, years prior to the spin-off of Roadway. The Internal Revenue Service has proposed substantial adjustments for these tax years for multi-employer pension plan deductions. The Internal Revenue Service is challenging the timing, but not the validity, of these deductions. Roadway is unable to predict the ultimate outcome of this matter; however, its former parent intends to vigorously contest these proposed adjustments.

Under a tax sharing agreement entered into by Roadway and its former parent at the time of the spin-off, Roadway is obligated to reimburse its former parent for any additional taxes and interest that relate to Roadway's business prior to the spin-off. The amount and timing of any payments is dependent on the ultimate resolution of the former parent's disputes with the Internal Revenue Service and the determination of the nature and extent of the obligations under the tax sharing agreement. On January 16, 2003, Roadway made a $14 million payment to its former parent under the tax sharing agreement for taxes and interest related to certain of the proposed adjustments for tax years 1994 and 1995.

We estimate the possible range of the remaining payments that may be due to Roadway's former parent to be approximately $0 to $16 million in additional taxes and $0 to $10 million in related interest, net of tax benefit. Roadway has established specific reserves with respect to these proposed adjustments. There can be no assurance, however, that the amount or timing of any liability of Roadway to its former parent will not have a material adverse effect on the results of operations and financial position of the combined company.

In addition, Roadway has a similar tax issue in each of its subsequent federal income tax returns, and in the event of an adverse determination in the Federal Express tax case, it is likely that the Internal Revenue Service will make additional claims for taxes for those subsequent tax years.

We may be obligated to make additional contributions to multiemployer pension plans.

Yellow and Roadway each have collective bargaining agreements with their unions that stipulate the amount of contributions that each company must make to union-sponsored, multi-employer pension plans. The Internal Revenue Code and related regulations establish minimum funding requirements for these plans. If any of these plans fail to meet these requirements and the trustees of these plans are unable to obtain waivers of the requirements from the Internal Revenue Service or reduce pension benefits to a level where the requirements are met, the Internal Revenue Service could impose an excise tax on all employers participating in these plans to correct the funding deficiency. Yellow and Roadway do not have access to current information regarding the funding levels of these plans in relation to these requirements. If an excise tax were imposed on the participating employers, it could have a material adverse impact on the financial results of Yellow or Roadway.

Our management team is an important part of our business and loss of key personnel could impair our success.

We benefit from the leadership and experience of our senior management team and depend on their continued services to successfully implement our business strategy. Other than our Chief Executive Officer, William D. Zollars, we have not entered into employment agreements with members of our management. We also anticipate entering into an agreement with James D. Staley, currently President and Chief Executive Officer of Roadway. The loss of key personnel could have a material adverse effect on our operating results, business or financial condition.

Our business may be harmed by anti-terrorism measures.

In the aftermath of the terrorist attacks on the United States, federal, state and municipal authorities have implemented and are implementing various security measures, including checkpoints and travel restrictions on large trucks. Although many companies will be adversely affected by any slowdown in the availability of freight transportation, the negative impact could affect our business disproportionately. For example, we offer specialized services that guarantee on-time delivery. If the new security measures disrupt or impede the timing of our deliveries, we may fail to meet the needs of our customers, or may incur increased expenses to do so. We cannot assure you that these measures will not significantly increase our costs and reduce our operating margins and income.

Yellow Roadway's stock price may be volatile in the future, which could cause you to lose a significant portion of your investment.

The market price of Yellow Roadway common stock could be subject to significant fluctuations in response to certain factors, such as variations in our anticipated or actual results of operations, the operating results of other companies in the transportation industry, changes in conditions affecting the economy generally, including incidents of terrorism, analyst reports, general trends in the industry, sales of common stock by insiders, as well as other factors unrelated to our operating results. Volatility in the market price of Yellow Roadway common stock may prevent you from being able to sell your shares at or above the price you paid for your shares.

Dilution in the per share value of our common stock could result from the conversion of most or all of the 5.0% contingent convertible senior notes due 2023 that we sold in a private placement in August 2003. There is currently $250 million aggregate principal amount of such notes outstanding. The notes are convertible upon the occurrence of certain events at a conversion price of $39.24 per share, subject to adjustment. Because approximately 6.4 million shares of our common stock could be issued upon the conversion of the notes, holders of our common stock could experience substantial dilution from the conversion of such notes. Furthermore, the trading price of our common stock could suffer from significant downward pressure as note holders convert these notes and sell the common shares received on conversion, encouraging short sales by the holders of such notes or other stockholders.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This joint proxy statement/prospectus, including the documents incorporated by reference, contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. The words "expect", "will", "look forward to" and similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements.

The expectations set forth in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference regarding, among other things, accretion, returns on invested capital, achievement of annual savings and synergies, achievement of strong cash flow, sufficiency of cash flow to fund capital expenditures and achievement of debt reduction targets are only the parties' expectations regarding these matters. Actual results could differ materially from these expectations depending on factors such as:

the factors described under "Risk Factors" beginning on page 23 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

the factors that generally affect Yellow's and Roadway's businesses as further outlined in "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" in the companies' Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2002, and this joint proxy statement/prospectus, including inflation, labor relations (i.e., disruptions, strikes or work stoppages), inclement weather, availability of fuel and the price of fuel as it affects the general economy, competitor pricing activity and the general impact of competition, expense volatility, capacity levels in the motor freight industry, changes in and customer acceptance of new technology, changes in equity and debt markets, our ability to control costs and uncertainties concerning the impact terrorist activities may have on the economy and the motor freight industry, the state of international, national and regional economies and the success or failure of our operating plans, including our ability to manage growth; and the fact that, following the merger, the actual results of the combined company could differ materially from the expectations set forth in this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the documents incorporated by reference depending on additional factors such as:

the combined company's cost of capital;

the ability of the combined company to identify and implement cost savings, synergies and efficiencies in the time frame needed to achieve these expectations;

any loss of employees, customers or suppliers that the combined company may suffer as a result of the merger;

the combined company's actual capital needs, the absence of any material incident of property damage or other hazard that could affect the need to effect capital expenditures and any currently unforeseen merger or acquisition opportunities that could affect capital needs; and the costs incurred in implementing synergies including, but not limited to, our ability to terminate, amend or renegotiate prior contractual commitments of Yellow and Roadway.

Yellow's plans regarding the maintenance of the separate Yellow and Roadway brands and networks, the continuation of the Roadway headquarters as a major operational center, the focus on administrative and back office synergies and workforce rationalizations are only its current plans and intentions regarding these matters. Actual actions that the combined company may take may differ from time to time as the combined company may deem necessary or advisable in the best interest of the combined company and its stockholders to attempt to achieve the successful integration of the companies, the synergies needed to make the transaction a financial success and to react to the economy and the combined company's market for its transportation services.

THE MERGER

Background of the Merger

Yellow and Roadway each continually evaluate strategic opportunities as a part of their ongoing evaluation of the commercial transportation marketplace. In the summer of 2001, Yellow and Roadway held a series of discussions to determine if sufficient areas of opportunity existed to allow for a merger that would result in a stronger, more diversified organization that could compete more successfully in the highly competitive and constantly changing commercial transportation marketplace.

During these discussions, representatives from various functional areas of Yellow and Roadway identified possible synergies that could create improved customer service and potential cost savings. After several months, discussions terminated because of the parties' differences regarding their respective strategies and future direction and because the parties were unable to agree upon a mutually acceptable organization structure for a merged entity. These discussions did not include proposals regarding possible acquisition prices, exchange ratios or transactional structures.

Since the late 1990s, Yellow has continued to focus on expanding its portfolio of services to include both asset and non-asset transportation services. In addition to its basic offering of Standard Ground less-than-truckload transportation, Yellow has penetrated its customer base with sales of branded, asset-based services such as:

Exact Express®, an expedited and time-definite service with air and ground capabilities;

Definite Delivery®, a guaranteed transit times service; and Volume Advantage, for full trailer and heavyweight shipments.

Additionally, non-asset branded services through Meridian IQ have significantly broadened the overall service portfolio for Yellow customers.

After discussions between Roadway and Yellow ended in 2001, Roadway began to actively pursue its strategy of entering the next-day business. In November 2001, Roadway completed its acquisition of Arnold Industries, Inc., one of the leaders in the next-day business. Thereafter, Roadway focused on managing its operations and paying off indebtedness incurred in connection with the Arnold Industries acquisition. Also during this period, Roadway's board and management continued to review and evaluate Roadway's strategic direction and alternatives on an ongoing basis with the objective of enhancing value for Roadway's stockholders.

In late April 2003, William D. Zollars, Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer of Yellow, contacted Michael W. Wickham, Chairman of the Board of Roadway, and expressed an interest in exploring a potential stock-for-stock merger of Yellow and Roadway in which Roadway stockholders would receive Yellow common stock at an exchange ratio that provided little or no premium. Mr. Wickham advised Roadway's other directors and management about his discussions with Mr. Zollars. Roadway's board and management evaluated the proposal discussed with Mr. Zollars, but did not believe that such a proposal was in the best interests of Roadway or its stockholders. Mr. Wickham advised Mr. Zollars that the Roadway board was not interested in exploring a stock-for-stock merger presenting little or no premium.

As Yellow continued to pursue its business strategy, it became increasingly apparent to Yellow's management that a merger with Roadway would accelerate Yellow's efforts to provide a one stop shopping experience to a broader customer base. See Yellow's Reasons for the Merger. Yellow's management requested its financial advisor, Deutsche Bank, to prepare financial analyses to help Yellow determine the feasibility of a merger with Roadway. Based on these considerations, at the request of Yellow's management, the Yellow board asked Dennis Foster, a Yellow board member, to contact Frank Doyle, a Roadway board member, about reinitiating the companies discussions about a possible business combination.

In late May and early June 2003, Messrs. Foster and Doyle had a series of discussions regarding Yellow's desire to acquire Roadway and Yellow's interest in exploring a part stock, part cash transaction at a price as high as $50.00 per Roadway share. Thereafter, Messrs. Doyle and Foster pursued discussions regarding a possible business combination between Yellow and Roadway structured on such a basis. During these discussions, Mr. Foster indicated that Yellow would be willing to pay Roadway a significant premium based on Roadway's current market price provided that Yellow's due diligence investigation of Roadway supported such a valuation.

On June 5, 2003, Roadway announced forecasted results for its second quarter 2003 earnings that were substantially less than its previously announced forecast. This resulted in an immediate decline in the per share price of Roadway's common stock. After this announcement, Messrs. Foster and Doyle continued discussions about a possible business combination. During these discussions, Mr. Foster confirmed that Yellow was still interested in acquiring Roadway and, subject to satisfactory completion of Yellow's due diligence, that Roadway's revised forecast would not impact the premium Yellow was willing to pay Roadway's stockholders.

On June 12, 2003, Roadway's board met and was briefed on the status of discussions between Messrs. Foster and Doyle and authorized continued discussions with Yellow about a possible business combination. At this meeting, Roadway's general counsel discussed the board's fiduciary duties in the context of a transaction with Yellow.

On June 13, 2003, Yellow's board met and was briefed on the discussions to date. Also at this meeting, Yellow's general counsel discussed the board's fiduciary duties in the context of a possible business combination.

In mid-June, Roadway engaged Credit Suisse First Boston to act as its financial advisor in connection with a potential transaction with Yellow. On June 17, 2003, Roadway's board held a meeting to discuss a possible transaction with Yellow. During this meeting, the Roadway board discussed, among other things, industry trends regarding consolidation and other strategic alternatives available to Roadway. Also at this meeting, Credit Suisse First Boston reviewed with Roadway's board financial aspects of such a transaction as well as industry trends, including consolidation. Roadway's board authorized the continued exploration of a possible business combination with Yellow.

After further discussions between Messrs. Foster and Doyle, on June 18, 2003, Mr. Doyle telephoned Mr. Foster to express Roadway's desire to engage in additional discussions about a possible business combination.

On June 19, 2003, Mr. Zollars and Daniel J. Churay, Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary of Yellow, met Mr. Wickham and John J. Gasparovic, Executive Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary of Roadway, in Cleveland to begin negotiating terms and conditions of an acquisition, including treatment of Roadway's employees, and to set a timetable for each company's due diligence review of the other. Later that day, Yellow's board received an update on the status of the discussions.

On June 20, 2003, Roadway's board met to discuss Mr. Wickham's discussions with Mr. Zollars and Mr. Doyle's discussions with Mr. Foster. Roadway's board authorized the continued exploration of a proposed business combination with Yellow.

Edgar Filing: YELLOW CORP - Form S-4

After entering into mutual confidentiality arrangements, during the period of June 25-27, 2003, a team of legal, financial, operational and other representatives of Yellow began their due diligence review of Roadway at the Cleveland offices of Jones Day, Roadway's legal counsel. This review included, among other things, an update and confirmation of the investigation of consolidation synergies that was conducted in 2001. Concurrent with this review, a team of Roadway representatives conducted a due diligence investigation of Yellow in Overland Park, Kansas. These reviews continued until the merger agreement was signed.

On June 26, 2003, Mr. Gasparovic and James D. Staley, President and Chief Executive Officer of Roadway, met with Mr. Zollars in New York to discuss various aspects of the proposed business combination.

On June 30, 2003, Roadway's board met to discuss the status of negotiations with Yellow and Mr. Staley's meeting with Mr. Zollars. During this meeting, Roadway's board discussed, among other things, the terms of the proposed transaction and the strategic rationale for the transaction.

From June 27, 2003 to July 1, 2003, the parties negotiated the terms of the merger agreement, including Roadway's requirement that Yellow have committed financing for the transaction, and completed a significant portion of their due diligence review.

On July 1, 2003, Deutsche Bank expressed its oral opinion that, subject to a review of the final negotiated terms of the merger agreement and the consideration and approval of Deutsche Bank's fairness opinion committee, Deutsche Bank should be able to deliver a written fairness opinion that the consideration to be paid by Yellow to the Roadway stockholders in the merger would be fair from a financial point of view to Yellow. The Yellow board then approved the proposed merger subject to satisfactory completion of the negotiation of the definitive merger agreement and authorized the officers of Yellow with the assistance of Mr. Foster to make a proposal to Roadway of up to $48.00 per Roadway share in the form of a merger agreement with specified terms and conditions, including (among other things) the condition that the Yellow board receive Deutsche Bank's written opinion. The Yellow board also authorized the officers of Yellow to obtain the financing required for Yellow to consummate the merger.

On July 2, 2003, Mr. Foster contacted Mr. Doyle and indicated that Yellow was prepared to pursue a merger with Roadway on the bases previously discussed. Mr. Foster initially proposed that Roadway stockholders would receive $46.00 per share, with one-half of the total consideration payable in Yellow common stock and one-half of the total consideration payable in cash. After further negotiations, Mr. Foster increased Yellow's proposal to $48.00 per share. Mr. Doyle indicated that he would advise Roadway's board of directors regarding the proposal and reaffirmed Roadway's requirement that the financing for the transaction be fully committed before Roadway would enter into a merger agreement.

On July 3, 2003, Roadway's board met to discuss Yellow's proposal as well as the status of Roadway's due diligence of Yellow and the negotiations regarding other aspects of the proposed transaction. After thorough discussion, Roadway's board determined that it supported a transaction with Yellow at the $48.00 per share price proposed by Yellow subject to satisfactory negotiation of the other terms and conditions of the merger agreement, including the appropriate exchange ratio and collar for the stock portion of the consideration. Roadway's board authorized Roadway's management to continue to negotiate the terms of the merger agreement with Yellow.

On July 6, 2003, Roadway's board met again to discuss the status of negotiations with Yellow. During this meeting, Jones Day reviewed the material terms and conditions of the merger agreement, as negotiated to date, and the legal duties and responsibilities of Roadway's board in connection with the proposed merger. Also during this meeting, Roadway's management reviewed certain management and other issues related to the proposed merger.

Negotiations regarding the terms of the merger agreement, including Yellow's financing, the collar arrangement and Yellow's right to terminate the merger agreement if the per share price of its common stock fell below a certain level during the applicable measurement period, continued through the morning of July 8, 2003.

On July 8, 2003, Yellow entered into agreements with Deutsche Bank and certain of its affiliates to finance the cash portion of the merger consideration to be paid to the Roadway stockholders and to refinance certain existing debt facilities of the combined company and provided copies of such commitments to Roadway.

Also, on July 8, 2003, Roadway's board held a meeting to review with Roadway's management and legal and financial advisors the status of the negotiations and the proposed terms and conditions of the merger with Yellow. During this meeting, Jones Day updated the board on changes to the material terms and conditions of the merger agreement previously discussed and reviewed again the legal duties and responsibilities of Roadway's board in connection with the proposed merger. Credit Suisse First Boston reviewed its financial analysis of the merger consideration and rendered to Roadway's board an oral opinion, which opinion was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated July 8, 2003, to the effect that, as of that date and based on and subject to the matters described in its opinion, the merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Roadway common stock. Roadway's board then carefully considered the benefits and risks to Roadway and its stockholders of a merger with Yellow. Following a thorough discussion, Roadway's board unanimously determined that the merger was advisable, approved the merger agreement, determined that the terms of the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement were advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, Roadway and the holders of Roadway common stock, determined to recommend the merger agreement, the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement to the holders of Roadway common stock for approval and adoption, and recommended that the holders of Roadway common stock adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Following the Roadway board meeting and Roadway's receipt of the signed commitment letters, Roadway and Yellow signed the merger agreement and issued a joint press release announcing the execution of the merger agreement.

Yellow's Reasons for the Merger

The Yellow board believes that the terms of the merger are fair to, and in the best interests of, Yellow and has unanimously approved the merger agreement and the merger and unanimously recommends that Yellow stockholders vote FOR approval of the Yellow proposal.

In reaching its conclusion, the Yellow Board considered, among other factors:

The complementary operations and capabilities of the combined company with the increased scale (including expected combined revenue in excess of $6 billion per year), strong financial base and market reach necessary to increase stockholder value and enhance customer service. Specifically, the merger would allow the combined company to:

strengthen its position in the highly competitive domestic and global transportation marketplace; continue to invest in and grow the brands of both businesses; implement best practices over a broader customer base;

leverage service capabilities and technologies for the benefit of customers, allowing the costs of improvements to spread out over a larger revenue base for the benefit of customers; and introduce additional non-asset-based transportation management services to Roadway customers.

The potential for the merger to accelerate the portfolio strategy of offering a broad range of services for business to business transportation decision makers.

Edgar Filing: YELLOW CORP - Form S-4

The limited overlap of the Yellow customer base with the Roadway customer base.

The opportunity to allow each company to more effectively compete against the industry's largest integrated service providers, specifically, UPS and Federal Express.

The opportunity to more effectively compete with numerous union and non-union less-than-truckload competitors.

The creation of a more competitive position against non traditional competitors such as third party logistics providers, freight forwarders/consolidators and truckload competitors.

The recent conclusion in March 2003 of a new five-year union contract between each of Yellow and Roadway and the International Brotherhood of Teamsters and the ability of the combined company to maintain a stable work environment for its employees.

The financial performance and condition, business operations and prospects of each of Yellow and Roadway.

The structure of the transaction and terms of the merger agreement and the financing arrangements for the cash portion of the merger consideration to be paid to the Roadway stockholders and to refinance certain existing debt facilities of the combined company. See The Merger Agreement beginning on page 66 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Expected combination benefits, including revenue synergies and cost savings. Yellow expects that annual cost synergies at a $45 million run rate could be achieved at the end of the first year after the closing of the merger with the possibility of additional cost synergies, as well as revenue synergies, in the longer-term. See Forward-Looking Statements beginning on page 30 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The near-term and long-term earnings per share and cash flow of the combined entity as compared to Yellow on a standalone basis. Yellow expects the transaction to be accretive within 12 months after closing and provide a return in excess of the weighted average cost of capital in the second year. See Forward-Looking Statements beginning on page 30 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

The relative market capitalizations of Yellow and Roadway, and the expected capital structure of the combined entity after the merger, including the availability of financing for the transaction at relatively low interest rates.

The opinion of Deutsche Bank described below, including Deutsche Bank's conclusion that the merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to Yellow as of the date of its opinion. The Deutsche Bank opinion is based upon and subject to the factors and assumptions, qualifications and limitations set forth therein.

The compatibility of the corporate cultures of the management teams and employees of both companies, the willingness of James D. Staley, Chief Executive Officer of Roadway, and his leadership team to continue serving the combined company and the willingness of three Roadway directors, Messrs. Frank P. Doyle, John F. Fiedler and Phillip J. Meek, to join the board of Yellow Roadway.

In determining that the merger was fair to, and in the best interests of, Yellow, the Yellow board considered the factors above as a whole and did not assign specific or relative weights to those factors. The Yellow board believes that the merger is an opportunity for Yellow stockholders to participate in a combined, more successful enterprise that has significantly greater business and financial resources than Yellow would have absent the merger.

Recommendation of the Yellow Board of Directors

After consideration of the factors discussed above, and without weight to any specific factor, the members of Yellow's board of directors voting on the merger and the proposed amendment to Yellow's certificate of incorporation, have determined that the terms of the merger are in the best interest of Yellow.

The Yellow board recommends that Yellow stockholders vote at the Yellow special meeting to approve the issuance of Yellow common stock pursuant to and in accordance with the merger agreement and the amendment to Yellow's certificate of incorporation for the name change.

Opinion of Deutsche Bank Securities Inc., Financial Advisor to Yellow Corporation

Deutsche Bank has acted as financial advisor to Yellow in connection with the merger. On July 8, 2003, Deutsche Bank delivered its written opinion to the Yellow board of directors to the effect that, as of the date of such opinion, based upon and subject to the assumptions made, matters considered and limits of the review undertaken by Deutsche Bank, the merger consideration payable to the shareholders of Roadway in the merger was fair, from a financial point of view, to Yellow.

The full text of Deutsche Bank's written opinion, dated July 8, 2003, which discusses, among other things, the assumptions made, matters considered and limits on the review undertaken by Deutsche Bank in connection with its opinion, is attached as Annex B to this joint proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. Stockholders are urged to read Deutsche Bank's opinion in its entirety. The following summary, which is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Deutsche Bank's opinion, discusses the material terms of the opinion.

In connection with Deutsche Bank's role as financial advisor to Yellow, and in arriving at its opinion, Deutsche Bank, among other things, reviewed publicly available financial information and other information concerning Yellow and Roadway and internal analyses and other information furnished to it by Yellow and Roadway. Deutsche Bank also held discussions with the members of the senior managements of Yellow and Roadway regarding the businesses and prospects of their respective companies and the joint prospects of a combined enterprise. In addition, Deutsche Bank:

reviewed the reported prices and trading activity for the common stock of both Yellow and Roadway, compared financial and stock market information for Yellow and Roadway with similar information for selected companies whose securities are publicly traded, reviewed the financial terms of selected recent business combinations which it deemed comparable in whole or in part, reviewed the terms of the merger agreement, and performed other studies and analyses and considered other factors as it deemed appropriate.

In preparing its opinion, Deutsche Bank did not assume responsibility for the independent verification of, and did not independently verify, any information, whether publicly available or furnished to it, concerning Yellow or Roadway, including, without limitation, any financial information, forecasts or projections, considered in connection with the rendering of its opinion. Accordingly, for purposes of its opinion, Deutsche Bank assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all this information. Deutsche Bank did not conduct a physical inspection of any of the properties or assets, and did not prepare or obtain any independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities of Yellow or Roadway. Deutsche Bank assumed that the financial forecasts and projections made available to Deutsche Bank and used in its analysis, including analyses and forecasts of certain cost savings, operating efficiencies, revenue effects and financial synergies (collectively referred to in this summary as synergies) expected by Yellow and Roadway to be achieved as a result of the merger, were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Yellow or Roadway, as the case may be, as to the matters covered thereby. In rendering its opinion, Deutsche Bank expressed no view as to the reasonableness of these forecasts and projections, including the synergies, or the assumptions on which they are based. Deutsche Bank's opinion was necessarily based upon economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to Deutsche Bank as of, the date of its opinion.

In rendering its opinion, Deutsche Bank assumed that, in all respects material to its analysis, the representations and warranties of Yellow and Roadway contained in the merger agreement are true and correct,

Edgar Filing: YELLOW CORP - Form S-4

Yellow and Roadway will each perform all of the covenants and agreements to be performed by it under the merger agreement, all conditions to the obligation of each of Yellow and Roadway to consummate the merger will be satisfied without any waiver of them, all material governmental, regulatory or other approvals and consents required in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement will be obtained, and in connection with obtaining any necessary governmental, regulatory or other approvals and consents, or any amendments, modifications or waivers to any agreements, instruments or orders to which either Yellow or Roadway is a party or subject or by which it is bound, no limitations, restrictions or conditions will be imposed or amendments, modifications or waivers made that would have a material adverse effect on Yellow or Roadway or materially reduce the contemplated benefits of the merger to Yellow.

Below is a brief summary of the material financial analyses performed by Deutsche Bank in connection with its opinion.

Historical Stock Performance. Deutsche Bank reviewed and analyzed recent and historical market prices and trading volume for Yellow common stock and Roadway common stock and compared these market prices to certain stock market indices.

Analysis of Selected Publicly Traded Companies. Deutsche Bank compared financial information and commonly used valuation measurements for Roadway to corresponding information and measurements for a group of six publicly traded companies in the less-than-truckload, or LTL, industry, which Deutsche Bank refers to as the selected companies:

Yellow

Arkansas Best Corporation

Old Dominion Freight Line, Inc.

SCS Transportation, Inc.

USF Corporation

The financial information and valuation measurements that Deutsche Bank compared included, among other things, common equity market valuation, capitalization ratios,

operating performance,

Edgar Filing: YELLOW CORP - Form S-4

ratios of common equity market value as adjusted for debt and cash, or enterprise value, to revenues,

earnings before interest expense, income taxes and depreciation and amortization, or EBITDA, and earnings before interest expense and income taxes, or EBIT, and ratios of common equity market prices per share, or equity value, to earnings per share.

To calculate the trading multiples for Roadway and the selected companies, Deutsche Bank used publicly available information concerning historical and projected financial performance, including published historical financial information and earnings estimates reported by the Institutional Brokers Estimate System, or IBES. IBES is a data service that monitors and publishes compilations of earnings estimates by selected research analysts regarding companies of interest to institutional investors.

In each case assuming a notional merger consideration of $48.00 per Roadway share, Deutsche Bank calculated that, on a trailing twelve month basis:

the multiple of enterprise value to revenues was 0.4x for Roadway, compared to a range of 0.3x to 0.7x, with a median of 0.4x, for the selected companies;

the multiple of enterprise value to EBITDA was 6.4x for Roadway, compared to a range of 4.2x to 6.0x, with a median of 5.7x, for the selected companies; and the multiple of enterprise value to EBIT was 10.9x for Roadway, compared to a range of 9.6x to 12.9x, with a median of 10.9x, for the selected companies.

None of the companies used as a comparison is identical to Roadway. Accordingly, Deutsche Bank believes the analysis of publicly traded comparable companies is not simply mathematical. Rather, it involves complex considerations and qualitative judgments, reflected in Deutsche Bank's opinion, concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the selected companies and other factors that could affect the public trading value of the selected companies. Deutsche Bank also considered the potential impact of the collar on the value of the stock portion of the merger consideration and the implied valuation multiples for Roadway.

Analysis of Selected Precedent Transactions. Deutsche Bank reviewed the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of five completed mergers and acquisition transactions with enterprise values greater than $100 million since 1995 involving companies in the less-than-truckload industry, which Deutsche Bank refers to as the selected transactions. Deutsche Bank calculated various financial multiples and premiums over market value based on certain publicly available information for each of the selected transactions and compared them to corresponding financial multiples and premiums over market value for the merger. The transactions reviewed were:

Date announced	Target	Acquiror
August 2001	Arnold Industries	Roadway
November 2000	American Freightways	FedEx Corporation
June 1999	Jevic Transportation	Yellow
October 1997	Caliber System, Inc.	FedEx Corporation
July 1995	Worldway Corporation	Arkansas Best Corporation

In each case assuming a notional merger consideration of $48.00 per Roadway share, Deutsche Bank calculated that:

the multiple of enterprise value to trailing twelve month revenues was 0.4x for the merger compared to a range of 0.2x to 1.1x, with a median of 0.9x, for the selected transactions;

the multiple of enterprise value to trailing twelve month EBITDA was 6.4x for the merger compared to a range of 5.6x to 11.0x, with a median of 6.4x, for the selected transactions; and the multiple of enterprise value to trailing twelve month EBIT was 10.9x for the merger compared to a range of 8.9x to 25.2x, with a median of 10.3x, for the selected transactions.

Edgar Filing: YELLOW CORP - Form S-4

Deutsche Bank also considered the potential impact of the collar on the value of the stock portion of the merger consideration and the implied valuation multiples for Roadway.

Deutsche Bank also calculated that the selected transactions were effected at a premium to the acquired companies' per share market price four weeks prior to the announcement of the transaction and to the acquired companies' per share market price one day prior to announcement of the transaction ranging from 12% to 61% (with a median of 47%) and 5% to 61% (with a median of 16%), respectively, compared to premiums of 66% and 60%, respectively, for the merger (based on the per share market price four weeks and one day prior to the July 8, 2003 announcement of the proposed merger and a notional merger consideration of $48.00 per Roadway share). Deutsche Bank also considered the potential impact of the low and the high end of the collar on the value of the stock portion of the merger consideration and the implied premium to Roadway's share price.

All multiples for the selected transactions were based on public information available at the time of announcement of that transaction, without taking into account differing market and other conditions during the nine-year period during which the selected transactions occurred.

Because the reasons for, and circumstances surrounding, each of the precedent transactions analyzed were so diverse, and due to the inherent differences between the operations and financial conditions of Roadway and the companies involved in the selected transactions, Deutsche Bank believes that a comparable transaction analysis is not simply mathematical. Rather, it involves complex considerations and qualitative judgments, reflected in Deutsche Bank's opinion, concerning differences between the characteristics of these transactions and the merger that could affect the value of the subject companies and businesses and Roadway and Yellow.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Deutsche Bank performed a discounted cash flow analysis for Roadway. Deutsche Bank calculated the discounted cash flow values for Roadway as the sum of the net present values of:

the estimated future cash flow that Roadway will generate for the years 2004 through 2007, plus the value of Roadway at the end of that period.

The estimated future cash flows were based on the financial projections for Roadway for the years 2003 through 2007 prepared by Yellow's management. The terminal values of Roadway were calculated based on projected EBITDA for 2007 and a range of multiples of 5.5x and 6.5x. Deutsche Bank used discount rates ranging from 9.0% to 10.0%. Deutsche Bank used these discount rates based on its judgment of the estimated weighted average cost of capital of Roadway, and used these multiples based on its review of the trading characteristics of the common stock of the selected companies as well as the transaction multiples implied by the selected transactions. This analysis indicated a range of values of $47.97 to $59.27 per share, excluding synergies, which Deutsche Bank compared to the merger consideration.

Pro Forma Combined Earnings Analysis. Deutsche Bank analyzed certain pro forma effects of the merger. Based on this analysis, Deutsche Bank computed the resulting dilution/accretion to the combined company's earnings per share estimates for the fiscal years ending 2004 and 2005, before and after taking into account any potential synergies identified by Yellow management and before non-recurring costs relating to the merger. Deutsche Bank noted that assuming Yellow's stock price remained within the range of the collar and before taking into account any potential synergies and before non-recurring costs, the merger would be approximately 9.7% dilutive and 9.4% dilutive to the combined company's earnings per share for the fiscal years ending 2004 and 2005, respectively. Deutsche Bank also noted that after taking into account the potential synergies for the fiscal years ending 2004 and 2005, respectively, and before non-recurring costs, the merger would be approximately 0.3% accretive to the combined company's earnings per share for the fiscal year ending 2004 and approximately 14.0% accretive to the combined company's earnings per share for the fiscal year ending 2005. Deutsche Bank also considered the potential impact on the combined company's earnings per share estimates for the fiscal years ending 2004 and 2005, in the event that Yellow's stock price traded outside the collar.

The preceding summary describes all analyses and factors that Deutsche Bank deemed material in its presentation to Yellow's board of directors, but is not a comprehensive description of all analyses performed and factors considered by Deutsche Bank in connection with preparing its opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving the application of subjective business judgment in determining the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, is not readily susceptible to summary description. Deutsche Bank believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that considering any portion of its analyses and of the factors considered without considering all analyses and factors could create a misleading view of the process underlying the opinion. In arriving at its fairness determination, Deutsche Bank did not assign specific weights to any particular analyses.

Edgar Filing: YELLOW CORP - Form S-4

In conducting its analyses and arriving at its opinion, Deutsche Bank used a variety of generally accepted valuation methods. The analyses were prepared solely for the purpose of enabling Deutsche Bank to provide its opinion to the Yellow board of directors as to the fairness from a financial point of view to Yellow of the consideration to be paid by Yellow to the Roadway stockholders in the merger and do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily to reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold, which are inherently subject to uncertainty. In connection with its analyses, Deutsche Bank made, and was provided by Yellow management with, numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond Yellow's or Roadway's control. Analyses based on estimates or forecasts of future results are not necessarily indicative of actual past or future values or results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by these analyses. Because these analyses are inherently subject to uncertainty, being based upon numerous factors or events beyond the control of Yellow, Roadway or their respective advisors, neither Yellow nor Deutsche Bank nor any other person assumes responsibility if future results or actual values are materially different from these forecasts or assumptions.

The terms of the merger were determined through negotiations between Yellow and Roadway and were approved by the Yellow board of directors. Although Deutsche Bank provided advice to Yellow during the course of these negotiations, the decision to enter into the merger was solely that of the Yellow board of directors. As described above, the opinion and presentation of Deutsche Bank to the Yellow board of directors were only one of a number of factors taken into consideration by the Yellow board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger. Deutsche Bank's opinion was provided to the Yellow board of directors to assist it in connection with its consideration of the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how to vote with respect to the merger, the stock issuance or any other matter.

Yellow selected Deutsche Bank as financial advisor in connection with the merger based on Deutsche Bank's qualifications, expertise, reputation and experience in mergers and acquisitions. Yellow has retained Deutsche Bank pursuant to an engagement letter dated July 7, 2003. As compensation for Deutsche Bank's services in connection with the merger, Yellow agreed to pay Deutsche Bank:

a cash retainer fee of $100,000 which became payable on July 7, 2003;

an additional cash opinion fee of $1,500,000, which became payable upon the rendering of Deutsche Bank's opinion; an additional cash fee of $2,000,000, which became payable upon execution of the Merger Agreement; and an additional cash fee of $3,400,000, payable if the merger is consummated. Regardless of whether the merger is consummated, Yellow has agreed to reimburse Deutsche Bank for reasonable fees and disbursements of Deutsche Bank's counsel and all of Deutsche Bank's reasonable travel and other out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the merger or otherwise arising out of the retention of Deutsche Bank under the engagement letter.

Yellow has also agreed to indemnify Deutsche Bank and certain related persons to the full extent lawful against certain liabilities, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws arising out of its engagement or the merger.

Deutsche Bank is an internationally recognized investment banking firm experienced in providing advice in connection with mergers and acquisitions and related transactions. Deutsche Bank and its affiliates have, from time to time, provided investment banking services to Yellow or its affiliates for which they have received compensation. One or more affiliates of Deutsche Bank currently are parties to existing credit facilities under which they may be obligated to lend to Yellow upon its request, although Yellow currently has no outstanding indebtedness to Deutsche Bank or its affiliates under the existing facilities. One or more affiliates of Deutsche Bank also have agreed to provide financing to Yellow in connection with the merger in order to replace the existing facilities, for which they will receive compensation. Deutsche Bank was also one of the initial purchasers and the sole book-running manager in Yellow's recent offering of its 5.0% contingent convertible senior notes due 2023, for which Deutsche Bank received compensation. Deutsche Bank and its affiliates may actively trade securities of Yellow or Roadway for their own account or the account of their customers and, accordingly, may from time to time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Roadway's Reasons for the Merger

The Roadway board of directors believes that the terms of the merger are advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, Roadway and has unanimously recommended that Roadway stockholders vote for the approval of the merger.

In reaching its conclusion, Roadway considered, among other factors:

the consideration to be received by Roadway's stockholders, which, as of July 8, 2003 when the merger was publicly announced, represented a 49% premium over the average closing price for Roadway common stock during the 60 trading days immediately prior to the public announcement of the merger;

the structure of the collar on the exchange ratio, which provides for a fixed exchange ratio of 1.924 shares of Yellow common stock if Yellow's average closing price is between $21.21 per share and $28.69 per share and a fixed value of $21.21 per share if Yellow's average closing price is below $21.21, thereby protecting Roadway stockholders against a decline in Yellow's average closing price below $21.21 per share;

the results of an examination of strategic alternatives, including remaining independent, acquiring other companies or businesses or a sale to another third party, and the determination that a merger with Yellow, a company with an excellent reputation and a significant presence in the transportation business, would benefit Roadway and its stockholders as well as its employees and customers in more ways than remaining independent, acquiring other companies or businesses or as a potential target of a third party;

the ability of Roadway stockholders to elect to exchange their shares for cash, Yellow common stock or a combination of both, subject to the proration and allocation provisions described in this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

the ability to consummate the merger as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes; the current industry, economic and market conditions and trends and the likelihood of continuing consolidation and increasing competition in the industry;

the opportunities for the combined company to benefit from revenue synergies and cost savings following completion of the merger;

the opportunity for the stockholders of Roadway to participate in a larger combined company and to benefit from future growth of the combined company;

the determination that a combined Yellow and Roadway is in a better position to serve Roadway's customers in the long term, because it is a broader based company (both on a products and geographic basis) with a greater ability to provide appropriate service;

Edgar Filing: YELLOW CORP - Form S-4

the financial presentation of Credit Suisse First Boston, including its opinion dated July 8, 2003 to Roadway's board of directors as to the fairness, from a financial point of view and as of the date of the opinion, of the merger consideration to be received by holders of Roadway common stock, as more fully described below under the caption "Opinion of Credit Suisse First Boston LLC, Financial Advisor to Roadway Corporation" beginning on page 48 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus;

the ownership by Roadway stockholders of approximately 40% of Yellow's common stock after the merger (assuming that Yellow's average closing price is within the collar); and the fact that three of Roadway's directors would be nominated to join Yellow's board of directors if and when the merger is completed.

In addition to the above factors, in the course of its meetings, the Roadway board of directors reviewed and considered a wide variety of information relevant to the merger, including:

information concerning Roadway's and Yellow's businesses, historical financial performance and condition, operations, customers, competitive positions, prospects and management;

current financial market conditions and historical market prices, volatility and trading information with respect to Roadway common stock and Yellow common stock; discussions with Roadway's management and legal and financial advisors as to the results of their due diligence investigations of Yellow;

the potential impact of the merger on customers, employees and other constituencies of Roadway; and the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, including the parties' representations, warranties, covenants and conditions to their respective obligations, as well as:

the ability of Roadway's board of directors to consider unsolicited, superior acquisition proposals from third parties; and the size of the termination fee provided in the merger agreement and the circumstances in which it is payable, which the Roadway board of directors believes would not reasonably be expected to discourage competing business combination proposals from third parties.

The Roadway board also considered countervailing factors in its deliberations concerning the merger, including:

the possibility that the merger might not be completed, or that completion might be unduly delayed; the risk that the potential benefits sought in the merger might not be fully realized; the risk that, because of potential proration, Roadway stockholders may receive a form of consideration in the merger different from that which they elected to receive, and the potential tax consequences to these Roadway stockholders;

the fact that Yellow has the right to terminate the merger agreement if Yellow's average closing price is less than $16.63;

the limitations upon the interim business operations of Roadway imposed by the merger agreement and the risks to Roadway's continuing businesses if the merger is not consummated, including the potential negative impact of the ability of Roadway to retain key employees if the merger is not consummated; and various other risks associated with the merger and the businesses of Roadway, Yellow and the combined company described in the section entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page 23 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Edgar Filing: YELLOW CORP - Form S-4

The above discussion of the information and factors considered by the Roadway board includes the material factors considered by the Roadway board and is not intended to be exhaustive of all factors considered by the Roadway board. In view of the wide variety of factors, both positive and negative, considered by the Roadway board, the Roadway board did not find it practical to, and did not, quantify or otherwise seek to assign relative weights to the specific factors considered. After taking into consideration all of the factors described above as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the Roadway board continues to believe that the merger is advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of Roadway and its stockholders and continues to recommend adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Recommendation of the Roadway Board of Directors

After careful consideration of the factors discussed above, including the terms of the merger agreement and the merger, and without weight to any specific factor, the members of Roadway's board of directors voting on the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including the merger, have determined that the terms of the merger agreement and the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement are advisable and fair to, and in the best interests of, Roadway and its stockholders.

The Roadway board recommends that Roadway stockholders vote at the Roadway special meeting to adopt the merger agreement and approve the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Opinion of Credit Suisse First Boston LLC, Financial Advisor to Roadway Corporation

Credit Suisse First Boston LLC has acted as Roadway's exclusive financial advisor in connection with the merger. Roadway selected Credit Suisse First Boston based on Credit Suisse First Boston's experience, reputation and familiarity with Roadway and its business. Credit Suisse First Boston is an internationally recognized investment banking firm and is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses and securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, leveraged buyouts, negotiated underwritings, competitive biddings, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for corporate and other purposes.

In connection with Credit Suisse First Boston's engagement, Roadway requested that Credit Suisse First Boston evaluate the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to the holders of Roadway common stock. On July 8, 2003, at a meeting of Roadway's board of directors held to evaluate the merger, Credit Suisse First Boston rendered to Roadway's board an oral opinion, which opinion was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion dated the same date, to the effect that, as of that date and based on and subject to the matters described in its opinion, the merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Roadway common stock.

The full text of Credit Suisse First Boston's written opinion, dated July 8, 2003, to Roadway's board of directors, which sets forth the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken, is attached as Annex C and is incorporated into this joint proxy statement/prospectus by reference. Holders of Roadway common stock are encouraged to read this opinion carefully and in its entirety. Credit Suisse First Boston's opinion was provided to Roadway's board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the merger consideration and relates only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration. Credit Suisse First Boston's opinion does not address any other aspect of the proposed merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how any stockholder should vote or act with respect to any matters relating to the proposed merger or the form of merger consideration, if any, to be elected by any stockholder. The summary of Credit Suisse First Boston's opinion in this joint proxy statement/prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion.

In arriving at its opinion, Credit Suisse First Boston reviewed the merger agreement and publicly available business and financial information relating to Roadway and Yellow. Credit Suisse First Boston also reviewed other information relating to Roadway and Yellow, including financial forecasts, provided to or discussed with Credit Suisse First Boston by the managements of Roadway and Yellow and met with the managements of Roadway and Yellow to discuss the businesses and prospects of Roadway and Yellow. Credit Suisse First Boston considered financial and stock market data of Roadway and Yellow and compared those data with similar data for publicly held companies in businesses similar to Roadway and Yellow and considered, to the extent publicly available, the financial terms of other business combinations and transactions which have been effected. Credit Suisse First Boston also considered other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria that it deemed relevant.

In connection with its review, Credit Suisse First Boston did not assume any responsibility for independent verification of any of the information that it reviewed or considered and relied on that information being complete and accurate in all material respects. With respect to financial forecasts relating to Roadway and Yellow, Credit Suisse First Boston was advised, and assumed, that the forecasts were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the managements of Roadway and Yellow as to the future financial performance of Roadway and Yellow and the potential cost savings and other synergies, including the amount, timing and achievability of these cost savings and other synergies, anticipated to result from the merger. Credit Suisse First Boston also assumed, with Roadway's consent, that the merger would be treated as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. Credit Suisse First Boston further assumed, with Roadway's consent, that the merger would be consummated as set forth in the merger agreement without waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and that, in the course of obtaining any regulatory or third-party consents, approvals or agreements in connection with the merger, no limitations, restrictions or conditions would be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Roadway, Yellow or the contemplated benefits of the merger.

Credit Suisse First Boston was not requested to, and it did not, make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities, contingent or otherwise, of Roadway or Yellow, and Credit Suisse First Boston was not furnished with any evaluations or appraisals. Credit Suisse First Boston's opinion was necessarily based on information available to it, and financial, economic, market and other conditions as they existed and could be evaluated, on the date of Credit Suisse First Boston's opinion. Credit Suisse First Boston did not express any opinion as to what the actual value of Yellow common stock will be when issued in the merger or the prices at which Yellow common stock will trade at any time. In connection with its engagement, Credit Suisse First Boston was not requested to, and it did not, solicit third-party indications of interest in acquiring all or any part of Roadway. Credit Suisse First Boston's opinion did not address the relative merits of the merger as compared to other business strategies that might be available to Roadway or Roadway's underlying business decision to proceed with the merger. Although Credit Suisse First Boston evaluated the merger consideration from a financial point of view, Credit Suisse First Boston was not requested to, and it did not, recommend the specific consideration payable in the merger, which consideration was determined between Roadway and Yellow. Except as described above, Roadway imposed no other limitations on Credit Suisse First Boston with respect to the investigations made or procedures followed in rendering its opinion.

In preparing its opinion to Roadway's board of directors, Credit Suisse First Boston performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses, including those described below. The summary of Credit Suisse First Boston's analyses described below is not a complete description of the analyses underlying its opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, a fairness opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Credit Suisse First Boston made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor that it considered. Accordingly, Credit Suisse First Boston believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and factors or focusing on information presented in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the narrative description of the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying its analyses and opinion.

In its analyses, Credit Suisse First Boston considered industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Roadway and Yellow. No company, transaction or business used in Credit Suisse First Boston's analyses as a comparison is identical to Roadway, Yellow or the proposed merger, and an evaluation of the results of those analyses is not entirely mathematical. Rather, the analyses involve complex considerations and judgments concerning financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the acquisition, public trading or other values of the companies, business segments or transactions analyzed. The estimates contained in Credit Suisse First Boston's analyses and the ranges of valuations resulting from any particular analysis are not necessarily indicative of actual values or predictive of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by the analyses. In addition, analyses relating to the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold. Accordingly, the estimates used in, and the results derived from, Credit Suisse First Boston's analyses are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty.

Credit Suisse First Boston's opinion and financial analyses were only one of many factors considered by Roadway's board of directors in its evaluation of the proposed merger and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of Roadway's board of directors or management with respect to the merger or the merger consideration.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses underlying Credit Suisse First Boston's opinion dated July 8, 2003 delivered to Roadway's board of directors in connection with the merger. The financial analyses summarized below include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand Credit Suisse First Boston's financial analyses, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. Considering the data in the tables below without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of Credit Suisse First Boston's financial analyses.

Pro Forma Accretion/Dilution Analysis

Credit Suisse First Boston analyzed the potential pro forma financial effect of the merger on Yellow's calendar years 2004 and 2005 estimated diluted earnings per share, both before and after giving effect to potential cost savings and other synergies anticipated by Yellow's management to result from the merger. Estimated financial data for Roadway were based on internal estimates of Roadway's management, and estimated financial data for Yellow were based on internal estimates of Yellow's management. Based on the merger consideration, this analysis indicated that the proposed merger could be dilutive to Yellow's diluted earnings per share, both before and after giving effect to potential cost savings and other synergies. The actual results achieved by the combined company may vary from projected results and the variations may be material.

Other Factors

In the course of preparing its opinion, Credit Suisse First Boston also reviewed and considered other information and data, including:

the impact of the low and high ends of the collar on the value of the stock portion of the merger consideration; publicly available research analysts' reports for Roadway and Yellow, including earnings per share and share price targets of those analysts for Roadway and Yellow; and the pro forma financial effect of the merger on Yellow's capitalization as of March 31, 2003, and the pro forma financial effect of the merger on the credit statistics of Yellow as compared to the credit statistics of the National Less-Than-Truckload Carriers and Regional Less-Than-Truckload Carriers referenced above under the heading "Roadway Analyses - Selected Companies Analysis" beginning on page 50 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

In the ordinary course of business, Credit Suisse First Boston and its affiliates may actively trade the securities of Roadway and Yellow for their own accounts and for the accounts of customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold long or short positions in those securities.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

Roadway Directors and Officers. In considering the recommendation of the Roadway board of directors with respect to the merger, Roadway stockholders should be aware that some directors and officers have interests in the merger that are different from Roadway stockholders generally. The Roadway board was aware of these interests and took them into account in approving the merger, including the following:

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, three of the seven members of the Roadway board will be appointed directors of Yellow Roadway.

Under the terms of the change in control severance agreements entered into between Roadway and certain of its officers, if an officer's employment with Roadway (or its successor) is terminated during the severance period (as defined in the officer's change in control severance agreement), that officer is entitled to severance benefits, including excise tax gross-up payments. See Change in Control Severance Agreements.

Effective July 8, 2003, neither Roadway nor Yellow may amend the Roadway Flexible Benefits Plan to provide retiree medical, dental or vision coverage to eligible retired employees, including some eligible retired officers of Roadway (a group which includes Michael W. Wickham), that is less favorable than that offered to a substantial portion of active employees of Roadway or any successor.

Upon the consummation of the merger, retired Roadway officers, including Michael W. Wickham, are entitled to receive a lump sum distribution of the present value of their remaining accrued benefits under the Roadway Excess Plan and the Roadway 401(a)(17) Benefit Plan.

As of the initial filing date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the accounts of some officers under the Roadway Deferred Compensation Plan were credited with a dollar amount equal to the present value of all remaining retirement credits that they would have received through the year 2013. In addition, all cash (including accelerated retirement credits) and deferred shares held for the benefit of each officer under the Roadway Deferred Compensation Plan were distributed to that officer on the day after the initial filing date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus under the terms of the Roadway Deferred Compensation Plan.

Edgar Filing: YELLOW CORP - Form S-4

As of the initial filing date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, all unvested restricted stock issued to officers under the Roadway Management Incentive Stock Plan and Roadway Equity Ownership Plan and to non-employee directors under the Roadway Non-Employee Directors Equity Ownership Plan vested.

As of the initial filing date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, all unvested stock options issued to officers under the Roadway Equity Ownership Plan vested under the terms of the Roadway Equity Ownership Plan.

At the effective time of the merger, option holders (a group which includes many officers and directors) will receive a stock, and in some cases a cash, payment in exchange for the cancellation and termination of their unexercised options in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement.

Under the merger agreement, Yellow has agreed to indemnify and hold harmless all past and present officers and directors of Roadway for acts or omissions occurring at and prior to the effective time of the merger and to promptly advance reasonable litigation expenses incurred by these officers and directors in connection with investigating, preparing and defending any action arising out of these acts or omissions.

For a period of six years after the effective time of the merger, Yellow has agreed that it will provide Roadway's current officers and directors with an insurance and indemnification policy that provides for coverage of events occurring prior to the effective time that is no less favorable than the existing policy or, if substantially equivalent insurance coverage is unavailable, the best available coverage. However, Yellow will not be required to pay an annual premium for this insurance in excess of $3,944,400 (two times the last annual premium paid by Roadway preceding the date of the merger agreement).

Roadway directors and officers beneficially owned, as of the record date, approximately % of the outstanding Roadway common stock, including those shares of Roadway common stock underlying outstanding stock options.

The following table shows the number of options held by executive officers and directors of Roadway that were vested before the date of the initial filing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus with exercise prices of $24.00 or less, the number of options held by executive officers and directors of Roadway that became vested as a result of the initial filing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus with exercise prices of $24.00 or less, the number of options held by executive officers and directors of Roadway that were vested before the date of the initial filing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus with exercise prices of more than $24.00 and the number of options held by executive officers and directors of Roadway that became vested as a result of the initial filing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus with exercise prices of more than $24.00.

Change in Control Severance Agreements

Upon the consummation of the merger, if the employment of an officer who is party to a change in control severance agreement with Roadway is terminated during the severance period (as defined in the officer's change in control severance agreement) for any reason other than for cause or as a result of his death or disability, or if the officer terminates his employment for good reason (as defined in his change in control severance agreement), the officer will be entitled to severance compensation as follows:

a lump sum payment in an amount equal to two, or in one case three, times the sum of his base pay (at the highest rate in effect for any period within five years prior to his termination date), plus his incentive pay (in an amount equal to not less than the highest target or payout incentive pay rate in any of the five fiscal years immediately preceding the year in which the change in control occurred);

for 24 months following his termination date, welfare benefits substantially similar to those that he was receiving or entitled to receive immediately prior to the termination these welfare benefits will be reduced to the extent that comparable benefits are actually received from another employer during the 24 month period;

a lump sum payment in an amount equal to the present value of the excess of the retirement income and other benefits that would be payable to him under the retirement plans if he had continued to be employed as an active participant in the retirement plans for the 24 month period following his termination date given his base pay and incentive pay (as determined above) over the retirement income and other benefits that he is entitled to receive (either immediately or on a deferred basis) under the retirement plans;

a lump sum payment in an amount equal to the cost of providing medical coverage to him from the expiration of the 24 month period following his termination date until he is entitled to receive Medicare; reasonable fees for outplacement services, by a firm selected by him, at the expense of Roadway, in an amount not in excess of 20% of his base pay;

financial counseling during the 24 month period following the termination date in a manner similar to that provided to him prior to the change in control; reimbursement for any additional tax liability incurred as a result of excise taxes imposed or payments deemed to be attributable to the change in control; in the event that any payment or benefit required under his change in control severance agreement is not provided, he will be entitled to interest on the amount or value thereof at an annualized rate of interest equal to the prime rate plus 4%; a lump sum cash payment equal to the value of any annual bonus or long-term incentive pay (other than equity-based compensation) earned or accrued with respect to his service during the performance period that includes the date on which the change in control occurred calculated at the plan target or payout rate, but prorated to base payment only on the portion of his service that had elapsed during the applicable performance period; and payment of any and all legal fees incurred as a result of efforts to enforce his change in control severance agreement.

It is presently estimated, based on certain assumptions, including the assumed value of Roadway common stock of $48.00 per share and other currently available data, that if the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement occur, the following Roadway executive officers will be entitled to severance and other benefits in the following amounts (assuming that the executive officers become entitled to severance benefits, as described above), which include required excise tax gross-up payments:

Accounting Treatment

Edgar Filing: YELLOW CORP - Form S-4

The merger will be accounted for as a business combination using the purchase method of accounting. Yellow will be the acquiror for financial accounting purposes.

Opinions that the Merger Constitutes a Reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code

The completion of the merger is conditioned on, among other things, the receipt of opinions from tax counsel for each of Yellow and Roadway that the merger will qualify as a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. These opinions will be delivered only if, among other things, the Roadway stockholders receive in the merger, in the aggregate, Yellow shares with a value equal to at least 45% of the combined value of the total consideration paid for all Roadway shares, taking into account, among other things, the amount of cash paid or deemed paid to Roadway stockholders in connection with the merger (including cash received by Roadway stockholders who perfect their dissenters' rights and cash received in lieu of fractional Yellow shares).

As described further under "The Merger Agreement - Allocation and Proration" on page 68 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, the value of Yellow shares for purposes of determining the combined value of the total consideration paid by Yellow for all Roadway shares, will be valued at the lesser of the average of the closing price as reported in the Wall Street Journal for each of the 20 consecutive trading days in the period ending five trading days prior to the closing date of the merger, the average of the high and low trading prices of the Yellow shares on the day before the closing date of the merger, or if determined to be more appropriate by either Jones Day or Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P., the prices of Yellow shares on the closing date of the merger as reported on the Nasdaq National Market.

In addition to the market value of the Yellow common stock on the date of the merger and the other items described above, various factors affect the determination of whether the value of the Yellow common stock received by the Roadway stockholders in the merger is equal to at least 45% of the combined value of the total consideration paid for all Roadway shares, including:

the amount, if any, to be paid to Roadway stockholders who perfect their dissenters' rights;

whether prior to or in connection with the merger Roadway or Yellow (or parties related to either) redeems or acquires Roadway shares or makes distributions to the Roadway stockholders; and whether there will be any repurchases by Yellow (or parties related to Yellow) of the Yellow common stock to be issued in the merger.

None of Roadway, Yellow or any corporation related to Roadway or Yellow has redeemed or purchased, or has any plan or intention to redeem or purchase, any Roadway shares in connection with the merger. Neither Yellow or any corporation related to Yellow has any plan or intention to repurchase any of the Yellow common stock to be issued in the merger.

Accordingly, it may not be possible to state with certainty the minimum trading price of the Yellow common stock that would cause the value of the Yellow shares to be received in the merger to be equal to at least 45% of the combined value of the total consideration paid for all Roadway shares.

Regulatory Matters

Edgar Filing: YELLOW CORP - Form S-4

Under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act, the merger may not be completed unless Yellow and Roadway file premerger notification and report forms with the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division of the U.S. Department of Justice and the waiting periods expire or are terminated. On July 17, 2003, Yellow and Roadway submitted the regulatory filings to the Federal Trade Commission and the Antitrust Division. Yellow and Roadway received a second request for information from the Antitrust Division on August 18, 2003. The waiting period under the HSR Act will expire 30 days after the companies substantially comply with such request, unless early termination of the waiting period before that time is received.

Each state and foreign country in which Yellow or Roadway has operations also may review the merger under state or foreign antitrust laws.

At any time before the effective time of the merger, the Federal Trade Commission, the Antitrust Division, a state or non-U.S. governmental authority or a private person or an entity could seek under the antitrust laws, among other things, to enjoin the merger or to cause Yellow or Roadway to divest assets or businesses as a condition to completion of the merger. If a challenge to the merger is made, Yellow and Roadway may not prevail. The obligations of Yellow and Roadway to consummate the merger are subject to the condition that there be no order or injunction of a U.S. or non-U.S. court of competent jurisdiction or other governmental authority that prohibits the consummation of the merger. While the parties have agreed to use their reasonable efforts with respect to antitrust matters, neither Yellow nor Roadway is under any obligation to defend any litigation relating to the merger under federal or state antitrust laws or sell or dispose of any of their assets.

Yellow and Roadway believe that they will obtain all material required regulatory approvals prior to the special meetings. It is not certain, however, that all approvals will be received by that time, or at all, and governmental authorities may impose unfavorable conditions for granting the required approvals.

Other than as we describe in this document, the merger does not require the approval of any other U.S. federal or state or foreign agency.

Board of Directors and Management of Yellow Roadway Following the Merger

Immediately following the merger, the Yellow Roadway board will increase to ten directors. The Yellow Roadway board will then elect Frank P. Doyle, John F. Fiedler and Phillip J. Meek, all of whom are existing Roadway directors, to fill the newly created vacancies. The ten board members will serve until the Yellow Roadway 2004 annual meeting of stockholders or until their successors are elected and qualified. Set forth below is information regarding Messrs. Doyle, Fiedler and Meek.

Following the merger, William D. Zollars, currently Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Yellow, will remain in these positions in Yellow Roadway. James D. ## Appraisal and Dissenters' Rights

Under the DGCL, any Roadway stockholder who does not wish to accept the merger consideration has the right to dissent from the merger and to seek an appraisal of, and to be paid the fair value (exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger) for his or her shares of Roadway common stock, so long as the stockholder complies with the provisions of Section 262 of the DGCL.

Holders of record of Roadway common stock who do not vote in favor of the merger agreement and who otherwise comply with the applicable statutory procedures summarized in this joint proxy statement/prospectus will be entitled to appraisal rights under Section 262 of the DGCL. A person having a beneficial interest in shares of Roadway common stock held of record in the name of another person, such as a broker or nominee, must act promptly to cause the record holder to follow the steps summarized below properly and in a timely manner to perfect appraisal rights.

THE FOLLOWING DISCUSSION IS NOT A COMPLETE STATEMENT OF THE LAW PERTAINING TO APPRAISAL RIGHTS UNDER THE DGCL AND IS QUALIFIED IN ITS ENTIRETY BY THE FULL TEXT OF SECTION 262 OF THE DGCL, WHICH IS REPRINTED IN ITS ENTIRETY AS ANNEX D. ALL REFERENCES IN SECTION 262 OF THE DGCL AND IN THIS SUMMARY TO A STOCKHOLDER OR HOLDER ARE TO THE RECORD HOLDER OF THE SHARES OF COMMON STOCK AS TO WHICH APPRAISAL RIGHTS ARE ASSERTED.

Under Section 262 of the DGCL, holders of shares of Roadway common stock who follow the procedures set forth in Section 262 of the DGCL will be entitled to have their Roadway common stock appraised by the Delaware Chancery Court and to receive payment in cash of the fair value of these Roadway shares, exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, as determined by that court.

Under Section 262 of the DGCL, when a proposed merger is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, must notify each of its stockholders who was a stockholder on the record date for this meeting with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available, that appraisal rights are so available, and must include in this required notice a copy of Section 262 of the DGCL.

This joint proxy statement/prospectus constitutes the required notice to the holders of these Roadway shares and the applicable statutory provisions of the DGCL are attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex D. Any stockholder who wishes to exercise his or her appraisal rights or who wishes to preserve his or her right to do so should review the following discussion and Annex D carefully, because failure to timely and properly comply with the procedures specified in Annex D will result in the loss of appraisal rights under the DGCL.

A holder of Roadway shares wishing to exercise his or her appraisal rights (a) must not vote in favor of the merger agreement and (b) must deliver to Roadway prior to the vote on the merger agreement at the Roadway special meeting, a written demand for appraisal of his or her Roadway shares. This written demand for appraisal must be in addition to and separate from any proxy or vote abstaining from or against the merger. This demand must reasonably inform Roadway of the identity of the stockholder and of the stockholder's intent thereby to demand appraisal of his or her shares. A holder of Roadway common stock wishing to exercise his or her holder's appraisal rights must be the record holder of these Roadway shares on the date the written demand for appraisal is made and must continue to hold these Roadway shares until the consummation of the merger. Accordingly, a holder of Roadway common stock who is the record holder of Roadway common stock on the date the written demand for appraisal is made, but who thereafter transfers these Roadway shares prior to consummation of the merger, will lose any right to appraisal in respect of these Roadway shares.

Only a holder of record of Roadway common stock is entitled to assert appraisal rights for the Roadway shares registered in that holder's name. A demand for appraisal should be executed by or on behalf of the holder of record, fully and correctly, as the holder's name appears on the holder's stock certificates. If the Roadway shares are owned of record in a fiduciary capacity, such as by a trustee, guardian or custodian, execution of the demand should be made in that capacity, and if the Roadway common stock is owned of record by more than one owner as in a joint tenancy or tenancy in common, the demand should be executed by or on behalf of all joint owners. An authorized agent, including one or more joint owners, may execute a demand for appraisal on behalf of a holder of record. The agent, however, must identify the record owner or owners and expressly disclose the fact that, in executing the demand, the agent is agent for the owner or owners. A record holder such as a broker who holds Roadway common stock as nominee for several beneficial owners may exercise appraisal rights with respect to the Roadway shares held for one or more beneficial owners while not exercising appraisal rights with respect to the Roadway common stock held for other beneficial owners. In this case, the written demand should set forth the number of Roadway shares as to which appraisal is sought. When no number of Roadway shares is expressly mentioned, the demand will be presumed to cover all Roadway common stock in brokerage accounts or other nominee forms, and those who wish to exercise appraisal rights under Section 262 of the DGCL are urged to consult with their brokers to determine the appropriate procedures for the making of a demand for appraisal by such a nominee.

ALL WRITTEN DEMANDS FOR APPRAISAL SHOULD BE SENT OR DELIVERED TO ROADWAY CORPORATION, 1077 GORGE BOULEVARD, AKRON, OHIO 44310, ATTENTION: SECRETARY.

Within ten days after the consummation of the merger, the surviving company will notify each stockholder who has properly asserted appraisal rights under Section 262 of the DGCL and has not voted in favor of the merger agreement of the date the merger became effective.

Within 120 days after the consummation of the merger, but not thereafter, the surviving company or any stockholder who has complied with the statutory requirements summarized above may file a petition in the Delaware Chancery Court demanding a determination of the fair value of the Roadway common stock. None of Yellow, Sub or Roadway is under any obligation to and none of them has any present intention to file a petition with respect to the appraisal of the fair value of the Roadway shares. Accordingly, it is the obligation of stockholders wishing to assert appraisal rights to initiate all necessary action to perfect their appraisal rights within the time prescribed in Section 262 of the DGCL.

Within 120 days after the consummation of the merger, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements for exercise of appraisal rights will be entitled, upon written request, to receive from the surviving company a statement setting forth the aggregate number of Roadway shares not voted in favor of adoption of the merger agreement and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of these Roadway shares. These statements must be mailed within ten days after a written request therefor has been received by the surviving company.

If a petition for an appraisal is filed timely, after a hearing on the petition, the Delaware Chancery Court will determine the stockholders entitled to appraisal rights and will appraise the fair value of their Roadway shares, exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. Stockholders considering seeking appraisal should be aware that the fair value of their Roadway shares as determined under Section 262 of the DGCL could be more than, the same as or less than the value of the consideration they would receive pursuant to the merger agreement if they did not seek appraisal of their Roadway shares and that investment banking opinions as to fairness from a financial point of view are not necessarily opinions as to fair value under Section 262 of the DGCL. The Delaware Supreme Court has stated that proof of value by any techniques or methods which are generally considered acceptable in the financial community and otherwise admissible in court should be considered in the appraisal proceedings.

The Delaware Chancery Court will determine the amount of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amounts to be received by stockholders whose Roadway shares have been appraised. The costs of the action may be determined by the Delaware Chancery Court and taxed upon the parties as the Delaware Chancery Court deems equitable. The Delaware Chancery Court may also order that all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with an appraisal, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and the fees and expenses of experts used in the appraisal proceeding, be charged pro rata against the value of all of the Roadway shares entitled to appraisal.

Any holder of Roadway common stock who has duly demanded an appraisal in compliance with Section 262 of the DGCL will not, after the consummation of the merger, be entitled to vote the Roadway shares subject to this demand for any purpose or be entitled to the payment of dividends or other distributions on those Roadway shares (except dividends or other distributions payable to holders of record of Roadway common stock as of a record date prior to the consummation of the merger).

If any stockholder who properly demands appraisal of his or her Roadway common stock under Section 262 of the DGCL fails to perfect, or effectively withdraws or loses, his or her right to appraisal, as provided in Section 262 of the DGCL, the Roadway shares of that stockholder will be converted into the right to receive the consideration receivable with respect to these Roadway shares in accordance with the merger agreement. A stockholder will fail to perfect, or effectively lose or withdraw, his or her right to appraisal if, among other things, no petition for appraisal is filed within 120 days after the consummation of the merger, or if the stockholder delivers to Roadway or the surviving company, as the case may be, a written withdrawal of his or her demand for appraisal. Any attempt to withdraw an appraisal demand in this matter more than 60 days after the consummation of the merger will require the written approval of the surviving company.

Failure to follow the steps required by Section 262 of the DGCL for perfecting appraisal rights may result in the loss of these rights, in which event a stockholder will be entitled to receive the consideration receivable with respect to his or her Roadway shares in accordance with the merger agreement.

Delisting and Deregistration of Roadway Common Stock

If the merger is completed, the shares of Roadway common stock will be delisted from the Nasdaq National Market and will be deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The stockholders of Roadway will become stockholders of Yellow and their rights as stockholders will be governed by Yellow's certificate of incorporation and bylaws and by the laws of the State of Delaware. See "Comparison of Stockholders Rights" beginning on page 101 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.

Federal Securities Laws Consequences; Resale Restrictions

All shares of Yellow common stock that will be distributed to Roadway stockholders in the merger will be freely transferable, except for restrictions applicable to affiliates of Roadway. Persons who are deemed to be affiliates of Roadway may resell Yellow shares received by them only in transactions permitted by the resale provisions of Rule 145 or as otherwise permitted under the Securities Act of 1933. Persons who may be deemed to be affiliates of Roadway generally include executive officers, directors and significant stockholders of Roadway. The merger agreement requires Roadway to cause each of its directors and executive officers who Roadway believes may be deemed to be affiliates of Roadway to execute a written agreement to the effect that those persons will not sell, assign or transfer any of the Yellow shares issued to them in the merger unless that sale, assignment or transfer has been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, is in conformity with Rule 145 or is otherwise exempt from the registration requirements under the Securities Act of 1933.

Edgar Filing: YELLOW CORP - Form S-4

This joint proxy statement/prospectus does not cover any resales of the Yellow shares to be received by Roadway's stockholders in the merger, and no person is authorized to make any use of this joint proxy statement/prospectus in connection with any resale.

MATERIAL UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following discussion summarizes material U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger to U.S. holders. This discussion is based upon the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, Treasury Regulations promulgated under the Internal Revenue Code, court decisions, published positions of the Internal Revenue Service and other applicable authorities, all as in effect on the date of this document and all of which are subject to change or differing interpretations, possibly with retroactive effect. This discussion is limited to holders who hold Roadway shares as capital assets for U.S. federal income tax purposes (generally, assets held for investment). This discussion does not address all of the U.S. federal income tax consequences that may be relevant to a holder in light of their particular circumstances or to holders who may be subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax laws, such as tax exempt organizations, foreign persons or entities, financial institutions, insurance companies, broker-dealers, holders who hold Roadway shares as part of a hedge, straddle, wash sale, synthetic security, conversion transaction, or other integrated investment comprised of Roadway shares and one or more investments, holders with a functional currency (as defined in the Internal Revenue Code) other than the U.S. dollar, and persons who acquired Roadway shares in compensatory transactions. Further, this discussion does not address any aspect of state, local or foreign taxation. No ruling has been or will be obtained from the Internal Revenue Service regarding any matter relating to the merger and no assurance can be given that the Internal Revenue Service will not assert, or that a court will not sustain, a position contrary to any of the tax aspects described below. Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the merger, as well as the effects of state, local and foreign tax laws.

As used in this summary, a U.S. holder includes:

an individual U.S. citizen or resident alien;

a corporation, partnership or other entity created or organized under U.S. law (federal or state);

an estate whose worldwide income is subject to U.S. federal income tax; or a trust if a court within the United States of America is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust.

If a partnership (including for this purpose any entity treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is a beneficial owner of Roadway shares, the tax treatment of a partner in that partnership will generally depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Holders of Roadway shares that are partnerships and partners in these partnerships are urged to consult their tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences of owning and disposing of Roadway shares in the merger.

THIS SUMMARY IS NOT A SUBSTITUTE FOR AN INDIVIDUAL ANALYSIS OF THE TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER TO YOU. WE URGE YOU TO CONSULT A TAX ADVISOR REGARDING THE PARTICULAR FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND FOREIGN TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE MERGER IN LIGHT OF YOUR OWN SITUATION.

Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P. and Jones Day will deliver opinions, effective as of the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus, to Yellow and Roadway, respectively, to the effect that, if the merger is consummated in accordance with the merger agreement, the merger will be treated for U.S. federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. It is a condition to the closing of the merger that these opinions are reaffirmed as of the closing date. If certain events, some of which are described below, occur between the date of this joint proxy statement/prospectus and the closing of the merger, each counsel may be unable to reaffirm its opinion.

Edgar Filing: YELLOW CORP - Form S-4

The opinions of Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P., counsel to Yellow, and Jones Day, counsel to Roadway, which are required as a condition to closing the merger, are and will be based on U.S. federal income tax law in effect as of the date of these opinions. An opinion of counsel is not binding on the Internal Revenue Service or any court. In rendering the opinions, Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P. and Jones Day will rely on certain assumptions, including assumptions regarding the absence of changes in existing facts and the completion of the merger strictly in accordance with the merger agreement and this joint proxy statement/prospectus. The opinions will also rely upon certain representations and covenants of the management of Yellow and Roadway and will assume that these representations are true, correct and complete without regard to any knowledge limitation, and that these covenants will be complied with. If any of these assumptions or representations are inaccurate in any way, or any of the covenants are not complied with, the opinions could be adversely affected. The obligation of each of Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P. and Jones Day to deliver closing tax opinions is conditioned upon, among other things, the receipt by holders of Roadway shares in the merger, in the aggregate, of Yellow shares with a value equal to at least 45% of the combined value of the total consideration paid for all Roadway shares, taking into account, among other things, the amount of cash paid or deemed paid to holders of Roadway shares in connection with the merger and cash to be paid to Roadway stockholders who perfect their dissenters' rights.

Tax Consequences of the Merger to U.S. Holders of Roadway Common Stock

The Merger

Assuming the merger qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, Roadway stockholders who exchange all their Roadway shares for Yellow shares will recognize neither gain nor loss, while Roadway stockholders who exchange some or all of their Roadway shares for cash will generally recognize gain (but not loss) in an amount generally equal to the lesser of the amount of cash received pursuant to the merger (excluding any cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Yellow), and the amount, if any, by which the sum of the fair market value of the Yellow shares as of the effective time of the merger and the amount of cash received pursuant to the merger for these Roadway shares exceeds the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in these Roadway shares.

Gain recognized upon the exchange generally will be capital gain, unless the receipt of cash by a U.S. holder has the effect of a distribution of a dividend, in which case the gain will be treated as dividend income to the extent of the U.S. holder's ratable share of Roadway's accumulated earnings and profits as calculated for U.S. federal income tax purposes. In determining whether or not the receipt of cash has the effect of a distribution of a dividend, certain constructive ownership rules must be taken into account. Any recognized capital gain will be long-term capital gain if the U.S. holder has held Roadway shares for more than one year.

If a U.S. holder receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of Yellow shares, he or she will generally recognize capital gain or loss equal to the difference between the cash received in lieu of this fractional share and the portion of his or her adjusted tax basis in Roadway shares surrendered that is allocable to this fractional share. The capital gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the holding period for Roadway shares exchanged for cash in lieu of the fractional share of Yellow stock is more than one year as of the date of the merger.

A U.S. holder will have an aggregate tax basis in shares of Yellow shares received in the merger equal to the aggregate adjusted tax basis in Roadway shares surrendered in the merger, reduced by

the portion of his or her adjusted tax basis in those Roadway shares that is allocable to a fractional share of Yellow shares for which cash is received, and the amount of cash received by him or her for these Roadway shares in the merger, and increased by the amount of gain (including the portion of this gain that is treated as a dividend as described above) recognized by him or her in the exchange (but not by any gain recognized upon the receipt of cash in lieu of a fractional share of Yellow shares pursuant to the merger).

The holding period of the Yellow shares received by a Roadway stockholder pursuant to the merger will include the holding period of Roadway shares surrendered in exchange for these Yellow shares, if these Roadway shares are held as capital assets as of the effective time of the merger.

One of the requirements that must be satisfied in order for the merger to qualify as a reorganization under the Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code is the continuity of interest requirement. This requirement will be satisfied if the stockholders of Roadway exchange a substantial portion of the value of their proprietary interest in Roadway for proprietary interests in Yellow. In the opinion of Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P. and of Jones Day, the continuity of interest requirement will be satisfied if the value of the Yellow shares received in connection with the merger by the stockholders of Roadway equals or exceeds 45% of the total consideration paid or deemed paid in exchange for all Roadway shares, taking into account, among other things, the amount of cash paid or deemed paid to holders of Roadway shares in connection with the merger and cash to be paid to Roadway stockholders who perfect their dissenters' rights.

Various factors affect whether the value of the Yellow shares received by the stockholders of Roadway in the merger is equal to at least 45% of the combined value of the total consideration paid for all Roadway shares, including:

the amount, if any, to be paid to stockholders of Roadway who perfect their dissenters' rights;

whether prior to or in connection with the merger Roadway or Yellow (or parties related to either) redeems or acquires Roadway shares or makes distributions to the stockholders of Roadway; and whether there will be any repurchases by Yellow (or parties related to Yellow) of the Yellow shares to be issued in the merger.

None of Roadway, Yellow or any corporation related to Roadway or Yellow has redeemed or purchased, or has any plan or intention to redeem or purchase, any Roadway shares in connection with the merger. Neither Yellow or any corporation related to Yellow has any plan or intention to repurchase any of the Yellow common stock to be issued in the merger.

Accordingly, it may not be possible to state with any certainty the minimum trading price of the Yellow shares at which the value of the Yellow shares to be received in the merger will be equal to at least 45% of the value of the total consideration paid for all Roadway shares.

Holders of Roadway shares are entitled to dissenters' rights under Delaware law in connection with the merger. If a U.S. holder receives cash pursuant to the exercise of dissenters' rights, that U.S. holder generally will recognize gain or loss measured by the difference between the cash received and his or her adjusted tax basis in his or her Roadway shares. This gain should be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. holder held Roadway shares for more than one year. Any holder of Roadway shares that plans to exercise dissenters' rights in connection with the merger is urged to consult a tax advisor to determine the related tax consequences.

If the merger is not treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, then each U.S. holder would recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the sum of the fair market value of the Yellow shares and the amount of cash received in the merger (including cash received in lieu of fractional shares of Yellow shares) and his or her tax basis in Roadway shares surrendered in exchange therefor. Further, if the merger is not treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code,

Edgar Filing: YELLOW CORP - Form S-4

Roadway would be subject to tax on the deemed sale of its assets to Yellow with gain or loss for this purpose measured by the difference between Roadway's tax basis in its assets and the fair market value of the consideration deemed to be received therefor, or, in other words, the cash and Yellow shares. This gain or loss would be reported on Roadway's final tax return, subject to the effect of any tax carryovers and the effect of its other income or loss for that period, and Yellow would become liable for any such tax liability by virtue of the merger.

Backup Withholding

United States federal income tax law requires that a holder of Roadway shares provide the exchange agent with his or her correct taxpayer identification number, which is, in the case of a U.S. holder who is an individual, a social security number, or, in the alternative, establish a basis for exemption from backup withholding. Exempt holders, including, among others, corporations and some foreign individuals, are not subject to backup withholding and reporting requirements. If the correct taxpayer identification number or an adequate basis for exemption is not provided, a holder will be subject to backup withholding on any reportable payment. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules from a payment to a U.S. holder will be allowed as a credit against that U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax and may entitle the U.S. holder to a refund, if the required information is furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

To prevent backup withholding, each holder of Roadway shares must complete the Substitute Form W-9 which will be provided by the exchange agent with the transmittal letter and certify under penalties of perjury that the taxpayer identification number provided is correct or that the holder is awaiting a taxpayer identification number, and the holder is not subject to backup withholding because the holder is exempt from backup withholding, the holder has not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service that he is subject to backup withholding as a result of the failure to report all interest or dividends, or the Internal Revenue Service has notified the holder that he is no longer subject to backup withholding.

The Substitute Form W-9 must be completed, signed and returned to the exchange agent.

Information Reporting

Stockholders of Roadway receiving Yellow shares in the merger should file a statement with their U.S. federal income tax return setting forth their adjusted tax basis in Roadway shares exchanged in the merger, as well as the fair market value of the Yellow shares and the amount of cash received in the merger. In addition, stockholders of Roadway will be required to retain permanent records of these facts relating to the merger.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following is a summary of the material provisions of the merger agreement, a copy of which is attached as Annex A to this document and is incorporated in this joint proxy statement/prospectus by reference. You should read the merger agreement because it, and not this document, is the legal document that governs the merger.

The Merger

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the merger agreement, and in accordance with the DGCL and the Delaware Limited Liability Company Act, at the effective time of the merger, Roadway will merge with and into Yankee LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Yellow, which we refer to as Sub. Sub will continue as the surviving company and a wholly owned subsidiary of Yellow operating under the name Roadway LLC. If the proposed amendment to the Yellow certificate of incorporation is approved by stockholders at the Yellow special meeting, the name of Yellow will contemporaneously be changed to Yellow Roadway Corporation or, if not approved, Yellow will continue under its existing name.

The closing date of the merger will occur no later than the second business day following the date on which all conditions to the merger, other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the closing, have been satisfied or waived, unless the parties agree on another time. Contemporaneously with the closing of the merger, Sub and Roadway will file a certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware. The effective time of the merger will be the time Sub and Roadway file the certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or at a later time as we may agree and specify in the certificate of merger.

As a result of the merger, Roadway will be merged with and into Sub and the separate corporate existence of Roadway will cease.

Merger Consideration

Upon the effectiveness of the merger, each share of Roadway stock will be converted into the right to receive a number of shares of Yellow common stock determined as follows (and subject to adjustment as described below):

If the average closing price of Yellow common stock is between $21.21 and $28.69 (the collar), then 1.924 shares of Yellow common stock.

If the average closing price of Yellow common stock is greater than $28.69, then a number of shares of Yellow common stock equal to $55.20 divided by the average closing price of Yellow common stock.

If the average closing price of Yellow common stock is less than $21.21, then a number of shares of Yellow common stock equal to $40.81 divided by the average closing price of Yellow common stock.

If the average closing price of Yellow common stock is less than $16.63, Yellow may elect not to consummate the merger.

Edgar Filing: YELLOW CORP - Form S-4

For purposes of determining the exchange ratio above, the average closing price of Yellow common stock is the average per share closing price of Yellow common stock for each of 20 consecutive trading days ending as of the date five trading days before the closing of the merger (the 20-trading-day average ).

At their election, each Roadway stockholder may elect to receive $48.00 in cash in lieu of shares of Yellow common stock for each share of Roadway common stock they own at the effective time of the merger. Notwithstanding the individual elections of the Roadway stockholders, no more than 50% of the Roadway shares may be converted into cash. If more than 50% of the Roadway shares elect to receive cash, those stockholders that elect to receive cash will receive proportionately less cash and more stock such that 50% of the shares outstanding will receive cash, and 50% will receive stock. If fewer than 50% of the shares elect to receive cash, the stockholders not electing to receive cash will receive proportionately less Yellow stock and more cash such that 50% of the Roadway shares outstanding will receive cash and 50% will receive stock. As a result of these elections and adjustments, the aggregate consideration will consist of approximately 50% cash and 50% Yellow common stock. Assuming all stockholders elect to receive 50% cash and 50% Yellow common stock, each stockholder will receive $24.00 per share in cash and 0.962 shares (or one half of the exchange ratio used if the average closing price of Yellow common stock is between $21.21 and $28.69) of Yellow common stock for each Roadway share, subject to any adjustment in the exchange ratio as described above.

No fractional shares of Yellow common stock will be issued in the merger. All Yellow shares that a Roadway stockholder is entitled to receive will be aggregated. Any fractional Yellow shares resulting from this aggregation will be paid in cash, without interest, in an amount equal to the fraction multiplied by the market value of a Yellow share, determined using the same 20-trading-day average closing price discussed above.

Because the exchange ratio for conversion of Roadway common stock into Yellow common stock will be established five trading days prior to the closing date of the merger, we encourage you to look at the current price of Yellow common stock before tendering your proxy, attending the special meeting or submitting your transmittal form.

Election Procedures

A cash election and transmittal form is enclosed with this joint proxy statement/prospectus. Each cash election and transmittal form permits the holder to indicate an election subject to the allocation and proration procedures described below to receive shares of Yellow common stock or, at the election of Roadway stockholders, cash with respect to all or a portion of the holder's shares of Roadway common stock.

The deadline for submitting cash election and transmittal forms will be 5:00 p.m., New York, New York time, on the fourth trading day prior to the merger's closing date. You will be notified of the specific date of the election deadline as soon as the closing date of the merger is determined. Any shares of Roadway common stock for which a properly completed cash election and transmittal form is not submitted will be converted into Yellow common stock upon the completion of the merger, subject to the allocation and proration procedures described below. If you fail to submit a cash election and transmittal form by the election deadline, you will receive Yellow common stock in the merger, subject to the allocation and proration procedures described below.

Elections are properly made only if the exchange agent actually receives a properly completed cash election and transmittal form by the election deadline, accompanied by the certificate representing the shares of Roadway common stock as to which the cash election is being made or, in the case of Roadway stockholders whose shares are held in book-entry form, you must instruct your broker, dealer, bank or other financial institution that holds the shares to make an election on your behalf by transferring the shares to an account established by the exchange agent for this purpose at Depository Trust Company, or DTC, and transmitting a message through DTC to the exchange agent setting forth your election with respect to your shares of Roadway common stock. You have the right to change or revoke your election anytime before 5:00 p.m., New York, New York time, on the election deadline. To change your election, you should submit to the exchange agent a properly completed and signed revised cash election and transmittal form or if your shares are held in book-entry form, you should cause a new message with revised election information to be transferred through DTC to the exchange agent for receipt by the exchange agent prior to the election deadline. To revoke your election, you should submit to the exchange agent written notice of revocation or cause a new message to be transmitted through DTC to the exchange agent withdrawing shares previously deposited and specifying the name and number of the account at DTC to be credited for receipt by the exchange agent prior to the election deadline. If a cash election and transmittal form is revoked, it will be treated as if no cash election had been made. A cash election and transmittal form received and not changed or revoked by 5:00 p.m., New York, New York time, on the election deadline will be binding and irrevocable.

If your share certificates are not immediately available, or if you cannot deliver your share certificates and other required documents to the exchange agent prior to the election deadline, or if you cannot comply with the book-entry transfer procedures on a timely basis, you may satisfy the cash election requirements by properly completing a guarantee of delivery under the guaranteed delivery procedures in the cash election and transmittal form. Under this procedure, the properly completed cash election and transmittal form, including the guarantee of delivery, must be received prior to the election deadline, and share certificates must be received by the exchange agent within three trading days thereafter.

Yellow will have the power, which it may delegate to the exchange agent, to determine, in its good faith reasonable judgment, whether any election has been properly or timely made and to disregard immaterial defects in cash election and transmittal forms. Any decision by Yellow or the exchange agent regarding these matters will be conclusive and binding.

Allocation and Proration

Since the aggregate cash component of the consideration is limited, a Roadway stockholder may not receive the exact consideration elected on his or her cash election and transmittal form. Notwithstanding the adjustments described in Merger Consideration above, the merger agreement requires that at least 45% in value of the aggregate consideration consist of shares of Yellow common stock. If the value of the Yellow common stock to be issued is less than 45% of the total consideration, including, among other things, the amount of cash to be paid in lieu of fractional shares or for dissenting shares, then the cash component will be reduced and the number of shares of Yellow common stock to be issued with respect to the Roadway shares will be increased as near pro rata in value as practicable to the extent necessary so that the value of the Yellow common stock is equal to 45% of the consideration. For the purposes of this calculation, Yellow common stock will be valued at the lesser of the 20-trading-day average per share closing price of Yellow common stock as of the date five trading days before closing of the merger, and the average of the high and low trading prices of the Yellow common stock on the day before the closing date of the merger (or, if determined to be more appropriate by either Jones Day or Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P, prices of the Yellow common stock on the closing date of the merger) as reported on the Nasdaq National Market.

Exchange Procedures

As soon as practicable after the effective time of the merger, Sub will deposit with the exchange agent, for the benefit of the holders of Roadway common stock, an amount in cash and certificates representing shares of Yellow common stock sufficient to effect the conversion of Roadway common stock into the cash and stock consideration to be paid in the merger. Yellow or Sub will also make funds available to the exchange agent from time to time after the effective time of the merger as needed to pay any cash instead of fractional shares or any dividends or other distributions declared by Yellow on shares of Yellow common stock with a record date after the effective time of the merger and a payment date on or before the date the relevant Roadway stock certificate was surrendered.

At the effective time of the merger, the stock transfer books of Roadway will be closed and no further issuances or transfers of Roadway common stock will be made. If, after the effective time, valid Roadway stock certificates are presented to the surviving company for any reason, they will be cancelled and exchanged as described above to the extent allowed by applicable law.

Exchange of Shares

Edgar Filing: YELLOW CORP - Form S-4

As soon as reasonably practicable after the effective time of the merger, if you have not completed a valid cash election and transmittal form, the exchange agent will mail to you a transmittal letter and instructions explaining how to surrender your certificates to the exchange agent.

The exchange agent will deliver to Yellow any shares of Yellow common stock to be issued in the merger or funds set aside by Yellow to pay the cash consideration, cash in lieu of fractional shares in connection with the merger or to pay dividends or other distributions on Yellow shares to be issued in the merger that are not claimed by former Roadway stockholders within one year after the effective time of the merger. Thereafter, Yellow will act as the exchange agent and former Roadway stockholders may look only to Yellow for payment of their shares of Yellow common stock, cash consideration, cash in lieu of fractional shares and unpaid dividends and distributions. None of Yellow, the surviving company, the exchange agent or any other person will be liable to any former Roadway stockholder for any amount properly delivered to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

If any certificates for shares of Yellow common stock are to be issued in a name other than that in which the Roadway stock certificate surrendered in exchange for these shares is registered, the person requesting the exchange must pay any transfer or other taxes required because the Yellow stock certificates must be issued in a name other than that of the registered holder of the certificate surrendered or establish to the satisfaction of Yellow or the exchange agent that this tax has been paid or is not applicable.

Managers and Officers of the Surviving Company After the Merger

Under the merger agreement, the managers of Sub immediately prior to the merger will be the managers of the surviving company at and after the merger, and the officers of Sub immediately prior to the merger will be the officers of the surviving company at and after the merger.

Representations and Warranties

The merger agreement contains customary and substantially reciprocal representations and warranties made by each party to the other. These representations and warranties relate to, among other things:

corporate organization, qualification and good standing and ownership of subsidiaries;

capitalization;

corporate power and authority to enter into the merger agreement, and due execution, delivery and enforceability of the merger agreement;

Edgar Filing: YELLOW CORP - Form S-4

insurance matters;

labor and employee matters;

The representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement will not survive the merger, but they form the basis of specified conditions to our obligations to complete the merger. Some agreements in the merger agreement will survive the effective time of the merger.

providing notice of (i) any representation or warranty in the merger agreement becoming untrue or inaccurate or (ii) the failure to materially comply with or satisfy any covenant, condition or agreement in the merger agreement;

payment of fees and expenses in connection with the merger;

tax matters;

treatment of stock options and phantom stock;

obtaining necessary financing;

listing of the shares of Yellow common stock to be issued in connection with the merger on the Nasdaq National Market upon official notice of issuance.

Treatment of Roadway Stock Options

Subject to the provisions of the merger agreement regarding fractional shares, each Roadway stock option with an exercise price that is equal to or less than $24.00 will be cancelled and the holder of that Roadway stock option will be entitled to receive, subject to certain withholding obligations:

shares of Yellow common stock in an amount equal to the number of shares of Roadway common stock subject to that Roadway stock option multiplied by one-half of the exchange ratio, and cash in an amount equal to:

$24.00 minus the exercise price of the Roadway stock option, multiplied by the number of Roadway Shares subject to the Roadway stock option.

Subject to the provisions of the merger agreement regarding fractional shares, each Roadway stock option with an exercise price greater than $24.00 will be cancelled and the holder of that Roadway stock option will be entitled to receive, subject to certain withholding obligations, shares of Yellow common stock in an amount equal to:

the ($48.00 - exercise price of the Roadway stock option) x number of Roadway shares subject to the Roadway stock option

Treatment of Roadway Phantom Stock

Each phantom stock award under a Roadway benefit plan will be modified by substituting phantom shares of Yellow common stock for phantom Roadway shares deemed credited under the award. The number of substituted phantom shares of Yellow common stock that will be deemed credited under an award will be equal to:

the exchange ratio multiplied by the number of phantom Roadway shares deemed credited under the award.

Fractional shares may be deemed credited under the awards. Other than as described above, the terms and conditions of the phantom stock awards, including vesting and time and form of payment provisions, existing at the effective time of the merger will remain in effect.

Employee Benefit Matters

Generally, Yellow will grant Roadway non-union employees credit for past service with Roadway for purposes of initial eligibility to participate, and vesting under, any employee benefit plans maintained by Yellow, the surviving company or any of their subsidiaries in which these employees are eligible to participate. Roadway non-union employees will also receive credit for their past service with Roadway for purposes of determining the amounts of sick pay, holiday pay and vacation pay they are eligible to receive under any sick pay, holiday pay or vacation pay policies maintained by Yellow, the surviving company and their subsidiaries in which these employees are eligible to participate. Yellow will take any actions as are necessary so that each Roadway employee who continues as an employee of Yellow, the surviving company or any of their subsidiaries will not be subject to preexisting condition exclusions or waiting periods for coverages under any Yellow benefit plan to the extent that these preexisting condition exclusions or waiting periods were waived or satisfied under Roadway's plans immediately prior to the closing of the merger.

Indemnification and Insurance

Each of Roadway's certificate of incorporation, and Yellow's certificate of incorporation and bylaws, contains a provision eliminating the personal liability of its directors to the company or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director to the extent permitted under applicable law. The effect of this provision is to eliminate the personal liability of directors to the company or its stockholders for monetary damages for actions involving a breach of their fiduciary duty of care. The bylaws of Yellow generally provide for the mandatory indemnification of, and payment of expenses incurred by, its directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law. The certificate of incorporation of Roadway generally provides for the mandatory indemnification of, and payment of expenses incurred by, directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law. Roadway and Yellow have both obtained directors' and officers' liability insurance, which insures against liabilities that its directors and officers may incur in these capacities. Roadway and Yellow have also entered into indemnification agreements with their respective directors and officers. The indemnification agreements provide indemnification to these directors and officers under certain circumstances for acts or omissions which may not be covered by directors' and officers' liability insurance.

Following the effective time of the merger, Yellow and the surviving company will indemnify, defend and hold harmless each person who is or was an officer, director, or employee of Roadway or any of its subsidiaries at or prior to the signing of the merger agreement and at or prior to the effective time of the merger. This indemnification will include indemnification against:

all losses, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses), claims, damages or liabilities or amounts paid in settlement arising out of actions or omissions occurring at or prior to the effective time of the merger (whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the effective time of the merger) that are based on the fact that the person is or was a director, officer or employee of Roadway or any of its subsidiaries or served as a fiduciary under any Roadway employee benefit plan; Yellow and the surviving company will not be liable for any settlement effected without its written consent, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; and all liabilities entitled to indemnification to the extent they pertain to the transactions contemplated in the merger agreement.

In the merger agreement, Yellow and the surviving company agreed to indemnify, defend and hold harmless, and advance expenses to, all past and present officers, directors and employees of Roadway and its subsidiaries.

If any of these parties are entitled to indemnification:

Yellow and the surviving company will pay the reasonable fees and expenses of counsel selected by the indemnified party and reasonably satisfactory to Yellow promptly after Yellow receives statements indicating the fees and expenses, and will advance to the indemnified party upon request reimbursement of any documented expenses that are reasonably incurred;

Yellow will cooperate in the defense of any matter entitling a party to indemnification; and any determination that is required to be made as to whether an indemnified party's conduct complies with the standards of applicable law and the certificate of incorporation or bylaws will be made by independent counsel mutually acceptable to Yellow and the indemnified party.

Yellow and the surviving company will not be liable for any settlement effected without its consent, which will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

If an indemnified party must bring an action to enforce rights or to collect money due under the merger agreement and is successful in the action, Yellow and the surviving company will reimburse the indemnified party for his or her expenses in bringing and pursuing the action, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. In addition, after the effective time of the merger, directors and officers of Roadway who become directors or officers of Yellow will be entitled to indemnification under the Yellow certificate of incorporation and bylaws as these documents may be amended in accordance with their terms and applicable law.

For six years after the effective time of the merger, Yellow will also maintain in effect directors' and officers' liability insurance covering acts or omissions occurring prior to the effective time of the merger with respect to those directors and officers of Roadway who were covered by, and on terms and in amounts no less favorable than those of, Roadway's directors' and officers' liability insurance at the time the merger agreement was executed. Yellow will not be required to pay aggregate annual premiums for the insurance described in this paragraph in excess of twice the most recent aggregate annual premiums paid (i.e., not to exceed $3,944,400, which amount is twice the most recent aggregate annual premium for Roadway). However, if the annual premiums of the insurance coverage exceed that amount, Yellow must obtain a policy with the best coverage available, in the reasonable judgment of the Yellow board of directors, for a cost up to but not exceeding twice the amount of these aggregate annual premiums. For six years after completion of the merger, Yellow will also maintain in effect fiduciary liability coverage for Roadway employees who serve or served as fiduciaries under Roadway employee benefit plans with coverages and in amounts no less favorable than those maintained by Roadway on the date of the merger agreement.

Section 145 of the DGCL authorizes a court to award or a corporation's board of directors to grant indemnification to directors and officers in terms that are sufficiently broad to permit indemnification under certain circumstances for liabilities (including reimbursement for expenses incurred) arising under the Securities Act of 1933.

Affiliate Agreements

Roadway has agreed to use its best efforts to cause each of its affiliates, as defined by Rule 145 under the Securities Act of 1933, to deliver to Yellow prior to the effective time a written agreement that restricts the affiliate's ability to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any Yellow shares issued to him or her in connection with the merger, except:

in compliance with Rule 145 under the Securities Act of 1933; pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933; or in reliance upon an opinion of counsel reasonably acceptable to Yellow, to the effect that the sale, transfer or other disposition is exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933.

Financing

Assuming the 20-trading-day average closing price of Yellow common stock stays within the collar, we expect that approximately $490.4 million will be required to finance the cash portion of the merger consideration. Yellow has commitment letters from certain affiliates of the initial purchasers that provide, subject to the satisfaction of specified conditions and completion of definitive documentation, for financing in an amount necessary to finance the cash portion of the merger consideration, to refinance certain existing indebtedness of Yellow and Roadway and to pay related costs. Yellow has agreed to use its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the financing contemplated by these commitment letters or financing from other sources reasonably acceptable to it to consummate the merger. Until Yellow has obtained this financing, Yellow has agreed to maintain these commitment letters in full force and effect and will not permit any amendment or modification to be made to, or any waiver of any provision or remedy under, these commitment letters, without the prior written consent of Roadway, which consent will not be unreasonably withheld.

The proposed senior secured financing is expected to consist of a term loan facility, a pre-funded letter of credit facility and a revolving loan facility. Certain amounts under the commitment letters will be reduced by the amount of gross proceeds received by Yellow from its recent offering of $250 million aggregate principal amount of 5.0% contingent convertible senior notes due 2023. If the merger occurs, it is contemplated that at the effective time of the merger the cash portion of the merger consideration and Yellow Roadway's capital and liquidity needs (including refinancing of some existing indebtedness of Yellow and Roadway) will be financed with a combination of proceeds from Yellow's recent offering of its 5.0% contingent convertible senior notes due 2023, proceeds from the sale of other senior debt securities, senior secured bank financing, other debt financings and cash on hand.

Certain agreements in the merger agreement will survive the effective time of the merger.

Tax Matters

The parties have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to cause the merger to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Conditions Precedent

Conditions to Each Party's Obligation to Effect the Merger

The obligations of Yellow, Sub and Roadway to complete the merger are subject to the following conditions:

adoption of the merger agreement and approval of the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement by the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding Roadway shares entitled to vote at the Roadway special meeting;

approval of the stock issuance pursuant to and in accordance with the merger agreement by the holders of the Yellow common stock;

the receipt of authorizations, consents, orders or approvals of governmental entities, including expiration or early termination of the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act and foreign antitrust laws, required to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, except where the failure to obtain them would not have a material adverse effect on Roadway, Yellow or the consummation of the merger;

absence of any statute, rule, regulation, decree, order or injunction prohibiting the consummation of the merger; provided that the parties have used their reasonable efforts to have any applicable order or injunction lifted;

receipt by Yellow of the financing contemplated by the commitment letters delivered to Roadway or as otherwise prescribed by the merger agreement;

approval for listing of the Yellow shares to be issued in the merger on the Nasdaq National Market, upon official notice of issuance; and continued effectiveness of the registration statement of which this document is a part, provided that the Securities and Exchange Commission must not have issued a stop order that remains in effect suspending the effectiveness of the registration statement.

Conditions to Obligations of Yellow and Sub

Unless waived in whole or in part by Yellow and Sub, the obligations of Yellow and Sub to effect the merger are subject to the following conditions:

the absence of any inaccuracies in any of Roadway's representations or warranties in the merger agreement that have or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Roadway;

Roadway's performance in all material respects of its covenants, agreements and obligations under the merger agreement;

the absence of a material adverse change in Roadway's business or operations; and receipt of an opinion satisfactory to Yellow of its tax counsel, Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P., to the effect that, if the merger is consummated in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, the merger will constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Conditions to Obligations of Roadway

Unless waived in whole or in part by Roadway, the obligations of Roadway to effect the merger are subject to the following conditions:

the absence of any inaccuracies in any of Yellow's or Sub's representations or warranties in the merger agreement that have or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Yellow or Sub;

Yellow and Sub's performance in all material respects of their covenants, agreements and obligations under the merger agreement; absence of a material adverse change in Yellow's business or operations; and receipt of an opinion satisfactory to Roadway of its tax counsel, Jones Day, to the effect that, if the merger is consummated in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, the merger will constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

No Solicitation

Roadway has agreed that it will not, and will not permit its officers, directors, employees, investments bankers, attorneys or other advisors, agents and other representatives to, directly or indirectly:

Edgar Filing: YELLOW CORP - Form S-4

solicit, initiate or encourage, or otherwise intentionally facilitate, the making of any proposal that constitutes a third party acquisition proposal (of the type described below in this joint proxy statement/prospectus); subject to specified exceptions, enter into any agreement with respect to any acquisition proposal; or participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, furnish any information with respect to, or facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, an acquisition proposal, provided that prior to the approval of the merger by the Roadway stockholders:

the Roadway board of directors reasonably believes it to be required by its fiduciary obligations, as determined in good faith after consultation with outside legal counsel; and subject to Roadway providing written notice to Yellow of its decision to take action in response to an unsolicited written request.

Roadway may under terms of a confidentiality agreement that contains substantially the same terms as the confidentiality agreement contained in the merger agreement, furnish information to, or enter into discussions or negotiations with, any person or entity that has made a superior proposal (of the type described below in this joint proxy statement/prospectus) or an acquisition proposal that the Roadway board of directors in good faith determines is reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal.

Roadway has agreed to promptly notify Yellow of any pending negotiations relating to, or the receipt of, any acquisition proposal.

As used in the merger agreement, acquisition proposal means any proposal or offer, other than a proposal or offer by Yellow or any of its affiliates:

for a merger or other business combination involving Roadway; to acquire from Roadway or any of its affiliates in any manner, directly or indirectly, more than a 20% equity interest in Roadway, more than 20% of the voting securities of Roadway or a material amount of the assets of Roadway; or to acquire from the Roadway stockholders by tender offer, exchange offer or otherwise more than 20% of the outstanding shares of Roadway common stock.

Except in connection with the termination of the merger agreement as described in Termination below, the Roadway board of directors will not be permitted to:

withdraw, modify, or propose to withdraw or modify its approval or recommendation of the merger agreement or the merger; or approve or recommend any acquisition proposal, except that:

if the Roadway board of directors receives an acquisition proposal that, in the exercise of its fiduciary obligations (as determined in good faith by a majority of the disinterested members of the board after consultation with outside legal counsel), it determines to be a superior proposal, the Roadway board of directors may withdraw or modify its approval or recommendation of the merger agreement or the merger and may terminate the merger agreement if:

Roadway gives three business days notice to Yellow specifying the material terms of the superior proposal (including the proposed financing and a copy of any documents conveying the proposal) and the identity of the party making the superior proposal;

Roadway cooperates with Yellow during this three-day period to negotiate and adjust the terms under the merger agreement;

after this negotiation period, Roadway's board of directors continues to reasonably believe the acquisition proposal constitutes a superior proposal; and pays the termination fee discussed below.

As used in the merger agreement, the term superior proposal means any bona fide acquisition proposal to acquire, directly or indirectly, more than 50% of the shares of Roadway common stock then outstanding or more than 50% of the assets of Roadway, and otherwise on terms which a majority of the members of Roadway's board of directors determines in its good faith reasonable judgment (after consultation with its financial advisor) to be more favorable to Roadway's stockholders than the merger and which it intends to recommend that the Roadway stockholders approve.

Before the effective time of the merger, the merger agreement may be terminated:

by mutual written consent of Yellow and Roadway, or by mutual action of their respective boards of directors;

by either Yellow or Roadway, if:

approval by the Roadway stockholders of the merger agreement and the related transactions is not obtained;

approval by the Yellow stockholders of the issuance of shares of Yellow common stock pursuant to and in accordance with the merger agreement is not obtained;

the parties fail to consummate the merger on or before February 29, 2004, unless the failure is the result of a material breach of the merger agreement by the party seeking the termination; or any court or other governmental entity has issued a final and nonappealable order, decree or ruling or has taken any other final and nonappealable action that enjoins, restrains or prohibits the purchase of shares of Roadway common stock pursuant to the merger;

by Yellow, if:

the 20-trading-day average per share closing price of Yellow common stock as of the date five trading days before closing of the merger is less than $16.63;

(1) any inaccuracies exist in any of Roadway's representations or warranties in the merger agreement that have or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Roadway, or (2) Roadway fails to materially perform any of its material covenants, agreements or obligations under the merger agreement, if the inaccuracy or failure cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days following receipt of written notice of the inaccuracy or failure; or Roadway's board of directors (i) withdraws or modifies, in any manner adverse to Yellow, its recommendation or approval of the merger agreement or the related transactions, or (ii) recommends to the Roadway stockholders an alternative acquisition proposal.

by Roadway, if:

its stockholders have not yet adopted the merger agreement and approved the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, it has notified Yellow of its receipt of a superior proposal, it has not received a timely offer from Yellow that is no less favorable than the superior proposal, and it has paid a $25 million termination fee to Yellow;

(1) if any inaccuracies exist in any of Yellow's or Sub's representations or warranties in the merger agreement that have or could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on Yellow or Sub, or (2) Yellow or Sub fails to materially perform any of its material covenants, agreements or obligations under the merger agreement if the inaccuracy or failure cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days following receipt of written notice of the inaccuracy or failure; or

Fees and Expenses

Roadway must pay a termination fee of $25 million to Yellow if the merger agreement is terminated:

by Yellow or Roadway, if

the approval of the Roadway stockholders has not been obtained at its special meeting;

prior to the Roadway special meeting, a third party has made a bona fide written acquisition proposal that has not been withdrawn prior to the special meeting; and

within 18 months of the termination of the merger agreement, Roadway or any of its subsidiaries enters into any acquisition agreement or completes a merger or other business combination or a third party acquires more than 50% of the equity or a material amount of the assets of Roadway;

by Roadway because it receives a superior proposal, subject to satisfaction of certain conditions described above;

by Yellow because Roadway's board of directors withdraws or modifies, in any manner adverse to Yellow, its recommendation of the merger agreement; or by Yellow because Roadway's board of directors recommends to its stockholders any acquisition agreement, merger, business combination, tender offer or other proposal for a third party to acquire more than 20% of the equity or a material amount of the assets of Roadway.

Yellow must pay a termination fee of $25 million to Roadway if the merger agreement is terminated by Roadway because Yellow's board of directors withdraws or modifies, in any manner adverse to Roadway, its recommendation or approval of the share issuance.

Whether or not the merger is consummated, each of Yellow, Sub and Roadway will bear its own costs and expenses in connection with the merger agreement and the related transactions, except that Yellow and Roadway will share equally the costs and expenses in connection with filings and related matters under the HSR Act. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the merger agreement is terminated because one of the parties breaches any of its representations or warranties in, or fails to materially perform any of its covenants, agreements or obligations under, the merger agreement, if such breach or failure (i) would cause any of the conditions to the obligations of all parties to consummate the merger or to the obligations of the other party to consummate the merger not to be satisfied and (ii) cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days following receipt of written notice of such breach, then the party whose representations or warranties are inaccurate or who has breached its covenants or other agreements contained in the merger agreement shall promptly (but not later than two business days after receipt of notice of such termination from the other party) pay to the other party an amount equal to all documented out-of-pocket expenses and fees incurred by the other party (including, without limitation, fees and expenses payable to all legal, accounting, financial, public relations and other professional advisors arising out of or in connection with or related to the merger or the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement), and the non-breaching party may pursue any remedies available to it at law or in equity and will, in addition to its expenses (which are to be paid as specified above), be entitled to recover such additional amounts as such non-breaching party may be entitled to receive at law or in equity.

Amendment

Yellow, Sub and Roadway may amend the merger agreement at any time before the effective time of the merger. However, after the approval of the merger agreement by the Roadway stockholders, no amendment may be made that would require further approval by any Roadway stockholders without the further approval of Roadway stockholders.

Extension; Waiver

Yellow, Sub and Roadway may at any time before the effective time of the merger and to the extent legally allowed:

extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or the other acts of the other parties;

waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement or in any document delivered pursuant to the merger agreement; or waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained in the merger agreement.

Yellow Transportation

Yellow Transportation offers a full range of services for the movement of industrial, commercial, and retail goods. Yellow Transportation provides transportation services by moving shipments through its regional, national and international networks of terminals, utilizing primarily ground transportation equipment that we own or lease. The Yellow Transportation mission is to be the leading provider of guaranteed, time-definite, defect-free, hassle-free transportation services for business customers worldwide. Yellow Transportation addresses the increasingly complex transportation needs of its customers through service offerings such as:

Standard Ground Regional Advantage a high-speed service for shipments moving between 500 and 1,500 miles; and MyYellow®.com a leading edge e-commerce web site offering secure and customized online resources to manage transportation activity.

Yellow Transportation, founded in 1924, serves more than 400,000 manufacturing, wholesale, retail and government customers throughout North America. No single customer accounts for more than 6% of Yellow Transportation revenue. Operating from 336 strategically located facilities, Yellow Transportation provides service throughout North America, including within Puerto Rico and Hawaii. Shipments range from 100 to 40,000 pounds, with an average shipment size of 1,000 pounds traveling an average distance of more than 1,200 miles. Yellow Transportation has over 700 employees with sales responsibilities.

Yellow Technologies has developed and supports proprietary technology that drives the Yellow Transportation network. Approximately 22,000 Yellow Transportation employees are dedicated to operating the system that supports 265,000 shipments in transit at any time. An operations research and engineering team is responsible for the equipment, routing, sequencing and timing of nearly 56 million miles per month. At December 31, 2002, Yellow Transportation had 7,395 owned tractors, 491 leased tractors, 34,633 owned trailers and 61 leased trailers.

Yellow Transportation operates in a highly competitive environment against a wide range of transportation service providers. These competitors include a small number of national transportation services providers similar in size and scope to Yellow Transportation, a moderate number of regional or inter-regional providers and a large number of relatively small, shorter-haul transportation companies. Yellow Transportation also competes in and against several modes of transportation, including LTL, truckload, air cargo, rail, consolidators and private fleets.

Truck-based transportation includes private fleets and two for-hire carrier groups. The private carrier segment consists of fleets that shippers who move their own goods own and operate. The two for-hire groups are based on the typical shipment sizes handled by transportation service companies. Truckload refers to providers transporting shipments that generally fill a trailer, and LTL or shared load refers to providers transporting shipments from multiple shippers that alone would not fill a trailer.

Shared load transportation providers consolidate numerous orders generally ranging from 100 to 10,000 pounds from businesses in different locations. Orders are consolidated at individual locations within a certain radius from service centers. As a result, shared load carriers require expansive networks of pickup and delivery operations around local service centers and, with respect to national carriers, shipments are moved between origin and destination through a series of regional distribution centers. Depending on the distance shipped, shared load providers are sometimes classified into three sub-groups:

Regional Average distance is typically less than 500 miles with a focus on one- and two-day delivery times. Regional transportation companies can move shipments directly to their respective destination centers, which increases service reliability and avoids costs associated with intermediate handling. Regional companies are continuously increasing their average shipping distances.

Interregional Average distance is usually between 500 and 1,000 miles with a focus on two- and three-day delivery times. There is an increasing blurring of lines between regional and national providers, as each sees the interregional segment as a growth opportunity, and there are no providers who focus exclusively on this sector.

National Average distance is typically in excess of 1,000 miles with focus on two- to five-day delivery times. National providers rely on interim shipment handling through hub and spoke networks, which require numerous satellite service centers, multiple distribution centers and a relay network. To gain service and cost advantages, they often ship directly between service centers, minimizing intermediate handling. A significant portion of a national provider's carriage is under 1,000 miles.

Yellow Transportation provides service to all three sub-groups. Entry into the LTL trucking industry on a small scale with a limited service area is relatively easy. More capital is needed to develop a large service area. The level of technology applications required and the ability to generate shipment densities that provide adequate labor and equipment utilization also make larger-scale entry more capital intensive.

Based in Overland Park, Kansas, Yellow Transportation accounted for 97% of total company operating revenue (excluding SCST) in 2002, 99% in 2001 and 99% in 2000.

Meridian IQ

Our other primary business unit, Meridian IQ, is a non-asset global transportation management company that plans and coordinates the movement of goods worldwide to provide customers a single source for transportation management solutions. Non-asset-based service providers, such as logistics companies, arrange for and expedite the movement of goods and materials through the supply chain. The typical logistics provider neither owns nor operates the physical assets necessary to move goods, eliminating the significant capital requirements normally experienced by a typical transportation company. This lower asset requirement allows the non-asset-based firms to reduce variable costs in economic downturns.

Meridian IQ delivers a wide range of global transportation management services, with the ability to provide customers improved return-on-investment results through flexible, fast and easy-to-implement transportation services and technology management solutions. Meridian IQ has approximately 9,000 transactional and 200 contractual customers.

Meridian IQ offers the following services:

Multi-modal Brokerage Services providing companies with daily shipment needs with access to volume capacity and specialized equipment at competitive rates;

Domestic Forwarding and Expedited Services arranging guaranteed, time-definite transportation for companies within North America requiring time-sensitive delivery options and guaranteed reliability; and

Transportation Solutions and Technology Management web-native Transportation Management Systems enabling customers to manage their transportation network centrally with increased efficiency and visibility. When combined with network consulting and operations management, any organization, regardless of size, can outsource transportation functions partially or even entirely with Meridian IQ.

Meridian IQ and Yellow Transportation create complementary service offerings with the ability for each to generate revenue for the other. Through its strong relationships, Yellow Transportation has introduced its customers to Meridian IQ for value-added transportation technology and management services. This gives Meridian IQ immediate market credibility from established relationships, and a large pool of existing Yellow Transportation customers to target. In addition, Meridian IQ has attracted new transportation and technology management customers who utilize the Yellow Transportation service portfolio.

The competition of Meridian IQ includes transportation management systems providers, domestic and international freight forwarders, freight brokers, and third party logistic companies. Meridian IQ has approximately 340 employees, including a sales force of approximately 30 employees. Additionally, the over 700 members of the Yellow Transportation sales force assist Meridian IQ in developing sales leads. Meridian IQ is headquartered in Overland Park, Kansas.

UNAUDITED CONDENSED COMBINED PRO FORMA FINANCIAL DATA

The following unaudited condensed combined pro forma financial statements and explanatory notes have been prepared to give effect to the proposed merger, the proceeds of Yellow's recent offering of its 5.0% contingent convertible senior notes due 2023 and the consummation of Yellow's other currently contemplated financing transactions related to the proposed merger. At the effective time of the proposed merger, Roadway will be merged with and into a wholly owned acquisition subsidiary of Yellow. The transaction is being accounted for as a purchase business combination.

In general, upon the effectiveness of the proposed merger, each share of Roadway stock (except those shares owned directly or indirectly by Roadway or Yellow and those shares held by dissenting stockholders) will be converted into 1.924 shares of Yellow common stock. However, a Roadway stockholder may elect to receive $48.00 in cash in lieu of Yellow stock for each share of the stockholder's Roadway stock. Notwithstanding the individual elections of the Roadway stockholders, no more than 50% of the Roadway shares may be converted into cash and certain adjustments will be made so that the aggregate consideration in the proposed merger will consist of approximately 50% cash and 50% Yellow common stock. See "Description of the Merger".

The exchange ratio of 1.924 shares will be subject to further adjustment based upon the 20-trading-day average of the per share closing price of Yellow common stock as of the date five trading days before closing of the merger. If the average price is less than $21.21, the exchange ratio shall be the quotient of $40.81 and the average price, or if the average price is greater than $28.69, then the exchange ratio shall be the quotient of $55.20 and the average price. If the average price of Yellow common stock is less than $16.63, Yellow may elect not to consummate the proposed merger.

In accordance with Article 11 of Regulation S-X under the Securities Act of 1933, an unaudited condensed combined pro forma balance sheet as of June 30, 2003 and unaudited condensed combined pro forma statements of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2003 and the year ended December 31, 2002, have been prepared to reflect the proposed merger (treated as an acquisition of Roadway), the proceeds of Yellow's recent offering of its 5.0% contingent convertible senior notes due 2023 and the consummation of Yellow's other currently contemplated financing transactions related to the proposed merger. The following unaudited condensed combined pro forma financial statements have been prepared based upon historical financial statements of Yellow and Roadway. Yellow operates on a calendar quarter reporting basis. Roadway operates on 13 four-week accounting periods with 12 weeks in each of the first three quarters and 16 weeks in the fourth quarter. Additionally, the unaudited condensed combined pro forma financial statements reflect certain balance sheet and statement of operations reclassifications made to conform Roadway's presentations to those of Yellow. The unaudited condensed combined pro forma financial statements should be read in conjunction with:

Yellow's historical audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2002, and its unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements as of June 30, 2003 and for the six months ended June 30, 2003; and Roadway's historical audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2002, and its unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements as of June 21, 2003 and for the twenty-four week period (two quarters) ended June 21, 2003.

The unaudited condensed combined pro forma balance sheet was prepared by combining Yellow's historical unaudited consolidated balance sheet as of June 30, 2003 and Roadway's historical unaudited consolidated balance sheet as of June 21, 2003, adjusted to reflect the proposed merger, the proceeds of Yellow's recent offering of its 5.0% contingent convertible senior notes due 2023 and the consummation of Yellow's other currently contemplated financing transactions related to the proposed merger, as if each had occurred at June 30, 2003.

The unaudited condensed combined pro forma statements of operations were prepared using the historical consolidated statements of operations for both Yellow and Roadway assuming the proposed merger and related transactions had each occurred on January 1, 2002. The unaudited condensed combined pro forma statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2002 was prepared by combining the historical audited consolidated statement of operations of Yellow and the historical audited consolidated statement of income of Roadway for the year ended December 31, 2002. The unaudited condensed combined pro forma statement of operations for the six months ended June 30, 2003 was prepared by combining the historical unaudited consolidated statement of operations of Yellow for the six month period ended June 30, 2003 and the historical unaudited consolidated statement of income of Roadway for the twenty-four week period (two quarters) ended June 21, 2003. The unaudited condensed combined pro forma statements of operations give effect to the costs associated with financing the proposed merger, including interest expense and amortization of deferred financing costs associated with Yellow's recent offering of its 5.0% contingent convertible senior notes due 2023 and other currently contemplated financing transactions related to the proposed merger, and the impact of other purchase accounting adjustments.

The unaudited condensed combined pro forma financial statements are prepared for illustrative purposes only, and are not necessarily indicative of the operating results or financial position that would have occurred if the merger transaction described above had been consummated at the beginning of the periods or the dates indicated, nor are they necessarily indicative of any future operating results or financial position. The unaudited condensed combined pro forma financial statements do not include any adjustments related to any restructuring charges, profit improvements, potential cost savings or one-time charges which may result from the proposed merger or the result of final valuations of tangible and intangible assets and liabilities.

Because of the proximity of this joint proxy statement/prospectus to the date of the announcement of our proposed merger, the process of valuing Roadway's tangible and intangible assets and liabilities as well as evaluating accounting policies for conformity is still in the very preliminary stages. Material revisions to our current estimates could be necessary as the valuation process and accounting policy review are finalized. Following closing of the proposed merger, we will finalize the process of determining the fair value at the date of acquisition of the tangible and intangible assets and liabilities of Roadway. As a result of this process, we anticipate that a portion of the amount classified as goodwill in the unaudited condensed combined pro forma financial statements, which in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 142 will not be amortized, will be reclassified to the tangible and identified intangible assets and liabilities acquired, based on their estimated fair values at the date of acquisition. These tangible and identified intangible assets will be depreciated and amortized over their estimated useful lives. As a result, the actual amount of depreciation and amortization expense may be materially different from that presented in the unaudited condensed combined pro forma statements of operations and the effects cannot be quantified at this time.

The proposed merger had not been consummated as of the preparation of these unaudited condensed combined pro forma financial statements.

NOTES TO UNAUDITED CONDENSED COMBINED PRO FORMA

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

- (1) Because of the proximity of this joint proxy statement/prospectus to the date of the announcement of our proposed merger, the process of valuing Roadway's tangible and intangible assets and liabilities as well as evaluating accounting policies for conformity is still in the very preliminary stages. Material revisions to our current estimates could be necessary as the valuation process and accounting policy review are finalized. These unaudited condensed combined pro forma financial statements are not necessarily indicative of the operating results or financial position that would have occurred had the proposed merger been consummated at the dates indicated, nor necessarily indicative of future operating results.

The purchase price is estimated as follows (in thousands, except per share data):

Merger consideration of approximately $963.1 million, based on $24.00 cash consideration per Roadway share, a fixed exchange ratio of 1.924 Yellow shares for each Roadway share, and the assumption of a 50% cash, 50% stock election by Roadway shareholders. For purchase accounting purposes, the Yellow common stock component of the merger consideration was valued at $24.05 per share, which represents the simple average of the daily opening and closing trade prices for the period from July 3, 2003 through July 10, 2003, the period immediately surrounding the date of the announcement of the proposed merger.

Total merger consideration	963,137
Acquisition and change of control costs	57,350
	          
Total purchase price	1,020,487
Net tangible assets acquired at fair value	199,898*
	          
Costs in excess of net tangible assets of the acquired company (Goodwill)	$ 820,589
	          

* Net tangible assets acquired at fair value is comprised of the following (in thousands):

Roadway historical net tangible assets at June 21, 2003	$ 131,957
Merger-related expenses incurred by Roadway	(11,900)
Write-off of certain deferred financing costs	(8,003)
Conform revenue recognition policy	25,400
Adjust property and equipment to fair value	225,000
Adjust senior notes to fair value	(26,590)
Conform workers' compensation policy	(37,900)
Elimination of accrual for Roadway deferred shares	6,700
Adjustment to pension and postretirement health care liabilities	(50,800)
Current and deferred income taxes associated with purchase accounting adjustments	(53,966)
	          
Total purchase accounting adjustments	67,941
	          
Net tangible assets acquired at fair value	$ 199,898
	          

** Goodwill reflects the preliminary estimated adjustment for the costs in excess of net tangible assets of Roadway at estimated fair value. Subsequent to closing of the merger, we will be completing a study to determine the allocation of the total purchase price to the various tangible and intangible assets acquired and the liabilities assumed in order to allocate the purchase price. Management believes, on a preliminary basis, there may be intangible assets that will be assigned a fair value in the purchase price allocation. The sensitivity of the valuations regarding the above can be significant. Accordingly, as we conclude our evaluation of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed upon closing the merger, allocation of the purchase price among the tangible and intangible assets will be subject to change. Any such change may also impact results of operations.

- (2) Reflects gross proceeds of Yellow's recent offering of $250.0 million aggregate principal amount of its 5.0% contingent convertible senior notes due 2023.
- (3) Reflects gross proceeds of Yellow's other currently contemplated financing transactions related to the proposed merger, comprised of $175.0 million of secured term loan borrowings and $150.0 million of senior unsecured debt securities.
- (4) Reflects additional borrowings under Yellow's asset backed securitization (ABS) facility.
- (5) Reflects the elimination of Roadway's ABS facility as a component of the currently contemplated financing transactions. As Roadway's ABS facility receives sales treatment for financial reporting purposes and is therefore not reflected on its balance sheets, elimination of that facility effectively brings accounts receivable back onto the balance sheet.
- (6) Represents costs associated with completing the proposed merger and the currently contemplated financing transactions, including Yellow's recent offering of its 5.0% contingent convertible senior notes due 2023, as follows (in thousands):

Direct transaction costs, including investment banking, legal, accounting and other fees:
Yellow	$ 12,650
Roadway	11,900
Deferred debt issuance costs	25,400
Bridge financing costs	4,500
Debt prepayment penalties	2,500
Director, officer and fiduciary insurance premium costs	6,100*
Change of control costs	38,600

* This item represents the estimated cost to provide director, officer and fiduciary liability insurance coverage for Roadway directors, officers and employees for periods prior to the date of the proposed merger. In accordance with the merger agreement, this coverage will be provided for six years after the effective date of the proposed merger.

** The change of control costs represent the estimated maximum cost of various change of control provisions for key Roadway executives.

- (7) Reflects the payoff of certain existing indebtedness in conjunction with the currently contemplated financing transactions and the write-off of deferred financing costs.
- (8) Represents the adjustment necessary to conform Roadway's revenue recognition policy to the policy used by Yellow.
- (9) Represents the impact on currently payable and deferred income taxes of the pro forma adjustments presented.
- (10) Represents the net adjustment to Roadway's property and equipment based on initially estimated fair values.
- (11) Represents the elimination of Roadway's historical accumulated depreciation.

Edgar Filing: YELLOW CORP - Form S-4

- (12) Represents the elimination of the historical goodwill of Roadway.
- (13) Reflects certain balance sheet and statement of operations reclassifications made to conform Roadway's presentation to the presentation used by Yellow.
- (14) Represents an increase in the fair value of Roadway's senior notes based on current market prices.
- (15) Represents the estimated adjustment necessary to conform Roadway's workers' compensation accrual policy to the policy used by Yellow.
- (16) Represents the elimination of the accrual previously established for shares of Roadway common stock that were deferred by the recipient under one of Roadway's compensation plans. These shares of Roadway common stock were distributed to the recipients upon the initial filing of this joint proxy statement/prospectus.
- (17) Represents the estimated adjustment necessary to eliminate previously unrecognized gains or losses, prior service cost, and transition assets or obligations related to Roadway's defined benefit pension and postretirement health care benefit plans for employees not covered by collective bargaining agreements.

- (18) Represents the elimination of Roadway's historical shareholders' equity balances.
- (19) Represents the after-tax impact of bridge financing costs, debt prepayment penalties, and the write-off of Yellow's deferred financing costs associated with completing the currently contemplated financing transactions.
- (20) Adjustment to record lower depreciation expense on the new basis of Roadway's property and equipment. The fair value of longer-lived assets increased while the fair value of shorter-lived assets decreased.
- (21) Adjustment to record additional interest expense and amortization of deferred financing costs on borrowings related to Yellow's recent offering of its 5.0% contingent convertible senior notes due 2023 and other currently contemplated financing transactions related to the proposed merger. The estimated weighted average annual interest rate of the currently contemplated debt structure is 6.1%. A  $\frac{1}{8}$ % change in the variable interest rates associated with these borrowings would have a \$0.3 million effect on annual interest expense. A \$10.0 million change in the amount of borrowings necessary to finance the proposed merger would have a \$0.6 million effect on annual interest expense.
- (22) Adjustment to record the income tax impact of the pro forma adjustments at an effective income tax rate of 40.0%.

DESCRIPTION OF YELLOW CAPITAL STOCK

This summary of the material features and rights of Yellow's capital stock does not purport to be exhaustive and is qualified in its entirety by reference to applicable Delaware law and Yellow's certificate of incorporation and bylaws. See Where You Can Find More Information beginning on page 111 of this joint proxy statement/prospectus. References in this section to we, our and similar terms refer to Yellow.

Common Stock

Our certificate of incorporation authorizes the issuance of up to 120,000,000 common shares, par value $1.00 per share. As of June 30, 2003, there were 31,909,519 common shares issued, which included 29,550,371 outstanding shares and 2,359,148 treasury shares. Holders of our common shares are entitled to one vote per share with respect to each matter presented to our stockholders on which the holders of common shares are entitled to vote. Subject to the preferences applicable to any outstanding preferred stock, the holders of common shares are entitled to receive ratably any dividends declared by our board of directors out of funds legally available for that purpose. In the event of liquidation, holders of common shares will be entitled to receive any assets remaining after the payment of our debts and the expenses of the liquidation, subject to such preferences applicable to any outstanding preferred stock. The holders of our common shares have no pre-emptive, subscription or conversion rights. All issued and outstanding shares of common stock are validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable.

Preferred Stock

Our certificate of incorporation authorizes the issuance of up to 5,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $1.00 per share. As of June 30, 2003, no shares of preferred stock were issued and outstanding. Our board of directors has the authority, without action by our stockholders, to designate and issue preferred stock in one or more series and to designate the rights, preferences and privileges of each series, which may be greater than the rights of our common shares. The issuance of preferred stock could have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change in control of our company without further action by our stockholders and may adversely affect the market price, and the voting and other rights, of the holders of our common shares. The issuance of preferred stock with voting and conversion rights may adversely affect the voting power of the holders of common shares, including the loss of voting rights to others.

Delaware Anti-Takeover Law

We are a Delaware corporation subject to Section 203 of the DGCL. Under Section 203, certain business combinations between a Delaware corporation and an interested stockholder are prohibited for a three-year period following the date that the stockholder became an interested stockholder, unless:

the business combination or the transaction which resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder was approved by the board of directors of the corporation before the stockholder became an interested stockholder;

upon consummation of the transaction that resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder, the interested stockholder owned at least 85% of the voting stock of the corporation outstanding at the time the transaction commenced, excluding for purposes of determining the voting stock outstanding (but not the outstanding voting stock owned by the interested stockholder) those shares owned by directors who are also officers and by employee stock plans in which the employees do not have a confidential right to tender stock held by the plan in a tender or exchange offer; or the business combination is approved by the board of directors of the corporation and authorized at a meeting by two-thirds of the outstanding voting stock, which is not owned by the interested stockholder.

The three-year prohibition also does not apply to some business combinations proposed by an interested stockholder following the announcement or notification of an extraordinary transaction involving the corporation and a person who had not been an interested stockholder during the previous three years or who became an interested stockholder with the approval of a majority of the corporation's directors.

Under the DGCL, the term "business combination" is defined generally to include mergers or consolidations between a Delaware corporation and an interested stockholder, transactions with an interested stockholder involving the assets or stock of the corporation or its majority-owned subsidiaries, and transactions that increase an interested stockholder's percentage ownership of stock. The term "interested stockholder" is defined generally as those stockholders who become beneficial owners of 15% or more of a Delaware corporation's voting stock, together with the affiliates or associates of that stockholder.

Anti-Takeover Effects of Our Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws

In addition, our certificate of incorporation provides that certain "business combinations" require an affirmative vote of holders of at least 80% of the voting power of the then outstanding capital stock entitled to vote generally in the election of directors.

Our certificate of incorporation also contains restrictions on these business combinations by requiring the approval of a majority of continuing directors and by requiring that certain fair price provisions be satisfied. Continuing directors are directors

serving as directors before the substantial stockholder acquired 10% of the then outstanding voting shares, or designated as continuing directors by a majority of the then continuing directors prior to the directors' election.

Fair price provisions in our certificate of incorporation mandate that the amount of cash and the fair market value of other consideration to be received per share by holders of common stock not fall below certain ratios.

The term "business combination" is defined in our certificate of incorporation generally to include any merger or consolidation of our company or any subsidiary with or into any substantial stockholder or any other corporation, whether or not itself a substantial stockholder which, after such merger or consolidation, would be an affiliate of a substantial stockholder, transactions with a substantial stockholder involving assets or stock of our company or any majority-owned subsidiary with an aggregate fair market value of $5,000,000 or more, and transactions that increase a substantial stockholder's percentage ownership of our capital stock. A "substantial stockholder" is defined generally as any person who is or becomes the beneficial owner of not less than 10% of the voting shares, together with any affiliate of that stockholder. An "affiliate" has the meaning set forth in the rules under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended.

Our certificate of incorporation also provides that stockholders may act only at an annual or special meeting of stockholders and not by written consent. Our bylaws provide that special meetings of the stockholders can be called only by the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer or a majority of our board of directors. These provisions could have the effect of delaying until the next annual stockholders meeting stockholder actions that are favored by the holders of a majority of the outstanding voting securities. These provisions may also discourage another person or entity from making an offer to stockholders for the common stock. This is because the person or entity making the offer, even if it acquired a majority of our outstanding voting securities, would be unable to call a special meeting of the stockholders and would be unable to obtain unanimous written consent of the stockholders. As a result, any meeting as to matters they endorse, including the election of new directors or the appraisal of a merger, would have to wait for the next duly called stockholders meeting.

COMPARISON OF STOCKHOLDERS RIGHTS

As a result of the merger, the holders of Roadway common stock will become holders of Yellow common stock. The rights of the stockholders of Yellow will be governed by applicable Delaware law, including the DGCL, and by Yellow's certificate of incorporation and bylaws.

The following is a summary of the material differences between the rights of Yellow stockholders and Roadway stockholders. Because both Yellow and Roadway are organized under the laws of the State of Delaware, these differences arise principally from differences between the Yellow certificate of incorporation and the Roadway certificate of incorporation, and differences between Yellow's bylaws and Roadway's bylaws.

The following summaries do not provide a complete description of the specific rights of Yellow stockholders under its certificate of incorporation and bylaws as compared with the rights of Roadway stockholders under its certificate of incorporation and bylaws. The identification of specific differences in the rights of these holders as material is not intended to indicate that other equally important or more significant differences do not exist. These summaries are qualified in their entirety by reference to the governing corporate instruments of Yellow and Roadway to which you are referred.

Authorized Capital Stock. Under Roadway's certificate of incorporation, Roadway is authorized to issue 120,000,000 shares consisting of 20,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share, and 100,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.01 per share. Under Yellow's certificate of incorporation, Yellow is authorized to issue 125,000,000 shares consisting of 5,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $1.00 per share, and 120,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $1.00 per share.

Combinations with Interested Stockholders. The Yellow certificate of incorporation permits business combinations (as defined below) with a substantial stockholder (defined generally as the beneficial owner of 10% of the voting shares, an affiliate of Yellow who beneficially owned at least 10% of the voting shares within five years prior to becoming an affiliate, or an assignee (except in the course of a public offering) of Yellow capital stock beneficially owned within five years by such beneficial owner or affiliate) only upon the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the outstanding shares, unless the business combination has been approved by a majority of the continuing directors, or

the amount of consideration to be received per share by Yellow common stockholders to the market price of Yellow common stock immediately prior to public announcement of the business combination, is greater than or equal to the ratio of the highest price per share paid by the substantial stockholder in an acquisition of shares within five years prior to the business combination to the market price of Yellow common stock immediately prior to the substantial stockholder's initial acquisition of shares, any Yellow common stock, and is not less than the highest price paid by the substantial stockholder in acquiring any Yellow common stock, and is not less than the earnings per share of Yellow common stock for the four fiscal quarters preceding the record date for solicitation of votes on the business combination multiplied by the price/earning multiple of the substantial stockholder, and the amount of consideration must be greater than or equal to the greatest of the highest price per share paid by the substantial stockholder in (1) the transaction in which it became a substantial stockholder or (2) within five years immediately prior to public announcement of the business combination, or the highest preferential amount per share to which stockholders are entitled upon liquidation, dissolution, or winding up, or the fair market value per share on the date that the business combination was announced or on the date on which the substantial stockholder became a substantial stockholder, whichever is higher, or the fair market value multiplied by the ratio of (1) the highest price per share paid by the substantial stockholder within five years immediately prior to the date that the business combination was announced to (2) the fair market value per share on the first date within the five years immediately prior to the date that the business combination was announced on which the substantial stockholder acquired shares, and the consideration must be paid in cash or the same form of consideration paid by the substantial stockholder to acquire its shares, and after the substantial stockholder has acquired at least 10% of the outstanding shares and prior to the consummation of the business combination, the substantial stockholder has ensured that the board of directors included continuing directors in a number proportionate to the ratio of the amount of shares owned by those other than the substantial stockholder to the total amount of outstanding shares, and there has been no reduction in the rate of dividends payable to common stockholders, except as approved by majority vote of the continuing directors, and the substantial stockholder has not acquired any newly issued shares (except upon conversion of convertible securities acquired prior to obtaining a 10% interests or as a result of a stock dividend or stock split), and the substantial stockholder has not acquired any additional shares of outstanding common stock (or securities convertible into or exchangeable for common stock), except for in the transaction in which the substantial stockholder acquired its 10% interest, and prior to the consummation of the business combination, the substantial stockholder must not have received any financial assistance or tax credits from Yellow or made any major changes in the Yellow's business or equity capital structure, unless approved by a majority of the continuing directors, and

As used in the Yellow certificate of incorporation, a business combination includes any merger or consolidation with or into any substantial stockholder or its affiliate, or any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition to or with any substantial stockholder or its affiliate of Yellow's assets having an aggregate fair market value of at least $5,000,000, or the issuance or transfer of Yellow securities to any substantial stockholder or its affiliate in exchange for consideration with a fair market value of at least $5,000,000, or the adoption of a plan for liquidation or dissolution of Yellow proposed by or on behalf of a substantial stockholder or an affiliate of the substantial stockholder, or any reclassification of securities or similar transaction which increases the proportionate share of any class of equity or convertible securities of Yellow or any of its subsidiaries owned by a substantial stockholder or a substantial stockholder's affiliate.

Arrangements Between the Corporation and Others. Under Yellow's certificate of incorporation, arrangements or compromises between Yellow and its creditors and compromises or arrangements between Yellow and its stockholders must be agreed upon by three-fourths of the creditors and/or three-fourths of the stockholders, and sanctioned by a Delaware court as described in Yellow's certificate of incorporation in order to be binding on all the creditors and/or stockholders, and on Yellow.

Annual Meetings

Under Yellow's bylaws, annual meetings of stockholders must be held on a date in April as fixed annually by Yellow's board of directors. Roadway's bylaws provide that annual meetings of stockholder will be held on any date designated by Roadway's board of directors or by the Chairman of the Board.

Special Meetings

Under Yellow's bylaws, a special meeting of the stockholders may be called by the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, or a majority of the Yellow board of directors. Yellow's certificate of incorporation stipulates that a special meeting may be called only by the board of directors pursuant to a resolution approved by a majority of the board of directors or by the Chairman of the Board or President, upon timely written notice. Roadway's bylaws specify that, except for a special meeting of preferred stockholders (which must be called in the manner specified in the resolutions of the Roadway board of directors providing for the issue of the preferred stock), special meetings of stockholders may be called only by the Chairman of the Board or his duly authorized representative, but must be called within 10 days after receipt of a written request in the form of a resolution approved by a majority of the total number of directors that Roadway would have if there were no vacancies. Yellow's bylaws require that special meetings be held at the principal office of Yellow in Overland Park, Kansas. Roadway's bylaws provide that special meetings of stockholders may be held at any place the Roadway board of directors determine and designate.

Notice of Meetings to Stockholders. Both Yellow's and Roadway's bylaws, as well as Yellow's certificate of incorporation, specify that written notice of stockholder meetings must be given not less than 10 and no more than 60 days prior to the meeting. In addition, Roadway's bylaws specify that written notice of stockholder meetings must be given, however, by personal delivery or mail. Under Roadway's bylaws any stockholder may waive this requested notice in writing.

Adjournment and Notice of Adjournment of Stockholder Meetings. Under Yellow's bylaws, if a quorum fails to attend a meeting of stockholders, the chairman of the meeting, or the holders of a majority of the shares entitled to vote who are present in person or by proxy at the meeting, may adjourn the meeting to another date or time. If a quorum does attend a Yellow meeting of stockholders, the meeting may be adjourned by a majority of the votes cast on a proposal to adjourn or postpone the meeting. Under Roadway's bylaws, whether or not a quorum is present, the holders of a majority of the voting power of the shares represented at the meeting of stockholders may adjourn the meeting from time to time. Under Yellow's bylaws, written notice need not be given of an adjourned meeting if its place, date and time are announced at the meeting at which the adjournment is taken, and the adjourned meeting is held no later than 14 days after the date of the original meeting. Under Roadway's bylaws, notice of the adjourned meeting need not be given if the time and place to which it is adjourned are fixed and announced at the meeting at which the adjournment vote is taken.

Quorum at a Stockholder Meeting. Under Yellow s bylaws, the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote at a meeting of stockholders, present in person or by proxy, constitutes a quorum, unless or except where the presence of a larger number of holders is required by law. Yellow s bylaws also provide that, if notice of an adjourned special meeting of stockholders is sent to all stockholders entitled to vote at the adjourned special meeting that states that the adjourned special meeting will be held with those present constituting a quorum, then, except as otherwise required by law, those present at the adjourned special meeting will constitute a quorum, and all matters will be determined by a majority of votes cast at the adjourned special meeting. Under Roadway's bylaws, the holders of a majority of the voting power of outstanding Roadway shares present in person or by proxy, constitutes a quorum, except as otherwise provided by law.

Notice of Stockholder Business. Yellow's bylaws provide that notice of business to be brought by a particular stockholder before an annual meeting must be received not less than 60 nor more than 90 days prior to the annual meeting, unless the meeting is held on less than 70 days notice or prior public disclosure of the meeting date, in which case notice must be received by the tenth day following the day on which notice of the date of the annual meeting was mailed or such public disclosure was made. Additionally, Yellow's bylaws provide that, to be in proper written form, such notice must contain, for each matter,

the class and number of shares beneficially owned by the stockholder, and a description of the material interest of the stockholder in the matter.

Roadway's bylaws provide that notice of stockholder business must be delivered personally, or by mail to Roadway's secretary at Roadway's principal executive office not less than 30 nor more than 60 days prior to the meeting one-year anniversary of the date of the notice for the prior year's annual meeting. Additionally, Roadway's bylaws provide that, to be in proper written form, the notice must contain a full description of each item of proposed business, the name and address of the person proposing business, the class and number of shares held both of record and beneficially, and represented by proxy, by this person as of the record date and as of the date of the notice, and a description of the material interest of the stockholder in the proposed business.

Proxies and Voting. Under Yellow's bylaws, each stockholder has one vote for every share of stock. The number of votes per stockholder is not specified in Roadway's bylaws.

Roadway's bylaws provide that a person appointed as proxy does not need to be a stockholder. Yellow's bylaws are silent on this issue. Yellow's bylaws provide that all voting may be by a voice vote unless a stock vote is demanded. Roadway's bylaws give the chairman of the meeting the power to determine whether a particular vote will be by written ballot.

Edgar Filing: YELLOW CORP - Form S-4

Under Yellow's bylaws, all elections must be determined by a plurality of the votes cast, and all other matters, except as otherwise required by law or under the Yellow certificate of incorporation or bylaws, must be determined by a majority of the votes cast. Roadway's bylaws provide that all questions except the election of directors will be decided by a majority of those present and provide that, in elections of directors, the candidates receiving the greatest number of votes will be elected. Roadway's bylaws provide that the results of any election to be decided by stock voting as a class will be determined by a majority vote of the shares present from that class. Roadway's bylaws also provide that shares that are present or represented that abstain from voting on particular questions will be deemed to have not voted on those questions. Under Yellow's bylaws, votes taken by ballot must be counted by an inspector or inspectors appointed by the chairman of the meeting. Roadway's bylaws provide that the board of directors will appoint the inspectors of election, and only upon the board's failure to appoint inspectors or an appointee's failure to serve as an inspector may the chairman of the meeting do so. Finally, Roadway's bylaws provide that the chairman of the meeting must fix and announce at the meeting the opening and closing of polls for each matter subject to voting.

Nomination of Directors. Under Yellow's bylaws, written nominations must be properly delivered or mailed not less than 14 and no more than 50 days prior to the election meeting. If less than 21 days' notice of the meeting is given to the stockholders, however, written nominations must be properly delivered or mailed by the end of the seventh day following the day on which notice of the meeting was mailed to the stockholders. Under Roadway's bylaws and the certificate of incorporation, written nominations must be properly received not less than 70 days prior to the meeting. However, if notice of the election meeting was not publicly announced more than 30 days in advance of the meeting, written nominations must be properly delivered by the end of the tenth day following the day on which the public announcement was communicated. Proper nominations of candidates for Yellow's board of directors must include the name, age, and certain addresses of the nominee, the principal occupation/employment of the nominee and the number of shares beneficially owned by the nominee. In contrast, proper nominations of candidates for Roadway's board of directors must include the name and address of the nominating stockholder as well as that of the nominee, a representation that the nominating stockholder is a holder of record entitled to vote to elect directors and will attend the election meeting in person or by proxy to make the nomination, a description of all arrangements between the nominating stockholder and the nominee, information about the nominee as would be required in a proxy statement had the nominee been nominated by the board of directors and the consent of the nominee to serve if elected.

Number of Directors on Board. Yellow's certificate of incorporation provides that the board of directors may, from time to time, set the number of directors, provided that the number is not less than 5 and no more than 15. Currently, the bylaws of Yellow specify that the board of directors must consist of seven members. The bylaws and certificate of incorporation of Roadway on the other hand provide that the board of directors may, from time to time, fix the number of directors, but the number of directors must not be less than three.

Vacancies of Directors. Vacant positions on Yellow's board of directors, under Yellow's bylaws and certificate of incorporation, may be filled by a majority vote of the directors remaining in office, even if less than a quorum. New positions and vacancies on Roadway's board of directors, under Roadway's bylaws will be filled by the affirmative vote of the remaining directors, even if less than a quorum, or by the sole remaining director. Roadway's certificate of incorporation clarifies this provision by requiring the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors, even if less than a quorum, or the approval of the sole remaining director, to fill new positions and vacancies on Roadway's board of directors.

Removal of Directors. A director of Yellow, under Yellow's bylaws, may be removed for cause by a majority vote of the stockholders entitled to vote in the election of directors. The certificate of incorporation of Yellow expressly indicates that a director may only be removed from office if that director is convicted of a felony and the conviction cannot be appealed, or if that director has been adjudged by a court to be incompetent or liable for negligence or misconduct in his duty to Yellow, and the adjudication cannot be appealed. A director of Roadway may be removed by the vote of the holders of 50% of the outstanding stock entitled to vote in the election of directors. The certificate of incorporation of Roadway, on the other hand stipulates that removal of directors requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the outstanding stock entitled to vote in the election of directors.

Quorum of the Board of Directors. The bylaws of Yellow provide that one-third of the total number of the whole board, though not less than two directors, will constitute a quorum for all purposes. Roadway's bylaws provide that a majority of the directors then in office constitutes a quorum.

Amendment of Bylaws. The Yellow bylaws may be amended by the affirmative vote at an annual or special meeting of 75% of the outstanding shares entitled to vote at the meeting if the notice of the meeting included the amendment of the bylaws as a purpose of the meeting, or by the affirmative vote of a majority of the board of directors at the meeting. The Roadway bylaws may be amended by the affirmative vote at an annual or special meeting of a majority of the shares represented and entitled to vote at the meeting if the notice of the meeting included the amendment of the bylaws as a purpose of the meeting, or by a majority vote of those present at a meeting of the board of directors at which a quorum is present. The Roadway certificate of incorporation in contrast requires the affirmative vote of the holders of 80% of the outstanding shares entitled to vote in the election of directors to amend specific provisions of the Roadway bylaws.

Amendment of Certificates of Incorporation. The certificate of incorporation for Roadway requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the outstanding shares entitled to vote in the election of directors amend specific provisions of the certificate of incorporation. The certificate of incorporation of Yellow requires a similar stockholder vote, unless the amendment to specific certificate of incorporation provisions is recommended by a majority of continuing directors.

RECENT AND PROPOSED FINANCINGS

5.0% Contingent Convertible Senior Notes

On August 8, 2003, Yellow issued $200.0 million in aggregate principal amount of 5.0% contingent convertible senior notes due 2023. On August 15, 2003, Yellow issued an additional $50.0 million in aggregate principal amount of these notes pursuant to the exercise of the initial purchasers' over-allotment option. The notes are convertible upon the occurrence of certain events at a conversion price of $39.24 per share, subject to adjustment. The notes will mature on August 8, 2023, and we may redeem some or all of the notes at any time on or after August 13, 2010, at a redemption price, payable in cash, of 100% of the principal amount of the notes plus accrued and unpaid interest (including contingent interest, if any). Yellow intends to use the net proceeds of the notes to finance a portion of the merger and, if the merger is not consummated, for general corporate purposes.

Proposed Financings

Yellow has commitment letters from certain affiliates of the initial purchasers that provide, subject to the satisfaction of specified conditions and completion of definitive documentation, for financing in an amount necessary to finance the cash portion of the merger consideration, to refinance certain existing indebtedness of Yellow and Roadway and to pay related costs. We have agreed to use our commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the financing contemplated by these commitment letters or financing from other sources reasonably acceptable to us to consummate the merger. The proposed senior secured financing is expected to consist of a term loan facility, a pre-funded letter of credit facility and a revolving loan facility. Certain amounts under the commitment letters will be reduced by the amount of gross proceeds received by Yellow from its recent offering of $250.0 million in aggregate principal amount of 5.0% contingent convertible senior notes due 2023. If the merger occurs, it is contemplated that at the effective time of the merger the cash portion of the merger consideration and Yellow Roadway's capital and liquidity needs (including refinancing of certain existing indebtedness of Yellow and Roadway) will be financed with a combination of proceeds from Yellow's recent offering of 5.0% contingent convertible senior notes due 2023, proceeds from the sale of other senior debt securities, senior secured bank financing, other debt financings and cash on hand.

In addition, following consummation of the Roadway acquisition, Roadway LLC, as a subsidiary of Yellow Roadway, and its subsidiaries will continue to be obligated on Roadway Corporation's $225.0 million aggregate principal amount of 8.25% senior notes due 2008.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO YELLOW S CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

Yellow s board of directors has also approved a proposal to amend Yellow s certificate of incorporation to change Yellow s corporate name from Yellow Corporation to Yellow Roadway Corporation . This proposed amendment, if approved by the Yellow stockholders at the Yellow special meeting, would take effect only if the merger is consummated. Approval of the name change amendment is not a prerequisite to approval of the merger. The certificate of amendment to effect the name change is attached to this joint proxy statement/prospectus as Annex E.

Approval of this proposed amendment requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Yellow s common stock. The Yellow Board of Directors recommends that Yellow Stockholders vote FOR this amendment.

LEGAL MATTERS

The validity of the shares of Yellow common stock to be issued in the merger will be passed on for Yellow by Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P., counsel to Yellow. Carl W. Vogt, a member of Yellow's board of directors, currently serves as Of Counsel for Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P. and was a partner and senior partner from 1974 to 2002. He owns 10,049 shares of Yellow common stock and has options to purchase an additional 10,712 shares. Certain tax consequences of the merger will be passed on for Yellow by Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P. and for Roadway by Jones Day.

STOCKHOLDER PROPOSALS

Yellow must receive Yellow stockholders' proposals, or if the merger is consummated, Yellow Roadway stockholders' proposals, intended to be presented at the 2004 annual meeting by November 7, 2003 to be eligible for inclusion in the proxy materials relating to that meeting. Stockholder proposals as to which we receive notice that are proposed to be brought before the 2004 annual meeting (outside the process of the Securities and Exchange Commission's rule on stockholder proposals described in the preceding sentence) will be considered not properly brought before that meeting, and will be out of order, unless we receive the notice as to that matter not less than 60 days nor more than 90 days prior to the date of the 2004 annual meeting, in accordance with our bylaws. If, however, Yellow gives less than 70 days notice of the date of the 2004 annual meeting, then, to be timely, Yellow must receive notice of a stockholder proposal by the 10th day following the day that we mail notice of, or publicly disclose, the date of the 2004 annual meeting. Yellow may use its discretionary authority to preclude any stockholder proposal received after that time from presentation at the 2004 annual meeting.

Stockholders who wish to suggest qualified candidates to stand for election to Yellow's board of directors may write to the Secretary, Yellow Corporation, 10990 Roe Avenue, Overland Park, Kansas 66211, stating in detail and in accordance with Yellow's bylaws the qualifications of the persons they recommend. To be considered at the 2004 annual meeting, you must mail or deliver a recommendation to us not less than 14 days nor more than 50 days prior to the date of the 2004 annual meeting. If, however, Yellow gives less than 21 days notice of the date of the 2004 annual meeting, you must mail or deliver a recommendation by the seventh day following the day that Yellow mails notice of the date of the 2004 annual meeting. The Governance Committee of the board of directors will consider these suggestions.

To the extent the merger is not consummated, Roadway must receive by October 24, 2003 any proposal of a stockholder intended to be presented at Roadway's 2004 annual meeting and to be included in Roadway's proxy materials related to the 2004 annual meeting pursuant to Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Proposals of stockholders submitted outside the processes of Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in connection with the 2004 annual meeting, or non-Rule 14a-8 proposal, must be received by Roadway by January 22, 2004 or these proposals will be considered untimely under the advance notice provisions of the Roadway bylaws. Non-Rule 14a-8 proposals must comply with certain provisions of Roadway's bylaws. Roadway's proxy related to the 2004 annual meeting will give discretionary authority to the proxy holders to vote with respect to all non-Rule 14a-8 proposals received by Roadway after January 22, 2004. Notices of stockholder proposals should be delivered personally or mailed, and any request for a copy of Roadway's bylaws (which will be provided at no charge to any holder of Roadway common stock) should be directed, to the Secretary of Roadway at its principal offices.

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

This Agreement and Plan of Merger is dated as of July 8, 2003, among Yellow Corporation, a Delaware corporation ( Parent ), Yankee LLC, a Delaware limited liability company ( Sub ) and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent, and Roadway Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the Company ).

WHEREAS, the respective Boards of Directors of each of Parent and the Company, and the sole member of Sub, have approved the acquisition of the Company by Parent on the terms and subject to the conditions of this Agreement and Plan of Merger (this Agreement );

(b) The limited liability company agreement of Sub as in effect at the Effective Time shall be the limited liability company agreement of the Surviving Company until thereafter changed or amended as provided therein or by applicable law.

ARTICLE 2

INTERESTS OF THE CONSTITUENT COMPANIES; EXCHANGE OF CERTIFICATES

2.1 Effect on Capital Stock and Membership Interests. As of the Effective Time, by virtue of the Merger and without any action on the part of any holder thereof:

(a) Membership Interests of Sub. Each issued and outstanding membership interest of Sub shall be converted into and become an equivalent fully paid and nonassessable membership interest of the Surviving Company.

(b) Cancellation of Treasury Shares and Parent Owned Shares. All Company Shares that are owned directly or indirectly by the Company as treasury stock and any Company Shares owned by Parent, Sub or any other wholly owned subsidiary of Parent shall be canceled, and no consideration shall be delivered in exchange therefor.

Edgar Filing: YELLOW CORP - Form S-4

(c) Conversion of Company Shares. Subject to the provisions of Section 2.4, each issued and outstanding Company Share (other than shares to be canceled in accordance with Section 2.1(b) and Dissenting Shares (as defined in Section 2.10) that have properly exercised appraisal rights pursuant to Section 262 of the DGCL) will be converted, at the option of the holder thereof, into the right to receive (x) a number of fully paid, non-assessable shares of common stock, $1.00 par value per share, of Parent (the Parent Common Stock) equal to the Exchange Ratio (as defined below) (the Stock Consideration) or (y) upon a valid Cash Election as provided in Section 2.1(d) below, $48.00 in cash from Parent (the Cash Consideration) and, together with the Stock Consideration, the Merger Consideration), subject to the limitations set forth in Sections 2.1(d), 2.1(e) and 2.1(g). The Exchange Ratio shall be equal to 1.924; provided, however, that (A) if the Average Closing Price (as defined below) of Parent Common Stock is less than $21.21, then the Exchange Ratio shall be the quotient of $40.81 and the Average Closing Price, or (B) if the Average Closing Price of Parent Common Stock is greater than $28.69, then the Exchange Ratio shall be the quotient of $55.20 and the Average Closing Price. Average Closing Price means the average of the closing prices as reported in The Wall Street Journal for each of the 20 consecutive Trading Days in the period ending five Trading Days prior to the date of the Closing. Trading Day means a day on which the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. National Market ( Nasdaq National Market ) is open for trading.

(d) Cash Election. Subject to the immediately following sentence and to Sections 2.1(e) and 2.1(g), each record holder of Company Shares immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be entitled to elect, with respect to each Company Share, to receive cash (a Cash Election ). Notwithstanding the foregoing, the aggregate number of Company Shares that may be converted into the right to receive Cash Consideration (the Cash Election Number ) shall not exceed an amount equal to the product of 50% multiplied by the aggregate number of shares of Company Shares outstanding at 5:00 p.m. Eastern Time on the second Trading Day prior to the Effective Time; provided that the Cash Election Number shall be adjusted as provided in Section 2.1(g). To the extent not covered by a properly given Cash Election, all shares of Company Shares issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall, except as provided in Section 2.1(b) and Section 2.1(e), be converted solely into shares of Parent Common Stock.

(e) Cash Election Adjustments. If the aggregate number of Company Shares covered by Cash Elections (the Cash Election Shares ) exceeds the Cash Election Number, each Cash Election Share shall be converted into (i) the right to receive an amount in cash, without interest, equal to the product of (a) the Cash Consideration and (b) a fraction (the Cash Fraction ), the numerator of which shall be the Cash Election Number and the denominator of which shall be the total number of Cash Election Shares, and (ii) a number of shares of Parent Common Stock equal to the product of (a) the Exchange Ratio and (b) a fraction equal to one minus the Cash Fraction. If the Cash Election Shares are less than the Cash Election Number, then the right to receive a share of Parent Common Stock included in the Stock Consideration shall be converted into (x) the right to receive an amount in cash, without interest, equal to the product of (a) the Cash Consideration and (b) a fraction (the Stock Fraction ) the numerator of which is the excess of (1) the number of Company Shares that are not Cash Election Shares (the Stock Election Shares ) included in the Stock Consideration over (2) the Cash Election Number, and the denominator of which is the total number of shares of Stock Election Shares, and (y) the number of shares of Parent Common Stock equal to the product of (a) the Exchange Ratio and (b) a fraction equal to one minus the Stock Fraction.

(f) Computation of Conversion Rates. The Exchange Agent (as defined in Section 2.2(a)), in consultation with Parent and the Company, will make all computations to give effect to this Section 2.1.

(g) Reduction in Cash Election Number. If, after having made the calculations under Section 2.1(e), the value of the Parent Common Stock (excluding fractional shares to be paid in cash) to be issued in the Merger, valued at the lesser of (i) the Average Closing Price and (ii) the average of the high and low trading prices of the Parent Common Stock on the day before the date of the Closing (or, if determined to be more appropriate by either Jones Day or Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P., prices of the Parent Common Stock on the date of the Closing) as reported on the Nasdaq National Market, is less than 45% of the total consideration to be paid in exchange for the Company Shares (including, without limitation, the amount of cash to be paid in lieu of fractional shares or for Dissenting Shares and any other payments required to be considered in determining whether the continuity of interest requirements applicable to reorganizations under Section 368 of the Code have been satisfied) (the Total Consideration ), then the Cash Election Number shall be reduced and the number of shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued with respect to the Company Shares shall be increased as near pro rata in value as practicable to the extent necessary so that the value of Parent Common Stock (as determined pursuant to this Section 2.1(g)) is 45% of the Total Consideration. For purposes of this Section 2.1(g), the cash to be paid for any Dissenting Share shall be deemed to have a value equal to the quotient of (x) the Aggregate Non-Dissenting Value and (y) the total number of Non-Dissenting Shares. For purposes of the preceding sentence, Non-Dissenting Shares shall be the number of Company

Shares minus any Dissenting Shares and the Aggregate Non-Dissenting Value shall be the aggregate value of (1) the cash consideration paid for Non-Dissenting Shares plus (2) the product of the number of shares of Parent Common Stock issued in exchange for Non-Dissenting Shares and the lesser of (i) the Average Closing Price and (ii) the average of the high and low trading prices of the Parent Common Stock on the day before the date of the Closing (or, if determined to be more appropriate by either Jones Day or Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P., closing prices of the Parent Common Stock on the date of the Closing).

2.2 Surviving Company to Make Certificates Available.

(a) Exchange of Certificates. The Company and Parent shall authorize Mellon Investor Services LLC (or such other person or persons as shall be reasonably acceptable to the Company and Parent) to act as Exchange Agent hereunder (the Exchange Agent). As soon as practicable after the Effective Time, Sub shall deposit with the Exchange Agent for the benefit of the holders of certificates, which immediately prior to the Effective Time represented Company Shares (the Certificates), the Cash Consideration, without interest, and certificates representing the shares of Parent Common Stock (such Cash Consideration and shares of Parent Common Stock, together with any dividends or distributions with respect thereto payable as provided in Section 2.3, being hereinafter referred to as the Exchange Fund) issuable pursuant to Section 2.1(c) in exchange for outstanding Company Shares.

(i) Not fewer than 20 Business Days prior to the date of the Closing, the Exchange Agent will mail a form of election (the Form of Election), which will include a Form W-9, to holders of record of shares of Company Shares (as of a record date as close as practicable to the date of mailing and mutually agreed to by Parent and the Company). In addition, the Exchange Agent will use its best efforts to make the Form of Election available to the persons who become shareholders of the Company during the period between such record date and the Election Deadline (as defined below). Any election to receive Cash Consideration contemplated by Section 2.1(d) will have been properly made only if the Exchange Agent shall have received at its designated office or offices, by 4:00 p.m. New York, New York time, on the Trading Day that is the fourth Trading Day prior to the date of the Closing (the Election Deadline), a Form of Election properly completed and accompanied by one or more Certificates to which such Form of Election relates, duly endorsed in blank or otherwise acceptable for transfer on the books of the Company (or an appropriate guarantee of delivery), as set forth in such Form of Election. An election may be revoked only by written notice received by the Exchange Agent prior to 4:00 p.m., New York, New York time, on the Election Deadline. In addition, all elections shall automatically be revoked if the Exchange Agent is notified by Parent and the Company that the Merger has been abandoned. If an election is so revoked, the Certificate(s) (or guarantee of delivery, as appropriate) to which such election relates will be promptly returned to the person who submitted the same to the Exchange Agent. Parent shall have the power, which it may delegate in whole or in part to the Exchange Agent, to determine, in its reasonable good faith judgment, whether Forms of Election have been properly completed, signed and submitted or revoked pursuant to this Section 2.2, and to disregard immaterial defects in Forms of Election. The decision of Parent in such matters shall be conclusive and binding.

(ii) As soon as reasonably practicable after the Effective Time, the Exchange Agent will mail to each holder of record of a Certificate whose Company Shares were converted into the right to receive Merger Consideration (other than with respect to Certificates subject to a valid Form of Election), (A) a letter of transmittal (which will specify that delivery will be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates will pass, only upon proper delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent and will be in such form and have such other provisions as Parent and the Company may specify consistent with this Agreement) and (B) instructions for use in effecting the surrender of the Certificates in exchange for the Stock Consideration.

(iii) After the Effective Time, with respect to properly made elections in accordance with Section 2.2(b), and upon surrender in accordance with Section 2.2(b)(ii) of a Certificate for cancellation to the Exchange Agent, together with such letter of transmittal, duly executed, and such other documents as may reasonably be required by the Exchange Agent, the holder of such Certificate will be entitled to receive in exchange therefor the Merger Consideration that such holder has the right to receive therefor pursuant to the provisions of this ARTICLE 2, certain dividends or other distributions, if any, in accordance with Section 2.3 and cash in lieu of any fractional share of Parent Common Stock in accordance with Section 2.4, and the Certificate so surrendered will forthwith be cancelled. In the event of a transfer of ownership of Company Shares that are not registered in the transfer records of the Company, payment may be issued to a person other than the person in whose name the Certificate so surrendered is registered (the Transferee) if such Certificate is properly endorsed or otherwise in proper form for transfer and the Transferee pays any transfer or other taxes required by reason of such payment to a person other than the registered holder of such Certificate or establishes to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such tax has been paid or is not applicable. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 2.2(b), each Certificate will be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive, upon such surrender, the Merger Consideration that the holder thereof has the right to receive in respect of such Certificate pursuant to the provisions of this ARTICLE 2, together with certain dividends or other distributions, if any, in accordance with Section 2.3 and cash in lieu of any fractional share of Parent Common Stock in accordance with Section 2.4. No interest will be paid or will accrue on any cash payable to holders of Certificates pursuant to the provisions of this ARTICLE 2.

2.3 Dividends; Transfer Taxes. No dividends or other distributions that are declared on or after the Effective Time on Parent Common Stock or are payable to the holders of record thereof on or after the Effective Time will be paid to persons entitled by reason of the Merger to receive certificates representing Parent Common Stock until such persons surrender their Certificates, as provided in Section 2.2, and no Cash Consideration or cash payment in lieu of fractional shares shall be paid to any such holder pursuant to Section 2.4, until such holder of such Certificate shall so surrender such Certificate. Subject to the effect of applicable law, there shall be paid to the record holder of the certificates representing such Parent Common Stock (a) at the time of such surrender or as promptly as practicable thereafter, the amount of any dividends or other distributions theretofore paid with respect to whole shares of such Parent Common Stock and having a record date on or after the Effective Time and a payment date prior to such surrender and (b) at the appropriate payment date or as promptly as practicable thereafter, the amount of dividends or other distributions payable with respect to whole shares of Parent Common Stock and having a record date on or after the Effective Time but prior to surrender and a payment date subsequent to surrender. In no event shall the person entitled to receive such dividends or other distributions be entitled to receive interest on such dividends or other distributions. If any cash or certificate representing shares of Parent Common Stock is to be paid to or issued in a name other than that in which the Certificate surrendered in exchange therefor is registered, it shall be a condition of such exchange that the Certificate so surrendered shall be properly endorsed and otherwise in proper form for transfer and that the person requesting such exchange shall pay to the Exchange Agent any transfer or other taxes required by reason of the issuance of certificates for such shares of Parent Common Stock in a name other than that of the registered holder of the Certificate surrendered, or shall establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such tax has been paid or is not applicable.

2.4 No Fractional Shares. No certificates or scrip representing fractional shares of Parent Common Stock shall be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates pursuant to this ARTICLE 2, and no Parent dividend or other distribution or stock split or combination shall relate to any fractional security, and such fractional interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any rights of a security holder of Parent. In lieu of any such fractional securities, each holder of Company Shares who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of Parent Common Stock (after taking into account all Company Shares then held of record by such holder) shall receive cash (without interest) in an amount equal to the product of such fractional part of a share of Parent Common Stock multiplied by the Average Closing Price and rounded to the nearest cent. As promptly as practicable after the determination of the amount of cash, if any, to be paid to holders of fractional interests, the Exchange Agent shall so notify Parent, and Parent shall deposit or cause the Surviving Company to deposit, such amount with the Exchange Agent and shall cause the Exchange Agent to forward payments to such holders of fractional interests subject to and in accordance with the terms hereof.

2.5 Return of Exchange Fund.

(a) Any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains undistributed to the former stockholders of the Company for one year after the Effective Time shall be delivered to Parent, upon demand of Parent, and any former stockholders of the Company who have not theretofore complied with this ARTICLE 2 shall thereafter look only to Parent for payment of their claim for Parent Common Stock, Cash Consideration, any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock and any dividends or distributions with respect to Parent Common Stock. None of the Company, Parent or the Surviving Company shall be liable to any holder of Company Shares for the Cash Consideration, shares of Parent Common Stock (or dividends or distributions with respect thereto) or cash in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock delivered to a public official pursuant to any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

(b) The Exchange Agent shall invest any cash included in the Exchange Fund, as directed by Parent, on a daily basis. Any interest and other income resulting from such investments will be paid to Parent.

2.6 Further Ownership Rights in Company Shares. All shares of Parent Common Stock issued, and all Cash Consideration paid, upon the surrender for exchange of Certificates in accordance with the terms hereof (including any cash paid pursuant to Sections 2.3 or 2.4) shall be deemed to have been issued or paid, as the case may be, in full satisfaction of all rights pertaining to the Company Shares, subject, however, to the Surviving Company's obligation to pay any dividends or make any other distribution with a record date prior to the Effective Time which may have been declared or made by the Company on Company Shares in accordance with the terms of this Agreement.

2.7 Lost Certificates. If any Certificate shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming such Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Parent, the posting by such person of a bond in such reasonable amount as Parent may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Certificate, the Exchange Agent will deliver in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Certificate the Cash Consideration and the number of shares of Parent Common Stock to which such person is entitled pursuant to Section 2.1 with respect to the Company Shares formerly represented thereby, any cash in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Common Stock to which such holders are entitled pursuant to Section 2.4 and unpaid dividends and distributions on shares of Parent Common Stock to which such holders are entitled pursuant to this Agreement.

2.8 Withholding Rights. Each of the Surviving Company and Parent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of Company Shares and Company Stock Options such amounts as it is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, or any provision of state, local or foreign tax law. To the extent that amounts are so withheld by the Surviving Company or Parent, as the case may be, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holders of the Company Shares and Company Stock Options in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by the Surviving Company or Parent, as the case may be.

2.9 Closing of the Company Transfer Books. At the Effective Time, the stock transfer books of the Company shall be closed and no transfer of Company Shares shall thereafter be made. If, after the Effective Time, Certificates are presented to the Surviving Company, they shall be canceled and exchanged as provided in this ARTICLE 2.

2.10 Dissenting Shares. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, Company Shares that are issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time and held by holders of such Company Shares who exercise appraisal rights with respect thereto in accordance with applicable provisions of the DGCL, including, without limitation, Section 262 thereof (the Dissenting Shares) will not be exchangeable for the right to receive the Merger Consideration, and holders of such Dissenting Shares will be entitled to receive payment of the appraised value of such Dissenting Shares in accordance with those provisions unless and until such holders fail to perfect or effectively withdraw or lose their rights to appraisal and payment under the DGCL. If, after the Effective Time, any such holder fails to perfect or effectively withdraws or loses such rights to appraisal and payment under the DGCL, such Dissenting Shares will thereupon be treated as if they had been converted into and to have become exchangeable for, at the Effective Time, the right to receive the Merger Consideration, without any interest thereon. The Company shall give Parent prompt notice of any demands received by the Company for appraisals of Company Shares. The Company shall not, except with the prior written consent of Parent, make any payment with respect to any demands for appraisal or offer to settle or settle any such demands. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if Parent or the Company abandons or is finally enjoined or prevented from carrying out, or the stockholders rescind their approval of the Merger and adoption of, this Agreement, the right of each holder of Dissenting Shares to receive payment of the appraised value of Company Shares as provided herein shall terminate, effective as of the time of such abandonment, injunction, prevention or rescission.

(ii) The Company will furnish to Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P., counsel to Parent and Sub, copies of all correspondence, filings or communications (or memoranda setting forth the substance thereof (collectively, Company Regulatory Documents )) between the Company, or any of its respective representatives, on the one hand, and any Governmental Entity, or members of the staff of such agency or authority, on the other hand, with respect to this Agreement or the Merger; provided, however, that (A) with respect to documents and other materials filed by or on behalf of the Company with the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice, the United States Federal Trade Commission, or any state attorneys general that are available for review by Parent and Sub, copies will not be required to be provided to Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P. and (B) with respect to any Company Regulatory Documents (1) that contain any information which, in the reasonable judgment of Jones Day, should not be furnished to Parent or Sub because of antitrust considerations or (2) relating to a request for additional information pursuant to Section (e)(1) of the HSR Act, the obligation of the Company to furnish any such Company Regulatory Documents to Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P. shall be satisfied by the delivery of such Company Regulatory Documents on a confidential basis to Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P. pursuant to a confidentiality agreement in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Parent. Except as otherwise required by United States regulatory considerations, Parent and Sub will furnish to Jones Day, counsel to the Company, copies of all correspondence, filings or communications (or memoranda setting forth the substance thereof (collectively, Parent Regulatory Documents )) between Parent, Sub or any of their respective representatives, on the one hand, and any Governmental Entity, or member of the staff of such agency or authority, on the other hand, with respect to this Agreement or the Merger; provided, however, that (A) with respect to documents and other materials filed by or on behalf of Parent or Sub with the Antitrust Division of the United States Department of Justice, the United States Federal Trade Commission, or any state attorneys general that are available for review by the Company, copies will not be required to be provided to Jones Day and (B) with respect to any Parent Regulatory Documents (1) that contain information which, in the reasonable judgment of Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P., should not be furnished to the Company because of antitrust considerations or (2) relating to a request for additional information pursuant to Section (e)(1) of the HSR Act, the obligation of Parent and Sub to furnish any such Parent Regulatory Documents to Jones Day shall be satisfied by the delivery of such Parent Regulatory Documents on a confidential basis to Jones Day pursuant to a confidentiality agreement in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Company.

(iii) At the election of Parent and the Company, the Company and Parent shall use reasonable efforts to defend all litigation under the federal or state antitrust laws of the United States which if adversely determined would, in the reasonable opinion of Parent and the Company (based on the advice of outside counsel), be likely to result in the failure of the condition set forth in Section 6.1(c) not being satisfied, and to appeal any order, judgment or decree, which if not reversed, would result in the failure of such condition. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed so as to require Parent, Sub or the Company, or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates, to sell, license, dispose of, or hold separate, or to operate in any specified manner, any assets or businesses of Parent, Sub, the Company or the Surviving Company (or to require Parent, Sub, the Company or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates to agree to any of the foregoing). The obligations of each party under Section 5.3(a) to use commercially reasonable efforts with respect to antitrust matters shall be limited to compliance with the reporting provisions of the HSR Act and with its obligations under this Section 5.3(c).

5.4 Letter of the Company's Accountants. The Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause to be delivered to Parent and Sub two letters from Ernst & Young LLP, the Company's independent public accountants, one dated a date within two business days before the date on which the S-4 shall become effective and one dated two business days before the Effective Time, each addressed to Parent and Sub and customary in scope and substance for letters delivered by independent public accountants in connection with registration statements similar to the S-4.

5.6 Fees and Expenses. Except as provided in ARTICLE 8, all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the Merger, this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be paid by the party incurring such fees or expenses, whether or not the Merger is consummated; provided, however, that all fees and expenses incurred in connection with the filings and related matters under the HSR Act shall be borne equally by Parent and the Company.

5.7 Treatment of Stock Options. Each option to purchase Company Shares granted under a Company Stock Plan that is outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (a Company Stock Option ) shall become fully exercisable at the Effective Time. Subject to the provisions of Section 2.4, each Company Stock Option with an exercise price that is equal to or less than $24.00 shall be cancelled and the holder of such Company Stock Option shall be entitled to receive (i) Parent Company Shares in an amount equal to the number of Company Shares subject to the Company Stock Option multiplied by one-half of the Exchange Ratio, and (ii) cash in an amount equal to (x) (I) $24.00 minus (II) the exercise price per Company Share under the Company Stock Option, multiplied by (y) the number of Company Shares subject to the Company Stock Option. The Company shall (i) withhold from such cash payment or, if the cash portion of such payment is insufficient, require the holder of such Company Stock Option to pay in cash or surrender shares of Parent Common Stock to pay for any amounts necessary under federal and, if applicable, state tax laws, and (ii) pay over to the appropriate taxing authorities all amounts the Company is required to withhold under federal and, if applicable, state tax laws. The Company shall (i) require the holder of such Company Stock Option to pay in cash or surrender shares of Parent Common Stock to pay for any amounts necessary under federal and, if applicable, state tax laws, and (ii) pay over to the appropriate taxing authorities all amounts the Company is required to withhold under federal and, if applicable, state tax laws. As soon as practicable after the date hereof, the Board of Directors of the Company and any committee of the Board of Directors of the Company administering the Company's Stock Plans shall take all action necessary to accomplish the foregoing, including obtaining any required consents from any person.

5.8 Treatment of Phantom Stock Rights. Each phantom stock award under a Company Benefit Plan shall be modified by substituting phantom shares of Parent Common Stock ( Substitute Shares ) for phantom Company Shares deemed credited under the award. The number of Substitute Shares that shall be deemed credited under an award shall be equal to the product of (a) the Exchange Ratio multiplied by (b) the number of phantom Company Shares deemed credited under the award. Fractional shares may be deemed credited under the awards. Except as modified pursuant to this Section 5.8, the terms and conditions of the phantom stock awards, including vesting and time and form of payment provisions, existing at the Effective Time shall remain in effect. As soon as practicable after the date hereof, the Board of Directors of the Company and any committee of the Board of Directors of the Company administering the Company's Benefit Plans shall take all action necessary to accomplish the foregoing, including obtaining required consents from any persons.

5.9 Appointment of Additional Directors. The Board of Directors of Parent shall take action prior to the Effective Time to cause the number of directors comprising the full Board of Directors of Parent immediately following the Effective Time to be increased to 11 persons, and cause Frank P. Doyle, John F. Fiedler and Phillip J. Meek to be elected to the Board of Directors of Parent to hold office from the period commencing one business day after the Effective Time until their respective successors are duly elected or appointed and qualified in the manner provided in the Parent Charter Documents or as otherwise provided by law.

5.10 Public Announcements. Parent and the Company shall consult with each other before issuing, and provide each other the opportunity to review, comment upon and concur with and use reasonable efforts to agree on, any press release or other broadly disseminated public statements and any broadly distributed internal communications with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, including the Merger, and shall not issue any such press release or make any such broadly disseminated public statement prior to such consultation, except as either party may determine is required by applicable law, court process or by obligations pursuant to any listing agreement with the Nasdaq National Market and except for any discussions with rating agencies. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the immediately preceding sentence, either party may respond to questions from stockholders or inquiries from financial analysts and media representatives in a manner that is consistent with then-existing public disclosures. The parties agree that the initial press release to be issued with respect to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be in the form heretofore agreed to by the parties.

5.11 Agreement to Defend. In the event any claim, action, suit, investigation or other proceeding by any Governmental Entity or other person or other legal administrative proceeding is commenced that questions the validity or legality of the transactions contemplated hereby or seeks damages in connection therewith, the parties hereto agree to give the other reasonable opportunity to participate in the defense thereof.

5.12 Nasdaq National Market. Parent shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to list on the Nasdaq National Market, upon official notice of issuance, the shares of Parent Common Stock to be issued in connection with the Merger.

5.13 Agreements of Others. The Company shall deliver to Parent, no later than 20 days after the date of this Agreement, a letter identifying each person whom the Company reasonably believes is an affiliate of the Company for purposes of Rule 145 under the Securities Act. Thereafter and until the date of the Company Stockholder Meeting, the Company shall identify to Parent each additional person whom the Company reasonably believes to have thereafter become an affiliate. The Company shall use its commercially reasonable efforts to cause each person who is identified as an affiliate pursuant to the two immediately preceding sentences to deliver to Parent, prior to the Effective Time, a written agreement, substantially in the form of Exhibit A to this Agreement.

5.14 Directors and Officers Indemnification.

(a) From and after the Effective Time, Parent and Surviving Company shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless each person who is now, or has been at any time prior to the date hereof, or who becomes prior to the Effective Time, an officer, director or employee of the Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries (each, an Indemnified Party and collectively, the Indemnified Parties) against (i) all losses, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses), claims, damages or liabilities or, subject to the proviso of the next succeeding sentence, amounts paid in settlement, arising out of actions or omissions occurring at or prior to the Effective Time (and whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the Effective Time) that are, in whole or in part, based on or arising out of the fact that such person is or was a director, officer or employee of the Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries or served as a fiduciary under or with respect to any employee benefit plan (within the meaning of Section 3(3) of ERISA) at any time maintained by or contributed to by the Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries (Indemnified Liabilities), and (ii) all Indemnified Liabilities to the extent they are based on or arise out of or pertain to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Without limitation to clauses (i) and (ii), Parent and the Surviving Company shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless, and provide advancement of expenses to, all past and present officers, directors and employees of the Company and the Company Subsidiaries (in all of their capacities) to the same extent such persons are indemnified or have the right to advancement of expenses as of the date of this Agreement by the Company pursuant to the Company's certificate of incorporation, bylaws and indemnification agreements, if any, in existence on the date hereof. In the event of any such Indemnified Liability, (i) Parent and Surviving Company shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of counsel selected by the Indemnified Parties, which counsel shall be reasonably satisfactory to Parent, promptly after statements therefor are received and otherwise advance to such Indemnified Party upon request reimbursement of documented expenses reasonably incurred, (ii) Parent shall cooperate in the defense of such matter and (iii) any determination required to be made with respect to whether an Indemnified Party's conduct complies with the standards set forth under applicable law and the certificate of incorporation or by-laws shall be made by independent counsel mutually acceptable to Parent and the Indemnified Party; provided, however, that Parent and the Surviving Company shall not be liable for any settlement effected without its written consent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed). If any Indemnified Party is required to bring any action to enforce rights or to collect moneys due under this Agreement and is successful in such action, Parent and the Surviving Company shall reimburse such Indemnified Party for all of its expenses reasonably incurred in connection with bringing and pursuing such action including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. In addition, from and after the Effective Time, directors and officers of the Company who become directors or officers of Parent will be entitled to indemnification to the extent provided in Parent's certificate of incorporation and by-laws, as the case may be, as the same may be amended from time to time in accordance with their terms and applicable law.

(b) If Parent or any of its successors or assigns (i) consolidates with or merges into any other person and is not the continuing or surviving corporation or entity of such consolidation or merger or (ii) transfers or conveys all or substantially all of its properties and assets to any person, then, and in each such case, proper provision will be made so that the successors and assigns of Parent assume the obligations set forth in this Section 5.14

(c) For six years after the Effective Time, Parent shall maintain in effect directors' and officers' liability insurance covering acts or omissions occurring prior to the Effective Time with respect to those persons who are currently covered by the Company's directors' and officers' liability insurance policy on terms with respect to such coverage and amount no less favorable than those of the policy of the Company in effect on the date hereof; provided, however, that in no event will Parent be required to pay aggregate annual premiums for insurance under this Section 5.14(c) in excess of twice the most recent aggregate annual premium paid by the Company for such purpose (which annual aggregate premium the Company represents and warrants to be $1,972,200 in the aggregate); provided, further, that if the annual premiums of such insurance coverage exceed such amount, Parent will be obligated to obtain a policy with the best coverage available, in the reasonable judgment of the Board of Directors of Parent, for a cost up to but not exceeding such amount. In addition, for six years after the Effective Time, Parent shall maintain in effect fiduciary liability insurance policies for employees who serve or have served as fiduciaries under or with respect to any employee benefit plans described in Section 5.14 of the Company Disclosure Schedule with coverages and in amounts no less favorable than those of the policies of the Company in effect on the date hereof.

(d) The provisions of this Section 5.14 (i) are intended to be for the benefit of, and will be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party, his or her heirs and his or her representatives and (ii) are in addition to, and not in substitution for, any other rights to indemnification or contribution that any such person may have by contract or otherwise.

5.15 Employee Benefit/Labor Matters. (a) Parent shall, or shall cause the Surviving Company or its subsidiaries to, take such actions as are necessary to grant those employees who are, as of the Effective Time, employed by the Company or a Company Subsidiary and are not included in a unit of employees covered by a collective bargaining agreement (the Continuing Employees) credit for Past Service (as defined below) for purposes of initial eligibility to participate, and vesting under, any employee benefit plans maintained by Parent, the Surviving Company or any subsidiary of Parent or the Surviving Company in which they are eligible to participate. Past Service shall mean a Continuing Employees' service with the Company or any subsidiary of the Company to the same extent recognized by the Company and the Company Subsidiaries. Parent shall, or shall cause the Surviving Company and its subsidiaries to, take such actions as are necessary to give Continuing Employees credit for their Past Service for purposes of determining the amounts of sick pay, holiday pay and vacation pay they are eligible to receive under any sick pay, holiday pay and vacation pay policies and programs maintained by Parent, the Surviving Company or any subsidiary of the Surviving Company in which they are eligible to participate. With respect to each Continuing Employee who is an active participant in a group health plan (as defined in section 5000(b) of the Code) other than a flexible spending account arrangement (a Company Health Plan) immediately prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall, or shall cause the Surviving Company or its subsidiaries, to take such actions as are necessary to ensure that the group health plan (other than a flexible spending account arrangement) maintained by Parent, the Surviving Company or one of its subsidiaries in which such Continuing Employee is eligible to participate during the calendar year in which the Effective Time occurs (the Current Year) shall (i) waive any preexisting condition restrictions and waiting period requirements to the extent that such preexisting condition restrictions and waiting period requirements were waived or satisfied under the applicable Company Health Plan in which such Continuing Employee participated immediately prior to the Effective Time; and (ii) provide credit, for the Current Year, for any copayments or deductible payments made by the Continuing Employee and out of pocket expenditures incurred by the Continuing Employee under the applicable Company Health Plan for the Current Year.

(b) Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, each Continuing Employee (other than a Continuing Employee who has entered into a CIC Agreement) whose employment is terminated by the Surviving Company without cause during the twelve-month period (or such longer period as may be required by the terms of the applicable severance plan of the Company as in effect on the date hereof) following the Effective Time shall be entitled to receive severance pay and benefits equal to the severance pay and benefits under the applicable severance plan of the Company listed on Section 3.1(n)(i) of the Company Disclosure Schedule, as in effect on the date hereof; provided that the Continuing Employee executes a release agreement that is reasonably satisfactory to Parent. For purposes of this Section 5.15(b), without cause shall mean termination of employment for any reason except due to (i) gross negligence, (ii) misuse or unauthorized appropriation of trade secrets or other confidential information of Parent, the Surviving Company or any of their subsidiaries, (iii) theft of property from Parent, the Surviving Company or any of their subsidiaries, (iv) willful damage to the property of Parent, the Surviving Company or any of their subsidiaries or (v) any material failure by the Continuing Employee to perform any term or condition of his employment.

(c) Parent acknowledges that by operation of law the Surviving Company and its subsidiaries shall continue to be obligated to comply with the terms of any Company Benefit Plans that are maintained by the Company and the Company Subsidiaries immediately prior to the Effective Time; provided, however, nothing herein shall restrict Parent's or the Surviving Company's or its subsidiaries' ability to amend or terminate such Plans in accordance with their terms.

(d) Parent acknowledges that by operation of law the Surviving Company and its subsidiaries shall continue to be obligated to comply with the terms of the agreements listed on Section 5.15(d) of the Company Disclosure Schedule (the CIC Agreements). Parent acknowledges that the consummation of the Merger contemplated by this Agreement will constitute a Change of Control within the meaning of each of the CIC Agreements.

(e) Parent acknowledges that by operation of law, after the Effective Time the Company Subsidiaries that are parties to collective bargaining agreements shall continue to be obligated to comply with the terms of such collective bargaining agreements.

5.16 Section 16(b). Parent and the Company shall take all steps reasonably necessary to cause the acquisitions of shares of Parent Common Stock or other equity securities (including derivative securities) of Parent in connection with the Merger, and subsequent dispositions of such equity securities of Parent (including derivative securities), by each individual who is a director or officer of the Company to be exempt under Rule 16b-3 under the Exchange Act.

5.17 Financing. Parent shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the financing contemplated by the Commitment Letters or financing from other sources reasonably acceptable to Parent to consummate the Merger and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Until such time as Parent has obtained such financing, Parent shall maintain the Commitment Letters in full force and effect and shall not permit any amendment or modification to be made to, or any waiver of any provision or remedy under, the Commitment Letters, without the prior written consent of the Company, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. The Company will not be considered to have unreasonably withheld consent under this Section 5.17 if the amendment, modification, waiver or action for which consent is requested would, in the reasonable judgment of the Company, jeopardize Parent's receipt of the financing contemplated by the Commitment Letters. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary included in Section 4.2(a), Parent shall not, and shall cause the Parent Subsidiaries not to, without the prior written consent of the Company, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, take any action or enter into any transaction, including, without limitation, any merger, acquisition, joint venture, disposition, lease, contract or debt or equity financing that would materially impair, materially delay or prevent the financing contemplated by the Commitment Letters. Following the date hereof, Parent shall notify the Company if Parent determines, based on Parent's good faith estimates, that all or any portion of such financing is not reasonably likely to be consummated.

5.18 Tax Matters. Parent and the Company shall use reasonable best efforts to cause the Merger to qualify as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code and to obtain the Tax opinions set forth in Sections 6.2(d) and 6.3(d) hereof. This Agreement is intended to constitute a plan of reorganization within the meaning of Treas. Reg. Sec. 1.368-2(g). Officers of Parent, Sub and the Company shall execute and deliver to Jones Day, counsel to the Company, and Fulbright & Jaworski L.L.P., counsel to Parent, certificates containing appropriate representations at such time or times as may be reasonably requested by such law firms, including the effective date of the S-4 and the date of the Closing, in connection with their respective deliveries of opinions, pursuant to Sections 6.3(d) and 6.2(d) hereof, with respect to the Tax treatment of the Merger. None of Parent, Sub or the Company shall take or cause to be taken any action that would cause to be untrue (or fail to take or cause not to be taken any action that would cause to be untrue) any of such certificates and representations.

7.4 Amendment. This Agreement may be amended by the parties at any time before or after Company Stockholder Approval is obtained; provided, however, that after such Company Stockholder Approval, there shall be made no amendment that by law requires further approval by such stockholders without the further approval of such stockholders. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed on behalf of each of the parties.

7.5 Extension; Waiver. At any time prior to the Effective Time, the parties may, to the extent legally allowed, (a) extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or the other acts of the other parties, (b) waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties contained herein or in any document delivered pursuant hereto or (c) subject to the proviso of Section 7.4 and applicable law and regulations, waive compliance with any of the agreements or conditions contained herein. Any agreement on the part of a party to any such extension or waiver shall be valid only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed on behalf of such party. The failure of any party to this Agreement to assert any of its rights under this Agreement or otherwise shall not constitute a waiver of such rights.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS AS TO CERTAIN MATTERS

8.1 Takeover Defenses of the Company. The Company shall take such action with respect to any anti-takeover provisions in the Company Charter Documents or afforded it by statute to the extent necessary to consummate the Merger on the terms set forth in this Agreement.

8.2 No Solicitation.

(a) The Company shall not, and shall not authorize or permit any officer, director or employee of, or any investment banker, attorney or other advisor, agent or representative of, the Company ( Company Representatives ) to, and on becoming aware of will take all reasonable actions to stop such person from continuing to, directly or indirectly, (i) solicit, initiate or encourage or otherwise intentionally facilitate (including by way of furnishing information) the making of any Acquisition Proposal (as defined below), (ii) enter into any agreement (other than confidentiality and standstill agreements in accordance with the immediately following proviso) with respect to any Acquisition Proposal, or (iii) participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding, or furnish to any person any information with respect to, or take any other action to intentionally facilitate any inquiries or the making of any proposal that constitutes, or may reasonably be expected to lead to, any Acquisition Proposal; provided, however, that in the case of this clause (iii), to the extent reasonably believed to be required by the fiduciary obligations of the Board of Directors of the Company, determined in good faith by the members thereof, after consultation with outside legal counsel, the Company may at any time prior to Company Stockholder Approval, but not thereafter if the Merger is approved thereby, and subject to the Company providing written notice to Parent of its decision to take such action in response and only in response to an unsolicited written request therefor received by the Company or any Company Representative that did not otherwise result from a breach of this Section 8.2(a), (A) furnish information to any person or group (within the meaning of Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act) pursuant to a confidentiality agreement on substantially the same terms as provided in the Confidentiality Agreements referred to in Section 5.2(b) hereof and otherwise enter into discussions and negotiations with such person or group as to any superior proposal (as defined in Section 8.2(c)) such person or group has made, or any Acquisition Proposal made by such person or group that the Board of Directors in good faith determines is reasonably likely to lead to a superior proposal. The Company immediately shall cease and shall cause to be terminated any existing solicitation, initiation, encouragement, activity, discussion or negotiation with any parties conducted prior to the date hereof by the Company or any Company Representatives with respect to any Acquisition Proposal existing on the date hereof. For purposes of this Agreement, Acquisition Proposal means (i) any proposal, other than a proposal by Parent or any of its affiliates, for a merger or other business combination involving the Company, (ii) any proposal or offer, other than a proposal or offer by Parent or any of its affiliates, to acquire from the Company or any of its affiliates in any manner, directly or indirectly, more than a 20% equity interest in the Company, more than 20% of the voting securities of the Company or a material amount of the assets of the Company, or (iii) any proposal or offer, other than a proposal or offer by Parent or any of its affiliates, to acquire from the stockholders of the Company by tender offer, exchange offer or otherwise more than 20% of the outstanding Company Shares.

(b) Except as expressly permitted by this Section 8.2(b), neither the Board of Directors of the Company nor any committee thereof shall (i) withdraw or modify, or propose publicly to withdraw or modify, in a manner adverse to Parent or Sub, the approval or recommendation by the Board of Directors of the Company or any such committee of this Agreement or the Merger or take any action having such effect or (ii) approve or recommend, or propose publicly to approve or recommend, any Acquisition Proposal. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event the Board of Directors of the Company receives an Acquisition Proposal that, in the exercise of its fiduciary obligations (as determined in good faith by a majority of the disinterested members thereof after consultation with outside legal counsel), it determines to be a superior proposal, the Board of Directors may withdraw or modify its approval or recommendation of this Agreement or the Merger and may terminate this Agreement, if (A) the Company provides Parent with written notice (a Notice of Superior Proposal) (x) advising Parent that the Board of Directors has received an Acquisition Proposal which it has determined to be a superior proposal, (y) specifying the material terms and conditions of such superior proposal (including the proposed financing for such proposal and a copy of any documents conveying such proposal) and (z) identifying the party making such superior proposal, (B) for a period of three business days following Parent's receipt of a Notice of Superior Proposal, the Company otherwise cooperates with Parent with respect to the Acquisition Proposal that constitutes a superior proposal with the intent of enabling Parent to engage in good faith negotiations to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of the Merger as would enable the Company to proceed with the Merger on such adjusted terms, (C) at the end of such three business day period the Board of Directors of the Company continues reasonably to believe that the Acquisition Proposal constitutes a superior proposal and (D) the Company pays the Termination Fee as provided in Section 8.3. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall prohibit the Company from taking and disclosing to its stockholders a position contemplated by Rule 14e-2(a) under the Exchange Act following the Company's receipt of an Acquisition Proposal.

(c) For purposes of this Agreement, a superior proposal means any bona fide Acquisition Proposal to acquire, directly or indirectly, including pursuant to a tender offer, exchange offer, merger, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction, for consideration consisting of cash, securities or a combination thereof, more than 50% of the Company Shares then outstanding or more than 50% of the assets of the Company and the Company Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, in a single transaction or series of related transactions and otherwise on terms which the Board of Directors of Company determines in its good faith judgment (after consultation with a financial advisor) to be more favorable to the Company's stockholders than the Merger and (i) for which financing, in the good faith judgment of the Board of Directors of the Company, is reasonably capable of being obtained by such third party and (ii) which, in the good faith judgment of the Board of Directors of the Company, is reasonably likely of being completed.

8.3 Fee and Expense Reimbursements.

(a) The Company agrees to pay Parent a fee in immediately available funds (in recognition of the fees and expenses incurred to date by Parent in connection with the matters contemplated hereby) of $25,000,000 ( Termination Fee ) if this Agreement is terminated:

(i) by Parent or the Company as permitted by Section 7.1(b)(i), and, prior to the Company Stockholder Meeting, a third party has made a bona fide written Acquisition Proposal that has not been withdrawn prior to the Company Stockholders Meeting and (B) within 18 months of such termination the Company or any of the Company Subsidiaries enters into any acquisition agreement or consummates any Acquisition Proposal (for purposes of the foregoing clause the term Acquisition Proposal has the meaning assigned to such term in Section 8.2(a) except that the references to 20% in the definition are deemed to be references to 50% );

(ii) by the Company as permitted by Section 7.1(d); or

(iii) by Parent pursuant to Section 7.1(g).

The Termination Fee shall be payable: (1) two business days after the first to occur of the execution of an acquisition agreement or the consummation of the Acquisition Proposal, in the case of clause (i) above; (2) on the date of termination of this Agreement in the case of clause (ii) above; and (3) two business days after termination of this Agreement in the case of clause (iii) above. The Company acknowledges that the agreements contained in this Section 8.3(a) are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and that, without these agreements, Parent would not enter into this Agreement.

(b) Parent agrees to pay the Company a fee in immediately available funds (in recognition of the fees and expenses incurred to date by the Company in connection with the matters contemplated hereby) of $25,000,000 within two business days after the termination of this Agreement by the Company pursuant to Section 7.1(h). Parent acknowledges that the agreements contained in this Section 8.3(b) are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and that, without these agreements, the Company would not enter into this Agreement.

(c) If this Agreement is terminated at such time that this Agreement is terminable pursuant to either (but not both) of Section 7.1(e) or Section 7.1(f), then the party whose representations or warranties are inaccurate or who has breached its covenants or other agreements contained in this Agreement shall promptly (but not later than two business days after receipt of notice of such termination from the other party) pay to the other party an amount equal to all documented out-of-pocket expenses and fees incurred by the other party (including, without limitation, fees and expenses payable to all legal, accounting, financial, public relations and other professional advisors arising out of or in connection with or related to the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement) ( Out-of-Pocket Expenses ), and the non-breaching party may pursue any remedies available to it at law or in equity and will, in addition to its Out-of-Pocket Expenses (which are to be paid as specified above), be entitled to recover such additional amounts as such non-breaching party may be entitled to receive at law or in equity.

Ladies and Gentlemen:

I have been advised that as of the date hereof I may be deemed to be an affiliate of Roadway Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the Company), as the term affiliate is defined for purposes of paragraphs (c) and (d) of Rule 145 of the Rules and Regulations (the Rules and Regulations) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission) under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (together with the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, the Securities Act). Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of July 8, 2003 (the Merger Agreement), by and among the Company, Yellow Corporation, a Delaware corporation (Parent), and Yankee LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (Sub), the Company will be merged with and into Sub, in consideration of cash and shares of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Parent (Parent Common Stock), with Sub as the surviving company (the Merger).

I represent, warrant, and covenant to Parent and Sub that in the event I receive any Parent Common Stock as a result of the Merger:

A. I shall not make any sale, transfer or other disposition of any Parent Common Stock acquired by me in the Merger in violation of the Securities Act.

B. I have carefully read this letter and the Merger Agreement and discussed their requirements and other applicable limitations upon my ability to sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of Parent Common Stock, to the extent I felt necessary, with my counsel or counsel for Parent and Sub.

C. I have been advised that the issuance of Parent Common Stock to me pursuant to the Merger has been or will be registered with the Commission under the Securities Act on a Registration Statement on Form S-4. I have also been advised, however, that, because at the time the Merger will be submitted for a vote of the stockholders of the Company, I may be deemed to be an affiliate of the Company, the distribution by me of any Parent Common Stock acquired by me in the Merger will not be registered under the Securities Act and that I may not sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of any Parent Common Stock acquired by me in the Merger unless (i) such sale, transfer, or other disposition has been registered under the Securities Act, (ii) such sale, transfer, or other disposition is made in conformity with the volume and other limitations of Rule 145 promulgated by the Commission under the Securities Act, or (iii) in the opinion of counsel reasonably acceptable to Parent such sale, transfer, or other disposition is otherwise exempt from registration under the Securities Act.

D. I understand that Parent is under no obligation to register under the Securities Act the sale, transfer, or other disposition by me or on my behalf of any Parent Common Stock acquired by me in the Merger or to take any other action necessary in order to make an exemption from such registration available.

E. I also understand that stop transfer instructions will be given to Parent's transfer agent with respect to Parent Common Stock and that there will be placed on the certificates for any Parent Common Stock acquired by me in the Merger, or any substitutions therefore, a legend stating in substance:

The shares represented by this certificate were issued in a transaction to which Rule 145 promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933 applies. The shares represented by this certificate may only be transferred in accordance with the terms of an agreement dated as of _____, 2003, between the registered holder hereof and the issuer of this certificate, a copy of which agreement will be mailed to the holder hereof without charge within five days after receipt of written request therefore.

F. I also understand that unless the transfer by me of my Parent Common Stock has been registered under the Securities Act or is a sale made in conformity with the provisions of Rule 145, Parent reserves the right to put the following legend on the certificates issued to my transferee:

The shares represented by this certificate have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933 and were acquired from a person who received such shares in a transaction to which Rule 145

promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933 applies. The shares may not be sold, pledged, or otherwise transferred except in accordance with an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933.

It is understood and agreed that the legends set forth in paragraph E and F above shall be removed by the delivery of substitute certificates without such legend if the undersigned shall have delivered to Parent a copy of a letter from the staff of the Commission, or an opinion of counsel in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to Parent, to the effect that such legend is not required for purposes of the Securities Act.

I understand that (a) Parent will supply me with any information necessary to enable me to make routine sales of any Parent Common Stock acquired by me in the Merger as may be permitted, by and in accordance with, the provisions of Rule 144 under the Securities Act or any similar rule of the Commission hereafter applicable, and (b) Parent will comply with all requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, (the Exchange Act ) with respect to the filing by Parent of annual, periodic and other reports on a timely basis in a manner sufficient to allow sales of any such Parent Common Stock by me during the three year period following the Effective Time (as defined in the Merger Agreement) if such sales are otherwise permitted by law or regulation. Upon my written request, Parent shall furnish me with a written statement representing that it has complied with the reporting requirements enumerated in Rule 144(c)(1), or if Parent is not then subject to Section 13 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act, that it has made publicly available the information concerning Parent required by Rule 144(c)(2).

ANNEX B

Opinion of Deutsche Bank Securities, Inc. dated as of July 8, 2003

July 8, 2003

Board of Directors Yellow Corporation

10990 Roe Avenue, PO Box 7563

Ladies and Gentlemen:

Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. ( Deutsche Bank ) has acted as financial advisor to Yellow Corporation ( Yellow ) in connection with the proposed combination of Yellow and Roadway Corporation (the Company ) pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated as of July 8, 2003, among the Company, Yellow and Yankee LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Yellow ( Yellow Sub ) (the Merger Agreement ), which provides, among other things, for the merger of the Company with and into Yellow Sub (the Transaction ), as a result of which the Company will become a wholly owned subsidiary of Yellow. As set forth more fully in the Merger Agreement, as a result of the Transaction, each share of the common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of the Company ( Company Common Stock ) not owned directly or indirectly by the Company or Yellow will be converted into the right to receive, at the election of the holder, either (a) a number of fully paid, non-assessable shares of common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Yellow ( Yellow Common Stock ) equal to the Exchange Ratio (as defined below) (the Stock Consideration ), or (b) $48.00 in cash from Yellow (the Cash Consideration and, together with the Stock Consideration, the Merger Consideration ), subject to the election, proration and other conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the Exchange Ratio equals 1.924, provided that if the average closing price of Yellow Common Stock over the 20 trading days ending five trading days prior to the consummation of the Transaction is less than $21.21, then the Exchange Ratio will equal the quotient of $40.81 and such average closing price, and if such average closing price is more than $28.69, then the Exchange Ratio will equal the quotient of $55.20 and such average closing price. The terms and conditions of the Transaction are more fully set forth in the Merger Agreement.

You have requested Deutsche Bank's opinion, as investment bankers, as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Yellow of the Merger Consideration to be paid by Yellow in the Transaction.

In connection with Deutsche Bank's role as financial advisor to Yellow, and in arriving at its opinion, Deutsche Bank has reviewed certain publicly available financial and other information concerning the Company and Yellow and certain internal analyses and other information furnished to it by the Company and Yellow. Deutsche Bank has also held discussions with members of the senior managements of the Company and Yellow regarding the businesses and prospects of their respective companies and the joint prospects of a combined company. In addition, Deutsche Bank has (i) reviewed the reported prices and trading activity for Company Common Stock and Yellow Common Stock, (ii) compared certain financial and stock market information for the Company and Yellow with similar information for certain other companies whose securities are publicly traded, (iii) reviewed the financial terms of certain recent business combinations which it deemed comparable in whole or in part, (iv) reviewed the terms of the Merger Agreement, and (v) performed such other studies and analyses and considered such other factors as it deemed appropriate.

Deutsche Bank has not assumed responsibility for independent verification of, and has not independently verified, any information, whether publicly available or furnished to it, concerning the Company or Yellow, including, without limitation, any financial information, forecasts or projections considered in connection with the rendering of its opinion. Accordingly, for purposes of its opinion, Deutsche Bank has assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all such information and Deutsche Bank has not conducted a physical inspection of any of the properties or assets, and has not prepared or obtained any independent evaluation or appraisal of any of the assets or liabilities, of the Company or Yellow. With respect to the financial forecasts and projections, including the analyses and forecasts of certain cost savings, operating efficiencies, revenue effects and financial synergies expected by Yellow and the Company to be achieved as a result of the Transaction (collectively, the Synergies ) made available to Deutsche Bank and used in its analyses, Deutsche Bank has assumed that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the management of the Company or Yellow, as the case may be, as to the matters covered thereby.

Yellow Corporation

In rendering its opinion, Deutsche Bank expresses no view as to the reasonableness of such forecasts and projections, including the Synergies, or the assumptions on which they are based. Deutsche Bank's opinion is necessarily based upon economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to it as of, the date hereof.

For purposes of rendering its opinion, Deutsche Bank has assumed that, in all respects material to its analysis, the representations and warranties of Yellow, Yankee Sub and the Company contained in the Merger Agreement are true and correct, Yellow, Yankee Sub and the Company will each perform all of the covenants and agreements to be performed by it under the Merger Agreement and all conditions to the obligations of each of Yellow, Yankee Sub and the Company to consummate the Transaction will be satisfied without any waiver thereof. Deutsche Bank has also assumed that all material governmental, regulatory or other approvals and consents required in connection with the consummation of the Transaction will be obtained and that in connection with obtaining any necessary governmental, regulatory or other approvals and consents, or any amendments, modifications or waivers to any agreements, instruments or orders to which either Yellow or the Company is a party or is subject or by which it is bound, no limitations, restrictions or conditions will be imposed or amendments, modifications or waivers made that would have a material adverse effect on Yellow or the Company or materially reduce the contemplated benefits of the Transaction to Yellow.

This opinion is addressed to, and for the use and benefit of, the Board of Directors of Yellow and is not a recommendation to the stockholders of Yellow to approve the Transaction. This opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Yellow of the Merger Consideration, and Deutsche Bank expresses no opinion as to the merits of the underlying decision by Yellow to engage in the Transaction.

Deutsche Bank will be paid a fee for its services as financial advisor to Yellow in connection with the Transaction, a substantial portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the Transaction. We are an affiliate of Deutsche Bank AG (together with its affiliates, the DB Group). One or more members of the DB Group have, from time to time, provided investment banking services to Yellow or its affiliates for which it has received compensation, including the spin-off of SCS Transportation and the completion of an equity offering for Yellow. A portion of the proceeds from the Transaction will be used to repay indebtedness of Yellow which has been extended in part by one or more members of the DB Group. One or more members of the DB Group have agreed to provide financing to Yellow in connection with the Transaction, for which they will receive compensation. In the ordinary course of business, members of the DB Group may actively trade in the securities and other instruments and obligations of Yellow and the Company for their own accounts and for the accounts of their customers. Accordingly, the DB Group may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities, instruments and obligations.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is Deutsche Bank's opinion as investment bankers that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration to be paid by Yellow in the Transaction is fair, from a financial point of view, to Yellow.

Very truly yours,

[LETTERHEAD OF CREDIT SUISSE FIRST BOSTON LLC]

July 8, 2003

Akron, Ohio 44310

Members of the Board of Directors:

You have asked us to advise you with respect to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of the common stock of Roadway Corporation ( Roadway ) of the Merger Consideration (as defined below) to be received by such holders pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, dated as of July 8, 2003, among Yellow Corporation ( Yellow ), Yankee LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Yellow ( Merger Sub ), and Roadway (the Merger Agreement ). The Merger Agreement provides for, among other things, the merger of Roadway with and into Merger Sub (the Merger ) pursuant to which each outstanding share of the common stock, par value $0.01 per share, of Roadway ( Roadway Common Stock ) will be converted, at the option of the holder thereof and subject to certain limitations, adjustments and proration procedures (as to which we express no opinion), into the right to receive (x) $48.00 in cash, without interest (the Cash Consideration ), or (y) 1.924 (the Exchange Ratio ) shares of the common stock, par value $1.00 per share, of Yellow ( Yellow Common Stock ) (the number of shares of Yellow Common Stock into which each outstanding share of Roadway Common Stock will be so converted in the Merger being referred to as the Stock Consideration and, together with the Cash Consideration, the Merger Consideration ); provided that, (i) if the average of the closing prices of Yellow Common Stock for each of the 20 consecutive trading days in the period ending five trading days prior to the closing date of the Merger (the Average Closing Price ) is less than $21.21, then the Exchange Ratio will be the quotient of $40.81 and the Average Closing Price or (ii) if the Average Closing Price is greater than $28.69, then the Exchange Ratio will be the quotient of $55.20 and the Average Closing Price.

In arriving at our opinion, we have reviewed the Merger Agreement and certain publicly available business and financial information relating to Roadway and Yellow. We also have reviewed certain other information relating to Roadway and Yellow, including financial forecasts, provided to or discussed with us by the managements of Roadway and Yellow, and have met with the managements of Roadway and Yellow to discuss the businesses and prospects of Roadway and Yellow. We have considered certain financial and stock market data of Roadway and Yellow and have compared those data with similar data for other publicly held companies in businesses similar to Roadway and Yellow, and we have considered, to the extent publicly available, the financial terms of certain other business combinations and transactions which have been effected. We also considered such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria which we deemed relevant.

In connection with our review, we have not assumed any responsibility for independent verification of any of the foregoing information and have relied on such information being complete and accurate in all material respects. With respect to the financial forecasts relating to Roadway and Yellow, we have been advised, and we have assumed, that such forecasts have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the managements of Roadway and Yellow as to the future financial performance of Roadway and Yellow and the potential cost savings and other synergies (including the amount, timing and achievability thereof) anticipated to result from the Merger. We also have assumed, with your consent, that the Merger will be treated as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. We further have assumed, with your consent, that the Merger will be consummated as set forth in the Merger Agreement without waiver, modification or amendment of any material term, condition or agreement thereof and that, in the course of obtaining any regulatory or third party consents, approvals or agreements in connection with the Merger, no limitations, restrictions or conditions will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Roadway, Yellow or the contemplated benefits of the Merger. We have not been requested to make, and we have not made, an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Roadway or Yellow, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. Our opinion is necessarily based upon information available to us, and financial, economic, market and other conditions as they exist and can be evaluated, on the date hereof. We are not expressing any opinion as to the actual value of Yellow Common Stock when issued to the holders of Roadway Common Stock pursuant to the Merger or the prices at which Yellow Common Stock will trade at any time. In connection with our engagement, we were not requested to, and we did not, solicit third party indications of interest in acquiring all or any part of Roadway. Our opinion does not address the relative merits of the Merger as compared to other business strategies that might be available to Roadway, nor does it address the underlying business decision of Roadway to proceed with the Merger.

We have acted as financial advisor to the Board of Directors of Roadway in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee for our services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the Merger. We also will receive a fee for rendering this opinion. We and our affiliates in the past have provided, and currently are providing, services to Roadway unrelated to the proposed Merger, for which services we and our affiliates have received, and expect to receive, compensation. We and our affiliates in the past have provided, and may in the future provide, investment banking and financial services to Yellow unrelated to the proposed Merger, for which services we and our affiliates have received, and would expect to receive, compensation. In the ordinary course of our business, we and our affiliates may actively trade securities of Roadway and Yellow for our and such affiliates' own accounts and for the accounts of customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

It is understood that this letter is for the information of the Board of Directors of Roadway in connection with its evaluation of the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote or act with respect to any matters relating to the Merger or the form of Merger Consideration, if any, to be elected by such stockholder.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Roadway Common Stock.

Very truly yours,

ANNEX D

§262 APPRAISAL RIGHTS.

(a) Any stockholder of a corporation of this State who holds shares of stock on the date of the making of a demand pursuant to subsection (d) of this section with respect to such shares, who continuously holds such shares through the effective date of the merger or consolidation, who has otherwise complied with subsection (d) of this section and who has neither voted in favor of the merger or consolidation nor consented thereto in writing pursuant to §228 of this title shall be entitled to an appraisal by the Court of Chancery of the fair value of the stockholder's shares of stock under the circumstances described in subsections (b) and (c) of this section. As used in this section, the word "stockholder" means a holder of record of stock in a stock corporation and also a member of record of a nonstock corporation; the words "stock" and "share" mean and include what is ordinarily meant by those words and also membership or membership interest of a member of a nonstock corporation; and the words "depository receipt" mean a receipt or other instrument issued by a depository representing an interest in one or more shares, or fractions thereof, solely of stock of a corporation, which stock is deposited with the depository.

(b) Appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation in a merger or consolidation to be effected pursuant to §251 (other than a merger effected pursuant to §251(g) of this title), §252, §254, §257, §258, §263 or §264 of this title:

(1) Provided, however, that no appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock, which stock, or depository receipts in respect thereof, at the record date fixed to determine the stockholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting of stockholders to act upon the agreement of merger or consolidation, were either (i) listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or (ii) held of record by more than 2,000 holders; and further provided that no appraisal rights shall be available for any shares of stock of the constituent corporation surviving a merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders of the surviving corporation as provided in subsection (f) of §251 of this title.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) of this subsection, appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of stock of a constituent corporation if the holders thereof are required by the terms of an agreement of merger or consolidation pursuant to §§251, 252, 254, 257, 258, 263 and 264 of this title to accept for such stock anything except:

a. Shares of stock of the corporation surviving or resulting from such merger or consolidation, or depository receipts in respect thereof;

b. Shares of stock of any other corporation, or depository receipts in respect thereof, which shares of stock (or depository receipts in respect thereof) or depository receipts at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. or held of record by more than 2,000 holders;

c. Cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a. and b. of this paragraph; or

d. Any combination of the shares of stock, depository receipts and cash in lieu of fractional shares or fractional depository receipts described in the foregoing subparagraphs a., b. and c. of this paragraph.

(3) In the event all of the stock of a subsidiary Delaware corporation party to a merger effected under §253 of this title is not owned by the parent corporation immediately prior to the merger, appraisal rights shall be available for the shares of the subsidiary Delaware corporation.

(c) Any corporation may provide in its certificate of incorporation that appraisal rights under this section shall be available for the shares of any class or series of its stock as a result of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation, any merger or consolidation in which the corporation is a constituent corporation or the sale of all or substantially all of the assets of the corporation. If the certificate of incorporation contains such a provision, the procedures of this section, including those set forth in subsections (d) and (e) of this section, shall apply as nearly as is practicable.

(d) Appraisal rights shall be perfected as follows:

(1) If a proposed merger or consolidation for which appraisal rights are provided under this section is to be submitted for approval at a meeting of stockholders, the corporation, not less than 20 days prior to the meeting, shall notify each of its stockholders who was such on the record date for such meeting with respect to shares for which appraisal rights are available pursuant to subsection (b) or (c) hereof that appraisal rights are available for any or all of the shares of the constituent corporations, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Each stockholder electing to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares shall deliver to the corporation, before the taking of the vote on the merger or consolidation, a written demand for appraisal of such stockholder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such stockholder's shares. A proxy or vote against the merger or consolidation shall not constitute such a demand. A stockholder electing to take such action must do so by a separate written demand as herein provided. Within 10 days after the effective date of such merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation shall notify each stockholder of each constituent corporation who has complied with this subsection and has not voted in favor of or consented to the merger or consolidation of the date that the merger or consolidation has become effective; or

(2) If the merger or consolidation was approved pursuant to §228 or §253 of this title, then, either a constituent corporation before the effective date of the merger or consolidation, or the surviving or resulting corporation within ten days thereafter, shall notify each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation who are entitled to appraisal rights of the approval of the merger or consolidation and that appraisal rights are available for any or all shares of such class or series of stock of such constituent corporation, and shall include in such notice a copy of this section. Such notice may, and, if given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, shall, also notify such stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation. Any stockholder entitled to appraisal rights may, within 20 days after the date of mailing of such notice, demand in writing from the surviving or resulting corporation the appraisal of such holder's shares. Such demand will be sufficient if it reasonably informs the corporation of the identity of the stockholder and that the stockholder intends thereby to demand the appraisal of such holder's shares. If such notice did not notify stockholders of the effective date of the merger or consolidation, either (i) each such constituent corporation shall send a second notice before the effective date of the merger or consolidation notifying each of the holders of any class or series of stock of such constituent corporation that are entitled to appraisal rights of the effective date of the merger or consolidation or (ii) the surviving or resulting corporation shall send such a second notice to all such holders on or within 10 days after such effective date; provided, however, that if such second notice is sent more than 20 days following the sending of the first notice, such second notice need only be sent to each stockholder who is entitled to appraisal rights and who has demanded appraisal of such holder's shares in accordance with this subsection. An affidavit of the secretary or assistant secretary or of the transfer agent of the corporation that is required to give either notice that such notice has been given shall, in the absence of fraud, be prima facie evidence of the facts stated therein. For purposes of determining the stockholders entitled to receive either notice, each constituent corporation may fix, in advance, a record date that shall be not more than 10 days prior to the date the notice is given, provided, that if the notice is given on or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the record date shall be such effective date. If no record date is fixed and the notice is given prior to the effective date, the record date shall be the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which the notice is given.

(e) Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, the surviving or resulting corporation or any stockholder who has complied with subsections (a) and (d) hereof and who is otherwise entitled to appraisal rights, may file a petition in the Court of Chancery demanding a determination of the value of the stock of all such stockholders. Notwithstanding the foregoing, at any time within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder shall have the right to withdraw such stockholder's demand for appraisal and to accept the terms offered upon the merger or consolidation. Within 120 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, any stockholder who has complied with the requirements of subsections (a) and (d) hereof, upon written request, shall be entitled to receive from the corporation surviving the merger or resulting from the consolidation a statement setting forth the aggregate number of shares not voted in favor of the merger or consolidation and with respect to which demands for appraisal have been received and the aggregate number of holders of such shares. Such written statement shall be mailed to the stockholder within 10 days after such stockholder's written request for such a statement is received by the surviving or resulting corporation or within 10 days after expiration of the period for delivery of demands for appraisal under subsection (d) hereof, whichever is later.

(f) Upon the filing of any such petition by a stockholder, service of a copy thereof shall be made upon the surviving or resulting corporation, which shall within 20 days after such service file in the office of the Register in Chancery in which the petition was filed a duly verified list containing the names and addresses of all stockholders who have demanded payment for their shares and with whom agreements as to the value of their shares have not been reached by the surviving or resulting corporation. If the petition shall be filed by the surviving or resulting corporation, the petition shall be accompanied by such a duly verified list. The Register in Chancery, if so ordered by the Court, shall give notice of the time and place fixed for the hearing of such petition by registered or certified mail to the surviving or resulting corporation and to the stockholders shown on the list at the addresses therein stated. Such notice shall also be given by 1 or more publications at least 1 week before the day of the hearing, in a newspaper of general circulation published in the City of Wilmington, Delaware or such publication as the Court deems advisable. The forms of the notices by mail and by publication shall be approved by the Court, and the costs thereof shall be borne by the surviving or resulting corporation.

(g) At the hearing on such petition, the Court shall determine the stockholders who have complied with this section and who have become entitled to appraisal rights. The Court may require the stockholders who have demanded an appraisal for their shares and who hold stock represented by certificates to submit their certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery for notation thereon of the pendency of the appraisal proceedings; and if any stockholder fails to comply with such direction, the Court may dismiss the proceedings as to such stockholder.

(h) After determining the stockholders entitled to an appraisal, the Court shall appraise the shares, determining their fair value exclusive of any element of value arising from the accomplishment or expectation of the merger or consolidation, together with a fair rate of interest, if any, to be paid upon the amount determined to be the fair value. In determining such fair value, the Court shall take into account all relevant factors. In determining the fair rate of interest, the Court may consider all relevant factors, including the rate of interest which the surviving or resulting corporation would have had to pay to borrow money during the pendency of the proceeding. Upon application by the surviving or resulting corporation or by any stockholder entitled to participate in the appraisal proceeding, the Court may, in its discretion, permit discovery or other pretrial proceedings and may proceed to trial upon the appraisal prior to the final determination of the stockholder entitled to an appraisal. Any stockholder whose name appears on the list filed by the surviving or resulting corporation pursuant to subsection (f) of this section and who has submitted such stockholder's certificates of stock to the Register in Chancery, if such is required, may participate fully in all proceedings until it is finally determined that such stockholder is not entitled to appraisal rights under this section.

(i) The Court shall direct the payment of the fair value of the shares, together with interest, if any, by the surviving or resulting corporation to the stockholders entitled thereto. Interest may be simple or compound, as the Court may direct. Payment shall be so made to each such stockholder, in the case of holders of uncertificated stock forthwith, and the case of holders of shares represented by certificates upon the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing such stock. The Court's decree may be enforced as other decrees in the Court of Chancery may be enforced, whether such surviving or resulting corporation be a corporation of this State or of any state.

(j) The costs of the proceeding may be determined by the Court and taxed upon the parties as the Court deems equitable in the circumstances. Upon application of a stockholder, the Court may order all or a portion of the expenses incurred by any stockholder in connection with the appraisal proceeding, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney's fees and the fees and expenses of experts, to be charged pro rata against the value of all the shares entitled to an appraisal.

(k) From and after the effective date of the merger or consolidation, no stockholder who has demanded appraisal rights as provided in subsection (d) of this section shall be entitled to vote such stock for any purpose or to receive payment of dividends or other distributions on the stock (except dividends or other distributions payable to stockholders of record at a date which is prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation); provided, however, that if no petition for an appraisal shall be filed within the time provided in subsection (e) of this section, or if such stockholder shall deliver to the surviving or resulting corporation a written withdrawal of such stockholder's demand for an appraisal and an acceptance of the merger or consolidation, either within 60 days after the effective date of the merger or consolidation as provided in subsection (e) of this section or thereafter with the written approval of the corporation, then the right of such stockholder to an appraisal shall cease. Notwithstanding the foregoing, no appraisal proceeding in the Court of Chancery shall be dismissed as to any stockholder without the approval of the Court, and such approval may be conditioned upon such terms as the Court deems just.

(l) The shares of the surviving or resulting corporation to which the shares of such objecting stockholders would have been converted had they assented to the merger or consolidation shall have the status of authorized and unissued shares of the surviving or resulting corporation.

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Capitalized terms used but not defined in Part II have the meanings ascribed to them in the proxy statement/prospectus contained in this Registration Statement.

ITEM 20. *Indemnification of Directors and Officers

The Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of Yellow Corporation together provide that Yellow's directors shall not be personally liable to Yellow or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability for (i) any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to Yellow or its stockholders, (ii) acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) under Section 174 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL"), or (iv) any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. The Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws of Yellow also provide that if the DGCL is amended to permit further elimination of limitation of the personal liability of the directors, then the liability of Yellow's directors shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the DGCL, as so amended.

Yellow maintains directors' and officers' liability insurance against any actual or alleged error, misstatement, misleading statement, act, omission, neglect or breach of duty by any director or officer, excluding certain matters including fraudulent, dishonest or criminal acts or self-dealing.

DGCL Section 102(b)(7) provides that Yellow may indemnify a present or former director if such director conducted him or herself in good faith and reasonably believed, in the case of conduct in his or her official capacity, that his or her conduct was in Yellow's best interests.

DGCL Section 145 provides that Yellow may indemnify its directors and officers, as well as other employees and individuals (each an "Indemnified Party", and collectively, "Indemnified Parties"), against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement in connection with specified actions, suits or proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, other than in connection with actions by or in the right of Yellow (a "derivative action"), if an Indemnified Party acted in good faith and in a manner such that the Indemnified Party reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to Yellow's best interests and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful. A similar standard is applicable in the case of derivative actions, except that Yellow may only indemnify an Indemnified Party for expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such derivative action. Additionally, in the context of a derivative action, DGCL Section 145 requires a court approval before there can be any indemnification where an Indemnified Party has been found liable to Yellow. The statute provides that it is not exclusive of other indemnification arrangements that may be granted pursuant to a corporation's charter, bylaws, disinterested director vote, stockholder vote, agreement or otherwise.

In the Agreement and Plan of Merger among Yellow Corporation, Yankee LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of Yellow ("Sub"), and Roadway Corporation ("Roadway"), dated as of July 8, 2003, pursuant to which Roadway will be merged with and into Sub, with Sub as the surviving company (the "Roadway Merger"), Yellow has agreed to indemnify the former officers and directors of Roadway from liabilities arising out of actions or omissions in their capacity as such prior to the effective time of the Roadway Merger, and advance reasonable litigation expenses incurred in connection with such actions or omissions, to the full extent permitted under Roadway's certificate of incorporation and bylaws. Further, for a period of six years after the effective time of the Roadway Merger, Yellow will provide Roadway's officers and directors with an insurance and indemnification policy that provides coverage for acts or omissions through the effective time of the Roadway Merger; provided that the maximum aggregate amount of premiums that Yellow will be required to pay to provide and maintain this coverage does not exceed $3,944,400 per year.

(a) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other Items of the applicable form.

(c) The undersigned registrant undertakes that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to the paragraph immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
