DELL SPECIAL COMMITTEE NEGOTIATES SIGNIFICANT INCREASE IN TRANSACTION VALUE WITH MICHAEL DELL AND SILVER LAKE
URGES STOCKHOLDERS TO VOTE THE WHITE CARD FOR THE AMENDED TRANSACTION

August 14, 2013

Dear Stockholders:

On August 2, the Special Committee of the Board of Dell Inc. was pleased to announce that it has negotiated a modified agreement with Michael Dell and Silver Lake Partners under which they increased the value of their offer for Dell by $0.23 per share to $13.88 per share. Attached is a Supplement to the Proxy Statement relating to the transaction that describes the amendments to the Merger Agreement.

In brief, those amendments increase the purchase price under the Agreement from $13.65 to $13.75 per share and, in addition, provide for the payment of a special dividend of $0.13 per share to holders as of a record date prior to closing. These changes will deliver an additional $350 million in value to Dell's public stockholders.

The Agreement also provides that the third quarter dividend will be paid regardless of whether the closing occurs before or after the previously indicated record date for that dividend providing certainty that the unaffiliated stockholders will receive an additional $0.08 per share. This guarantee potentially increases the total consideration payable to public stockholders by an additional $120 million, depending on when the closing would otherwise have occurred.

In return for these substantial increases in value to public stockholders, as well as a stockholder-favorable modification to the break-up fee described in the Supplement, the Special Committee agreed to the buyers' request to modify the voting standard to require approval by a majority of the unaffiliated shares actually voted instead of approval by a majority of all outstanding unaffiliated shares as required under the original agreement. The previous voting standard had the effect of counting unvoted shares as no votes. What hasn't changed is the fact that the shares held by Michael Dell can't be voted in this special vote on the transaction.

In the original Agreement, although not required by law, the Special Committee insisted on conditioning the transaction on the approval of unaffiliated stockholders and set, as the standard for that approval, the requirement that shares held by all unaffiliated stockholders, including those who did not vote, would be counted. The Committee was aware of the fact that such a provision could be used to extract additional value (as proved to be the case) and thus was in the interests of the public stockholders. In addition, in the context of a decision between accepting the going private offer or continuing the status quo, it did not seem anomalous to treat non-votes as votes for the status quo. Since then, however, a minority group of stockholders has suggested its own proposal and, with that change in the dynamics, the original standard began to have the effect of tilting the playing field due to the significant number of unaffiliated shares not voted. After careful consideration, the Committee concluded that non-votes should not be treated as votes in favor of any particular outcome.

The Committee has established a new record date of August 13, 2013 for determining stockholders eligible to vote on the transaction at a stockholder meeting which has been adjourned to September 12, 2013. This change in record date and adjournment ensure that all unaffiliated stockholders, including those who have acquired their shares since June 3, are eligible to vote and have ample time to make their decision.

This improved transaction is the latest benefit of an exhaustive process through which the Special Committee has now elicited eight increases in price. We believe this transaction provides the highest value and greatest certainty of any available alternative. We urge stockholders to vote for it on September 12.

We thank you for your prompt attention to this important matter.

Sincerely,

Alex J. Mandl Janet F. Clark Laura Conigliaro Kenneth M. Duberstein
