ORIX Agrees to Comprehensive Tie-up with JCB to Expand Customer Service

Tokyo, Japan August 19, 2005 ORIX announced today that it had reached an agreement with JCB Co. Ltd. (JCB), Japan's largest credit card company, to create an alliance to expand operations and customer services by combining the two companies' management resources.

The two companies are now working on specific strategies to develop new settlement services that combine the infrastructure and settlement solutions of JCB with ORIX's marketing network and corporate credit evaluation expertise.

The following summarizes the operations the two companies are now considering:

1. Business tie-up in the market for B-to-B settlement

Development of B-to-B settlement services for both small and large transactions by combining JCB's small-lot settlement services with ORIX's corporate credit evaluation expertise.

Development of joint marketing structure to provide these services

2. Strengthening settlement services for corporate customers

Develop new settlement services targeting ORIX's customer base of 500,000 corporate customers

Improve customer satisfaction, establish a quality information security system and improve operating efficiency by jointly cooperating in areas of operations and systems development

3. Joint development of settlement services for retail customers

Joint development of settlement services for the retail customers of the ORIX Group

Use the marketing strength of JCB to sell financial products of the ORIX Group to JCB's customers
