ITEM 7.01. REGULATION FD DISCLOSURE

On August 11, 2005, Amazon.com announced that it has entered into a settlement with Soverain Software, LLC of a lawsuit alleging patent infringement by Amazon.com. The litigation was settled on terms that include, among other things, a one-time payment of $40 million in third quarter 2005, dismissal of all claims and counterclaims, mutual releases, and a non-exclusive license to Soverain's patent portfolio. Amazon.com expects to record a previously unanticipated charge to Other operating expense of up to $40 million in third quarter 2005 in connection with this settlement. The litigation was originally filed on January 12, 2004 in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas.

Forward Looking Statement

This announcement contains forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933 and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. Actual results may differ significantly from management's expectations. These forward-looking statements involve risks and uncertainties that include, among others, risks related to potential future losses, significant amount of indebtedness, competition, management of growth, potential fluctuations in operating results, international expansion, outcomes of legal proceedings and claims, fulfillment center optimization, seasonality, commercial agreements, acquisitions, and strategic transactions, foreign exchange rates, system interruption, consumer trends, inventory, limited operating history, government regulation and taxation, fraud, and new business areas. More information about factors that potentially could affect Amazon.com's financial results is included in Amazon.com's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2004, and all subsequent filings.
