N.B. Forrest Shoaf, currently Senior Vice President, Chief Legal Officer and Secretary of Cracker Barrel Old Country Store, Inc. (the Company), notified the Company on December 19, 2011 of his intention to retire effective December 31, 2011. In order to secure Mr. Shoaf s continuing services in a non-executive capacity, on December 20, 2011, the Company entered into a consulting agreement with Mr. Shoaf. Pursuant to the consulting agreement, Mr. Shoaf s current employment with the Company will continue until December 31, 2011. Item 5.03. Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

Please see the disclosure set forth under Item 8.01, which is incorporated by reference into this Item 5.03.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On December 21, 2011, the Company, as part of a planned internal restructuring, filed articles of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of Tennessee whereby the Company, effective as of December 23, 2011 at 11:59 p.m. (the Effective Time), will merge (the Merger) with and into CBOCS, Inc., a Tennessee corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company (CBOCS), such that, as of the Effective Time, the Company's separate corporate existence will cease and CBOCS will continue as the surviving corporation (the Surviving Corporation), in accordance with the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated October 11, 2011 by and between the Company and CBOCS (the Merger Agreement). The Merger was approved by the shareholders of the Company at the 2011 annual meeting of shareholders on December 20, 2011.

Pursuant to the Merger and at the Effective Time, the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock, par value $0.01 per share, will be converted into an equivalent number of shares of the Surviving Corporation's common stock. As a result, the shares of common stock of the Surviving Corporation will be owned directly by the Company's shareholders in the same proportion as their ownership of the Company's shares of common stock immediately prior to the Merger. In addition, all options to acquire the Company's common stock outstanding immediately prior to the Merger will be automatically converted into options to acquire the same number of shares of the Surviving Corporation's common stock. Shareholders will not be required to exchange their existing stock certificates of the Company, which will represent the same number of shares of the Surviving Corporation. Upon consummation of the Merger, the Surviving Corporation will change its name to Cracker Barrel Old Country Store, Inc.

The Surviving Corporation will be a publicly traded company with reporting obligations under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act). Outstanding shares of the Surviving Corporation's common stock will retain the same CUSIP number as the corresponding shares of the Company prior to the Merger, and the Surviving Corporation's common stock will continue to be listed on The NASDAQ Global Select Market under the same ticker symbol used by the Company, CBRL . The Merger will not result in any material changes in the business, offices, assets, liabilities, obligations, net worth, directors, officers or employees of the Surviving Corporation as compared to the Company. The provisions of the charter and bylaws of the Surviving Corporation are substantively identical to those of the Company immediately before the Merger (copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibit 3.1 and Exhibit 3.2, and which are incorporated herein by reference). The Surviving Corporation will maintain its principal executive offices at 305 Hartmann Drive, Lebanon, Tennessee 37087.

As a result of the Merger and by operation of Rule 12g-3(a) promulgated under the Exchange Act, the Surviving Corporation will be the successor issuer to the Company and will succeed to the attributes of the Company as the registrant. The common stock of the Successor Issuer will be deemed to be registered under Section 12(b) of the Exchange Act, and the Successor Issuer will be subject to the informational requirements of the Exchange Act, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, and will hereafter file reports and other information with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The foregoing summary of the Merger and the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Merger Agreement, a copy of which was filed as Exhibit 2.1 to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on October 14, 2011 and is incorporated herein by reference.
