Any guarantee of the exchange notes by a Guarantor shall provide by its terms that it shall be automatically, permanently and unconditionally released and discharged, upon among other reasons, the release or discharge of the guarantee by such Guarantor of indebtedness under the Permanent Credit Facilities.

Ranking

The exchange notes and guarantees will constitute our and the Guarantors unsecured senior obligations and will:

rank equally with all of our and the Guarantors existing and future unsecured, unsubordinated indebtedness;

be effectively subordinated to any of our and the Guarantors existing and future secured obligations;

be senior in right of payment to any of our and the Guarantors obligations that are by their terms expressly subordinated or junior in right of payment to the exchange notes and the guarantees; and will be structurally subordinated to the existing and future obligations of our subsidiaries that do not guarantee the exchange notes.

As of June 28, 2014, we had $3,234 million of indebtedness on a consolidated basis, including the exchange notes. As of June 28, 2014, our direct and indirect subsidiaries that do not guarantee the exchange notes had outstanding indebtedness of approximately $7 million (excluding trade payables) and all of the indebtedness of such subsidiaries would have been structurally senior to the exchange notes.

Optional Redemption

We may redeem the exchange notes of any series, in whole or in part, at any time or from time to time at the applicable make-whole premium redemption price as described under Description of the Exchange Notes Optional Redemption. In addition, the Issuer may redeem all or part of the 2023 Notes on or after August 15, 2023 (three months prior to their maturity date) and the 2043 Notes on or after May 15, 2043 (six months prior to their maturity date), in each case, at a redemption price

Change of Control

Upon the occurrence of a change of control triggering event (as defined below) with respect to the exchange notes, unless we have exercised our option to redeem the exchange notes by notifying the holders to that effect, we will be required to offer to repurchase such exchange notes at the price described in this offering memorandum. See Description of the Exchange Notes Change of Control Offer.

Table of Contents

No Prior Market

The exchange notes will constitute a new issue of securities with no established trading market. The Issuer does not intend to list the exchange notes on any national securities exchange or automated quotation system. Accordingly, we cannot assure you that an active public or other market will develop for the exchange notes or as to the liquidity of the trading market for the exchange notes. If a trading market does not develop or is not maintained, holders of the exchange notes may experience difficulty in reselling the exchange notes or may be unable to sell them at all. If a market for the exchange notes develops, any such market may be discontinued at any time. Accordingly, you may have to bear the financial risks of investing in the exchange notes for an indefinite period of time. The Issuer does not intend to apply for a listing of the exchange notes on any securities exchange or automated dealer quotation system. See Plan of Distribution.

Use of Proceeds

The issuer will not receive any proceeds from the issuance of the exchange notes pursuant to the Exchange Offer. The Issuer will pay all of its expenses incident to the Exchange Offer. See Use of Proceeds.

RISK FACTORS

Before making a decision to participate in the exchange offer, you should carefully consider the following risk factors described below and all of the information included in or incorporated by reference into this prospectus. The risks and uncertainties described below are not the only risks and uncertainties that we face. Additional risks and uncertainties not presently known to us or that we currently deem immaterial may also impair our business operations. If any of those risks actually occurs, our business, financial condition and results of operations would suffer. The risks discussed below also include forward-looking statements, and our actual results may differ substantially from those discussed in these forward-looking statements. See Cautionary Note Regarding Forward-Looking Statements in this prospectus. The risks associated with our business can be found in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 28, 2014, which is incorporated by reference into this prospectus. See Incorporation of Certain Documents by Reference.

Risks Related to the Exchange Offer

If you fail to exchange your initial notes for exchange notes, you will continue to hold notes subject to transfer restrictions.

We will not accept your initial notes for exchange notes if you do not follow the exchange offer procedures. We will issue exchange notes as part of this exchange offer only after timely receipt of your initial notes, a properly completed and duly executed letter of transmittal and all other required documents or if you comply with the guaranteed delivery procedures for tendering your initial notes. Therefore, if you want to tender your initial notes, please allow sufficient time to ensure timely delivery. If we do not receive your initial notes, letter of transmittal, and all other required documents by the expiration date of the exchange offer, or you do not otherwise comply with the guaranteed delivery procedures for tendering your initial notes, we will not accept your initial notes for exchange. Neither we nor the exchange agent is required to notify you of defects or irregularities with respect to the tenders of initial notes for exchange. If there are defects or irregularities with respect to your tender of initial notes, we will not accept your initial notes for exchange unless we decide in our sole discretion to waive such defects or irregularities.

If you do not exchange your initial notes for new exchange notes in this exchange offer, the initial notes you hold will continue to be subject to the existing transfer restrictions. In general, you may not offer or sell the initial notes except under an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws. We do not plan to register the initial notes for resale under the Securities Act. If you continue to hold any initial notes after this exchange offer is completed, you may have trouble selling them because of these restrictions on transfer.

The issuance of the exchange notes may adversely affect the market for the initial notes.

To the extent the initial notes are tendered and accepted in the exchange offer, the trading market for the untendered, and tendered but unaccepted, initial notes could be adversely affected. Because we anticipate that most holders of the initial notes will elect to exchange their initial notes for exchange notes due to the absence of restrictions on the resale of exchange notes under the Securities Act, we anticipate that the liquidity of the market for any initial notes remaining after the completion of this exchange offer may be substantially limited. Please refer to the section in this prospectus entitled The Exchange Offer Your Failure to Participate in the Exchange Offer Will Have Adverse Consequences.

Some persons who participate in the exchange offer must deliver a prospectus in connection with resales of the exchange notes.

Edgar Filing: Perrigo Co of South Carolina, Inc. - Form 424B3

Based on interpretations of the staff of the SEC contained in Exxon Capital Holdings Corp., SEC no-action letter (April 13, 1988), Morgan Stanley & Co. Inc., SEC no-action letter (June 5, 1991) and Shearman & Sterling, SEC no-action letter (July 2, 1983), we believe that you may offer for resale, resell or otherwise transfer the exchange notes without compliance with the registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act. However, in some instances described in this prospectus under Plan of Distribution, you will remain obligated to comply with the registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act to transfer your exchange notes. In these cases, if you transfer any exchange note without delivering a prospectus meeting the requirements of the Securities Act or without an exemption from registration of your exchange notes under the Securities Act, you may incur liability under this act. We do not and will not assume, or indemnify you against, this liability.

Risks Related to the Exchange Notes

The Issuer's indebtedness and debt service obligations could adversely affect its business.

The Issuer's indebtedness as of June 28, 2014, was approximately $3,234 million.

The degree to which the Issuer is leveraged could have important consequences to the Issuer, including, but not limited to:

increasing the Issuer's vulnerability to, and reducing its flexibility to respond to, general adverse economic and industry conditions;

requiring the dedication of a substantial portion of the Issuer's cash flow from operations to the payment of principal of, and interest on, indebtedness, thereby reducing the availability of such cash flow to fund working capital, capital expenditures, acquisitions, joint ventures, product research and development or other general corporate purposes;

limiting the Issuer's flexibility in planning for, or reacting to, changes in the Issuer's business and the competitive environment and the industry in which the Issuer operates;

placing the Issuer at a competitive disadvantage as compared to its competitors, to the extent that they are not as highly leveraged; and limiting the Issuer's ability to borrow additional funds and increasing the cost of any such borrowing.

The Issuer and its subsidiaries may incur significantly more indebtedness, which could further increase the risks associated with their indebtedness and affect their credit ratings.

The Issuer and its subsidiaries may be able to incur significant additional indebtedness in the future. The indenture does not contain significant restrictions on the ability of the Issuer and its subsidiaries to incur additional indebtedness, and subject to compliance with applicable financial covenants in the Permanent Credit Facilities, the Issuer and its subsidiaries will be permitted to incur additional indebtedness and such additional indebtedness could be substantial. If new indebtedness is added to the debt levels of the Issuer and its subsidiaries, the related risks would be increased, and the Issuer and its subsidiaries may not be able to meet all of their debt obligations, including repayment of the exchange notes, in whole or in part.

The incurrence of additional indebtedness could also affect the Issuer's credit ratings. Credit ratings are continually revised. Any downgrade in the Issuer's credit rating could adversely affect the trading price of the exchange notes or the trading markets for the exchange notes to the extent trading markets for the exchange notes develop.

Claims of holders will be structurally subordinated to claims of creditors of subsidiaries of the Issuer that do not guarantee the exchange notes and the exchange notes will not have the benefit of any guarantees following the occurrence of the Guarantor Release Date.

The exchange notes will rank equally in right of payment with the Issuer's and the Guarantors' existing and future senior indebtedness and will rank senior to all of the Issuer's and the Guarantors' existing and future

subordinated indebtedness, if any. The exchange notes will not be guaranteed by certain of the Issuer's subsidiaries. In addition, any guarantee of the exchange notes by a Guarantor shall provide by its terms that it shall be automatically, permanently and unconditionally released and discharged, among other reasons, upon the release or discharge of the guarantee by such Guarantor of indebtedness under the Permanent Credit Facilities. The terms of the credit agreements governing the Permanent Credit Facilities, as in effect on the issue date of the exchange notes, will provide that each Guarantor will be permanently and unconditionally released and discharged from its guarantee of the Permanent Credit Facilities on the initial date (such date, the "Guarantor Release Date") on or after the second anniversary of the Acquisition Closing Date (as defined therein) on which no default shall have occurred or be continuing and the issued ratings for the senior unsecured long-term debt of the Issuer that is not guaranteed or subject to other credit enhancement are either (x) BBB or better from Standard & Poor's and Baa3 or better from Moody's or (y) BBB- or better from Standard & Poor's and Baa2 or better from Moody's. Accordingly, we expect that the Guarantors would be permanently released and discharged from their guarantee of the exchange notes following the occurrence of the Guarantor Release Date. See "Description of the Exchange Notes Guarantees."

Accordingly, claims of holders of the exchange notes will be structurally subordinated to the claims of creditors of these non-guarantor subsidiaries, including trade creditors. All obligations of these subsidiaries will have to be satisfied before any of the assets of such subsidiaries would be available for distribution, upon a liquidation or otherwise, to the Issuer or its creditors, including the holders of the exchange notes.

As of June 28, 2014, the Issuer and the guarantors that will guarantee the exchange notes had outstanding indebtedness of approximately $3,227 million (excluding trade payables).

Payment on the exchange notes, including under the guarantees, will be effectively subordinated to claims of secured creditors.

The exchange notes will be the Issuer's unsecured general obligations. Accordingly, any of the Issuer's secured creditors will have claims that are superior to the claims of holders of the exchange notes to the extent of the value of the assets securing that other indebtedness. Similarly, the guarantees will effectively rank junior to any secured debt of the Guarantors to the extent of the value of the assets securing the debt. In the event of any distribution or payment of the Issuer's or the Guarantors' assets in any foreclosure, dissolution, winding-up, liquidation, examination, reorganization or other bankruptcy proceeding, the Issuer's creditors, or the secured creditors of the Guarantors, respectively, will have a superior claim to their collateral. If any of the foregoing events occur, we cannot assure you that there will be sufficient assets to pay amounts due on the exchange notes. Holders of the exchange notes will participate ratably with all holders of the Issuer's unsecured senior indebtedness, and with all of the Issuer's other general senior creditors, based upon the respective amounts owed to each holder or creditor, in the Issuer's remaining assets. As a result, holders of exchange notes may receive less, ratably, than the Issuer's secured creditors. As of June 28, 2014, we had no secured indebtedness outstanding.

The limited covenants in the indenture for the exchange notes and the terms of the exchange notes do not provide protection against some types of important corporate events and may not protect your investment.

The indenture for the exchange notes will not:

require the Issuer to maintain any financial ratios or specific levels of net worth, revenues, income, cash flow or liquidity and, accordingly, and will not protect holders of the exchange notes in the event that the Issuer experiences significant adverse changes in its financial condition or results of operations;

limit the ability of the Issuer's subsidiaries (including subsidiaries that will not be Guarantors of the exchange notes) to issue securities or otherwise incur indebtedness, which could (in the case of non-guarantor subsidiaries) rank structurally senior to the exchange notes;

limit the Issuer's ability to incur indebtedness that is equal in right of payment to the exchange notes;

restrict the Issuer's ability to repurchase or prepay its securities; or restrict the Issuer's ability to make investments or to repurchase or pay dividends or make other payments in respect of its common stock or other securities ranking junior to the exchange notes.

Furthermore, the indenture governing the exchange notes contains only limited protections in the event of a change in control. We could engage in many types of transactions, such as certain acquisitions, refinancings or recapitalizations that could substantially affect the Issuer's capital structure and the value of the exchange notes.

The Issuer has financial and operating restrictions in its debt instruments that may have an adverse effect on its operations.

The Permanent Credit Facilities contain covenants that limit the Issuer's ability to incur additional indebtedness, to create liens or other encumbrances, to make certain payments and investments, including dividend payments, and to sell or otherwise dispose of assets and merge or consolidate with other entities. The Issuer's Permanent Credit Facilities also require it to meet certain financial ratios. Agreements the Issuer enters into in the future governing indebtedness could also contain significant financial and operating restrictions. A failure to comply with the obligations contained in the Issuer's current or future credit facilities or indentures could result in an event of default or an acceleration of debt under other instruments that may contain cross-acceleration or cross-default provisions. The Issuer cannot be certain that it would have, or be able to obtain, sufficient funds to make these accelerated payments.

The Issuer may not have the ability to raise the funds necessary to finance the offer to repurchase the exchange notes upon a change of control triggering event.

Upon the occurrence of a change of control triggering event, the Issuer will be required to offer to repurchase all outstanding exchange notes at the purchase price described in this prospectus. See "Description of the Exchange Notes-Offer to Purchase Upon Change of Control Triggering Event." The Issuer cannot assure you that the Issuer will have sufficient funds available to make any required repurchases of the exchange notes upon a change of control triggering event. In addition, the change of control that triggers the change of control triggering event may also result in a default under the Issuer's Permanent Credit Facilities. Any failure to purchase tendered exchange notes would constitute a default under the indenture for the exchange notes. A default could result in the declaration of the principal and interest on all the exchange notes to be due and payable.

You may not be able to determine when a change of control triggering event has occurred.

The definition of change of control, which is a condition precedent to a change of control triggering event, includes a phrase relating to the sale, transfer, or conveyance of "all or substantially all" of the Issuer's assets and the assets of its subsidiaries taken as a whole. There is no precisely established definition of the phrase "substantially all" under applicable law. Accordingly, your ability to require the Issuer to repurchase your exchange notes as a result of a sale, transfer, or conveyance of less than all of its assets to another individual, group or entity may be uncertain.

As an Irish incorporated company, the Issuer (and each Irish incorporated company which becomes a guarantor) is subject to Irish insolvency law under which certain categories of preferential debts could be paid in priority to the claims of holders of the exchange notes upon liquidation.

As an Irish incorporated company, the Issuer (and each Irish incorporated company which becomes a guarantor) may be wound up under Irish law. On a liquidation of an Irish company, the claims of those holding certain categories of preferential debts will take priority over the claims of both secured and unsecured creditors; the claims of secured creditors will rank in priority after the claims of those categories of preferential creditors but before the claims of unsecured creditors. Such preferential debts would comprise, among other things, any amounts owed in respect of local rates and certain amounts owed to the Irish Revenue Commissioners for income/corporation/capital gains tax, value added tax, employee taxes, social security and pension scheme contributions and remuneration, salary and wages of employees and certain contractors and the expenses of liquidation and examinership (if any).

The holders of the exchange notes are unsecured creditors of the Issuer (or an Irish guarantor) and rank in priority after the claims of preferential creditors and secured creditors and on a pari passu basis with other unsecured creditors of the Issuer (or an Irish guarantor). As a consequence, the holders' return on their exchange notes may be delayed or reduced and they may suffer a loss (including a total loss) on their investment in the event of a default or insolvency of the Issuer (or an Irish guarantor).

Section 286 of the Irish Companies Act, 1963 (as amended)

Under Irish company law, a liquidator of the Issuer (or an Irish guarantor) could apply to court to have set aside certain transactions entered into by the Issuer (or that Irish guarantor) before the commencement of liquidation. Section 286 of the Irish Companies Act, 1963(as amended) provides that any conveyance, mortgage, delivery of goods, payment, execution or other act relating to property made or done by or against a company which is unable to pay its debts as they become due, to any creditor, within six months of the commencement of a winding up of the company, with a view to giving such creditor (or any surety or guarantor of the debt due to such creditor) a preference over its other creditors shall, if the company is at the time of the commencement of the winding-up unable to pay its debts (taking into account the contingent and prospective liabilities), be deemed a fraudulent preference of its creditors and be invalid accordingly. Where the conveyance, mortgage, delivery of goods, payment, execution or other action is in favour of a connected person the six month period is extended to two years. In addition, any such act in favour of a connected person is deemed to be a fraudulent preference and invalid accordingly, unless the contrary is shown.

Section 139 of the Irish Companies Act, 1990

Under section 139 of the Irish Companies Act, 1990, if it can be shown on the application of a liquidator, creditor or contributory of a company which is being wound up to the satisfaction of the Irish High Court that any property of such company was disposed of and the effect of such a disposal was to perpetrate a fraud on the company, its creditors or members, the Irish High Court may, if it deems it just and equitable, order any person who appears to have use, control or possession of such property or the proceeds of the sale or development thereof to deliver it or pay a sum in respect of it to the liquidator on such terms as the Irish High Court sees fit. In deciding whether it is just and equitable to make an order under section 139, the Irish High Court must have regard to the rights of persons who have bona fide and for value acquired an interest in the property the subject of the application.

Examinership

Examinership is a court procedure available under the Irish Companies (Amendment) Act, 1990, as amended, to facilitate the survival of Irish companies in financial difficulties. An Irish company which is in financial difficulties, its directors, its shareholders holding, at the date of presentation of the petition, not less than one-tenth of its voting share capital, or a contingent, prospective or actual creditor, are each entitled to petition the Irish High Court for the appointment of an examiner. During the period of examinership, the relevant company is under court protection and rights of creditors are suspended so that no enforcement action or other legal proceedings can be commenced against such company without the approval of the examiner or the relevant Irish court, as the case may be. In particular, the rights of secured creditors are largely suspended and, accordingly, if an examiner is appointed to the Issuer prior to consummation of the Transactions/Special Mandatory Redemption, the holders of the exchange notes would be precluded from enforcing the Noteholders' security interest.

Table of Contents

Furthermore, the subject company cannot make any payment by way of satisfaction or discharge of the whole or a part of any liability incurred by it before presentation of a petition except in certain strictly defined circumstances. The examiner, once appointed, has the power, in certain circumstances, to avoid a negative pledge given by the company prior to this appointment and to sell assets the subject of a fixed charge. During the period of protection, the examiner will compile proposals for a compromise or scheme of arrangement to assist in the survival of the company or the whole or any part of its undertaking as a going concern. A scheme of arrangement may be approved by the Irish High Court if at least one class of creditors, whose interests are impaired under the proposals, has voted in favour of the proposals and the Irish High Court is satisfied that such proposals are fair and equitable in relation to any class of members or creditors who have not accepted the proposals and whose interests would be impaired by the implementation of the scheme of arrangement and the proposals are not unfairly prejudicial to any interested party.

If, for any reason, an examiner was appointed to the Issuer (or any Irish guarantor) while any amounts due by the Issuer under the exchange notes were unpaid, it is likely that secured and unsecured creditors would form separate classes of creditors. The primary risks to the holders of the exchange notes if an examiner was to be appointed to the Issuer (or any Irish guarantor) are as follows:

- (i) the Trustee, on behalf of the holders of the exchange notes, would not be able to take proceeding to enforce rights under the Issuer (or against an Irish guarantor) during the period of examinership;
- (ii) a scheme of arrangement may be approved involving the writing down of the debt due by the Issuer (or any Irish guarantor) to the holders of the exchange notes irrespective of their views, whether such debt was secured by the Noteholders' Security or not;
- (iii) an examiner may seek to set aside any negative pledge given by the Issuer (or any Irish guarantor) prohibiting the creation of security or the incurring of borrowings by the Issuer (or such Irish guarantor) to enable the examiner to borrow to fund the Issuer (or such Irish guarantor) during the protection period; and
- (iv) in the event that a scheme of arrangement is not approved and the Issuer (or such Irish guarantor) subsequently goes into liquidation, the examiner's remuneration and expenses (including certain borrowings incurred by the examiner on behalf of the Issuer (or such Irish guarantor) and approved by the Irish High Court) and the claims of certain other creditors referred to above (including the Irish Revenue Commissioners for certain unpaid taxes) will take priority over the amounts due by the Issuer (or such Irish guarantor) to the holders of the exchange notes.

Furthermore, the Irish High Court may order that an examiner shall have any of the powers of a liquidator appointed by the Irish High Court would have, which could include the power to apply to have transactions set aside under section 286 of the Irish Companies Act, 1963 (as amended) or section 139 of the Irish Companies Act, 1990.

Federal and state statutes allow courts, under specific circumstances, to void guarantees and require note holders to return payments received from Guarantors.

The Guarantors' creditors could challenge the issuance of the guarantees as fraudulent conveyances or on other grounds. Under U.S. federal bankruptcy law and comparable provisions of state fraudulent transfer laws, insolvency, fraudulent transfer or similar laws, the delivery of the guarantees could be found to be a fraudulent transfer and declared void. In the case of U.S. federal bankruptcy laws, if a court determined that the applicable Guarantor, at the time it incurred the indebtedness evidenced by its guarantee, as applicable, (1) delivered the guarantee with the intent to hinder, delay or defraud its existing or future creditors; or (2) received less than reasonably equivalent value or did not receive fair consideration for the delivery of the guarantee, and any of the following three conditions apply:

such Guarantor was insolvent or rendered insolvent by reason of issuing or delivering the guarantee;

Table of Contents

such Guarantor was engaged in a business or transaction for which the Guarantor's remaining assets constituted unreasonably small capital; or such Guarantor intended to incur, or believed that it would incur, debts beyond its ability to pay such debts at maturity.

In addition, any payment by such Guarantor pursuant to its guarantee could be voided and required to be returned to the Guarantor, or to a fund for the benefit of the creditors of the Guarantor. In any such case, the right of noteholders to receive payments in respect of the exchange notes from any such Guarantor would be effectively subordinated to all indebtedness and other liabilities of that Guarantor.

The indenture governing the exchange notes will limit the liability of each Guarantor on its guarantee to the maximum amount that such Guarantor can incur without risk that its guarantee will be subject to avoidance as a fraudulent transfer or conveyance. The Issuer cannot assure you that this limitation will protect such guarantees from fraudulent transfer challenges or, if it does, that the remaining amount due and collectible under the guarantees would suffice, if necessary, to pay the exchange notes in full when due.

If a court declares the guarantees to be void, or if the guarantees must be limited or voided in accordance with their terms, any claim a noteholder may make against the applicable Guarantors for amounts payable on the exchange notes would be subordinated to the indebtedness of such Guarantors, including trade payables. The measures of insolvency for purposes of these fraudulent transfer laws will vary depending upon the law applied in any proceeding to determine whether a fraudulent transfer has occurred. Generally, however, a Guarantor would be considered insolvent if:

the sum of its debts, including contingent liabilities, was greater than the fair saleable value of all of its assets;

the present fair saleable value of its assets was less than the amount that would be required to pay its probable liability on its existing debts, including contingent liabilities, as they become absolute and mature; or it could not pay its debts as they become due.

The credit ratings assigned to the exchange notes may not reflect all risks of an investment in the exchange notes.

The credit ratings assigned to the exchange notes reflect the rating agencies' assessments of the Issuer's ability to make payments on the exchange notes when due. Consequently, actual or anticipated changes in these credit ratings will generally affect the market value of the exchange notes. These credit ratings, however, may not reflect the potential impact of risks related to structure, market or other factors related to the value of the exchange notes.

If an active trading market does not develop for the exchange notes, you may be unable to sell the new notes or to sell them at a price you deem sufficient.

The exchange notes will be securities for which there is no established trading market. While the Issuer intends to apply to the Irish Stock Exchange for the exchange notes to be admitted to the Official List and to trading on its Global Exchange Market, there can be no assurance that the exchange notes will be admitted to listing or trading or, if listed, a market for the exchange notes will develop on such exchange. The Issuer gives no assurance as to:

the liquidity of any trading market that may develop;

the ability of holders to sell their exchange notes; or the price at which holders would be able to sell their exchange notes.

Table of Contents

Even if a trading market develops, the exchange notes may trade at higher or lower prices than their principal amount or purchase price, depending on many factors, including:

prevailing interest rates;

the number of holders of the exchange notes;

the interest of securities dealers in making a market for the exchange notes;

the market for similar debt securities; and the Company's financial performance.

Table of ContentsRATIO OF EARNINGS TO FIXED CHARGES

The following table sets forth our ratio of earnings to fixed charges for the periods indicated. For purposes of computing the ratio of earnings to fixed charges, earnings consist of income (loss) before income taxes plus fixed charges. Fixed charges consist of interest expense and the portion of rent expense that management believes is representative of the interest component of rental expense.

You should read the description of the exchange notes in the section in this prospectus entitled Description of Exchange Notes.

We reserve the right in our sole discretion to purchase or make offers for any initial notes that remain outstanding following the expiration or termination of this exchange offer and, to the extent permitted by applicable law, to purchase initial notes in the open market or privately negotiated transactions, one or more additional tender or exchange offers or otherwise. Expiration Date; Extensions; Amendments; Termination

This exchange offer will expire at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on September 30, 2014, unless we extend it in our reasonable discretion. We expressly reserve the right to extend or terminate this exchange offer and not accept any initial notes that we have not previously accepted if any of the conditions described below under Conditions to the Exchange Offer have not been satisfied or waived by us. Consequently, in the event we extend the period the exchange offer is open, we may delay acceptance of any initial notes. A material change in the terms of this exchange offer could include a change in the timing of the exchange offer, a change in the exchange agent and other similar changes in the terms of this exchange offer. If we make any material change to this exchange offer, we will disclose this change by means of a post-effective amendment to the registration statement which includes this prospectus and will distribute an amended or supplemented prospectus to each registered holder of initial notes. In addition, we will extend this exchange offer for an additional five to ten business days as required by the Exchange Act, depending on the significance of the amendment, if the exchange offer would otherwise expire during that period. Procedures for Tendering Initial Notes

Proper Execution and Delivery of Letters of Transmittal

To tender your initial notes in this exchange offer, you must use one of the three alternative procedures described below:

(1) Regular delivery procedure: Complete, sign and date the letter of transmittal, or a facsimile of the letter of transmittal. Have the signatures on the letter of transmittal guaranteed if required by the letter of transmittal. Mail or otherwise deliver the letter of transmittal or the facsimile together with the certificates representing the initial notes being tendered and any other required documents to the exchange agent on or before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the expiration date.

(2) Book-entry delivery procedure: Send a timely confirmation of a book-entry transfer of your initial notes, if this procedure is available, into the exchange agent's account at The Depository Trust Company in accordance with the procedures for book-entry transfer described under Book-Entry Delivery Procedure below, on or before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the expiration date.

(3) Guaranteed delivery procedure: If time will not permit you to complete your tender by using the procedures described in (1) or (2) above before the expiration date and this procedure is available, comply with the guaranteed delivery procedures described under Guaranteed Delivery Procedure below.

The method of delivery of the initial notes, the letter of transmittal and all other required documents is at your election and risk. Instead of delivery by mail, we recommend that you use an overnight or hand-delivery service. If you choose the mail, we recommend that you use registered mail, properly insured, with return receipt requested. In all cases, you should allow sufficient time to assure timely delivery. You should not send any letters of transmittal or initial notes to us. You must deliver all documents to the exchange agent at its address provided below. You may also request your broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or nominee to tender your initial notes on your behalf.

Only a holder of initial notes may tender initial notes in this exchange offer. A holder is any person in whose name initial notes are registered on our books or any other person who has obtained a properly completed bond power from the registered holder.

If you are the beneficial owner of initial notes that are registered in the name of a broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee and you wish to tender your notes, you must contact that registered holder promptly and instruct that registered holder to tender your notes on your behalf. If you wish to tender your initial notes on your own behalf, you must, before completing and executing the letter of transmittal and delivering your initial notes, either make appropriate arrangements to register the ownership of these notes in your name or obtain a properly completed bond power from the registered holder. The transfer of registered ownership may take considerable time.

You must have any signatures on a letter of transmittal or a notice of withdrawal guaranteed by:

(1) a member firm of a registered national securities exchange or of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.;

(2) a commercial bank or trust company having an office or correspondent in the United States; or

(3) an eligible guarantor institution within the meaning of Rule 17Ad-15 under the Exchange Act, unless the initial notes are tendered:

(a) by a registered holder or by a participant in The Depository Trust Company whose name appears on a security position listing as the owner, who has not completed the box entitled Special Issuance Instructions or Special Delivery Instructions on the letter of transmittal and only if the exchange notes are being issued directly to this registered holder or deposited into this participant's account at The Depository Trust Company; or

Table of Contents

(b) for the account of a member firm of a registered national securities exchange or of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc., a commercial bank or trust company having an office or correspondent in the United States or an eligible guarantor institution within the meaning of Rule 17Ad-15 under the Exchange Act.

If the letter of transmittal or any bond powers are signed by:

(1) the recordholder(s) of the initial notes tendered: the signature must correspond with the name(s) written on the face of the initial notes without alteration, enlargement or any change whatsoever.

(2) a participant in The Depository Trust Company: the signature must correspond with the name as it appears on the security position listing as the holder of the initial notes.

(3) a person other than the registered holder of any initial notes: these initial notes must be endorsed or accompanied by bond powers and a proxy that authorize this person to tender the initial notes on behalf of the registered holder, in satisfactory form to us as determined in our sole discretion, in each case, as the name of the registered holder or holders appears on the initial notes.

(4) trustees, executors, administrators, guardians, attorneys-in-fact, officers of corporations or others acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity: these persons should so indicate when signing. Unless waived by us, evidence satisfactory to us of their authority to so act must also be submitted with the letter of transmittal.

To tender your initial notes in this exchange offer, you must make the following representations:

(1) you are authorized to tender, sell, assign and transfer the initial notes tendered and to acquire exchange notes issuable upon the exchange of such tendered initial notes, and that we will acquire good and unencumbered title thereto, free and clear of all liens, restrictions, charges and encumbrances and not subject to any adverse claim when the same are accepted by us;

(2) any exchange notes acquired by you pursuant to the exchange offer are being acquired in the ordinary course of business, whether or not you are the holder;

(3) you or any other person who receives exchange notes, whether or not such person is the holder of the exchange notes, has no arrangement or understanding with any person to participate in a distribution of such exchange notes within the meaning of the Securities Act and is not participating in, and does not intend to participate in, the distribution of such exchange notes within the meaning of the Securities Act;

(4) you or such other person who receives exchange notes, whether or not such person is the holder of the exchange notes, is not an affiliate, as defined in Rule 405 of the Securities Act, of ours, or if you or such other person is an affiliate, you or such other person will comply with the registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act to the extent applicable;

(5) if you are not a broker-dealer, you represent that you are not engaging in, and do not intend to engage in, a distribution of exchange notes; and

(6) if you are a broker-dealer that will receive exchange notes for your own account in exchange for initial notes, you represent that the initial notes to be exchanged for the exchange notes were acquired by you as a result of market-making or other trading activities and acknowledge that you will deliver a prospectus in connection with any resale, offer to resell or other transfer of such exchange notes.

You must also warrant that the acceptance of any tendered initial notes by the issuers and the issuance of exchange notes in exchange therefor shall constitute performance in full by the issuers of its obligations under the registration rights agreement relating to the initial notes.

Tender Offer Program. The Depository Trust Company will then edit and verify the acceptance and send an agent's message to the exchange agent for its acceptance. An agent's message is a message transmitted by The Depository Trust Company to the exchange agent stating that The Depository Trust Company has received an express acknowledgment from the participant in The Depository Trust Company tendering the notes that this participant has received and agrees to be bound by the terms of the letter of transmittal, and that we may enforce this agreement against this participant.

Book-Entry Delivery Procedure

Any financial institution that is a participant in The Depository Trust Company's systems may make book-entry deliveries of initial notes by causing The Depository Trust Company to transfer these initial notes into the exchange agent's account at The Depository Trust Company in accordance with The Depository Trust Company's procedures for transfer. To effectively tender notes through The Depository Trust Company, the financial institution that is a participant in The Depository Trust Company will electronically transmit its acceptance through the Automated Tender Offer Program. The Depository Trust Company will then edit and verify the acceptance and send an agent's message to the exchange agent for its acceptance. An agent's message is a message transmitted by The Depository Trust Company to the exchange agent stating that The Depository Trust Company has received an express acknowledgment from the participant in The Depository Trust Company tendering the notes that this participation has received and agrees to be bound by the terms of the letter of transmittal, and that we may enforce this agreement against this participant. The exchange agent will make a request to establish an account for the initial notes at The Depository Trust Company for purposes of the exchange offer within two business days after the date of this prospectus.

A delivery of initial notes through a book-entry transfer into the exchange agent's account at The Depository Trust Company will only be effective if an agent's message or the letter of transmittal or a facsimile of the letter of transmittal with any required signature guarantees and any other required documents is transmitted to and received by the exchange agent at the address indicated below under "Exchange Agent" on or before the expiration date unless the guaranteed delivery procedures described below are complied with. Delivery of documents to The Depository Trust Company does not constitute delivery to the exchange agent.

Guaranteed Delivery Procedure

If you are a registered holder of initial notes and desire to tender your notes, and (1) these notes are not immediately available, (2) time will not permit your notes or other required documents to reach the exchange agent before the expiration date or (3) the procedures for book-entry transfer cannot be completed on a timely basis and an agent's message delivered, you may still tender in this exchange offer if:

(1) you tender through a member firm of a registered national securities exchange or of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc., a commercial bank or trust company having an office or correspondent in the United States, or an eligible guarantor institution within the meaning of Rule 17Ad-15 under the Exchange Act;

(2) on or before the expiration date, the exchange agent receives a properly completed and duly executed letter of transmittal or facsimile of the letter of transmittal, and a notice of guaranteed delivery, substantially in the form provided by us, with your name and address as holder of the initial notes and the amount of notes tendered, stating that the tender is being made by that letter and notice and guaranteeing that within three New York Stock Exchange trading days after the expiration date the certificates for all the initial notes tendered, in proper form for transfer, or a book-entry confirmation with an agent's message, as the case may be, and any other documents required by the letter of transmittal will be deposited by the eligible institution with the exchange agent; and

(3) the certificates for all your tendered initial notes in proper form for transfer or a book-entry confirmation as the case may be, and all other documents required by the letter of transmittal are received by the exchange agent within three New York Stock Exchange trading days after the expiration date.

Acceptance of Initial Notes for Exchange; Delivery of Exchange Notes

Your tender of initial notes will constitute an agreement between you and us governed by the terms and conditions provided in this prospectus and in the related letter of transmittal.

We will be deemed to have received your tender as of the date when your duly signed letter of transmittal accompanied by your initial notes tendered, or a timely confirmation of a book-entry transfer of these notes into the exchange agent's account at The Depository Trust Company with an agent's message, or a notice of guaranteed delivery from an eligible institution is received by the exchange agent.

All questions as to the validity, form, eligibility, including time of receipt, acceptance and withdrawal of tenders will be determined by us in our sole discretion. Our determination will be final and binding.

We reserve the absolute right to reject any and all initial notes not properly tendered or any initial notes which, if accepted, would, in our opinion or our counsel's opinion, be unlawful. We also reserve the absolute right to waive any conditions of this exchange offer or irregularities or defects in tender as to particular notes with the exception of conditions to this exchange offer relating to the obligations of broker dealers, which we will not waive. If we waive a condition to this exchange offer, the waiver will be applied equally to all note holders. Our interpretation of the terms and conditions of this exchange offer, including the instructions in the letter of transmittal, will be final and binding on all parties. Unless waived, any defects or irregularities in connection with tenders of initial notes must be cured within such time as we shall determine. We, the exchange agent or any other person will be under no duty to give notification of defects or irregularities with respect to tenders of initial notes. We and the exchange agent or any other person will incur no liability for any failure to give notification of these defects or irregularities. Tenders of initial notes will not be deemed to have been made until such irregularities have been cured or waived. The exchange agent will return without cost to their holders any initial notes that are not properly tendered and as to which the defects or irregularities have not been cured or waived promptly following the expiration date.

If all the conditions to the exchange offer are satisfied or waived on the expiration date, we will accept all initial notes properly tendered and will issue the exchange notes promptly thereafter. Please refer to the section of this prospectus entitled "Conditions to the Exchange Offer" below. For purposes of this exchange offer, initial notes will be deemed to have been accepted as validly tendered for exchange when, as and if we give oral or written notice of acceptance to the exchange agent.

We will issue the exchange notes in exchange for the initial notes tendered pursuant to a notice of guaranteed delivery by an eligible institution only against delivery to the exchange agent of the letter of transmittal, the tendered initial notes and any other required documents, or the receipt by the exchange agent of a timely confirmation of a book-entry transfer of initial notes into the exchange agent's account at The Depository Trust Company with an agent's message, in each case, in form satisfactory to us and the exchange agent.

If any tendered initial notes are not accepted for any reason provided by the terms and conditions of this exchange offer or if initial notes are submitted for a greater principal amount than the holder desires to exchange, the unaccepted or non-exchanged initial notes will be returned without expense to the tendering holder, or, in the case of initial notes tendered by book-entry transfer procedures described above, will be credited to an account maintained with the book-entry transfer facility, promptly after withdrawal, rejection of tender or the expiration or termination of the exchange offer.

By tendering into this exchange offer, you will irrevocably appoint our designees as your attorney-in-fact and proxy with full power of substitution and resubstitution to the full extent of your rights on the notes tendered. This proxy will be considered coupled with an interest in the tendered notes. This appointment will be effective only when, and to the extent that we accept your notes in this exchange offer. All prior proxies on these notes will then be revoked and you will not be entitled to give any subsequent proxy. Any proxy that you may give subsequently will not be deemed effective. Our designees will be empowered to exercise all voting and other rights of the holders as they may deem proper at any meeting of note holders or otherwise. The initial notes will be validly tendered only if we are able to exercise full voting rights on the notes, including voting at any meeting of the note holders, and full rights to consent to any action taken by the note holders.

Withdrawal of Tenders

Except as otherwise provided in this prospectus, you may withdraw tenders of initial notes at any time before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the expiration date.

For a withdrawal to be effective, you must send a written or facsimile transmission notice of withdrawal to the exchange agent before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on the expiration date at the address provided below under Exchange Agent and before acceptance of your tendered notes for exchange by us.

Any notice of withdrawal must:

- (1) specify the name of the person having tendered the initial notes to be withdrawn;
- (2) identify the notes to be withdrawn, including, if applicable, the registration number or numbers and total principal amount of these notes;
- (3) be signed by the person having tendered the initial notes to be withdrawn in the same manner as the original signature on the letter of transmittal by which these notes were tendered, including any required signature guarantees, or be accompanied by documents of transfer sufficient to permit the trustee for the initial notes to register the transfer of these notes into the name of the person having made the original tender and withdrawing the tender;
- (4) specify the name in which any of these initial notes are to be registered, if this name is different from that of the person having tendered the initial notes to be withdrawn; and
- (5) if applicable because the initial notes have been tendered through the book-entry procedure, specify the name and number of the participant's account at The Depository Trust Company to be credited, if different than that of the person having tendered the initial notes to be withdrawn.

We will determine all questions as to the validity, form and eligibility, including time of receipt, of all notices of withdrawal and our determination will be final and binding on all parties. Initial notes that are withdrawn will be deemed not to have been validly tendered for exchange in this exchange offer.

The exchange agent will return without cost to their holders all initial notes that have been tendered for exchange and are not exchanged for any reason, promptly after withdrawal, rejection of tender or expiration or termination of this exchange offer.

You may retender properly withdrawn initial notes in this exchange offer by following one of the procedures described under Procedures for Tendering Initial Notes above at any time on or before the expiration date.

Conditions to the Exchange Offer

We will not be required to complete this exchange offer if the exchange offer violates applicable law or any applicable interpretation of the staff of the SEC.

In addition, we will not accept for exchange any initial notes tendered, and no exchange notes will be issued in exchange for any of those initial notes, if at the time the notes are tendered any stop order is threatened by the SEC or in effect with respect to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part or the qualification of the indenture under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, as amended.

Table of Contents

If we determine that we may terminate this exchange offer because any of these conditions is not satisfied, we may:

- (1) refuse to accept and return to their holders any initial notes that have been tendered;
- (2) extend the exchange offer and retain all notes tendered before the expiration date, subject to the rights of the holders of these notes to withdraw their tenders; or
- (3) waive any condition that has not been satisfied and accept all properly tendered notes that have not been withdrawn or otherwise amend the terms of this exchange offer in any respect as provided under the section in this prospectus entitled Expiration Date; Extensions; Amendments; Termination.

Accounting Treatment

We will record the exchange notes at the same carrying value as the initial notes as reflected in our accounting records on the date of the exchange. Accordingly, we will not recognize any gain or loss for accounting purposes.

Fees and Expenses

We will bear the expenses of soliciting tenders in this exchange offer, including fees and expenses of the exchange agent and trustee and accounting, legal, printing and related fees and expenses.

We will not make any payments to brokers, dealers or other persons soliciting acceptances of this exchange offer. However, we will pay the exchange agent reasonable and customary fees for its services and will reimburse the exchange agent for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in connection with this exchange offer. We will also pay brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses for forwarding copies of the prospectus, letters of transmittal and related documents to the beneficial owners of the initial notes and for handling or forwarding tenders for exchange to their customers.

We will pay all transfer taxes, if any, applicable to the exchange of initial notes in accordance with this exchange offer. However, tendering holders will pay the amount of any transfer taxes, whether imposed on the registered holder or any other persons, if:

- (1) certificates representing exchange notes or initial notes for principal amounts not tendered or accepted for exchange are to be delivered to, or are to be registered or issued in the name of, any person other than the registered holder of the notes tendered;
- (2) tendered initial notes are registered in the name of any person other than the person signing the letter of transmittal; or
- (3) a transfer tax is payable for any reason other than the exchange of the initial notes in this exchange offer.

If you do not submit satisfactory evidence of the payment of any of these taxes or of any exemption from this payment with the letter of transmittal, we will bill you directly the amount of these transfer taxes.

Your Failure to Participate in the Exchange Offer Will Have Adverse Consequences

The initial notes were not registered under the Securities Act or under the securities laws of any state and you may not resell them, offer them for resale or otherwise transfer them unless they are subsequently registered or resold under an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws. If you do not exchange your initial notes for exchange notes in accordance with this exchange offer, or if you do not properly tender your initial notes in this exchange offer, you will not be able to resell, offer to resell or otherwise transfer the initial notes unless they are registered under the Securities Act or unless you resell them, offer to resell or otherwise transfer them under an exemption from the registration requirements of, or in a transaction not subject to, the Securities Act.

In addition, except as set forth in this paragraph, you will not be able to obligate us to register the initial notes under the Securities Act. You will not be able to require us to register your initial notes under the Securities Act unless:

- (1) you are prohibited by law or SEC policy from participating in the exchange offer;
- (2) you may not resell the exchange notes you acquire in the exchange offer to the public without delivering a prospectus and that the prospectus contained in the exchange offer registration statement is not appropriate or available for such resales by you; or
- (3) you are a broker-dealer and hold initial notes acquired directly from us or one of our affiliates, in which case the registration rights agreement requires us to file a registration statement for a continuous offer in accordance with Rule 415 under the Securities Act for the benefit of the holders of the initial notes described in this sentence.

Table of Contents

After completion of the Exchange Offer, we will have no further obligation to provide for the registration under the Securities Act of any initial notes except in limited circumstances and we do not currently anticipate that we will register under the Securities Act any notes that remain outstanding after completion of the exchange offer.

Delivery of Prospectus

Each broker-dealer that receives exchange notes for its own account in exchange for initial notes, where such initial notes were acquired by such broker-dealer as a result of market-making activities or other trading activities, must acknowledge that it will deliver a prospectus in connection with any resale of such exchange notes. See Plan of Distribution.

DESCRIPTION OF EXCHANGE NOTES

General

On November 5, 2013, we issued 1.30% Senior Notes due 2016 (the 2016 notes) in an initial aggregate principal amount of $500,000,000, 2.30% Senior Notes due 2018 (the 2018 notes) in an initial aggregate principal amount of $600,000,000, 4.00% Senior Notes due 2023 (the 2023 notes) in an initial aggregate principal amount of $800,000,000 and 5.30% Senior Notes due 2043 (the 2043 notes and, together with the 2016 notes, the 2018 notes and the 2023 notes, the notes) under an Indenture dated as of November 8, 2013 among Perrigo Company plc, a public limited company organized under the laws of Ireland (the Issuer), the Current Guarantors (as defined below) and Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as trustee (as amended, modified or supplemented from time to time in accordance with its terms, the Indenture). The 2016 notes will mature on November 8, 2016. The 2018 notes will mature on November 8, 2018. The 2023 notes will mature on November 15, 2023. The 2043 notes will mature on November 15, 2043. For purposes of this description, the defined term notes refers to the initial notes and the exchange notes. The terms of the notes include those stated in the Indenture and those made part of the Indenture by reference to the Trust Indenture Act.

The following description is only a summary of the material terms of the notes and the Indenture. We urge you to read the notes and the Indenture because they, and not this description, define your rights as holders of the notes.

Capitalized terms used in this Description of the Exchange Notes that are not defined in this prospectus have the meanings given to them in the Indenture. Copies of the notes and the Indenture have been filed with the SEC and appear elsewhere in the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part.

References in this Description of the Exchange Notes to we , us and our refer to the Issuer, excluding its subsidiaries.

Any initial notes that remain outstanding after completion of the exchange offer, together with the notes issued in the exchange offer, will be treated as a single class of securities under the Indenture and will vote together as one class, including for purposes of amending the Indenture.

The terms of the notes are identical in all material respects to the initial notes except that upon completion of the exchange offer, the notes will be registered under the Securities Act of 1933 (the Securities Act) and free of any covenants regarding exchange registration rights.

We will issue the notes in book-entry form, in denominations of $200,000 and integral multiples of $1,000 in excess of $200,000. The notes will not be subject to any sinking fund and will not be convertible into or exchange for any of our equity interests.

We may, without the consent of the holders of the notes, issue additional debt securities having the same ranking and the same interest rate, maturity and other terms as the notes of a particular series in all respects (except for the issue date, issue price, if applicable, payment of interest accruing prior to the issue date of such additional debt securities or, if applicable, the first payment of interest following the issue date of such additional debt securities). Any such additional debt securities and the notes of such series will constitute a single series of notes under the Indenture; provided, that any additional debt securities that are not fungible for U.S. federal income tax purposes with the notes of such series shall be issued under a separate CUSIP number.

The notes:

are the unsecured, senior obligations of the Issuer and rank equally with all of the Issuer's other unsecured senior indebtedness;

rank equally in right of payment with any existing and future senior indebtedness of each Guarantor;

are senior in right of payment to any obligations of each Guarantor that are by their terms expressly subordinated or junior in right of payment to the guarantees of the notes; and are effectively subordinated to any existing or future secured obligations of each Guarantor, to the extent of the value of the collateral securing such obligations.

The Current Guarantors and any such future guarantor are referred to in this Description of the Exchange Notes as the Guarantors.

The obligations of each Guarantor under its guarantee of the notes will be limited as necessary to prevent such guarantee from constituting a fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer under applicable law; this limitation, however, may not be effective to prevent such guarantee from constituting a fraudulent conveyance.

(2) such Guarantor delivering to the trustee an officer's certificate of such Guarantor and the Issuer and an opinion of counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent provided for in the Indenture relating to such transaction or release and discharge have been complied with.

Table of Contents

The terms of the credit agreements governing the Permanent Credit Facilities, as in effect on the issue date of the notes, provide that each Guarantor will be permanently and unconditionally released and discharged from its guarantee of the Permanent Credit Facilities on the initial date (such date, the Guarantor Release Date) (as defined in the Permanent Credit Facilities) on or after the second anniversary of the Escrow Release Date on which no default or event of default under the Permanent Credit Facilities shall have occurred or be continuing and the issued ratings for senior unsecured long-term debt of the Issuer that is not guaranteed or subject to other credit enhancement are either (x) BBB or better from S&P (as defined below) and Baa3 or better from Moody's or (y) BBB- or better from S&P and Baa2 or better from Moody's.

Payment and Paying Agents

We will pay interest to you if you are listed in the trustee's records as the owner of the notes at the close of business on a particular day in advance of each due date for interest on the notes. Interest will be paid to you if you are listed as the owner even if you no longer own the notes on the interest due date. That particular day is called the Regular Record Date. See Principal and Interest. Persons who are listed in the trustee's records as the owners of the notes at the close of business on a particular day are referred to as holders.

We will deposit interest, principal and any other money due on the notes with the paying agent that we name in accordance with the terms of the Indenture. Wells Fargo Bank, National Association currently serves as the paying agent for the notes. We may from time to time designate additional offices or agencies, approve a change in the location of any office or agency and, except as provided above, rescind the designation of any office or agency.

Optional Redemption

All or a portion of the 2016 notes, the 2018 notes, the 2023 notes and the 2043 notes, as the case may be, may be redeemed at our option at any time or from time to time. The redemption price for the 2016 notes, the 2018 notes, the 2023 notes and the 2043 notes, as applicable, to be redeemed on any redemption date will be equal to the greater of the following amounts:

100% of the principal amount of the notes of that series being redeemed on the redemption date; and the sum of the present values of the remaining scheduled payments of principal and interest on the applicable series of notes being redeemed on that redemption date (not including any portion of any payments of interest accrued to the redemption date), discounted to the redemption date on a semi-annual basis (assuming a 360-day year consisting of twelve 30-day months) at the Adjusted Treasury Rate (as defined below), plus 10 basis points with respect to the 2016 notes, 15 basis points with respect to the 2018 notes, 20 basis points with respect to the 2023 notes and 25 basis points with respect to the 2043 notes, as determined by the applicable Independent Investment Banker (as defined below), plus, in each case, accrued and unpaid interest, on the applicable series of notes to the redemption date.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, installments of interest on the applicable series of notes that are due and payable on interest payment dates falling on or prior to a redemption date will be payable on the interest payment date to the registered holders as of the close of business on the relevant record date according to the applicable series of notes and the Indenture.

In addition, we will have the right to redeem in whole at any time or in part from time to time, at our option, the 2023 notes on or after August 15, 2023 (three months prior to their maturity date) and the 2043 notes on or after May 15, 2043 (six months prior to their maturity date), in each case, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the aggregate principal amount of the notes of the applicable series being redeemed plus, in each case, accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to, but excluding, the redemption date.

Adjusted Treasury Rate means, with respect to any redemption date, the rate per annum equal to the semi-annual equivalent yield to maturity of the Comparable Treasury Issue, assuming a price for the Comparable

Table of Contents

Treasury Issue (expressed as a percentage of its principal amount) equal to the Comparable Treasury Price for such redemption date.

Comparable Treasury Issue means the U.S. Treasury security selected by the Independent Investment Banker as having an actual or interpolated maturity comparable to the remaining term of the applicable series of notes to be redeemed that would be utilized, at the time of selection and in accordance with customary financial practice, in pricing new issues of corporate debt securities of comparable maturity to the remaining term of the applicable series of notes.

Comparable Treasury Price means, with respect to any redemption date, (i) the average of the Reference Treasury Dealer Quotations for such redemption date, after excluding the highest and lowest such Reference Treasury Dealer Quotations, or (ii) if we are provided fewer than four such Reference Treasury Dealer Quotations, the average of all such Reference Treasury Dealer Quotations.

Independent Investment Banker means one of the Reference Treasury Dealers whom we appoint.

Reference Treasury Dealer means each of Barclays Capital Inc. and HSBC Securities (USA) Inc. and their respective successors and, at our option, additional Primary Treasury Dealers selected by us; provided, however, that if any of the foregoing ceases to be a primary U.S. Government securities dealer in New York City (a Primary Treasury Dealer), we will substitute another Primary Treasury Dealer.

Reference Treasury Dealer Quotations means, with respect to each Reference Treasury Dealer and any redemption date, the average of the bid and asked prices for the Comparable Treasury Issue (expressed in each case as a percentage of its principal amount) quoted in writing to us by such Reference Treasury Dealer at 5:00 p.m. on the third business day preceding such redemption date.

Notice of any redemption will be mailed (or, to the extent permitted or required by applicable DTC procedures or regulations, sent electronically) at least 30 days but not more than 60 days before the redemption date to each holder of the notes to be redeemed. Unless we default in payment of the redemption price, on and after the redemption date, interest will cease to accrue on the notes or portions thereof called for redemption.

If we choose to redeem less than all of the notes, the particular notes to be redeemed shall be selected by the trustee not more than 45 days prior to the redemption date. Subject to applicable DTC procedures or regulations, the trustee will select the notes to be redeemed by such method as the trustee shall deem appropriate.

Payment of Additional Amounts

All payments made by the Issuer or any Guarantor (each a Payor) on the notes will be made without withholding or deduction for, or on account of, any present or future taxes, duties, assessments or governmental charges of whatever nature (Taxes) unless the withholding or deduction of such Taxes is then required by law. If any deduction or withholding for, or on account of, any Taxes imposed or levied by or on behalf of:

(1) any jurisdiction from or through which payment on the notes or any guarantee thereof is made, or any political subdivision of governmental authority thereof or therein having the power to tax; or

(2) any jurisdiction in which a Payor is organized or otherwise considered to be a resident for tax purposes, or any political subdivision or governmental authority thereof or therein having the power to tax (each of clause (1) and (2), a Relevant Taxing Jurisdiction), will at any time be required from any payments made by a Payor with respect to the notes, including payments of principal, redemption price, interest or premium, the Payor will pay (together with such payments) such additional amounts (the Additional Amounts) as may be necessary in order that the net amounts received in respect of such payments by each holder of the notes, after such withholding or deduction (including any such deduction or withholding from such Additional Amounts), equal the amounts which would have been received in respect of such payments in the absence of such withholding or deduction; provided, however, that no such Additional Amounts will be payable with respect to:

(1) any Taxes that would not have been so imposed but for the existence of any present or former connection between the relevant holder (or between a fiduciary, settlor, beneficiary, partner of, member or shareholder of, or possessor of power over the relevant holder, if the relevant holder is an estate, nominee, trust, partnership, limited liability company or corporation) and the Relevant Taxing Jurisdiction (including being or having been a citizen, resident or national thereof or being or having been present or engaged in a trade or carrying on a business in, or having had a permanent establishment in, or being physically present in, the Relevant Taxing Jurisdiction) other than by the mere ownership or holding of such notes or enforcement of rights thereunder or under any guarantee thereof or the receipt of payments in respect thereof;

(2) any Taxes to the extent such Taxes are imposed or withheld by reason of the failure of a holder of notes to comply with any certification, identification, information or other reporting requirement, whether required by statute, treaty, regulation or administrative practice of a Relevant Taxing Jurisdiction, as a precondition to exemption from, or reduction in the rate of deduction or withholding of, Taxes imposed by the Relevant Taxing Jurisdiction (including, without limitation, a certification that the holder is not resident in the Relevant Taxing Jurisdiction) (provided that at least 30 days prior to the first payment date with respect to which such withholding, deduction or imposition is required under the applicable law of the Relevant Taxing Jurisdiction, the relevant holder at that time has been notified (in the manner contemplated by the Indenture) by the Payor or any other person through whom payment may be made of such certification, identification, information or other reporting requirement);

(3) any Taxes, to the extent such Taxes were imposed as a result of a note being presented for payment (where notes are legended notes in certificated form and presentation is required) more than 30 days after the relevant payment is first made available for payment to the holder (except to the extent that the holder would have been entitled to Additional Amounts had such note been presented during such 30 day period);

(4) any Taxes that are payable otherwise than by withholding from a payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest, on the notes or under any guarantee thereof;

(5) any estate, inheritance, gift, sale, transfer, excise, personal property or similar tax, assessment or other governmental charge;

(6) any Taxes withheld, deducted or imposed on a payment to an individual or a residual entity (as interpreted within the context of European Council Directive 2003/48/EC) that are required to be made pursuant to European Council Directive 2003/48/EC Directive or any other directive implementing the conclusions of the ECOFIN Council meeting on November 26 and 27, 2000 on the taxation of savings income or any law implementing or complying with, or introduced in order to conform to such directive;

(7) any Taxes imposed on or with respect to a payment made to a holder of the notes who would have been able to avoid such imposition by presenting (where notes are legended notes in certificated form and presentation is required) the relevant note to another paying agent in a member state of the European Union;

(8) any Taxes imposed on or with respect to any payment by the Issuer or a Guarantor to the holder if such holder is a fiduciary or partnership or any person other than the sole beneficial owner of such payment, to the extent that Taxes would not have been imposed on such payment had such holder been the sole beneficial owner of such note; or

(9) any combination of items (1) through (8) above.

For purposes of this Payment of Additional Amounts section, the term holder shall include both a holder of notes and a beneficial owner of notes, as applicable. The Indenture provides that in the event the notes are held in global form, right to receive Additional Amounts shall be determined at the beneficial owner level.

Table of Contents

The Payor will (i) make any required withholding or deduction and (ii) remit the full amount deducted or withheld to the Relevant Taxing Jurisdiction in accordance with applicable law. The Payor will use all reasonable efforts to obtain certified copies of tax receipts evidencing the payment of any Taxes so deducted or withheld from each Relevant Taxing Jurisdiction imposing such Taxes. The Payor will furnish to the trustee (or to a holder upon written request), within a reasonable time after the date the payment of any Taxes so deducted or withheld is made, such certified copies to each holder. The Payor will attach to each certified copy a certificate stating (x) that the amount of withholding Taxes evidenced by the certified copy was paid in connection with payments in respect of the principal amount of notes then outstanding and (y) the amount of such withholding Taxes paid per $1,000 principal amount of the notes. Copies of such documentation will be available for inspection during ordinary business hours at the office of the trustee by the holders of the notes upon request and will be made available at the offices of the paying agent.

At least 30 days prior to each date on which any payment under or with respect to the notes or any guarantee thereof is due and payable (unless such obligation to pay Additional Amounts arises shortly before or after the 30th day prior to such date, in which case it shall be promptly thereafter), if the Payor will be obligated to pay Additional Amounts with respect to such payment, the Payor will deliver to the trustee an officer's certificate stating the fact that such Additional Amounts will be payable, the amounts so payable and will furnish such other information necessary to enable the paying agent to pay such Additional Amounts to holders on the payment date. Each such officer's certificate shall be relied upon until receipt of a further officer's certificate addressing such matters.

The Indenture further provides that, if the Payor conducts business in any jurisdiction (an Additional Taxing Jurisdiction) other than a Relevant Taxing Jurisdiction and, as a result, is required by the law of such Additional Taxing Jurisdiction to deduct or withhold any amount on account of taxes imposed by such Additional Taxing Jurisdiction from payments under the notes or any guarantee thereof, as the case may be, which would not have been required to be so deducted or withheld but for such conduct of business in such Additional Taxing Jurisdiction, the Additional Amounts provision described above shall be considered to apply to such holders as if references in such provision to Taxes included taxes imposed by way of deduction or withholding by any such Additional Taxing Jurisdiction (or any political subdivision thereof or taxing authority therein).

Wherever in the Indenture, the notes, the guarantees or this Description of the Exchange Notes there are references in any context, to:

- (1) the payment of principal,
- (2) purchase prices in connection with a purchase of notes,
- (3) interest, or
- (4) any other amount payable on or with respect to the notes or any guarantee, such reference shall be deemed to include payment of Additional Amounts as described under this heading to the extent that, in such context, Additional Amounts are, were or would be payable in respect thereof.

The Payor will pay any present or future stamp, court or documentary taxes, or any other excise or property taxes, charges or similar levies which arise in any jurisdiction from the execution, delivery or registration of any notes or any other document or instrument referred to therein (other than a transfer of the notes), or the receipt of any payments with respect to the notes or any guarantee, excluding any such taxes, charges or similar levies imposed by any jurisdiction outside any Relevant Taxing Jurisdiction or any jurisdiction in which a paying agent is located, other than those resulting from, or required to be paid in connection with, the enforcement of the notes, any guarantee thereof or any other such document or instrument following the occurrence of any event of default with respect to the notes.

Table of Contents

The foregoing obligations will survive any termination, defeasance or discharge of the Indenture and will apply mutatis mutandis to any jurisdiction in which any successor to a Payor is organized or any political subdivision or taxing authority or agency thereof or therein.

Tax Redemption

The Issuer may redeem the notes of any series in whole, but not in part, at its discretion at any time upon giving not less than 30 nor more than 60 days' notice to the holders of the applicable series of notes (which notice will be irrevocable) at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount thereof, together with accrued and unpaid interest, if any, to the date fixed by the Issuer for redemption (a "Tax Redemption Date") (subject to the right of holders of record on the relevant record date to receive interest due on the relevant interest payment date) and Additional Amounts, if any, then due and which will become due on the Tax Redemption Date as a result of the redemption or otherwise, if the Issuer determines that, as a result of:

- (1) any change in, or amendment to, any law or treaty (or any regulations or rulings promulgated thereunder) of a Relevant Taxing Jurisdiction affecting taxation; or
- (2) any amendment to or any change in the application, administration or interpretation of such laws, treaties, regulations or rulings (including by virtue of a holding, judgment or order by a court of competent jurisdiction or a change in published administrative practice) (each of the foregoing in clauses (1) and (2), a "Change in Tax Law"), the Issuer, with respect to the notes or any Guarantor, with respect to its guarantee, as the case may be, is, or on the next interest payment date in respect of the notes would be, required to pay Additional Amounts.

Any Change in Tax Law must become effective on or after November 5, 2013. In the case of a successor of the Issuer that is not tax resident in the same jurisdiction as the Issuer or a successor of a Guarantor that is not tax resident in the same jurisdiction as such Guarantor, the Change in Tax Law must become effective after the date that such entity first makes payments on the notes. Notice of redemption for taxation reasons will be published in accordance with the procedures described above under "Optional Redemption." Notwithstanding the foregoing, no such notice of redemption will be given (a) earlier than 60 days prior to the earliest date on which the Payor would be obliged to make such payment or withholding if a payment in respect of the notes or any guarantee were then due and (b) unless, at the time such notice is given, such obligation to pay such Additional Amounts remains in effect. Prior to the publication or, where relevant, mailing of any notice of redemption of the notes pursuant to the foregoing, the Issuer will deliver to the trustee (a) an officer's certificate to the effect that the obligation to pay Additional Amounts cannot be avoided by the Issuer taking reasonable measures available to it and stating that the Issuer is entitled to effect such redemption and (b) an opinion of an independent tax counsel, which tax counsel shall be reasonably satisfactory to the trustee, to the effect that the circumstances referred to above exist. The trustee will accept and shall be entitled to rely on such officer's certificate and opinion of counsel as sufficient evidence of the existence and satisfaction of the conditions precedent described above, in which event such redemption will be conclusive and binding on the holders.

Offer to Purchase Upon Change of Control Triggering Event

If a change of control triggering event occurs with respect to a series of notes, unless we have exercised our option to redeem the applicable notes as described above, we will be required to make an offer (the "change of control offer") to each holder of the notes of the applicable series as to which the change of control triggering event has occurred to repurchase all or any part (equal to $2,000 or an integral multiple of $1,000 in excess thereof) of that holder's applicable notes on the terms set forth in such notes. In the change of control offer, we will be required to offer payment in cash equal to 101% of the aggregate principal amount of notes repurchased, plus accrued and unpaid interest on the applicable notes repurchased to, but not including, the date of repurchase (the change of control payment). Within 30 days following any change of control triggering event or, at our option, prior to any change of control triggering event, but after public announcement of the transaction that constitutes or may constitute the change of control triggering event, a notice will be mailed (or, to the extent permitted or required by applicable DTC procedures or regulations, sent electronically) to holders of the applicable notes and the trustee describing the transaction that constitutes or may constitute the change of control triggering event and offering to repurchase the notes on the date specified in the notice, which date will be no earlier than 30 days and no later than 60 days from the date such notice is mailed or sent (the "change of control payment date"). The notice will, if mailed or sent prior to the date of consummation of the change of control, state that the offer to purchase is conditioned on the change of control triggering event occurring with respect to the applicable notes on or prior to the change of control payment date.

On the change of control payment date, we will, to the extent lawful:

accept for payment all applicable notes or portions of such notes properly tendered pursuant to the applicable change of control offer;

deposit with the paying agent an amount equal to the change of control payment in respect of all such notes or portions of notes properly tendered; and deliver or cause to be delivered to the trustee the applicable notes properly accepted together with an officer's certificate stating the aggregate principal amount of the applicable notes or portions of such notes being repurchased and that all conditions precedent provided for in the Indenture to the change of control offer and to the repurchase by us of the applicable notes pursuant to the change of control offer have been met.

We will not be required to make a change of control offer upon the occurrence of a change of control triggering event if a third party makes such an offer in the manner, at the times and otherwise in compliance with the requirements for an offer made by us and the third party repurchases all applicable notes properly tendered and not withdrawn under its offer.

We will comply with the requirements of Rule 14e-1 under the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), and any other securities laws and regulations applicable to the repurchase of the notes. To the extent that the provisions of any such securities laws or regulations conflict with the change of control offer provisions of the notes, we will comply with those securities laws and regulations and will not be deemed to have breached our obligations under the change of control offer provisions of the notes by virtue of any such conflict.

If a change of control offer is made, there can be no assurance that we will have available funds sufficient to make the change of control payment for all of the notes that may be tendered for repurchase. See "Risk Factors—Risks Related to the Exchange Notes." The Issuer may not have the ability to raise the funds necessary to finance the offer to repurchase the exchange notes upon a change of control triggering event.

For purposes of the change of control offer provisions of the notes, the following terms will be applicable:

Change of control means the occurrence of any of the following: (1) the consummation of any transaction (including, without limitation, any merger or consolidation) the result of which is that any person (as that term is used in Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act), other than us or one of our subsidiaries, becomes the beneficial owner (as defined in Rules 13d-3 and 13d-5 under the Exchange Act), directly or indirectly, of more than 50% of our (or our Affiliate Transferee s) voting stock or other voting stock into which our (or our Affiliate Transferee s) voting stock is reclassified, consolidated, exchanged or changed, measured by voting power rather than number of shares; or (2) the direct or indirect sale, transfer, conveyance or other disposition (other than by way of merger or consolidation), in one or a series of related transactions, of all or substantially all of our (or our Affiliate Transferee s) assets and the assets of our (or our Affiliate Transferee s) subsidiaries, taken as a whole, to one or more persons (as that term is defined in the Indenture), other than us or one of our (or our Affiliate Transferee s) subsidiaries. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a transaction referenced in clause (1) of this definition will not be deemed to be a change of control if (i) we become a direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of a holding company and (ii)(A) the direct or indirect holders of the voting stock of such holding company immediately following that transaction are substantially the same as the holders of our voting stock immediately prior to that transaction or (B) immediately following that transaction no person (as that term is used in Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act) (other than a holding company satisfying the requirements of this sentence) is the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of more than 50% of the voting stock of such holding company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a transaction referenced in clause (2) of this definition will not be deemed a change of control if (i) we become a direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of a holding company, (ii) the transferee of all or substantially all of our assets and the assets of our subsidiaries, taken as a whole, is also a direct or indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of such holding company (such transferee, our Affiliate Transferee), (iii) such holding company provides a full and unconditional guarantee of the notes and (iv)(A) the direct or indirect holders of the voting stock of such holding company immediately following that transaction are substantially the same as the holders of our voting stock immediately prior to that transaction or (B) immediately following that transaction no person (as that term is used in Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act) (other than a holding company satisfying the requirements of this sentence) is the beneficial owner, directly or indirectly, of more than 50% of the voting stock of such holding company.

Change of control triggering event means the occurrence of both a change of control and a rating event.

Investment grade rating means a rating equal to or higher than Baa3 (or the equivalent) by Moody's and BBB- (or the equivalent) by S&P, and the equivalent investment grade credit rating from any replacement rating agency or rating agencies.

Moody's means Moody's Investors Service, Inc., and any successor to its ratings agency business.

Rating agencies means (1) each of Moody's and S&P, and (2) if either Moody's or S&P ceases to rate the notes or fails to make a rating of the notes publicly available for reasons outside of our control, a nationally recognized statistical rating organization within the meaning of Section 3(a)(62) under the Exchange Act selected by us (as certified by a resolution of our board of directors) as a replacement agency for Moody's or S&P, or both of them, as the case may be.

Rating event means the rating on such series of notes is lowered by each of the rating agencies and such series of notes is rated below an investment grade rating by each of the rating agencies on any day within the 60-day period (which 60-day period will be extended so long as the rating of such series of notes is under publicly announced consideration for a possible downgrade by any of the rating agencies) after the earlier of (1) the occurrence of a change of control and (2) public notice of our intention to effect a change of control, provided, however, that a rating event otherwise arising by virtue of a particular reduction in rating will not be deemed to have occurred in respect of a particular change of control (and thus will not be deemed a rating event for purposes of the definition of change of control triggering event) if each rating agency making the reduction in rating to which this definition would otherwise apply does not announce or publicly confirm or inform the trustee in writing at our or its request that the reduction was the result, in whole or in part, of any event or circumstance comprised of or arising as a result of, or in respect of, the applicable change of control (whether or not the applicable change of control has occurred at the time of the rating event).

S&P means Standard & Poor's Rating Services, a division of The McGraw-Hill Companies, Inc., and any successor to its ratings agency business.

Voting stock means, with respect to any specified person (as that term is used in Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act), as of any date, the capital stock of such person that is at the time entitled to vote generally in the election of the board of directors of such person.

The definition of change of control includes a phrase relating to the direct or indirect sale, transfer, conveyance or other disposition, in one or a series of related transactions, of all or substantially all of our assets and the assets of our subsidiaries, taken as a whole. Although there is a limited body of case law interpreting the phrase substantially all, there is no precise established definition of such phrase under applicable law. Accordingly, the ability of a holder of the notes to require us to repurchase that holder's notes as a result of the sale, transfer, conveyance or other disposition of less than all of our assets and the assets of our subsidiaries, taken as a whole, to one or more persons may be uncertain.

Covenants

Limitations on Liens

The Indenture provides that we will not and we will not permit any Restricted Subsidiary to create, incur, issue, assume or guarantee any Debt secured by a Lien upon or with respect to any Principal Property or on the capital stock of any Restricted Subsidiary unless:

we provide that the notes will be secured by such Lien equally and ratably with such other Debt; or the aggregate amount of:

all of such secured Debt, together with all Attributable Debt in respect of Sale and Lease-Back Transactions existing at such time, with the exception of transactions which are not subject to the limitation described in Limitations on Sale and Lease-Back Transactions, does not exceed 15% of our Consolidated Net Tangible Assets.

This limitation does not apply to any Debt secured by:

any Lien existing on the date of the Indenture;

any Lien in our favor or in favor of any Restricted Subsidiary;

any Lien existing on any asset of any entity at the time such entity becomes a Restricted Subsidiary or at the time such entity is merged or consolidated with or into us or a Restricted Subsidiary, as long as such Lien does not attach to any of our or our Restricted Subsidiaries' other assets;

any Lien on any asset which exists at the time of the acquisition of the asset;

any Lien on any asset or improvement to an asset securing Debt incurred or assumed for the purpose of financing all or any part of the cost of acquiring or improving such asset, if such Lien attaches to such asset concurrently with or within 180 days after its acquisition or improvement and the principal amount of the Debt secured by any such Lien, together with all other Debt secured by a Lien on such property, does not exceed the purchase price of such property or the cost of such improvement;

any Lien incurred in connection with pollution control, industrial revenue or any similar financing;

Liens imposed by law for taxes, fees, assessments or other governmental charges that are not delinquent or for which (a) the validity or amount thereof is being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings and the Issuer or such Restricted Subsidiary has set aside on its books adequate reserves with respect thereto in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles or (b) the failure to make payment pending such contest could not reasonably be expected to result in a material adverse effect on the business, operations, affairs, financial condition, assets or properties of the Issuer and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole (such, a Material Adverse Effect);

any (i) minor survey exceptions, minor encumbrances, minor title defects or irregularities, easements, zoning restrictions, rights-of-way and similar encumbrances on real property imposed by law or arising in the ordinary course of business and (ii) leases, subleases, licenses or sublicenses granted to others in the ordinary course of business, that in each case do not materially detract from the value of the affected property or interfere with the ordinary conduct of business of the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary; any Liens, pledges or deposits made in the ordinary course of business in compliance with workers compensation, unemployment insurance and other social security and similar laws or regulations;

any Lien on any Debt of any joint ventures; judgment Liens in respect of judgments for the payment of money aggregating to less than the greater of $75,000,000 and 3% of Consolidated Net Tangible Assets;

carriers, warehousemen, mechanics, materialmen, repairmen and other like Liens, or property securing payment for services rendered in respect of such property, in each case that are imposed by law, arising in the ordinary course of business and securing obligations that are not overdue by more than 30 days or for which (a) the validity or amount thereof is being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings, (b) the Issuer or such Restricted Subsidiary has set aside on its books adequate reserves with respect thereto in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles and (c) the failure to make payment pending such contest could not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect;

any Liens or deposits incurred to secure the performance of bids, trade contracts, leases, statutory obligations, surety and appeal bonds, performance bonds and other obligations of a like nature, in each case in the ordinary course of business;

statutory and contractual Liens in favor of landlords on real property leased by the Issuer or any Restricted Subsidiary, provided that the Issuer or such Restricted Subsidiary is current with respect to payment of all rent and other amounts due to such landlord under any lease of such real property, except where the failure to be current in payment would not, individually or in the aggregate, be reasonably likely to result in a Material Adverse Effect; or any extension, renewal, substitution or replacement of any of the Liens not restricted under Limitations on Liens if the principal amount of the Debt secured thereby is not increased and is not secured by any additional assets.

Limitations on Sale and Lease-Back Transactions

The Indenture provides that neither we nor any Restricted Subsidiary may enter into any Sale and Lease-Back Transaction. Such limitation does not apply to any Sale and Lease-Back Transaction if:

we or such Restricted Subsidiary would be entitled to incur Debt secured by a Lien on the property to be leased as described under Limitations on Liens ;

such Sale and Lease-Back Transaction involves the taking back of a lease for a period of less than three years; or within 180 days of the effective date of any such Sale and Lease-Back Transaction, we apply an amount equal to the greater of the net proceeds of the transaction and the fair market value of the property so leased to the retirement of Funded Debt, other than Funded Debt we were otherwise obligated to repay within such 180-day period, or to the acquisition of or investment in one or more Principal Properties.

Future Guarantors

Until the occurrence of the Guarantor Release Date, the Issuer will not permit any of its subsidiaries, other than a Guarantor, to incur or guarantee the payment of any indebtedness under the Permanent Credit Facilities unless:

- (1) such subsidiary within 60 days executes and delivers a supplemental indenture to the Indenture providing for a guarantee of the notes by such subsidiary; and

Table of Contents

- (2) such subsidiary waives and will not in any manner whatsoever claim or take the benefit or advantage of, any rights of reimbursement, indemnity or subrogation or any other applicable rights against the Issuer as a result of any payment by such subsidiary under its guarantee of the notes.

The Issuer may elect, in its sole discretion, to cause any subsidiary that is not otherwise required to be a Guarantor to become a Guarantor. In addition, substantially concurrently with the delivery of the same to the Administrative Agent under the Permanent Credit Facilities, each Guarantor shall deliver to the Trustee a favorable Opinion of Counsel to such Guarantor and such other customary documentation as the Trustee may reasonably request.

Merger, Consolidation and Sale of Assets

The Indenture provides that we may consolidate or merge with or into any other corporation, limited liability company, limited partnership or other legal entity and we may sell, lease or convey all or substantially all of our assets to a legal entity organized and existing under the laws of the United States, any country in the European Union, the United Kingdom, Canada, Israel, Switzerland or any U.S. state, provided that the surviving entity (if other than us) formed by or resulting from any such consolidation or merger or which shall have received such assets shall assume, pursuant to a supplemental indenture, all of our obligations under the Indenture, the notes and the registration rights agreement, and the Issuer shall deliver an opinion of counsel to the trustee confirming that, subject to customary assumptions and exclusions, such assumption shall not cause holders of the notes to recognize income, gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes with respect to their ownership of the notes solely as a result of such assumption.

Financial Reports

For so long as any of the notes remain outstanding and have not become freely tradeable without restrictions by non-affiliates of the Issuer pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act or exchanged for notes registered under the Securities Act pursuant to the registration rights agreement, the Issuer will furnish to the holders of the notes and prospective investors, upon their request, with a copy to the trustee the information required to be delivered pursuant to Rule 144A(d)(4) under the Securities Act, unless the same is available on the SEC's Electronic Data Gathering, Analysis and Retrieval System (or successor system). The Issuer will make the above information and reports available to securities analysts and prospective investors upon request.

Events of Default, Waiver and Notice

With respect to the notes of any series, an event of default with respect to the notes of such series is defined in the Indenture as being:

1. default in payment of any interest on or any additional amounts payable in respect of the notes of such series which remains uncured for a period of 30 days;
2. default in payment of principal (and premium, if any) on the notes of such series when due either at maturity, upon redemption, by declaration or otherwise;
3. default in the payment of the purchase price of any notes of such series we are required to purchase as described under "Offer to Purchase Upon Change of Control Triggering Event" ;

4. our default in the performance or breach of any other covenant or warranty in respect of the notes of such series in the Indenture which shall not have been remedied for a period of 90 days after notice; and
 5. the taking of certain actions by us or a court relating to our bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization.
- Whether an event of default (other than an event of default specified in clause (5) above) has occurred will be determined on a series-by-series basis.

Table of Contents

With respect to the notes of any series, the Indenture requires the trustee to give the holders of the notes of such series notice of a default known to it within 90 days unless the default is cured or waived. However, the Indenture will provide that the trustee may withhold notice to the holders of the notes of such series of any default with respect to the notes of such series (except in payment of principal of, or interest on, the notes of such series) if the trustee in good faith determines that it is in the interest of the holders of the notes of such series to do so.

With respect to the notes of any series, the Indenture also provides that if an event of default (other than an event of default specified in clause (5) above) shall have occurred and be continuing, either the trustee or the holders of not less than 25% in principal amount of the outstanding notes of such series then may declare the principal amount of all the notes of such series and interest accrued thereon, to be due and payable immediately.

With respect to the notes of any series, upon certain conditions such declarations may be annulled and past defaults may be waived (except a continuing default in payment of principal of, or premium or interest on, the notes of such series) by the holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding notes of such series.

If an event of default under the Indenture specified in clause (5) above shall have occurred and is continuing, then the principal amount of all the outstanding notes will automatically become due and payable immediately without any declaration or other act on the part of the trustee or any holder.

With respect to the notes of any series, the holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding notes of such series shall have the right to direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the trustee or exercising any trust or power conferred on the trustee with respect to the notes of such series provided that such direction shall not be in conflict with any rule of law or the Indenture, shall not involve the trustee in any personal liability, and shall not be unduly prejudicial to the holders not taking part in such direction. If an event of default occurs and is continuing with respect to the notes of any series, then the trustee may in its discretion (and subject to the rights of the holders to direct remedies as described above) bring such judicial proceedings as the trustee shall deem necessary to protect and enforce the rights of the holders of the notes of such series under the Indenture.

With respect to the notes of any series, the Indenture provides that no holder of the notes of any series will have any right to institute any proceeding, judicial or otherwise, with respect to the Indenture for the appointment of a receiver or trustee for any other remedy thereunder unless:

that holder has previously given the trustee written notice of a continuing event of default;

the holders of not less than 25% in principal amount of the outstanding notes of such series have made written request to the trustee to institute proceedings in respect of that event of default with respect to the notes of such series and have offered the trustee security or indemnity satisfactory to the trustee against costs, expenses and liabilities incurred in complying with such request; and for 60 days after receipt of such notice, request and offer of security or indemnity, the trustee has failed to institute any such proceeding and no direction inconsistent with such request has been given to the trustee during such 60-day period by the holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding notes of such series.

Furthermore, no holder will be entitled to institute any such action if and to the extent that such action would disturb or prejudice the rights of other holders.

However, each holder has an absolute and unconditional right to receive payment when due and to bring a suit to enforce that right. We are required to furnish to the trustee under the Indenture annually a statement as to performance or fulfillment of our obligations under the Indenture and as to any default in such performance or fulfillment.

Table of Contents

Modification, Amendment and Waiver

Together with the trustee, we may, when authorized by our board of directors, modify the Indenture with respect to the notes of any series without the consent of the holders of the notes of such series for limited purposes, including, but not limited to, adding to our covenants or events of default, curing ambiguities or correcting any defective provisions with respect to the notes of such series.

Except as described in the prior sentence, the Indenture provides that we and the trustee may modify and amend the Indenture with respect to the notes of any series with the consent of the holders of a majority in principal amount of the outstanding notes of such series affected by the modification or amendment, provided that no such modification or amendment may, without the consent of the holder of each outstanding note of such series affected by the modification or amendment:

change the stated maturity of the principal of, or any installment of interest on or any additional amounts payable with respect to, the notes of such series or change the redemption price;

reduce the principal amount of, or interest on, the notes of such series or reduce the amount of principal which could be declared due and payable prior to the stated maturity;

impair the right to enforce any payment on or after the stated maturity or redemption date;

change the place or currency of any payment of principal or interest on the notes of such series;

reduce the percentage in principal amount of the outstanding notes of such series, the consent of whose holders is required to modify or amend the Indenture;

reduce the percentage of outstanding notes of such series necessary to waive any past default to less than a majority;

modify the provisions in the Indenture relating to adding provisions or changing or eliminating provisions of the Indenture or modifying rights of holders of notes of such series to waive defaults under the Indenture; or adversely affect the right to repayment of the notes of such series at the option of the holders.

Except with respect to certain fundamental provisions, the holders of at least a majority in principal amount of outstanding notes of such series of a series may waive past defaults under the Indenture with respect to the notes of such series.

Satisfaction and Discharge

We may be discharged from our obligations under the Indenture when all of the notes not previously delivered to the trustee for cancellation have either matured or will mature or be redeemed within one year and we deposit with the trustee enough cash or U.S. government obligations to pay all the principal, interest and any premium due to the stated maturity date or redemption date of such notes. Such discharge is subject to terms contained in the Indenture.

Defeasance

With respect to the notes of any series, the term defeasance means the discharge of some or all of our obligations under the Indenture with respect to the notes of such series. If we deposit with the trustee funds or U.S. government securities, or a combination thereof, sufficient, in the opinion of a nationally recognized firm of independent accountants, to make payments on the notes of such series on the dates those payments are due and payable, then, at our option, either of the following will occur:

we will be discharged from our obligations with respect to the notes of such series (legal defeasance); or we will no longer have any obligation to comply with the restrictive covenants under the Indenture, and the related events of default will no longer apply to us (covenant defeasance) with respect to the notes of such series.

If we defease the notes of any series, the holders of the notes of such series will not be entitled to the benefits of the Indenture, except for our obligation to register the transfer or exchange of the notes of such series, replace stolen, lost or mutilated notes of such series or maintain paying agencies and hold moneys for payment in trust. In the case of covenant defeasance, our obligation to pay principal, premium and interest on the notes of such series will also survive. We will be required to deliver to the trustee an opinion of counsel confirming that, subject to customary assumptions and exclusions, the deposit and related defeasance would not cause the holders of the notes of such series to recognize income, gain or loss for federal income tax purposes. If we elect legal defeasance, that opinion of counsel must be based upon a ruling from the United States Internal Revenue Service or a change in law to that effect.

Consent to Creation of Distributable Reserves

The Indenture provides that each holder of a note by its acceptance thereof irrevocably consents, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, to the creation of distributable reserves by reducing some or all of the share premium of the Issuer resulting from the issuance of ordinary shares of the Issuer in connection with the scheme of arrangement pursuant to which the acquisition of Elan and Perrigo Company was consummated.

Governing Law; Jury Trial Waiver

The Indenture is governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of New York. The Indenture provides that the Issuer, the trustee, and each holder of a note by its acceptance thereof, irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any and all right to trial by jury in any legal proceeding arising out of or relating to the Indenture, the notes or any transaction contemplated thereby.

Submission to Jurisdiction; Waiver of Immunity

In connection with any legal action or proceeding arising out of or relating to the notes or the Indenture, we agreed in the Indenture:

to submit to the jurisdiction of any U.S. federal or New York state court sitting in the City of New York, and any appellate court thereof;

that all claims in respect of such legal action or proceeding may be heard and determined in such U.S. federal or state court in the City of New York and waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, the defense of an inconvenient forum to the maintenance of such action or proceeding and any right of jurisdiction in such action or proceeding on account of our place of residence or domicile; and to appoint Corporation Service Company, with an office at 1180 Avenue of the Americas, Suite 210, New York, New York 10036, as process agent.

The process agent will receive, on our behalf, service of copies of the summons and complaint and any other process which may be served in any such legal action or proceeding brought in such U.S. federal or New York state court sitting in the City of New York. Service may be made by mailing or delivering a copy of such process to us, as the case may be, at the address specified above for the process agent.

A final judgment in any of the above legal actions or proceedings will be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions, in each case, to the extent permitted under the applicable laws of such jurisdiction.

In addition to the foregoing, the holders may serve legal process in any other manner permitted by applicable law. The above provisions do not limit the right of any holder to bring any action or proceeding against us or our properties in other courts where jurisdiction is independently established.

Table of Contents

To the extent that we have or hereafter may acquire or have attributed to us any sovereign or other immunity under any law, we will agree in the Indenture to waive, to the fullest extent permitted by law, such immunity from jurisdiction or to service of process in respect of any legal suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to the indenture or the notes.

Currency Indemnity

The U.S. dollar is the sole currency of account and payment for all sums payable by us under or in connection with the notes, including damages. If, for the purposes of obtaining judgment in any court in any jurisdiction in connection with the notes, it becomes necessary to convert into a particular currency the amount due under or in connection with the notes, then conversion shall be made at the rate of exchange prevailing on the day the decision became enforceable (or if such day is not a business day, the next preceding business day) at the place where it was rendered. Our obligations under or in connection with the notes will be discharged only to the extent that the relevant holder is able to purchase in the London foreign exchange markets in accordance with normal banking procedures, on the date of the relevant receipt or recovery by it (or, if it is not practicable to make such purchase on such date, on the first date on which it is practicable to do so), U.S. dollars in the amount originally due to it (whether pursuant to any judgment or otherwise) with any other currency paid to that holder. If the holder cannot purchase U.S. dollars in the amount originally to be paid, we will indemnify the holder for any resulting loss or damage sustained by it and pay the difference. The holder, however, will agree that, if the amount of U.S. dollars purchased exceeds the amount originally to be paid to such holder, the holder will reimburse the excess to us. The holder will not be obligated to make this reimbursement if we are in default of our obligations under the notes. The indemnity undertaken by us in favor of the holders as described above will constitute an obligation separate and independent from the other obligations contained in the Indenture, shall give rise to a separate and independent cause of action, shall apply irrespective of any waiver granted by the holder of any Note or the trustee from time to time and shall continue in full force and effect notwithstanding any judgment or order for a liquidated sum in respect of an amount due under or in connection with the Notes or under any judgment or order.

Trustee

Wells Fargo Bank, National Association serves as trustee, paying agent, and security registrar under the Indenture.

We maintain banking relationships in the ordinary course of business with the trustee and its affiliates.

MATERIAL UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following is a summary of the material United States federal income tax consequences relating to the exchange of initial notes for exchange notes in the exchange offer. This summary is based on United States federal income tax law, including the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), Treasury Regulations, administrative rulings and judicial authority, all as in effect or in existence as of the date of this prospectus.

Subsequent developments in United States federal income tax law, including changes in law or differing interpretations, which may be applied retroactively, could have a material effect on the United States federal income tax consequences of the exchange of initial notes for exchange notes in the exchange offer. We have not sought and will not seek any rulings from the Internal Revenue Service (the IRS) with respect to the matters summarized below, and there can be no assurance that the IRS will not take a different position concerning the tax consequences of the exchange of initial notes for exchange notes in the exchange offer or that any such position would not be sustained.

This summary does not discuss all of the aspects of United States federal income taxation that may be relevant to you in light of your particular investment or other circumstances, or to holders subject to special provisions of United States federal tax law (such as dealers in securities or currencies, traders in securities, persons holding notes as part of a conversion, constructive sale, wash sale or other integrated transaction or a hedge, straddle or synthetic security, persons subject to the alternative minimum tax, United States expatriates, financial institutions, insurance companies, controlled foreign corporations and passive foreign investment companies, and shareholders of such corporations, regulated investment companies, real estate investment trusts, entities that are tax-exempt for United States federal income tax purposes and retirement plans, individual retirement accounts and tax-deferred accounts and pass-through entities, including entities and arrangements classified as partnerships for United States federal tax purposes, and beneficial owners of pass-through entities). This summary applies only to a beneficial owner of a note who holds the note as a capital asset within the meaning of the Code (generally, property held for investment). This summary does not discuss any state, local or non-U.S. income or other tax consequences.

The exchange of initial notes for exchange notes in the exchange offer will not be a taxable event for United States federal income tax purposes. Your tax basis in your exchange notes immediately after the exchange will be the same as your tax basis in your initial notes immediately before the exchange, and your holding period in your exchange notes will include your holding period for your initial notes exchanged therefor.

Before you exchange initial notes for exchange notes in the exchange offer, you should consult your own tax advisor regarding the particular United States federal, state, local and non-U.S. tax consequences of the exchange that may be applicable to you.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

Each broker-dealer that receives exchange notes for its own account pursuant to this exchange offer must acknowledge that it will deliver a prospectus meeting the requirements of the Securities Act in connection with any resale of such exchange notes. This prospectus, as it may be amended or supplemented from time to time, may be used by a broker-dealer in connection with resales of exchange notes received in exchange for initial notes where such initial notes were acquired as a result of market-making activities or other trading activities. We have agreed that we will make this prospectus, as amended or supplemented, available to any broker-dealer for use in connection with any such resale until the earlier of 180 days after the closing of this exchange offer or the date on which each such broker-dealer has resold all exchange notes acquired by it in this exchange offer.

We will not receive any proceeds from any sale of exchange notes by broker-dealers. Exchange notes received by broker-dealers for their own accounts pursuant to the exchange offer may be sold from time to time in one or more transactions in the over-the-counter market, in negotiated transactions, through the writing of options on the exchange notes or a combination of such methods of resale, at market prices prevailing at the time of resale, at prices related to such prevailing market prices or negotiated prices. Any such resale may be made directly to purchasers or to or through brokers or dealers who may receive compensation in the form of commissions or concessions from any such broker-dealer and/or the purchasers of any exchange notes. Any broker-dealer that resells exchange notes that were received by it for its own account pursuant to this exchange offer and any broker or dealer that participates in a distribution of such exchange notes may be deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of the Securities Act and any profit on any such resale of exchange notes and any commissions or concessions received by any such persons may be deemed to be underwriting compensation under the Securities Act. The letter of transmittal states that by acknowledging that it will deliver and by delivering a prospectus, a broker-dealer will not be deemed to admit that it is an underwriter within the meaning of the Securities Act.

Until the earlier of 180 days after the closing of this exchange offer or the date on which each such broker-dealer has resold all exchange notes acquired by it in this exchange offer, we will promptly send additional copies of this prospectus and any amendment or supplement to this prospectus to any broker-dealer that requests such documents in the letter of transmittal. Pursuant to the registration rights agreement, we have agreed to pay all expenses incident to this exchange offer (including the expenses of one counsel for the holders of the notes) other than dealers' and brokers' discounts and commissions and will indemnify the holders of the notes (including any broker-dealers) against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act.

BOOK-ENTRY, DELIVERY AND FORM

The certificates representing the notes will be issued in the form of one or more fully registered global notes without coupons (the "Global Note") and will be deposited with, or with the trustee as custodian on behalf of, The Depository Trust Company ("DTC") and registered in the name of Cede & Co., as the nominee of DTC.

Investors may elect to hold their interests in the Global Note through any of DTC, Clearstream Banking, société anonyme, or Euroclear Bank S.A./N.V., as operator of the Euroclear System. Except in limited circumstances, the notes will not be issuable in definitive form. Unless and until they are exchanged in whole or in part for the individual notes represented thereby, any interests in the Global Note may not be transferred except as a whole by DTC to a nominee of DTC or by a nominee of DTC to DTC or another nominee of DTC or by DTC or any nominee of DTC to a successor depository or any nominee of such successor.

DTC has advised us that DTC is a limited-purpose trust company organized under the New York Banking Law, a banking organization within the meaning of the New York Banking Law, a member of the Federal Reserve System, a clearing corporation within the meaning of the New York Uniform Commercial Code, and a clearing agency registered pursuant to the provisions of Section 17A of the Exchange Act. DTC holds securities that its participants ("Direct Participants") deposit with DTC. DTC also facilitates the post-trade settlement among Direct Participants of sales and other securities transactions in deposited securities, through electronic computerized book-entry transfers and pledges between Direct Participants' accounts. This eliminates the need for physical movement of securities certificates. Direct Participants include both U.S. and non-U.S. securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies, clearing corporations, and certain other organizations. DTC is a wholly owned subsidiary of The Depository Trust & Clearing Corporation ("DTCC"). DTCC is the holding company for DTC, National Securities Clearing Corporation and Fixed Income Clearing Corporation, all of which are registered clearing agencies. DTCC is owned by the users of its regulated subsidiaries. Access to the DTC system is also available to others such as both U.S. and non-U.S. securities brokers and dealers, banks, trust companies and clearing corporations that clear through or maintain a custodial relationship with a Direct Participant, either directly or indirectly. The rules applicable to DTC and its participants are on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The information in this section concerning DTC and DTC's book-entry system has been obtained from sources that we believe to be reliable, but we take no responsibility for the accuracy thereof.

Same-Day Settlement and Payment

All payments of principal and interest in respect of notes in book-entry form will be made by us in immediately available funds to the accounts specified by DTC.

Secondary trading in long-term notes and debentures of corporate issuers is generally settled in clearing houses or next-day funds. In contrast, the notes will trade in DTC's Same-Day Funds Settlement System until maturity, or earlier redemption or repayment, or until the notes are issued in certificated form, and secondary market trading activity in the notes will therefore be required by DTC to settle in immediately available funds. No assurance can be given as to the effect, if any, of settlement in immediately available funds on trading activity in the notes.

Notices

Any notices required to be given to the holders of the notes will be given to DTC.
