Item 8.01. Other Events.

This Form 8-K is being filed pursuant to a memorandum of understanding regarding the settlement of certain litigation relating to the Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement), dated May 11, 2012, by and among Golfsmith International Holdings, Inc. (the Company), Golf Town USA Holdings Inc. (Golf Town) and Major Merger Sub, Inc. (Merger Sub). The Merger Agreement provides that, on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will merge with and into the Company (the Merger), with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of Golf Town.

As previously disclosed on pages 8, 61 and 62 of the Definitive Information Statement on Schedule 14C filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) by the Company on June 28, 2012 (the Definitive Information Statement), two putative class action lawsuits were filed in connection with the Merger. The actions are entitled Bushansky v. Golfsmith International Holdings, Inc., et al., No. D-1-GN-12-001495 (the Bushansky Action), pending in the District Court of Travis County, Texas, 126th Judicial District (the Court) and Fleener v. Hanaka, et al., Civil Action No. 1:12-CV-563 (the Fleener Action), pending in the United States District Court for the Western District of Texas Austin Division. Such lawsuits were filed against the Company, Golf Town, Merger Sub, the Company's directors, and, in the case of the Fleener Action, against Atlantic Equity Partners III, L.P. (AEP). The complaints allege, among other things, that the Company's directors and certain other defendants breached their fiduciary duties in connection with the Merger, that Golf Town and Merger Sub and certain other defendants aided and abetted the directors' alleged breach of those fiduciary duties, and that the Preliminary Information Statement on Schedule 14C filed with the SEC by the Company on June 4, 2012 contained material misstatements and omissions. The plaintiffs sought injunctive relief concerning the alleged fiduciary breaches and prohibiting defendants from consummating the Merger, other forms of equitable relief, and compensatory and/or rescissory damages. On July 23, 2012, the Company, the Company's directors, Golf Town and Merger Sub entered into a memorandum of understanding with the plaintiffs in the Bushansky Action and the Fleener Action regarding the settlement of these actions.

In connection with the proposed settlement, the Company agreed not to assert that a demand for appraisal by a holder of the Company's common stock who has not surrendered any of such holder's common stock in exchange for any Merger Consideration (as defined in the Merger Agreement) is not timely under Section 262 of the Delaware General Corporate Law if such holder who otherwise satisfies the requirements of Section 262 submits a written demand for appraisal within 20 calendar days of the first date that each of the following is satisfied: (i) the notice required by Section 262(d)(2), as revised to reflect the terms of the settlement, is delivered to stockholders in accordance with Section 262(d)(2) and (ii) the filing of this 8-K.

The Company believes that no further supplemental disclosure is required under applicable laws; however, to avoid the risk of the stockholder class actions delaying or adversely affecting the Merger and to minimize the expense of defending such actions, the Company has also agreed, pursuant to the terms of the proposed settlement, to make certain supplemental disclosures related to the Merger, all of which are set forth below. Subject to completion of certain confirmatory discovery by counsel to the plaintiffs, the memorandum of understanding stipulates that the parties will enter into a stipulation of settlement. The stipulation of settlement will be subject to customary conditions, including court approval following notice to the Company's stockholders. In the event that the parties enter into a stipulation of settlement, a hearing will be scheduled at which the Court will consider the fairness, reasonableness, and adequacy of the settlement. If the settlement is finally approved by the Court, it is anticipated that it will resolve and release all claims in all actions that were or could have been brought challenging any aspect of the Merger, the Merger Agreement, and any disclosure made in connection therewith. There can be no assurance that the parties will ultimately enter into a stipulation of settlement or that the Court will approve the settlement even if the parties were to enter into such stipulation. In such event, the proposed settlement as contemplated by the memorandum of understanding may be terminated.

SUPPLEMENT TO DEFINITIVE INFORMATION STATEMENT

In connection with the settlement of certain outstanding stockholder suits as described in this Form 8-K, the Company has agreed to make these supplemental disclosures to the Definitive Information Statement. This supplemental information should be read in conjunction with the Definitive Information Statement, which should be read in its entirety. Defined terms used but not defined herein have the meanings set forth in the Definitive Information Statement.

Background of the Merger

The following disclosure supplements the discussion at page 19 of the Definitive Information Statement concerning the August 22, 2011 telephone call between Lazard and a representative of Bidder B.

The potential synergies with Bidder B, included, among other things, the increased purchasing power of the combined entities.

The following disclosure supplements the discussion at page 20 of the Definitive Information Statement concerning preliminary indications of interest received by the Company as of August 23, 2011.

The per share dollar value of the indication of interest submitted by Bidder C was estimated to be in the range of approximately $5.61 to $6.73.

The following disclosure supplements the discussion at page 20 of the Definitive Information Statement concerning discussions following the August 25, 2011 meeting of the Transaction Committee.

In the communications with various bidders, Mr. Solomon was pursuing the negotiating strategy directed by the Transaction Committee as a means to achieve the highest value for stockholders.

The following disclosure supplements the discussion at page 21 of the Definitive Information Statement concerning discussions on September 23, 2011.

The expected synergies to be achieved by Golf Town in a combination with Golfsmith included improving purchasing power and leverage with suppliers, access to information technology systems infrastructure, and reduction in SG&A expenses.

The following disclosure supplements the discussion at page 22 of the Definitive Information Statement concerning the October 11, 2011 meeting between representatives of Lazard and Bidder B.

The Transaction Committee identified store overlap with Bidder B that would require stores to be sold or closed and potential significant expenditures in connection with relocating the combined entity headquarters, branding issues, and regulatory issues as potential execution risks involved in a transaction with Bidder B.

The following disclosure supplements the discussion at page 23 of the Definitive Information Statement concerning the final offers the Company received as of October 25, 2011 from the remaining bidders by its insertion between the words price and that in the second sentence of such discussion.

of $3.75 per share

The following disclosure further supplements the discussion at page 23 of the Definitive Information Statement concerning the final offers the Company received as of October 25, 2011 from the remaining bidders.

Golf Town's bid of $6.50 was based on, among other things, the July 2011 projections.

The following disclosure supplements the discussion at page 23 of the Definitive Information Statement concerning the Transaction Committee's counterproposal following the October 27, 2011 meeting.

The Transaction Committee determined to increase the counterproposal to $7.75 per share in an effort to encourage OMERS to submit a higher bid as a negotiating tactic.

The following disclosure supplements the discussion at page 29 of the Definitive Information Statement concerning the January 26, 2012 telephone call between Scott Humphrey and Roberto Buaron.

The Transaction Committee did not discuss a merger structure that would include a stock component with any bidder or prospective bidder other than Golf Town prior to January 26, 2012.

The following disclosure supplements the discussion at page 33 of the Definitive Information Statement concerning the execution of written consents by the Paul Stockholders.

There were no discussions between the Company and Carl or Frank Paul regarding their interest in selling their stakes in the Company or their support for a sale of the Company prior to the announcement of the Merger.

Opinion of Lazard Middle Market LLC

The following disclosure supplements the discussion on page 44 of the Definitive Information Statement concerning the reference range selected by LMM by amending and replacing in its entirety the last two bullet points.

15.1x to 16.0x for share price to LTM EPS based on adjusted net income of $0.6 million

13.1x to 13.8x for share price to 2012 estimated EPS based on estimated net income of $4.4 million

The following disclosure supplements the discussion at page 45 of the Definitive Information Statement by its insertion between the words cash flows and for in the first sentence of the paragraph under the heading Discounted Cash Flow Analysis.

(defined as EBIT, less cash taxes, plus depreciation and amortization, less capital expenditures and less increases/plus decreases in working capital)

The following disclosure further supplements the discussion under the heading Discounted Cash Flow Analysis at page 45 of the Definitive Information Statement.

The discounted cash flow analysis treated stock-based compensation as a cash expense. LMM utilized perpetuity growth rates of 2.5% - 3.5% to calculate the terminal value in its Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. LMM applied these perpetuity growth rates to projected unlevered free cash flow of $27.3 million to calculate the terminal value.

The following disclosure further supplements the discussion on page 45 of the Definitive Information Statement concerning the discounted cash flow analysis performed by LMM by amending and replacing in its entirety the language as determined by LMM, an assumed tax rate of 35%, and reflecting the estimated weighted average cost of capital of the selected companies listed above under Opinion of Lazard Middle Market LLC Selected Public Companies Analysis.

The discount rate range of 17.2% to 19.2% was based on the estimated weighted average cost of capital. In calculating the median unlevered beta to utilize in the weighted average cost of capital calculation, LMM used the selected companies listed above under Opinion of Lazard Middle Market LLC Selected Public Companies Analysis, excluding Dover Saddlery and Sport Chalet, (who were excluded from the calculation due to low trading volume, small market capitalization and lack of equity research analysts estimates).

The following disclosure supplements the discussion under the heading Premia Paid Analysis at page 46 of the Definitive Information Statement.

LMM analyzed 138 transactions that fit these criteria.
