- (2) Based on the maximum number of shares to be issued in connection with the merger, calculated as the product of (a) 28,000,000, the aggregate number of shares of Commonwealth common stock outstanding on November 3, 2006 (other than shares owned by Commonwealth, CF Merger Corp. or the registrant and the restricted shares to be cancelled prior to the completion of the merger) or issuable pursuant to the exercise or settlement of outstanding options and other equity awards prior to the effective time of the merger or upon conversion of the outstanding 2003 3-1/4% convertible notes due 2023 of Commonwealth (collectively, the Commonwealth Outstanding Shares) and (b) an exchange ratio of 0.768 shares of the registrant s common stock for each share of Commonwealth common stock.

Edgar Filing: CITIZENS COMMUNICATIONS CO - Form S-4

(c) $876,680,000, the estimated amount of cash to be paid by registrant in exchange for shares of Commonwealth common stock (which equals $31.31 multiplied by 28,000,000, representing the number of Commonwealth Outstanding Shares).

(4) Calculated by multiplying the proposed maximum aggregate offering price by 0.000107.

The registrant hereby amends this Registration Statement on such date or dates as may be necessary to delay its effective date until the registrant shall file a further amendment which specifically states that this Registration Statement shall thereafter become effective in accordance with Section 8(a) of the Securities Act, or until this Registration Statement shall become effective on such date as the Commission, acting pursuant to said Section 8(a), may determine.

Dear Shareholder:

We cordially invite you to attend a special meeting of the shareholders of Commonwealth Telephone Enterprises, Inc. to be held at [•] on [•] at [•], local time.

At the special meeting, you will be asked to consider and vote on the proposal to adopt the Agreement and Plan of Merger dated as of September 17, 2006, among Commonwealth, Citizens Communications Company and CF Merger Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of Citizens, pursuant to which CF Merger Corp. will merge with and into Commonwealth. At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding share of Commonwealth common stock will be converted into the right to receive $31.31 in cash, without interest, and 0.768 shares of Citizens common stock. Shares of Citizens common stock are listed on the New York Stock Exchange under the symbol CZN. Based on the closing price of Citizens common stock on [•] of $[•] per share, the merger consideration payable to holders of Commonwealth common stock would have an aggregate value of $[•] per share. Because the exchange ratio of the stock component of the merger consideration will not be adjusted for changes in the market price of Citizens common stock, the value of the merger consideration at the time of the merger may be significantly different.

The board of directors of Commonwealth has determined that the merger agreement and the merger are advisable and in the best interests of Commonwealth shareholders. Accordingly, the board of directors of Commonwealth has approved the merger agreement and the merger and recommends that you vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement at the special meeting.

Your vote is very important. We cannot complete the merger without the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by all Commonwealth shareholders at the special meeting. Even if you plan to attend the special meeting, we recommend that you submit your proxy so that your vote will be counted even if you later decide not to attend the meeting. You can also authorize the voting of your shares electronically or by telephone as provided in the instructions set forth on the enclosed proxy card. If you hold your shares in street name through a broker or in Commonwealth's 401(k) plan, you should follow the procedures provided by your broker or the plan trustee, as applicable.

The accompanying proxy statement/prospectus explains the proposed merger in greater detail. We urge you to read this proxy statement/prospectus, including the matters discussed under Risk Factors Relating to the Merger beginning on page 13, carefully.

Sincerely,

Michael J. Mahoney

President & CEO

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE SPECIAL MEETING AND THE MERGER

Q: What am I being asked to vote on?

A: You are being asked to vote on the adoption of the merger agreement among Commonwealth, Citizens and CF Merger Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of Citizens. In the merger, CF Merger Corp. will merge with and into Commonwealth, with Commonwealth surviving the merger and becoming a wholly owned subsidiary of Citizens.

Q: What will I receive in the merger?

A: Upon completion of the merger, you will receive for each share of Commonwealth common stock that you own a combination of $31.31 in cash and 0.768 shares of Citizens common stock.

Q: How does the board of directors of Commonwealth recommend that I vote on the merger agreement?

A: The board of directors of Commonwealth has determined that the merger agreement and the merger are advisable and in the best interests of Commonwealth shareholders and recommends that Commonwealth shareholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

Q: Who can vote at the special meeting?

A: You can vote at the special meeting if you owned shares of Commonwealth common stock at the close of business on [•], the record date for the special meeting. At the close of business on the record date, [•] shares of Commonwealth common stock were outstanding.

Q: What vote of Commonwealth shareholders is required to adopt the merger agreement?

A: To adopt the merger agreement, holders of a majority of the votes cast at the special meeting must vote their shares FOR the adoption of the merger agreement. Because the required vote of Commonwealth shareholders is based upon the number of votes cast, rather than upon the number of shares of Commonwealth common stock outstanding, any shares for which a holder does not submit a proxy or vote in person at the special meeting, including abstentions and broker non-votes, will not be counted in connection with the adoption of the merger agreement. Failure to submit a proxy or to attend the special meeting, however, could result in the failure to obtain a quorum for the special meeting, which is necessary to hold the meeting.

Q: Where and when is the special meeting of Commonwealth shareholders?

A: [•]

Q: What do I need to do now?

Edgar Filing: CITIZENS COMMUNICATIONS CO - Form S-4

A: If you are a shareholder of record, after carefully reading and considering the information contained in this proxy statement/prospectus, please complete, sign and date your proxy and return it in the enclosed return envelope or submit your proxy by telephone or the Internet as soon as possible, so that your shares may be represented at the special meeting. If you sign and send in your proxy and do not indicate how you wish to vote, Commonwealth will count your proxy as a vote in favor of adoption of the merger agreement. If you hold your Commonwealth shares in street name through a broker or in Commonwealth's 401(k) plan, see the discussion below.

Q: If my Commonwealth shares are held in street name by my broker, will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: Your broker will vote your Commonwealth shares only if you provide instructions on how to vote. You should follow the directions provided by your broker regarding how to instruct your broker to vote your shares. Without instructions, your shares will not be voted and will have no effect on the vote for the proposal to adopt the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

Q: If my Commonwealth shares are held in Commonwealth's 401(k) plan, how will the plan trustee vote my shares?

A: If you are a participant in Commonwealth's 401(k) plan and wish to instruct the plan trustee on how to vote your shares, you should follow the instructions provided by the plan trustee. If the plan trustee receives timely voting instructions from you, the plan trustee will vote your shares held in the Commonwealth 401(k) plan as instructed by you. If the plan trustee does not receive timely voting instruction from you, the plan trustee will vote your shares held in the Commonwealth 401(k) plan in the same proportion as those shares in the Commonwealth 401(k) plan for which timely voting instructions have been received.

Q: Can I change my vote?

A: Yes. You can change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the special meeting. If you are a shareholder of record, you can do this in one of three ways. First, you can send a written notice stating that you would like to revoke your proxy. Second, you can complete and submit a new valid proxy bearing a later date by the Internet, telephone or mail. If you choose to send a written notice or to mail your new proxy, you must submit your notice of revocation or your new proxy to Commonwealth Telephone Enterprises, Inc. at 100 CTE Drive, Dallas, Pennsylvania 18612, Attention: Corporate Secretary. Third, you can attend the special meeting and vote in person. Attendance at the special meeting will not in and of itself constitute revocation of a proxy. If your shares are held in street name or in Commonwealth's 401(k) plan, you may change your vote by submitting new voting instructions to your broker or the plan trustee, as applicable, in accordance with the procedures established by it. Please contact your broker or the plan trustee, as applicable, and follow its directions in order to change your vote.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. After the merger is completed, you will receive a letter of transmittal with instructions for the surrender of your Commonwealth common stock certificates. Please do not send in your stock certificates with your proxy.

Q: Is the merger expected to be taxable to me?

A: Generally, yes. The receipt of the merger consideration for Commonwealth common stock pursuant to the merger will be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes. In general, you will recognize capital gain or loss as a result of the merger equal to the difference, if any, between (1) the sum of the fair market value of the Citizens common stock as of the effective time of the merger and the cash received in the merger and (2) your adjusted tax basis in the Commonwealth common stock exchanged in the merger. You should read "The Merger Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger" beginning on page [•] for a more complete discussion of United States federal income tax consequences of the merger. Tax matters can be complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend on your particular tax situation. You should consult your tax advisor to determine the tax consequences of the merger to you.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: We are working to complete the merger as quickly as possible. If the merger agreement is adopted by Commonwealth shareholders, it is anticipated that the merger will be completed in mid-2007. However, it is possible that factors outside our control could require us to complete the merger at a later time or not complete it at all.

Q: Can I dissent and require appraisal of my shares?

A: No. Commonwealth shareholders have no dissenters' rights under Pennsylvania law in connection with the merger. See "The Merger Dissenters' Rights" on page [•].

SUMMARY

*This summary highlights selected information from this proxy statement/prospectus and may not contain all the information that is important to you. To understand the merger fully and for a more complete description of the legal terms of the merger, you should carefully read this entire proxy statement/prospectus and the other documents to which we refer you, including, in particular, the copies of the merger agreement and the opinion of Evercore Group L.L.C. that are attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Annexes I and II, respectively. See also Where You Can Find More Information on page [•]. We have included page references to direct you to a more complete description of the topics presented in this summary.*

General

What Commonwealth Shareholders Will Receive in the Merger (page [•])

In the merger, Commonwealth shareholders will receive, for each share of Commonwealth common stock they own, a combination of $31.31 in cash and 0.768 shares of Citizens common stock. The cash and Citizens common stock payable in the merger are referred to collectively as the merger consideration in this proxy statement/prospectus.

Ownership of Citizens Following the Merger (page [•])

Based on the number of shares of Commonwealth common stock and Citizens common stock outstanding on the record date, we anticipate that Commonwealth shareholders will own approximately [•]% of the outstanding shares of Citizens common stock following the merger ([•]% assuming conversion of Commonwealth's outstanding 2003 3-1/4% convertible notes due 2023, which cannot be settled in cash, into shares of Commonwealth common stock in connection with the merger).

Material United States Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (page [•])

The receipt of the merger consideration by a shareholder in exchange for shares of Commonwealth common stock pursuant to the merger will be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes. In general, a shareholder who receives the merger consideration in exchange for shares of Commonwealth common stock pursuant to the merger will recognize capital gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes equal to the difference, if any, between (1) the sum of the fair market value of the Citizens common stock as of the effective time of the merger and the cash received in the merger and (2) the shareholder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of Commonwealth common stock exchanged for the merger consideration pursuant to the merger. Any gain or loss would be treated as long-term capital gain or loss if the shareholder held the shares of Commonwealth common stock for more than one year. Shareholders are urged to consult their own tax advisor to determine the particular United States federal, state or local, or foreign, income or other tax consequences to them of the merger.

Recommendation of the Commonwealth Board of Directors (page [•])

The board of directors of Commonwealth recommends a vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

Evercore Group L.L.C. (Evercore) delivered its opinion to the board of directors of Commonwealth that, as of the date of its opinion and based upon and subject to the assumptions made, matters considered and limits of the review undertaken by it, the merger consideration to be received by the holders of Commonwealth common stock pursuant to the merger agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

The full text of Evercore's written opinion, dated September 17, 2006, is attached as Annex II to this proxy statement/prospectus. Commonwealth shareholders are encouraged to read Evercore's opinion carefully in its entirety, including the description of the assumptions made, procedures followed, factors considered and limitations upon the review undertaken by Evercore in rendering its opinion. The opinion addresses only the fairness of the merger consideration to Commonwealth shareholders from a financial point of view, does not address the merits of the underlying decision by Commonwealth to engage in the merger and does not constitute a recommendation to any Commonwealth shareholder as to how to vote on the proposal to adopt the merger agreement.

Interests of Commonwealth Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger (page [•])

In considering the recommendation of the board of directors of Commonwealth with respect to the merger agreement, you should be aware that Commonwealth's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger and have arrangements that are different from, or in addition to, those of Commonwealth shareholders generally. The board of directors of Commonwealth was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and the merger and to recommend that Commonwealth shareholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

Treatment of Compensatory Awards (page [•])

Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, each outstanding restricted share and restricted share unit granted or issued under any plan or arrangement of Commonwealth will be cancelled, and Citizens will pay, immediately after the effective time, each holder thereof for each such restricted share or restricted share unit an amount in cash equal to the merger consideration, with Citizens common stock valued using the five-day average closing price ending on the second trading day immediately preceding the date of the merger.

Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, each outstanding vested or unvested stock option of Commonwealth will be cancelled, and Citizens will pay, immediately after the effective time, each holder thereof, for each share of Commonwealth common stock that could have been purchased upon the exercise of such option, the excess of the cash amount referred to in the preceding paragraph over the exercise price of the option.

Comparison of Rights of Citizens Stockholders and Commonwealth Shareholders (page [•])

Commonwealth shareholders, whose rights are currently governed by the Commonwealth articles of incorporation, the Commonwealth by-laws and Pennsylvania law, will, upon completion of the merger, become stockholders of Citizens and their rights will be governed by the Citizens certificate of incorporation, the Citizens by-laws and Delaware law.

The special meeting of Commonwealth shareholders will be held on [•] at [•] local time at [•]. At the special meeting, Commonwealth shareholders will be asked to vote on the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and to transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

Record Date; Shares Entitled to Vote; Required Vote; Quorum (page [•])

Commonwealth shareholders are entitled to vote at the special meeting if they owned shares of Commonwealth common stock at the close of business on [•], the record date. On the record date, there were [•] shares of Commonwealth common stock outstanding. Shareholders will be entitled to one vote for each share of Commonwealth common stock that they owned on the record date on all matters submitted to a vote at the special meeting.

The adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by all shareholders at the special meeting. The presence at the special meeting, in person or by proxy, of shareholders entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes that all shareholders are entitled to cast at the special meeting will constitute a quorum, which is necessary to hold the meeting.

On the record date, directors and executive officers of Commonwealth beneficially owned and were entitled to vote, in the aggregate, [•] shares of Commonwealth common stock, which represented approximately [•]% of the shares of Commonwealth common stock outstanding on the record date. The directors and executive officers of Commonwealth have informed Commonwealth that they intend to vote all of their shares of Commonwealth common stock FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

The Merger (page [•])

The merger agreement is attached as Annex I to this proxy statement/prospectus. We encourage you to read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety because it is the principal document governing the merger.

Conditions to the Completion of the Merger (page [•])

Commonwealth and Citizens are obligated to complete the merger only if certain conditions precedent are satisfied, including the following:

the merger agreement has been adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by Commonwealth shareholders at the special meeting;

the waiting period under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, as amended (the HSR Act), has expired or has been terminated;

the approvals of the Federal Communications Commission (the FCC) and the Pennsylvania Public Utilities Commission (the Pennsylvania PUC) required to permit consummation of the merger have been obtained;

no applicable federal, state or local law, regulation, order or other similar requirement has been adopted, promulgated or issued by any governmental authority that prohibits consummation of the merger;

the registration statement, of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part, has been declared effective and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the registration statement is in effect, and no proceeding for such purpose is pending before or threatened by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC);

the shares of Citizens common stock to be issued in the merger have been approved for listing on the New York Stock Exchange, subject to official notice of issuance; and other contractual conditions set forth in the merger agreement.

In addition, Citizens is obligated to complete the merger only if there is no pending or threatened claim, suit, action or proceeding by any federal or state governmental authority under or pursuant to any applicable laws regulating competition:

seeking to prohibit or limit in any respect, or place any conditions on, the ownership or operation by Commonwealth, Citizens or any of their respective subsidiaries of all or any portion of the business or assets of Commonwealth, Citizens or any of their respective subsidiaries or to require any such person to divest or hold separate any assets or business of Commonwealth, Citizens or any of their respective subsidiaries, or to take any other action, in each case as a result of or in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, where the foregoing, individually or in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to have an impact (whether affecting Commonwealth, Citizens or any of their respective subsidiaries) equivalent to a material adverse effect (as defined in the merger agreement) on Commonwealth; or seeking to impose limitations on the ability of Citizens or any of its affiliates to acquire or hold, or exercise full rights of ownership of, any shares of common stock of Commonwealth or the surviving corporation;

and no applicable law is in effect that would reasonably be expected to result in any of those effects.

Termination of the Merger Agreement; Termination Fee (pages [•] and [•])

The merger agreement contains provisions addressing the circumstances under which Citizens or Commonwealth may terminate the merger agreement. In addition, the merger agreement provides that, in several circumstances, Commonwealth may be required to pay Citizens a termination fee of $37 million.

No Solicitation (page [•])

The merger agreement provides that Commonwealth will not (1) take any action to solicit, initiate or knowingly encourage or facilitate any acquisition proposal (as defined in the merger agreement) or (2) engage in discussions or negotiations with, or disclose any nonpublic information relating to Commonwealth to, any person that is known by Commonwealth to be considering making, or has made, an acquisition proposal, subject to limited exceptions for certain actions in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice.

Notwithstanding the restrictions described above, subject to certain specified conditions, prior to the time Commonwealth shareholders adopt the merger agreement, Commonwealth may furnish nonpublic information to, or enter into discussions or negotiations with, any person in connection with an unsolicited bona fide written acquisition proposal received from such person, if the board of directors of Commonwealth determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisors, that to disclose such nonpublic information or engage in such discussions or negotiations would be reasonably likely to result in a superior proposal (as defined in the merger agreement).

In addition, the merger agreement provides that, subject to certain specified exceptions relating to a superior proposal or a material adverse effect (as defined in the merger agreement) on Citizens, the board of directors of Commonwealth may not (1) withdraw, modify in a manner adverse to Citizens, or publicly propose to withdraw or modify in a manner adverse to Citizens, its approval or recommendation of the merger agreement or the merger, or recommend the approval or adoption of, or approve or adopt, or publicly propose to recommend, approve or adopt, any acquisition proposal or (2) approve or recommend, or publicly propose to approve or recommend, or cause or permit Commonwealth or any of its subsidiaries to execute or enter into, any agreement that provides for or is related to an acquisition proposal.

Additional Terms (pages [•])

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement, Citizens and Commonwealth have agreed to use their respective reasonable best efforts to take all appropriate action and to do all things necessary, proper or advisable under applicable laws to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement in the most expeditious manner practicable, including the satisfaction of all conditions to the merger and seeking to remove promptly any injunction or other legal barrier that may prevent or delay the consummation of the merger.

In addition, Commonwealth and Citizens have agreed to use their respective reasonable best efforts to obtain all authorizations, consents, orders and approvals of governmental authorities and third parties that may be or become necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement or for performance of their respective obligations under the merger agreement, and to cooperate fully with the other in promptly seeking to obtain all such authorizations, consents, orders and approvals; provided that Commonwealth and Citizens are not permitted or required to agree or proffer to divest or hold separate any assets or business of Commonwealth, Citizens or any of their respective subsidiaries, or to take any other action, that, in each case, individually or in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to have an impact (whether affecting Commonwealth, Citizens or any of their respective subsidiaries) equivalent to a material adverse effect on Commonwealth.

Regulatory Matters (page [•])

United States antitrust laws prohibit Citizens and Commonwealth from completing the merger until they have furnished certain information and materials to the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission under the HSR Act, and a required waiting period has ended. Citizens and Commonwealth filed the required notification and report forms with the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission on September 29, 2006. On October 6, 2006, the Federal Trade Commission granted early termination of the HSR Act waiting period.

Completion of the merger is also conditioned upon the receipt of approvals of the FCC and the Pennsylvania PUC. Pursuant to the merger agreement, on September 29, 2006, Citizens and Commonwealth filed the applications required for the transfer of control of the relevant franchises, licenses and similar instruments issued under the rules and regulations of the FCC and the Pennsylvania PUC.

Financing Arrangements (page [•])

In connection with the merger agreement, Citizens obtained a commitment letter from Citigroup Global Markets Inc. (Citigroup) to provide $990 million in a senior unsecured bridge loan to finance, among other things, the merger consideration, repayment of certain outstanding indebtedness of Commonwealth and payment of transaction expenses. Subsequent to the date of the merger agreement, Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. became commitment parties under the commitment letter.

Fees and Expenses (page [•])

Citizens and Commonwealth will each pay its own fees and expenses in connection with the merger, except that they will share equally all fees and expenses, other than attorneys' and accounting fees and expenses, incurred in relation to the printing and filing of the registration statement of which this proxy statement/prospectus forms a part and the printing, filing and distribution of this proxy statement/prospectus.

Table of ContentsComparative Per Share Information

The following table sets forth for the periods presented certain per share information for Citizens and Commonwealth on a historical basis and on an unaudited pro forma basis after giving effect to the merger under the purchase method of accounting. The historical per share information for Citizens and Commonwealth has been derived from, and should be read in conjunction with, the historical consolidated financial statements of Citizens and Commonwealth incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus. See Where You Can Find More Information. The unaudited pro forma per share information has been derived from, and should be read in conjunction with, the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information included in this proxy statement/prospectus. See Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Information.

The unaudited pro forma Commonwealth equivalent information was calculated by multiplying the corresponding Citizens unaudited pro forma combined information by the exchange ratio of 0.768. The exchange ratio does not include the $31.31 per share cash portion of the merger consideration. This data shows how each share of Commonwealth common stock would have participated in income from continuing operations, cash dividends and book value of Citizens if the two companies had been combined for accounting and financial reporting purposes for all periods presented. These amounts, however, are not intended to be indicative of the historical results that would have been achieved had the two companies been combined for all periods presented or of the future results of the combined company.

Table of ContentsSelected Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Information

The following selected unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information is based upon the historical consolidated financial information of Citizens and Commonwealth incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus, and has been prepared to reflect the merger based on the purchase method of accounting, with Citizens treated as the acquiror. The historical consolidated financial information has been adjusted to give pro forma effect to events that are directly attributable to the merger and factually supportable and, in the case of statement of operations information, that are expected to have a continuing impact. The selected unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information is derived from the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial statements contained in this proxy statement/prospectus. See Unaudited Pro Forma Condensed Combined Financial Statements. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet information has been prepared as of June 30, 2006 and gives effect to the merger and the disposition of ELI as if they had occurred on that date. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations information, which has been prepared for the six months ended June 30, 2006 and for the year ended December 31, 2005, gives effect to the merger as if it had occurred at the beginning of each of the periods presented.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information is presented for informational purposes only. The pro forma information is not necessarily indicative of what the financial position or results of operations actually would have been had the merger been completed at the dates indicated. In addition, the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information does not purport to project the future financial position or operating results of Citizens after completion of the merger.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information does not give effect to any potential cost savings or other operating efficiencies that could result from the merger. In addition, Citizens' cost to acquire Commonwealth will be allocated to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed based upon their estimated fair values as of the date of acquisition. The allocation is dependent upon certain valuations and other studies that have not progressed to a stage where there is sufficient information to make a definitive allocation. Accordingly, the purchase price allocation pro forma adjustments are preliminary and have been made solely for the purpose of providing unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information in this proxy statement/prospectus.

RISK FACTORS RELATING TO THE MERGER

*In addition to the other information included and incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus, Commonwealth shareholders should consider carefully the matters described below in determining whether to adopt the merger agreement. Please also refer to the additional risk factors identified in the periodic reports and other documents of Citizens and Commonwealth incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus and listed under Where You Can Find More Information.*

The exchange ratio for the stock portion of the merger consideration will not be adjusted in the event that the price of Citizens common stock declines before the merger is completed. As a result, the value of the shares of Citizens common stock at the time Commonwealth shareholders receive them could be less than the value of those shares today. In the merger, Commonwealth shareholders will be entitled to receive for each share of Commonwealth common stock owned by them a combination of $31.31 in cash and 0.768 shares of Citizens common stock. Citizens and Commonwealth will not adjust the exchange ratio for the portion of the merger consideration to be paid in Citizens common stock as a result of any change in the market price of Citizens common stock between the date of this proxy statement/prospectus and the date Commonwealth shareholders receive shares of Citizens common stock in exchange for their shares of Commonwealth common stock. The market price of Citizens common stock will likely be different, and may be lower, on the date Commonwealth shareholders receive their shares of Citizens common stock than the market price of Citizens common stock on the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. Differences in the market price of Citizens common stock may be the result of changes in the business, operations or prospects of Citizens, market reactions to the proposed merger, regulatory considerations, general market and economic conditions or other factors. If the market price of Citizens common stock declines after Commonwealth shareholders vote, the value of the stock portion of the merger consideration Commonwealth shareholders will be receiving will be less than the value of such consideration at the time of the vote.

The price of Citizens common stock may be affected by factors different from those affecting the price of Commonwealth common stock. Upon completion of the merger, holders of Commonwealth common stock will become holders of Citizens common stock. Citizens business and results of operations and the market price of Citizens common stock may be affected by factors different than those affecting Commonwealth's business and results of operations and the market price of Commonwealth common stock. For a discussion of Citizens' and Commonwealth's businesses and certain factors to consider in connection with their businesses, see Citizens' Annual Report on Form 10-K/A for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, Citizens' Current Report on Form 8-K filed on November 6, 2006 and Commonwealth's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, each of which is incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus.

The integration of Citizens and Commonwealth following the merger may present significant challenges. Citizens may face significant challenges in combining Commonwealth's operations into its operations in a timely and efficient manner and in retaining key Commonwealth personnel. The failure to integrate successfully Citizens and Commonwealth and to manage successfully the challenges presented by the integration process may result in Citizens not achieving the anticipated benefits of the merger.

Obtaining required approvals and satisfying closing conditions may delay or prevent completion of the merger. Completion of the merger is conditioned upon the receipt of certain governmental consents and approvals, including approval by the FCC and the Pennsylvania PUC. These consents and approvals may impose conditions on or require divestitures relating to the divisions, operations or assets of Citizens or Commonwealth. Such conditions or divestitures may jeopardize or delay completion of the merger or may reduce the anticipated benefits of the merger. Further, no assurance can be given that the required consents and approvals will be obtained or that the required conditions to closing will be satisfied. Even if all such consents and approvals are obtained, no assurance can be given as to the terms, conditions and timing of the consents and approvals or that they will satisfy the terms of the merger agreement. See The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Completion of the Merger for a discussion of the conditions to the completion of the merger and The Merger Regulatory Matters for a description of the regulatory approvals necessary in connection with the merger.

Citizens will incur transaction, integration and restructuring costs in connection with the merger. Citizens and Commonwealth expect to incur costs associated with transaction fees and other costs related to the merger. Specifically, Citizens expects to incur approximately $20 million for transaction costs related to the merger, which costs are expected to be recorded as a component of the purchase price. In addition, Citizens will incur integration and restructuring costs following the completion of the merger as it integrates the businesses of Commonwealth with those of Citizens. Although Citizens expects that the realization of efficiencies related to the integration of the businesses will offset incremental transaction, integration and restructuring costs over time, Citizens cannot give any assurance that this net benefit will be achieved in the near term.

Commonwealth shareholders will have reduced ownership and voting interests after the merger and will exercise less influence over management of Citizens than currently exercised over management of Commonwealth. After the effective time of the merger, Commonwealth shareholders will own in aggregate a significantly smaller percentage of Citizens than they currently own of Commonwealth. Following completion of the merger, Commonwealth shareholders are expected to own approximately [●]% of the outstanding shares of Citizens common stock ([●]% assuming conversion of Commonwealth's outstanding 2003 3-1/4% convertible notes due 2023, which cannot be settled in cash, into shares of Commonwealth common stock in connection with the merger), based on the number of shares of Commonwealth common stock and Citizens common stock outstanding on the record date. Consequently, Commonwealth shareholders, as a general matter, will have less influence over the management and policies of Citizens than they currently exercise over the management and policies of Commonwealth.

Certain directors and executive officers of Commonwealth may have potential conflicts of interest in recommending that Commonwealth shareholders vote in favor of the adoption of the merger agreement. The interests of some of the directors and executive officers of Commonwealth may be different from those of Commonwealth shareholders generally, and directors and executive officers of Commonwealth may participate in arrangements that are different from, or in addition to, those of Commonwealth shareholders. These interests are described more fully under The Merger Interests of Commonwealth Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger beginning on page [●]. As a result of these interests, the directors and executive officers of Commonwealth may be more likely to support the adoption of the merger agreement than if they did not have these interests. Commonwealth shareholders should consider whether these interests may have influenced those individuals to recommend the adoption of the merger agreement. As of the close of business on the record date for the special meeting of Commonwealth shareholders, Commonwealth directors and executive officers beneficially owned and were entitled to vote, in the aggregate, approximately [●]% of the shares of Commonwealth common stock then outstanding.

Whether or not the merger is completed, the pendency of the transaction could cause disruptions in the businesses of Commonwealth and Citizens, which could have an adverse effect on their businesses and financial results. These disruptions could include the following:

current and prospective employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles with the combined company, which might adversely affect Commonwealth's and Citizens' ability to retain or attract key managers and other employees;

current and prospective customers of Commonwealth or Citizens may experience variations in levels of services as the companies prepare for integration and may, as a result, choose to discontinue their service with either company or choose another provider; and the attention of management of each of Commonwealth and Citizens may be diverted from the operation of the businesses toward the completion of the merger.

Purpose of the Special Meeting

Shareholders will consider and vote upon the proposal to adopt the merger agreement and to transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting or any properly reconvened meeting following an adjournment or postponement thereof.

The board of directors of Commonwealth has determined that the merger agreement and the merger are advisable and in the best interests of its shareholders. The board of directors of Commonwealth has approved the merger agreement and the merger and recommends that shareholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

Record Date; Shares Entitled to Vote; Required Vote; Quorum

The close of business on [•] has been fixed as the record date for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting and at any properly reconvened meeting following an adjournment or postponement thereof. At the close of business on the record date, there were outstanding [•] shares of Commonwealth common stock.

The adoption of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by all shareholders at the special meeting. Shareholders will be entitled to one vote for each share of Commonwealth common stock that they owned on the record date on all matters submitted for a vote at the special meeting.

The presence at the special meeting, in person or by proxy, of shareholders entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes that all shareholders are entitled to cast at the special meeting will constitute a quorum, which is necessary to hold the special meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted in determining whether a quorum is present. A broker non-vote occurs when a broker or other nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not receive voting instructions from the beneficial owner. Abstentions and broker non-votes, because they are not treated as votes cast, will have no effect on the vote for the proposal to adopt the merger agreement.

Voting of Proxies

This proxy statement/prospectus is being sent to Commonwealth shareholders on behalf of the board of directors of Commonwealth for the purpose of requesting that you allow your shares of Commonwealth common stock to be represented by the persons named in the enclosed proxy card. All shares of Commonwealth common stock represented at the special meeting by properly executed proxy cards will be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated on that proxy. If you sign and return a proxy card without giving voting instructions, your shares will be voted FOR the adoption of the merger agreement, as recommended by the board of directors of Commonwealth.

If you hold shares of record as a registered shareholder, please follow the voting instructions included on the enclosed proxy card. If your shares are held in street name, which means your shares are held of record by a broker, you will need to obtain instructions from the institution that holds your shares and follow the instructions included on that form regarding how to instruct your broker to vote your shares. Many such firms make telephone and/or Internet voting available, but the specific processes available will depend on those firms' individual arrangements. If you hold your shares in Commonwealth's 401(k) plan, you should follow the procedures provided by the plan trustee.

Even if you plan to attend the special meeting, Commonwealth recommends that you submit your proxy so that your vote will be counted should you later decide not to attend the meeting. In addition, please note that if your shares are held in street name and you wish to vote in person at the special meeting, you must bring to the special meeting a proxy from the record holder of the shares authorizing you to vote at the special meeting or, if you wish to attend the special meeting without voting in person, you must bring to the special meeting a copy of a brokerage statement reflecting stock ownership as of the record date.

Commonwealth does not expect that any matter other than the proposal to adopt the merger agreement will be brought before the special meeting. If, however, any other matter is properly presented at the special meeting or any properly reconvened meeting following an adjournment or postponement of the special meeting, the persons named as proxies in the proxy card will use their own judgment to determine how to vote your shares.

Revocation of Proxies

You may revoke your proxy at any time prior to the time the vote is taken at the special meeting. To revoke your proxy, you must either submit a signed notice of revocation to Commonwealth's Corporate Secretary at the address set forth on page [●], submit a later-dated proxy or attend the special meeting and vote your shares in person. Attendance at the special meeting does not by itself constitute revocation of a proxy. If your shares are held in street name or in Commonwealth's 401(k) plan, you may change your vote by submitting new voting instructions to your broker or the plan trustee, as applicable, in accordance with the procedures established by it. Please contact your broker or the plan trustee, as applicable, and follow its directions in order to change your vote or revoke your proxy.

Solicitation of Proxies

Commonwealth and Citizens will each pay one-half of the fees and expenses, other than attorneys' and accounting fees and expenses, incurred in relation to the printing, filing and distribution of this proxy statement/prospectus and the proxy cards to Commonwealth shareholders. Copies of solicitation materials will be furnished to banks, brokerage houses, fiduciaries and custodians holding in their names shares of Commonwealth common stock beneficially owned by others to forward to such beneficial owners. Persons representing beneficial owners of Commonwealth common stock may be reimbursed for their costs of forwarding solicitation materials to such beneficial owners. In addition to soliciting proxies by mail, directors, officers or employees of Commonwealth and Citizens may solicit proxies personally and by telephone, email or otherwise. None of these persons will receive additional or special compensation for soliciting proxies.

Commonwealth has retained D.F. King & Co., Inc. to assist in the solicitation of proxies for the special meeting and to verify the records relating to the solicitations. D.F. King & Co., Inc. will be paid a retainer fee of $14,000 and additional fees based upon actual services provided, plus reimbursement of its out-of-pocket expenses.

THE MERGER

Background to the Merger

In February 2006, at the request of its board of directors, senior management of Commonwealth began to undertake a review of the long-term strategic plan of the company.

In connection with this review, on April 18, 2006 and April 19, 2006, senior management of Commonwealth met with representatives of several investment banks, including Evercore, to discuss strategic options for the company.

On May 18, 2006, at a meeting of the board of directors of Commonwealth, Mr. Michael J. Mahoney, the president and chief executive officer of Commonwealth, made a presentation on the strategic direction of the company. Mr. Mahoney reviewed with the board, among other things, the organization and performance of various operating groups, the operating strategies being considered by such groups and the potential impact such strategies may have on the financial results and share price of the company. He also updated the board on recent RLEC industry trends pertaining to, among other things, the competitive landscape and consolidation and discussed with the board various strategic alternatives available to the company. Mr. Mahoney recommended that the company engage a financial advisor to explore and evaluate potential strategic opportunities. The board unanimously agreed with Mr. Mahoney's recommendation and authorized senior management to engage a financial advisor in connection with its strategic evaluation of the business.

On May 23, 2006, Mr. Mahoney met with representatives of Evercore to discuss strategic opportunities for Commonwealth and the possible retention of Evercore as Commonwealth's financial advisor.

On June 7, 2006, Mr. Mahoney contacted representatives of Evercore to inform them that Commonwealth intended to engage Evercore as Commonwealth's financial advisor in connection with its review of strategic opportunities, subject to review of such engagement with the board.

Between June 15, 2006 and June 19, 2006, representatives of Commonwealth or Evercore contacted Citizens and three other companies that were considered likely to be interested in a strategic acquisition of Commonwealth and able to offer the highest value due to, among other things, expected synergies.

On June 21, 2006, at a telephonic meeting of the board of directors of Commonwealth, Mr. Mahoney reviewed with the board the proposed engagement of Evercore as financial advisor. It was noted that one of the company's directors, Mr. John R. Birk, is a member of the board and chairman of a company controlled by private equity funds affiliated with Evercore Partners Inc. (EVR), the parent entity of Evercore, and has from time to time served as a consultant to such funds. It was further noted that as a result of his relationship to these EVR affiliated funds, Mr. Birk is afforded an opportunity to invest in, and co-invest with, such funds. After giving the directors the opportunity to ask questions, Mr. Birk excused himself from the meeting. The directors then discussed any potential conflict of interest issues, and following those discussions, the board approved the engagement of Evercore as Commonwealth's financial advisor. Over the next few weeks, Commonwealth and Evercore finalized the terms of the engagement and subsequently entered into a letter of engagement dated July 12, 2006.

Following the board meeting on June 21, 2006 and over the following weeks, representatives of Commonwealth and Evercore had numerous meetings, telephone conferences and other correspondence with representatives of Citizens and two of the other companies that had been contacted (referred to below as Party X and Party Y) and their respective advisors. The fourth company that had been contacted by representatives of Evercore indicated that it was not interested in pursuing a transaction at the time.

During this period each of Citizens, Party X and Party Y (each of which is referred to as a bidder or a potential bidder) entered into a confidentiality agreement with Commonwealth, and thereafter each began a due diligence investigation of Commonwealth. As part of this process, senior management of Commonwealth held management presentations for representatives of Party X, Citizens and Party Y on July 13, 2006, July 14, 2006 and July 24, 2006, respectively. Commonwealth also made available to each potential bidder due diligence information and materials through an electronic data room and other means.

Each potential bidder was invited to submit a preliminary indication of interest to acquire Commonwealth on July 31, 2006. The deadline for submission by Party Y was extended to August 7, 2006 due to Party Y's late involvement in the process.

On July 27, 2006, at a regular meeting of the board of directors of Citizens, management of Citizens apprised the board of the potential transaction with Commonwealth. The board of directors of Citizens authorized management to continue its evaluation of the transaction.

On July 31, 2006, Citizens submitted a preliminary indication of interest to acquire Commonwealth for consideration payable 50% in cash and 50% in Citizens' common stock. On the same day, Party X submitted a preliminary indication of interest to acquire Commonwealth payable partly in cash and partly in Party X's common stock.

On August 2, 2006, on behalf of Commonwealth, Evercore sent a letter to each of Citizens and Party X, inviting each such party to submit a binding offer for the acquisition of 100% of the shares of Commonwealth on August 23, 2006 (which deadline was subsequently extended to September 8, 2006). The letter stated that Commonwealth had a strong preference that the stock component (if any) of the consideration be valued at the time of closing. The letter also set forth other guidelines for the bid submission.

On August 7, 2006, Party Y submitted a preliminary indication of interest to acquire Commonwealth in an all-cash transaction. On August 9, 2006, on behalf of Commonwealth, Evercore sent a letter to Party Y inviting Party Y to submit a binding offer for the acquisition of 100% of the shares of Commonwealth on September 8, 2006.

On August 9, 2006, at a meeting of the board of directors of Commonwealth, Mr. Mahoney updated the board on various developments in the strategic process since the last board meeting, including the identities of potential bidders and the terms of their respective preliminary indications of interest. At an executive session among the independent directors, the independent directors discussed certain benefits arrangements that had been discussed by the Compensation/Pension Committee of the board (the Compensation Committee), namely, a change in control agreement for Mr. Mahoney, a severance plan for certain key executives and an amendment of the performance-based restricted stock unit agreements. In addition, the independent directors discussed putting in place a cash bonus pool that could be awarded to selected employees at the board's sole discretion, including for their contributions to the strategic process. The independent directors agreed that these benefit arrangements were appropriate given the current strategic direction of Commonwealth.

In early August 2006, Commonwealth provided a form of merger agreement to each potential bidder relating to the proposed transaction. The same form of merger agreement, providing for a cash/stock transaction, was sent to each of Citizens and Party X. A second form of merger agreement, providing for an all-cash transaction, was sent to Party Y. Each potential bidder was asked to submit, together with its bid, a markup of the merger agreement in a form that such bidder would be prepared to execute. Each potential bidder was encouraged to discuss potential contract issues with representatives of Davis Polk & Wardwell, legal counsel of Commonwealth, prior to the submission of its bid.

Prior to their bid submissions, Citizens and Party Y and/or their respective legal counsel engaged in discussions with representatives of Davis Polk & Wardwell on the form of merger agreement. In addition to oral discussions, Citizens submitted a written markup of the merger agreement on August 28, 2006 and, following discussions between Davis Polk & Wardwell and Cravath, Swaine & Moore LLP, legal counsel to Citizens,

Citizens submitted a revised version of the markup with its bid on September 8, 2006. Party Y submitted a written markup of the merger agreement on September 6, 2006 and a revised version of the markup on September 8, 2006.

Prior to its bid submission, Party X did not initiate any oral discussions on, or submit a written markup of, the form of merger agreement.

Each potential bidder continued to conduct due diligence on Commonwealth during the period prior to submission of bids on September 8, 2006. In response to requests by potential bidders, Commonwealth provided additional due diligence materials and arranged site visits and meetings with its key personnel.

In early August 2006, Commonwealth and its financial advisor and legal counsel began conducting a reverse due diligence investigation of each of Citizens and Party X. An initial due diligence request list was sent to each of Citizens and Party X, requesting that Commonwealth be provided with various information and materials. Commonwealth also requested that meetings be arranged between senior management of Commonwealth and senior management of Citizens and Party X, respectively.

On August 23, 2006, senior management of Commonwealth and Commonwealth's financial advisor and legal counsel attended a management presentation held by senior management of Party X. Several days after this management presentation, during which senior management of Commonwealth stated a preference for an all-cash transaction, representatives of Party X called to inform Commonwealth that they intended to submit an all-cash offer. The form of merger agreement providing for an all-cash transaction was sent to Party X.

On August 25, 2006, the board of directors of Citizens had a meeting during which the board was advised of the continuing discussions regarding the potential acquisition of Commonwealth. The representative of Cravath, Swaine & Moore LLP reviewed with the directors their fiduciary duties. The board then explored with management and representatives of Citigroup, financial advisor to Citizens, the strategic rationale for an acquisition of Commonwealth, potential valuation ranges for a transaction and a plan for moving forward with mutual due diligence and negotiations. At the conclusion of the meeting, the board expressed support for continuing discussions regarding a potential acquisition of Commonwealth.

On September 6, 2006, senior management of Commonwealth and Commonwealth's financial advisor and legal counsel attended a management presentation held by senior management of Citizens. During August and September 2006, Commonwealth and its financial advisor and legal counsel reviewed publicly available information regarding Citizens, materials provided by Citizens in response to Commonwealth's initial due diligence request and other materials provided by Citizens in response to Commonwealth's follow-up due diligence requests.

On September 7, 2006 and September 8, 2006, representatives of Evercore received unsolicited phone calls from representatives of another investment bank, who sought to determine whether Evercore was representing Commonwealth in a strategic process and indicated that their client (referred to as Party Z below) might be interested in a potential transaction with Commonwealth.

At the September 7, 2006 meeting of the board of directors of Citizens, management of Citizens reviewed with the board the status of the discussions with Commonwealth and its advisors, including the terms of the potential transaction, the timing considerations and the results of the due diligence conducted on Commonwealth. Management of Citizens and representatives of Citigroup also reviewed business and financial information regarding Commonwealth and strategic and operational considerations relating to the potential transaction. Following discussion, the board authorized management to proceed with an offer to acquire Commonwealth.

On September 8, 2006, Commonwealth received three bids to acquire the company. Citizens submitted an offer to acquire Commonwealth for per share consideration consisting of $30.75 in cash and 0.758 shares of Citizens common stock. Based on the closing price of Citizens common stock on September 8, 2006 of $13.53, Citizens offer had a value of $41.00 per share. Citizens offer was accompanied by a copy of its financing commitment letter. Party X and Party Y each submitted an all-cash bid to acquire Commonwealth.

Commonwealth's senior management and representatives of its financial advisor and legal counsel evaluated the terms and conditions of each bid. Among other things, they considered the type of consideration being offered by each bidder, the fact that Citizens bid included a stock component at a fixed exchange ratio and the changes proposed by the markups of the merger agreement.

Over the following three days, representatives of Commonwealth senior management and Evercore engaged in discussions with representatives of each bidder or their financial advisors to discuss their respective offers, and representatives of Davis Polk & Wardwell contacted the legal counsel for Party X to discuss certain contract issues raised by Party X's markup of the merger agreement.

On September 11, 2006, The Wall Street Journal reported that Commonwealth was engaged in an auction process. On the same day, Commonwealth issued a press release announcing that it had retained Evercore as its financial advisor in connection with a review of strategic opportunities.

On September 11, 2006, prior to the board meeting referred to in the following paragraph, Party Y's financial advisor contacted Evercore on behalf of Party Y and orally increased Party Y's offer to acquire Commonwealth.

On September 11, 2006, a meeting of the board of directors of Commonwealth was held to discuss the status of the strategic review process. At the meeting, Mr. Mahoney reviewed with the board the history of the process undertaken by the company to explore its strategic opportunities and gave a brief overview of the three bids received. Representatives of Davis Polk & Wardwell gave a presentation on the fiduciary duties of the directors. Representatives of Evercore gave a financial presentation, including an analysis of the relative financial terms of the bids received on September 8, 2006, the status of ongoing discussions with the bidders and the revised offer received from Party Y on September 11, 2006. Representatives of Davis Polk & Wardwell gave a presentation on key contract issues raised by the bidders' respective markups of the form of merger agreement. Following discussion, the board of directors of Commonwealth directed management to continue the process of clarifying the bids.

Over the next three days, representatives of Commonwealth senior management and Evercore continued to have conversations with representatives of senior management or the financial advisors of each bidder, and representatives of Davis Polk & Wardwell continued to have conversations with representatives of Cravath, Swaine & Moore LLP, Citizens' legal counsel. During the discussions between representatives of Evercore and Citigroup, Citizens' financial advisor, representatives of Evercore reiterated the request that Citizens provide value protection with respect to the stock portion of the consideration being proposed by Citizens. Representatives of Citigroup indicated a reluctance on the part of Citizens to do so.

On September 12, 2006, representatives of Commonwealth and Citizens and their respective legal counsel discussed certain contract issues raised by Citizens' markup of the merger agreement, and representatives of Evercore and Citigroup discussed a possible revised offer with a value of $41.50 per share.

On September 12, 2006, Evercore received an unsolicited letter from Party Z indicating a per share price (which was lower than Citizens' then outstanding offer) Party Z believed it would be able to offer to acquire Commonwealth in an all-cash transaction. Party Z also indicated that it would be willing to include a large stock component to the extent desired by Commonwealth. This nonbinding expression of interest indicated that it was subject to a number of conditions, including completion by Party Z of its due diligence investigation of Commonwealth.

On the evening of September 12, 2006, Mr. Mahoney spoke with the chief executive officer of Party Y regarding the possibility of a further improved offer from Party Y. The next morning, Party Y again increased its offer to acquire Commonwealth and indicated that this was its best and final offer.

On September 13, 2006, following a series of discussions, Citigroup orally informed representatives of Evercore that Citizens would increase its offer to acquire Commonwealth. On the evening of September 13, 2006, Commonwealth received a letter from Citizens that set forth a revised offer to acquire Commonwealth for per share consideration consisting of $31.31 in cash and 0.7571 shares of Citizens common stock, which had a total value of $41.75 per share based on Citizens closing share price of $13.79 on September 13, 2006 and a total value of $41.60 per share based on the average closing price of Citizens common stock during the 20 trading day period ended on September 13, 2006. The letter was accompanied by a revised markup of the merger agreement and a copy of Citizens revised financing commitment letter.

Commonwealth's senior management and its financial advisor and legal counsel discussed and evaluated the terms and conditions of Citizens revised offer, including in comparison to the offer submitted by Citizens on September 8, 2006 and the offers received from the other bidders and the unsolicited letter of interest. Specifically, it was noted that Citizens offers of September 8, 2006 and September 13, 2006 valued Citizens common stock at different prices the September 8 offer valued Citizens common stock at $13.53, which was equal both to the closing price on September 8 and to the average closing share price during the 20 trading day period ended on September 8, while the September 13 offer valued Citizens common stock at $13.79 per share, which was the closing price on September 13 but was $0.01 below the highest closing share price during the 20 trading day period ended on September 13. A decision was made to ask Citizens to revise the fixed exchange ratio of the stock component of its offer, which Commonwealth believed should be based on the average closing price of Citizens common stock during the 20 trading day period ended on September 13. Representatives of Evercore contacted representatives of Citigroup and communicated this request. Phone calls were exchanged among financial advisors and legal counsel of Commonwealth and Citizens to discuss this issue and certain other issues.

On the morning of September 14, 2006, Citizens financial advisor indicated that Citizens would be willing to revise its offer as requested by Commonwealth if Citizens proposed changes to the termination rights, termination fee and no shop provisions of the merger agreement were acceptable to Commonwealth. Legal counsel of Commonwealth and Citizens proceeded to discuss provisions of the merger agreement relating to Commonwealth's ability to terminate the merger agreement in favor of a superior proposal, the circumstances under which a termination fee would be payable by Commonwealth, the amount of termination fee and other relevant matters. Following such discussions, in which the respective legal counsel reached preliminary agreement on certain contract issues, Citizens revised its offer to acquire Commonwealth to an offer at a per share consideration consisting of $31.31 in cash and 0.768 shares of Citizens common stock, for a total value of $41.75 based on Citizens average closing price of $13.59 during the 20 trading day period ended on September 13, 2006.

Later on the morning of September 14, 2006, a meeting of the board of directors of Commonwealth was held to discuss the status of the strategic review process. Mr. Mahoney reported to the board that Commonwealth received an unsolicited letter of interest from Party Z to acquire Commonwealth, subject to due diligence, in an all-cash transaction and that since the last board meeting senior management of Commonwealth and representatives of Evercore and Davis Polk & Wardwell had had several conversations with Citizens and the other bidders and their advisors. Representatives of Davis Polk & Wardwell reviewed with the directors their fiduciary duties. Representatives of Evercore reviewed with the board the proposed terms of Party Z's letter of interest and gave a presentation on the financial analysis of a potential transaction with Party Z, including the pro forma leverage ratios of the combined company at various acquisition prices and the mix of cash/stock consideration at various leverage ratios. Representatives of Evercore updated the board on their discussions with each of the three original bidders since the last board meeting, including the terms of the revised offers from Citizens and Party Y and the fact that Party X had not revised its offer. Representatives of Davis Polk & Wardwell then updated the board on their discussions with Citizens' legal counsel on certain contract issues, including their preliminary agreement on the no-shop provisions and termination provisions in light of Citizens' revised offer. Representatives of Evercore noted the fact that Party Z's price was below that offered by Citizens, that Party Z's proposed acquisition of Commonwealth would result in a highly leveraged combined company and that it would likely take several weeks for Party Z to conduct its due diligence, negotiate a merger agreement and obtain committed financing for the transaction. The board of directors of Commonwealth also discussed the potential risk that the high leverage of the combined company could present significant risk in obtaining required regulatory approvals. At the conclusion of the meeting, Commonwealth's senior management recommended to the board that Commonwealth proceed to negotiate a definitive merger agreement and related documentation with Citizens. The board directed senior management to do so.

Between September 14, 2006 and September 17, 2006, Commonwealth and Citizens and their respective advisors continued to negotiate the terms of the merger agreement and related documentation.

On September 16, 2006, a meeting of the board of directors of Citizens was held to consider the proposed transaction. At the meeting, the management updated the board on the status of the negotiations and presented again the operational and financial case for the proposed acquisition. The meeting also included presentations by Citizens' legal counsel and financial advisor. After further discussion, the board of directors voted to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

On September 16, 2006, a meeting of the board of directors of Commonwealth was held to consider the proposed transaction with Citizens. Mr. Mahoney reported to the board the status of negotiation of a definitive merger agreement between Commonwealth and Citizens and informed the board that Citizens' board of directors had approved the proposed transaction. Representatives of Davis Polk & Wardwell gave a presentation with respect to the fiduciary duties of the board. Mr. Mahoney led a discussion on various change of control arrangements contemplated in connection with the proposed transaction. Representatives of Evercore informed the board that over the past few days they were approached by two entities inquiring about the possibility of a strategic transaction with Commonwealth, but that neither of those inquiries resulted in substantive discussions or a specific proposal. Representatives of Evercore reviewed for the board its financial analysis of the proposed transaction and stated that, if requested by the board, on and as of that date Evercore was prepared to render an opinion to the board that, based upon and subject to the assumptions made, matters considered and limits of Evercore's review (which were described to the board), the merger consideration to be received by holders of common stock of Commonwealth pursuant to the merger agreement with Citizens is fair, from a financial point of view, to such shareholders. Representative of Davis Polk & Wardwell reviewed for the board the terms and conditions of the proposed merger agreement. The board considered and discussed the proposed terms and conditions of the transaction with Citizens and various factors relevant to whether Commonwealth should engage in that transaction. Thereafter, the board agreed to reconvene the next morning.

Immediately following the September 16, 2006 meeting of the board of directors of Commonwealth, a meeting of the Compensation Committee of the board of directors of Commonwealth was held. At that meeting, the Compensation Committee approved certain change in control and compensation arrangements contemplated in connection with the proposed transaction.

On September 17, 2006, a meeting of the board of directors of Commonwealth was held to consider the proposed transaction with Citizens. Representatives of Davis Polk & Wardwell advised the board of its fiduciary duties. At the request of the board, representatives of Evercore rendered to the board Evercore's oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing dated September 17, 2006, that as of September 17, 2006, based upon and subject to the assumptions made, matters considered and limits of Evercore's review, the merger consideration to be received by holders of common stock of Commonwealth pursuant to the merger agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. Following consideration and discussion of the proposed terms and conditions of the merger agreement, and after considering a number of factors, including those set forth under "Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Commonwealth Board of Directors," the board approved the merger agreement and determined that the merger agreement and the merger are advisable and in the best interests of Commonwealth shareholders.

Later that day, Commonwealth and Citizens executed and delivered the merger agreement and the related schedules.

On the morning of September 18, 2006, Commonwealth and Citizens issued a joint press release announcing the signing of the merger agreement.

Reasons for the Merger and Recommendation of the Commonwealth Board of Directors

The board of directors of Commonwealth consulted with Commonwealth's senior management and its financial advisor and legal counsel in reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and the merger and to recommend that Commonwealth shareholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

In reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and the merger, and to recommend that Commonwealth shareholders vote to adopt the merger agreement, the board of directors of Commonwealth considered a number of factors, including the following:

the familiarity of the board of directors with, and presentations by Commonwealth's senior management regarding, the business, operations, financial condition, competitive position, business strategy and growth opportunities and prospects of Commonwealth (as well as the risks involved in achieving those opportunities and prospects);

the short-term and long-term risks of Commonwealth remaining independent, particularly in light of the increasing competition Commonwealth is facing;

limitations set forth in the opinion, the merger consideration to be received by Commonwealth shareholders pursuant to the merger agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to such shareholders;

the results of financial, legal and operational due diligence on Citizens performed by Commonwealth's senior management and its financial advisor and legal counsel, including Citizens' historical share price performance;

the pros and cons of the merger consideration consisting of both cash and Citizens common stock, including the fact that:

the stock component of the merger consideration permits Commonwealth shareholders to participate in any future increases or decreases in the value of the combined company through ownership of Citizens common stock (including as a result of the expected synergies from the merger being realized or not being realized);

the stock component of the merger consideration is at a fixed exchange ratio, and therefore its value may fluctuate between the date of the merger agreement and the closing;

Citizens had been unwilling to provide value protection on the stock component of the merger consideration, but had increased the cash portion of the merger consideration and the exchange ratio for the stock portion of the merger consideration;

subject to limited exceptions, the merger agreement does not restrict the operation of Citizens' business between signing and closing, and therefore Commonwealth has limited ability to influence decisions during this period that could affect the value of the stock component of the merger consideration; and the merger will be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes, and therefore Commonwealth shareholders will not receive any portion of the merger consideration on a tax-free basis;

Commonwealth's senior management and Evercore had conducted a strategic review process where:

four entities that were considered most likely to be interested in an acquisition of Commonwealth and most likely to offer the highest value (due to, among other things, expected synergies) were identified and invited to submit bids to acquire Commonwealth;

Commonwealth received multiple bids and revisions of bids;

Commonwealth believed that it had obtained the highest consideration the various bidders, including Citizens, were prepared to offer;

the financial and other terms of the final offer of each of the three bidders that submitted final bids and the terms of the letter of interest received on an unsolicited basis, and the fact that the Citizens offer provided for the highest per share value of the four;

although Commonwealth received several unsolicited inquiries and one unsolicited written letter of interest in acquiring Commonwealth following the article in The Wall Street Journal relating to Commonwealth's strategic review process and Commonwealth's issuance of a press release announcing that it had retained Evercore as financial advisor:

other than the one unsolicited letter of interest, none of these inquiries resulted in substantive discussions or a specific proposal;

the proposal in the unsolicited letter of interest was at a lower valuation than the Citizens offer and presented a number of issues, including the fact that the combined company would be highly leveraged which, among other things, would significantly increase the risk that required regulatory approvals would not be obtained; and to pursue an alternative transaction would result in significant delays in order to allow a potential buyer to conduct due diligence, obtain financing and negotiate a merger agreement; this delay would jeopardize Commonwealth's ability to enter into an agreement with respect to the Citizens offer, which the board viewed as attractive, and there was no indication that pursuing such an alternative transaction would lead to a proposal with greater value or certainty of completion than the Citizens offer;

the terms of the merger agreement regarding Commonwealth's ability, under certain circumstances and subject to certain conditions more fully described under "The Merger Agreement - No Solicitation," to furnish information to and conduct negotiations with third parties regarding other proposals, including:

Commonwealth is permitted to furnish nonpublic information to and enter into discussions or negotiations with a third party in connection with an unsolicited proposal for an acquisition of Commonwealth if, in either case, the board determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisors, that to disclose such information or engage in such discussions or negotiations would be reasonably likely to result in a superior proposal;

the board of directors of Commonwealth may, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisors, withdraw or modify in a manner adverse to Citizens its recommendation in favor of the merger or recommend another acquisition proposal if a superior proposal is pending and Citizens has been given five business days to match such superior proposal;

the board of directors of Commonwealth may, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisors, withdraw or modify in a manner adverse to Citizens its recommendation in favor of the merger if it determines in good faith that a material adverse effect on Citizens has occurred and that the taking of such action is consistent with the directors' fiduciary duties under applicable law; and except as set forth in the preceding two sub-bullet points, the board of directors of Commonwealth is not permitted to withdraw or modify in a manner adverse to Citizens its recommendation in favor of the merger;

the terms of the merger agreement regarding the circumstances under which a termination fee is payable by Commonwealth and the amount of that termination fee ($37 million);

the other terms of the merger agreement, including the conditions to closing and the circumstances under which each party has the right to terminate the merger agreement;

the likelihood and timing of the receipt of required regulatory approvals for the merger and the completion of the merger;

the financing commitment obtained by Citizens and the fact that the closing is not conditioned upon the receipt of financing by Citizens;

certain interests of Commonwealth's directors and executive officers that may be different from their interests as Commonwealth shareholders, as more fully described in "Interests of Commonwealth Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger;" and the impact the merger may have on other constituents of Commonwealth, including employees and customers of Commonwealth and the communities in which Commonwealth and its subsidiaries operate.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the board of directors of Commonwealth is not exhaustive. In view of the wide variety of factors, both positive and negative, considered by the board of directors of Commonwealth, the board did not consider it practical to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise seek to assign relative weights to the specific factors that it considered in reaching its determination that the merger agreement and the merger are advisable and in the best interests of Commonwealth shareholders. Rather, the board of directors of Commonwealth viewed its determinations as being based upon the judgment of its members, in light of the totality of the information presented and considered, including the knowledge of such directors of Commonwealth's business, financial condition and prospects and the advice of its financial advisor and legal counsel. In considering the factors described above, individual members of the board of directors of Commonwealth may have given different weights to different factors and may have applied different analyses to each of the material factors considered by the Commonwealth board of directors.

After careful consideration, the board of directors of Commonwealth has determined that the merger agreement and the merger are advisable and in the best interests of Commonwealth shareholders, has approved the merger agreement and the merger and recommends that Commonwealth shareholders vote FOR the adoption of the merger agreement.

Opinion of Evercore Group L.L.C.

In July 2006, Commonwealth engaged Evercore to act as its financial advisor in connection with a review of its strategic opportunities. At a meeting of the board of directors of Commonwealth on September 16, 2006, Evercore presented to the board Evercore's financial analyses with respect to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the proposed merger consideration to Commonwealth shareholders. In the course of this presentation, the members of the board were reminded or informed of the material assumptions that Evercore made in carrying out its analyses, the matters considered by Evercore and the limits of Evercore's review. At a meeting of the board of directors of Commonwealth on September 17, 2006, Evercore orally rendered its opinion to the board, which oral opinion was subsequently confirmed in writing dated September 17, 2006, that, as of September 17, 2006, based upon and subject to the assumptions made, matters considered and limits of the review undertaken by it, the merger consideration to be received by holders of Commonwealth common stock pursuant to the merger agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

The full text of Evercore's written opinion, dated September 17, 2006, is attached as Annex II to this proxy statement/prospectus. Commonwealth shareholders are encouraged to read Evercore's opinion carefully in its entirety, including the description of the assumptions made, procedures followed, factors considered and limitations upon the review undertaken by Evercore in rendering its opinion. The following is a summary of Evercore's opinion and the methodology that Evercore used to render its opinion. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion.

The type and amount of consideration payable in the merger were determined through negotiations between Commonwealth and Citizens. Evercore's advisory services and opinion were provided for the information and assistance of the board of directors of Commonwealth in connection with its consideration of the merger. Evercore's opinion was limited to a consideration of the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration proposed to be paid to Commonwealth shareholders in the merger, and Evercore was not asked to pass upon, and expressed no opinion with respect to, any other aspect of the proposed merger. Evercore was not requested to opine as to, and Evercore's opinion does not address, Commonwealth's underlying business decision to proceed with or effect the merger.

Evercore's opinion is not intended to be and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Commonwealth as to how such shareholder should vote in connection with the merger.

In arriving at its opinion, Evercore, among other things:

reviewed certain publicly available financial statements and other information relating to Commonwealth and Citizens, respectively;

reviewed certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating information concerning Commonwealth and Citizens, respectively, prepared by the respective managements of Commonwealth and Citizens;

reviewed certain financial forecasts for Commonwealth prepared by management of Commonwealth, which are referred to as the Commonwealth Management Forecasts ; considered 2006 and 2007 revenue and earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization (commonly referred to as EBITDA) targets for Citizens disclosed to Evercore orally by Citizens management and reviewed certain independent research analysts' estimates of future financial performance of Citizens, which are referred to as the Citizens Street Forecasts ;

reviewed the amount and timing of the cost savings and operating synergies estimated by management of Commonwealth and Citizens, respectively, to result from the merger and the associated integration costs;

discussed the past and current operations and financial condition and the prospects of Commonwealth and Citizens with the respective senior management teams of Commonwealth and Citizens;

reviewed the reported prices and trading activity of the Commonwealth common stock and the Citizens common stock;

compared the financial performance of each of Commonwealth and Citizens and the prices and trading activity of the Commonwealth common stock and the Citizens common stock with that of certain other publicly traded rural local exchange carrier companies, referred to as RLECs, and their securities;

reviewed the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of certain RLEC and other business combination transactions that Evercore deemed relevant;

participated in discussions and negotiations among representatives of Commonwealth and Citizens and their financial advisors and legal counsel;

reviewed a draft, dated September 15, 2006, of the merger agreement; and performed such other financial analyses and examinations and considered such other matters as Evercore in its sole judgment deemed appropriate.

In arriving at its opinion, Evercore, with Commonwealth's consent, assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information used by Evercore without assuming any responsibility for independent verification of such information. With respect to the Commonwealth Management Forecasts, Evercore assumed that they were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best then currently available estimates and judgments of the management of Commonwealth as to Commonwealth's future performance. Except for the Citizens management internal revenue and EBITDA targets for 2006 and 2007 and the Citizens management estimates of the amount and timing of anticipated cost savings and operating synergies resulting from the merger, Evercore was not provided with, and did not have access to, any Citizens financial projections prepared by management of Citizens. With respect to the Citizens management internal revenue and EBITDA targets for 2006 and 2007, Evercore assumed that they were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best then currently available estimates and judgments of Citizens management with respect to the projected revenue and EBITDA of Citizens for 2006 and 2007. In the absence of other Citizens financial projections prepared by Citizens' management, Evercore reviewed and discussed the Citizens Street Forecasts with senior management of Commonwealth, and Evercore also discussed the Citizens Street Forecasts for 2006 and 2007, as well as the Citizens management internal revenue and EBITDA targets for 2006 and 2007, with senior management of Citizens, and with Commonwealth's consent, Evercore assumed that the Citizens Street Forecasts and the Citizens management internal revenue and EBITDA targets for 2006 and 2007 were a reasonable basis upon which to evaluate the future financial performance of Citizens, and Evercore used those estimates in performing its analysis. Evercore also assumed that the amount and timing of cost savings and operating synergies estimated to result from the merger by Commonwealth and Citizens management, respectively, were reasonably obtainable, in each case, on bases reflecting the best then currently available estimates and good faith judgments of the future competitive, operating and regulatory environments and related financial performance of each of Commonwealth and Citizens, and Evercore assumed that such estimated cost savings and operating synergies will be realized in the amounts and at the times indicated thereby. Evercore also assumed that the definitive merger agreement would be substantially identical to the September 15, 2006 draft reviewed by Evercore. In arriving at its opinion, Evercore did not make or assume any responsibility for making any independent valuation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of either Commonwealth or Citizens, including real estate assets, nor was Evercore furnished with any such appraisals. Evercore did not evaluate the solvency of Commonwealth or Citizens under any state or federal laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. Evercore also assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals required in connection with the merger will be obtained without any adverse effect on Commonwealth or Citizens or on the expected benefits of the merger in any way meaningful to Evercore's analysis. Evercore also assumed that the merger will be consummated in accordance with the terms set forth in the merger agreement without material modification, waiver or delay. Evercore's opinion was necessarily based upon financial, economic, market and other conditions as they existed on, and the information and draft of the merger agreement available to Evercore, as of the date of its opinion.

In receiving Evercore's opinion on September 17, 2006 and reviewing with Evercore the written materials prepared by Evercore in support of its opinion, the board of directors of Commonwealth was aware of and consented to the assumptions and other matters discussed above.

Evercore's opinion was only one of many factors considered by the board of directors of Commonwealth in its evaluation of the merger and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of the board of directors or management of Commonwealth with respect to the merger or the consideration to be received in accordance with the merger agreement.

Summary of Analyses

The following is a summary of the material analyses performed by Evercore and presented to the board of directors of Commonwealth in connection with rendering its opinion. This summary is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Evercore's written opinion, which is attached as Annex II to this proxy statement/prospectus. You are urged to read the full text of the Evercore opinion carefully in its entirety for the assumptions made, procedures followed, other matters considered and limits of the review by Evercore.

The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. As a result, a fairness opinion is not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Evercore made qualitative judgments as to the significance and relevance of each analysis and factor that it considered. Accordingly, Evercore believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and factors, without considering all analyses and factors, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying its analyses and opinion. In addition, Evercore may have given various analyses and factors more or less weight than other analyses and factors and may have deemed various assumptions more or less probable than other assumptions, so that the ranges of valuations resulting from any particular analysis described above should not be taken to be Evercore's view of the actual value of Commonwealth or Citizens. Furthermore, some of the financial analyses summarized below include summary data and information presented in tabular format. In order to understand fully the financial analyses, the summary data and tables must be read together with the full text of the analyses. The summary data and tables alone are not a complete description of the financial analyses. Considering the summary data and tables alone could create a misleading or incomplete view of Evercore's financial analyses.

In performing its analyses, Evercore made numerous assumptions with respect to risks associated with industry performance, general business and economic conditions and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Commonwealth and/or Citizens. Any estimates contained in Evercore's analyses are not necessarily indicative of future results or actual values, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by such estimates. The analyses performed were prepared solely as part of Evercore's analysis of the fairness from a financial point of view to Commonwealth shareholders of the merger consideration and were prepared in connection with the delivery by Evercore of its opinion to the board of directors of Commonwealth.

When relevant to its analyses, Evercore valued the per share merger consideration at $41.72, based on the closing price on September 15, 2006 of the Citizens common stock. However, the analyses do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which Commonwealth common stock or Citizens common stock might trade following announcement of the merger or the prices at which Citizens common stock might trade following consummation of the merger.

For purposes of conducting its analysis, Evercore relied upon the Citizens Street Forecasts rather than the Citizens management internal revenue and EBITDA targets for 2006 and 2007 because, among other things, Evercore was not provided with the detailed assumptions underlying the Citizens management targets. Evercore did, however, use the Citizens management targets to confirm the reasonableness of the Citizens Street Forecasts.

Historical Share Price Analysis

Evercore considered historical data with regard to the trading prices and total return, and the relative stock price performances of the common stock of each of Commonwealth and Citizens during the period from September 8, 2004 to September 8, 2006, the last trading day before an article concerning Commonwealth's possible strategic transaction appeared in The Wall Street Journal and Commonwealth issued a press release stating that it had retained Evercore as its financial advisor in connection with its review of strategic opportunities. Evercore compared the performance of Commonwealth and Citizens during that period to the Standard & Poor's 500 Index and to an index (based on data provided by Fact Set) composed of the common stock of a number of RLEC companies, including, to the extent public information was available at any given time, Commonwealth, Citizens, Alaska Communications Systems Group, Inc., Consolidated Communications Holdings, Inc., D&E Communications, Inc., Centurytel, Inc., Embarq Corp., FairPoint Communications Inc., Iowa Telecommunications Services Inc., North Pittsburgh Systems Inc., Surewest Communications and Windstream Corp. (the RLEC Index). Over the full two-year period considered, Evercore noted the slight underperformance of Commonwealth common stock in the period reviewed relative to each of the composites considered, and the slight outperformance of Citizens relative to Commonwealth and the RLEC Index, although Commonwealth outperformed during certain sub-periods and Citizens underperformed during certain sub-periods.

For the purposes of certain of its analyses, Evercore valued the per share merger consideration at $41.72, which is equal to the $31.31 cash portion of the merger consideration plus $10.41 (the value of 0.768 of a share of Citizens common stock based on the closing price of the Citizens common stock on September 15, 2006 of $13.55). The table below illustrates the premium implied by the $41.72 per share merger consideration to the historical closing share prices on a series of dates on or prior to September 8, 2006:

Number of Trading Days Prior to September 8, 2006	Closing Price	Premium
0-Days (9/8/2006)	$ 35.60	17.2%
5-Days (9/1/2006)	$ 35.41	17.8%
10-Days (8/25/2006)	$ 34.27	21.7%
20-Days (8/11/2006)	$ 33.96	22.9%
60-Days (6/15/2006)	$ 32.99	26.5%
120-Days (3/21/2006)	$ 32.50	28.4%

Evercore noted that the $41.72 per share merger consideration was approximately 5.3% higher than the highest trading price of Commonwealth stock during the 12-month period ending on September 8, 2006 of $39.63, and 34.2% higher than the lowest trading price during that same period of $31.09.

The foregoing historical share price analysis was presented to the board of directors of Commonwealth to provide it with background information and perspective with respect to the relative historical share prices of Commonwealth and Citizens common stock.

Peer Group Multiples Analysis

In order to assess how the public market values shares of similar publicly traded companies, Evercore, based on its experience with companies in the RLEC industry, reviewed and compared specific financial and operating data relating to Commonwealth and Citizens with selected companies in their peer group that Evercore deemed comparable to Commonwealth and Citizens, consisting of each of the companies included in the RLEC Index. As part of its peer group multiples analysis, Evercore calculated and analyzed various financial multiples, including Commonwealth's, Citizens' and each peer group company's enterprise value to certain projected financial criteria, such as revenue and EBITDA, as well as their price to free cash flow per share. The total enterprise value, commonly referred to as TEV, of each company was obtained by adding its short and long term debt to the sum of the market value of its common equity, the value of any preferred stock (at liquidation value) and the book value of any minority interest, and subtracting its cash and cash equivalents. All of these calculations were performed and based on publicly available financial data (including I/B/E/S International, Inc. estimates and those of other third party equity research firms) and closing share prices on September 15, 2006, the last trading date prior to the delivery of Evercore's opinion, except that in the case of Commonwealth, the calculations were based on the closing share price on September 8, 2006, the last trading day before an article concerning a potential transaction involving Commonwealth appeared in The Wall Street Journal and Commonwealth issued a press release announcing the retention of Evercore. The following table summarizes the analysis:

	TEV/EBITDA
	2007E	Price/FCF 2007E
Commonwealth Management Forecasts ⁽¹⁾	6.2x	10.6x
Commonwealth Independent Analyst Estimates	6.3x	12.0x
Peer Group High	9.2x	28.4x
Peer Group Low	5.4x	9.0x
Peer Group Mean	7.1x	11.8x
Peer Group Median	7.1x	9.7x

- (1) EBITDA adjusted to include a 50% interest in Yellow Book, USA, L.P. Partnership held by Commonwealth, which Commonwealth accounts for under the equity method of accounting.

For Commonwealth, based on Evercore's analysis of TEV as a multiple of projected 2007 EBITDA for the peer group, Evercore selected an EBITDA trading multiple range for 2007 of 6.0x to 8.0x. Based on the projections and assumptions set forth above, the peer group trading analysis of Commonwealth yielded, based on the selected multiples of projected 2007 EBITDA, an implied equity value per Commonwealth share of $34.15 to $46.58, compared to the $41.72 per share merger consideration. Based on Evercore's analysis of share price as a multiple of projected 2007 free cash flow per share for the peer group, Evercore selected a free cash flow trading multiple range for 2007 of 9.0x to 11.0x. Based on the projections and assumptions set forth above, the peer group trading analysis of Commonwealth yielded, based on multiples of projected 2007 free cash flow, an implied price per Commonwealth share of $30.11 to $36.80, compared to the $41.72 per share merger consideration.

For Citizens, based on Evercore's analysis of TEV as a multiple of projected 2007 EBITDA for the peer group, Evercore selected an EBITDA trading multiple range for 2007 of 6.0x to 8.0x. Based on the projections and assumptions set forth above, the peer group trading analysis of Citizens yielded, based on the selected multiples of projected 2007 EBITDA, an implied equity value per Commonwealth share of $9.70 to $16.64, compared to the closing share price on September 15, 2006 of $13.55 per share. Based on Evercore's analysis of share price as a multiple of projected 2007 free cash flow per share for the peer group, Evercore selected a free cash flow trading multiple range for 2007 of 9.0x to 11.0x. Based on the projections and assumptions set forth above, the peer group trading analysis of Citizens yielded, based on the selected multiples of projected 2007 free cash flow, an implied price per Citizens share of $13.35 to $16.31, compared to the closing share price on September 15, 2006 of $13.55 per share.

Evercore selected the comparable peer group companies in the RLEC Index because their businesses and operating profiles are reasonably similar to those of Commonwealth and Citizens. However, because of the inherent differences between the business, operations and prospects of Commonwealth and Citizens and the businesses, operations and prospects of the selected comparable peer group companies, no comparable company is exactly the same as Commonwealth or Citizens. Therefore, Evercore believed that it was inappropriate to, and therefore did not, rely solely on the quantitative results of the peer group multiples analysis. Accordingly, Evercore also made qualitative judgments concerning differences between the financial and operating characteristics and prospects of Commonwealth and Citizens and the companies included in the peer group multiples analysis that would affect the public trading values of each in order to provide a context in which to consider the results of the quantitative analysis. These qualitative judgments related primarily to the differing sizes, growth prospects, profitability levels and degree of operational risk between Commonwealth and Citizens and the companies included in the peer group multiples analysis.

Research Analyst Price Targets

Evercore compared certain recent publicly available research analyst price targets from selected firms that published price targets for Commonwealth and Citizens as of September 15, 2006, the last trading day prior to the delivery of its opinion.

In performing this analysis, Evercore utilized research analyst price targets for Commonwealth from the following firms:

Goldman Sachs

JPMorgan

Lehman Brothers

Morgan Stanley

UBS

Wachovia Securities

Evercore discounted back the price targets published by each of the firms above from their respective target date to their respective report publication dates using an equity cost of capital of 9.0%, which yielded a price per Commonwealth share of $29.69 to $33.03, compared to the $41.72 per share merger consideration.

In performing this analysis, Evercore utilized research analyst price targets for Citizens from the following firms:

Banc of America

Citigroup

Goldman Sachs

Hilliard Lyons

JPMorgan

Lehman Brothers

Merrill Lynch

Morgan Stanley

Raymond James

Stifel Nicolaus

UBS

Evercore discounted back the price targets published by each of the firms above from their respective target dates to their respective report publication dates using an equity cost of capital of 10.0%, which yielded a price per Citizens share of $11.82 to $14.09, compared to the closing share price on September 15, 2006 of $13.55.

Median TEV / Last 12 Months EBITDA Multiple	7.5x	7.6x	7.8x
Mean TEV per Access Line	$ 3,212	$ 3,144	NA
Median TEV per Access Line	$ 3,137	$ 3,199	NA

Based on its valuation analysis of the selected peer group precedent transactions, and taking into consideration the differences that may exist between the above transactions and Commonwealth's proposed merger with Citizens, Evercore selected a TEV to projected 2006 EBITDA multiple range of 6.0x to 7.5x, which yielded an implied equity value per Commonwealth share of $34.76 to $44.41, compared to the $41.72 per share merger consideration.

In addition, Evercore performed a valuation analysis based on separate valuation metrics for the RLEC and CLEC portions of Commonwealth's business. For the RLEC portion, Evercore examined prices paid per access line in the precedent RLEC access line asset transactions, and taking into consideration the differences that may exist between the above transactions and Commonwealth's proposed transaction with Citizens, selected a range of $3,000 to $3,200 per access line. For the CLEC portion, based on its valuation analysis of the selected peer group precedent transactions, and taking into consideration the differences that may exist between the above transactions and Commonwealth's proposed transaction with Citizens, Evercore selected a projected 2006 CLEC EBITDA multiple range of 6.0x to 7.0x. The combination of these two analyses generated an implied equity value per Commonwealth share of $40.98 to $44.10, compared to the $41.72 per share merger consideration.

Evercore notes that the merger and acquisition transaction environment varies over time because of macroeconomic factors such as interest rate and equity market trading price fluctuations and microeconomic factors such as industry results and growth expectations. Evercore also notes that no company or transaction reviewed was identical to the proposed merger and that, accordingly, these analyses involve complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics and other factors that would affect the acquisition values in the precedent transactions, including the size and demographic and economic characteristics of the markets of each company and the competitive environment in which it operates.

Transaction Premium Analysis

Evercore reviewed the premium paid on announced transactions of greater than $100 million in the United States telecom sector from January 1, 2001 to September 15, 2006 (16 transactions), as well as all announced United States transactions between $500 million to $1.5 billion from January 1, 2001 to September 15, 2006 (142 transactions). Evercore calculated the premium per share paid by the acquiror compared to the share price of the target company prevailing (1) one day, (2) one week and (3) four weeks prior to the announcement of the transaction. In considering the transactions in the telecom sector, Evercore considered whether publicity prior to announcement of the transaction had an effect on the stock price immediately prior to announcement, and in cases where there was such an effect, Evercore conducted its analysis based on what it considered to be the unaffected stock price rather than the stock price immediately prior to announcement. This analysis produced the following mean and median premiums and implied equity values for Commonwealth, based on a comparison to Commonwealth's closing share price on September 8, 2006, the last trading day before an article concerning Commonwealth's potential strategic transaction appeared in The Wall Street Journal and Commonwealth issued a press release stating that it had retained Evercore as its financial advisor in connection with its review of strategic opportunities:

Commonwealth Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

As part of its analysis, and in order to estimate the present value of Commonwealth common stock, Evercore prepared a four and a half year discounted cash flow analysis for Commonwealth, calculated as of June 30, 2006, of after-tax unlevered free cash flows for fiscal years 2006 (second half only) through 2010, using both the Commonwealth Management Forecasts and independent analyst estimates.

A discounted cash flow analysis is a traditional valuation methodology used to derive a valuation of an asset by calculating the present value of estimated future cash flows of the asset. Present value refers to the current value of future cash flows or amounts and is obtained by discounting those future cash flows or amounts by a discount rate that takes into account macroeconomic assumptions and estimates of risk, the opportunity cost of capital, expected returns and other appropriate factors. Evercore performed a discounted cash flow analysis for Commonwealth by adding (1) the present value of Commonwealth's projected after-tax unlevered free cash flows for fiscal years 2006 (second half only) through 2010 to (2) the present value of the terminal value of

Commonwealth as of 2010. Terminal value refers to the value of all future cash flows from an asset at a particular point in time.

Evercore estimated a range of terminal values in 2010 calculated based on selected perpetuity growth rates of (0.5%) to 0.5%. Evercore discounted the unlevered free cash flow streams and the estimated terminal value to a present value at a discount rate range of 7.0% to 8.0%. The discount rate utilized in this analysis was chosen by Evercore based on its expertise and experience with the RLEC industry and also on an analysis of the weighted average cost of capital of Commonwealth and other comparable companies. Evercore calculated per share equity values by first determining a range of enterprise values of Commonwealth by adding the present values of the after-tax unlevered free cash flows and terminal values for each perpetuity growth rate scenario, and then subtracting from the enterprise values the net debt (which is total debt minus cash) of Commonwealth, and dividing those amounts by the number of fully diluted shares of Commonwealth.

Based on the projections and assumptions set forth above (and using the midpoint of the discount rate range), the discounted cash flow analysis of Commonwealth yielded an implied valuation range of Commonwealth common stock of $33.16 to $37.81 per share when using the Commonwealth Management Forecasts and an implied valuation range of Commonwealth common stock of $31.46 to $35.95 per share when using independent analyst estimates. Evercore noted that the Commonwealth per share merger consideration of $41.72 was higher than the per share equity valuation range implied by the foregoing analysis.

While discounted cash flow analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, it necessarily relies on numerous assumptions related to future events, including assets, cash flow and earning growth rates, terminal values and discount rates. Accordingly, such information cannot be considered a reliable predictor of future operating results and should not be relied upon as such.

Citizens Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

As part of its analysis, and in order to estimate the present value of Citizens common stock, Evercore also prepared a four and a half year discounted cash flow analysis for Citizens, calculated as of June 30, 2006, of after-tax unlevered free cash flows for fiscal years 2006 (second half only) through 2010. Evercore performed a discounted cash flow analysis for Citizens by adding (1) the present value of Citizens projected after-tax unlevered free cash flows for fiscal years 2006 (second half only) through 2010 to (2) the present value of the terminal value of Citizens as of 2010.

Evercore estimated a range of terminal values in 2010 calculated based on selected perpetuity growth rates of (0.5%) to 0.5%. Evercore discounted the unlevered free cash flow streams and the estimated terminal value to a present value at a discount rate range of 7.0% to 8.0%. The discount rate utilized in this analysis was chosen by Evercore based on its expertise and experience with the RLEC industry and also on an analysis of the weighted average cost of capital of Citizens and other comparable companies. Evercore calculated per share equity values by first determining a range of enterprise values of Citizens by adding the present values of the after-tax unlevered free cash flows and terminal values for each EBITDA terminal multiple and discount rate scenario, and then subtracting from the enterprise values the net debt (which is total debt minus cash) of Citizens, and dividing those amounts by the number of fully diluted shares of Citizens. In addition, Evercore analyzed the net present value of Citizens net operating losses.

Based on the projections and assumptions set forth above (and using the midpoint of the discount rate range), the discounted cash flow analysis of Citizens yielded an implied valuation range of Citizens common stock of $11.95 to $14.36 per share, compared to the closing share price on September 15, 2006 of $13.55.

While discounted cash flow analysis is a widely used valuation methodology, it necessarily relies on numerous assumptions related to future events, including assets, cash flow and earning growth rates, terminal values and discount rates. Accordingly, such information cannot be considered a reliable predictor of future operating results and should not be relied upon as such.

Pro Forma Analysis

In order to evaluate the estimated ongoing impact of the merger, Evercore analyzed the pro forma effect of the merger from the perspective of Commonwealth shareholders, who will receive shares of Citizens common stock in the merger. The pro forma effect analysis was performed in order to assess the impact of the merger on free cash flow per share, leverage and dividends as a percentage of free cash flow. For the purposes of this analysis, Evercore assumed:

a $41.72 per share price for Commonwealth common stock acquired pursuant to the merger;

a $13.55 per share price for Citizens common stock (the closing market price per share on September 15, 2006);

a transaction structure with 75% of the consideration paid in cash and 25% in Citizens common stock;

financial forecasts from Commonwealth management for Commonwealth and from independent analyst forecasts for Citizens;

pre-tax cost savings and synergies from the transaction estimated by management of Commonwealth and Citizens;

the transaction would close on December 31, 2006;

maintenance by Citizens of its current level of dividends per share;

projected balance sheets for Commonwealth and Citizens as of December 31, 2006 supplied by management of Commonwealth and Citizens; and certain other transaction related adjustments that Evercore deemed appropriate.

Evercore estimated that, based on the assumptions described above, (1) the pro forma impact of the transaction on the free cash flow per share of Citizens common stock would be 2.4%, 3.3% and 5.1%, respectively, accretive in each of the first three years following the transaction, (2) pro forma for the transaction, as of June 30, 2006 Citizens' leverage, defined as net debt to EBITDA, would increase to 3.5x from 3.1x on a stand-alone basis and (3) pro forma for the transaction, dividends as a percentage of free cash flow in 2007 and 2008 are expected to be 63% and 67%, respectively, compared to 65% and 69%, respectively, on a stand-alone basis. The financial forecasts that underlie this analysis are subject to substantial uncertainty and, therefore, actual results may be substantially different.

General

Evercore is an internationally recognized investment banking firm and, as part of its investment banking activities, is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive bids, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for corporate and other purposes. The board of directors of Commonwealth selected Evercore because of its expertise, reputation and experience in the RLEC industry generally and because its investment banking professionals have had substantial experience in transactions comparable to the merger.

Edgar Filing: CITIZENS COMMUNICATIONS CO - Form S-4

Under the terms of Evercore's engagement, Commonwealth has agreed to pay Evercore an advisory fee of approximately $11 million, $250,000 of which was payable to Evercore upon its being retained, $2.8 million of which became payable (and was paid) to Evercore when Commonwealth entered into the merger agreement, and the remainder of which is payable when the merger is completed. The amount of the advisory fee may be adjusted depending on the closing price of the Citizens common stock on the closing date of the merger and on the amount of Commonwealth indebtedness on the closing date of the merger. In addition, Commonwealth has agreed to reimburse Evercore for reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the merger and to indemnify Evercore for certain liabilities that may arise out of its engagement by Commonwealth and the rendering of the Evercore's opinion.

Evercore is an indirect subsidiary of EVR, which recently completed an initial public offering of its shares. Mr. John R. Birk, a member of the board of directors of Commonwealth, is a member of the board of directors and chairman of a company controlled by private equity funds affiliated with EVR and has from time to time served as a consultant to those funds. As a result of his relationship with those funds, Mr. Birk is afforded an opportunity to invest in, and co-invest with, these funds, and Mr. Birk was also afforded an opportunity to purchase, and he did purchase, 4,000 shares of EVR stock in EVR's initial public offering. Except as may result indirectly from his ownership of EVR shares, Mr. Birk will not receive any compensation from EVR or its affiliates in connection with Evercore's engagement by Commonwealth.

Interests of Commonwealth Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger

In considering the recommendation of the board of directors of Commonwealth with respect to the merger agreement, you should be aware that Commonwealth's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger and have arrangements that are different from, or in addition to, those of Commonwealth shareholders generally. The board of directors of Commonwealth was aware of these interests and considered them, among other matters, in reaching its decision to approve the merger agreement and the merger and to recommend that Commonwealth shareholders vote in favor of adoption of the merger agreement.

Stock Options. The merger agreement provides that immediately prior to the completion of the merger, each of Commonwealth's compensatory stock options, including those held by Commonwealth's directors and executive officers, that is then outstanding will (whether or not fully vested) be cancelled and converted into the right to receive an amount of cash equal to the product of (1) the excess, if any, of the merger consideration value over an amount equal to the per share exercise price of the stock option multiplied by (2) the number of shares of Commonwealth common stock the holder could have purchased had such holder exercised such option in full immediately prior to the completion of the merger. Merger consideration value means the sum of (x) $31.31, representing the cash portion of the per share merger consideration, and (y) the product of 0.768 and the five-day average closing price of Citizens common stock ending on the second trading day immediately preceding the closing date of the merger. If the closing date of the merger had been October 1, 2006, the aggregate amount of cash to be paid to option holders in connection with the merger would have been $5,041,078, including $2,764,311 to Commonwealth's directors and current named executive officers as follows:

John R. Birk	$ 0

ESPP Share Units. The merger agreement provides that immediately prior to the completion of the merger, each share unit granted or otherwise issued under Commonwealth's Executive Stock Purchase Plan or Deferred Compensation Plan (referred to as an ESPP share unit), all of which ESPP share units are held by Commonwealth's current or former executive officers, that is then outstanding will (whether or not fully vested) be cancelled and converted into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to the merger consideration value. If the closing date of the merger had been October 1, 2006, the aggregate amount of cash to be paid to holders of ESPP share units in connection with the merger would have been $10,964,441, including $7,027,634 to current named executive officers as follows:

Named Executive Officers	Amount
Michael J. Mahoney	$ 4,091,975

Restricted Stock. The merger agreement provides that immediately prior to the completion of the merger, each share of Commonwealth common stock that would then be subject to a risk of forfeiture or other restrictions will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to the merger consideration value. If the closing date of the merger had been October 1, 2006, the aggregate amount of cash to be paid to holders of restricted shares of Commonwealth common stock in connection with the merger would have been $180,777. None of the directors or current named executive officers holds any restricted shares of Commonwealth common stock.

Restricted Share Units. The merger agreement provides that immediately prior to the completion of the merger, each restricted share unit granted or issued under any plan or arrangement of Commonwealth (other than the ESPP share units), including those restricted share units held by Commonwealth's directors and executive officers, that is then outstanding (whether or not fully vested) will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive an amount in cash equal to the merger consideration value. If the closing date of the merger had been October 1, 2006, the aggregate amount of cash to be paid to holders of Commonwealth restricted share units (including share units issuable pursuant to performance awards upon satisfaction of specified conditions) in connection with the merger would have been $22,195,836, including $11,485,302 to directors and current named executive officers as follows:

Non-Employee Directors	Amount
John R. Birk	$ 60,540

Indemnification and Insurance of Directors and Officers. The merger agreement provides that for six years following the completion of the merger, Citizens will indemnify and hold harmless the present and former officers, directors, employees and agents of Commonwealth in respect of acts or omissions occurring prior to the completion of the merger and will promptly advance expenses incurred by such persons in defending any suits in connection therewith, in each case to the fullest extent permitted under applicable law. The merger agreement further provides that, subject to certain limitations, for a period of six years after the completion of the merger, Citizens will use its reasonable best efforts to provide directors and officers liability insurance and fiduciary liability insurance in respect of acts and omissions occurring on or prior to the completion of the merger covering persons currently covered by Commonwealth's directors and officers liability insurance and fiduciary liability insurance, having coverage and in amount no less favorable than those of policies in effect as of September 17, 2006, subject to a cap of $1,487,700 on annual premiums.

Change in Control Bonus Agreement with Michael J. Mahoney. On September 17, 2006, with the approval of the Compensation Committee of the board of directors of Commonwealth, Commonwealth entered into a change in control bonus agreement with Mr. Michael J. Mahoney, Commonwealth's president and chief executive officer. Under the agreement, Mr. Mahoney will, upon the consummation of the merger, be entitled to receive a minimum bonus equal to $1.5 million and a maximum bonus equal to $3 million, such amount to be determined in the sole discretion of the Compensation Committee, based on the value to Commonwealth shareholders achieved by a change of control, such as the merger. The bonus will be payable as a lump sum in cash, so long as Mr. Mahoney's employment has not been previously terminated by Commonwealth with cause and he has not previously terminated his employment other than for good reason (as such terms are used in the agreement). If any payments or benefits made or provided under his agreement would result in Mr. Mahoney being subject to an excise tax under Section 4999 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), he would be entitled to an additional payment sufficient to put him in the same after-tax position as if the excise tax were not due.

Severance Plan. The Compensation Committee has adopted the Commonwealth Telephone Enterprises, Inc. Key Employee Severance Plan (the Severance Plan), which includes certain executive officers of Commonwealth as participants.

If a change in control of Commonwealth occurs, such as the merger, and the participant's employment with Commonwealth (or a successor employer) is terminated without cause or the participant terminates his or her employment for good reason (as such terms are used in the Severance Plan), in either case within one year following the effective date of the change in control, the participant will, in lieu of any other severance benefits, be eligible to receive the following benefits:

a one-time, lump-sum cash payment equal to one year's base salary of the participant in effect immediately prior to the termination; payment of the participant's health care premiums (less employee contributions) for the first 12 months following the termination; and accrued benefits through the date of termination.

The receipt of any such benefits will be conditioned upon the participant's execution of a general release of claims against Commonwealth. If any provision of the Severance Plan would cause a participant to incur any additional tax or interest under Section 409A of the Code, such provision may be reformed. Under the merger agreement, no amendment or termination of the Severance Plan may be made without the consent of the participants for one year following the closing date of the merger. If any payments or benefits made or provided under the Severance Plan would result in a participant being subject to an excise tax under Section 4999 of the Code, he or she would be entitled to an additional payment sufficient to put him or her in the same after-tax position as if the excise tax were not due.

Amendment of Restricted Stock Unit Awards. On September 16, 2006, the Compensation Committee modified the EBITDA levels applicable to the performance-level portion of the awards granted on March 10,

Table of Contents

2006 and May 19, 2006, including those for Ms. Odum and Messrs. Cawley, O Hare and Ostroski, with the effect of lowering the EBITDA levels specified in those awards. Those awards could result in the issuance of up to 82,850 restricted share units. In addition, under the merger agreement, if the closing of the merger occurs prior to December 31, 2006, the Compensation Committee may, in its sole discretion, determine immediately prior to the closing that the performance conditions in the awards are deemed to be fully satisfied, with the restricted stock units issuable pursuant to such awards to be issued immediately prior to closing.

Other Bonuses and Payments. The merger agreement permits Commonwealth to pay bonuses or similar payments to employees, including Commonwealth's executive officers, in an aggregate amount not to exceed $7,200,000, less the aggregate amount of any additional payment relating to Section 4999 of the Code that may be made under the Severance Plan and Mr. Mahoney's change in control bonus agreement. The decision to pay any such bonus would be made by the board of directors of Commonwealth or the Compensation Committee. No decision has been made as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus as to whether or to whom any such bonus will be paid.

The merger agreement provides that if any employee of Commonwealth or its subsidiaries, including any of Commonwealth's executive officers, is terminated without cause or terminates his or her employment for good reason (as each such term is defined in the Severance Plan) after the merger and before December 31, 2007, Citizens will, or will cause the surviving corporation or its other subsidiaries to, pay such employee a cash amount equal to the prorated portion of his or her target 2007 bonus (having terms and in amounts consistent with past practices) based on the number of days elapsed in calendar year 2007 prior to the time of termination.

Relationship between John R. Birk and Evercore. Mr. John R. Birk, one of the directors of Commonwealth, is a member of the board of directors and chairman of a company controlled by private equity funds affiliated with EVR, the parent entity of Evercore, the financial advisor of Commonwealth, and has from time to time served as a consultant to such funds. As a result of his relationship to these EVR affiliated funds, Mr. Birk was afforded an opportunity to invest in, and co-invest with, such funds, and Mr. Birk was also afforded an opportunity to purchase, and he did purchase 4,000 shares of EVR stock in EVR's initial public offering. Except as may result indirectly from his ownership of shares of EVR stock, Mr. Birk will not receive any compensation from EVR or its affiliates in connection with Commonwealth's engagement of Evercore as its financial advisor.

Form of the Merger

Subject to the terms and conditions of the merger agreement and in accordance with Pennsylvania and Delaware law, at the effective time of the merger CF Merger Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of Citizens, will merge with and into Commonwealth. Commonwealth will survive the merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Citizens.

Merger Consideration

At the effective time of the merger, each share of Commonwealth common stock (other than shares owned by Commonwealth, Citizens and CF Merger Corp.) will be converted into the right to receive a combination of $31.31 in cash and 0.768 shares of Citizens common stock. For information regarding the treatment of options, restricted shares and restricted share units, see Treatment of Compensatory Awards.

The merger agreement provides that the merger consideration and any other amounts payable in conjunction with the merger consideration will be adjusted appropriately if, during the period between the date of the merger agreement and the effective time of the merger, the outstanding shares of Commonwealth common stock or Citizens common stock are changed in any way by reason of any reclassification, recapitalization, stock split or combination, exchange or readjustment of shares, or any stock dividend on any such outstanding shares with a record date during such period, or any other similar event.

Ownership of Citizens Following the Merger

Based on the number of shares of Commonwealth common stock and Citizens common stock outstanding on the record date, we anticipate that Commonwealth shareholders will own approximately [●]% of the outstanding shares of Citizens common stock following the merger ([●]% assuming conversion of Commonwealth's outstanding 2003 3-1/4% convertible notes due 2023, which cannot be settled in cash, into shares of Commonwealth common stock in connection with the merger).

Conversion of Shares; Procedures for Exchange of Certificates; Fractional Shares

The conversion of Commonwealth common stock into the right to receive the merger consideration will occur automatically at the effective time of the merger. Within two business days after the completion of the merger, Commonwealth or [●], the exchange agent, will send a letter of transmittal to each holder of record of shares of Commonwealth common stock at the effective time of the merger. The letter of transmittal will contain instructions for obtaining the merger consideration, including the shares of Citizens common stock, the cash portion of the merger consideration and cash for any fractional shares of Citizens common stock, in exchange for shares of Commonwealth common stock. The letter of transmittal will contain instructions for surrendering the certificates representing shares of Commonwealth common stock to the exchange agent and will specify that delivery is effected, and risk of loss and title will pass, only upon proper delivery of those certificates to the exchange agent. Commonwealth shareholders should not return stock certificates with the enclosed proxy.

After the effective time of the merger, each certificate that previously represented shares of Commonwealth common stock will represent only the right to receive the merger consideration as described above and dividends and cash in lieu of fractional shares as described below.

Until holders of certificates previously representing Commonwealth common stock have surrendered those certificates to the exchange agent for exchange, those holders will not receive dividends or distributions on the Citizens common stock into which such shares have been converted with a record date after the effective time of the merger and will not receive cash for any fractional shares of Citizens common stock. When holders surrender such certificates, they will receive any dividends with a record date after the effective time of the merger but prior to the date of surrender and a payment date on or prior to the date of surrender and any cash for fractional shares of Citizens common stock, in each case without interest.

In the event of a transfer of ownership of Commonwealth common stock that is not registered in the transfer records of Commonwealth, payment of the merger consideration as described above will be made to a person other than the person in whose name the certificate so surrendered is registered if:

such certificate is properly endorsed or otherwise is in proper form for transfer; and the person requesting such payment pays to the exchange agent any transfer or other taxes resulting from the payment of the merger consideration as described above to a person other than the registered holder of such certificate or establishes to the satisfaction of the exchange agent that such taxes have been paid or are not due.

No fractional shares of Citizens common stock will be issued to any Commonwealth shareholder upon surrender of certificates previously representing Commonwealth common stock. Each Commonwealth shareholder who would otherwise have been entitled to receive a fraction of a share of Citizens common stock will receive cash in an amount equal to the product obtained by multiplying (1) the fractional share interest to which such holder would otherwise be entitled to by (2) the closing price for a share of Citizens common stock on the closing date of the merger as reported in The Wall Street Journal.

If any certificate representing shares of Commonwealth common stock has been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the person claiming that such certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by the surviving corporation, the posting by such person of a bond, in such reasonable amount as the surviving corporation may direct, as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such certificate, the exchange agent will issue, in exchange for the lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, the merger consideration in respect of the shares of Commonwealth common stock represented by such certificate.

Effective Time of the Merger

The merger will become effective upon the filing of articles of merger with the Department of State of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and a certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware or at such later time as is agreed upon by Citizens and Commonwealth and specified in the articles of merger and the certificate of merger. The filing of the articles of merger and the certificate of merger will occur as soon as practicable on the first business day after satisfaction or waiver of the conditions to the completion of the merger described in the merger agreement.

Stock Exchange Listing of Citizens Common Stock

It is a condition to the completion of the merger that the shares of Citizens common stock issuable to Commonwealth shareholders in the merger have been approved for listing on the New York Stock Exchange, subject to official notice of issuance.

Delisting and Deregistration of Commonwealth Common Stock

If the merger is completed, Commonwealth common stock will be delisted from the Nasdaq National Market and deregistered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), and Commonwealth will no longer file periodic reports with the SEC on account of Commonwealth common stock.

In addition, it does not address any non-income tax or any foreign, state or local tax consequences of the merger. We strongly urge each Commonwealth shareholder to consult his or her own tax advisor to determine the particular United States federal, state or local or foreign income or other tax consequences to him or her of the merger.

Consequences of the Merger to United States Holders

For purposes of this discussion, a United States Holder is a beneficial owner of Commonwealth common stock that is for United States federal income tax purposes:

a citizen or resident of the United States;

a corporation, or other entity taxable as a corporation for United States federal income tax purposes, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or of any political subdivision thereof; or an estate or trust the income of which is subject to United States federal income taxation regardless of its source.

The receipt of the merger consideration by a United States Holder in exchange for shares of Commonwealth common stock pursuant to the merger will be a taxable transaction for United States federal income tax purposes. In general, a United States Holder who receives the merger consideration in exchange for shares of Commonwealth common stock pursuant to the merger will recognize capital gain or loss for United States federal income tax purposes equal to the difference, if any, between (1) the sum of the fair market value of the Citizens common stock as of the effective time of the merger and the cash received and (2) the United States holder's adjusted tax basis in the shares of Commonwealth common stock exchanged for the merger consideration pursuant to the merger. Any gain or loss would be treated as long-term capital gain or loss if the shareholders held the shares of Commonwealth common stock for more than one year. Long-term capital gains of noncorporate taxpayers generally are taxable at a maximum rate of 15%. Capital gains of corporate shareholders generally are taxable at the regular tax rates applicable to corporations. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

A United States Holder's aggregate tax basis in Citizens common stock received in the merger will equal the fair market value of such stock as of the effective time of the merger. The holding period for the Citizens common stock received in the merger will begin on the day after the merger.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Information returns will be filed with the Internal Revenue Service (the IRS) in connection with cash paid and stock delivered pursuant to the merger. Backup withholding may apply to payments made in connection with the merger. Backup withholding will not apply, however, to a shareholder who (1) furnishes a correct taxpayer identification number and certifies that he or she is not subject to backup withholding on the substitute Form W-9 or successor form included in the letter of transmittal to be delivered to shareholders following completion of the merger, (2) provides a certification of foreign status on the applicable Form W-8 (typically Form W-8BEN) or appropriate successor form or (3) is otherwise exempt from backup withholding. Any amount withheld under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a refund or a credit against United States federal income tax liability, provided the required information is furnished to the IRS. The IRS may impose a penalty upon any taxpayer that fails to provide the correct taxpayer identification number.

Regulatory Matters

United States Antitrust. Under the HSR Act and related rules, certain transactions, including the merger, may not be completed until notifications have been given and information furnished to the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission and the specified waiting period requirements have been satisfied. Citizens and Commonwealth filed Notification and Report Forms with the Antitrust Division of the Department of Justice and the Federal Trade Commission on September 29, 2006. On October 6, 2006, the Federal Trade Commission granted early termination of the HSR Act waiting period. At any time before or after the effective time of the merger, the Federal Trade Commission or others (including states and private parties) could take action under the antitrust laws, including seeking to prevent the merger, to rescind the merger or to conditionally approve the merger upon the divestiture of assets of Citizens or Commonwealth. There can be no assurance that a challenge to the merger on antitrust grounds will not be made or, if such a challenge is made, that it will not be successful.

Other Laws. In addition to the regulatory approvals described above, the consent or approval of the FCC and the Pennsylvania PUC will be required to be obtained prior to the effective time of the merger. Pursuant to the merger agreement, on September 29, 2006, Citizens and Commonwealth filed the applications required for the transfer of control of the relevant franchises, licenses and similar instruments issued under the rules and regulations of the FCC and the Pennsylvania PUC.

General. It is possible that any of the governmental entities with which filings are made may seek, as conditions for granting approval of the merger, various regulatory concessions. There can be no assurance that:

Citizens or Commonwealth will be able to satisfy or comply with such conditions;

compliance or non-compliance will not have adverse consequences on Citizens after completion of the merger; or the required regulatory approvals will be obtained within the time frame contemplated by Citizens and Commonwealth and referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus or on terms that will be satisfactory to Citizens and Commonwealth.

See The Merger Agreement Conditions to the Completion of the Merger.

Financing Arrangements

In connection with the merger agreement, Citizens obtained a commitment letter from Citigroup to provide a $990 million senior unsecured bridge loan. Subsequent to the date of the merger agreement, Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (together with Citigroup, the Initial Lenders) became commitment parties under the commitment letter. The Initial Lenders' respective commitments to provide the bridge loan are subject to certain conditions precedent, including the following:

execution and delivery of mutually acceptable loan documentation;

absence of a material adverse effect with respect to Citizens and Commonwealth, taken as a whole, since December 31, 2005;

receipt by the Initial Lenders of certain financial statements and projections of Citizens and Commonwealth; maintenance of a leverage ratio of no greater than 4.5 to 1, after giving pro forma effect to the merger;

absence of outstanding indebtedness with respect to Citizens and Commonwealth, other than certain permitted indebtedness described in the commitment letter;

receipt by the Initial Lenders of customary opinions, certifications and other closing documentation;

payment to the Initial Lenders of customary costs, fees and expenses, as provided under the commitment letter;

receipt by the Initial Lenders of an offering document; and truth and correctness of certain representations and warranties made by Citizens and Commonwealth, as described in the commitment letter.

Table of Contents

The bridge loan will mature in one year and will bear interest at a rate equal to either the Base Rate or the LIBO Rate (each as described in the commitment letter), plus a margin based on Citizens' leverage ratio.

Dissenters' Rights

Under Pennsylvania law, holders of Commonwealth common stock will not be entitled to dissenters' rights in connection with the merger because shares of Commonwealth common stock are traded on the Nasdaq National Market.

Commonwealth Employee Benefits Matters

The merger agreement provides that on and after the effective time of the merger, Citizens will, or will cause the surviving corporation to, honor the obligations of Commonwealth and its subsidiaries under all employee plans of Commonwealth and its subsidiaries in existence as of the closing date of the merger in accordance with their terms. Citizens is not restricted from amending or terminating any such employee plan in accordance with its terms and is not required to offer to continue (other than as required by its terms) any written employment contract or to continue the employment of any employee, except that until the first anniversary of the closing of the merger, Citizens is required to continue Commonwealth's past severance practices and may not amend or terminate the Severance Plan without the consent of participants.

The merger agreement further provides that to the extent any benefit plan of Citizens, the surviving corporation or any other subsidiaries of Citizens is made available to any employee of Commonwealth or its subsidiaries, Citizens will, or will cause the surviving corporation and its other subsidiaries to, (1) grant to such employees credit for service with Commonwealth or its subsidiaries or predecessors for all purposes under such plan, except for purposes of benefit accruals under defined benefit pension plans and except to the extent a duplication of benefits would thereby result, and (2) if such plan is a welfare plan, waive all preexisting condition exclusions and waiting periods, as applicable, except to the extent any such limitations or waiting periods in effect under comparable plans of Commonwealth and its subsidiaries have not been satisfied as of the date the relevant Citizens benefit plan is made applicable to such employee.

If any employee of Commonwealth or its subsidiaries is terminated without cause or terminates his or her employment for good reason (as each such term is defined in the Severance Plan) after the merger and before December 31, 2007, Citizens will, or will cause the surviving corporation or its other subsidiaries to, pay such employee a cash amount equal to the prorated portion of his or her target 2007 bonus (having terms and in amounts consistent with past practices) based on the number of days elapsed in calendar year 2007 prior to the time of termination.

In addition, the merger agreement provides that if the closing of the merger occurs prior to December 31, 2006, the Compensation Committee may, in its sole discretion, determine immediately prior to the closing that the performance conditions in certain performance level awards are deemed to be fully satisfied, with the restricted stock units issuable pursuant to such awards to be issued immediately prior to the closing.

Treatment of Compensatory Awards

Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, each outstanding restricted share and restricted share unit granted or issued under any plan or arrangement of Commonwealth will be cancelled, and Citizens will pay, or cause the surviving corporation in the merger to pay, immediately after the effective time, each holder thereof for each such restricted share or restricted share unit an amount in cash equal to the merger consideration, with Citizens common stock valued using the five-day average closing price ending on the second trading day immediately preceding the date of closing of the merger.

Immediately prior to the effective time of the merger, each outstanding vested or unvested stock option of Commonwealth will be cancelled, and Citizens will pay, or cause the surviving corporation to pay, immediately after the effective time, each holder thereof for each share that could have been purchased upon the exercise of such option, the excess of the cash amount referred to in the preceding paragraph over the exercise price of the option.

See Interests of Commonwealth's Directors and Executive Officers in the Merger.

Resale of Citizens Common Stock

Citizens common stock issued in the merger will not be subject to any restrictions on transfer arising under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the Securities Act), except for shares issued to any Commonwealth shareholder who may be deemed to be an affiliate of Commonwealth or Citizens for purposes of Rule 145 under the Securities Act. It is expected that each such affiliate will agree not to transfer any Citizens common stock received in the merger except in compliance with the resale provisions of Rule 144 or Rule 145 under the Securities Act or as otherwise permitted under the Securities Act. The merger agreement requires Commonwealth to use its reasonable best efforts to cause its affiliates to enter into such agreements. This proxy statement/prospectus does not cover resales of Citizens common stock received by any such person upon completion of the merger, and no person is authorized to make any use of this proxy statement/prospectus in connection with any such resale.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

This is a summary of the material provisions of the merger agreement. The full text of the merger agreement is attached as Annex I to this proxy statement/prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. You should read the merger agreement carefully and in its entirety. The merger agreement has been included to provide shareholders with information regarding its terms. Except for its status as the contractual document that establishes and governs the legal relations among the parties to the merger agreement with respect to the merger, it is not intended to be a source of factual, business or operational information about the parties. The representations, warranties and covenants made by the parties in the merger agreement are qualified as described in the merger agreement. Representations and warranties may be used as a tool to allocate risks among the parties, including where the parties do not have complete knowledge of all facts. Shareholders are generally not third-party beneficiaries under the merger agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties or covenants or any descriptions as characterization of the actual state of facts or condition of Commonwealth, Citizens or CF Merger Corp., or any of their respective affiliates.

the absence of certain change in control and other similar arrangements; and the inapplicability of state antitakeover statutes to the merger, are true and correct in all material respects, in each case, at and as of the effective time of the merger as if made at and as of such time, or if such representations and warranties are made as of a specific date, then at and as of such date;

all the other representations and warranties of Commonwealth contained in the merger agreement are true and correct (disregarding all exceptions for materiality and material adverse effect on Commonwealth) at and as of the effective time of the merger as if made at and as of such time, or if such representations and warranties are made as of a specific date, then at and as of such date, with such exceptions as would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on Commonwealth; and there is no pending or threatened claim, suit, action or proceeding by any federal or state governmental authority under or pursuant to any applicable laws regulating competition:

challenging or seeking to restrain or prohibit the consummation of the merger;

seeking to prohibit or limit in any respect, or place any conditions on, the ownership or operation by Commonwealth, Citizens or any of their respective subsidiaries of all or any portion of the business or assets of Commonwealth, Citizens or any of their respective subsidiaries or to require any such person to divest or hold separate any assets or business of Commonwealth, Citizens or any of their respective subsidiaries, or to take any other action, in each case, as a result of or in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, where the foregoing, individually or in the aggregate, would reasonably be expected to have an impact (whether affecting Commonwealth, Citizens or any of their respective subsidiaries) equivalent to a material adverse effect on Commonwealth; or seeking to impose limitations on the ability of Citizens or any of its affiliates to acquire or hold, or exercise full rights of ownership of, any shares of common stock of Commonwealth or the surviving corporation;

and no applicable law is in effect that would reasonably be expected to result in any of the foregoing effects.

the ownership of shares of Commonwealth common stock by Citizens, CF Merger Corp. or any other subsidiary of Citizens, are true and correct in all material respects, in each case, at and as of the effective time of the merger as if made at and as of such time, or if such representations and warranties are made as of a specific date, then at and as of such date; and all the other representations and warranties of Citizens contained in the merger agreement are true and correct (disregarding all exceptions for materiality and material adverse effect on Citizens) at and as of the effective time of the merger as if made at and as of such time, or if such representations and warranties are made as of a specific date, then at and as of such date, with such exceptions as have not had and would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a material adverse effect on Citizens.

Material Adverse Effect Definition

Certain of the representations and warranties of Commonwealth and Citizens, and certain other provisions in the merger agreement, are qualified by references to a material adverse effect. The merger agreement provides that a material adverse effect means, when used in respect of Commonwealth or Citizens, any effect, event, occurrence, state of facts or development that has a materially adverse effect on the business, assets, liabilities, operations or financial condition of Commonwealth and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, or Citizens and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, as the case may be, excluding any such effect, event, occurrence, state of facts or development resulting from or arising in connection with:

the merger agreement, the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement or the announcement or consummation of them, or the taking of any actions required by the merger agreement;

changes or conditions generally affecting the industries in which Commonwealth operates or the industries in which Citizens operates, as the case may be, to the extent such changes or conditions do not disproportionately impact Commonwealth or Citizens, as the case may be;

general economic or financial markets conditions;

any change in generally accepted accounting principles in the United States;

changes in applicable law to the extent such changes do not disproportionately impact Commonwealth or Citizens, as the case may be;

any failure, in and of itself, by Commonwealth or Citizens, as the case may be, to meet analysts' revenue or earning projections; and any decline, in and of itself, in the price of any publicly traded securities of Commonwealth or Citizens, as the case may be.

No Solicitation

The merger agreement provides that Commonwealth and its subsidiaries, and the officers, directors, employees, investment bankers and other agents and advisors of Commonwealth or any of its subsidiaries, will not:

take any action to solicit, initiate or knowingly encourage or facilitate any acquisition proposal, as described below; or engage in discussions or negotiations with, or disclose any nonpublic information relating to Commonwealth or any of its subsidiaries or afford access to the properties, books or records of Commonwealth or any of its subsidiaries to, any person that is known by Commonwealth to be considering making, or has made, an acquisition proposal, with limited exceptions for certain actions in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice.

The merger agreement provides that the term "acquisition proposal" means any offer or proposal by a third party, other than Citizens or any of its affiliates, for:

any acquisition or purchase, direct or indirect, of 15% or more of the consolidated assets of Commonwealth or over 15% of any class of equity or voting securities of Commonwealth or any of its subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute more than 15% of the consolidated assets of Commonwealth;

any tender offer or exchange offer that, if consummated, would result in the third party beneficially owning 15% or more of any class of equity or voting securities of Commonwealth or any of its subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute more than 15% of the consolidated assets of Commonwealth; or a merger, consolidation, share exchange, business combination, sale of substantially all the assets, reorganization, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or other similar transaction that results in any acquisition of over 15% of any class of equity or voting securities of Commonwealth or any of its subsidiaries whose assets, individually or in the aggregate, constitute more than 15% of the consolidated assets of Commonwealth or, if Commonwealth or any such subsidiary is merged into another entity, of the surviving entity in such merger.

The merger agreement further provides that, notwithstanding the restrictions described above, prior to the time Commonwealth shareholders adopt the merger agreement, Commonwealth may furnish nonpublic information to, or enter into discussions or negotiations with, any person in connection with an unsolicited bona fide written acquisition proposal received from such person if the board of directors of Commonwealth determines in good faith, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisors, that to disclose such information or engage in such discussions or negotiations would be reasonably likely to result in a superior proposal, as described below; provided, however, that:

prior to furnishing nonpublic information to, or entering into discussions or negotiations with, such person, Commonwealth receives from such person an executed confidentiality agreement with terms not materially less favorable to Commonwealth than those contained in the confidentiality agreement between Commonwealth and Citizens, except that such confidentiality agreement may contain less favorable standstill provisions so long as Commonwealth offers Citizens the opportunity to amend the Citizens confidentiality agreement to contain the same standstill provisions; and all such nonpublic information has previously been provided to Citizens or is provided to Citizens on a substantially concurrent basis. The merger agreement provides that the term "superior proposal" means any bona fide written acquisition proposal that involves the acquisition, directly or indirectly, of all or substantially all of the voting power of the Commonwealth common stock or of the assets of Commonwealth and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, that the board of directors of Commonwealth determines in its good faith judgment, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisors, to be:

more favorable and provide greater value to Commonwealth shareholders than the merger agreement and the merger, taken as a whole; and reasonably capable of being completed, taking into account all financial, legal, regulatory and other aspects of such proposal. The merger agreement further provides that neither the board of directors of Commonwealth nor any committee of the board of directors of Commonwealth may:

withdraw, modify in a manner adverse to Citizens, or publicly propose to withdraw or modify in a manner adverse to Citizens, the approval or recommendation by the board of directors of

Commonwealth or any such committee of the merger agreement or the merger, or recommend the approval or adoption of, or approve or adopt, or publicly propose to recommend, approve or adopt, any acquisition proposal (any such action is referred to below as an adverse recommendation change); or approve or recommend, or publicly propose to approve or recommend, or cause or permit Commonwealth or any of its subsidiaries to execute or enter into, any letter of intent, memorandum of understanding, agreement in principle, merger agreement, acquisition agreement, joint venture agreement, partnership agreement or other similar agreement that, in any such case, provides for or is related to an acquisition proposal.

Notwithstanding the above, at any time prior to the time Commonwealth shareholders adopt the merger agreement, the board of directors of Commonwealth may, after consultation with its outside legal counsel and financial advisors:

if a superior proposal is then pending and Commonwealth has complied with the no solicitation provisions described above, make an adverse recommendation change or cause Commonwealth to terminate the merger agreement; or make an adverse recommendation change if the board of directors of Commonwealth determines in good faith that a material adverse effect with respect to Citizens has occurred and, as a result, such action is consistent with the fiduciary duties of the board of directors of Commonwealth under applicable law.

No action described in the first bullet point of the preceding sentence may be taken until after the fifth business day following Citizens receipt of written notice from Commonwealth advising Citizens that the board of directors of Commonwealth intends to take such action and specifying the reasons therefor, including the terms and conditions of the superior proposal that is the basis of such proposed action (it being understood and agreed that any amendment to the financial terms or any other material term of such superior proposal will require a new notice of superior proposal and a new notice period of three business days and in determining whether to take such action, the board of directors of Commonwealth must take into account any changes to the terms of the merger agreement and the merger proposed by Citizens to Commonwealth in response to a notice of superior proposal or otherwise). With respect to the actions described in the second bullet point of the preceding sentence, the board of directors of Commonwealth may not take any such action until the fifth business day (or such shorter period as may be reasonable in light of the timing of the meeting of Commonwealth shareholders) following Citizens receipt of written notice from Commonwealth advising Citizens that the board of directors of Commonwealth intends to take such action and specifying the reasons for such action.

In addition to the no solicitation provisions described above, Commonwealth is required to promptly notify, orally and in writing, Citizens of the receipt of (and the material terms and conditions thereof and the identity of the person making the same) any inquiry, offer or proposal in connection with an acquisition proposal or any request, other than in the ordinary course of business and not related to an acquisition proposal, for nonpublic information relating to Commonwealth or any of its subsidiaries or for access to the properties, books or records of Commonwealth or any of its subsidiaries by any person that Commonwealth believes may be considering making, or has made, an acquisition proposal. Commonwealth is required to keep Citizens reasonably informed of the status and details (including any material change to the terms thereof) of any such inquiry, offer, proposal or request and any discussions and negotiations concerning the material terms and conditions of any acquisition proposal and provide to Citizens as soon as practicable after receipt or delivery copies of all draft agreements and all other material written correspondence and documents sent by or provided to Commonwealth or any of its subsidiaries in connection with such acquisition proposal.

Nothing in the merger agreement prohibits the board of directors of Commonwealth from taking and disclosing to Commonwealth shareholders a position contemplated by Rules 14d-9 and 14e-2 under the Exchange Act, making such disclosure to Commonwealth shareholders as, in the judgment of the board of directors of Commonwealth, with the advice of outside legal counsel, may be required under applicable law or under the rules of the Nasdaq National Market or responding to any unsolicited proposal or inquiry by advising the person making such proposal or inquiry of the terms of the no solicitation provisions in the merger agreement.

Commonwealth Shareholders Meeting; Recommendation of the Commonwealth Board of Directors

The merger agreement provides that Commonwealth will duly call and hold a shareholders meeting as soon as reasonably practicable after September 17, 2006 for the purpose of voting on the adoption of the merger agreement, regardless of (1) whether the board of directors of Commonwealth has made an adverse recommendation change, as described above under No Solicitation, or (2) the commencement, public proposal, public disclosure or communication to Commonwealth of any acquisition proposal. The board of directors of Commonwealth has agreed to recommend the adoption of the merger agreement by Commonwealth shareholders, except as provided under the provisions described under No Solicitation.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be terminated and the merger may be abandoned at any time prior to the effective time of the merger, even if the merger agreement has been adopted by the Commonwealth shareholders:

by mutual written consent of Commonwealth and Citizens;

by either Commonwealth or Citizens, if Commonwealth shareholders do not adopt the merger agreement at the special meeting, including any postponement or adjournment;

by either Commonwealth or Citizens, if the merger has not been consummated by June 18, 2007, provided that this right to terminate the merger agreement is not be available to any party whose willful breach of any provision of the merger agreement has resulted in the merger not being consummated by such date, and provided further that, if on June 18, 2007 the conditions described in the third and/or fourth bullet points under Conditions to the Completion of the Merger Conditions to the Obligations of Each Party and/or the fourth bullet point under Conditions to the Completion of the Merger Conditions to the Obligations of Citizens have not been fulfilled but all the other conditions to the merger have been fulfilled or are capable of being fulfilled, then the termination date will be extended to September 17, 2007;

by either Commonwealth or Citizens (so long as such party has complied in all material respects with its obligations set forth in the merger agreement with respect to matters related to the proxy statement, the registration statement and certain regulatory filings), if any law or regulation has been adopted or promulgated that makes consummation of the merger illegal or if any judgment, injunction, order or decree enjoining the parties from consummating the merger is entered and such judgment, injunction, order or decree has become final and nonappealable;

by Commonwealth, if a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement on the part of Citizens set forth in the merger agreement has occurred that would cause any of the conditions described under Conditions to the Completion of the Merger Conditions to the Obligations of Commonwealth not to be satisfied, and either such condition is incapable of being satisfied by three business days prior to June 18, 2007 (as such date is extended, if applicable) or Citizens does not, after receiving notice of such breach, proceed in good faith to promptly cure such breach;

by Citizens, if a breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement on the part of Commonwealth set forth in the merger agreement has occurred that would cause any of the conditions described in the first, second and third bullet points under Conditions to the Completion of the Merger Conditions to the Obligations of Citizens not to be satisfied, and either such condition is incapable of being satisfied by three business days prior to June 18, 2007 (as such date is extended, if applicable) or Commonwealth does not, after receiving notice of such breach, proceed in good faith to promptly cure such breach;

by Commonwealth, pursuant to the terms described under No Solicitation; provided that Commonwealth pays $37 million to Citizens, as described under Fees and Expenses Termination Fee;

by Citizens, if prior to the meeting of Commonwealth shareholders, the board of directors of Commonwealth:

fails to include in the proxy statement its approval or recommendation of the merger agreement or the merger; or makes an adverse recommendation change, as described above under No Solicitation; and by Citizens, if any applicable law having any of the effects described in the fourth bullet point under Conditions to the Completion of the Merger Conditions to the Obligations of Citizens is in effect and has become final and nonappealable.

Fees and Expenses

General. The merger agreement provides that each party will pay its own fees and expenses in connection with the merger agreement, except that Citizens and Commonwealth will share equally all fees and expenses, other than attorneys' and accounting fees and expenses, incurred in relation to the printing and filing of the registration statement and to the printing, filing and distribution of the proxy statement.

Termination Fee. Commonwealth is required to pay Citizens a termination fee of $37 million in each of the following circumstances:

Commonwealth terminates the merger agreement in accordance with the terms described under No Solicitation; or

Citizens terminates the merger agreement pursuant to its right described in the second to last bullet point under Termination of the Merger Agreement (other than as a result of a determination in good faith by the board of directors of Commonwealth that a material adverse effect with respect to Citizens has occurred);

any person has publicly announced an intention (whether or not conditional and whether or not withdrawn) to make an acquisition proposal or an acquisition proposal otherwise becomes known to Commonwealth shareholders, thereafter the merger agreement is terminated by either Citizens or Commonwealth pursuant to the third (but only if the meeting of Commonwealth shareholders has not been held by the date that is one business day prior to the date of such termination, except as a result of the registration statement not having been declared effective prior thereto as a result of anything affecting Citizens or its business (in which event termination will not result in the payment of $37 million)) or second bullet points under Termination of the Merger Agreement and prior to the date that is 12 months after such termination, Commonwealth or any of its subsidiaries enters into an acquisition agreement to consummate or consummates the transactions contemplated by any acquisition proposal (for purposes of this bullet point, the term acquisition proposal has the same meaning as described under No Solicitation, except that references to 15% are replaced by 35%).

UNAUDITED PRO FORMA CONDENSED COMBINED FINANCIAL INFORMATION

The following unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information is based upon the historical consolidated financial information of Citizens and Commonwealth incorporated by reference in this proxy statement/prospectus, and has been prepared to reflect the merger based on the purchase method of accounting, with Citizens treated as the acquiror. The historical consolidated financial information has been adjusted to give effect to pro forma events that are directly attributable to the merger and factually supportable and, in the case of the statement of operations information, that are expected to have a continuing impact. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined balance sheet information has been prepared as of June 30, 2006 and gives effect to the merger and the disposition of ELI as if they had occurred on that date. The unaudited pro forma condensed combined statement of operations information, which has been prepared for the six months ended June 30, 2006 and for the year ended December 31, 2005, gives effect to the merger as if it had occurred on January 1, 2005.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information is presented for informational purposes only. The pro forma information is not necessarily indicative of what the financial position or results of operations actually would have been had the merger been completed at the dates indicated. In addition, the unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information does not purport to project the future financial position or operating results of Citizens after completion of the merger.

The unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information does not give effect to any potential cost savings or other operating efficiencies that could result from the merger. In addition, Citizens' cost to acquire Commonwealth will be allocated to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed based upon their estimated fair values as of the date of acquisition. The allocation is dependent upon certain valuations and other studies that have not progressed to a stage where there is sufficient information to make a definitive allocation. Accordingly, the purchase price allocation pro forma adjustments are preliminary and have been made solely for the purpose of providing unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information in this proxy statement/prospectus.

On September 17, 2006, Commonwealth, Citizens and CF Merger Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of Citizens, entered into a merger agreement pursuant to which CF Merger Corp. will merge with and into Commonwealth, with Commonwealth surviving the merger as a wholly owned subsidiary of Citizens. At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding share of Commonwealth common stock (other than shares owned by Commonwealth, Citizens and CF Merger Corp.) will be converted into the right to receive $31.31 in cash and 0.786 shares of Citizens common stock.

Citizens will account for the merger as a purchase under United States generally accepted accounting principles. Under the purchase method of accounting, the assets and liabilities of Commonwealth will be recorded as of the acquisition date, at their respective fair values, and consolidated with those of Citizens. The reported consolidated financial condition and results of operations of Citizens after completion of the merger will reflect these fair values.

The merger is subject to customary closing conditions, including the approval of Commonwealth shareholders and regulatory approvals. Subject to these conditions, it is anticipated that the merger will be completed in mid-2007.

2. Estimated Purchase Price

The following is a preliminary estimate of the purchase price to be paid by Citizens in the acquisition of Commonwealth:

Number of shares of Commonwealth common stock estimated to be outstanding at the effective time of the merger ^(a)	26,757,000
Exchange ratio	0.768
Number of shares of Citizens common stock to be issued to holders of Commonwealth common stock ^(b)	20,500,000
Multiplied by cost per share of Citizens common stock ^(c)	$ 13.64
Stock portion of the merger consideration	$ 279,620,000
Cash portion of the merger consideration ^(d)	837,762,000
Cash out the 2005 Series A 3-1/4% convertible notes ^(e)	67,000,000
Cash out the equity awards ^(f)	38,000,000
Estimated fees and expenses	20,000,000
Estimate purchase price	$ 1,242,382,000

- (a) Determined based on the number of shares of Commonwealth common stock outstanding on August 31, 2006. For purposes of estimating the number of shares of Commonwealth common stock to be outstanding at the effective time of the merger, (i) restricted shares of Commonwealth common stock, which under the terms of the merger agreement will be cashed out, have been excluded (see note 2(f) below), (ii) holders of the 2005 Series A 3-1/4% convertible notes due 2023 and 2003 3-1/4% convertible notes due 2023 of Commonwealth have been assumed to exercise in full their right to convert such notes into shares of Commonwealth common stock as a result of the merger, (iii) in the case of the 2005 Series A 3-1/4% convertible notes due 2023, where Commonwealth has a cash settlement right, Commonwealth has been assumed to exercise such right in full (see note 2(e) below), and shares of Commonwealth common stock that otherwise would have been issuable pursuant to such conversion have been excluded and (iv) shares of Commonwealth common stock held in the grantor trust established by Commonwealth to pay benefits to the holders of ESPP share units, which shares are expected to be distributed to Commonwealth immediately prior to the effective time of the merger and canceled at the effective time of the merger pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, have been excluded.

Citizens expects to use shares of its common stock held in its treasury to pay the stock portion of the merger consideration.
- (d) Represents the product of $31.31, the per share cash portion of the merger consideration, and the estimated number of shares of Commonwealth common stock to be outstanding at the effective time of the merger (see note 2(a) above).
- (e) Represents the assumed cash settlement of the 2005 Series A 3-1/4% convertible notes of Commonwealth (see note 2(a) above).
- (f) Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, restricted shares, restricted share units, options and other equity awards of Commonwealth outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the merger will be cashed out. See The Merger Treatment of Compensatory Awards.

3. Citizens Discontinued Operations and Partnerships

In February 2006, Citizens entered into a definitive agreement to sell ELI for $243 million in cash and an assumption of $4 million of capital lease obligations, subject to adjustment of the purchase price pursuant to the terms of the purchase agreement. The sale of ELI was completed on July 31, 2006. In February 2005, Citizens entered into a definitive agreement to sell CCUSA for $43.6 million in cash, subject to adjustment of the purchase price pursuant to the terms of the purchase agreement. The sale of CCUSA was completed on March 15, 2005. In accordance with the Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 144, Accounting for the Impairment or Disposal of Long-Lived Assets, the results of operations of ELI and CCUSA have been classified as discontinued operations and all prior periods have been recast to give effect thereto.

Effective January 1, 2006, Citizens has applied the provisions of EITF No. 04-05, Determining Whether a General Partner, or General Partners as a Group, Controls a Limited Partnership or Similar Entity When the Limited Partners Have Certain Rights, to consolidate the financial condition and results of operations of Mohave Cellular Limited Partnership, in which Citizens has a 33% ownership interest and is the managing partner. As permitted, Citizens elected to apply EITF No. 04-05 retrospectively from the date of adoption, and all applicable periods have been recast to give effect thereto.

4. Pro Forma Adjustments

Adjustments included in the column under the heading Pro Forma Adjustments relate to the following:

- (a) On July 31, 2006, Citizens completed the sale of all of the outstanding membership interests in ELI for $247 million in cash. The adjustments reflect (i) receipt of the cash proceeds, (ii) the write-off of the associated assets and liabilities, (iii) the establishment of deferred taxes on approximately $128.4 million of pre-tax book gain from the sale at a rate of 36% (resulting in a $46.2 million adjustment to Deferred income taxes) and (iv) recording an approximately $82.2 million after-tax book gain on the sale.

- (b) The estimated purchase price has been allocated to the net tangible and intangible assets and liabilities acquired on a preliminary basis as follows (in thousands):

Estimated purchase price:		$ 1,242,382
Current assets	$ 174,932
Property, plant and equipment	379,696
Goodwill	376,149
Other intangibles, net	500,000
Investments	4,409
Other assets	13,615
Current liabilities	106,842
Deferred income taxes	76,664
Other liabilities	22,913
Stockholders' equity	0	$ 1,242,382

Goodwill has been further adjusted by $189 million to reflect the establishment of deferred taxes for the non-deductible step-up in the value of Property, plant and equipment and Other intangibles, net at a rate of 37% (resulting in a $189 million adjustment to Deferred income taxes).

The allocation of the purchase price to assets and liabilities is preliminary. The final allocation of the purchase price will be based on the actual purchase price paid by Citizens and the fair values of assets acquired and liabilities assumed as of the effective time of the merger, as determined by a third-party valuation. There can be no assurance that the actual allocation will not differ significantly from the preliminary allocation.

- (c) In connection with the merger, Citizens obtained a commitment letter for a $990 million senior unsecured bridge loan, the proceeds of which will be used to pay the cash portion of the merger consideration (including cash payable upon the assumed conversion of $300 million of the Commonwealth convertible notes in connection with the merger), to cash out restricted shares, options and other equity awards of Commonwealth, to repay all outstanding indebtedness under Commonwealth's existing revolving credit facility (which was $35 million as of June 30, 2006) and to pay fees and expenses related to the merger. The excess of the proceeds of this bridge loan over the foregoing uses is reflected as an adjustment to Cash and cash equivalents. Citizens expects to refinance this bridge loan, which matures within one year, with long-term debt prior to the maturity thereof. Accordingly, the financing to be incurred by Citizens in connection with the merger has been classified as long-term debt. If a long-term financing arrangement is not in place at the time of closing of the merger, this bridge loan will be classified as current debt.
- (d) Represents the non-cash stock expense of Commonwealth.
- (e) Reflects increased depreciation and amortization expense resulting from adjusting the historical carrying values of the acquired assets to their fair market values based on the results of a preliminary appraisal. Depreciation and amortization expense was determined based on Citizens' current rates for depreciation and amortization, including Citizens' 2006 composite depreciation rate of 5.86%. Amortization for the Other intangibles, net was based on an expected five-year life.

The actual depreciation and amortization expense will be based on the results of the third-party valuation of the acquired assets and the related estimated lives. There can be no assurance that the actual depreciation and amortization expense will not differ significantly from the pro forma adjustment presented.

- (f) Represents an estimated interest expense on the $990 million financing to be incurred by Citizens in connection with the merger, based on an assumed interest rate of 7.25%, net of the interest expense associated with the Commonwealth convertible notes, which are assumed to have been converted into shares of Commonwealth common stock or cashed out in connection with the merger, and Commonwealth's existing revolving credit facility, which will be repaid in full in connection with the merger. There can be no assurance that the actual interest expense will not differ significantly from the pro forma adjustment presented. A 1/8% change in the interest rate would impact the interest expense by $1.2 million annually.

- (g) Represents the estimated income tax effect of the pro forma adjustments calculated using the applicable incremental tax rate.
5. Pro forma shares outstanding (basic and diluted) have been adjusted to give effect to the expected issuance in connection with the merger of 20.5 million shares of Citizens common stock from treasury for all periods presented. Citizens did not have 20.5 million shares in its treasury available for issuance at any time during fiscal 2005. Such computation for 2005 is made solely for the purpose of providing unaudited pro forma condensed combined financial information in this proxy statement/prospectus.
6. Includes in the aggregate approximately $85 million of gain recorded by Citizens and Commonwealth resulting from the proceeds received in the second quarter of 2006 from the dissolution of the Rural Telephone Bank.

Table of ContentsACCOUNTING TREATMENT

The merger will be accounted for by Citizens using the purchase method of accounting. Under this method of accounting, the purchase price will be allocated to the fair value of the net assets acquired. The excess purchase price over the fair value of the assets acquired will be allocated to goodwill.

DESCRIPTION OF CITIZENS CAPITAL STOCK

The following summary of the capital stock of Citizens is subject in all respects to applicable Delaware law, the Citizens certificate of incorporation and the Citizens by-laws. See Comparison of Rights of Common Stockholders of Citizens and Common Shareholders of Commonwealth and Where You Can Find More Information.

The total authorized shares of capital stock of Citizens consist of (1) 600,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.25 per share, and (2) 50,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share. At the close of business on [●], approximately [●] shares of Citizens common stock were issued and outstanding and no shares of Citizens preferred stock were issued and outstanding.

The board of directors of Citizens is authorized to provide for the issuance from time to time of Citizens preferred stock in one or more series and, as to each series, to fix the designations, powers, preferences and relative, participating optional, conversion and other rights.

The board of directors of Citizens adopted a stockholder rights plan on March 6, 2002. To implement the stockholder rights plan, on the same date, Citizens declared a dividend of one preferred stock purchase right, which is referred to in this prospectus/proxy statement as a right, for each outstanding share of Citizens common stock to stockholders of record at the close of business on March 6, 2002. Each right entitles the registered holder to purchase from Citizens a unit consisting of one one-thousandth of a share of Series A Participating Preferred Stock at a purchase price of $47 per unit, subject to adjustment.

The rights are not exercisable until the earlier of:

ten business days following a public announcement that a person or group, subject to certain exceptions, has acquired 15% or more of the outstanding shares of Citizens common stock (thereby becoming an acquiring person under the shareholder rights plan);

ten business days following the commencement of a tender offer or exchange offer that would result in a person or group becoming an acquiring person; or a merger or other business combination transaction involving Citizens.

The date on which the rights are exercisable as described above is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the distribution date. The rights expire at 5:00 p.m. (New York City time) on March 6, 2012, unless earlier redeemed, exchanged, extended or terminated by Citizens.

Until the distribution date, the rights will be evidenced only by shares of Citizens common stock and will be transferred with and only with such common stock. After the distribution date, rights certificates will be mailed to holders of record of the Citizens common stock as of the close of business on the distribution date.

In the event that a person becomes an acquiring person, subject to certain exceptions for offers that the independent directors of the board of directors of Citizens determine to be fair and not inadequate and to otherwise be in the best interests of Citizens and its stockholders, each holder of a right other than the acquiring person will have the right to receive upon exercise thereof Citizens common stock having a value equal to two times the exercise price of the right. In the event that, at any time following the date on which a person becomes an acquiring person, Citizens engages in certain types of merger or other business combination transactions, each holder of a right, other than the acquiring person, will have the right to receive upon exercise thereof common stock of the acquiring company having a value equal to two times the exercise price of the right. At any time after a person becomes an acquiring person and prior to their acquisition of 50% or more of the outstanding Citizens common stock, the board of directors of Citizens may exchange each right (other than rights owned by the acquiring person), in whole or in part, for one share of Citizens common stock, or one one-thousandth of a share of the Series A Participating Preferred Stock, per right (subject to adjustment). At any time until ten business days following the date on which a person becomes an acquiring person, Citizens may redeem the rights in whole, but not in part, at a price of $0.01 per right.

The following description summarizes the material differences that may affect the rights of Citizens stockholders and Commonwealth shareholders but does not purport to be a complete statement of all those differences, or a complete description of the specific provisions referred to in this summary. The identification of specific differences is not intended to indicate that other equally or more significant differences do not exist. Citizens

The Citizens by-laws provide that the total number of Citizens directors will be not less than 7 and not more than 15, as determined by the board of directors of Citizens from time to time. Citizens currently has 13 directors.

All directors are elected at each annual meeting of stockholders to serve until the next annual meeting. The Citizens certificate of incorporation provides that directors need not be elected by ballot, unless voting by ballot is requested by the holders of 10% or more of the shares of stock represented at the meeting of stockholders at which the directors are to be elected. The Citizens by-laws do not provide for cumulative voting in the election of directors. The Citizens by-laws provide that vacancies on the board of directors of Citizens may be filled by appointment made by a majority vote of the directors then in office, except for vacancies resulting from the removal of directors by stockholders. Neither the Citizens certificate of incorporation nor its by-laws contain any express provisions with respect to the removal of directors; however, Delaware law provides that directors may be removed, with or without cause, by the holders of a majority of shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors, subject to certain limitations.

Commonwealth

The Commonwealth by-laws provide that the total number of Commonwealth directors will not be less than 3 nor more than 24, as determined by the board of directors of Commonwealth from time to time. Commonwealth currently has 8 directors.

Table of Contents

The board of directors of Commonwealth is divided into three classes with approximately one-third of the directors standing for election each year for three-year terms. The Commonwealth by-laws provide that shareholders are entitled to vote cumulatively in all elections of directors. The Commonwealth by-laws provide that vacancies on the board of directors of Commonwealth may be filled by appointment made by a majority vote of the directors then in office. The Commonwealth by-laws also provide that directors may be elected by the shareholders to fill any vacancy on the board of directors only if and when authorized by a resolution of the board of directors; provided that shareholders may fill such vacancy without resolution if there is no director in place. The Commonwealth by-laws provide that no director may be removed from office by shareholders except for cause.

Amendments to Charter Documents

Citizens

Under Delaware law, a proposed amendment to a corporation's certificate of incorporation requires approval by its board of directors and adoption by an affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding stock entitled to vote on the amendment. The Citizens certificate of incorporation provides that it may be amended in any manner prescribed by law.

Commonwealth

Under Pennsylvania law, every amendment to a corporation's articles of incorporation must be proposed by the corporation's board of directors and adopted by an affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by shareholders entitled to vote on the amendment, unless the corporation's articles of incorporation or a specific provision of Pennsylvania law requires a greater vote. The Commonwealth articles of incorporation provide that the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the shareholders is required to approve certain amendments relating to classes and numbers of shares of Commonwealth in addition to any other vote required by the Commonwealth articles of incorporation or Pennsylvania law.

Amendments to By-laws

Citizens

Under the Citizens certificate of incorporation and the Citizens by-laws, the Citizens by-laws may be amended or altered by the vote of a majority of the whole board of directors at any meeting, provided that notice of such proposed amendment is given in the notice given to the directors of such meeting. This authority in the board of directors is subject to the power of Citizens' stockholders to change or repeal any by-laws by a majority vote of the stockholders present and represented at any meeting or at any special meeting called for such purpose, and the board of directors cannot repeal or alter any by-laws adopted by the stockholders other than By-law 24A which relates to the right to indemnification of directors and officers.

Commonwealth

The Commonwealth by-laws provide that the Commonwealth by-laws may be changed at any regular or special meeting of the board of directors by a two-thirds vote of all the directors in office or at any annual or special meeting of shareholders by the vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding stock entitled to vote.

have been entitled to cast the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.

Commonwealth

Under Pennsylvania law, any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of shareholders may be taken without a meeting only by a unanimous written consent that is signed by all the shareholders entitled to vote on the action and delivered to the corporation, unless otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or by-laws. Neither the Commonwealth articles of incorporation nor its by-laws contain provisions with respect to shareholder action by written consent.

Notice of Stockholder/Shareholder Actions

Citizens

Delaware law and the Citizens by-laws provide that written notice of the time, place and purpose or purposes of every meeting of stockholders must be given not less than 10 days and not more than 60 days before the date of the meeting to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting. The Citizens by-laws further provide that the only matters that may be considered and acted upon at an annual meeting of stockholders are those matters brought before the meeting:

through the notice of meeting;

by the board of directors of Citizens; or by a stockholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting.

Generally, the Citizens by-laws require a stockholder who intends to bring matters before an annual meeting to provide advance notice of such intended action not less than 90 days nor more than 120 days prior to the date of the proxy statement relating to the prior year's annual meeting of stockholders. The notice must contain, among other things, a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the meeting and must identify any personal or other material interest of the stockholder in such proposed business. The person presiding at the meeting will have the discretion to determine whether any item of business proposed by a stockholder was properly brought before such meeting.

Commonwealth

Pennsylvania law provides that written notice of the time, place and date of a meeting of shareholders must be delivered or mailed to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting not less than 10 days prior to the day named for a meeting that will consider a fundamental change or 5 days prior to the day named for the meeting in any other case. The Commonwealth by-laws require that notice of a meeting of shareholders be delivered to each shareholder not less than 5 days nor more than 90 days before the meeting. Pursuant to the Commonwealth by-laws, the only business to be conducted at any meeting of the shareholders is such business properly brought before the meeting by or at the direction of the board of directors of Commonwealth or, in the case of an annual meeting, by any shareholder with legal right and authority to do so.

Generally, the Commonwealth by-laws require a shareholder who intends to bring matters before an annual meeting to provide advance notice of such intended action not less than 90 days nor more than 120 days prior to the first anniversary date of the prior year's annual meeting. The notice must contain, among other things, a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the meeting and must identify any other material interest of the shareholder in such proposed business. The person presiding at the meeting will have the discretion to determine whether any item of business was properly brought before such meeting.

A proper purpose is any purpose reasonably related to the interest of the person as a shareholder.

Limitation of Personal Liability and Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Citizens

The Citizens certificate of incorporation provides that a director will not be personally liable to Citizens or to its stockholders for monetary damages for a breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except for liability:

for any breach of the directors' duty of loyalty to Citizens or its stockholders;

for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law;

The Citizens by-laws provide further that the right to indemnification includes the right to receive payment of all reasonable expenses incurred by the indemnified person in connection with such proceeding in advance of the final disposition of the proceeding.

Commonwealth

Under Pennsylvania law, unless otherwise restricted in its by-laws, a corporation may indemnify directors, officers, employees and agents against liabilities and expenses actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with the action or proceeding by reason of the fact that the person is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the corporation; and with respect to any criminal proceeding, such person had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

Under the Commonwealth by-laws, no director or former director of Commonwealth will be personally liable to Commonwealth or its shareholders for monetary damages for or resulting from any act, omission or failure to act by reason of the fact that he is or was a director of Commonwealth, except in the case of any breach of duty or failure to perform a duty which constitutes self-dealing, wilful misconduct or recklessness or any responsibility or liability pursuant to any criminal statute or the payment of taxes pursuant to local, state or federal law.

Pursuant to the Commonwealth by-laws, Commonwealth will indemnify and hold harmless every director and officer to the fullest extent permitted by Pennsylvania law.

Citizens

Subject to the foregoing restrictions, the Commonwealth by-laws authorize the board of directors of Commonwealth to declare and pay dividends on the shares of capital stock of Commonwealth.

Citizens

General. Each holder of Citizens common stock is entitled to one vote for each share held of record and may not cumulate votes for the election of directors.

Merger or Consolidation. Under Delaware law, the consummation of a merger or consolidation requires the approval of the board of directors of the corporation which desires to merge or consolidate and requires that the agreement and plan of merger be adopted by the affirmative vote of a majority of the stock of the corporation entitled to vote thereon at an annual or special meeting for the purpose of acting on the agreement. However, no such approval and vote are required if such corporation is the surviving corporation and:

such corporation's certificate of incorporation is not amended;

the stockholders of the surviving corporation whose shares were outstanding immediately before the effective date of the merger will hold the same number of shares, with identical designations, preferences, limitations, and rights, immediately after; and either no shares of common stock of the surviving corporation and no shares, securities or obligations convertible into such stock are to be issued or delivered under the plan of merger, or the authorized unissued shares or the treasury shares of common stock of the surviving corporation to be issued or delivered under the plan of merger do not exceed 20% of the shares of common stock of such corporation outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the merger.

Under Delaware law, a sale of all or substantially all of such corporation's assets requires the approval of such corporation's board of directors and the affirmative vote of a majority of the outstanding stock of the corporation entitled to vote thereon.

Business Combinations. Citizens is subject to Section 203 of Delaware law (Section 203), which, subject to certain exceptions, prohibits a Delaware corporation from engaging in any business combination with an interested stockholder for a period of three years following the time that such stockholder became an interested stockholder, unless:

the board of directors of the corporation approves either the business combination or the transaction that resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder, prior to the time the interested stockholder attained that status;

upon the closing of the transaction that resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder, the interested stockholder owned at least 85% of the voting stock of the corporation outstanding at the time the transaction commenced, excluding for purposes of determining the number of shares outstanding those shares owned (1) by persons who are directors and also officers and (2) by employee stock plans in which employee participants do not have the right to determine confidentially whether shares held subject to the plan will be tendered in a tender or exchange offer; or affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the outstanding voting stock that is not owned by the interested stockholder.

Subject to certain exceptions, an interested stockholder is a person or group who or which owns 15% or more of the corporation's outstanding voting stock (including any rights to acquire stock pursuant to an option, warrant, agreement, arrangement or understanding, or upon the exercise of conversion or exchange rights, and stock with respect to which the person has voting rights only), or is an affiliate or associate of the corporation and was the owner of 15% or more of such voting stock at any time within the previous three years. In general, Section 203 defines a business combination to include:

any merger or consolidation involving the corporation and the interested stockholder;

any sale, transfer, pledge or other disposition of 10% or more of the assets of the corporation involving the interested stockholder;

subject to certain exceptions, any transaction that results in the issuance or transfer by the corporation of any stock of the corporation to the interested stockholder;

any transaction involving the corporation that has the effect of increasing the proportionate share of the stock of any class or series of the corporation beneficially owned by the interested stockholder; or the receipt by the interested stockholder of the benefit of any loans, advances, guarantees, pledges or other financial benefits provided by or through the corporation.

A Delaware corporation may opt out of Section 203 with an express provision in its original certificate of incorporation or an express provision in its certificate of incorporation or by-laws resulting from a stockholders' amendment approved by at least a majority of the outstanding voting shares. Citizens has not opted out of this provision.

Merger or Consolidation. Under Pennsylvania law, the consummation of a merger requires the approval of a majority of the board of directors of the corporation and, except where the approval of shareholders is unnecessary, the approval of a majority of the votes cast by all shareholders of the corporation entitled to vote thereon.

Under Pennsylvania law, approval of the shareholders of a constituent Pennsylvania corporation is not required if:

whether or not the constituent corporation is the surviving corporation:

the surviving corporation is a Pennsylvania corporation and the articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation are identical to the articles of incorporation of the constituent corporation;

each share of the constituent corporation outstanding immediately prior to the effective date of the merger or consolidation will continue as or be converted into, except as may otherwise be agreed by the shareholders, an identical share of the surviving corporation after the effective date of the merger or consolidation; and the agreement and plan of merger provides that the shareholders of the constituent corporation will hold in the aggregate shares of the surviving corporation to be outstanding immediately after the effectiveness of the merger entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes entitled to be cast generally for the election of directors;

immediately prior to the adoption of the merger and at all times after the adoption and prior to its effective date, another corporation that is a party to the merger owns 80% or more of the outstanding shares of each class of the constituent corporation; or no shares of the constituent corporation have been issued prior to the adoption of the plan of merger or consolidation by the board of directors.

Under Pennsylvania law, a sale of all or substantially all of Commonwealth's assets requires the approval of the board of directors and the affirmative vote of a majority of all the votes cast by shareholders entitled to vote on the transaction.

Business Combinations. Under Pennsylvania law, a business combination generally includes (i) a merger, consolidation, share exchange or division of the corporation with an interested shareholder, or involving or resulting in any other corporation which is, or after such transaction would be, an affiliate or associate of the interested shareholder, (ii) a sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition to or with the interested shareholder of assets having an aggregate market value equal to 10% or more of all the assets or shares of the corporation or representing 10% or more of the earning power or net income of the corporation, and (iii) certain other specified self-dealing transactions between the corporation and an interested shareholder or any affiliate or associate thereof. An interested shareholder of a corporation is (i) any person that is the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of at least 20% of the voting stock of the corporation or (ii) an affiliate or associate of such corporation and at any time within the five-year period immediately prior to the date in question was the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of at least 20% of the voting stock of the corporation. Pennsylvania law provides for a five year moratorium on business combinations between a corporation and any person that is an interested shareholder of the corporation, unless:

the board of directors of the corporation had approved the acquisition of shares that made the person an interested shareholder of the corporation; or the proposed business combination was approved by (1) the board of directors of the corporation prior to the person becoming an interested shareholder of the corporation, (2) all of the holders of the outstanding shares of common stock of the corporation, or (3) a majority of the holders of voting stock (not including any shares of voting stock beneficially owned by the interested shareholder or its affiliates or associates) at a special meeting called for such purpose, the interested shareholder at the time of meeting is the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of at least 80% of the voting stock and certain other criteria relating to per share consideration are met.

Following expiration of the five-year moratorium, a business combination between a corporation and an interested shareholder is still prohibited, unless it (i) is approved by the affirmative vote of a majority of the voting stock (not including any shares of voting stock held by the interested shareholder or its affiliates or associates) at a meeting called for the purpose of approving the business combination or (ii) meets certain per share consideration criteria pursuant to Pennsylvania law.

Other Corporate Constituencies

Citizens

Delaware law does not have an other constituency statute similar to that described in Other Corporate Constituencies Commonwealth.

Commonwealth

Under Pennsylvania law, in discharging the duties of their respective positions, the board of directors and individual directors may, in considering the best interests of the corporation, consider, to the extent they deem appropriate, the effects of any action on shareholders, employees, suppliers, customers, creditors, the communities in which offices or other establishments of the corporation are located and any other factors that they consider pertinent. Directors are not required to redeem any rights or render inapplicable any shareholder rights plan or any antitakeover protections available to the corporation under Pennsylvania law or to take or decline to take any action solely because of the effect that the action might have on a potential acquisition or the consideration that may be offered or paid to shareholders in such an acquisition.

Pennsylvania law explicitly provides that there will be no different or higher degree of scrutiny imposed upon director actions taken in response to potential changes in control.

Appraisal Rights and Dissenters' Rights

Citizens

Under Delaware law, stockholders have the right to dissent from any plan of merger or consolidation to which the corporation is a party, and to demand payment for the fair value of their shares. However, unless the certificate of incorporation otherwise provides, Delaware law states that stockholders do not have a right to dissent from any plan of merger or consolidation with respect to shares:

listed on a national securities exchange or the Nasdaq National Market or held of record by more than 2,000 holders; or for which, pursuant to the plan of merger or consolidation, stockholders will receive (1) shares or depository receipts of another corporation which at the effective date of the merger or consolidation will be either listed on a national securities exchange or the Nasdaq National Market or held of record by more than 2,000 holders, (2) shares of stock or depository receipts of the surviving corporation in the merger or consolidation, (3) cash for fractional shares or (4) any combination of (1) (3). In addition, Delaware law provides that, unless the certificate of incorporation provides otherwise, stockholders of a surviving corporation do not have the right to dissent from a plan of merger if the merger did not require for its approval the vote of the stockholders.

The Citizens certificate of incorporation and by-laws are silent as to appraisal rights.

Commonwealth

Under Pennsylvania law, unless the articles of incorporation or by-laws provide otherwise, shareholders of a Pennsylvania corporation are not entitled to dissenters' rights if the shares that would otherwise give rise to such rights are listed on a national security exchange or the Nasdaq National Market on the record date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to notice of and vote at the meeting at which the merger will be voted upon. The Commonwealth articles of incorporation and by-laws do not entitle shareholders to dissenters' rights.

FUTURE SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS

Commonwealth will hold the 2007 annual meeting of Commonwealth shareholders only if the merger is not completed. If Commonwealth were to hold an annual meeting of shareholders during the period from April 18, 2007 to June 17, 2007, then:

in order for a shareholder proposal to be considered for inclusion in Commonwealth's proxy statement and form of proxy relating to the 2007 annual meeting of shareholders, the proposal must (in addition to meeting the requirements of the SEC's rules governing such proposals) be received by Commonwealth at its principal executive offices by December 19, 2006; and shareholders whose proposals are intended to be raised at the 2007 annual meeting of shareholders, but are not intended to be considered for inclusion in Commonwealth's proxy statement, must deliver to Commonwealth at its principal executives offices, and Commonwealth must receive, their proposals not earlier than January 18, 2007 and not later than February 17, 2007.

If the 2007 annual meeting were to be held on a date other than during the period referred to in the preceding sentence, the deadlines referred to in the two bullet points above would be changed, and in such an event Commonwealth would inform its shareholders by press release or other appropriate means of the applicable deadlines.

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER

AGREEMENT AND PLAN OF MERGER dated as of September 17, 2006 among COMMONWEALTH TELEPHONE ENTERPRISES, INC., a Pennsylvania corporation (the Company), CITIZENS COMMUNICATIONS COMPANY, a Delaware corporation (Parent), and CF MERGER CORP., a Delaware corporation (Merger Subsidiary).

WHEREAS, the respective Boards of Directors of Parent, Merger Subsidiary and the Company have approved this Agreement, and deem it advisable and in the best interests of their respective stockholders to consummate the merger of the Company and Merger Subsidiary on the terms and conditions set forth herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration for the various representations, warranties, covenants and agreements contained herein, the parties hereto agree as follows:

THE MERGER

Section 1.01. The Merger. (a) At the Effective Time, Merger Subsidiary shall be merged (the Merger) with and into the Company in accordance with the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law (Pennsylvania Law) and the Delaware General Corporation Law (Delaware Law), whereupon the separate existence of Merger Subsidiary shall cease, and the Company shall be the surviving corporation (the Surviving Corporation). For purposes hereof, the closing of the Merger is referred to herein as the Closing, and the date of the Closing is referred to herein as the Closing Date.

(b) The Closing will take place on the first Business Day after satisfaction or, to the extent permitted hereunder, waiver of all conditions to the Merger (other than those conditions that by their nature are to be satisfied at the Closing and will in fact be satisfied at the Closing). As soon as practicable on the Closing Date, the Company and Merger Subsidiary will file articles of merger with the Department of State of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and a certificate of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, and make all other filings or recordings required by Pennsylvania Law or Delaware Law in connection with the Merger. The Merger shall become effective on the Closing Date at such time as the articles of merger and the certificate of merger are duly filed as described in this paragraph or at such later time as is specified therein by agreement of Parent and the Company (the Effective Time). For purposes of this Agreement, Business Day means a day, other than Saturday, Sunday or other day on which commercial banks in New York, New York, are authorized or required by Applicable Law to close. For purposes of this Agreement, Applicable Law means, with respect to any Person, any federal, state or local law (statutory, common or otherwise), constitution, treaty, convention, ordinance, code, rule, regulation, order, injunction, judgment, decree, ruling or other similar requirement enacted, adopted, promulgated or applied by a Governmental Authority that is binding upon or applicable to such Person, its properties or assets or its business or operations, as amended unless expressly specified otherwise.

(c) From and after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation shall possess all the rights, privileges, powers and franchises, and be subject to all of the obligations, liabilities, restrictions, disabilities and duties, of the Company and Merger Subsidiary, all as provided under Pennsylvania Law and Delaware Law.

Section 1.02. Conversion of Shares. At the Effective Time:

(a) each Common Share held by the Company as treasury stock (the Treasury Shares), including each Grantor Trust Share, if any, distributed to the Company pursuant to Section 1.04(a)(v), or owned by Parent or Merger Subsidiary immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be canceled, and no payment shall be made with respect thereto;

Annex I-1

Table of Contents

(b) each Common Share outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time (which, for the avoidance of doubt, will not include any Common Shares canceled pursuant to Section 1.04(a)(iii)) shall, except as otherwise provided in Section 1.02(a), be converted into the following:

(i) the right to receive 0.768 shares of common stock, par value $0.25 per share (Parent Stock), of Parent (the Stock Merger Consideration); and

(ii) the right to receive $31.31 in cash, without interest (the Cash Merger Consideration), and together with the Stock Merger Consideration, the Merger Consideration); and

(c) each share of common stock of Merger Subsidiary outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall be converted into and become one share of common stock of the Surviving Corporation with the same rights, powers and privileges as the shares so converted and shall constitute the only outstanding shares of capital stock of the Surviving Corporation.

Section 1.03. Surrender and Payment. (a) Prior to the Effective Time, Parent shall appoint an agent reasonably acceptable to the Company (the Exchange Agent) for the purpose of exchanging certificates representing Common Shares for the Merger Consideration and shall deposit with the Exchange Agent, for the benefit of the holders of Common Shares, for exchange in accordance with this Article 1, the aggregate Merger Consideration, consisting of (i) certificates representing Parent Stock to be issued as Stock Merger Consideration and (ii) cash sufficient to pay the aggregate Cash Merger Consideration. In addition, Parent shall deposit with the Exchange Agent, as necessary from time to time after the Effective Time, cash sufficient to pay any dividends or other distributions and cash in lieu of any fractional shares of Parent Stock payable pursuant to Section 1.03(b). Promptly (and in any event, within two Business Days) after the Effective Time, the Surviving Corporation will send, or will cause the Exchange Agent to send, to each holder of record of Common Shares at the Effective Time (and make customary arrangements for the prompt delivery to each such holder) a letter of transmittal (Letter of Transmittal) for use in such exchange, which shall specify that the delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title shall pass, only upon proper delivery of the certificates representing Common Shares to the Exchange Agent.

(b) Each holder of Common Shares that have been converted into a right to receive the Merger Consideration, upon surrender to the Exchange Agent of a certificate or certificates representing such Common Shares, together with a properly completed Letter of Transmittal covering such Common Shares, will be entitled to receive therefor (i) the Cash Merger Consideration payable in respect of such Common Shares, (ii) a certificate or certificates representing that number of whole shares of Parent Stock to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 1.02(b) and (iii) any dividends or distributions, and any cash in lieu of any fractional shares of Parent Stock, payable at the time of such surrender pursuant to Section 1.03(f), and the certificate or certificates representing such Common Shares shall forthwith be canceled. Until so surrendered, each such certificate shall, after the Effective Time, represent for all purposes, only the right to receive the Merger Consideration payable in respect of the Common Shares represented thereby and any such dividends or distributions and cash in lieu of fractional shares of Parent Stock, subject, however, to the Surviving Corporation's obligation to pay all dividends that may have been declared by the Company in accordance with Section 5.01 and that remain unpaid at the Effective Time. No interest will be paid or will accrue on any cash payable as Merger Consideration, in lieu of any fractional shares of Parent Stock or otherwise pursuant to this Article.

(c) If any portion of the Merger Consideration is to be paid to a Person other than the registered holder of the Common Shares represented by the certificate or certificates surrendered in exchange therefor, it shall be a condition to such payment that the certificate or certificates so surrendered shall be properly endorsed or otherwise be in proper form for transfer and that the Person requesting such payment shall pay to the Exchange Agent any transfer or other taxes required as a result of such payment (and the payment of any other amounts referred to in Section 1.03(b)) to a Person other than the registered holder of such Common Shares or establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such tax has been paid or is not payable. For purposes of this Agreement, Person means an individual, a corporation, a limited liability company, a partnership, an association, a trust or any other entity or organization, including a government or political subdivision or any agency or instrumentality thereof.

(d) After the Effective Time, there shall be no further registration of transfers of Common Shares. If, after the Effective Time, certificates representing Common Shares are presented to the Surviving Corporation, they shall be canceled and exchanged for the consideration provided for, and in accordance with the procedures set forth, in this Article 1.

(e) Any portion of the Merger Consideration or other funds made available to the Exchange Agent pursuant to Section 1.03(a) that remains unclaimed by the holders of Common Shares six months after the Effective Time shall be returned to Parent, upon demand, and any such holder who has not exchanged his Common Shares for the Merger Consideration in accordance with this Section prior to that time shall thereafter look only to Parent for payment of the Merger Consideration in respect of his Common Shares, and any dividends and distributions with respect thereto, without any interest thereon. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of the Surviving Corporation, the Company, Merger Subsidiary, Parent or the Exchange Agent shall be liable to any holder of Common Shares for any amount paid or any shares of Parent Stock delivered to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property laws. Any amounts or shares remaining unclaimed by holders of Common Shares two years after the Effective Time (or such earlier date immediately prior to such time as such amounts or shares would otherwise escheat to or become property of any Governmental Authority) shall, to the extent permitted by Applicable Law, become the property of Parent free and clear of any claims or interest of any Person previously entitled thereto.

(f) No dividends or other distributions with respect to Parent Stock with a record date after the Effective Time shall be paid to the holder of any unsurrendered certificate for Common Shares with respect to the shares of Parent Stock represented thereby and no cash payment in lieu of fractional shares shall be paid to any such holder pursuant to Section 1.06, in each case, until the surrender of such certificate in accordance with this Section. Subject to the effect of Applicable Laws, following surrender of any such certificate, there shall be paid to the holder of the certificate representing whole shares of Parent Stock issued in exchange therefor, without interest, (i) at the time of such surrender, the amount of any cash payable in lieu of a fractional share of Parent Stock to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 1.06 and the amount of all dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time theretofore paid with respect to such whole shares of Parent Stock, and (ii) at the appropriate payment date, the amount of dividends or other distributions with a record date after the Effective Time but prior to such surrender, and with a payment date subsequent to such surrender, payable with respect to such whole shares of Parent Stock.

(g) With respect to any certificate representing Common Shares properly surrendered to the Exchange Agent, the Exchange Agent shall, subject to the provisions of this Agreement, including Section 1.03(e), mail or otherwise transmit the Merger Consideration in respect thereof to the applicable holder or transferee thereof within five Business Days (or as promptly thereafter as practicable) of the date such certificate representing Common Shares is properly surrendered.

Section 1.04. Treatment of Equity Compensation Awards. (a) Prior to the Effective Time, the Company or the Board of Directors of the Company (or, if appropriate, any committee thereof) shall take all action necessary so that (or, in the case of clause (v) below, shall use reasonable best efforts so that) immediately prior to the Effective Time:

(i) each outstanding compensatory stock option to purchase Common Shares granted under the Amended and Restated Equity Incentive Plan or the Non-Management Directors Stock Compensation Plan of the Company (together, the Company Stock Plans), any other compensatory agreement, plan, arrangement or policy of the Company or otherwise (an Option) shall be canceled, and Parent shall pay, or cause the Surviving Corporation to pay, immediately after the Effective Time, each holder of such Option, whether or not then vested or exercisable, for each such Option an amount determined by multiplying (A) the excess, if any, of the Merger Consideration Value over the applicable per share exercise price of such Option by (B) the number of Common Shares such holder could have purchased (assuming full vesting of all Options) had such holder exercised such Option in full immediately prior to the Effective Time;

(ii) each outstanding share unit granted or otherwise issued under the Executive Stock Purchase Plan of the Company or the Deferred Compensation Plan of the Company (an ESPP Share Unit) shall be canceled, and Parent shall pay, or cause the Surviving Corporation to pay, immediately after the Effective Time, each holder of such ESPP Share Unit, whether or not then vested, for each such ESPP Share Unit an amount equal to the Merger Consideration Value;

(iii) each outstanding Common Share that is subject to vesting, restrictions on transferability and risks of forfeiture and is granted or otherwise issued under any Company Stock Plan or any other compensatory agreement, plan, arrangement or policy of the Company (a Restricted Share) shall be canceled, and Parent shall pay, or cause the Surviving Corporation to pay, immediately after the Effective Time, each holder of such Restricted Share for each such Restricted Share an amount equal to the Merger Consideration Value;

(iv) each outstanding share unit (other than ESPP Share Units) granted or otherwise issued under any Company Stock Plan, any other compensatory agreement, plan, arrangement or policy of the Company or otherwise (a Restricted Share Unit and, collectively, together with Options, ESPP Share Units and Restricted Shares, Compensatory Awards) shall be canceled, and Parent shall pay, or cause the Surviving Corporation to pay, immediately after the Effective Time, each holder of such Restricted Share Unit, whether or not then vested, for each such Restricted Share Unit an amount equal to the Merger Consideration Value; and

(v) the trust established under the Agreement of Trust Under C-TEC Corporation Executive One-for-One Stock Purchase Plan shall be terminated, and all Common Shares held in such trust (Grantor Trust Shares) shall be distributed to the Company immediately prior to the Effective Time, and shall be canceled at the Effective Time in accordance with Section 1.02(a).

Prior to the Closing, Parent shall put in place arrangements reasonably satisfactory to the Company to ensure payment of such amounts in accordance with the provisions set forth in this Section 1.04(a).

(b) For purposes of this Agreement, the term Merger Consideration Value means the sum of (i) the per share Cash Merger Consideration and (ii) the product obtained by multiplying the per share Stock Merger Consideration by the five-day average closing price of Parent Stock ending on the second trading day immediately preceding the Closing Date (as reported in The Wall Street Journal).

Section 1.05. Adjustments. If, during the period between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, any change in the outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company or Parent shall occur by reason of any reclassification, recapitalization, stock split or combination, exchange or readjustment of shares, or any stock dividend thereon with a record date during such period, or any other similar event, the Merger Consideration and any other amounts payable pursuant to this Article shall be appropriately adjusted.

Section 1.06. Fractional Shares. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, no fractional shares of Parent Stock will be issued, and any holder of Common Shares entitled to receive a fractional share of Parent Stock but for this Section shall be entitled to receive a cash payment in lieu thereof in an amount equal to the product obtained by multiplying (a) the fractional share interest in Parent Stock that such holder otherwise would be entitled to receive by (b) the per share closing price of Parent Stock on the Closing Date (as reported in The Wall Street Journal). Such fractional share interests shall not entitle the owner thereof to any dividends or other distributions made in respect of Parent Stock or to the right to vote or any other rights of a stockholder of Parent.

Section 1.07. Withholding Rights. Each of the Exchange Agent, the Surviving Corporation and Parent (without duplication) shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable to any Person pursuant to this Article such amounts as it is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under any provision of federal, state, local or foreign tax law. If the Exchange Agent, the Surviving Corporation or Parent, as the case may be, so withholds amounts, such amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the Common Shares in respect of which the Exchange Agent, the Surviving Corporation or Parent, as the case may be, made such deduction and withholding. No such deduction or withholding shall be made if the relevant Person shall provide documentation reasonably satisfactory to the Exchange Agent, the Surviving Corporation and Parent establishing an exemption from withholding, and the Exchange Agent, the Surviving Corporation and Parent, as applicable, shall take customary actions to obtain such documentation prior to such deduction or withholding.

Section 1.08. Lost Certificates. If any certificate representing Common Shares shall have been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by the Surviving Corporation, the posting by such Person of a bond, in such reasonable amount as the Surviving Corporation may direct, as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such certificate, the Exchange Agent will issue, in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed certificate, the Merger Consideration and the other amounts referred to in Section 1.03(b) to be paid in respect of the Common Shares represented by such certificate, as contemplated by this Article.

The execution, delivery and performance by the Company of this Agreement and the consummation by the Company of the transactions contemplated hereby are within the Company's corporate powers and, except for any required approval by the Company's stockholders in connection with the consummation of the Merger, have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by the Company and constitutes a valid and binding agreement of the Company, enforceable against the Company in accordance with its terms, except (x) as the same may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, moratorium or similar laws of general application relating to or affecting creditors' rights, and (y) for the limitations imposed by general principles of equity. The foregoing exceptions (x) and (y) are hereinafter referred to as the Enforceability Exceptions. The Company has delivered to Parent true and complete copies of the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the Company as in effect on the date hereof. For purposes of this Agreement, Material Adverse Effect means, with respect to any Person, any effect, event, occurrence, state of facts or development that has a materially adverse effect on the business, assets, liabilities, operations or financial condition of such Person and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, excluding any such effect, event, occurrence, state of facts or development resulting from or arising in connection with (i) this Agreement, the transactions contemplated hereby or the announcement or consummation thereof or the taking of any actions required by this Agreement, (ii) changes or conditions generally affecting the industries in which such Person and its Subsidiaries operate, to the extent such changes or conditions do not disproportionately impact such Person and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, (iii) general economic or financial markets conditions, (iv) any change in generally accepted accounting principles in the United States (GAAP), (v) changes in Applicable Law to the extent such changes do not disproportionately impact such Person and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, (vi) any failure by such Person to meet analysts' revenue or earning projections and (vii) any decline in the price of any publicly traded securities of such Person (it being understood, in the case of clauses (vi) and (vii), that the facts or occurrences giving rise or contributing to any such failure or decline may be deemed to constitute, or be taken into account in determining whether there has been, or would reasonably be expected to be, a Material Adverse Effect). For purposes of this Agreement, a Subsidiary, as to any Person, means any corporation or other entity of which securities or other ownership interests having ordinary voting power to elect a majority of the board of directors or other persons performing similar functions are directly or indirectly owned by such Person.

Section 3.02. No Breach. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by the Company do not, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby by the Company will not, (i) violate or conflict with the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws of the Company, (ii) except as set forth on Section 3.02 of the Company Disclosure Schedule, constitute a breach or default of (with or without notice or lapse of time, or both), or give rise to any third-party right of termination, cancellation, modification or acceleration under, or to a loss of a benefit of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries under, any agreement, understanding, undertaking or License to which the Company or any of its Subsidiaries is a party or by which any of them is bound, or give rise to any Lien on any of their properties, or (iii) subject to obtaining the approvals and making the filings described in Section 3.03 hereof, constitute a violation or breach of any provision of any Applicable Law, with such exceptions in the cases of subsections (ii) and (iii) as would not, individually or in the aggregate, reasonably be expected to have a Company Material Adverse Effect or materially interfere with or delay the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby. As used herein, the term Securities Act means the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, together with the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, and the term Exchange Act means the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, together with the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder.

The Company has received the opinion, dated the date of this Agreement, of Evercore Group L.L.C. (Evercore), as financial advisor to the Company, that the Merger Consideration to be received by the Company's stockholders (other than Parent and its Affiliates) in the Merger is fair to such stockholders from a financial point of view, a signed copy of which opinion has been or will promptly be delivered to Parent. The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by the holders of Common Shares is the only vote of the holders of any class or series of capital stock or other securities of the Company necessary for the Company to adopt this Agreement and to approve the Merger.

Section 3.05. Capitalization. The authorized capital stock of the Company consists of 85,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $1.00 per share (the Common Shares), and 25,000,000 shares of preferred stock, no par value (the Preferred Stock). All outstanding shares of capital stock of the Company have been duly authorized and validly issued and are fully paid and nonassessable. Except as set forth in this Section 3.05 and for changes since August 31, 2006 resulting from (1) the exercise of Options granted under the Company Stock Plans outstanding on such date, (2) the settlement of ESPP Share Units and Restricted Share Units granted or otherwise issued under the Company Stock Plans, in each case, outstanding on such date, (3) issuances of additional ESPP Share Units in respect of compensation deferred after such date (including any matching grant with respect thereto) and the settlement of any ESPP Share Units so issued, (4) issuances of Restricted Share Units under the Company Stock Plans awardable under Performance Awards outstanding on such date and the settlement of any such Restricted Share Units so awarded, (5) issuances of Common Shares on the conversion, if any, of Company Convertible Notes, (6) adjustments to the ESPP Share Units and the Restricted Share Units granted or otherwise issued under the Company Stock Plans, in each case, as a result of the payment of regular quarterly dividends (Permitted Share Unit Adjustments) and (7) the release of Treasury Shares consistent with past practice in connection with the operation of the Company's qualified Except as required by the terms of the Company Convertible Notes, there are no outstanding obligations of the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company to repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any Company Securities. Except as would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Company Material Adverse Effect, with respect to the Options, (I) each grant of an Option was duly authorized no later than the date on which the grant of such Option was by its terms to be effective (the Grant Date) by all necessary corporate action, including, as applicable, approval by the Board of Directors of the Company (or a duly constituted and authorized committee thereof) and any required stockholder approval by the necessary number of votes or written consents, and the award agreement governing such grant (if any) was duly executed and delivered by each party thereto, (II) each such grant was made in accordance with the terms of the applicable compensation plan or arrangement of the Company, the Exchange Act and all other Applicable Laws and regulatory rules or requirements, including the rules of NASDAQ, (III) the per share exercise price of each Option was equal to the fair market value of a Common Share on the applicable Grant Date and (IV) each such grant was properly accounted for in accordance with GAAP in the financial statements (including the related notes) of the Company and disclosed in the Company SEC Documents in accordance with the Exchange Act and all other Applicable Laws.

Each of the Subsidiaries of the Company has all requisite corporate or limited liability company power to carry on its business as now being conducted, except where the failure to have such power or authority would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Company Material Adverse Effect. Each Subsidiary of the Company is duly qualified to do business as a foreign corporation or limited liability company and is in good standing in each jurisdiction where the character of the property owned or leased by it or the nature of its activities makes such qualification necessary, with such exceptions as would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Company Material Adverse Effect. All Subsidiaries of the Company that are significant subsidiaries within the meaning of Rule 1-02 of Regulation S-X of the SEC (Company Significant Subsidiaries), together with their respective jurisdictions of incorporation, are listed in the Company's most recent Annual Report on Form 10-K. There are no outstanding obligations of the Company or any Subsidiary of the Company to repurchase, redeem or otherwise acquire any outstanding Company Subsidiary Securities.

(c) Except for its interest in its Subsidiaries and any de minimis interests which do not impose any obligations on the Company, the Company does not own, directly or indirectly, any capital stock or other ownership interests in any corporation, partnership, joint venture, association or other entity.

Section 3.07. SEC Filings and the Sarbanes-Oxley Act. (a) The Company has filed or furnished all reports, schedules, forms, statements and other documents (including exhibits and other information incorporated therein) with the SEC required to be filed or furnished by the Company since January 1, 2004 (collectively, but excluding the Proxy Statement, the Company SEC Documents).

(b) As of December 31, 2005, the difference between (i) the fair market value of the assets of each Employee Plan subject to Title IV of ERISA (a Title IV Plan) (excluding for these purposes any accrued but unpaid contributions) and (ii) the present value of all benefits accrued under such Title IV Plan determined on an accumulated benefit obligation basis was as set forth in Section 3.14(b) of the Company Disclosure Schedules. No accumulated funding deficiency, as defined in Section 412 of the Code, has been incurred with respect to any Employee Plan subject to such Section 412, whether or not waived. No reportable event, within the meaning of Section 4043 of ERISA, other than a reportable event that would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Company Material Adverse Effect, and no event described in Sections 4062 or 4063 of ERISA, has occurred in connection with any Employee Plan. Neither the Company nor any ERISA Affiliate thereof has (A) engaged in a prohibited transaction (as such term is defined in Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code) or any other breach of fiduciary responsibility that could subject the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to any material Tax or penalty on prohibited transactions imposed by Section 4975 of the Code or to any material liability under Section 502 of ERISA, (B) engaged in, or is a successor or parent corporation to an entity that has engaged in, a transaction described in Sections 4069 or 4212(c) of ERISA or (C) incurred, or reasonably expects to incur prior to the Effective Time (1) any liability under Title IV of ERISA arising in connection with the termination of, or a complete or partial withdrawal from, any plan covered or previously covered by Title IV of ERISA or (2) any liability under Section 4971 of the Code that, in each case, could become a liability of Parent or any of its ERISA Affiliates after the Effective Time. None of the Company nor any of its ERISA Affiliates makes contributions to, or has any liability under, any multiemployer plan (as defined in Section 3(37) of ERISA).

(c) Each Employee Plan which is intended to be qualified under Section 401(a) of the Code has received a favorable determination letter, or has pending or has time remaining in which to file an application for such determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service, and the Company is not aware of any reason why any such determination letter should be revoked or not be reissued. The Company has made available to Parent true and complete copies of the most recent Internal Revenue Service determination letters with respect to each such Employee Plan. Each Employee Plan has been maintained in compliance with its terms and with the requirements prescribed by any and all statutes, orders, rules and regulations which are applicable to such Employee Plan, except where such non-compliance would not reasonably be expected to have, individually or in the aggregate, a Company Material Adverse Effect.

The execution and delivery of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby (alone or in combination with any other event) and compliance by the Company with the provisions hereof do not and will not require the funding (whether through a grantor trust or otherwise) of, or increase the cost of, or give rise to any other obligation under, any Employee Plan and will not result in any breach or violation of, or default under, or limit the ability of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries to amend, modify or terminate, any Employee Plan.

(f) (i) No amount, economic benefit or other entitlement that could be received (whether in cash or property or the vesting of property) as a result of the transactions contemplated hereby (alone or in combination with any other event) by any person who is a disqualified individual (as defined in Treasury Regulation Section 1.280G-1) with respect to the Company would be characterized as an excess parachute payment (as defined in Section 280G(b)(1) of the Code). (ii) No director, officer or employee of the Company or any of its Subsidiaries is entitled to receive any additional payment from the Company, any of its Subsidiaries or any other Person in the event that the excise Tax required by Section 4999(a) of the Code, any Tax imposed under Section 409A of the Code or any other Tax is imposed on such individual.

Parent and the Company shall advise the other party, promptly after receipt of notice thereof, of the time of the effectiveness of the Registration Statement, the filing of any supplement or amendment thereto, the issuance of any stop order relating thereto, the suspension of the qualification of Parent Stock issuable in connection with the Merger for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, or of any SEC request for amendment to the Proxy Statement or the Registration Statement, SEC comments thereon and each party's responses thereto or SEC request for additional information. No amendment or supplement to the Proxy Statement or the Registration Statement shall be filed without the approval of each of Parent and the Company, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; provided that, with respect to documents filed by the Company or Parent which are incorporated by reference in the Proxy Statement and/or the Registration Statement, this right of approval shall apply only with respect to information relating to the other party or its business, financial condition or results of operations.

(c) If, at any time prior to the Effective Time, Parent or the Company should discover any information relating to either party, or any of their respective Affiliates, officers or directors, that should be set forth in an amendment or supplement to the Registration Statement or the Proxy Statement, so that such documents would not include any misstatement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading, the party that discovers such information shall promptly notify the other party hereto and an appropriate amendment or supplement describing such information shall be promptly filed with the SEC and, to the extent required by Applicable Law, disseminated to the stockholders of the Company.

Section 7.02. Reasonable Best Efforts. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each of the parties hereto agrees to use its reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all appropriate action, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or advisable under Applicable Laws to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by this Agreement in the most expeditious manner practicable, including but not limited to the satisfaction of all conditions to the Merger and seeking to remove promptly any injunction or other legal barrier that may prevent or delay such consummation. The Company shall have primary responsibility, with the assistance and cooperation of Parent, for obtaining all authorizations, consents, orders and approvals with respect to the Company's and its Subsidiaries' Licenses; provided that the Company and Parent will have joint responsibility with respect to the joint applications required for the transfer of control of any such Licenses under the rules and regulations of the FCC and the PPUC. Without limiting the obligations of the Company and Parent under Section 7.03(a), each of the Company and Parent agrees, upon reasonable prior notice, to make appropriate representatives available for attendance at meetings and hearings before applicable Governmental Authorities in connection with the transfer of control of any such License.

(c) The Company and Parent shall cooperate with one another (i) in determining whether any action by or in respect of, or filing with, any Governmental Authority is required, or any actions, consents, approvals or waivers are required to be obtained from parties to any material contracts, in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and (ii) in seeking any such actions, consents, approvals or waivers, or making any such filings, furnishing information required in connection therewith or with the Proxy Statement, the Registration Statement or any amendments or supplements thereto, and seeking timely to obtain any such actions, consents, approvals or waivers.

provided that, the delivery of any notice pursuant to this Section 7.05 shall not limit or otherwise affect the remedies available hereunder to the party receiving such notice or constitute an admission that any event communicated is material or could give rise to a Company Material Adverse Effect or a Parent Material Adverse Effect.

Any investigation pursuant to this Section shall be conducted in such manner as not to interfere unreasonably with the conduct of business of the Company and its Subsidiaries.

Section 10.03. Amendments; No Waivers. (a) Any provision of this Agreement may be amended or waived prior to the Effective Time if, and only if, such amendment or waiver is in writing and signed, in the case of an amendment, by each party to this Agreement or, in the case of a waiver, by the party against whom the waiver is to be effective; provided that after the adoption of this Agreement by the stockholders of the Company, no such amendment or waiver shall, without the further approval of such stockholders, make any change that would require further stockholder approval under the Pennsylvania Law.

(c) The Company acknowledges that the agreements contained in this Section are an integral part of this Agreement, and that, without these agreements, Parent would not have entered into this Agreement. Accordingly, if the Company fails promptly to pay the amounts due pursuant to this Section, and, in order to obtain such payment, Parent commences a suit that results in a judgment against the Company for the amounts set forth in this Section, the Company shall pay to Parent its reasonable costs and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses) in connection with such suit and any appeal relating thereto, together with interest on the amounts set forth in this Section at the prime rate of Citibank, N.A. in effect on the date such payment was required to be made.

Board of Directors

Commonwealth Telephone Enterprises Inc.

100 CTE Drive

Dallas, PA 18612-9774

Members of the Board of Directors:

You have informed us that Commonwealth Telephone Enterprises Inc. (CTCO), Citizens Communications Company (CZN) and CF Merger Corp., a wholly owned subsidiary of CZN (Merger Sub), propose to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, to be dated as of September 17, 2006 (the Merger Agreement), which provides, among other things, for the merger of Merger Sub with and into CTCO (the Merger). As a result of the Merger, among other things, CTCO will become a wholly owned subsidiary of CZN, and each share of CTCO common stock, par value $1.00 per share (CTCO Common Stock), issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, other than shares of CTCO Common Stock held by CTCO as treasury shares and shares of CTCO Common Stock, if any, owned by CZN or Merger Sub (the Excluded Shares), will be converted into the right to receive Merger Consideration consisting of 0.768 shares of CZN common stock, par value $0.25 per share (CZN Common Stock), and $31.31 in cash. The terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Merger Agreement.

You have asked us whether, in our opinion as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration to be received by holders of shares CTCO Common Stock (other than holders, if any, of Excluded Shares) pursuant to the Merger Agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to such shareholders.

In connection with rendering our opinion, we have, among other things:

- (i) Reviewed certain publicly available financial statements and other information relating to CTCO and CZN, respectively;
- (ii) Reviewed certain internal financial statements and other financial and operating information concerning CTCO and CZN, respectively, prepared by the respective managements of CTCO and CZN;
- (iii) Reviewed certain financial forecasts for CTCO prepared by management of CTCO (the CTCO Management Forecasts);
- (iv) Considered 2006 and 2007 revenue and EBITDA targets for CZN disclosed to us orally by CZN management (the CZN Internal Revenue and EBITDA Targets) and reviewed certain independent research analysts estimates of the future financial performance of CZN (the CZN Street Forecasts);
- (v) Reviewed the amount and timing of the cost savings and operating synergies estimated by CTCO management and CZN management, respectively, to result from the Merger (the Synergies) and the associated integration costs;

- (vi) Discussed the past and current operations and financial condition and the prospects of CTCO and CZN with the respective senior management teams of CTCO and CZN;

- (vii) Reviewed the reported prices and trading activity of the CTCO Common Stock and the CZN Common Stock;

- (viii) Compared the financial performance of each of CTCO and CZN and the prices and trading activity of the CTCO Common Stock and the CZN Common Stock with that of certain other publicly-traded Rural Local Exchange Carrier (RLEC) companies and their securities;

- (ix) Reviewed the financial terms, to the extent publicly available, of certain RLEC and other business combination transactions we deemed relevant;
- (x) Participated in discussions and negotiations among representatives of CTCO and CZN and their financial and legal advisors;
- (xi) Reviewed the most recent draft made available to us of the Merger Agreement, which draft was dated September 15, 2006 (the Draft Merger Agreement); and
- (xiii) Performed such other financial analyses and examinations and considered such other matters as we have in our sole judgment deemed appropriate.

In arriving at our opinion, we have, with CTCO's consent, assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information used by us without assuming any responsibility for independent verification of such information. With respect to the CTCO Management Forecasts, we have assumed that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgements of the future performance of CTCO. Except for the CZN Internal Revenue and EBITDA Targets and CZN management estimates of Synergies, we have not been provided with, and did not have access to, any financial projections of CZN prepared by management of CZN. With respect to the CZN Internal Revenue and EBITDA Targets, we have assumed that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgements of CZN management with respect to the projected revenue and EBITDA of CZN for 2006 and 2007. In the absence of other CZN financial projections prepared by CZN management, we have reviewed and discussed the CZN Street Forecasts with senior management of CTCO, and we have also discussed the CZN Street Forecasts for 2006 and 2007 and the CZN Internal Revenue and EBITDA Targets with senior management of CZN, and, with CTCO's consent, have assumed that the CZN Street Forecasts and CZN Internal Revenue and EBITDA Targets are a reasonable basis upon which to evaluate the future financial performance of CZN and we have used such estimates in performing our analysis. We have also assumed that the Synergies are reasonably obtainable, in each case on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and good faith judgments of the future competitive, operating and regulatory environments and related financial performance of each of CTCO and CZN and that the Synergies will be realized in the amounts and at the times indicated thereby. We also assumed that the definitive Merger Agreement is substantially identical to the Draft Merger Agreement reviewed by us. We have neither made nor assumed any responsibility for making any independent valuation or appraisal of the assets or liabilities of either CTCO or CZN, including real estate assets, nor have we been furnished with any such appraisals. In addition, we have not evaluated the solvency of CTCO or CZN under any state or federal laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. We have also assumed that all governmental, regulatory or other consents and approvals that are required in connection with the Merger will be obtained without any adverse effect on CTCO or CZN or on the expected benefits of the Merger in any way meaningful to our analysis. In addition, we have assumed that the Merger will be consummated in accordance with the terms set forth in the Merger Agreement without material modification, waiver or delay. Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information and Draft Merger Agreement made available to us, as of the date hereof.

Our opinion does not address CTCO's underlying business decision to effect the Merger. Additionally, we have not been asked to pass upon, and express no opinion with respect to, any matter other than the fairness from a financial point of view of the Merger Consideration to be paid to holders of shares of CTCO Common Stock, other Excluded Shares, pursuant to the Merger Agreement. We express no opinion as to the price at which shares of CTCO Common Stock or CZN Common Stock will trade at any future time.

We have acted as sole financial advisor to the Board of Directors of CTCO in connection with the Merger and will receive a fee from CTCO for our services, the principal portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the Merger. We will also receive a fee for rendering this opinion. CTCO has also agreed to reimburse our reasonable expenses and to indemnify us against certain liabilities rising out of our engagement.

It is understood that this letter is for the information and benefit of the Board of Directors of CTCO in connection with its consideration of the Merger and is not intended to be and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of CTCO as to how such stockholder should vote with respect to the Merger. This letter may not be disclosed, referred to or communicated (in whole or in part) to any third party for any purpose without our prior written consent, except that a copy of this opinion may be included in its entirety in any filing CTCO is required to make with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with the Merger if such inclusion is required by applicable law.

Please note that Evercore Group L.L.C. is an indirect subsidiary of Evercore Partners Inc. (EVR), which recently completed an initial public offering of shares of its class A common stock (the IPO). Mr. John R. Birk, a member of the board of directors of CTCO, is a member of the board and chairman of a company controlled by private equity funds affiliated with EVR and has from time to time served as a consultant to such funds. As a result of his relationship with these EVR affiliated funds, Mr. Birk is afforded an opportunity to invest in, and co-invest with, such funds, and Mr. Birk was also afforded an opportunity to purchase, and he did purchase, a de minimus number of shares (4,000 shares) of EVR class A common stock in the IPO. Except as may result indirectly from his ownership of shares of EVR class A common stock, Mr. Birk will not receive any compensation from EVR or its affiliates in connection with our engagement by CTCO.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration to be received by holders of shares of CTCO Common Stock (other than holders, if any, of Excluded Shares) pursuant to the Merger Agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to such shareholders.

Very truly yours,

Evercore Group L.L.C.

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

Section 145 of the Delaware General Corporations Law (Delaware Law) permits a corporation, under specified circumstances, to indemnify its directors, officers, employees and agents against expenses (including attorneys fees) and other liabilities actually and reasonably incurred by them as a result of any suit (other than a suit brought by or in the right of the corporation) brought against them in their capacity as such, if they acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, if they had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. Section 145 of the Delaware Law also provides that directors, officers, employees and agents may also be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys fees) incurred by them in connection with a suit brought by or in the right of the corporation if they acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification may be made, unless otherwise determined by the court, if such person was adjudged liable to the corporation.

The Delaware Law also provides that the indemnification described above will not be deemed exclusive of other indemnification that may be granted by a corporation pursuant to its by-laws, disinterested directors vote, stockholders vote, agreement or otherwise.

The Delaware Law also provides corporations with the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation in a similar capacity for another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him or her in any such capacity, or arising out of his or her status, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liability as described above.

As permitted by sections 102 and 145 of Delaware Law, the registrant s Restated Certificate of Incorporation eliminates the liability of a director to Citizens and its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of a director s fiduciary duty except for liability under section 174 of Delaware Law, for any breach of the director s duty of loyalty to Citizens or its stockholders, for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law or for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

The registrant s By-laws provide that to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law as then in effect, the registrant shall indemnify any person (the Indemnitee) who was or is involved in any manner (including, without limitation, as a party or witness) or was or is threatened to be made so involved in any threatened, pending or completed investigation, claim, action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative (including, without limitation, any action or proceeding by or in the right of the registrant to procure a judgment in its favor) (a Proceeding), by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the registrant, or is or was serving at the request of the registrant as a director or officer of another corporation, or of a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise (including, without limitation, service with respect to any employee benefit plan), whether the basis of any such Proceeding is alleged action in an official capacity as director or officer or in any other capacity while serving as a director or officer, against all expenses, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys fees, judgments, fines, ERISA excise taxes or penalties, and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such Proceeding. Such indemnification shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of his heirs, executors, administrators and legal representatives. The right to indemnification conferred in the registrant s By-laws includes the right to receive payment of any expenses incurred by the Indemnitee in connection with such Proceeding in advance of the final disposition of the Proceeding, consistent with applicable law as then in effect.

Item 22. Undertakings

(a)(1) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(2) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this Registration Statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(3) The registrant undertakes that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (a)(2) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the Registration Statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(4) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(b) The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt
