Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On April 18, 2013, the Board of Directors of RPM International Inc. (the Company) appointed Craig S. Morford, age 54, to Class I of the Company's Board of Directors. Mr. Morford's term will expire at the Company's Annual Meeting of Stockholders in 2013, at which time he will stand for re-election to the Board by the Company's stockholders. He will serve on the Board's Governance and Nominating Committee. Mr. Morford is the Chief Legal and Compliance Officer of Cardinal Health, Inc. (Cardinal), a $108 billion health care services company traded on the New York Stock Exchange. Among his responsibilities at Cardinal are legal affairs, regulatory compliance, corporate governance, environmental health and safety compliance, corporate ethics and enterprise risk management. Before joining Cardinal in 2008, Mr. Morford spent 20 years with the U.S. Department of Justice, which included an appointment by President George W. Bush as acting U.S. deputy attorney general. In this role, Mr. Morford oversaw 100,000 employees at 93 U.S. Attorney offices, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Drug Enforcement Administration and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms. Mr. Morford is a member of The Association of General Counsel and serves on its executive committee. He also serves on the audit and compliance committee of the Ohio State University board of trustees. Morford earned his bachelor's degree in economics from Hope College and a juris doctorate from Valparaiso University.

Mr. Morford's compensation for his service as a director will be consistent with that of the Company's other directors who are not employees or consultants of the Company, as described in the Company's definitive proxy statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on August 29, 2012 under the caption Director Compensation, which portion of such proxy statement is incorporated herein by reference.

In connection with his appointment as a director, the Company and Mr. Morford entered into an indemnification agreement effective as of April 18, 2013. The indemnification agreement is the same as the indemnification agreements the Company has entered into with each of its directors and executive officers. The indemnification agreement requires the Company to indemnify Mr. Morford to the fullest extent permitted by law against all expenses, judgments, settlements, fines and penalties, actually and reasonably incurred in the defense or settlement of any civil, criminal, administrative or investigative action brought against him by reason of his relationship with the Company, including third-party claims and proceedings brought by or in the right of the Company, subject to certain exceptions. The rights provided to Mr. Morford under the indemnification agreement are in addition to any other rights he may be entitled to under the Company's Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation or Amended and Restated By-laws, the General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware or otherwise. The description of the indemnification agreement set forth in this Item 5.02 is not complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the form of indemnification agreement. The form of indemnification agreement between the Company and each of its directors and executive officers was filed as Exhibit 10.14 to the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended November 30, 2012 and is incorporated herein by reference.

There are no arrangements or understandings between Mr. Morford and any other persons pursuant to which Mr. Morford was selected as a director. There have been no transactions involving the Company or any of its subsidiaries in which Mr. Morford has or will have a direct or indirect material interest that are required to be disclosed by Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.
