PART II

INFORMATION REQUIRED IN THE REGISTRATION STATEMENT

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel

Todd A. Suko, Executive Vice President and General Counsel of the Registrant, is passing upon the validity of the issuance of the shares of Common Stock offered by this Registration Statement. As of January 28, 2016, Mr. Suko held 9,068 shares of Common Stock and 10,369 time vested restricted stock units (none of which will vest in the next 60 days).

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Article Tenth of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of Harman International Industries, Incorporated, as amended (the Restated Certificate of Incorporation) provides that to the fullest extent permitted by law a director will not be personally liable for monetary damages to the Registrant or its stockholders for or with respect to any acts or omissions in the performance of his or her duties as a director. Section 102(b)(7) of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the DGCL) provides that, in its certificate of incorporation, a corporation may limit or eliminate a director's personal liability for monetary damages to the corporation or its stockholders, except for liability (i) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to such corporation or its stockholders, (ii) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (iii) for paying a dividend or approving a stock repurchase in violation of Section 174 of the DGCL or (iv) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit. While Article Tenth of the Restated Certificate of Incorporation provides directors with protection from awards for monetary damages for breaches of the duty of care, it does not eliminate the directors' duty of care. Accordingly, the Restated Certificate of Incorporation will have no effect on the availability of equitable remedies such as an injunction or rescission based on a director's breach of the duty of care. The provisions of Article Tenth as described above apply to officers of the Registrant only if they are directors of the Registrant and are acting in their capacity as directors.

Section 145 of the DGCL provides that a corporation may indemnify directors and officers as well as other employees and agents of the corporation against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement, in connection with specified actions, suits or proceedings, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, as a derivative action), if they acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. A similar standard is applicable in the case of actions by or in the right of the corporation, except that indemnification only extends to expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense or settlement of such action, and no indemnification may be made where the person seeking indemnification has been found liable to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that a court determines indemnification is fair and reasonable in view of all circumstances. Article VIII of the by-laws provides that the Registrant will indemnify its directors, officers, employees and agents to the fullest extent permitted by Delaware law or any other applicable law, thereby affording such persons the protections available to directors, officers, employees and agents of Delaware corporations as summarized above. The Registrant maintains directors' and officers' liability insurance which insures against liabilities that directors or officers of the Registrant may incur in such capacities.

The Registrant has entered into indemnification agreements with each of its current directors and officers and intends to enter into indemnification agreements with each of its future directors and officers. These agreements require the Registrant to indemnify these individuals to the fullest extent permitted under Delaware law against liability that may arise by reason of their service to the Registrant.

The foregoing summaries are subject to the complete text of the DGCL, the Restated Certificate of Incorporation, the Registrant's by-laws and the Registrant's indemnification agreements referred to above and are qualified in their entirety by reference thereto.
