For All American and American Eagle Managers

Subject: American Files Motion to Approve Pilot and TWU MOUs

Summary

American today took another step toward a more seamless integration with US Airways by filing with the Bankruptcy Court a Motion to Approve the Memorandums of Understanding (MOUs) reached with our Pilots and Transport Workers Union (TWU)-represented employees.

Key Points

With our Merger Agreement approved and our Plan of Reorganization filed, one of the next steps is to ensure we are preparing for a successful integration with US Airways, and Court approval of the MOUs is one of those steps.

The MOUs will modify the existing Collective Bargaining Agreements for these workgroups upon the merger closing, and will have an impact on the terms and conditions of employment.

The agreed modifications in the MOUs set guidelines for the integration process and address the priorities identified by APA, USAPA and TWU negotiating teams and respective Boards, and only go into effect at the close of the merger.

Approval of the Conditional Labor Agreement (CLA) that US Airways entered into with the Association of Professional Flight Attendants (APFA) is not included as part of this Motion as American is not a party to it. However, we believe it is appropriate and will promote the efficient integration of the airlines.

The MOUs are subject to Court approval, and we have asked the Court to hear our Motion on May 30.

The Motion, which includes the Pilot and TWU MOUs, is available on the Merger Space.
