If answer is no, identify report(s).  Yes  No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?  Yes  No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

BioLargo, Inc. (the Company) expects to report that its net loss for the three- and six-month periods ended June 30, 2007 was $696,742 and $2,287,089, or a loss of $0.02 and $0.13 per share, respectively. Comparatively, for the three- and six-month periods ended June 30, 2006, net loss was $91,793 and $533,431, or a loss of $0.01 and $0.01 per share, respectively. This increase in loss is primarily attributable to non-cash interest and expense recorded from the conversion of notes payable and consultant obligations, because the conversion price was less than the market price of the Company's stock at the date of conversion; and an increase in selling, general and administrative expenses; partially offset by lower research and development expenses.

The Company expects to report that selling, general and administrative expenses were approximately $683,000 and $1,302,000 for the three- and six-month periods ended June 30, 2007, respectively, compared to $207,000 and $550,000 for the three- and six-month periods ended June 30, 2006, respectively. This increase is primarily attributable to increases in (i) professional fees, including investment banking fees; (ii) salary and payroll; (iii) consulting expenses; and (iv) other expenses.

The Company expects to report that research and development expenses were approximately $24,000 and $42,000 for the three- and six-month periods ended June 30, 2007, as compared to $63,000 and $83,000 for the three- and six-month periods ended June 30, 2006. This decrease is primarily attributable to a reduction in research and development projects during a time while the Company focused its efforts and financial resources on sales and marketing efforts.

Edgar Filing: BIOLARGO, INC. - Form NT 10-Q

The Company further expects to report that net other income and expense for the three- and six-month periods ended June 30, 2007 were approximately $9,000 income and $943,000 expense, compared to income of $189,000 and $101,000 for the three- and six-month periods ended June 30, 2006. This decrease is primarily attributable to the absence of a reduction to a note payable that was recorded in the three-month period ended June 30, 2006, partially offset by a non-cash expense to record the difference in conversion and market price of the Company's common stock when it converted certain notes payable and consultant obligations.
