Dear Shareholder:

We cordially invite you to attend a special meeting of shareholders of The First National Bank of Newport to be held at _____ .m., local time on _____, 2006 at First National's main office at Center Square, Newport, Pennsylvania. At the special meeting, you will be asked to approve a merger and reorganization which will result in First National becoming a wholly-owned subsidiary of Orrstown Financial Services, Inc.

If the merger is completed, First National shareholders will receive 1.75 shares of Orrstown common stock and $22.20 for each share of First National common stock owned. Orrstown common stock is quoted on the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.'s Over-the-Counter Bulletin Board under the symbol ORRF. On January 13, 2006, the closing price of Orrstown common stock was $35.00 per share, making the value of 1.75 shares on that date $61.25 and the total value of the merger consideration on that date $83.45 per share of First National common stock. The price of Orrstown common stock, and the aggregate value of the merger consideration, will fluctuate between now and the closing of the merger.

We cannot complete the merger unless the shareholders of First National approve it. Approval of the reorganization agreement and the merger requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the issued and outstanding shares of First National common stock entitled to vote. Accordingly, it is very important that you carefully review this document and vote your shares.

The First National Board of Directors unanimously approved the reorganization agreement and recommends that you vote FOR the merger. The Board of Directors believes that the proposed transaction with Orrstown is an outstanding opportunity to realize the benefits of affiliating with an excellent financial services organization, enabling our institution to offer an expanded array of products and services, while continuing to operate under The First National Bank of Newport name.

All shareholders of First National are invited to attend the special meeting in person. However, whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, please take the time to vote by completing and mailing the enclosed proxy card to ensure that your shares will be voted. Please note that if you do not vote your shares, it will have the same effect as a vote against the merger.

The attached notice of special meeting and this document provides you with detailed information about the proposed merger transaction and the reorganization agreement. We encourage you to read the entire document carefully. Please give particular attention to the discussion beginning on page 14 for risk factors relating to the transaction which you should consider.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE TRANSACTION

Q: What am I being asked to vote on?

A: You are being asked to vote on a merger and reorganization transaction in which The First National Bank of Newport will be acquired by Orrstown Financial Services, Inc. through the merger of First National with and into an interim bank organized as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Orrstown.

Q: How does the First National board of directors recommend I vote on the proposal?

A: The First National board of directors unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to approve the merger transaction.

Q: What will I receive in the transaction?

A: If the merger is approved and subsequently completed, you will receive, for each share of First National common stock that you own, 1.75 shares of Orrstown common stock and $22.20 in cash. On January 13, 2006, the closing price of Orrstown common stock as reported on the OTC Bulletin Board was $35.00 per share, making the value of 1.75 shares on that date $61.25 and the total value of the merger consideration on that date $83.45 per share of First National common stock. The price of Orrstown common stock, and the aggregate value of the merger consideration, will fluctuate between now and the closing of the merger.

Q: What are the tax consequences of the transaction to me?

A: For United States federal income tax purposes, you will recognize income and/or gain equal to the lesser of: (1) the amount of cash you receive (including cash received for fractional shares); or (2) the amount of gain you realize. The amount of gain you realize equals the amount of cash you receive plus the fair market value of Orrstown common stock you receive less your adjusted basis in the shares of First National common stock that you surrender in the exchange. Your income or gain per share may vary where your First National common stock was acquired in more than one transaction.

No gain or loss will be recognized on the Orrstown common stock that you receive. Your basis and holding periods in the Orrstown common stock may vary per share depending upon whether your First National common stock was acquired in more than one transaction. Due to the potential varying tax recognition, basis and holding period consequences which will be governed by your individual consequences, we urge you to consult with your tax advisor to fully understand the tax consequences to you. Additionally, the generalizations set forth above may not apply to all First National shareholders.

Q: How do I vote?

A: After you have carefully read this document, indicate on your proxy card how you want your shares to be voted, then sign, date and mail it in the enclosed postage-paid envelope as soon as possible so that your shares may be represented and voted at the First National special meeting.

In addition, if you are a record owner of shares of First National common stock on the record date for the special meeting, you may attend First National's special meeting in person and vote, whether or not you have signed and mailed your proxy card.

Edgar Filing: ORRSTOWN FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form S-4

If you sign and send in your proxy card and do not indicate how you want to vote, your proxy card will be counted as a vote in favor of the reorganization agreement. If you do not send in your proxy card or if you send it in but indicate that you abstain from voting, it will have the effect of a vote against the reorganization agreement.

Table of Contents

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: Maybe. Your broker will vote your shares only if you provide instructions on how to vote. You should follow the directions provided by your broker. Your failure to instruct your broker to vote your shares will be the equivalent of voting against the reorganization agreement.

Q: Can I change my vote after I have mailed my signed proxy card?

A: Yes. There are three ways for you to revoke your proxy and change your vote. First, you may send to the Secretary of First National a later-dated, signed proxy card before the First National special meeting. Second, you may attend First National's special meeting in person and vote. Third, you may revoke any proxy by written notice to the Secretary of First National prior to First National's special meeting. If you have instructed a broker to vote your shares, you must follow directions received from your broker to change your vote.

Q: Do I have dissenter's rights of appraisal in connection with the merger?

A: Yes. Under the National Bank Act, First National shareholders have the right to dissent from the merger and receive a payment in cash for the value of their shares of First National common stock, as determined by an appraisal process. This value may be less than the value of the consideration you would receive in the merger if you do not dissent. To perfect your dissenter's rights, you must precisely follow the required statutory procedures. See The Transaction-Rights of Dissenting Shareholders at page 35 and the information attached at Annex C.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. You should not send in your stock certificates at this time. Following completion of the merger, Orrstown will mail instructions to all former First National shareholders for exchanging their stock certificates.

Q: When do you expect to complete the transaction?

A: We are working towards completing the transaction as quickly as possible and currently expect that the merger will be completed during the second quarter of 2006. In addition to the approval of First National shareholders, we must also obtain certain bank regulatory approvals. We expect to receive all necessary approvals no later than April 30, 2006.

Q: Whom should I call with questions or to obtain additional copies of this document?

A: You should call either of the following:

Table of Contents

The Merger

The reorganization agreement provides that Orrstown will acquire First National by means of the merger of First National into an interim national bank organized by Orrstown, with the interim bank surviving the merger as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Orrstown. The name of the surviving bank will be changed to The First National Bank of Newport and the board of directors and officers of First National shall be the initial board of directors and officers of the surviving bank with the additional appointment to the board of Kenneth R. Shoemaker, President of Orrstown. The reorganization agreement is attached as Annex A to this document. We encourage you to read the entire reorganization agreement, including the exhibits attached to the reorganization agreement, because it is the principal legal document that governs the transaction.

First National Shareholders Will Receive 1.75 Shares Of Orrstown Common Stock And $22.20 In Cash For Each Share Of First National Common Stock (see page 35)

If the transaction is completed, First National shareholders will receive 1.75 shares of Orrstown common stock and $22.20 in cash in exchange for each share of First National common stock they own. Orrstown will not issue fractional shares. First National shareholders will instead receive a cash payment equal to the product of such fraction multiplied by the average daily high bid and low offer quotations of Orrstown shares of common stock over the 60 trading days ending on and including the fifth trading day prior to the completion of the merger.

First National s Board Unanimously Recommends Approval Of The Merger (see page 24)

First National s board of directors believes that the merger and reorganization transaction with Orrstown is in the best interests of First National and its shareholders and unanimously recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to approve and adopt the reorganization agreement and plan of merger. In unanimously approving the reorganization agreement, First National s board considered, among other things, the earnings and financial condition of First National and Orrstown, the financial terms and income tax consequences of the merger, the historical market prices of Orrstown common stock, the historical cash dividends paid on Orrstown common stock compared with those paid on First National common stock, and the business and prospects of each of Orrstown and First National.

First National s Financial Advisor Says Merger Consideration Is Fair From A Financial Point Of View To First National Shareholders (see page 24)

In deciding to approve the transaction, the First National board of directors considered the opinion from its financial advisor, Boenning & Scattergood, Inc. that the merger consideration was fair from a financial point of view to the First National shareholders.

The full text of Boenning s updated opinion dated as of _____, 2006, which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the reviews undertaken, is attached as Annex B to this document. We encourage you to read this opinion in its entirety.

Edgar Filing: ORRSTOWN FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form S-4

For its financial advisory services, First National paid Boenning a fee of $5,000 upon execution of the engagement agreement. First National also agreed to pay Boenning a fee of $45,000 for rendering its fairness opinion, to reimburse Boenning for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and to indemnify it against certain liabilities.

Management Following The Transaction (see page 43)

If the transaction is completed, First National will be a wholly-owned bank subsidiary of Orrstown. The board of directors of Orrstown will not change as a result of the transaction, except that Orrstown will appoint

Table of Contents

Peter C. Zimmerman, the President and Chief Executive Officer of First National, to its board of directors. Orrstown's current executive management will continue in their positions following the transaction.

The board of directors of First National, as the re-named surviving bank in the merger, will consist of those persons serving as First National directors immediately prior to the merger with the addition of Kenneth R. Shoemaker, President of Orrstown. First National's current executive management team will continue in such positions for the surviving bank following the merger.

Certain Conditions Must Be Satisfied Before The Transaction Is Completed (see page 40)

The completion of the merger and reorganization transaction depends upon satisfaction or waiver of a number of conditions, including the following:

the approval of the reorganization agreement by First National shareholders;

the accuracy of the representations and warranties made in the reorganization agreement;

the performance of obligations by Orrstown and First National under the reorganization agreement;

the receipt of required governmental approvals (including from banking and federal and state securities regulators) and the expiration or termination of all applicable statutory waiting periods relating to the transaction;

the absence of any injunction or other order by any court or other governmental entity which would prohibit or prevent the transaction;
and

receipt by Orrstown and First National of a tax opinion of Rhoads & Sinon LLP, counsel to Orrstown, based on facts, assumptions and representations set forth in the opinion, to the effect that the transaction constitutes a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The Reorganization Agreement Can Be Amended Or Terminated (see page 42)

The parties can mutually agree to terminate the reorganization agreement at any time prior to completing the transaction. In addition, either party acting alone can terminate the reorganization agreement in certain specified circumstances, including the failure to complete the transaction by September 30, 2006, unless the terminating party's breach is the reason the transaction has not been completed.

We Must Obtain Regulatory Approvals To Complete The Transaction (see page 41)

Edgar Filing: ORRSTOWN FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form S-4

The transaction cannot be completed until required approvals are received from banking regulators. Orrstown has filed an application to obtain approval from the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency and has made appropriate filings with the Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia and the Pennsylvania Department of Banking. Although we believe regulatory approvals will be received in a timely manner, we cannot be certain when or if Orrstown will obtain them.

First National Executive Officers And Directors Have Additional Interests In The Transaction (see page 44)

When considering the recommendation of the First National board to approve the transaction, First National shareholders should be aware that some officers and the directors of First National have interests in the transaction in addition to their interest as shareholders. These interests include, among others, provisions in the reorganization agreement regarding the appointment of Peter C. Zimmerman, President of First National, as a director of the Orrstown holding company, employment agreements for Mr. Zimmerman and Michael D. Amsler, Senior Vice President and Senior Loan Officer of First National, and the composition and compensation of the surviving bank's board of directors after completion of the merger.

Table of Contents

Also, following the merger, Orrstown has agreed to provide directors and officers insurance for the directors and officers of First National and has agreed to provide indemnification to directors and officers of First National for claims occurring before the effective time of the merger to the same extent as it provides its own directors and officers.

First National Shareholders Have Dissenters Rights of Appraisal (see page 35)

First National shareholders are entitled to assert dissenters rights under Section 215a of the National Bank Act in connection with the proposed merger. These dissenters rights may give you the opportunity to receive the fair value of your shares of First National common stock in cash instead of having each of your shares converted in the merger into a combination of 1.75 shares of Orrstown common stock and $22.20. In order to perfect your dissenters rights, specific procedures under Section 215a of the National Bank Act must be strictly followed. If you do not follow the procedures set forth in the statutory provisions of the National Bank Act, you may lose your dissenters rights with respect to the merger. Please refer to pages 35 through 36 for more information. You should also read carefully Annex C to this document, which is a copy of Section 215a of the National Bank Act.

The Rights Of Orrstown Shareholders And First National Shareholders Are Different (see page 64)

The rights of Orrstown shareholders are currently governed by Pennsylvania law and by Orrstown's articles of incorporation and bylaws. The rights of First National shareholders are currently governed by the National Bank Act and First National's articles of association and bylaws. These rights are not identical. When the merger is completed, First National shareholders will become Orrstown shareholders and have the rights of Orrstown shareholders.

Dividend Policy (see page 40)

Following completion of the merger, former First National shareholders who become Orrstown shareholders will receive dividends declared by Orrstown. In the reorganization agreement, Orrstown agreed that, subject to future earnings, the financial condition and capital needs of Orrstown and its subsidiaries, as well as applicable regulatory guidelines concerning payment of dividends, it will amend its dividend payout policy on or before March 31, 2006 to increase the annual cash dividend rate from $.60 per share of Orrstown common stock to $.80 per share.

Important Federal Income Tax Consequences Of The Transaction (see page 47)

We have structured the transaction to be treated as a reorganization for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The following summary reflects the conclusions reached by Rhoads & Sinon LLP, legal counsel to Orrstown, in its opinion and assumes that you hold your First National common stock as a capital asset. Generally, you will recognize income or gain equal to the amount of cash you receive (including cash in lieu of a fractional share of Orrstown common stock) or the amount of gain you realize, whichever is lower. The amount of gain you realize equals the amount of cash you receive plus the fair market value of Orrstown common stock you receive minus your adjusted tax basis in the share of First National common stock that you surrender in the exchange. You will not recognize any income or gain on the receipt of Orrstown common stock. You will not recognize any loss on the receipt of Orrstown common stock or the receipt of cash.

Edgar Filing: ORRSTOWN FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form S-4

This tax treatment may not apply to everyone. Tax matters are complicated and the tax consequences of this transaction to you will depend upon your individual circumstances. We urge you to contact your tax advisor to understand fully the transaction's tax consequences to you.

Table of Contents

Orrstown Will Account For The Transaction As A Purchase (see page 46)

Orrstown expects to account for the transaction using the purchase method of accounting. Under this method of accounting, all of the assets and liabilities of First National will be recorded on Orrstown's consolidated balance sheet at estimated fair value as of the effective date of the merger. The amount by which the purchase price paid by Orrstown exceeds the fair value of the net assets acquired by Orrstown through the transaction will be recorded as goodwill.

Recent Developments

Edgar Filing: ORRSTOWN FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form S-4

First National's management reported net income (unaudited) for First National of $1,417,000 or $3.54 per share for the twelve months ended December 31, 2005, compared to net income of $1,576,000 or $3.94 per share for the twelve months ended December 31, 2004.

Table of Contents

For the three months ended December 31, 2005, First National realized net income (unaudited) of $181,000, or $0.45 per share, compared to net income of $375,000, or $0.94 per share, for the same period of 2004.

The decrease in First National's net income for the quarter ended December 31, 2005 is primarily the result of losses related to First National's determination to restructure its investment portfolio and certain costs associated with the termination of First National's data processing agreement with Enterprise Technology Alliance, Inc. (ETA). Changes to the investment portfolio included the sale of approximately $3.6 million low yield government agency bonds at a loss of $125,347 and the write-down of below-investment grade GMAC bonds to their estimated year-end market value for a recognized loss of $19,672. Charges related to the termination of First National's relationship with ETA included a $44,691 de-conversion fee and recognition of a $201,000 loss associated with the termination of First National's 9.09% interest in ETA.

Excluding the one-time charges described above, First National's operating income for the twelve months ended December 31, 2005 was $1,675,000, representing a 6.3% increase over 2004 income.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in Orrstown common stock in connection with the merger and reorganization transaction involves certain risks, including, among others, the risks described below. In addition to the other information contained in this document, you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding whether to vote for approval of the reorganization agreement.

RISK FACTORS RELATED TO THE TRANSACTION

Fluctuations in the market price of Orrstown common stock may cause the value of the stock portion of the merger consideration to decrease.

Upon completion of the merger transaction, your shares of First National common stock will be converted into 1.75 shares of Orrstown common stock and $22.20 in cash. The merger consideration is fixed and not subject to adjustment. Changes in Orrstown's stock price may result from a variety of factors that are beyond the control of Orrstown, including, among other things, changes in Orrstown's business, operations and prospects, regulatory considerations and general market and economic conditions. Therefore, the market value of the Orrstown common stock that you receive, and the aggregate value of the merger consideration, will fluctuate. The price of Orrstown common stock may vary from its price on the date of this document, the date of the First National special meeting, and the date of closing. You will not know at the time of the special meeting what the price of the Orrstown common stock will be on the date the transaction is completed.

You will have less influence as a shareholder of Orrstown than as a shareholder of First National.

As a First National shareholder, you currently have the right to vote in the election of the board of directors of First National and on certain other matters affecting First National. The amount of Orrstown common stock and cash you will receive for your shares of First National common stock will result in the transfer of control of First National to the shareholders of Orrstown. Although when the merger occurs you will become a shareholder of Orrstown, your percentage ownership of Orrstown will be significantly smaller than your percentage ownership of First National and you will no longer have the right to cumulate your votes for the election of directors. Because of this, you will have less influence on the management and policies of Orrstown than you now have on the management and policies of First National.

Orrstown may fail to realize all of the anticipated benefits of the transaction.

The success of the transaction will depend, in part, on Orrstown's ability to realize the anticipated benefits and cost savings from integrating the business of First National with the business of Orrstown. If Orrstown is not able to achieve these objectives, the anticipated benefits and cost savings of the transaction may not be realized fully, or at all, or may take longer to realize than expected.

First National and Orrstown have operated and, until the completion of the merger, will continue to operate, independently. It is possible that the integration process could result in the loss of key employees, the disruption of the ongoing businesses of Orrstown and/or First National, or inconsistencies in standards, controls, procedures and policies. The occurrence of any of the foregoing could adversely affect Orrstown's ability to maintain relationships with the respective clients, customers, depositories and employees of Orrstown and First National and its ability to achieve the anticipated benefits of the merger. Integration efforts between the Orrstown and First National may, to some extent, also divert management attention and resources. These integration matters could have an adverse effect on each of First National and Orrstown during the transition period.

The reorganization agreement limits First National's ability to pursue alternatives to the merger transaction with Orrstown.

The reorganization agreement contains no shop provisions that, subject to certain exceptions, limit First National's ability to discuss, facilitate or commit to competing third-party proposals to acquire all or a significant part of the bank. Additionally, if the merger would fail to occur in certain circumstances that relate to a possible combination of First National with another acquiror, First National could be obligated to pay Orrstown $1,500,000 as a termination fee. See The Transaction Termination Fee on page 43. These provisions may discourage a potential competing acquiror that might have an interest in acquiring all or a significant part of First National from considering or proposing an acquisition of First National even if it were prepared to pay consideration with a higher per share market price than that proposed in the merger, or might result in a potential competing acquiror proposing to pay a lower per share price to acquire First National than it might otherwise have proposed to pay.

First National's executive officers and directors have financial interests in the transaction that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of First National shareholders.

Executive officers of First National negotiated the terms of the reorganization agreement with their counterparts at Orrstown, and First National's board of directors unanimously approved the reorganization agreement and plan of merger and recommended that First National shareholders vote to approve the reorganization agreement and plan of merger. In considering these facts and the other information contained in this document, you should be aware that First National's executive officers and directors have financial interests in the transaction that are different from, or in addition to, the interests of First National shareholders. For example, in connection with the closing, certain executive officers will enter into employment agreements with Orrstown and the surviving bank. These and other interests of First National directors and executive officers may create potential conflicts of interest and cause some of these persons to view the proposed transaction differently than you may view it as a shareholder. Please see The Transaction Interests of Management and Others in the Transaction beginning on page 44 for information about these financial interests.

RISK FACTORS RELATED TO ORRSTOWN'S BUSINESS

Changes in interest rates may have an adverse effect on Orrstown's profitability.

Orrstown's business is affected by fiscal and monetary policies of the federal government, including those of the Federal Reserve Board, which regulates the national money supply in order to manage recessionary and inflationary pressures. Among the techniques available to the Federal Reserve Board are engaging in open market transactions of U.S. Government securities, changing the discount rate and changing reserve requirements against bank deposits. The use of these techniques may also affect interest rates charged on loans and paid on deposits.

Net interest income is the most significant component of Orrstown's net income, accounting for approximately 73% of total revenues in 2004 and 71% of revenues in the first nine months of 2005. The narrowing of interest rate spreads (the difference between interest rates earned on loans and investments and interest rates paid on deposits and borrowings), would adversely affect Orrstown's earnings and financial condition. Among other things, regional and local economic conditions as well as fiscal and monetary policies of the federal government, including those of the Federal Reserve Board, may affect prevailing interest rates. Orrstown cannot predict or control changes in interest rates.

When short-term interest rates rise, Orrstown generally expects improvements in net interest income. However, a flat or declining interest rate environment would adversely impact Orrstown's net interest income. In addition, increasing short-term rates tend to have a detrimental impact on mortgage loan origination volumes and related mortgage-banking income.

Changes in economic conditions and the composition of Orrstown's loan portfolios could lead to higher loan charge-offs or an increase in Orrstown's allowance for loan losses and may reduce Orrstown's income.

Changes in national and regional economic conditions could impact the loan portfolios of Orrstown's subsidiary bank(s). For example, an increase in unemployment, a decrease in real estate values or increases in interest rates, as well as other factors, could weaken the economies of the communities Orrstown serves. Weakness in the market areas served by Orrstown could depress its earnings and consequently its financial condition because:

customers may not want or need Orrstown's products or services;

borrowers may not be able to repay their loans;

the value of the collateral securing Orrstown's loans to borrowers may decline; and the quality of Orrstown's loan portfolio may decline.

Any of the later three scenarios could require Orrstown to charge-off a higher percentage of its loans and/or increase its provision for loan and lease losses, which would reduce its income.

In addition, the amount of Orrstown's provision for loan losses and the percentage of loans it is required to charge-off may be impacted by the overall risk composition of the loan portfolio. While Orrstown believes that its allowance for loan losses as of December 31, 2004 and September 30, 2005 is sufficient to cover losses inherent in the loan portfolio on each of those dates, Orrstown cannot assure you that it will not be required in the future to increase its loan-loss provision or charge-off a higher percentage of loans due to changes in the risk characteristics of the loan portfolio resulting from the merger, which would thereby reduce its net income.

The competition Orrstown faces is increasing and may reduce Orrstown's customer base and negatively impact Orrstown's results of operations.

There is significant competition among commercial banks in the market areas served by Orrstown. In addition, as a result of the deregulation of the financial industry, Orrstown and First National also compete with other providers of financial services such as savings and loan associations, credit unions, consumer finance companies, securities firms, insurance companies, commercial finance and leasing companies, the mutual funds industry, full service brokerage firms and discount brokerage firms, some of which are subject to less extensive regulations than Orrstown is with respect to the products and services they provide. Some of Orrstown's competitors, including certain super-regional and national bank holding companies that have made acquisitions in its market area, have greater resources than Orrstown has, and as such, may have higher lending limits and may offer other services not offered by Orrstown.

Orrstown also experiences competition from a variety of institutions outside its market areas. Some of these institutions conduct business primarily over the Internet and may thus be able to realize certain cost savings and offer products and services at more favorable rates and with greater convenience to the customer.

Competition may adversely affect the interest rates Orrstown pays on deposits and charges on loans, thereby potentially adversely affecting Orrstown's profitability. Orrstown's profitability depends upon its continued ability to successfully compete in the market areas it serves while achieving its investment objectives.

The supervision and regulation to which Orrstown is subject can be a competitive disadvantage.

Orrstown is a registered financial holding company, and each of Orrstown Bank and First National Bank is a depository institution whose deposits are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC). As a result, Orrstown and its subsidiaries are subject to various regulations and examinations by various regulatory authorities. In general, statutes establish the corporate governance and permitted business activities for Orrstown, certain acquisition and merger restrictions, limitations on inter-company transactions such as loans and dividends, and capital adequacy requirements, requirements for anti-money laundering programs and other compliance matters, among other regulations. Orrstown is extensively regulated under federal and state banking laws and regulations that are intended primarily for the protection of depositors, federal deposit insurance funds and the banking system as a whole. Compliance with these statutes and regulations is important to Orrstown's ability to engage in new activities and to consummate additional acquisitions. In addition, Orrstown is subject to changes in federal and state tax laws as well as changes in banking and credit regulations, accounting principles and governmental economic and monetary policies. Orrstown cannot predict whether any of these changes may adversely and materially affect it. Federal and state banking regulators also possess broad powers to take supervisory actions as they deem appropriate. These supervisory actions may result in higher capital requirements, higher insurance premiums and limitations on Orrstown's activities that could have a material adverse effect on its business and profitability. While these statutes are generally designed to minimize potential loss to depositors and the FDIC insurance funds, they do not eliminate risk, and compliance with such statutes increases Orrstown's expense, require management's attention and can be a disadvantage from a competitive standpoint with respect to unregulated competitors.

A CAUTION ABOUT FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION

general economic conditions, either nationally or regionally, may be less favorable than expected, resulting in, among other things, a deterioration in credit quality and/or a reduced demand for credit;

legislative or regulatory changes, including changes in accounting standards, may adversely affect the ability of the combined company to conduct its current and future operations;

costs or difficulties related to the integration of the businesses of Orrstown and First National may be greater than expected;

THE SPECIAL MEETING

Date, Time And Place

First National will hold a special meeting of shareholders on _____, 2006 at _____ .m., local time, at its main office at Center Square, Newport, Pennsylvania.

Matters To Be Considered At The Special Meeting

At the special meeting, First National shareholders will consider and vote upon proposals to:

approve and adopt the reorganization agreement and plan of merger;

adjourn the meeting if more time is needed to solicit proxies; and transact any other business that may properly be brought before the meeting.

Recommendation Of First National Board Of Directors

The First National board of directors unanimously approved the reorganization agreement, plan of merger and the related transactions and recommends a vote FOR approval and adoption of the reorganization agreement and plan of merger.

The matters to be considered at the First National special meeting are of great importance to First National shareholders. Therefore, we urge you to read and consider carefully the information in this document. We also urge you to complete, date, sign and return promptly the enclosed proxy card using the enclosed postage-paid envelope.

Shareholders Entitled to Vote

You are entitled to notice of and to vote at the First National special meeting if you were a holder of record of First National common stock at the close of business on _____, 2006, the record date established by the First National board of directors for the special meeting. As of the record date, there were _____ shares of First National common stock issued and outstanding, held by _____ holders of record. Each share entitles the holder to one vote. Shareholders may vote either in person or by proxy.

Quorum

To have a quorum at the First National special meeting, the holders of at least a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of First National common stock entitled to vote must be present either in person or by properly executed proxy. Proxies that are marked `abstain` will be counted as shares of common stock present for the purposes of determining the presence of a quorum.

Required Vote; Voting Agreements

Under the National Bank Act, shareholder approval and adoption of the reorganization agreement and the plan of merger requires the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of common stock by the shareholders entitled to vote at the special meeting. If fewer shares of First National common stock voting in favor of the transaction are present in person or by proxy than are necessary to approve the reorganization agreement, we expect to adjourn or postpone the special meeting to allow additional time for obtaining additional votes or proxies. At any subsequent reconvening of the special meeting, all proxies obtained before the adjournment or postponement will be voted in the same manner as they would have been voted at the original convening of the special meeting. However, any proxies which have been properly revoked or withdrawn will not be voted.

The directors and executive officers of First National have agreed to vote all shares of First National common stock that they own or over which they exercise voting control for approval and adoption of the reorganization agreement and the merger. As of _____, 2006, the record date for the special meeting, First National directors and executive officers and their affiliates had the right to vote an aggregate of _____ shares of First National common stock. This number amounts to approximately _____ % of the voting power of all outstanding shares on that date.

Voting By Proxy

All shares of First National common stock represented by properly executed proxy cards will be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated on those proxy cards, unless those proxies have been previously revoked. If you return a signed proxy card but fail to indicate how you want to vote, your shares of First National common stock will be voted FOR approval and adoption of the reorganization agreement and plan of merger and in favor of the adjournment proposal.

First National shareholders should not mail their common stock certificates with their proxy cards.

Abstentions; Broker Non-Votes

A properly executed proxy card marked abstain will not be voted on the approval and adoption of the reorganization agreement but will count toward determining whether a quorum is present. Because approval and adoption of the reorganization agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of First National common stock entitled to vote, a vote to abstain will have the same effect as a vote against the reorganization agreement.

Broker-Held Shares

Brokers who hold shares of First National common stock in street name for the beneficial owners of those shares cannot vote those shares without specific instructions from the beneficial owners. Therefore, if you are the beneficial owner of shares of First National common stock held by a broker in street name, you should sign, date and return your proxy card to the broker in the envelope provided by the broker. If a broker indicates on the proxy card that it does not have discretionary authority as to shares of common stock to vote on a particular matter, those shares of common stock will be considered as present but shall not be voted with respect to that matter. Because approval and adoption of the reorganization agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of First National common stock entitled to vote, if you abstain or, if your shares are held in street name and you fail to instruct your broker how to vote, it will have the same effect as a vote against the reorganization agreement.

Changing Your Vote

If you give the proxy we are soliciting, you may revoke it at any time before it is exercised:

Edgar Filing: ORRSTOWN FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form S-4

by giving written notice to The First National Bank of Newport, Center Square, Newport PA 17074, Attention: Jane L. Timothy, Secretary, by signing and returning a later-dated proxy, or by voting in person at the special meeting.

A shareholder whose shares are held in street name should follow the instructions of his or her broker regarding revocation of proxies. You should note that your presence at the First National special meeting without voting in person will not revoke an otherwise valid proxy.

Adjournment

In the event that there are not sufficient votes to constitute a quorum or approve the adoption of the reorganization agreement at the time of the special meeting, the reorganization agreement would not be able to be approved unless the meeting could be adjourned to a later date in order to permit further solicitation of proxies. The persons named as proxies may propose and vote for one or more adjournments of the special meeting, including adjournments to permit further proxy solicitations. No proxy voted against the proposal to approve the reorganization agreement will be voted in favor of any such adjournment or postponement.

Solicitation Of Proxies

First National will bear its own cost of solicitation of proxies. In addition to solicitation by mail, First National's directors, officers and employees may solicit proxies personally or by telephone, facsimile transmission or otherwise. These directors, officers and employees will not be additionally compensated for their solicitation efforts but may be reimbursed for out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with these efforts. First National will reimburse brokerage firms, fiduciaries, nominees and others for their out-of-pocket expenses incurred in forwarding proxy materials to beneficial owners of shares of common stock held in their names.

Dissenters Rights

First National shareholders have a right to dissent from the merger transaction and to obtain payment in cash of the fair value of their First National shares by complying with the requirements of Section 215a of the National Bank Act, a copy of which is included as Annex C to this document. See The Transaction Rights of Dissenting Shareholders beginning on page 35.

THE TRANSACTION

The following information describes the material features of the proposed transaction. This description, however, is not a complete statement of all provisions of the reorganization agreement and related documents. A copy of the reorganization agreement, including its exhibits, is attached to this document as Annex A, and is incorporated by reference into this document. For a more complete description and understanding of the proposed transaction, we urge you to read the full text of the reorganization agreement carefully. We qualify the following discussion in its entirety by reference to the reorganization agreement.

General

The reorganization agreement provides, that, subject to the satisfaction or waiver of all conditions in the reorganization agreement, First National will merge with and into an interim national bank created by Orrstown. The surviving bank will be a wholly-owned subsidiary of Orrstown and will change its name to The First National Bank of Newport. Immediately following the merger, the board of directors and executive officers of First National will be the initial board of directors and executive officers of the surviving bank, except that Kenneth R. Shoemaker, President and Chief Executive Officer of Orrstown, will be appointed as an additional director of the surviving bank. The board of directors of the Orrstown holding company will be increased to include Peter C. Zimmerman, who is currently a director and President and Chief Executive Officer of First National.

Edgar Filing: ORRSTOWN FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form S-4

In the transaction, each share of First National common stock will be converted into the right to receive 1.75 shares of Orrstown common stock and $22.20 in cash. The merger consideration is fixed and is not subject adjustment other than to prevent dilution in the event of a stock split, stock dividend or similar transaction with respect to Orrstown common stock.

We expect to complete the merger during the second quarter of 2006.

Background of the Merger

Through a series of strategic planning sessions over the last several years, the First National board of directors focused on its primary mission of providing quality financial services to the community and enhancing shareholder value. While not adopting a strategy to sell the bank, the board recognized that an opportunity to affiliate with the right partner would be one possible option toward accomplishing this mission.

Table of Contents

In the course of deliberations, the board recognized as an important concern that deposit growth had become sluggish in recent years. The slowing of deposit inflows was felt to be most reflective of an improving stock market and rising interest rates, both of which would serve to attract funds away from the bank. Growth on both the loan and deposit sides, however, was also recognized to be limited by the slow growth of the local economy.

During several planning sessions in the summer of 2005, the topic considered by the board was the possibility of affiliating with other banks in the region, but the board concluded that this was not the direction that would best serve the goal of being part of a more robust growth area. Discussion centered on the need to expand First National's market area outside of Perry County, particularly to the south, where there is a substantial and growing population and business base. Expansion into Cumberland County was discussed, but it was also understood that this was a very competitive environment where First National would be hindered by its relatively small size and lack of name recognition.

As these discussions continued, the board increasingly focused on potential growth opportunities in Cumberland County. This in turn led board members to develop a particular interest in Orrstown, which in the board's view stood out with regard to growth, financial strength, and community orientation. At its September 21, 2005, executive session, the Board directed Peter C. Zimmerman, President and CEO, to informally inquire of his counterpart at Orrstown whether Orrstown had any intentions with regard to Perry County.

On September 30, Mr. Zimmerman met with Kenneth R. Shoemaker, President and CEO of Orrstown. Mr. Shoemaker indicated that Orrstown had often considered expanding into Perry County if the right opportunity presented itself. He further advised that Orrstown's growth in Cumberland and Franklin Counties has been so strong that its priority has been to concentrate on the I-81 corridor. Nonetheless, Mr. Shoemaker stated that he wanted to explore with his Executive Committee the possibility of an acquisition transaction with First National.

On October 4 Messrs. Shoemaker and Zimmerman met again. In the discussion, Mr. Shoemaker reported authorization from his Executive Committee to have First National consider an exchange ratio of approximately 2.25 to 1, with a mix of about 75% stock and 25% cash. Orrstown would have no objection to, and would actually prefer, that First National maintain its separate charter for the foreseeable future, with Mr. Zimmerman remaining as CEO.

The First National board held an executive session on October 5 to receive an update from Mr. Zimmerman. He presented Orrstown's financial statements to the board and noted a number of impressive statistics. Orrstown's second quarter earnings were up about 35%, yielding a return on average assets of 1.90% and a return on average equity of nearly 20%. Orrstown has continually shown double digit asset growth and their stock, while now trading at 3.6 times book value, has traded as high as between 5 and 6 times book value.

Mr. Zimmerman noted that Orrstown's tentative pricing reflected the cost savings that could be achieved by converting First National's data processing to Orrstown's system and by consolidating various back office and financial operations. The board expressed its desire to seriously explore an affiliation with Orrstown and authorized Mr. Zimmerman to do so. The board also directed Mr. Zimmerman to negotiate a higher stock exchange ratio, cash portion, or both.

Subsequent to its regular October 19 board meeting, First National went into executive session to hear a further update from Mr. Zimmerman. He reported that he had again met with Mr. Shoemaker and that both were excited about the possibility of an affiliation. Mr. Shoemaker had made the suggestion to have a meeting between the two banks' Chairmen and Presidents to further explore this matter. The board authorized such a meeting, with the desire to have it scheduled prior to its next regular meeting.

Edgar Filing: ORRSTOWN FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form S-4

On October 26, Messrs. Shoemaker and Zimmerman met with the respective Chairmen of their boards, Joel R. Zullinger and Lenus A. Haines. On this date Orrstown and First National entered into a confidentiality agreement. Mr. Shoemaker presented a set of detailed financial analyses that supported their offer, which had been enhanced with additional cash. The meeting included significant discussion regarding the cost savings and synergies that could be achieved by combining the banks operations. Both parties concluded that there were compelling reasons to further pursue the proposed transaction.

Mr. Zimmerman reported the results of that meeting to the First National board at its November 2 meeting. He led the board through the terms that had been presented at the October 26 meeting, equating to approximately 2.5 times book value and 21 times First National's last 12 months earnings. The feeling was clearly expressed by several First National board members that these financial terms were very attractive and that an affiliation with Orrstown would provide the strategic fit that would benefit all of First National's constituencies in the long run.

After discussion, Mr. Zimmerman was directed to seek representation by legal counsel and by financial advisors. He indicated a desire to utilize the services of McNees Wallace & Nurick LLC as counsel and to talk to several possible financial advisors. Subsequently, the firm of Boenning & Scattergood, Inc. was chosen because of its familiarity with the Pennsylvania community banking environment and its expertise on such matters.

On November 7, Mr. Zimmerman met with a representative of McNees Wallace & Nurick to ascertain its availability to be retained as legal counsel. It was noted that due diligence for both banks had been scheduled for November 10 and November 11. Discussion and negotiations between the parties and their respective counsel followed, and a draft of the reorganization agreement was distributed to the First National board at its November 16 meeting. Mr. Zimmerman reviewed all of the major aspects of the Agreement, including:

The terms of the proposed exchange ratios of stock and cash;

Conditions to closing the transaction;

Rights of the parties to terminate the reorganization agreement under certain circumstances;

The conditions under which First National would be required to pay Orrstown a termination fee in the event that the transaction did not close under certain circumstances;

The terms of severance for employees who might not continue employment with Orrstown following the transaction;

The terms of the employment agreements for Messrs. Amsler and Zimmerman; and

The terms of the voting agreements required from First National directors and affiliates.

At that meeting, several items were identified as not being acceptable as proposed. Mr. Zimmerman was directed to work with the attorneys to attempt to resolve all open issues. Subject to resolving these issues, it was agreed to hold a special board meeting with the board's legal counsel and financial advisors on Monday, November 21.

Edgar Filing: ORRSTOWN FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form S-4

The Orrstown board of directors met on November 18, 2005 at which time counsel to Orrstown reviewed the terms of the reorganization agreement and related documents with the board. After due consideration of the reorganization agreement and consultation with its advisors, the Orrstown board voted to approve the reorganization agreement and authorized Mr. Shoemaker to execute the reorganization agreement and related documents on behalf of Orrstown.

On November 21 the First National board met to consider and act on the reorganization agreement. Representatives of McNees Wallace & Nurick reviewed the terms and conditions of the reorganization agreement. A representative of Boenning & Scattergood reviewed the business terms of the transaction and delivered a written opinion that the consideration, as of November 21, was fair to the First National shareholders from a financial point of view. After extensive discussion and successful negotiation of two issues raised by the First National board, and in reliance upon the reports of its advisors, the First National board of directors unanimously approved the reorganization agreement.

Table of Contents

The parties executed the reorganization agreement and related documents following the First National board meeting on November 21, 2005 and issued a joint press release publicly announcing the transaction prior to the opening of the financial markets on November 22, 2005.

Reasons for the Merger: First National's Board of Directors

At its meeting on November 21, 2005, the First National board of directors determined that the terms of the reorganization agreement were in the best interests of First National. In making this determination, the board concluded that the transaction with Orrstown presented the best long-term strategic fit for First National to continue to operate as part of an independent, community-focused banking company.

In the course of reaching its decision to approve the reorganization agreement, the First National board of directors consulted with Boenning & Scattergood, Inc., its financial advisor, and McNees Wallace & Nurick LLC, its legal counsel. The board considered, among other things, the factors described above and the following:

The terms of and transactions contemplated by the Agreement, the historical trading ranges for Orrstown common stock and the consideration to be received by First National shareholders in the transaction.

The opinion of Boenning that the consideration in the merger was fair to First National's shareholders from a financial point of view.

The First National board's assessment of Orrstown's business growth prospects and current financial strength.

The alternatives of First National continuing as an independent community bank or combining with other potential merger partners versus the determination that the merger with Orrstown presented the best opportunity for maximizing shareholder value and serving the banking needs of the communities in which First National operates.

The expectation that First National shareholders would have the opportunity to continue to participate in the growth of the combined company and would also greatly benefit from the significantly greater liquidity of the trading market for Orrstown common stock.

Orrstown's operating philosophy as a community oriented financial services company with a customer service focus, which is consistent with First National's philosophy.

The effects of market pressures and First National's limited economies of scale and growth opportunities on First National's ability to prosper.

Orrstown's agreement to maintain First National as a separate subsidiary of Orrstown Financial Services, Inc. for at least three years.

Orrstown's agreement that one director from First National would be appointed to the Orrstown board of directors and that all current members of First National's board of directors would continue as directors of First National for at least three years.

Edgar Filing: ORRSTOWN FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form S-4

Orrstown's agreement that First National employees who do not continue as Orrstown employees may be eligible to receive up to 26 weeks of severance pay, depending upon years of service with First National.

The determination that a business combination with Orrstown would extend First National's lending capabilities and increase the range of financial products and services available to First National's customers.

The economic vitality of the market areas served by Orrstown, and the opportunities presented by customer demand in those market areas.

The broad experience of Orrstown's management team.

Table of Contents

The expectation that the transaction will be tax deferred with regard to Orrstown common stock received by First National shareholders, noting that the receipt of cash could be taxable.

The factor that the termination fee provision in the reorganization agreement could have the effect of discouraging superior proposals for a business combination between First National and a third party.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the First National board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but is believed to include all material factors considered by the First National board. In reaching its determination to approve and recommend the transaction, the First National board based its recommendation on the totality of the information presented to it.

After deliberating with respect to the merger transaction with Orrstown, considering, among other things, the matters discussed above and the opinion of Boenning referred to above, the First National board of directors unanimously approved and adopted the reorganization agreement and the merger with Orrstown.

There can be no certainty that the benefits of the merger anticipated by the First National board will occur. Actual results may vary materially from those anticipated.

The foregoing discussion contains a number of forward-looking statements that reflect the current views of First National with respect to future events that may have an effect on its future financial performance. Forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties. Actual results and outcomes may differ materially from the results and outcomes discussed in the forward-looking statements. Cautionary statements that identify important factors that could cause or contribute to differences in results and outcomes include those discussed under the section entitled "A Caution About Forward-Looking Information" on page 17 of this document. For more information on the factors that could affect actual results, see "Risk Factors" beginning on page 14.

Recommendation of First National's Board of Directors

The First National board of directors has unanimously approved the reorganization agreement, and believes that the proposed merger is in the best interests of First National. Accordingly, the First National board of directors unanimously recommends that First National shareholders vote FOR approval of the reorganization agreement.

Opinion of First National's Financial Advisor

Pursuant to an engagement letter dated as of November 10, 2005, as amended, First National retained Boenning to render a fairness opinion as to the merger consideration to the holders of First National common stock from a financial point of view in connection with First National's consideration of a possible business combination with Orrstown. At the November 21, 2005 meeting at which First National's board considered the merger agreement, Boenning rendered its opinion to the board that, based upon and subject to the various considerations set forth therein, as of November 21, 2005, the merger consideration was fair to the holders of First National common stock from a financial point of view. Boenning has subsequently rendered a supplemental written opinion dated February 1, 2006 for inclusion in this document. The opinion dated November 21, 2005 is referred to as the "November Opinion" and the opinion as of February 1, 2006 as the "Proxy Opinion."

Edgar Filing: ORRSTOWN FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form S-4

The full text of Boenning's Proxy Opinion, which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered and limitations of the review undertaken, is attached as Annex B to this document, is incorporated herein by reference, and should be read in its entirety in connection with this document. The summary of the opinion of Boenning set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion attached as Annex B to this document.

Boenning was selected to act as First National's financial advisor in connection with the merger with Orrstown based upon its qualifications, expertise, reputation and experience. Boenning has knowledge of and experience with the Pennsylvania and surrounding banking markets, as well as banking organizations operating in those markets. Boenning, as part of its investment banking business, is engaged regularly in the valuation of assets, securities and companies in connection with various types of asset and securities transactions, including mergers, acquisitions, public offerings, private placements, and valuations for various other purposes and in the determination of adequate consideration in such transactions. In the ordinary course of its business as a broker-dealer, Boenning may, from time to time, purchase securities from, and sell securities to, First National and Orrstown. In the ordinary course of business, Boenning may actively trade the securities of First National and Orrstown for its own account and for the accounts of customers and accordingly may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities. Boenning serves as a market maker in Orrstown's common stock.

On November 21, 2005, First National's board of directors approved and executed the reorganization agreement. Prior to the approval, Boenning delivered its November Opinion to First National's board stating that, as of such date, the merger consideration pursuant to the reorganization agreement was fair to the shareholders of First National from a financial point of view. Boenning reached the same opinion as of the date of its Proxy Opinion. The full text of the Proxy Opinion which sets forth assumptions made, matters considered and limits on the review undertaken is attached as Annex B to this document.

No limitations were imposed by First National's board of directors upon Boenning with respect to the investigations made or procedures followed by Boenning in rendering the November Opinion or the Proxy Opinion.

In arriving at its opinion, Boenning, among other things:

reviewed the reorganization agreement;

reviewed and analyzed the stock market performance of First National and Orrstown; studied and analyzed the consolidated financial and operating data of First National and Orrstown;

considered the terms and conditions of the merger between First National and Orrstown as compared with the terms and conditions of bank, bank holding company, and financial holding company mergers and acquisitions which Boenning deemed comparable;

met and/or communicated with certain members of First National's and Orrstown's senior management to discuss their respective operations, historical financial statements, and future prospects;

reviewed a draft of this registration statement (in the case of the Proxy Opinion);

compared the financial performance of First National and Orrstown and the prices and trading activity of the stocks of First National and Orrstown with those of certain other publicly-traded banks, bank holding companies, and financial holding companies and their securities which Boenning deemed comparable;

discussed the strategic objectives of the merger and the plans for the combined company with senior executives of First National and Orrstown, including estimates of the cost savings and other synergies projected by Orrstown for the combined company;

participated in discussions and negotiations among representatives of First National and Orrstown and their advisors; and conducted such other financial analyses, studies and investigations as it deemed appropriate.

In connection with rendering its November Opinion and Proxy Opinion, Boenning assumed that in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory and governmental approvals for the merger, no restriction will be imposed on Orrstown or First National that would have a material adverse effect on the contemplated benefits of the merger. Boenning also assumed that there will not occur any change in applicable law or regulation that would cause a material adverse change in the prospects or operations of Orrstown after the merger.

Boenning relied, without independent verification, upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information reviewed by and discussed with it for purposes of its opinions. With respect to First National's and Orrstown's financial forecasts and other information reviewed by Boenning in rendering its opinions, Boenning assumed that such information was reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the managements of First National and Orrstown as to their most likely future performance and the cost savings and other potential synergies (including the amount, timing and achievability thereof) anticipated to result from the merger. Boenning did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets (including loans) or liabilities of First National or Orrstown nor was it furnished with any such appraisal. Boenning also did not independently verify, and has relied on and assumed, that all allowances for loan and lease losses set forth in the balance sheets of First National and Orrstown were adequate and complied fully with applicable law, regulatory policy and sound banking practice as of the date of such financial statements. In addition, Boenning did not review credit files of either First National or Orrstown.

The following is a summary of the material analyses prepared by Boenning and presented to First National's board in connection with the November Opinion and analyzed by Boenning in connection with the November Opinion and the Proxy Opinion. In connection with delivering its Proxy Opinion, Boenning updated certain analyses described below to reflect current market conditions and events occurring since the date of the November Opinion. The reviews and updates led Boenning to conclude that it was not necessary to change the conclusions it had reached in connection with rendering the November Opinion. Additionally, none of the analyses prepared by Boenning in connection with the issuance of the November Opinion or the Proxy Opinion failed to support Boenning's conclusion that the merger consideration was fair to the holders of First National common stock from a financial point of view.

Summary of Transaction. Boenning calculated the implied pricing and valuation multiples based upon an implied offer price per share of $84.33 comprised of $22.20 in cash plus $62.13 in Orrstown common stock. The implied offer price of Orrstown common stock was derived by multiplying the exchange ratio of 1.75 by the last reported per share sale price of Orrstown common stock of $35.50 as of November 17, 2005.

considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that would affect the public trading values of the companies or company to which they are being compared.

Discounted Dividend Analysis. Using a discounted dividend analysis, Boenning estimated the present value of the future cash flows that would accrue to a holder of a share of First National common stock over a five-year period. This analysis was performed in order to compare the merger consideration offered by Orrstown to a range of estimated implied values for First National common stock based on projected future cash flows. This stand-alone analysis was based on several assumptions, including a range of price to earnings multiples of 13.0x to 17.0x to First National's terminal year common earnings per share, a range of earnings per share (EPS) growth rates based upon First National management's five year projected earnings per share growth rate of 0.0% to 10.0%, and First National's current common stock cash dividend payout ratio of 43.2%. The range of multiples applied to First National's estimated five-year earnings per share value reflected a variety of scenarios regarding the growth and profitability prospects of First National and valuation for banking securities in general. The terminal values and projected annual cash dividends were then discounted to present value using a discount rate of 12.2%. This discount rate was used in order to reflect an expected rate of return required by holders or prospective buyers of First National's common stock. The analysis indicated that, based upon the aforementioned assumptions, the per common share of the present value of First National's common stock, on a stand-alone basis, ranged from $35.69 to $63.84 with a median value of $48.13. The table below summarizes the results under different assumption scenarios.

	Terminal Multiple
	13.0x	14.0x	15.0x	16.0x	17.0x
EPS Growth Rate (%)
0.0	$ 35.69	$ 37.96	$ 40.22	$ 42.49	$ 44.76
2.5	39.03	41.53	44.04	46.54	49.04
5.0	42.62	45.37	48.13	50.88	53.63
7.5	46.46	49.49	52.51	55.54	58.56
10.0	50.58	53.89	57.21	60.53	63.84

In connection with the discounted dividend analysis performed, Boenning considered and discussed with First National's board how the present value analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including variations with respect to the growth rate of assets, net interest spread, non-interest income, non-interest expenses and dividend payout ratio. Boenning noted that the discounted dividend stream and terminal value analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, but the assumptions that must be made, and the results of this analysis, are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results.

Comparable Transactions Analysis. Boenning also compared the per share values to First National common shareholders implied by the exchange ratio offered by Orrstown of latest twelve months' earnings, book value, tangible book value, assets and deposits with the price per common share implied by the multiples paid in recent acquisitions of banks, bank holding companies, and financial holding companies that Boenning deemed comparable. The transactions deemed comparable by Boenning included both interstate and intrastate bank, bank holding company, and financial holding company acquisitions announced after January 1, 2005, in which the selling institution's assets were between $85 million and $175 million as of the most recent period publicly available prior to announcement. Boenning compared this national group as a whole as well as certain of its subgroups, including a regional group, a performance group, and a recent group, with the First National/Orrstown transaction. The regional group included transactions involving banks, bank holding companies, and financial holding companies in which the acquired company was located in the Mid-Atlantic region and Ohio. The performance group included transactions involving banks, bank holding companies, and financial holding companies which had a return on average common equity between 10.0% and 14.0%. In addition to the national, regional, and performance groups, Boenning also compared recent transactions that were announced after October 1, 2005. The financial and operating results of these comparisons are set forth in the following table.

Boenning also compared the ratios that the implied transaction value represented to First National's book value, tangible book value, net income, deposits, and assets (based on Orrstown's closing market price of $35.50 as of November 17, 2005) to the median transaction ratio results derived from the comparable transaction peer groups. In addition, Boenning applied the peer groups' transaction ratio results to First National's book value per share, tangible book value per share, earnings per share, deposits per share and assets per share. This was performed in order to compare, on a per share basis, the implied transaction value of $84.33 (based on Orrstown's closing market price of $35.50 as of November 17, 2005) to the comparable transaction peer groups. The results of these comparisons are set forth in the following table.

No company or transaction, however, used in this analysis is identical to First National, Orrstown or the transaction. Accordingly, an analysis of the result of the foregoing is not mathematical; rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that would affect the public trading values of the companies or company to which they are being compared.

Contribution Analysis. Boenning analyzed the contribution that First National and Orrstown would have made to the combined company's assets, loans, deposits and equity as of September 30, 2005. In addition, Boenning analyzed the contribution First National and Orrstown would have made to the combined company's estimated net income for the projected first full year of combined operations. This analysis was conducted in order to compare the amount of these categories First National is contributing to the pro forma entity versus the proportionate amount of value its shareholders are receiving. Boenning has not expressed any opinion as to the actual value of Orrstown common stock when issued in the merger or the price at which Orrstown common stock will trade after the merger. The analysis indicated the following information as September 30, 2005 and the first full projected year of combined operations:

	Orrstown	First National
Contribution of:
Assets	83%	17%
Common Equity	80%	20%

² Market value consists of total cash consideration and the implied value of stock consideration to be received by First National based on Orrstown's closing price on November 17, 2005.

Hurdle Rate Analysis. Using a range of discount rates and a range of terminal price to earnings per common share multiples, Boenning estimated a range of compound annual earnings per common share growth rates required over a five year period for First National to obtain an implied per common share standalone market price comparable to the value implied by the merger consideration offered by Orrstown on a present value basis. This analysis was performed in order to examine the required earnings per common share growth rates that would be required to offer shareholders similar value to that implied by the merger consideration. Boenning calculated a range of future values of the per common share implied value of the Orrstown transaction over a five-year period based on a range of discount rates from 5.0% to 15.0%. The range of discount rates reflected the expected rate of return required by holders or prospective buyers of First National common stock. Using a range of price to earnings per common share multiples of 12.5x to 17.5x to reflect the growth and profitability prospects of First National as well as general market valuations for comparable banking companies, Boenning calculated First National's potential earnings per common share at the end of five years by dividing the price to common earnings per share multiples into the range of future values. The annual growth rate was calculated based on the potential earnings per common share values at the end of five years and First National's fully diluted earnings per common share value of $4.03 for the twelve months ended September 30, 2005. Boenning then compared the resulting earnings growth rates with First National's historical and estimated future earnings per common share growth rates.

In connection with the hurdle rate analysis performed, Boenning considered and discussed with First National's board how the analysis would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including variations with respect to the range of discount rates and price per common share earnings multiples used. The table below summarizes the results under different assumption scenarios.

Terminal Multiple	Discount Rate

In connection with rendering its November Opinion and Proxy Opinion, Boenning performed what it deemed were the material financial analyses. Although the evaluation of the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration in the Merger was to some extent a subjective one based on the experience and judgment of Boenning and not merely the result of mathematical analysis of financial data, Boenning principally relied on the previously discussed financial valuation methodologies in its determinations. Boenning believes its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of such analyses and factors considered by Boenning without considering all such analyses and factors could create an incomplete view of the process underlying Boenning's opinion. In its analyses, Boenning made numerous assumptions with respect to business, market, monetary and economic conditions, industry performance and other matters, many of which are beyond First National's and Orrstown's control. Any estimates contained in Boenning's analyses are not necessarily indicative of future results or values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than such estimates.

In reaching its opinion as to fairness, none of the analyses or factors considered by Boenning was assigned any particular weighting by Boenning. As a result of its consideration of the aggregate of all factors present and analyses performed, Boenning reached the conclusion, and opined, that the merger consideration pursuant to the merger agreement was fair to the shareholders of First National from a financial point of view.

Boenning's Proxy Opinion was based solely upon the information available to it and the economic, market and other circumstances as they existed as of the date its Proxy Opinion was delivered; events occurring after the date of its Proxy Opinion could materially affect the assumptions used in preparing its Proxy Opinion. Boenning has not undertaken to reaffirm and revise its Proxy Opinion or otherwise comment upon any events occurring after the date of the Proxy Opinion.

The full text of the Boenning Proxy Opinion, dated as of _____, 2006 which sets forth assumptions made and matters considered, is attached as Annex B to this document. First National's shareholders are urged to read the Proxy Opinion in its entirety. Boenning's Proxy Opinion is directed only to the merger consideration pursuant to the reorganization agreement from a financial point of view, is for the information of the board of directors of First National, and does not address any other aspect of the merger nor does it constitute a recommendation to any holder of First National common stock as to how such holder should vote at the First National special shareholders' meeting.

The foregoing provides only a summary of the analyses performed in the Proxy Opinion of Boenning and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of that opinion, which is set forth in Annex B to this document.

Compensation of Boenning & Scattergood

First National and Boenning entered into an agreement relating to the services to be provided by Boenning in connection with the merger. First National agreed to pay Boenning a fee of $5,000 upon execution of the engagement agreement. In addition, First National agreed to pay Boenning a fee equal to $45,000 for rendering its November Opinion and Proxy Opinion. Pursuant to the Boenning engagement agreement, as amended, First National also agreed to reimburse Boenning for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with its retention and to indemnify it against certain liabilities.

Reasons For The Transaction: Orrstown's Board of Directors

Orrstown's acquisition strategy consists of identifying financial institutions with business philosophies similar to those of Orrstown, which operate in markets that are geographically compatible with Orrstown's operations and which can be acquired at an acceptable cost.

Edgar Filing: ORRSTOWN FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form S-4

In connection with its approval of the transaction with First National, Orrstown's board of directors reviewed the terms of the proposed reorganization agreement and its potential impact on Orrstown. In reaching its decision to approve the reorganization agreement, Orrstown's board of directors, with the assistance of management and Orrstown's advisors, considered the following factors:

The acquisition of First National represents an attractive opportunity for Orrstown to expand the geographic market area currently served by Orrstown Bank in Cumberland and Franklin Counties, Pennsylvania, into the contiguous market of Perry County.

Table of Contents

Its familiarity with First National's management team and employees, particularly its President, Peter C. Zimmerman, who have the leadership and talent to ensure the continuation of Orrstown's tradition of strong performance community offices.

First National's customer service-oriented emphasis with local decision-making ability and a clear focus on the community, which are consistent with Orrstown's business approach.

Its understanding of the business, operations, financial condition, earnings and prospects of each of Orrstown and First National.

Its understanding of the historical and current pro forma financial performance and condition, business operations, capital levels and asset quality of First National.

A review of comparable transactions, including a comparison of the price being paid in the transaction with the prices paid in other comparable financial institution acquisitions, expressed as, among other things, multiples of book value and earnings.

Its understanding that the transaction should be accretive to Orrstown's earnings within a year.

Perceived opportunities to increase the combined company's commercial lending, and to reduce the combined company's operating expenses, following the transaction.

The structure of the merger consideration and the financial and other terms of the transaction, including the fixed stock and fixed cash components.

Its understanding of the likelihood that the regulatory approvals needed to complete the transaction would be obtained.

Its review of the terms of the reorganization agreement with Orrstown's legal advisors.

This discussion of factors considered by Orrstown's board of directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes all material factors considered. In approving the reorganization agreement and related transactions, Orrstown's board did not specifically identify any one factor or group of factors as being more significant than any other factor in the decision making process. Rather, Orrstown's board of directors based its decision on the totality of information presented to it. In addition, individual members of the Orrstown board may have given differing weight or priority to different factors.

Orrstown's board of directors also considered potential risks associated with the transaction, including (1) the challenges of integrating First National's businesses, operations and workforce with those of Orrstown, (2) the conversion of First National's systems into Orrstown's systems, (3) the need to obtain First National shareholder and regulatory approval in order to complete the transaction, (4) the risks associated with achieving anticipated cost savings, potential revenue enhancements and other potential financial benefits as well as with maintaining reorganization, integration and restructuring expenses at anticipated levels, and (5) the risk that the final purchase price allocation based on the fair value of acquired assets at acquisition date and related adjustments to yield and/or amortization schedules of acquired assets and liabilities may be materially different than those assumed.

The foregoing discussion contains a number of forward-looking statements that reflect the current views of Orrstown with respect to future events that may have an effect on its future financial performance. Forward-looking statements are subject to risks and uncertainties. Actual results and outcomes may differ materially from the results and outcomes discussed in the forward-looking statements. Cautionary statements that identify important factors that could cause or contribute to differences in results and outcomes include those discussed under the section entitled "A Caution About Forward-Looking Information" on page 17 of this document. For more information on the factors that could affect actual results, see "Risk Factors" beginning on page 14.

Effects Of The Merger

Upon completion of the transaction, First National will be merged with and into an interim national bank organized by Orrstown in order to facilitate the acquisition of First National and the separate legal existence of First National will cease. All property, rights, powers, duties, obligations, debts and liabilities of First National will automatically be deemed transferred to the interim bank, as the surviving institution in the merger. The interim bank will change its name to The First National Bank of Newport and will operate as a separate wholly-owned bank subsidiary of Orrstown, managed under the direction of the current First National board of directors, with the addition of Kenneth R. Shoemaker, President of Orrstown.

What You Will Receive

Each share of First National common stock that you hold at the time of the merger will automatically be converted into the right to receive 1.75 shares of Orrstown common stock and $22.20 in cash. The reorganization agreement does not provide for any adjustment in the common stock exchange ratio or the cash consideration. Cash will also be paid in lieu of issuing any Orrstown fractional shares in an amount equal to the product of the fractional share amount multiplied by the average daily high bid and low offer quotations for Orrstown common stock over the 60 trading days ending on and including the fifth trading day prior to completion of the merger. First National shareholders who have properly exercised dissenters' rights under the National Bank Act will have the right to receive the consideration provided by law.

Effective Date

The merger transaction will take effect when all conditions, including obtaining shareholder and regulatory approval, have been satisfied or waived, or as soon as practicable thereafter as Orrstown and First National may mutually select. Regulatory approval cannot be waived. We presently expect closing on the transaction to occur during the second quarter of 2006. See The Transaction Conditions to the Merger and The Transaction Regulatory Approvals, beginning on pages 40 and 41, respectively.

Rights of Dissenting Shareholders

Under Section 215a of the National Bank Act in Title 12 of the United States Code, any First National shareholder has the right to dissent from the merger and to receive payment for the fair value of all of his, her or its shares, determined as provided below, if the merger is completed.

The discussion below describes the steps that you must take if you want to exercise your dissenters' rights. You must take each step in the indicated order and in strict compliance with Section 215a in order to keep your dissenters' rights. If you fail to follow these steps, you will lose your dissenters' rights and you will receive the same consideration for each of your shares of First National common stock as the First National shareholders who do not exercise dissenters' rights. Therefore, if you are contemplating exercising your dissenters' rights, we urge you to read carefully the provisions of Section 215a, a copy of which is attached to this document and prospectus as Annex C. This summary is qualified in its entirety by the full text of Annex C.

Edgar Filing: ORRSTOWN FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form S-4

If you wish to dissent, you must:

vote all of your shares of First National common stock against the merger; OR deliver to First National, prior to or at the meeting at which the vote on the reorganization agreement is taken, a written notice that you dissent from the merger; and if the merger is completed, deliver to Orrstown, at any time prior to 30 days after the completion of the merger, a written request for the payment of the fair value of your shares, accompanied by the surrender of your stock certificate(s).

In order to be entitled to exercise dissenters' rights, you must vote AGAINST the merger or give notice in writing at or prior to the special meeting that you dissent. Thus, if you execute and return a proxy card you must specify that your shares are to be voted AGAINST the merger. If you return a signed proxy card without voting instructions or with instructions to vote FOR approval of the reorganization agreement and the merger, your shares will automatically be voted in favor of the reorganization agreement and the merger and you will lose any dissenters' rights, unless you revoke your proxy as described elsewhere in this document. Failure to vote against the merger will not constitute a waiver of dissenters' rights if you give notice in writing at or prior to the special meeting that you dissent. Finally, if you wish to dissent, you must dissent as to all of the shares of First National common stock that you own.

Any filing of a written notice of intent to dissent with respect to the proposed merger should be sent to: Jane L. Timothy, Secretary, The First National Bank of Newport, Center Square, Newport, PA 17074. Any written request for payment of the value of your shares should be sent to: Bradley S. Everly, Chief Financial Officer, Orrstown Financial Services, Inc., 77 East King Street, Shippensburg, PA 17257.

A vote against the reorganization agreement and the merger or written notice of your dissent prior to the merger will not, by itself, satisfy the requirements of Section 215a. If you wish to dissent from the proposed merger, you must separately comply with each of the applicable steps listed above.

If the merger is completed, Orrstown will provide to each shareholder who timely submitted a written notice of dissent, or who voted against the merger at the annual meeting, a dissenters' notice that states the date of the completion of the merger, together with a letter of transmittal for use in submitting stock certificates to Orrstown for payment.

For the purpose of determining the amount to be received in connection with the exercise of dissenters' rights, Section 215a provides that the value of a dissenting First National shareholder's common stock must be determined as of the effective date of the merger by an appraisal made by a committee of three persons. The members of this committee will consist of:

one person selected by the holders of a majority of the shares of First National common stock held by the dissenting shareholders;

one person selected by the board of directors of Orrstown; and one person selected by the other two appraisers.

The valuation agreed upon by two of the three appraisers will govern. If the appraised value presented by the committee of appraisers is not satisfactory to any dissenting shareholder who has requested payment, that shareholder may appeal the appraisal to the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency within five days after notification of the appraised value. The Office of the Comptroller of the Currency will then conduct a reappraisal, and that reappraisal will be final and binding as to that shareholder. If, within ninety days after completion of the merger, for any reason, one or more of the appraisers are not selected or the appraisers fail to determine the value of the shares, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency will, upon the written request of any interested party, cause an appraisal to be made which will be the final appraisal and binding on all parties. The expenses of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency in conducting an appraisal will be paid by Orrstown.

The value of the shares of First National common stock, as so determined, will be paid promptly to the dissenting shareholders.

Edgar Filing: ORRSTOWN FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form S-4

The shares of Orrstown stock that would have been delivered to the dissenting shareholder will be sold at an advertised public auction. If the shares are sold for a price greater than the amount paid to the dissenting shareholder, the excess of such sale price shall be paid to the dissenting shareholder.

Any First National shareholder wishing to exercise dissenters' rights is urged to consult legal counsel before attempting to exercise such rights. Failure to comply strictly with all of the procedures set forth in Section 215a may result in the loss of statutory dissenters' rights.

Dividends

The reorganization agreement permits First National to pay a regular quarterly cash dividend in an amount not to exceed $.45 per share of First National common stock outstanding in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice. Orrstown expects that after completion of the merger, subject to approval and declaration by its board, it will continue to declare regular quarterly cash dividends on the shares of its common stock consistent with past practices. Conditions to the Merger

Our obligations to complete the transaction are subject to various conditions, including the following:

The reorganization agreement and merger shall have been duly approved by the First National shareholders.

All necessary governmental approvals for the merger transaction shall have been obtained, and all waiting periods required by law or imposed by any governmental authority with respect to the merger shall have expired. See The Transaction Regulatory Approvals, at page 41.

There shall not be any order, decree, or injunction in effect preventing the completion of the transactions contemplated by the reorganization agreement.

We shall each have received the opinion of Rhoads & Sinon LLP that, among other things, the merger will be treated for federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 and any gain realized in the merger will be recognized only to the extent of cash or other property (other than Orrstown common stock) received, including cash received in lieu of fractional share interests. See The Transaction Material Federal Income Tax Consequences, at page 47.

No materially adverse change shall have occurred in the assets, in business, financial condition or results of operation of First National or Orrstown.

In addition to the foregoing, our obligations to complete the transaction are each conditioned on:

The other party's performance in all material respects of all covenants and obligations required to be performed by it at or prior to the effective date of the merger.

Table of Contents

Regulatory Approvals

Completion of the merger and reorganization transactions is subject to the prior receipt of all consents or approvals of, and the provision of all notices to federal and state authorities required to complete the acquisition of First National by Orrstown, and the expiration of all applicable waiting periods.

Orrstown and First National have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to obtain all regulatory approvals required to complete the transaction. These approvals include approval from the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the Federal Reserve Board), the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (the OCC) and the Pennsylvania Department of Banking. The transaction cannot proceed in the absence of these required regulatory approvals.

Federal Reserve Board. The acquisition of a bank by a bank holding company requires the prior approval of the Federal Reserve Board under the Bank Holding Company Act, or receipt from the Federal Reserve Board of a waiver of this approval. Under the Bank Holding Company Act, the Federal Reserve Board generally may not approve any proposed transaction:

That would result in a monopoly or that would further a combination or conspiracy to monopolize banking in the United States; or

That could substantially lessen competition in any section of the country, that would tend to create a monopoly in any section of the country, or that would be in restraint of trade, unless the Federal Reserve Board finds that the public interest in meeting the convenience and needs of the communities served outweighs the anti-competitive effects of the proposed transaction.

The Federal Reserve Board is also required to consider the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of Orrstown and its subsidiary bank and First National and the convenience and needs of the communities to be served. Under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977, the Federal Reserve Board also must take into account the record of performance of Orrstown and First National in meeting the credit needs of their communities, including low and moderate-income neighborhoods. In addition, the Federal Reserve Board must take into account the effectiveness of Orrstown and First National in combating money laundering activities.

Applicable regulations require publication of notice of an application for approval of the merger and an opportunity for the public to comment on the application in writing and to request a hearing. Any transaction approved by the Federal Reserve Board generally may not be completed until 30 days after such approval, during which time the U.S. Department of Justice may challenge such transaction on antitrust grounds and seek divestiture of certain assets and liabilities. With the approval of the Federal Reserve Board and the U.S. Department of Justice, the waiting period may be reduced to 15 days.

Comptroller of the Currency. Orrstown must file an application with the OCC to approve the establishment by Orrstown of a wholly-owned interim bank subsidiary and the merger of First National into the interim bank subsidiary pursuant to the Bank Merger Act. In evaluating an application under the Bank Merger Act, the OCC will review the merger of First National according to standards and criteria as the Federal Reserve Board as described above.

Pennsylvania Department of Banking. The transaction also is subject to the prior approval of the Pennsylvania Department of Banking under Section 115 of the Pennsylvania Banking Code. In determining whether to approve the transaction, the Pennsylvania Department of Banking will consider, among other things, whether the purposes and probable effects of the transaction would be consistent with the purposes of the Pennsylvania Banking Code and whether the transaction would be prejudicial to the interests of the depositors, creditors, beneficiaries of fiduciary accounts or shareholders of the institutions involved.

Table of Contents

Applications. Orrstown and First National have filed the necessary applications with the Federal Reserve Board, the OCC and the Pennsylvania Department of Banking, requesting approval of the transaction. The applications describe the terms of the transaction, the parties involved, and the activities to be conducted by the combined companies as a result of the transaction, and contain certain related financial and managerial information. Copies of the applications will be provided to the U.S. Department of Justice and other governmental agencies.

We are not aware of any material governmental approvals or actions that are required to complete the merger, except as described above. If any other approval or action is required, we will use our best efforts to obtain such approval or action.

Amendment; Waiver

Subject to applicable law, at any time prior to completion of the transaction, we may:

Amend the reorganization agreement, except that after approval by First National shareholders at the special meeting, the consideration you will receive in the merger cannot be decreased.

Extend the time for the performance of any of the obligations or other acts of the other party required in the reorganization agreement.

Waive any inaccuracies in the representations and warranties of the other party contained in the reorganization agreement.

Waive compliance by the other party with any of the agreements or conditions contained in the reorganization agreement, except for the requirements of First National shareholder approval, regulatory approvals and the absence of any order, decree, or injunction preventing the transactions contemplated by the reorganization agreement.

Termination

The reorganization agreement may be terminated at any time prior to the effective date of the merger by our mutual consent. The reorganization agreement may also be terminated by either party if:

The other party, in any material respect, breaches any representation, warranty, covenant or other obligation contained in the reorganization agreement, and the breach remains uncured 30 days after written notice of the breach is given to the breaching party;

The closing of the merger does not occur by September 30, 2006, unless this is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the reorganization agreement to perform or observe any agreements required to be performed by it before closing;

Any regulatory authority whose approval or consent is required for completion of the merger issues a definitive written denial of the approval or consent and the time period for appeals or requests for reconsideration has expired; or

First National shareholders do not approve the reorganization agreement at the special meeting.

Orrstown may terminate the reorganization agreement if First National enters into a term sheet, letter of intent or agreement to merge with someone else. However, First National may terminate the reorganization agreement if it enters into a term sheet, letter of intent or agreement to merge after receiving written advice of counsel that failure to do so would breach the fiduciary duty of the First National board of directors.

Orrstown may also terminate the reorganization agreement if First National withdraws, changes or modifies its recommendation to its shareholders to approve the reorganization agreement and the merger.

Table of Contents

Termination Fee

First National has agreed to pay a fee of $1,500,000 to Orrstown if First National fails to complete the merger and Orrstown is not in material breach of the reorganization agreement after the occurrence of any one of the following events:

A group or person acquires beneficial ownership of 10% or more of the outstanding common stock of First National; or

First National enters into a written agreement or understanding to merge or consolidate, to have 10% or more of its ownership or voting power acquired in the future, or to have all or substantially all of its assets or liabilities acquired; or

First National authorizes, recommends or publicly proposes, or announces an intention to authorize, any of the foregoing transactions; or

First National shareholders fail to approve the merger or the special meeting is canceled after:

The First National board of directors has withdrawn or modified its recommendation to shareholders to approve the merger and the reorganization agreement;

Another group or person has announced an offer or proposal to acquire 10% or more of the outstanding common stock of First National or to merge or consolidate with First National or to acquire all or substantially all of First National's assets and within 24 months thereafter enters into an agreement with the group or person for such a transaction;

Any one or more directors or officers of First National or other persons who have signed a voting agreement with Orrstown relating to the ownership of First National common stock over which the director, officer or other person has voting power fails to maintain continued ownership of all the shares, in accordance with the voting agreement; or Any director or officer of First National or other person, who has signed a voting agreement with Orrstown relating to voting of First National common stock over which the director, officer or other person has voting power, fails to vote all the shares subject to the voting agreement for the merger. See "The Transaction" Voting Agreements, beginning at page 46.

Expenses

Orrstown and First National will each pay its respective costs and expenses incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated by the reorganization agreement, including fees and expenses of financial consultants, accountants and legal counsel.

Management and Operations After the Transaction

Edgar Filing: ORRSTOWN FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form S-4

As a result of the transaction, First National will be merged into an interim bank organized by Orrstown to facilitate the acquisition. The surviving bank will change its name to The First National Bank of Newport and operate as a wholly-owned national bank subsidiary of Orrstown. Orrstown has agreed that the surviving bank will continue to operate as a separate subsidiary under the name The First National Bank of Newport name for not less than three years. Following the merger, First National's board of directors will consist of the current members of the board of First National with the addition of Kenneth R. Shoemaker, the current President and Chief Executive Officer of Orrstown. Further, following the merger, Peter C. Zimmerman, First National's current President and Chief Executive Officer, will continue as the President and Chief Executive Officer of First National. Michael D. Amsler, currently Senior Vice President and Senior Lending Officer of First National, will continue to serve in this position following completion of the merger. See The Transaction Interests of Management and Others in the Merger Executive Employment Agreements, on page 45 and the employment agreements, attached to this document as Exhibit 5 and Exhibit 6 to the reorganization agreement, included as Annex A. Upon completion of the transaction, Orrstown has also agreed that Peter C. Zimmerman will serve as an Orrstown holding company director.

Employment; Severance

Following the transaction, Orrstown is not obligated to continue the employment of any First National employee (other than those with employment agreements with Orrstown or First National). As a result of the transaction, some First National positions, primarily back office, support, processing and other operational activities and services, may be eliminated. Each First National employee who is involuntarily terminated within one year following the effective date of the merger, other than for cause, or who voluntarily terminates his or her employment after being offered a position that is not a position of substantially similar job description or responsibility at substantially the same salary level that is within 60 miles of the employee's then current work location with First National, will be eligible to receive severance payments equal to 2 weeks pay for each full year of continuous service, with a minimum severance benefit of 4 weeks pay and a maximum of 26 weeks pay. No First National employee who will receive any payments or benefits pursuant to any agreement, employment agreement or similar plan or right will be eligible to receive severance benefits.

Employee Benefits

The reorganization agreement provides that each First National employee who becomes an employee of Orrstown or any Orrstown subsidiary at the effective date of the merger is entitled to full credit for each year of service with First National for purposes of determining eligibility for participation and vesting, but not for benefit accrual, in the Orrstown or Orrstown subsidiary's employee benefit plans, programs and policies. After the effective date of the merger, Orrstown may, at its discretion, maintain, discontinue or amend any First National benefit plan, subject to the plan's provisions and applicable law.

Edgar Filing: ORRSTOWN FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form S-4

Orrstown has also agreed that for six years after the merger's effective date, Orrstown will, at its expense, maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance for the former directors and officers of First National with respect to matters occurring at or prior to the merger's effective date. The insurance coverage is to be at least equal to the coverage currently maintained by First National and is to contain terms and conditions that are no less favorable to the beneficiaries. Orrstown is not obligated to make annual premium payments that exceed (for the portion related to First National's directors and officers) 150% of the initial annual premiums for First National's policy maintained prior to the merger. If the annual premium payments exceed this amount, Orrstown will use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the most advantageous policy available up to this maximum amount.

As with Mr. Zimmerman, Mr. Amsler's employment is not governed by any employment agreement and is therefore currently at-will. continuing qualification under First National's bylaws, including age limitations) and shall be entitled to receive as compensation for such service an annual fee of $9,000, plus $250 for each regular board meeting attended.

Voting Agreements

General

As a condition to Orrstown entering into the reorganization agreement, each of the directors and executive officers of First National entered into an agreement with Orrstown, dated as of November 21, 2005, pursuant to which each director and executive officer agreed to vote all shares of First National common stock which they own or over which they exercise voting control in favor of the reorganization agreement. As of the record date of _____, the director and executive officers of First National owned or exercised voting control over _____ shares of First National common stock, representing approximately _____ % of the shares of First National common stock outstanding on that date. A form of voting agreement, which is also called an affiliate letter, is Exhibit 1 to the reorganization agreement, which is attached to this document as Annex A.

Effect of Voting Agreements

The voting agreements, together with First National's agreement not to initiate, solicit or respond to inquiries relating to an acquisition transaction, may have the effect of discouraging persons from making a proposal for an acquisition transaction involving First National.

Terms of Voting Agreements

The following is a brief summary of the material provisions of the voting agreements.

Each director and executive officer of First National agreed, among other things, that at the special meeting, he will:

appear at such meeting or otherwise cause all shares of First National common stock he owns to be counted as present for purposes of determining a quorum; and vote (or cause to be voted), in person or by proxy, all shares of First National common stock he owns or as to which he has, directly or indirectly, the right to direct the voting in favor of adoption and approval of the reorganization agreement and the merger transaction and against the approval or adoption of any other acquisition transaction with a party other than Orrstown.

Each director and executive officer also agreed not to, directly or indirectly, transfer or dispose of any of the shares of First National common stock he owns prior to the special meeting.

The voting agreements will remain in effect until the earlier of the effective time of the transaction or the termination of the reorganization agreement in accordance with its terms.

Each director and executive officer also agreed to certain restrictions on the offer, sale, transfer or disposition of shares of Orrstown common stock acquired in the transaction, which restrictions are intended to ensure compliance with applicable federal securities laws.

Accounting Treatment

Orrstown will account for the merger under the purchase method of accounting. Orrstown will record, at fair value, the acquired tangible and identifiable intangible assets and assumed liabilities of First National. To the extent that the total purchase price exceeds the fair value of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed, Orrstown will record the excess as goodwill. Under generally accepted accounting principles, goodwill is not amortized, but is assessed annually for impairment with any resulting impairment losses included in net income. Orrstown will include in its results of operations the results of First National's operations only after completion of the merger.

Material Federal Income Tax Consequences

In the opinion of Rhoads & Sinon LLP, Orrstown's legal tax counsel, the following discussion addresses the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to a First National shareholder who holds shares of First National common stock as a capital asset. This discussion is based upon the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which is referred to in this document as the Code, Treasury regulations promulgated under the Code, judicial authorities, published positions of the Internal Revenue Service and other applicable authorities, all as in effect on the date of this discussion and all of which are subject to change (possibly with retroactive effect) and to differing interpretations. This discussion does not address all aspects of United States federal income taxation that may be relevant to First National shareholders in light of their particular circumstances and does not address aspects of United States federal income taxation that may be applicable to First National shareholders subject to special treatment under the Code (including banks, tax-exempt organizations, insurance companies, dealers in securities, traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting, investors in pass-through entities, First National shareholders who hold their shares of First National common stock as part of a hedge, straddle or conversion transaction, First National shareholders who acquired their shares as compensation, and First National shareholders who are not United States persons as defined in section 7701(a)(30) of the Code). In addition, this discussion does not address any aspect of state, local or foreign taxation. No assurance can be given that the IRS would not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of the tax aspects set forth below.

First National shareholders are urged to consult their tax advisors with respect to the particular United States federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences of the merger to them.

The closing of the merger is conditioned upon the receipt by Orrstown and First National of the opinion of Rhoads & Sinon LLP, counsel to Orrstown, dated as of the effective date of the merger, substantially to the effect that, on the basis of facts, representations and assumptions set forth or referred to in that opinion (including factual representations contained in certificates of officers of First National and Orrstown) which are consistent with the state of facts existing as of the effective date of the merger:

The merger constitutes a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code; and

Any gain realized in the merger will be recognized as capital gain or ordinary income only to the extent of cash or other property (other than Orrstown common stock) received in the merger, including cash received in lieu of fractional share interests.

The tax opinion to be delivered in connection with the merger is not binding on the IRS or the courts, and neither First National nor Orrstown intends to request a ruling from the IRS with respect to the United States federal income tax consequences of the merger. Consequently, no assurance can be given that the IRS will not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of those set forth below. In addition, if any of the facts, representations or assumptions upon which the opinion is based is inconsistent with the actual facts, the United States federal income tax consequences of the merger could be adversely affected.

Assuming that the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, the discussion below reflects the conclusions of Rhoads & Sinon LLP, in its opinion as to the material United States federal income tax consequences of the merger to First National shareholders.

A shareholder generally will recognize gain as capital gain or ordinary income (but not loss) in an amount equal to the lesser of (1) the amount of gain realized (i.e., the excess of the sum of the amount of cash and the fair market value of the Orrstown common stock received pursuant to the merger over such shareholder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of First National common stock surrendered) and (2) the amount of cash received pursuant to the merger. For this purpose, gain or loss must be calculated separately for each identifiable block of shares surrendered in the exchange, and loss realized on one block of shares may not be used to offset gain realized on another block of shares. Any recognized gain generally will be long-term capital gain if the First National shareholder's holding period with respect to the First National common stock surrendered is more than one year. If, however, the cash received has the effect of the distribution of a dividend, the cash received will be treated as a dividend to the extent of the First National shareholder's ratable share of accumulated earnings and profits as calculated for United States federal income tax purposes. See Possible treatment of cash as a dividend, below.

The aggregate tax basis of Orrstown common stock received by a First National shareholder pursuant to the transaction will be equal to the aggregate adjusted tax basis of the shares of First National common stock surrendered for Orrstown common stock, reduced by the amount of cash received by the First National shareholder pursuant to the merger, and increased by the amount of gain (including any portion of the gain that is treated as a dividend as described below), if any, recognized by the First National shareholder on the exchange. The holding period of the Orrstown common stock will include the holding period of the shares of First National common stock surrendered. If a First National shareholder has differing bases or holding periods in respect of his or her shares of First National common stock, such shareholder should consult his or her tax advisor prior to the exchange with regard to identifying the bases or holding periods of the particular shares of Orrstown common stock received in the exchange.

Possible treatment of cash as a dividend. In general, the determination of whether the gain recognized in the exchange will be treated as capital gain or has the effect of a distribution of a dividend depends upon whether and to what extent the exchange reduces the First National shareholder's deemed percentage stock ownership of Orrstown. For purposes of this determination, First National shareholders will be treated as if they first exchanged all of their shares of First National common stock solely for Orrstown common stock and then Orrstown immediately redeemed (the deemed redemption) a portion of the Orrstown common stock in exchange for the cash actually received. The gain recognized in the exchange followed by a deemed redemption will be treated as capital gain if (1) the deemed redemption is substantially disproportionate with respect to the First National shareholder (and the shareholder actually or constructively owns after the deemed redemption less than 50% of voting power of the outstanding Orrstown common stock) or (2) the deemed redemption is not essentially equivalent to a dividend. Gain recognized will also be capital gain to the extent the recognized gain exceeds the shareholder's ratable share of First National accumulated earnings and profits.

The deemed redemption generally will be substantially disproportionate with respect to a First National shareholder if the percentage described in (2) below is less than 80% of the percentage described in (1) below. Whether the deemed redemption is not essentially equivalent to a dividend with respect to a First National shareholder will depend upon the shareholder's particular circumstances. In order for the deemed redemption to be not essentially equivalent to a dividend, the deemed redemption must generally result in a meaningful reduction in the shareholder's deemed percentage stock ownership of Orrstown. In general, the determination requires a comparison of (1) the percentage of the outstanding stock of Orrstown that the shareholder is deemed actually and constructively to have owned immediately before the deemed redemption and (2) the percentage of the outstanding stock of Orrstown that is actually and constructively owned by the shareholder immediately after the deemed redemption. In applying the above tests, a First National shareholder may, under the constructive ownership rules, be deemed to own stock that is owned by other persons or otherwise in addition to the stock actually owned by the shareholder. As these rules are complex and dependent upon a First National shareholder's specific circumstances, each shareholder that may be subject to these rules should consult his or her tax advisor. The IRS has ruled that a minority shareholder in a publicly held corporation whose relative stock interest is minimal and who exercises no control with respect to corporate affairs is considered to have a meaningful reduction if the shareholder has a relatively minor reduction in such shareholder's percentage stock ownership under the above analysis.

Cash received in lieu of a fractional share. Cash received by a First National shareholder in lieu of a fractional share of Orrstown common stock generally will be treated as received in redemption of the fractional share, and gain generally will be recognized based on the difference between the amount of cash received in lieu of the fractional share and the portion of the shareholder's aggregate adjusted tax basis of the shares of First National common stock surrendered that is allocable to the fractional share. The gain generally will be long-term capital gain if the holding period for the shares of First National common stock is more than one year.

Backup Withholding. To the extent that a First National shareholder receives cash in exchange for surrendering shares of First National common stock, the shareholder may be subject to backup withholding at a rate of 28% if the shareholder is a non-corporate United States person and (1) fails to provide an accurate taxpayer identification number; (2) is notified by the IRS that it has failed to report all interest or dividends required to be shown on its federal income tax returns, or (3) in certain circumstances, fails to comply with applicable certification requirements. Amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a refund or credit against a shareholder's United States federal income tax liability provided that the shareholder furnishes the required information to the IRS.

The foregoing discussion is not intended to be a complete analysis or description of all potential United States federal income tax consequences of the merger transaction. In addition, this discussion does not address tax consequences that may vary with, or are contingent on, a First National shareholder's individual circumstances. It also does not address any federal estate tax or state, local or foreign tax consequences of the merger. Tax matters are very complicated, and the tax consequences of the transaction to a First National shareholder will depend upon the facts of his or her particular situation. Accordingly, we strongly urge you to consult with a tax advisor to determine the particular tax consequences to you of the transaction, as well as to any later sale of shares of Orrstown common stock received by you in the merger.

Resale of Orrstown Common Stock

You may freely transfer the Orrstown common stock issued in the merger transaction under the Securities Act, unless you are deemed to be:

An affiliate of First National for purposes of Rule 145 under the Securities Act; or

An affiliate of Orrstown for purposes of Rule 144 under the Securities Act.

Affiliates will include persons (generally executive officers, directors and 10% or more shareholders) who control, are controlled by, or are under common control with (1) Orrstown or First National at the time of the First National special meeting, or (2) Orrstown at or after the effective date of the merger.

Rules 144 and 145 will restrict the sale of shares of Orrstown common stock received in the merger by affiliates and certain of their family members and related interests.

First National affiliates:

Generally, during the year following the effective date of the merger, those persons who are affiliates of First National at the time of the First National special meeting, provided they are not affiliates of Orrstown at or following the merger's effective date, may publicly resell any shares of Orrstown common stock received by them in the merger, subject to certain limitations and requirements. These include the amount of Orrstown common stock that may be sold by them in any three-month period, the manner of sale, and the adequacy of current public information about Orrstown.

Edgar Filing: ORRSTOWN FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form S-4

After the one-year period, these affiliates may resell their shares without the restrictions, so long as there is adequate current public information with respect to Orrstown as required by Rule 144.

Orrstown affiliates:

Persons who are affiliates of Orrstown after the effective date of the merger may publicly resell the shares of Orrstown common stock received by them in the merger subject to the same limitations and requirements as apply to First National affiliates in the first year and subject to certain filing requirements specified in Rule 144.

Table of Contents

The ability of affiliates to resell shares of Orrstown common stock received in the merger under Rule 144 or Rule 145, as summarized herein, generally will be subject to Orrstown's having satisfied its public reporting requirements under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 for specified periods prior to the time of sale.

Affiliates also would be permitted to resell shares of Orrstown common stock received in the merger pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act or another available exemption from the Securities Act registration requirements.

This document does not cover any resales of shares of Orrstown common stock received by persons who may be deemed to be affiliates of Orrstown or First National.

Each First National director, as an affiliate of First National, has agreed with Orrstown not to transfer any shares of Orrstown common stock received in the merger except in compliance with the Securities Act. See "The Transaction - Voting Agreements" at page 46.

Exchange Of First National Certificates

Promptly after the effective time, Orrstown will deposit with its exchange agent, Registrar and Transfer Company, Cranford, New Jersey, certificates representing the shares of Orrstown common stock that are issuable in connection with the merger for shares of First National common stock. Orrstown will also deposit with the exchange agent the amount of cash required for the cash consideration and an estimated amount of cash payable instead of fractional shares. Promptly after the effective time, Orrstown will cause the exchange agent to send to each holder of record of shares of First National common stock at the effective time of the merger transmittal materials for use in the exchange of the merger consideration for certificates representing First National common stock. The exchange agent will deliver to each holder of First National common stock who surrenders his or her certificates to the exchange agent, together with properly executed transmittal materials and any other required documentation, a certificate representing the number of shares of Orrstown common stock to which such holder is entitled, and a check in an amount equal to the cash such holder is entitled to receive as consideration for shares of First National common stock. Orrstown will not issue any fractional shares. Instead, Orrstown also will pay each holder of First National common stock who would otherwise be entitled to a fractional share of Orrstown common stock an amount in cash, without interest, calculated by multiplying such fraction by the average of the closing bid price and the closing ask price per share for Orrstown common stock as reported on the OTC Bulletin Board for each of the 60 consecutive trading days ending on and including the fifth trading day before the effective time of the merger.

Until properly surrendering their certificates, holders of unexchanged shares of First National common stock will not be entitled to receive any dividends or distributions with respect to Orrstown common stock. After surrender of the certificates representing First National common stock, the record holder of such shares will be entitled to receive any such dividends or other distributions, without interest, which had previously become payable with respect to shares of Orrstown common stock represented by such certificate.

If any certificates for First National common stock have not been surrendered by the second anniversary of the merger, Orrstown has the right, without notice to the holders of record of such shares, to sell the shares for the account of the holders and, thereafter, the holders of record of the sold shares shall have only the right to receive the net proceeds of the sale, without interest, plus any unpaid dividends. In the event that any unsurrendered certificates or net proceeds of sale become the property of any governmental unit or agency under laws of escheat or other unclaimed property laws, Orrstown shall have no liability for any property delivered to a public official pursuant to such laws.

Holders of First National common stock should not send in certificates representing First National common stock until they receive transmittal materials from the exchange agent.

Material Contracts

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The following unaudited pro forma combined financial information and explanatory notes present how the combined financial statements of Orrstown and First National may have appeared had the businesses actually been combined as of the date indicated. The unaudited pro forma combined balance sheet at September 30, 2005 and at December 31, 2004 assumes the merger was completed on the given date. The unaudited pro forma combined income statement for the nine months ended September 30, 2005 and year ended December 31, 2004 gives effect to the merger as if the merger had been completed on January 1, 2005 and January 1, 2004, respectively. The unaudited pro forma combined financial information shows the impact of the merger on Orrstown's and First National's combined financial position and results of operations under the purchase method of accounting with Orrstown treated as the acquiror. Under this method of accounting, Orrstown will be required to record the assets and liabilities of First National at their estimated fair market values as of the date the merger is completed.

The unaudited pro forma combined financial information has been derived from and should be read in conjunction with the historical consolidated financial statements and the related notes of Orrstown that are incorporated into this document by reference and of First National that are included as a part of this document. See "Where You Can Find More Information" on page 68 and "Index to First National's Financial Statements" on page F-1.

The unaudited pro forma combined financial information is presented for illustrative purposes only and does not indicate the financial results of the combined company had the companies actually been combined at the beginning of the period presented. Furthermore, the information does not include the impact of possible revenue enhancements, expense efficiencies, asset dispositions and share repurchases, among other factors. In addition, as explained in more detail in the accompanying notes to the unaudited pro forma combined financial information, the allocation of the purchase price reflected in the unaudited pro forma combined financial information is subject to adjustment and will vary from the actual purchase price allocation that will be recorded upon completion of the merger based upon changes in the balance sheet including fair value estimates.

Table of ContentsNOTES TO UNAUDITED PRO FORMA COMBINED FINANCIAL INFORMATION*Note 1 Basis of Pro Forma Presentation

The unaudited pro forma combined financial information relating to the merger is presented as of and for the nine months ended September 30, 2005 and as of and for the year ended December 31, 2004. Orrstown and First National are in the process of analyzing and reviewing their accounting and financial reporting policies and procedures and, as a result of this review, may reflect changes in one or the other of Orrstown's or First National's policies or procedures in future presentations of combined results in order to conform to the accounting policies that will be determined to be most appropriate for the combined company. However, in the presentation provided herein, no significant reclassifications were required.

The pro forma adjustments consist of the expected purchase price adjustments necessary to combine Orrstown and First National, including the conversion of each First National common stock into 1.75 shares of Orrstown common stock and $22.20 in cash applied to 400,000 First National common shares multiplied by the average share price of $35.49 per share of Orrstown common stock. The average share price was computed using the average closing price of Orrstown common stock for the period commencing two trading days prior to and ending two trading days after the merger was announced on November 21, 2005. First National had no employee stock options outstanding, warrants or any other stock based obligations at September 30, 2005 that will need to be converted into Orrstown common stock upon consummation of the merger. The unaudited pro forma combined financial information reflects the issuance of 700,000 shares of Orrstown common stock with an aggregate value of $24.8 million, Orrstown plans to fund the cash portion of the purchase price by increasing its long-term debt by $5.8 million and by liquidating existing short term investments by approximately $3.1 million.

Consideration has been given to providing an estimate of the anticipated transaction costs to be incurred in connection with the merger. Such costs are expected to approximate $491,000 on a pre-tax basis and have been reflected in the pro forma adjustments to the unaudited pro forma combined balance sheet. Under current accounting rules, certain other costs will not be accruable at the closing of the merger and will be recognized in periods both before and after the date of the merger. The detailed plans for all of the restructuring initiatives have not been fully formulated and, as such, no consideration was given to recognition of these expenses in the unaudited pro forma combined balance sheet or in the unaudited pro forma combined income statement.

The total estimated purchase price for the purpose of this pro forma financial information is $34.2 million.

The merger will be accounted for using the purchase method of accounting for business combinations which requires that the assets and liabilities of First National be adjusted to fair value as of the date of the acquisition.

The unaudited pro forma combined financial information has been prepared to include the estimated adjustments necessary to record the assets and liabilities of First National at their respective fair values and represents management's best estimates based upon the information available at this time. These pro forma adjustments are expected to be revised as additional information becomes available and additional detailed analysis is performed. Furthermore, the final allocation of the purchase price will be determined after the merger is completed and after completion of a final analysis to determine the fair values of First National's tangible and identifiable intangible assets and liabilities as of the closing date of the transaction. The final purchase accounting adjustments may be materially different from the pro forma adjustments presented herein. Increases or decreases in the fair value of certain balance sheet amounts including loans, securities, deposits and related intangibles and debt will result in adjustments to both the balance sheet and income statement. Such adjustments, when compared to the information shown in this document, may change the amount of the purchase price allocated to goodwill while changes to other assets and liabilities may impact the statement of income due to adjustments in the yield and/or amortization/accretion of the adjusted assets and liabilities.

The unaudited pro forma combined financial information presented herein does not necessarily provide an indication of the combined results of operations or the combined financial position that would have resulted had the merger actually been completed as of the assumed consummation date, nor is it indicative of the results of operations in future periods or the future financial position of the combined company.

Note 2 Pro Forma Adjustments

- (1) Adjustment to record the following: (a) goodwill arising from the excess of purchase price over the fair value of net assets, including identifiable intangible assets $17.6 million and (b) the recognition of core deposit intangible of $1.7 million. The nature, amount, and amortization method of possible intangibles are being analyzed by management. The adjustments related thereto and recorded herein are based on current assumptions and valuations which are subject to change. The core deposit intangible has been amortized using a straight-line amortization method over a ten year period.

Edgar Filing: ORRSTOWN FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form S-4

- (2) Adjustment to reflect the net deferred tax assets arising from both the recognition of the tax effects of expenses incurred to complete the transaction and the tax effects associated with the adjustments necessary to reflect the acquisition of net assets on a fair value basis. Deferred taxes were recorded using the federal tax rate of 34%.

Table of Contents

- (3) Adjustment to reflect the fair values of certain interest-bearing deposit liabilities based on current interest rates for similar instruments. The adjustment will be recognized over the next 6 years using a level yield amortization method based upon the maturities of the deposit liabilities. This adjustment is expected to increase pro forma pre-tax interest expense by $119,000 in the first year following consummation.
- (4) Adjustment to long-term debt consists of increased debt by Orrstown of $5.8 million to fund approximately 65% of the cash portion of the purchase price and illustrated at an assumed rate of 6.00%. Orrstown plans to fund the remaining cash portion of the purchase price of approximately $3.1 million by liquidating existing short term investments. No fair value adjustments were needed for First National's FHLB borrowings as they were all short term and book value approximated fair value.
- (5) Adjustment to record the pre-tax estimate of transaction expenses expected to be incurred in connection with the merger. Such expense includes fees related to professional services provided in connection with the merger as well as an estimate of the associated severance, contract cancellations and third party data processing conversion expenses.
- (6) Adjustment to reflect Orrstown common stock expected to be issued in exchange for issued and outstanding shares of First National assuming the exchange ratio of 1.75 Orrstown common shares for each share of First National common shares.
- (7) Adjustment to eliminate First National's historical shareholders' equity.
- (8) Adjustment to reflect the fair value of owned buildings to estimated current market values. Estimated adjustment also reflects a reduction of capitalized computer software that will not be utilized by the combined company in the future. Annual depreciation expense will increase approximately $51,000 annually for this adjustment.
- (9) Adjustment to reflect the fair values of investments based on current market valuations. Under FASB No. 115, such adjustments are reflected in historical amounts but have been included on a net of tax basis as an adjustment to equity. Such amounts were eliminated in item (7) and therefore will require prospective accretion of the discount to properly record earnings under the purchase method of accounting. The adjustment will be substantially recognized over the next 4 years using the straight-line amortization method based upon the expected life of the investments. This investment adjustment is expected to increase pro forma pre-tax interest income by $83,000 in the first year following consummation.
- (10) Adjustment to reflect the fair values of loans based on current interest rates, pricing characteristics, expected cash flows and other factors intrinsic to the computation of the fair value of the loan portfolio. The adjustment will be substantially recognized over the next 8 years using the straight-line amortization method based upon the expected life of the loans. This adjustment is expected to reduce pro forma pre-tax interest income by $102,000 in the first year following consummation.
- (11) Management reviewed the First National loan portfolio to reflect the impact of adoption of Statement of Position 03-03, Accounting for Certain Loans or Debt Securities Acquired in a Transfer. This guidance addresses the accounting for the difference between the contractual cash flows and cash flows expected to be collected from an investor's initial investment in loans, including those acquired in a business combination, if those differences are attributable, at least in part, to credit quality considerations. Based on management's analysis, $268,000 of the allowance for loan and lease losses was reclassified to the loan account relating to specific loans for specific expected losses.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling Orrstown pursuant to the foregoing provisions of Orrstown's bylaws, Orrstown has been informed that, in the opinion of the SEC, such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is therefore unenforceable.

The Orrstown board is authorized to issue, without further shareholder approval, preferred stock from time to time in one or more series, and to determine the provisions applicable to each series, including the number of shares, dividend rights, dividend rate, conversion rights, voting rights, rights and terms of redemption, sinking fund provisions, redemption price or prices and liquidation

Voting Rights. Each outstanding share of Orrstown common stock entitles the holder to one vote on all matters submitted to a vote of shareholders, including the election of directors. Unless a larger vote is required by law, the Orrstown articles of incorporation or the Orrstown bylaws, when a quorum is present at a meeting of shareholders, a majority of the votes properly cast upon any question other than the election of directors shall decide the question. A plurality of the votes properly cast for the election of a person to serve as a director shall elect such person. Except as otherwise required by law or except as provided with respect to any other class or series of capital stock, the holders of Orrstown common stock possess the exclusive voting power. There is no cumulative voting in the election of directors. The Orrstown board is classified into three categories with each category as nearly equal in number as possible. This means, in general, that one-third of the members of the Orrstown board are subject to reelection at each annual meeting of shareholders.

Preemptive Rights; Redemption. Holders of Orrstown common stock have no conversion, sinking fund or redemption rights or preemptive rights to subscribe for any of Orrstown's classes of stock.

Preferred Stock

The Orrstown board is authorized, without any further vote or action by the Orrstown shareholders, to issue shares of preferred stock in one or more series, to establish the number of shares in each series and to fix the designation, powers, preferences and rights of each such series and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions of the series, in each case, if any, as are permitted by Pennsylvania law. Because the Orrstown board has the power to establish the preferences and rights of each class or series of preferred stock, it may afford the shareholders of any series or class of preferred stock preferences, powers and rights, voting or otherwise, senior to the rights of holders of shares of Orrstown common stock. The issuance of shares of preferred stock could have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a change in control of Orrstown.

Orrstown's registrar and transfer agent is Registrar and Transfer Company, 10 Commerce Drive, Cranford, New Jersey 07016, (800) 368-5948.

The Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended, also contains certain provisions applicable to Orrstown that may have the effect of deterring or discouraging an attempt to take control of Orrstown. These provisions, among other things:

Require that, following any acquisition by any person or group of 20% of a public corporation's voting power, the remaining shareholders have the right to receive payment for their shares, in cash, from such person or group in an amount equal to the fair value of the shares, including an increment representing a proportion of any value payable for control of the corporation (Subchapter 25E of the Business Corporation Law);

Prohibit for five years, subject to certain exceptions, a business combination (which includes a merger or consolidation of the corporation or a sale, lease or exchange of assets) with a person or group beneficially owning 20% or more of a public corporation's voting power (Subchapter 25F of the Business Corporation Law);

Prevent a person or group acquiring different levels of voting power (20%, 33% and 50%) from voting any shares over the applicable threshold, unless disinterested shareholders approve such voting rights (Subchapter 25G of the Business Corporation Law);

Require any person or group that publicly announces that it may acquire control of a corporation, or that acquires or publicly discloses an intent to acquire 20% or more of the voting power of a corporation, to disgorge to the corporation any profits that it receives from sales of the corporation's equity securities purchased over the prior 18 months (Subchapter 25H of the Business Corporation Law);

Expand the factors and groups (including shareholders) which a corporation's board of directors can consider in determining whether an action is in the best interests of the corporation;

Provide that a corporation's board of directors need not consider the interests of any particular group as dominant or controlling;

Provide that a corporation's directors, in order to satisfy the presumption that they have acted in the best interests of the corporation, need not satisfy any greater obligation or higher burden of proof with respect to actions relating to an acquisition or potential acquisition of control;

Provide that actions relating to acquisitions of control that are approved by a majority of disinterested directors are presumed to satisfy the directors' fiduciary duty, unless it is proven by clear and convincing evidence that the directors did not assent to such action in good faith after reasonable investigation; and

Provide that the fiduciary duty of a corporation's directors is solely to the corporation and may be enforced by the corporation or by a shareholder in a derivative action, but not by a shareholder directly.

The Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law also explicitly provides that the fiduciary duty of directors does not require them to:

Redeem any rights under, or to modify or render inapplicable, any shareholder rights plan;

Render inapplicable, or make determinations under, provisions of the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law relating to control transactions, business combinations, control-share acquisitions or disgorgement by certain controlling shareholders following attempts to acquire control; or

Act as the board of directors, a committee of the board or an individual director, solely because of the effect the action might have on an acquisition or potential acquisition of control of the corporation or the consideration that might be offered or paid to shareholders in such an acquisition.

Anti-Takeover Provisions	Other than the requirement of the National Bank Act that a merger transaction be approved by two-thirds of the shares of First National common stock, the First National articles of association and bylaws do not contain any provisions that may make takeover attempts and other acquisition of interest in First National more difficult when not approved by the board of directors.	Orrstown is subject to those provisions of the BCL that are applicable to a corporation that has a class of equity securities registered under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, unless the corporation opts out of such provisions in its articles of incorporation. These provisions are contained in Subchapters 25E through 25J of the BCL. Orrstown has not opted out of any of these provisions. All of these provisions apply to Orrstown. Orrstown's articles of incorporation and bylaws also include certain additional provisions that may be considered anti-takeover in nature. See Information about Orrstown Anti-Takeover Provisions on page 60.
Appraisal/Dissenters Rights	Under the National Bank Act, First National shareholders would generally have dissenters' rights to be paid in cash the fair value of their shares of First National common stock as a result of a business combination such as the merger.	Under the BCL, Orrstown shareholders generally have dissenters' rights of appraisal. However, if Orrstown common stock would be listed as a national market security, Orrstown shareholders would generally not have appraisal rights in a business combination such as the merger.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR S REPORT

Board of Directors

The First National Bank of Newport

Newport, Pennsylvania

We have audited the accompanying balance sheets of The First National Bank of Newport as of December 31, 2004 and 2003, and the related statements of income, changes in shareholders' equity and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Bank's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The First National Bank of Newport as of December 31, 2004 and 2003, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Note 1. Significant Accounting Policies

Nature of Operations

The First National Bank of Newport provides loan, deposit and other related financial services through four full service banking offices in Perry County. The Bank competes with several other financial institutions to provide its services to individuals, businesses, municipalities and other organizations.

The accounting and reporting policies of the Bank conform to U. S. generally accepted accounting principles and to general practices within the banking industry. The following paragraphs briefly describe significant accounting policies.

The accompanying unaudited interim balance sheet as of September 30, 2005, the statements of income and cash flows for the nine months ended September 30, 2005 and 2004 and the statement of shareholders' equity for the nine months ended September 30, 2005 are unaudited. These unaudited interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States. In the opinion of the Company's management, the unaudited interim financial statements have been prepared on the same basis as the audited financial statements and include all adjustments necessary for the fair presentation of the Company's statement of financial position, results of operations and its cash flows for the nine months ended September 30, 2005 and 2004. The results for the nine months ended September 30, 2005 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the year ending December 31, 2005. All references to September 30, 2005 or to the nine months ended September 30, 2005 and 2004 in the notes to the financial statements are unaudited.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Material estimates that are particularly susceptible to significant change relate to the determination of the allowance for losses on loans and the valuation of real estate acquired in connection with foreclosures or in satisfaction of loans. In connection with the determination of the allowances for losses on loans and foreclosed real estate, management obtains independent appraisals for significant properties.

While management uses available information to recognize losses on loans and foreclosed real estate, future additions to the allowances may be necessary based on changes in local economic conditions. In addition, regulatory agencies, as an integral part of their examination process, periodically review the Bank's allowances for losses on loans and foreclosed real estate. Such agencies may require the Bank to recognize additions to the allowances based on their judgments about information available to them at the time of their examination. Because of these factors, management's estimate of credit losses inherent in the loan portfolio and the related allowance may change in the near term. However, the amount of the change that is reasonably possible cannot be estimated.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For purposes of the Statements of Cash Flows, the Bank has defined cash and cash equivalents as those amounts included in the balance sheet captions cash and due from banks and federal funds sold. As permitted by generally accepted accounting principles, the Bank has elected to present the net increase or decrease in deposits in banks, loans and deposits in the Statements of Cash Flows.

Investment Securities

In accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, the Bank may segregate its investment portfolio into three specific categories: securities held to maturity, trading securities and securities available for sale. Securities held to maturity are to be accounted for at their amortized cost; securities classified as trading securities are to be accounted for at their current market value with unrealized gains and losses on such securities included in current period earnings; and securities classified as available for sale are to be accounted for at their current market value with unrealized gains and losses on such securities to be excluded from earnings and reported as a net amount in other comprehensive income.

Management determines the appropriate classification of securities at the time of purchase. If management has the intent and the Bank has the ability at the time of purchase to hold securities until maturity, they are classified as held-to-maturity and carried at amortized historical cost. Securities to be held for indefinite periods of time and not intended to be held to maturity are classified as available for sale and carried at fair value. Securities held for indefinite periods of time include securities that management intends to use as part of its asset and liability management strategy and that may be sold in response to changes in interest rates, resultant prepayment risk and other factors related to interest rate and resultant prepayment risk changes.

The Bank had no investment securities classified as Held to Maturity or Trading Securities during 2004 and 2003.

Realized gains and losses on dispositions are based on the net proceeds and the adjusted book value of the securities sold, using the specific identification method, and flow through the Bank's annual operations. Unrealized gains and losses, net of tax, on investment securities available for sale are reported as a net amount in a separate component (accumulated other comprehensive income) of shareholders' equity until realized.

Federal Reserve, Federal Home Loan Bank, and Atlantic Central Bankers Bank Stock

These investments are carried at cost. The Bank is required to maintain minimum investment balances in these organizations. These stocks are not actively traded and therefore have no readily determinable market value.

Loans and Allowance for Possible Loan Losses

Loans are stated at the amount of unpaid principal, reduced by unearned interest and an allowance for loan losses. Unearned interest on installment loans is recognized as income over the terms of the loans by the interest method. Interest on other loans is calculated by using the simple interest method on daily balances of the principal amount outstanding. The allowance for loan losses is established through a provision for loan losses charged to expenses. Loans are charged against the allowance for loan losses when management believes that the collectibility of the principal is unlikely. The allowance is an amount that management believes will be adequate to absorb possible losses on existing loans that may become uncollectible, based on evaluations of the collectibility of loans and prior loan loss experience. The evaluations take into consideration such factors as changes in the nature and volume of the loan portfolio, overall portfolio quality, review of specific problem loans, and current economic conditions that may affect the borrowers' ability to pay.

Nonaccrual/Impaired Loans

The accrual of interest income on loans ceases when principal or interest is past due 90 days or more and collateral is inadequate to cover principal and interest or immediately if, in the opinion of management, full collection is unlikely. Interest accrued but not collected as of the date of placement on nonaccrual status is reversed and charged against current income unless fully collateralized. Subsequent payments received either are applied to the outstanding principal balance or recorded as interest income, depending on management's assessment of the ultimate collectibility of principal. Interest income generally is not recognized on specific impaired loans unless the likelihood of further loss is remote. Interest income on such loans is recognized only to the extent of interest payments received.

Other Real Estate Owned

Real estate properties acquired through, or in lieu of, loan foreclosure are to be sold and are initially recorded at the lower of carrying value or fair market value less estimated selling cost of the underlying collateral. After foreclosure, valuations are periodically performed by management and the real estate is carried at the lower of carrying amount or fair value less estimated cost to sell. Legal fees and other costs related to foreclosure proceedings are expensed as they are incurred.

Bank Building, Equipment, Furniture and Fixtures and Depreciation

Bank building, equipment, furniture and fixtures are carried at cost less accumulated depreciation. Expenditures for replacements are capitalized and the replaced items are retired. Maintenance and repairs are charged to operations. Depreciation is computed based on the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the related assets as follows:

	Years

Buildings and Improvements	15 - 40
Equipment, furniture and fixtures	3 - 10

Earnings Per Share

Earnings per common share were computed based upon weighted average shares of common stock outstanding of 400,000 for 2004 and 2003.

Federal Income Taxes

As a result of certain timing differences between financial statement and federal income tax reporting, deferred income taxes are provided in the financial statements. See Note 12 for further details.

Advertising

The Bank follows the policy of charging costs of advertising to expense as incurred. Advertising expense was $51,377 and $62,941 for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

Fair Values of Financial Instruments

Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP) require disclosure of fair value information about financial instruments, whether or not recognized in the balance sheet. In cases where quoted market prices are not available, fair values are based on estimates using present value or other valuation techniques. Those techniques are significantly affected by the assumptions used, including the discount rate and estimates of future cash flows. In that regard, the derived fair value estimates cannot be substantiated by comparison to independent markets and, in many cases, could not be realized in immediate settlement of the instruments. GAAP excludes certain financial instruments and all nonfinancial instruments from its disclosure requirements. Accordingly, the aggregate fair value amounts presented do not represent the underlying value of the Bank.

The following methods and assumptions were used by the Bank in estimating fair values of financial instruments as disclosed herein:

Cash and Cash Equivalents. The carrying amounts of cash and short-term instruments approximate their fair value.

Securities to be Held to Maturity and Securities Available for Sale. Fair values for investment securities are based on quoted market prices.

Loans Receivable. For variable-rate loans that repriced frequently and have no significant change in credit risk, fair values are based on carrying values. Fair values for fixed rate loans are estimated using discounted cash flow analyses, using interest rates currently being offered for loans with similar terms to borrowers of similar credit quality. Fair values for impaired loans are estimated using discounted cash flow analyses or underlying collateral values, where applicable.

Deposit Liabilities. The fair values disclosed for demand deposits are, by definition, equal to the amount payable on demand at the reporting date (that is, their carrying amounts). The carrying amounts of variable-rate certificates of deposit and fixed-term money market accounts approximate their fair values at the reporting date. Fair values for fixed-rate certificates of deposits and IRAs are estimated using a discounted cash flow calculation that applies interest rates currently being offered to a schedule of aggregated expected monthly maturities on time deposits.

Long-Term Borrowings. The fair value of the Bank's long-term debt is estimated using a discounted cash flow analysis based on its current incremental borrowing rate for similar types of borrowing arrangements.

Accrued Interest. The carrying amounts of accrued interest approximate their fair values.

Off-Balance-Sheet Instruments. The Bank generally does not charge commitment fees. Fees for standby letters of credit and their off-balance-sheet instruments are not significant.

Comprehensive Income

Comprehensive income is defined as the change in equity from transactions and other events from nonowner sources. It includes all changes in equity except those resulting from investments by shareholders and distributions to shareholders. Comprehensive income includes net income and certain elements of other comprehensive income such as foreign currency transactions; accounting for futures contracts; employers accounting for pensions; and accounting for certain investments in debt and equity securities.

Edgar Filing: ORRSTOWN FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form S-4

The Bank has elected to report its comprehensive income in the statement of changes in shareholders' equity. The only element of other comprehensive income that the Bank has is the unrealized gains or losses on available for sale securities.

Consideration is given to (1) the length of time and the extent to which the fair value has been less than cost, (2) the financial condition and near-term prospects of the issuer, and (3) the intent and ability of the bank to retain its investment in the issuer for the period of time sufficient to allow for any anticipated recovery in fair value.

Note 6. Concentration of Credit Risk

The Bank is a multi-faceted financial institution whose primary purpose is to provide entities located within its delineated service community with a variety of credit services. The community it serves consists primarily of Perry County, Pennsylvania. Its main office is located in Newport, Pennsylvania with branches located in Duncannon, Red Hill and New Bloomfield, Pennsylvania. Although the Bank has a diversified loan portfolio, a substantial portion of its loan portfolio is concentrated in mortgages secured by 1-4 family properties as disclosed in Note 4.

The Bank evaluates each customer's creditworthiness on an individual basis. The amount of collateral obtained if deemed necessary by the Bank upon the extension of credit is based on management's credit evaluation of the customer. Collateral held varies but generally includes real estate.

The Bank maintains deposit balances at several correspondent banks, which provide check collection and item processing services to the Bank. The balances with these correspondent banks, at times, exceed federally insured limits, which management considers to be a normal business risk.

Interest expense on time deposits of $100,000 and over was $395,900 and $441,289 for 2004 and 2003, respectively.

The aggregate amount of demand deposits reclassified as loan balances was $111,995 and $38,217 at December 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

The Bank accepts deposits of employees, officers and directors of the Bank on the same terms, including interest rates, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with unrelated persons. The aggregate dollar amount of deposits of employees, officers and directors totaled $1,172,595 and $1,185,721 at December 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively.

Note 10. Financial Instruments with Off-Balance-Sheet Risk

The Bank is a party to financial instruments with off-balance-sheet risk in the normal course of business to meet the financial needs of its customers and to reduce its own exposure to fluctuations in interest rates. These financial instruments include commitments to extend credit and standby letters of credit. Those instruments involve, to varying degrees, elements of credit and interest rate risk in excess of the amount recognized in the balance sheets. The contract amounts of those instruments reflect the extent of involvement the Bank has in particular classes of financial instruments.

The Bank's exposure to credit loss in the event of nonperformance by the other party to the financial instrument for commitments to extend credit, standby letters of credit, and financial guarantees written is represented by the contractual amount of those instruments. The Bank uses the same credit policies in making commitments and conditional obligations as it does for on-balance sheet instruments.

Financial instruments whose contract amounts represent credit risk at December 31:

	Contract or Notional Amount
	2004	2003
Commitments to extend credit	$ 4,835,547	$ 4,939,015
Standby letters of credit and financial guarantees written	67,000	37,000
	$ 4,902,547	$ 4,976,015

Commitments to extend credit are agreements to lend to a customer as long as there is no violation of any condition established in the contract. Commitments generally have fixed expiration dates or other termination clauses and may require payment of a fee. Since many of the commitments are expected to expire without being drawn upon, the total commitment amounts do not necessarily represent future cash requirements. The Bank evaluates each customer's creditworthiness on a case-by-case basis. The amount of collateral obtained, if deemed necessary by the Bank upon extension of credit, is based on management's credit evaluation of the customer. Collateral held varies but may include accounts receivable, inventory, real estate, equipment and income-producing commercial properties.

Standby letters of credit and financial guarantees written are conditional commitments issued by the Bank to guarantee the performance of a customer to a third party. Those guarantees are primarily issued to support public and private borrowing arrangements. The credit risk involved in issuing letters of credit is essentially the same as that involved in extending loans to customers. The Bank holds collateral supporting those commitments when deemed necessary by management.

Note 11. Benefit PlansRetirement Plan

In 2002, the Bank had a qualified profit-sharing plan for all eligible employees who have completed one year of service. Effective October 1, 2003, the plan was amended and restated as a 401(k) profit sharing plan. Under the restated plan, employees are eligible to participate in the plan after completing one year of service and are 100% vested after five years. Participants may elect to defer up to 70% of eligible compensation subject to statutory limitations on deferrals. In addition, the Bank makes a "safe harbor" contribution of 3% of its participants' eligible compensation. Additional contributions are made at the discretion of the Bank's Directors, subject to legal restrictions that apply to defined contribution retirement plans. Bank contributions to the plan were $120,413 and $109,292 for 2004 and 2003, respectively.

Directors Deferral Plan

Beginning in 2004, the Bank implemented a nonqualified deferred compensation program for certain directors. The retirement benefit to be provided is fixed based upon the amount of compensation earned and deferred as elected by the individual participating in the program. Deferred compensation expense amounted to $39,229 for the year ended December 31, 2004.

Bank Owned Life Insurance

Beginning in 2004, the Bank purchased life insurance covering certain officers and directors. The policies were funded with single premium life insurance contracts. The cash surrender value of the policies is an unrestricted asset of the Bank, which totaled $2,595,004 at December 31, 2004.

Table of ContentsNOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (Continued)*Note 13. Investment in Limited Partnership

The Bank is a 99.80% limited partner in Butz House Associates, L.P., a Pennsylvania limited partnership. During 1999, the Bank provided temporary construction financing of approximately $630,000 to the limited partnership. During 2000, the temporary construction financing was increased to $650,000 and was subsequently converted into its initial $650,000 capital investment of the limited partnership.

The Bank made a $64,000 additional capital investment in early 2001, and made an additional $100,000 capital investment in 2004 for the limited partnership to payoff short term financing initially provided by the general partner.

This limited partnership, which is primarily a low income housing project in Newport's historic district, entitles the Bank to substantial annual tax deductions and credits which are estimated as follows:

Year	Deductions	Credits
2005 through 2009	$ 45,000	$ 64,000
2010 through 2014	50,000	0

The Bank's recorded investment (using the equity method) in this Partnership was $567,181 and $514,781 at December 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively and is included in other assets in the balance sheet.

The Bank has a maximum borrowing capacity through Federal Home Loan Bank of approximately $61,000,000, which is collateralized by security agreements in certain assets of the Bank totaling $65,000,000.

Note 15. Operating Lease Obligations

During 1996 the Bank constructed its Red Hill office on land which is leased to the Bank. This land lease is for twenty-five years, with renewal options for three additional five-year periods.

During 2000 the Bank occupied its New Bloomfield drive-through banking facility under the terms of a twenty-five year lease which gives the Bank a right of first refusal to purchase the property.

Minimum future rental payments under these leases are as follows:

Note 17. Regulatory Matters

The Bank is subject to various regulatory capital requirements administered by the federal banking agencies. Failure to meet the minimum capital requirements can initiate certain mandatory and possibly additional discretionary actions by regulators that, if undertaken, could have a direct material effect on the Bank's financial statements. Under capital adequacy guidelines and the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action, the Bank must meet specific capital guidelines that involve quantitative measures of the assets, liabilities and certain off-balance sheet items as calculated under regulatory accounting practices. The Bank's capital amounts and classification are also subject to qualitative judgments by the regulators about components, risk weightings and other factors.

Quantitative measures established by regulation to ensure capital adequacy require the Bank to maintain minimum amounts and ratios (set forth below) of total and Tier I capital (as defined in the regulations) to risk weighted assets, and of Tier I capital to average assets. Management believes, as of December 31, 2004, that the Bank meets all capital adequacy requirements to which it is subject.

Edgar Filing: ORRSTOWN FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form S-4

As of December 31, 2004, the most recent notification from the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency categorized the Bank as well capitalized under the regulatory framework for prompt corrective action. There are no conditions or events since that notification that management believes have changed the Bank's category.

Regulatory approval is required if the total of all dividends declared by a national bank in any calendar year exceeds net profits (as defined) for that year combined with the retained net profits for the two preceding calendar years. At December 31, 2004, approximately $2,393,000 was available for dividends without prior regulatory approval.

Note 18. Commitments and Contingencies

The Bank is an 8.33% shareholder in Enterprise Technology Alliance, Inc. (ETA) which provides data processing services for the Bank. The Bank is responsible for its share of any debt for capital expenditures incurred by ETA.

During 2003, the Bank contributed $176,000 in additional capital to ETA based upon ETA's projected capital expenditures for the next two years. The balance of the Bank's investment in ETA, which is included in other assets on the balance sheet, was $201,000 at December 31, 2004 and 2003.

The Bank is also subject to claims and lawsuits which arise primarily in the ordinary course of business. Based on information presently available and advice received from legal counsel representing the Bank in connection with any such claims and lawsuits, it is the opinion of management that the disposition or ultimate determination of any such claims and lawsuits will not have a material adverse effect on the financial position, results of operations or liquidity of the Bank.

As of the date hereof, FNB has no reason to believe that (i) any required consents or approvals will not be received or will be received with conditions, limitations or restrictions unacceptable to it or which would adversely impact FNB's ability to complete the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or that (ii) any public body or authority, the consent or approval of which is not required or any filing with which is not required, will object to the completion of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

Section 2.05 Financial Statements.

(a) FNB has previously delivered to Orrstown the FNB Regulatory Reports filed through October 31, 2005 and will deliver to Orrstown the FNB Regulatory Reports for any dates or periods thereafter through the Closing Date as soon as they are available. material respects) and has duly paid or will pay, or made or will make, provisions and related balance sheet accruals (if required) for the payment of all federal, state and local taxes which have been incurred by or are due or claimed to be due from FNB by any taxing authority or pursuant to any tax sharing agreement or arrangement (written or oral) on or prior to the Closing Date other than taxes which (x) (i) are not delinquent or (ii) are being contested in good faith and (y) (i) are adequately reserved for, (ii) have not resulted in the imposition of any lien and (iii) if adversely determined would not be reasonably expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect as to FNB.

Section 2.07 No Material Adverse Effect. FNB has not suffered any Material Adverse Effect since September 30, 2005.

Section 2.08 Contracts.

(a) Except for this Agreement, or as described in the FNB Disclosure Schedule, FNB is not a party to or subject to: (i) any agreement, contract, arrangement, commitment or understanding (whether written or oral) that is a material contract within the meaning of Item 601(5)(10) of the SEC's Regulation S-K; (ii) any real estate lease; (iii) any employment, consulting or severance contract or arrangement with any past or present officer, director or employee of FNB, except for oral at will arrangements; (iv) any plan, arrangement or contract providing for bonuses, pensions, options, restricted stock, deferred compensation, retirement payments, profit sharing or similar arrangements for or with any past or present officers, directors or employees of FNB; (v) any collective bargaining agreement with any labor union relating to employees of FNB; (vi) any agreement which by its terms limits the payment of dividends by FNB; (vii) any instrument evidencing or related to indebtedness for borrowed money whether directly or indirectly, by way of purchase money obligation, conditional sale, lease purchase, guaranty or otherwise, in respect of which FNB is an obligor to any person, which instrument evidences or relates to indebtedness other than deposits, repurchase agreements, Federal Home Loan Bank advances and repurchases, bankers acceptances and treasury tax and loan accounts established in the ordinary course of business and transactions in federal funds, or which contains financial covenants or other restrictions (other than those relating to the payment of principal and interest when due) which would be applicable on or after the Closing Date to Orrstown or any Orrstown Subsidiary; (viii) any contract (other than this Agreement) limiting the freedom of FNB to engage in any type of banking or bank-related or other business permissible under law; (ix) any contract relating to the acquisition of any business that has not been fully performed, including where contingent compensation remains to be paid; or (x) any contract or agreement pursuant to which FNB is obligated to make payments in excess of $25,000 on an annual basis that cannot be terminated by FNB without penalty upon ninety days or less notice.

(b) Except as set forth in the FNB Disclosure Schedule, FNB does not lease any real property. The FNB Disclosure Schedule describes in reasonable detail each such lease, including the term and rent due thereunder and FNB has delivered to Orrstown true, correct and complete copies of all such leases. None of such leases are currently in default and FNB has not received notice of, or has knowledge of, a proposed non-renewal of any of said leases. Each real estate lease that may require the consent of the lessor or its agent to the Merger by reason of a prohibition or restriction relating to assignment, by operation of law or otherwise, or change in control, is listed in the FNB Disclosure Schedule identifying the section of the lease that contains such prohibition or restriction.

(c) Except as set forth in the FNB Disclosure Schedule, FNB is not in default in any material respect under any material contract, agreement, commitment, arrangement, lease, insurance policy or other instrument to which it is a party, by which its assets, business or operations may be bound or affected, or under which it or its assets, business or operations receive benefits, and there has not occurred any event that, with the lapse of time or the giving of notice or both, would constitute such a default.

(d) True and correct copies of material contracts, leases, agreements, plans, arrangements and instruments referred to in Section 2.08(a) and 2.08(b) have been provided to Orrstown on or before the date hereof, are listed on the FNB Disclosure Schedule and are in full force and effect on the date hereof and

Section 2.09 Ownership of Property; Insurance Coverage.

(a) FNB has, or will have as to property acquired after the date hereof, good and, as to real property, marketable title to all assets and properties owned by FNB in the conduct of its business, whether such assets and properties are real or personal, tangible or intangible, including assets and property reflected in the balance sheets contained in the FNB Regulatory Reports and in the FNB Financials or acquired subsequent thereto (except to the extent that such assets and properties have been disposed of for fair value, in the ordinary course of business, since the date of such balance sheets), subject to no encumbrances, liens, mortgages, security interests or pledges, except (i) those items which secure repurchase agreements and liabilities for borrowed money from a Federal Home Loan Bank, (ii) statutory liens for amounts not yet delinquent or which are being contested in good faith and (iii) items permitted under Article IV. FNB, as lessee, has the right under valid and subsisting leases of real and personal properties used by FNB in the conduct of its business to occupy or use all such properties as presently occupied and used by each of them. Such existing leases and commitments to lease constitute or will constitute operating leases for both tax and financial accounting purposes and the lease expense and minimum rental commitments with respect to such leases and lease commitments are as disclosed in the notes to the FNB Financials.

(b) With respect to all agreements pursuant to which FNB has purchased securities subject to an agreement to resell, if any, FNB has a valid, perfected first lien or security interest in the securities or other collateral securing the repurchase agreement, and the value of such collateral equals or exceeds the amount of the debt secured thereby.

(c) FNB currently maintains insurance considered by FNB to be reasonable for its operations and similar in scope and coverage to that maintained by other businesses similarly engaged. FNB has not received notice from any insurance carrier that (i) such insurance will be cancelled or that coverage thereunder will be reduced or eliminated, or (ii) premium costs with respect to such policies of insurance will be materially increased. There are presently no material claims pending under such policies of insurance and no notices have been given by FNB under such policies. All such insurance is valid and enforceable and in full force and effect, and within the last three years FNB has received each type of insurance coverage for which it has applied and during such periods have not been denied indemnification for any material claims submitted under any of their insurance policies.

Section 2.11 Compliance With Applicable Law.

(a) FNB holds all licenses, franchises, permits and authorizations necessary for the lawful conduct of its businesses under, and has complied in all material respects with, all applicable Laws relating to it.

(b) Except as disclosed on the FNB Disclosure Schedule, (i) FNB is in substantial compliance with all of the statutes, regulations or ordinances which each Regulatory Authority applicable to it enforces; (ii) no Regulatory Authority has threatened to revoke any license, franchise, permit or governmental authorization which is material to FNB, or required or threatened to require FNB to enter into a cease and desist order, memorandum of understanding, or written agreement with it; and (iii) no Regulatory Authority has restricted or limited the operations of FNB, including without limitation any restriction on the payment of dividends (any such memorandum, agreement or order described in this sentence is hereinafter referred to as a Regulatory Agreement). FNB has not consented to or entered into any Regulatory Agreement. FNB has no reason to believe that it will not receive regulatory approval for the Merger. FNB has no reason to believe that the most recent examination of FNB conducted by the OCC will result in the identification of any matters requiring the attention of FNB that could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect as to FNB. FNB received a rating of satisfactory in connection with its last CRA examination.

Section 2.12 ERISA. FNB has previously delivered to Orrstown true and complete copies of all employee pension benefit plans within the meaning of ERISA Section 3(2), including profit sharing plans, employee stock ownership plans, stock purchase plans, deferred compensation and supplemental income plans, supplemental executive retirement plans, employment agreements, annual executive and administrative incentive plan or long term incentive plans, severance plans, policies and agreements, group insurance plans, and all other employee welfare benefit plans within the meaning of ERISA Section 3(1) (including vacation pay, sick leave, short-term disability, long-term disability, and medical plans) and all other employee benefit plans, policies, agreements and arrangements, all of which are set forth in the FNB Disclosure Schedule, sponsored or contributed to for the benefit of the employees or former employees (including retired employees) and any beneficiaries thereof or directors or former directors of FNB, together with (i) the most recent actuarial (if any) and financial reports relating to those plans which constitute qualified plans under IRC Section 401(a), (ii) the most recent annual reports relating to such plans filed with any government agency, and (iii) all rulings and determination letters which pertain to any such plans. Neither FNB, nor any pension plan maintained or previously maintained by FNB, has incurred, directly or indirectly, within the past six (6) years any liability under Title IV of ERISA (including to the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation) or to the IRS with respect to any pension plan qualified under IRC Section 401(a) except liabilities to the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation pursuant to ERISA Section 4007, all of which have been fully paid, nor has any reportable event under ERISA Section 4043 occurred with respect to any such pension plan. With respect to each of such plans that is subject to Title IV of ERISA, the present value of the accrued benefits under such plan, based upon the actuarial assumptions used for funding purposes in the plan's most recent actuarial report did not, as of its latest valuation date, exceed the then current value of the assets of such plan allocable to such accrued benefits. FNB has not incurred nor is it subject to any liability under ERISA Section 4201 for a complete or partial withdrawal from a multiemployer plan. All employee benefit plans, as defined in ERISA Section 3(3), of FNB comply and within the past six (6) years have complied in all material respects with (i) relevant provisions of ERISA and (ii) in the case of plans intended to qualify for favorable income tax treatment, provisions of the IRC relevant to such treatment. No prohibited transaction (which shall mean any transaction prohibited by ERISA Section 406 and not exempt under ERISA Section 408 or any transaction prohibited under IRC Section 4975) has occurred within the past six (6) years with respect to any employee benefit plan maintained by FNB which would result in the imposition, directly or indirectly, of an excise tax under IRC Section 4975 or other penalty under ERISA or the IRC. FNB provides continuation coverage under group health plans for separating employees and qualified beneficiaries in accordance with the provisions of IRC Section 4980B(f). Such group health plans are in material compliance with Section 1862(b)(1) of the Social Security Act.

The FNB Disclosure Schedule contains as an exhibit the engagement letter between FNB and Boenning. Boenning has provided FNB with its oral opinion to the effect that, as of the date of approval of this Agreement by the Board of Directors of FNB, the Merger Consideration is fair to shareholders of FNB from a financial point of view.

Section 2.14 Environmental Matters.

(a) To the knowledge of FNB, except as set forth on the FNB Disclosure Schedule, neither FNB, nor any properties now or formerly owned or operated by FNB or on which FNB holds or held a mortgage or other security interest or has foreclosed or taken a deed in lieu of foreclosure, has been or is in violation of or liable under any Environmental Law. (c) Except as set forth on the FNB Disclosure Schedule, to the knowledge of FNB, there has been no release nor is there the threat of release of any substance described in clause (ii) of the definition of Environmental Law set forth in Section 1.01 hereof on, at or from any property, now or formerly owned or operated by FNB or on which FNB holds or held a mortgage or other security interest or has foreclosed or taken a deed in lieu of foreclosure, or any property adjacent to or in the immediate vicinity of any such properties.

All such transactions (a) were made in the ordinary course of business, (b) were made on substantially the same terms, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with other Persons, and (c) did not involve more than the normal risk of collectability or present other risks or unfavorable features. No loan or credit accommodation to any Affiliate of FNB is presently in default or, during the three year period prior to the date of this Agreement, has been in default or has been restructured, modified or extended. FNB has not been notified that principal and interest with respect to any such loan or other credit accommodation will not be paid when due or that the loan grade classification accorded such loan or credit accommodation by FNB is inappropriate.

Section 2.18 Schedule of Termination Benefits. The FNB Disclosure Schedule includes a schedule of the present value as of December 31, 2005 of the maximum amount of termination benefits and related payments which would be payable to the individuals identified thereon, under any and all employment agreements, special termination agreements, supplemental executive retirement plans, deferred bonus plans, deferred compensation plans, salary continuation plans, or any other pension benefit or welfare benefit plan maintained by FNB for the benefit of executive officers or directors of FNB (the Benefits Schedule), assuming that the Closing Date occurs on December 31, 2005 and that the employment of such individuals terminates immediately thereafter. (a) Each loan reflected as an asset in the FNB Financial Statements (i) is evidenced by notes, agreements or other evidences of indebtedness which are true, genuine and correct (ii) to the extent secured, has been secured by valid liens and security interests which have been perfected, and (ii) is the legal, valid and binding obligation of the obligor named therein, enforceable in accordance with its terms, subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance and other laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights and to general equity principles, in each case other than loans as to which the failure to satisfy the foregoing standards, individually or in the aggregate, would not have a Material Adverse Effect on FNB.

(b) The FNB Disclosure Schedule includes a list of (i) all outstanding commercial relationships, i.e., commercial loans, commercial loan commitments and commercial letters of credit, of FNB in excess of $500,000, (ii) all loans of FNB classified by FNB or any regulatory authority as Other Loans Specially Mentioned, Monitor, Special Mention, Substandard, Doubtful or Loss, Criticized, Credit Risk Assets, C Loans or other classifications of similar import (iii) all commercial and mortgage loans of FNB classified as non-accrual, and (iv) all commercial loans of FNB classified as in substance foreclosed.

Each party shall update its respective Disclosure Schedule as promptly as practicable after the occurrence of an event or fact which, if such event or fact had occurred prior to the date of this Agreement, would have been disclosed in such Disclosure Schedule. Orrstown has required, as a condition to its execution and delivery to FNB of the Agreement, that the undersigned, being a director, executive officer and/or major shareholder of FNB, execute and deliver to Orrstown this Letter Agreement.

The undersigned, in order to induce Orrstown to execute the Agreement, hereby irrevocably:

(b) Agrees not to vote or execute any written consent to rescind or amend in any manner any prior vote or written consent, as a shareholder of FNB, to approve or adopt the Agreement;

Edgar Filing: ORRSTOWN FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form S-4

(c) Agrees to recommend the Merger to shareholders of FNB and, subject to subparagraph (i) below, not to withdraw or modify such recommendation if the undersigned is a member of the Board of Directors of FNB, and to otherwise use reasonable best efforts to cause the Merger to be completed;

(d) Except as required by law, agrees that the undersigned will not, and will not permit any company, trust or other entity controlled by the undersigned to, contract to sell, sell or otherwise transfer or dispose of any of the Shares or any interest therein or any voting rights with respect thereto, other than subsequent to the shareholder meeting of FNB held in connection with the vote on the Agreement or a gift where the donee has agreed in writing to abide by the terms of this agreement in a form reasonably satisfactory to Orrstown;

(e) Agrees not to offer, sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any shares of common stock of Orrstown received in the Merger, except (i) at such time as a registration statement under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (Securities Act) covering sales of such Orrstown common stock is effective and a prospectus is made available under the Securities Act, (ii) within the limits, and in accordance with the applicable provisions of, Rule 145(d) under the Securities Act, or (iii) in a transaction which, in the opinion of counsel satisfactory to Orrstown or as described in a no-action or interpretive letter from the staff of the Securities and Exchange Commission issued to the undersigned for such purpose, is not required to be registered under the Securities Act; and acknowledges and agrees that Orrstown is under no obligation to register the sale, transfer or other disposition of Orrstown common stock by the undersigned or on behalf of the undersigned, or to take any other action necessary to make an exemption from registration available;

(f) Agrees that neither FNB nor Orrstown shall be bound by any attempted sale of any shares of FNB common stock or Orrstown common stock, respectively, and Orrstown's transfer agent shall be given an appropriate stop transfer order and shall not be required to register any such attempted sale, unless the sale has been effected in compliance with the terms of this Letter Agreement; and further agrees that the certificate representing shares of Orrstown common stock owned by the undersigned may be endorsed with a restrictive legend consistent with the terms of this Letter Agreement;

(g) Acknowledges and agrees to use reasonable efforts to cause the provisions of subparagraph (e) hereof to be observed with respect to shares of Orrstown common stock received in the Merger owned by (i) his or her spouse, (ii) any of his or her relatives or relatives of his or her spouse occupying his or her home, (iii) any trust or estate in which he or she, his or her spouse, or any such relative owns a 10% beneficial interest or of which any of them serves as trustee, executor or in any similar capacity, and (iv) any corporation or other organization in which the undersigned, any affiliate of the undersigned, his or her spouse, or any such relative owns 10% of any class of equity securities or of the equity interest;

(h) Represents that the undersigned has the capacity to enter into this Letter Agreement and that it is a valid and binding obligation enforceable against the undersigned in accordance with its terms, subject to bankruptcy, insolvency and other laws affecting creditors' rights and general equitable principles.

(i) It is understood and agreed that the provisions of subparagraphs (a), (b) and (c) of this Letter Agreement relate solely to the capacity of the undersigned as a shareholder or other beneficial owner of shares of FNB common stock and is not in any way intended to affect the exercise by the undersigned of the undersigned's responsibilities as a director or officer of FNB. It is further understood and agreed that such subparagraphs of this Letter Agreement are not in any way intended to affect the exercise by the undersigned of any fiduciary responsibility which the undersigned may have in respect of any shares of FNB common stock held or controlled by the undersigned as of the date hereof.

The obligations set forth herein shall terminate concurrently with any termination of the Agreement.

This Letter Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed to constitute an original, but all of which together shall constitute one and the same Letter Agreement.

The undersigned agrees that, in the event of his or her breach of this Letter Agreement, Orrstown shall be entitled to such remedies and relief against the undersigned as are available at law or in equity. The undersigned acknowledges that there is not an adequate remedy at law to compensate Orrstown for a violation of this Agreement, and irrevocably waives, to the extent permitted by law, any defense that he or she might have based on the adequacy of a remedy at law which might be asserted as a bar to specific performance, injunctive relief, or other equitable relief. The undersigned agrees to the granting of injunctive relief without the posting of any bond and further agrees that, if any bond shall be required, such bond shall be in a nominal amount.

FORM OF TAX OPINION

Orrstown and FNB shall each have received an opinion of Rhoads & Sinon LLP substantially to the effect that, under the provision of the IRC:

- (1) The Merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the IRC;
- (2) Orrstown and FNB will each be a party to the reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the IRC;
- (3) No gain or loss will be recognized by Orrstown or FNB as a result of the Merger (except for amounts resulting from any required change in accounting methods or any income or deferred gain recognized under the relevant consolidated return regulations);
- (4) Each FNB shareholder who receives Orrstown common stock and cash (other than cash in lieu of a fractional share interest in Orrstown common stock) in exchange for the shareholder's shares of FNB common stock will recognize the gain, if any, realized by the shareholder, in an amount not in excess of the amount of cash received, but will not recognize any loss on the exchange;
- (5) Each FNB shareholder's aggregate tax basis in any shares of Orrstown common stock received in the transaction (including fractional shares deemed received and redeemed) will be the same as the aggregate tax basis of the shares of FNB common stock the FNB shareholder surrendered in exchange therefor, decreased by the amount of any cash received by the shareholder and increased by the amount of income or gain recognized by the shareholder in the exchange; and
- (6) Each FNB shareholder's holding period in any shares of Orrstown common stock received in the transaction (including any fractional shares deemed received and redeemed) will, in each instance, include the period during which the shares of FNB common stock surrendered in exchange therefor were held.

In rendering such opinion, counsel will be entitled to receive and rely upon customary certificates and representation of officers of Orrstown and FNB.

FORM OF OPINION OF FNB COUNSEL

Orrstown shall have received from counsel to FNB an opinion, dated as of the Closing Date, substantially to the effect that, subject to customary exceptions and qualifications:

(a) FNB has full corporate power to carry out the transactions contemplated in the Agreement and the Plan of Merger, respectively. The execution and delivery of the Agreement and the Plan of Merger and the consummation of the transactions contemplated thereunder have been duly and validly authorized by all necessary corporate action on the part of FNB, and the Agreement and the Plan constitute valid and legally binding obligations, in accordance with their respective terms, of FNB, except as may be limited by bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, receivership, conservatorship, and other laws affecting creditors' rights generally and institutions the deposits of which are insured by the FDIC, and as may be limited by the exercise of judicial discretion in applying principles of equity.

(b) Subject to satisfaction of the conditions set forth in the Agreement, neither the transactions contemplated in the Agreement and the Plan, nor compliance by FNB with any of the respective provisions thereof, will (i) conflict with or result in a breach or default under (A) the articles of association or bylaws of FNB, or (B) based solely on certificates of officers and without independent verification, to the knowledge of such counsel, any note, bond, mortgage, indenture, license, agreement or other instrument or obligation to which FNB is a party; or (ii) based solely on certificates of officers, to the knowledge of such counsel, result in the creation or imposition of any material lien, instrument or encumbrance upon the property of FNB, except such material lien, instrument or obligation that has been disclosed to Orrstown pursuant to the Agreement and the Plan, or (iii) violate in any material respect any order, writ, injunction, or decree known to such counsel, or the National Bank Act, the Bank Merger Act, the Bank Holding Company Act and the regulations promulgated under such Acts, or any other federal or state statute, rule or regulation applicable to FNB which, in our experience, is typically applicable to transactions of the type contemplated by the Agreement.

(c) FNB is a validly existing national bank organized and in good standing under the laws of the United States of America. The deposits of FNB are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in accordance with the Federal Deposit Insurance Act.

(d) There is, to the knowledge of such counsel, no legal, administrative, arbitration or governmental proceeding or investigation pending or threatened to which FNB is a party which would, if determined adversely to FNB, have a material adverse effect on the business, properties, results of operations, or condition, financial or otherwise, of FNB taken as a whole or which presents a claim to restrain or prohibit the transactions contemplated by the Agreement and the Plan, respectively.

(e) To the knowledge of such counsel, no consent, approval, authorization, or order of any federal or state court or federal or state governmental agency or body, or of any third party, is required for the consummation by FNB of the transactions contemplated by the Agreement and the Plan, except for such consents, approvals, authorizations or orders as have been obtained.

Executive acknowledges and agrees that the Bank may at its discretion, add to, eliminate or change its plans and arrangements at any time and from time to time and that such changes shall not limit or affect the enforceability of any of the covenants, terms or condition of this Agreement. Executive further acknowledges and agrees that Orrstown and/or its affiliates may have employee benefit plans that are separate from and may provide different and/or greater benefits than the employee benefit plans of the Bank and that Executive is not, by virtue of this Agreement and/or his employment with the Bank, entitled to participate in any such plans.

9. NOTIFICATION OF CONFIDENTIALITY AND NON-SOLICITATION PROVISIONS. Executive acknowledges and agrees that the Bank may at its discretion, add to, eliminate or change its plans and arrangements at any time and from time to time and that such changes shall not limit or affect the enforceability of any of the covenants, terms or condition of this Agreement. Executive further acknowledges and agrees that Orrstown and/or its affiliates may have employee benefit plans that are separate from and may provide different and/or greater benefits than the employee benefit plans of the Bank and that Executive is not, by virtue of this Agreement and/or his employment with the Bank, entitled to participate in any such plans.

8. REMEDIES FOR BREACH OF CONFIDENTIALITY AND NON-SOLICITATION COVENANTS. Executive acknowledges that the unauthorized disclosure or use of any of the Confidential Information, or the breach of the non-solicitation provisions of this Agreement, shall give rise to irreparable harm to the Bank and Orrstown, inadequately compensable in monetary damages. Accordingly, Executive agrees that the Bank and/or Orrstown may seek and obtain injunctive relief against the breach or threatened breach of this Agreement, in addition to any other legal remedies which may be available.

9. NOTIFICATION OF CONFIDENTIALITY AND NON-SOLICITATION PROVISIONS. During the Term and for the period during which such restrictions remain effective upon him, Executive agrees to inform any prospective employer of the existence of the Confidentiality and Non-Solicitation provisions of this Agreement.

10. TERMINATION AND PAYMENTS UPON TERMINATION.

(a) The Executive and the Bank hereby agree that this Agreement and the employment relationship shall immediately terminate upon:

Board of Directors

The First National Bank of Newport

Center Square

Newport, PA 17074

Members of the Board:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of the outstanding shares of the common stock (the Shares) of The First National Bank of Newport (First National) of the proposed merger by and between First National and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Orrstown Financial Services, Inc. (Orrstown). The terms of the proposed merger (the Proposed Merger) by and between Orrstown and First National are set forth in the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization dated as of November 21, 2005 (the Merger Agreement) and provide that each Share will be converted into the right to receive $22.20 in cash and 1.75 shares of Orrstown common stock (the Merger Consideration).

Boenning & Scattergood, Inc., as part of its investment banking business, regularly is engaged in the valuation of assets, securities and companies in connection with various types of asset and security transactions, including mergers, acquisitions, private placements, public offerings and valuations for various other purposes, and in the determination of adequate consideration in such transactions. In the ordinary course of its business as a broker-dealer, Boenning may, from time to time, purchase securities from, and sell securities to, First National and Orrstown. In the ordinary course of business, Boenning & Scattergood, Inc. may actively trade the securities of First National and Orrstown for its own account and for the accounts of customers and accordingly may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

In arriving at our opinion, we have, among other things: (i) reviewed the historical financial performance, current financial position and general prospects of First National and Orrstown and reviewed certain internal financial analyses and forecasts prepared by the management of First National, (ii) reviewed the Merger Agreement, (iii) reviewed and analyzed the stock market performance of First National, (iv) studied and analyzed the consolidated financial and operating data of First National and Orrstown, (v) considered the terms and conditions of the Proposed Merger between First National and Orrstown as compared with the terms and conditions of comparable bank, bank holding company and financial holding company mergers and acquisitions, (vi) met and/or communicated with certain members of First National's senior management to discuss their respective operations, historical financial statements and future prospects, (vii) reviewed the Proxy Statement/Prospectus; and (viii) conducted such other financial analyses, studies and investigations as we deemed appropriate.

Edgar Filing: ORRSTOWN FINANCIAL SERVICES INC - Form S-4

Our opinion is given in reliance on information and representations made or given by First National and Orrstown, and their respective officers, directors, auditors, counsel and other agents, and on filings, releases and other information issued by First National and Orrstown including financial statements, financial projections, and stock price data as well as certain information from recognized independent sources. We have not independently verified the information concerning First National and Orrstown nor other data which we have considered in our review and, for purposes of the opinion set forth below, we have assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all such information and data. We have not conducted any valuation or appraisal of any assets or liabilities of First National or Orrstown, nor have any valuations or appraisals been provided to us. Additionally, we assume that the Proposed Merger is, in all respects, lawful under applicable law.

The First National Bank of Newport

[Date] 2006

With regard to financial and other information relating to the general prospects of First National, we have assumed that such information has been reasonably prepared and reflects the best currently available estimates and judgment of the management of First National as to their most likely future performance. We have assumed the allowance for loan losses indicated on the balance sheet of First National is adequate to cover such losses; we have not reviewed individual loans or credit files of First National. Also, in rendering our opinion, we have assumed that in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory approvals for the Proposed Merger no conditions will be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the contemplated benefits of the Proposed Merger to First National.

Our opinion is based upon information provided to us by the management of First National and Orrstown, as well as market, economic, financial and other conditions as they exist and can be evaluated only as of the date hereof and speaks to no other period. Our opinion pertains only to the Merger Consideration to the holders of Shares in the Proposed Merger, is for the information of First National's Board of Directors in connection with its evaluation of the Proposed Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to the Board of First National and does not constitute a recommendation to First National shareholders as to how such shareholders should vote on the Proposed Merger.

Based on the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof that the Merger Consideration offered pursuant to the Merger Agreement, is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Shares.

Sincerely,

ANNEX C

SECTION 215a OF TITLE 12 OF THE UNITED STATES CODE

Section 215a. Mergers of national banks or State banks into national banks.

(a) Approval of Comptroller, board and shareholders; merger agreement; notice, capital stock; liability of receiving association. One or more national banking associations or one or more State banks, with the approval of the Comptroller, under an agreement not inconsistent with this subchapter 12 USC ss.ss. 215 et. seq. , may merge into a national banking association located within the same State, under the charter of the receiving association. The merger agreement shall:

- (1) be agreed upon in writing by a majority of the board of directors of each association or State bank participating in the plan of merger;
- (2) be ratified and confirmed by the affirmative vote of the shareholders of each such association or State bank owning at least two-thirds of its capital stock outstanding, or by a greater proportion of such capital stock in the case of a State bank if the laws of the State where it is organized so require, at a meeting to be held on the call of the directors, after publishing notice of the time, place, and object of the meeting for four consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the place where the association or State bank is located, or, if there is no such newspaper, then in the newspaper of general circulation published nearest thereto, and after sending such notice to each shareholder of record by certified or registered mail at least ten days prior to the meeting, except to those shareholders who specifically waive notice, but any additional notice shall be given to the shareholders of such State bank which may be required by the laws of the State where it is organized. Publication of notice may be waived, in cases where the Comptroller determines that an emergency exists justifying such waiver, by unanimous action of the shareholders of the association or State bank;
- (3) specify the amount of the capital stock of the receiving association, which shall not be less than that required under existing law for the organization of a national bank in the place in which it is located and which will be outstanding upon completion of the merger, the amount of stock (if any) to be allocated, and cash (if any) to be paid, to the shareholders of the association or State bank being merged into the receiving association; and
- (4) provide that the receiving association shall be liable for all liabilities of the association or State bank being merged into the receiving association.

(b) Dissenting shareholders. If a merger shall be voted for at the called meetings by the necessary majority of the shareholders of each association or State bank participating in the plan of merger, and thereafter the merger shall be approved by the Comptroller, any shareholder of any association or State bank to be merged into the receiving association who has voted against such merger at the meeting of the association or bank of which he is a shareholder, or has given notice in writing at or prior to such meeting to the presiding officer that he dissents from the plan of merger, shall be entitled to receive the value of the shares so held by him when such merger shall be approved by the Comptroller upon written request made to the receiving association at any time before thirty days after the date of consummation of the merger, accompanied by the surrender of his stock certificates.

(c) Valuation of shares. The value of the shares of any dissenting shareholder shall be ascertained, as of the effective date of the merger, by an appraisal made by a committee of three persons, composed of (1) one selected by the vote of the holders of the majority of the stock, the owners of which are entitled to payment in cash; (2) one selected by the directors of the receiving association; and (3) one selected by the two so selected. The valuation agreed upon by any two of the three appraisers shall govern. If the value so fixed shall not be satisfactory to any dissenting shareholder who has requested payment, that shareholder may, within five days after being notified of the appraised value of his shares, appeal to the Comptroller, who shall cause a reappraisal to be made which shall be final and binding as to the value of the shares of the appellant.

(d) Application to shareholders of merging associations; appraisal by Comptroller; expenses of receiving association; sale and resale of shares; State appraisal and merger law. If, within ninety days from the date of consummation of the merger, for any reason one or more of the appraisers is not selected as herein provided, or the appraisers fail to determine the value of such shares, the Comptroller shall upon written request of any interested party cause an appraisal to be made which shall be final and binding on all parties. The expenses of the Comptroller in making the reappraisal or the appraisal, as the case may be, shall be paid by the receiving association. The value of the shares ascertained shall be promptly paid to the dissenting shareholders by the receiving association. The shares of stock of the receiving association which would have been delivered to such dissenting shareholders had they not requested payment shall be sold by the receiving association at an advertised public auction, and the receiving association shall have the right to purchase any of such shares at such public auction, if it is the highest bidder therefor, for the purpose of reselling such shares within thirty days thereafter to such person or persons and at such price not less than par as its board of directors by resolution may determine. If the shares are sold at public auction at a price greater than the amount paid to the dissenting shareholders, the excess in such sale price shall be paid to such dissenting shareholders. The appraisal of such shares of stock in any State bank shall be determined in the manner prescribed by the law of the State in such cases, rather than as provided in this section, if such provision is made in the State law; and no such merger shall be in contravention of the law of the State under which such bank is incorporated. The provisions of this subsection shall apply only to shareholders of (and stock owned by them in) a bank or association being merged into the receiving association.

(e) Status of receiving association; property rights and interests vested and held as fiduciary. The corporate existence of each of the merging banks or banking associations participating in such merger shall be merged into and continued in the receiving association and such receiving association shall be deemed to be the same corporation as each bank or banking association participating in the merger. All rights, franchises, and interest of the individual merging banks or banking associations in and to every type of property (real, personal, and mixed) and chooses in action shall be transferred to and vested in the receiving association by virtue of such merger without any deed or other transfer. The receiving association, upon the merge and without any order or other action on the part of any court or otherwise, shall hold and enjoy all rights of property, franchises, and interest, including appointments, designations, and nominations, and all other rights and interests as trustee, executor, administrator, registrar of stocks and bonds, guardian of estates, assignee, receiver, and committee of estates of lunatics, and in every other fiduciary capacity, in the same manner and to the same extent as such rights, franchises, and interest were held or enjoyed by any one of the merging banks or banking associations at the time of the merger, subject to the conditions hereinafter provided.

(f) Removal as fiduciary; discrimination. Where any merging bank or banking association, at the time of the merger, was acting under appointment of any court as trustee, executor, administrator, registrar of stocks and bonds, guardian of estates, assignee, receiver or committee of estates of lunatics, or in any other fiduciary capacity, the receiving association shall be subject to removal by a court of competent jurisdiction in the same manner and to the same extent as was such merging bank or banking association prior to the merger. Nothing contained in this section shall be considered to impair in any manner the right of any court to remove the receiving association and to appoint in lieu thereof a substitute trustee, executor, or other fiduciary, except that such right shall not be exercised in such a manner as to discriminate against national banking associations, nor shall any receiving association be removed solely because of the fact that it is a national banking association.

(g) Issuance of stock by receiving association; preemptive rights. Stock of the receiving association may be issued as provided by the terms of the merger agreement, free from any preemptive rights of the shareholders of the respective merging banks.

Table of ContentsPART II: INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS*Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Sections 1741-1743 of the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law of 1988, as amended (the BCL), provide that a business corporation may indemnify directors and officers against liabilities they may incur in such capacities provided certain standards are met, including good faith and the belief that the particular action is in the best interests of the corporation. In general, this power to indemnify does not exist in the case of actions against a director or officer by or in the right of the corporation if the person entitled to indemnification shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation unless and only to the extent a court determines that the person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification. A corporation is required to indemnify directors and officers against expenses they may incur in defending actions against them in such capacities if they are successful on the merits or otherwise in the defense of such actions. Section 1746 of the BCL provides that the foregoing provisions shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which a person seeking indemnification may be entitled under, among other things, any by-law provision, provided that no indemnification may be made in any case where the act or failure or act giving rise to the claim for indemnification is determined by a court to have constituted willful misconduct or recklessness. Section 1747 of the BCL authorizes a corporation to purchase insurance for directors and other representatives. The foregoing statement is subject to the detailed provisions of Section 1741-1850 of the BCL.

The bylaws of Orrstown Financial Services, Inc. (the Company) provide for indemnification of directors and officers to the extent provided in the BCL. In accordance with Section 1713 of the BCL, the bylaws of the Company also include a provision that the directors of the Company shall not be personally liable for monetary damages such for any action taken, or failure to take any action, unless: (1) the director has breached or failed to perform the duties of his office in good faith, in a manner he reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the company and with such care, including reasonably inquiry, skill and diligence, as a person of ordinary prudence would use under similar circumstances; and (2) the breach or failure to perform constitute self-dealing, willful misconduct or recklessness. Pursuant to Section 1713 of the BCL, this limitation of personal liability does not apply to (i) the responsibility or liability of a director pursuant to any criminal statute or (ii) the liability of a director for the payment of taxes pursuant to federal state or local law.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows:

- (1) That prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through the use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.
- (2) That every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to the immediately preceding paragraph, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(d) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the provisions described under Item 20 above, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(e) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the Proxy Statement/Prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this Form S-4, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(f) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
