RISK FACTORS

Investment in our securities involves risks. Prior to making a decision about investing in our securities, you should consider carefully the risk factors, together with all of the other information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus and any prospectus supplement, including any additional specific risks described in the section entitled "Risk Factors" contained in any supplements to this prospectus and in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 30, 2008 and in our quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended April 21, 2009, filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), as well as any amendments thereto reflected in subsequent filings with the SEC, which are incorporated herein by reference in their entirety. Each of these risk factors could have a material adverse effect on our business, results of operations, financial position or cash flows, which may result in the loss of all or part of your investment.

Risks Related to Our Private Placement of Series B-1 Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Series B-1 Preferred") and Series B-2 Convertible Preferred Stock (the "Series B-2 Preferred," together with the Series B-1 Preferred, the "Series B Preferred") and the Issuance of a Warrant to North Point Advisors, LLC (the "Advisor Warrant")

The holders of our Series B Preferred are entitled to receive dividends and liquidation payments in preference to the holders of our common stock.

Dividends accrue on shares of the Series B Preferred at a rate of 8% per annum and are payable quarterly in cash at the option of the Company. The dividend rate will increase to 10% in the event our common stock is not listed for trading on any of the New York Stock Exchange, the NASDAQ Global Market or the NYSE Amex Equities (formerly American Stock Exchange), or if we fail to declare and pay, in full and in cash, dividends on the shares of Series B Preferred for three consecutive quarters until such time as such dividends are paid in full and in cash. The Company cannot declare, pay, or set apart for payment any dividend or make any distribution on any shares of our common stock until each outstanding share of Series B Preferred receives an amount equal to the product of (i) the dividend or distribution payable on each share of common stock multiplied by (ii) the number of shares of our common stock issuable upon conversion of a share of Series B Preferred. Dividends on shares of the Series B Preferred shall be cumulative, shall accrue, whether or not declared and whether or not there are any profits, surplus or other funds or assets of the Company legally available therefor.

Upon a liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary, the holders of shares of the Series B Preferred are entitled to receive a liquidation payment prior to the payment of any amount with respect to shares of our common stock. The amount of this preferential liquidation payment per share of the Series B Preferred is the greater of (i) the sum of (A) the liquidation preference per share of the Series B Preferred (which initially is $115 per share, subject to adjustment, plus all accrued but unpaid dividends (all such unpaid dividends previously added to the liquidation preference, a "Dividend Arrearage")), plus (B) an amount per share of the Series B Preferred equal to accrued but unpaid dividends not previously added to the liquidation preference from and including the immediately preceding dividend payment date up to, but excluding, the date fixed for such liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company, whether or not declared, in cash, or (ii) the amount of all cash and other property to be distributed in respect of our common stock the holder of a share of the Series B Preferred would have been entitled to had it converted such share (without regard to any limits on conversion) immediately prior to the date fixed for such liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company.

Because of the substantial liquidation preference to which the holders of shares of the Series B Preferred are entitled, the amount available to be distributed to the holders of shares of our common stock upon a liquidation of the Company could be substantially limited or reduced to zero and may make it more difficult to raise capital or recruit and retain key personnel in the future.

We are responsible for having the resale of shares of common stock underlying the Series B Preferred and the Advisor Warrant registered with the SEC within defined time periods and will incur liquidated damages if the shares are not registered with the SEC within those defined time periods.

Pursuant to the Registration Rights Agreement entered into with the investors in the Series B Preferred financing transaction (the "Series B Purchasers") and North Point Advisors, LLC (the "Advisor") on June 16, 2009

Table of Contents

(the Registration Rights Agreement), we are obligated to: (i) file a registration statement covering the resale of the common stock underlying the Series B Preferred and issuable upon the exercise of the Advisor Warrant with the SEC by July 16, 2009 (which we have satisfied) (the Required Filing Date); (ii) use our reasonable best efforts to cause the registration statement to be declared effective (A) within 45 days following the Required Filing Date (the Required Effectiveness Date); provided that, if the SEC reviews and has written comments to the registration statement, then the Required Effectiveness Date will be 60 days from the Required Filing Date, or (B) within 5 days following the date the SEC notifies us that it will not review the registration statement or that we may request effectiveness of the registration statement and (iii) use our reasonable best efforts to keep the registration statement effective until the earlier of (x) the date on which we have delivered an opinion of counsel, reasonably acceptable to the holders of a majority of the securities covered by the registration statement (disregarding those securities held by the Advisor), that each holder of such securities may sell in the open market in a single transaction all such securities without restriction under Rule 144 under the Securities Act, or otherwise under an applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and all other applicable securities or blue sky laws, or (y) the date all of the securities covered by this registration statement have been sold pursuant to this registration statement or Rule 144 of the Securities Act.

If we fail to comply with these or certain other provisions under the Registration Rights Agreement, then we will be required to pay liquidated damages equal to one-twentieth of one percent (0.05%) of the aggregate purchase price paid by the Series B Purchasers for the securities held thereby that can be registered on the registration statement for each day the failure continues. The total liquidated damages under this provision are capped at 5.0% of the aggregate purchase price paid by the Series B Purchasers in the private placement. Any such payments could materially affect our ability to fund our operations.

The certificate of designation governing the Series B Preferred (the Series B Certificate of Designation) contains various covenants and restrictions which may limit our ability to operate our business.

Under the Series B Certificate of Designation, we are not permitted, without the affirmative vote or written consent of the holders of at least a majority of the shares of Series B-1 Preferred and the Series B-2 Preferred, voting together as a single class, directly or indirectly, to take or agree to take any of the following actions:

authorize, create, issue or increase the authorized or issued amount of any class or series of stock that ranks on parity with or senior to the Series B Preferred;

issue to our officers or directors, or any persons or entities affiliated with such officers and directors, any shares of our common stock for consideration less than the conversion price then in effect or any options, warrants or other rights to acquire shares of common stock at an exercise price per share less than the conversion price then in effect other than with respect to shares of common stock issuable upon the exercise of stock options or other securities issued under our stock plans or issued outside our stock plans as compensation;

(i) effect any distribution or declare, pay or set aside any dividend with respect to any equity securities ranking junior to or on parity with the Series B Preferred, (ii) set apart money for a sinking or other similar fund, for, the purchase, redemption or other retirement of any equity securities ranking junior to or on parity with the Series B Preferred, or (iii) permit any corporation or other entity directly or indirectly controlled by us to purchase or redeem any equity securities ranking junior to or on parity with the Series B Preferred;

amend our Certificate of Incorporation, the Series B Certificate of Designation, or our Bylaws (including by way of merger, consolidation or otherwise) so as to affect adversely any right, preference, privilege or voting power of the Series B Preferred; provided, however, that (a) any creation and issuance of shares of junior stock shall not be deemed to adversely affect such rights, preferences, privileges or voting powers; (b) any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary, whether by merger, consolidation or otherwise, shall not be deemed to adversely affect such rights, preferences, privileges or voting powers and (c) we shall not be restricted from authorizing an amendment to our Certificate of Incorporation solely for the purpose of effecting a reverse stock split (and for no other purpose) other than a reverse stock split that would constitute, or would reasonably be expected to constitute, a transaction under Rule 13E-3 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act); authorize or effect any stock dividend, forward stock split, combination or other like changes for and with respect to the Series B Preferred; provided, however, that we are not restricted by the foregoing from authorizing or effecting a reverse stock split other than a reverse stock split that would constitute, or would reasonably be expected to constitute, a transaction under Rule 13E-3 of the Exchange Act;

reclassify our outstanding securities; or

enter into any agreement or other arrangement that would, directly or indirectly, preclude us from complying with our redemption obligations or dividend payment obligations pursuant to the Series B Certificate of Designation.

These restrictions could limit our ability to plan for or react to market conditions or meet extraordinary capital needs or otherwise restrict corporate activities, any of which could have a material adverse impact on our business.

The securities purchase agreement for the sale of shares of the Series B Preferred (the Securities Purchase Agreement) contains various covenants and restrictions which may limit our ability to operate our business.

Pursuant to the Securities Purchase Agreement, we are not permitted to take any of the following actions:

effect any public offering or distribution of any equity securities or register any equity securities (except pursuant to registration on Form S-8 or any successor thereto), in each case until 90 days after the effective date of this registration statement, except as part of this registration;

permit our consolidated indebtedness to exceed $10,000,000 in the aggregate, at any time from and after June 16, 2009, unless consented to in writing by the holders of a majority of the shares of Series B Preferred or the shares of common stock issued upon conversion of the shares of Series B Preferred; and enter into or permit any other transaction (including the purchase, sale, lease or exchange of any asset, property or the rendering of any service), directly or indirectly, with or for the benefit of any of our affiliates and our subsidiaries affiliates, except for the payment of any salaries or other employee compensation to officers of any such affiliates (including reasonable compensation to any director of any such affiliates), unless consented to in writing by the holders of a majority of the shares of Series B Preferred or the shares of common stock issued upon conversion of the shares of Series B Preferred.

These restrictions could limit our ability to plan for or react to market conditions or meet extraordinary capital needs or otherwise restrict corporate activities, any of which could have a material adverse impact on our business.

The holders of shares of the Series B Preferred will have substantial voting power on matters submitted to a vote of stockholders.

The holders of shares of the Series B Preferred are entitled to vote on all matters on which the holders of shares of our common stock are entitled to vote, voting together with the holders of shares of our common stock as a single class. Each share of Series B Preferred is entitled to that number of votes as is equal to the quotient determined by dividing (i) the original issue price of $115 (as adjusted for any stock dividends, combinations, splits, recapitalizations and the like with respect to such shares) by (ii) the then applicable conversion price (initially $1.15 per share). Accordingly, each share of Series B Preferred is initially entitled to 100 votes. The holders of the shares of Series B Preferred also received customary protective provisions under the Series B Certificate of Designation and additional protections under the Securities Purchase Agreement (as discussed in the risk factors above).

Based on 52,690,728 shares of common stock outstanding as of July 14, 2009, the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred represent, in the aggregate, 36.61% of the voting power of our stock. Because the investors will own a significant percentage of our voting power, they may have considerable influence in determining the outcome of any corporate transaction or other matter submitted to our stockholders for approval, including the election of directors and approval of mergers, consolidations and the sale of all or substantially all of our assets.

In addition, the ownership by the investors of a substantial percentage of our total voting power and the terms of the Series B Preferred could make it more difficult and expensive for a third party to pursue a change of control of our company, even if a change of control would generally be beneficial to our stockholders.

The Series B Preferred is redeemable at the option of the holders under certain circumstances.

On or after June 16, 2016, the holders of at least a majority of the then-outstanding shares of Series B Preferred may require us to redeem all or any portion of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred. The redemption price per share of the Series B Preferred is equal to the greater of (i) the sum of (A) the liquidation preference per share of the Series B Preferred (which initially is $115 per share, subject to adjustment, plus all Dividend Arrearages), plus (B) an amount per share of the Series B Preferred equal to accrued but unpaid dividends not previously added to the liquidation preference from and including the immediately preceding dividend payment date up to, but excluding, the date proposed for such redemption, whether or not declared, in cash, or (ii) the amount of all cash and other property to be distributed in respect of our common stock the holder of a share of the Series B Preferred would have been entitled to had it converted such share (without regard to any limits on conversion) immediately prior to the date proposed for such redemption.

Depending on our cash resources at the time that this redemption right is exercised, we may or may not be able to fund the redemption from our available cash resources. If we were unable to fund the redemption from available cash resources we would need to find an alternative source of financing to do so. There can be no assurances that we would be able to raise such funds on favorable terms or at all if they are required.

The Series B Purchasers will have the right to designate up to five individuals to be elected to our board of directors.

The holders of shares of the Series B-1 Preferred, voting as a separate class, will be entitled to elect two members to our board of directors (the Board) so long as more than 50% of the number of shares of Series B-1 Preferred originally issued are outstanding. In the event the number of shares of Series B-1 Preferred outstanding is less than 50% of the number of shares originally issued but greater than 25% of the number of shares originally issued, the holders of shares of the Series B-1 Preferred, voting as a separate class, will be entitled to elect only one member to the Board. The ability to elect any members to the Board by the holders of shares of the Series B-1 Preferred will cease once the number of outstanding shares of Series B-1 Preferred is less than 25% of the number of shares of Series B-1 Preferred originally issued. Under the terms of the Securities Purchase Agreement, the Series B Purchasers of the shares of Series B-1 Preferred shall continue to have the right to nominate members for election to the Board in respect of any shares of common stock held thereby upon conversion of any shares of their Series B-1 Preferred, although such nomination rights are subject to similar reductions depending on the percentage of such shares that continue to be held by such purchasers, relative to the number of shares of common stock underlying the shares of Series B-1 Preferred that were issued and sold to such purchasers at the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Securities Purchase Agreement.

The holders of shares of the Series B-2 Preferred, voting as a separate class, will be entitled to elect one member to the Board so long as more than 25% of the number of shares of Series B-2 Preferred originally issued are outstanding. In the event that (i) at the time of our 2010 annual meeting of stockholders there are more than nine members on the Board and (ii) so long as more than 50% of the number of shares of Series B-2 Preferred originally issued are outstanding, the size of the Board will be increased by one additional Board seat and the holders of shares of the Series B-2 Preferred, voting as a separate class, will be entitled to elect one additional member to the Board to fill the seat. The ability to elect any members to the Board by the holders of shares of Series B-2 Preferred will cease once the number of outstanding shares of Series B-2 Preferred is less than 25% of the number of shares of Series B-2 Preferred originally issued. Under the terms of the Securities Purchase Agreement, the Series B Purchasers of the shares of Series B-2 Preferred shall continue to have the right to nominate members for election to the Board in respect of any shares of common stock held thereby upon conversion of any shares of their Series B-2 Preferred, although such nomination rights are subject to similar reductions depending on the percentage of such shares that continue to be held by such purchasers, relative to the number of shares of common stock underlying the shares of Series B-2 Preferred that were issued and sold to such purchasers at the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Securities Purchase Agreement.

Furthermore, if we fail to declare and pay, in full and in cash, dividends on shares of the Series B Preferred for three consecutive quarters, the size of the Board will be increased by one member and the holders of shares of the Series B Preferred, voting together as a single class, will be entitled to elect one additional member to the Board until such time as the dividends are paid in full and in cash.

Because the holders of shares of the Series B Preferred will have the right to designate these members to our Board, they have considerable influence on the composition of our Board and, therefore, the conduct of our business.

We have agreed to give the holders of shares of the Series B Preferred the right to participate in subsequent stock issuances.

We agreed that if we issue and sell any new equity securities after June 16, 2009, subject to certain exceptions, we will give the Series B Purchasers the right to purchase a portion of those new securities so as to permit each of them to maintain their proportional ownership in our stock as long as such purchaser beneficially owns at least 25% of the shares such purchaser originally purchased on June 16, 2009.

The existence of this right may make it more difficult for us to obtain financing from third parties that do not wish to have Series B Purchasers participating in their financing.

The Series B Preferred private placement could adversely affect the market price of our common stock.

Each share of Series B Preferred Stock is convertible into that number of shares of common stock equal to the quotient determined by dividing $115 (as adjusted for any stock dividends, combinations, splits, recapitalizations and the like with respect to such shares) by the then applicable conversion price. The initial conversion price of the Series B Preferred is $1.15 per share. Upon such conversion, the Company must pay the Dividend Arrearage, if any, on each share of Series B Preferred, plus an amount per share of Series B Preferred equal to accrued but unpaid dividends not previously added to the liquidation preference from and including the immediately preceding dividend payment date up to, but excluding, the applicable date of conversion, whether or not declared. The holder of a share of Series B Preferred may elect to convert that holder's share at any time. In addition, after June 16, 2011, we have the right to force conversion of the then outstanding shares of Series B Preferred upon certain conditions being met (as further discussed below under Description of Transactions).

Sales in the public market of the shares of common stock acquired upon conversion of shares of the Series B Preferred or exercise of the Advisor Warrant, or the perception that such sales could occur, could adversely affect the prevailing market price of our common stock and impair our ability to raise funds in additional stock financings.

Table of ContentsDESCRIPTION OF TRANSACTIONS*Private Placement of Series B Preferred

On May 31, 2009, we entered into the Securities Purchase Agreement with Mistral Equity Partners, LP, Mistral Equity Partners QP, LP, MEP Co-Invest LLC (collectively, the Mistral Purchasers) and 1082272 Ontario Inc. Effective June 4, 2009, 1082272 Ontario Inc. assigned its rights as a Series B Purchaser to CanBa Investments, LLC, whereby CanBa Investments, LLC acquired all of 1082272 Ontario Inc.'s rights, title, interest and obligations as a Series B Purchaser. The closing of the private placements occurred on June 16, 2009. On June 17, 2009, CanBa Investments, LLC distributed an aggregate of 53,739 shares of its Series B-2 Preferred to Front Street Investment Management Inc., CWCP (Jamba) Inc., Elrom South Developments, Inc., and JRP Citadel Inc., all of which were members of CanBa Investments, LLC. The Series B Preferred are currently convertible into 30,434,800 shares of our common stock at a conversion price of $1.15 per share. For services rendered to us in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Securities Purchase Agreement, we issued to the Advisor a warrant to purchase 760,870 shares of our common stock. The following summaries are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the Securities Purchase Agreement (filed as Exhibit 10.1 to our 8-K filed on June 3, 2009), the Series B Certificate of Designation (filed as Exhibit 3.1 to our 8-K filed on June 17, 2009) and the Registration Rights Agreement (filed as Exhibit 4.1 to our 8-K filed on June 17, 2009).

Securities Purchase Agreement

The Securities Purchase Agreement contains the following additional material provisions:

Board Representation. The holders of shares of the Series B-1 Preferred, voting as a separate class, will be entitled to elect two members to our Board so long as more than 50% of the number of shares of Series B-1 Preferred originally issued are outstanding. In the event the number of shares of Series B-1 Preferred Stock outstanding is less than 50% of the number of shares originally issued but greater than 25% of the number of shares originally issued, the holders of shares of the Series B-1 Preferred, voting as a separate class, will be entitled to elect only one member to the Board. The ability to elect any members to the Board by the holders of shares of the Series B-1 Preferred will cease once the number of outstanding shares of Series B-1 Preferred is less than 25% of the number of shares of Series B-1 Preferred originally issued. Under the terms of the Securities Purchase Agreement, the Series B Purchasers of the shares of Series B-1 Preferred shall continue to have the right to nominate members for election to the Board in respect of any shares of common stock held thereby upon conversion of any shares of their Series B-1 Preferred, although such nomination rights are subject to similar reductions depending on the percentage of such shares that continue to be held by such purchasers, relative to the number of shares of common stock underlying the shares of Series B-1 Preferred that were issued and sold to such purchasers at the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Securities Purchase Agreement.

The holders of shares of the Series B-2 Preferred, voting as a separate class, will be entitled to elect one member to the Board so long as more than 25% of the number of shares of Series B-2 Preferred originally issued are outstanding. In the event that (i) at the time of our 2010 annual meeting of stockholders, there are more than nine members on the Board and (ii) so long as more than 50% of the number of shares of Series B-2 Preferred originally issued are outstanding, the size of the Board will be increased by one additional Board seat and the holders of shares of the Series B-2 Preferred, voting as a separate class, will be entitled to elect one additional member to the Board to fill the seat. The right to elect any members to the Board by the holders of shares of Series B-2 Preferred will cease once the number of outstanding shares of Series B-2 Preferred is less than 25% of the number of shares of Series B-2 Preferred originally issued. Under the terms of the Securities Purchase Agreement, the Series B Purchasers of the shares of Series B-2 Preferred shall continue to have the right to nominate members for election to the Board in respect of any shares of common stock held thereby upon conversion of any shares of their Series B-2 Preferred, although such nomination rights are subject to similar reductions depending on the percentage of such shares that continue to be held by such purchasers, relative to the number of shares of common stock underlying the shares of Series B-2 Preferred that were issued and sold to such purchasers at the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Securities Purchase Agreement.

Furthermore, if we fail to declare and pay, in full and in cash, dividends on shares of the Series B Preferred for three consecutive quarters, the size of the Board will be increased by one member and the holders of shares of the Series B Preferred, voting together as a single class, will be entitled to elect one additional member to the Board until such time as the dividends are paid in full and in cash.

Indebtedness. We agreed not to permit our consolidated indebtedness to exceed $10,000,000 in the aggregate, at any time from and after June 16, 2009, unless consented to in writing by the holders of a majority of the shares of Series B Preferred or the shares of common stock issued upon conversion of shares of the Series B Preferred.

Public Sales. We agreed not to effect any public offering or distribution of any equity securities or register any equity securities (except pursuant to registration on Form S-8 or any successor thereto), in each case until 90 days after the effective date of this registration statement, except as part of this registration.

Future Issuances. We agreed that if we issue and sell any new equity securities after June 16, 2009, subject to certain exceptions, we will give each Series B Purchaser the right to purchase a portion of those new securities so as to permit such Series B Purchaser to maintain its proportional ownership in our stock as long as such Series B Purchaser beneficially owns at least 25% of the shares such Series B Purchaser originally purchased on June 16, 2009.

Monitoring Fee. We agreed to pay to Mistral Capital Management, L.L.C. (the Mistral Manager) a quarterly monitoring fee equal to one-quarter of the product of (x) the number of Board seats whose occupants can be selected by the Mistral Purchasers under the Series B Certificate of Designation or, when applicable, the Securities Purchase Agreement multiplied by (y) an amount equal to $150,000 less the annual cash compensation payable to the Mistral Manager for the services of the Board representatives appointed by the Mistral Purchasers; provided, however, that in no event shall the aggregate lifetime amount paid to the Mistral Manager as a monitoring fee exceed $3,060,000 in the aggregate.

Affiliate Transactions. We agreed not to enter into or permit any other transaction (including the purchase, sale, lease or exchange of any asset, property or the rendering of any service), directly or indirectly, with or for the benefit of any of our affiliates and our subsidiaries' affiliates, except for the payment of any salaries or other employee compensation to officers of any such affiliates (including reasonable compensation to any director of any such affiliates), unless consented to in writing by the holders of a majority of the shares of Series B Preferred or the shares of common stock issued upon conversion of shares of Series B Preferred.

Standstill Provision. During the Standstill Period (as defined below), each Series B Purchaser agreed that it and its affiliates will not, without the prior written consent of the Board (excluding any directors elected by the holders of shares of the Series B Preferred) (i) otherwise act, alone or in concert with others, to seek, offer or propose (whether publicly or otherwise) to effect control of the management, the Board, or policies of the Company or to seek a waiver of any provision of the Securities Purchase Agreement and (ii) take any action that results in any of them having to file or amend a Schedule 13D indicating an intention, plan or proposal to do any of the foregoing. Furthermore, each Series B Purchaser agreed to, and agreed to cause each Series B Permitted Transferee to, cause any and all shares of Series B Preferred acquired thereby on June 16, 2009 and shares of common stock beneficially owned by it or them and entitled to vote there at to be present in person or represented by proxy at every meeting of stockholders so that all such shares shall be counted as present for determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting.

4. amend our Certificate of Incorporation, the Series B Certificate of Designation, or our Bylaws (including by way of merger, consolidation or otherwise) so as to affect adversely any right, preference, privilege or voting power of the Series B Preferred; provided, however, that (a) any creation and issuance of shares of junior stock shall not be deemed to adversely affect such rights, preferences, privileges or voting powers; (b) any liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Company, whether voluntary or involuntary, whether by merger, consolidation or otherwise, shall not be deemed to adversely affect such rights, preferences, privileges or voting powers and (c) we shall not be restricted from authorizing an amendment to our Certificate of Incorporation solely for the purpose of effecting a reverse stock split (and for no other purpose) other than a reverse stock split that would constitute, or would reasonably be expected to constitute, a transaction under Rule 13E-3 of the Exchange Act;
5. authorize or effect any stock dividend, forward stock split, combination or other like changes for and with respect to the Series B Preferred; provided, however, that we are not restricted by the foregoing from authorizing or effecting a reverse stock split other than a reverse stock split that would constitute, or would reasonably be expected to constitute, a transaction under Rule 13E-3 of the Exchange Act;
6. reclassify our outstanding securities; or

of our common stock. The amount of this preferential liquidation payment per share of the Series B Preferred is the greater of (i) the sum of (A) the liquidation preference per share of the Series B Preferred (which initially is $115 per share, subject to adjustment, plus any Dividend Arrearage), plus (B) an amount per share of the Series B Preferred equal to accrued but unpaid dividends not previously added to the liquidation preference from and including the immediately preceding dividend payment date up to, but excluding, the date fixed for such liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company, whether or not declared, in cash, or (ii) the amount of all cash and other property to be distributed in respect of our common stock the holder of a share of the Series B Preferred would have been entitled to had it converted such share (without regard to any limits on conversion) immediately prior to the date fixed for such liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the Company. Dividends on shares of the Series B Preferred shall be cumulative, shall accrue, whether or not declared and whether or not there are any profits, surplus or other funds or assets of the Company legally available therefor. After payment of the liquidation preference described above, holders of shares of the Series B Preferred are not entitled to any further participation in any distribution of our assets.

Voluntary Conversion. Each share of Series B Preferred Stock is convertible into that number of shares of common stock equal to the quotient determined by dividing $115 (as adjusted for any stock dividends, combinations, splits, recapitalizations and the like with respect to such shares) by the then applicable conversion price. The initial conversion price of the Series B Preferred is $1.15 per share. The holder of a share of Series B Preferred may elect to convert that holder's share at any time. Upon a voluntary conversion by a holder of shares of the Series B Preferred into shares of common stock, we must pay such holder the Dividend Arrearage, if any, in cash, plus an amount equal to any accrued dividends from the immediately preceding dividend payment date to, but excluding, the effective date of voluntary conversion, whether or not declared.

Company's Right to Convert. In addition, after June 16, 2011, we have the right to force conversion of the then outstanding shares of Series B Preferred (into the same number of shares of common stock as determined in connection with a voluntary conversion) if the trading volume of our common stock averages 150,000 shares (as adjusted for any stock dividends, combinations, splits, recapitalizations and the like with respect to such shares) per trading day (as reported by Bloomberg or such other reporting agency as may be reasonably designated by us and approved by the holders of a majority of the shares of Series B Preferred then outstanding) over the immediately preceding 30 trading days and the daily volume weighted average price per share of our common stock over any 20 of the immediately preceding 30 trading days exceeds the product of (1) 2.5 and (2) the then applicable conversion price. Upon a company conversion of shares of the Series B Preferred into shares of common stock, we must pay the applicable holder the Dividend Arrearage, if any, in cash, plus an amount equal to any accrued dividends from the immediately preceding dividend payment date to, but excluding, the effective date of conversion by us, whether or not declared, with respect to the shares of Series B Preferred that we have elected to convert.

Redemption. On or after June 16, 2016, the holders of at least a majority of the then-outstanding shares of Series B Preferred may require us to redeem all or any portion of the outstanding shares of Series B Preferred. The redemption price per share of the Series B Preferred is equal to the greater of (i) the sum of (A) the liquidation preference per share of the Series B Preferred (which initially is $115 per share, subject to adjustment, plus all Dividend Arrearages), plus (B) an amount per share of the Series B Preferred equal to accrued but unpaid dividends not previously added to the liquidation preference from and including the immediately preceding dividend payment date up to, but excluding, the date proposed for such redemption, whether or not declared, in cash, or (ii) the amount of all cash and other property to be distributed in respect of our common stock the holder of a share of the Series B Preferred would have been entitled to had it converted such share (without regard to any limits on conversion) immediately prior to the date proposed for redemption.

Table of ContentsRegistration Rights Agreement

In connection with the private placement of the shares of Series B Preferred, we entered into the Registration Rights Agreement with the Series B Purchasers and the Advisor on June 16, 2009 pursuant to which we agreed to file a registration statement with the SEC covering the resale of shares of common stock underlying the Series B Preferred and issuable upon exercise of the Advisor Warrant. We were required to file this registration statement by July 16, 2009 (which we have satisfied) (the Required Filing Date). We agreed to (i) use our reasonable best efforts to cause the registration statement to be declared effective (A) within 45 days following the Required Filing Date (the Required Effectiveness Date); provided that, if the SEC reviews and has written comments to the registration statement, then the Required Effectiveness Date will be 60 days from the Required Filing Date, or (B) within 5 days following the date the SEC notifies us that it will not review the registration statement or that we may request effectiveness of the registration statement, and (ii) use our reasonable best efforts to keep the registration statement effective until the earlier of (x) the date on which we have delivered an opinion of counsel, reasonably acceptable to the holders of a majority of the securities covered by the registration statement (disregarding those securities held by the Advisor), that each holder of such securities may sell in the open market in a single transaction all such securities without restriction under Rule 144 under the Securities Act, or otherwise under an applicable exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and all other applicable securities or blue sky laws, or (y) the date all of the securities covered by this registration statement have been sold pursuant to this registration statement or Rule 144 of the Securities Act. If we fail to comply with these or certain other provisions under the Registration Rights Agreement, then we will be required to pay liquidated damages equal to one-twentieth of one percent (0.05%) of the aggregate purchase price paid by the Series B Purchasers for the securities held thereby that can be registered on the registration statement for each day the failure continues. The total liquidated damages under this provision are capped at 5.0% of the aggregate purchase price paid by the Series B Purchasers for the securities held thereby that can be registered on the registration statement for each day the failure continues.

In addition, we agreed that after June 16, 2010, in the event a majority of the holders of the registrable securities under the Registration Rights Agreement requested an underwritten offering, that certain holders of registrable securities under the Registration Rights Agreement could distribute their registrable securities by means of an underwritten offering as long as the gross proceeds of such offering were at least $10 million.

We have also agreed to provide certain holders of registrable securities under the Registration Rights Agreement with unlimited piggy-back rights with respect to offerings by us, subject to customary carve-backs in an underwritten offering.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The selling stockholders may, from time to time, sell any or all of their shares of common stock on any stock exchange, market or trading facility on which the shares are traded or in private transactions. These sales may be at fixed or negotiated prices. The selling stockholders may use any one or more of the following methods when selling such shares:

ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits purchasers;

block trades in which the broker-dealer will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;

purchases by a broker-dealer as principal and resale by the broker-dealer for its account;

an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange;

privately negotiated transactions;

short sales;

through the writing or settlement of options or other hedging transactions, whether through an options exchange or otherwise;

broker-dealers may agree with the selling stockholders to sell a specified number of such shares at a stipulated price per share;

one or more underwritten offerings on a firm commitment or best efforts basis;

a combination of any such methods of sale; and any other method permitted pursuant to applicable law.

The selling stockholders may also sell such shares under Rule 144 under the Securities Act, if available, rather than under this prospectus.

Edgar Filing: JAMBA, INC. - Form 424B3

Broker-dealers engaged by the selling stockholders may arrange for other broker-dealers to participate in sales. Broker-dealers may receive commissions or discounts from the selling stockholders (or, if any broker-dealer acts as agent for the purchaser of shares, from the purchaser) in amounts to be negotiated, which commissions or discounts may be less than or in excess of those customary in the types of transactions involved. Any profits on the resale of shares of common stock by a broker-dealer acting as principal might be deemed to be underwriting discounts or commissions under the Securities Act. Discounts, concessions, commissions and similar selling expenses, if any, attributable to the sale of shares will be borne by a selling stockholder.

The selling stockholders may from time to time pledge or grant a security interest in some or all of the shares of common stock owned by them and, if they default in the performance of their secured obligations, the pledgees or secured parties may offer and sell the shares of common stock from time to time under this prospectus after we have filed a supplement to this prospectus under Rule 424(b)(3) or other applicable provision of the Securities Act supplementing or amending the list of selling stockholders to include the pledgee, transferee or other successors in interest as selling stockholders under this prospectus.

The selling stockholders also may transfer the shares of common stock in other circumstances, in which case the transferees, pledgees or other successors in interest will be the selling beneficial owners for purposes of this prospectus and may sell the shares of common stock from time to time under this prospectus after we have filed a supplement to this prospectus under Rule 424(b)(3) or other applicable provision of the Securities Act supplementing or amending the list of selling stockholders to include the pledgee, transferee or other successors in interest as selling stockholders under this prospectus.

Any broker-dealers or agents that are involved in selling the shares of common stock may be deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act in connection with such sales. In such event, any commissions received by such broker-dealers or agents and any profit on the resale of the shares of common stock purchased by them may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act.

We are required to pay all fees and expenses incident to the registration of the shares of common stock. We have agreed to indemnify the selling stockholders (as well as persons, including broker-dealers or agents deemed to be underwriters within the meaning of the Securities Act) against certain losses, claims, damages and liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, in accordance with a registration rights agreement, or the selling stockholders will be entitled to contribution.
