Special Meeting of Shareholders

10:30 a.m. March 21, 2016

Invitation to Shareholders

Calgary Telus Convention Centre

Calgary, Alberta

Dear Canadian Oil Sands Shareholders,

The Board of Directors of Canadian Oil Sands Limited (Canadian Oil Sands) invite you to attend a special meeting (the Meeting) of the holders (Shareholders) of common shares of Canadian Oil Sands (COS Shares) on Monday March 21, 2016 at 10:30 a.m. (Calgary time) at the Calgary Telus Convention Centre, 120 9 Avenue S.E., Calgary, Alberta.

The purpose of the Meeting is for Shareholders to consider and, if thought advisable, to approve an amalgamation (the Amalgamation) between Canadian Oil Sands and 1950456 Alberta Ltd. (Newco), an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Suncor Energy Inc. (Suncor), and involving Suncor, Shareholders and Suncor Energy Ventures Corporation (Holdco), a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Suncor and the sole shareholder of Newco. The proposed Amalgamation will result in Shareholders ultimately receiving 0.28 of a common share of Suncor (each whole share a Suncor Share) for each COS Share held, which is the same form and amount of consideration offered to Shareholders under Suncor's take-over bid for Canadian Oil Sands dated October 5, 2015, as amended (the Offer).

Further details regarding the Amalgamation, including the Shareholder dissent rights, are set out in the accompanying Notice of Meeting and Management Proxy Circular (the Circular). In summary, if the resolution in respect of the Amalgamation is approved and all of the conditions of the Amalgamation are satisfied at the effective time:

- (a) each COS Share held by a Shareholder (other than a Dissenting Shareholder or Suncor) will be automatically converted into 0.28 of a Suncor Share;
- (b) Canadian Oil Sands and Newco will amalgamate and continue as one corporation (Amalco); and
- (c) a Dissenting Shareholder shall cease to have any rights as a holder of COS Shares other than the right to be paid by Canadian Oil Sands (or its successor) the fair value of the COS Shares held by such Dissenting Shareholder in accordance with the Business Corporations Act (Alberta).

Upon completion of the Amalgamation on the terms described in the Circular, Suncor and its affiliate, Holdco, will hold all of the voting shares of Amalco, the successor to Canadian Oil Sands. As soon as practicable following the effective date of the Amalgamation Canadian Oil Sands expects that the COS Shares will be de-listed from the Toronto Stock Exchange. In connection with the Amalgamation, Canadian Oil Sands also expects that an application will be made to have Canadian Oil Sands cease as a reporting issuer in all provinces of Canada. Further, following the completion of the Amalgamation, it is anticipated that Holdco and Amalco will undertake a subsequent amalgamation such that the newly formed entity

will carry on the business and operations of Canadian Oil Sands with all of its assets and liabilities and be a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Suncor.

Registered Shareholders will be entitled to exercise dissent rights in respect of the Amalgamation. Accordingly, Shareholders wishing to exercise rights of dissent in respect of the Amalgamation should do so in accordance with the dissent provisions of the Business Corporations Act (Alberta), as discussed in the Circular.

Please take the time to review the accompanying Circular, which contains important information about the Meeting, the proposed Amalgamation and voting. In order for the Amalgamation to be approved, holders of at least 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ % of the COS Shares voted in person or by proxy at the Meeting must vote in favour of the resolution to approve the Amalgamation. In addition, pursuant to applicable securities laws, the Amalgamation must also be approved by a simple majority of the votes cast by minority Shareholders represented in person or by proxy at the Meeting. Suncor currently holds approximately 73% of the issued and outstanding COS Shares, all of which are entitled to be treated as minority COS Shares, and Suncor has advised that it intends to vote all of its COS Shares in favour of the Amalgamation. Suncor may acquire further COS Shares prior to the date of the Meeting.

If you cannot attend the Meeting in person, you can vote by proxy by following the instructions on the enclosed proxy or voting instruction form. On pages 10 through 13 of the accompanying circular, we provide the answers to some frequently asked questions on voting.

We look forward to seeing you at the Meeting.

Yours truly,

NOTICE TO SHAREHOLDERS IN THE UNITED STATES

The offering of Suncor shares in connection with the Amalgamation contemplated by this Circular is being made by a Canadian issuer pursuant to a multijurisdictional disclosure system adopted by the United States that permits this Circular to be prepared in accordance with the disclosure requirements of Canada. Shareholders in the United States should be aware that such requirements are different from those of the United States. The financial statements included or incorporated by reference herein have been prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles, and are subject to Canadian auditing and auditor independence standards, and thus may not be comparable to financial statements of U.S. companies.

Certain of Suncor's oil and gas reserves and resources estimates incorporated by reference in this Circular have been prepared in accordance with NI 51-101, which has been adopted by securities regulatory authorities in Canada and imposes oil and gas disclosure standards for Canadian public issuers engaged in oil and gas activities that differ from the oil and gas disclosure standards of the SEC under Subpart 1200 of Regulation S-K. NI 51-101 permits oil and gas issuers, in their filings with Canadian securities regulatory authorities, to disclose not only proved and probable reserves but also resources, and to disclose reserves and production on a gross basis before deducting royalties. The SEC definitions of proved and probable reserves are different than the definitions contained in NI 51-101. Therefore, proved and probable reserves disclosed in the documents incorporated by reference into this Circular in compliance with NI 51-101 are not comparable to those disclosed by U.S. companies in reports filed with the SEC. In addition, certain documents incorporated by reference in this Circular contain estimates of contingent resources. The SEC generally does not permit U.S. companies to disclose oil and gas resources, including contingent resources, in reports filed with the SEC.

Contingent resources are not, and should not be confused with, reserves. Moreover, as permitted by NI 51-101, Suncor has determined and disclosed its reserves and the related net present value of future net revenue from its reserves in its NI 51-101 compliant reserves disclosure using forecast prices and costs. In contrast, the SEC requires that reserves and related future net revenue be estimated based on historical 12 month average prices rather than forecast prices, but permits the optional disclosure of revenue estimates based on different price and cost criteria, including standardized future prices or management's own forecasts. Consequently, the oil and gas reserves and resources estimates incorporated by reference in this Circular that are prepared in accordance with NI 51-101 are not comparable to oil and gas reserve estimates provided by U.S. companies in their filings with the SEC.

Shareholders in the United States should be aware that the disposition of their COS Shares and the acquisition of Suncor Shares by them as described herein may have tax consequences both in the United States and in Canada. Such consequences for Shareholders who are resident in, or citizens of, the United States may not be described fully herein and such Shareholders are encouraged to consult their tax advisors. See Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations and Certain United States Federal Income Tax Considerations herein.

The enforcement by Shareholders of civil liabilities under U.S. federal securities laws may be affected adversely by the fact that each of Suncor, Holdco, Newco and the Corporation are incorporated under the laws of Canada, that some or all of their respective officers and directors may be residents of a foreign country, that some or all of the experts named herein may be residents of a foreign country and that all or a substantial portion of the assets of Suncor and the Corporation and said persons may be located outside the United States.

THE SUNCOR SHARES CONTEMPLATED TO BE DELIVERED IN CONNECTION WITH THE AMALGAMATION HAVE NOT BEEN APPROVED OR DISAPPROVED BY THE SEC OR ANY U.S. STATE SECURITIES COMMISSION NOR HAS THE SEC OR ANY U.S. STATE SECURITIES

COMMISSION PASSED UPON THE ACCURACY OR ADEQUACY OF THE CIRCULAR. ANY REPRESENTATION TO THE CONTRARY IS A CRIMINAL OFFENSE.

All such forward-looking statements are made, where applicable, pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of applicable securities laws. It is important to know that:

unless otherwise indicated, forward-looking statements and information in the Circular, including the documents incorporated by reference, and other sections of this document, describe Canadian Oil Sands' or Suncor's expectations as at the date on which such statements are made; actual results and events could differ materially from those expressed or implied in the forward-looking statements and information in the Circular, including the documents incorporated by reference, if known or unknown risks affect the respective businesses of Suncor or Canadian Oil Sands or the Amalgamation, or if its estimates or assumptions turn out to be inaccurate. the anticipated synergies, cost savings and operational and cost efficiencies and other anticipated benefits of the Offer and the Amalgamation will materialize; the advice received from professional advisors is accurate; there will be no material changes to government and environmental regulations adversely affecting Suncor's or Canadian Oil Sands operations; and the impact of the current economic climate and financial, political and industry conditions on Suncor's and Canadian Oil Sands operations, including their respective financial condition, business plans and asset values, will remain consistent with current expectations. Although Canadian Oil Sands and Suncor believe that the assumptions made and the expectations represented by such statements or information are reasonable, there can be no assurance that the forward-looking statements or information will prove to be accurate.

By their nature, forward-looking statements and information are based on assumptions and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause actual results, performance or achievements, or industry results, to be materially different from future results, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements and information. In particular, there are certain risks related to the consummation of the Amalgamation and the business and operations of Suncor (including the business and operations that are currently being conducted and undertaken by Suncor and those that will be conducted and undertaken by Suncor upon consummation of the Amalgamation) including, but not limited to, the risk that the anticipated synergies, cost savings and other benefits of the completion of the acquisition of Canadian Oil Sands by Suncor may not be realized and the risk that future production may not grow as anticipated. In addition, Shareholders are cautioned that the actual results of Suncor following the successful completion of the Amalgamation, may differ materially from the expectations expressed herein as a result of a number of additional risks and uncertainties including as a result of: volatility of oil and gas prices; fluctuations in currency and interest rates; variations in product supply and demand; market competition; risks inherent in marketing operations (including credit risks); imprecision of production and reserves estimates and estimates of recoverable quantities of oil, natural gas and liquids; risks relating to securing adequate product transportation; the ability to access external sources of debt and equity capital; the timing and the costs of capital project and pipeline construction; changes in royalty, tax, environmental and other laws or regulations or the interpretations of such laws or regulations; applicable political and economic conditions; the risk of war, hostilities, civil insurrection, political instability and terrorist threats; changes in OPEC production quotas; and risks associated with existing and potential future lawsuits and regulatory actions.

MAKE YOUR VOTE COUNT:

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ON VOTING

Your vote is important to us. In this section we answer some frequently asked questions about voting. Unless otherwise stated, the answers relate to all Shareholders regardless of whether you are a registered or Beneficial Shareholder (as explained below).

WHAT WILL THE MEETING COVER?

There is one item of business on the agenda:

1. The Amalgamation

You are being asked to vote on the proposed Amalgamation whereby Suncor, through its wholly-owned subsidiary, will acquire all of the issued and outstanding COS Shares not already held by Suncor for consideration of 0.28 of a Suncor Share per COS Share and the Corporation and Newco will amalgamate and continue as one corporation. The consideration to be received by Shareholders (other than Suncor and Dissenting Shareholders) in connection with the Amalgamation is the same form and amount of consideration offered to Shareholders under the Offer. Suncor currently holds approximately 73% of the issued and outstanding COS Shares and it may acquire additional COS Shares prior to the Meeting under the Offer. Suncor has advised that it intends to vote all of its COS Shares in favour of the Amalgamation Resolution.

2. Other Business

We are not aware of any other items of business to be considered at the Meeting. However, if other items of business are properly brought before the Meeting or at any adjournment or postponement of the Meeting, the accompanying form of proxy provides the proxyholder with discretion to vote as they deem appropriate in respect of any such matter.

HOW WILL THE ITEMS OF BUSINESS BE DECIDED AT THE MEETING?

Voting will be by ballot. The Amalgamation Resolution must be approved by at least 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ % of the votes cast by Shareholders who are represented in person or by proxy at the Meeting. In addition, pursuant to MI 61-101, the Amalgamation Resolution must be approved by a simple majority of the votes cast by minority holders of COS Shares represented in person or by proxy at the Meeting. As noted above, Suncor currently holds approximately 73% of the issued and outstanding COS Shares and it may acquire additional COS Shares prior to the Meeting under the Offer. All COS Shares acquired by Suncor pursuant to the Offer are entitled to be treated as minority COS Shares, and Suncor has advised that it intends to vote all of its COS Shares in favour of the Amalgamation Resolution. Accordingly, Suncor holds a sufficient number of COS Shares to ensure the Amalgamation Resolution is approved.

Holdco, a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Suncor and the sole shareholder of Newco, has executed a written resolution in its capacity as the sole shareholder of Newco approving the Amalgamation and the Amalgamation Agreement.

WHO COUNTS THE VOTES?

Votes are tallied by our Transfer Agent, who will also act as scrutineer at the Meeting.

WHO CAN VOTE?

If you were a holder of COS Shares at the close of business on Friday, February 19, 2016, you are entitled to vote at the Meeting, or at any adjournment or postponement of that Meeting, provided that, to the extent that a registered Shareholder transfers the ownership of any COS Shares after the Record Date and the transferee of those COS Shares establishes ownership and demands, not later than ten days before the Meeting to be included in the list of Shareholders eligible to vote at the Meeting, such transferee will be entitled to vote those COS Shares at the Meeting.

Table of Contents

HOW MANY VOTES AM I ENTITLED TO?

You are entitled to one vote for each COS Share you hold.

WHAT IS THE QUORUM FOR THE MEETING?

We can only hold the Meeting and transact business if, at the beginning of the Meeting, there are at least two people attending who hold or represent by proxy at least 25% of the total number of votes entitled to be cast at the Meeting. Suncor currently holds approximately 73% of the issued and outstanding COS Shares and has advised that it intends to attend the Meeting.

HOW DO I VOTE?

How you vote will depend on whether you are a registered Shareholder or a Beneficial Shareholder. You are a registered Shareholder if you hold COS Shares in your own name. Your COS Shares are represented by a physical Share Certificate or a DRS Advice that entitles you to receive a physical Share Certificate. You are a Beneficial Shareholder if your COS Shares are held in an account and are recorded in the name of an intermediary such as a bank, trust company, securities dealer or broker, trustees or administrators of self-administered RRSPs, RRIFs, RESPs, TFSA's and similar plans, their nominees and others. If you are a Beneficial Shareholder, your COS Shares are not represented by a physical Share Certificate or DRS Advice but are recorded on an electronic system.

If you are a registered Shareholder, you can vote in person at the Meeting or by proxy.

- (a) To vote in person do not complete and return a form of proxy but simply attend the Meeting where your vote will be taken and counted. Be sure to register with the Transfer Agent when you arrive at the Meeting.
- (b) To vote by proxy you can convey your voting instructions by completing your proxy and returning it to the Transfer Agent. By doing so, your COS Shares will be voted at the Meeting by E.F.H. (Harry) Roberts or Jacqueline S. Moore who are the Management appointees named on the accompanying proxy, or by another Person specified by you on your completed proxy. Please read and follow the instructions on the back of the proxy form on how to convey your voting instructions. Your proxy must be received by 10:30 a.m. (Calgary time) on Thursday, March 17, 2016, or not less than 48 hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) before any adjournment or postponement of the Meeting.
- (c) To vote by telephone or internet you can vote by telephone or internet by following the instructions in your proxy. Your voting instructions must be received by 10:30 a.m (Calgary time) on Thursday, March 17, 2016, or not less than 48 hours before any adjournment or postponement of the Meeting.

If you are a Beneficial Shareholder, your nominee will have its own means of conveying voting instructions, which should be carefully followed.

Most nominees will mail you a VIF that will need to be completed and returned. In addition to conveying voting instructions by mail, your broker, nominee or other intermediary may also give you the option to convey your voting instructions by phone, fax or internet. Most brokers now delegate responsibility for obtaining voting instructions from clients to Broadridge. Broadridge typically mails you a VIF and asks you to return the completed form to Broadridge or follow specified telephone or internet-based voting procedures. If you receive a VIF from Broadridge, you cannot use that form to vote your COS Shares directly at the Meeting, but must instead return the VIF to Broadridge or complete the telephone or internet-based voting procedures.

If you hold COS Shares both as a registered Shareholder and as a Beneficial Shareholder, you will need to convey your vote using the applicable procedures for each type of holding.

AS A BENEFICIAL SHAREHOLDER CAN I VOTE IN PERSON AT THE MEETING?

Yes, but only if you appoint yourself as proxyholder on the VIF. We do not have the names of the Beneficial Shareholders and we will not have a record of the number of COS Shares you beneficially own or your entitlement to vote unless we receive proper instruction from your nominee. To be appointed, you should insert your own name in the space provided on the VIF provided to you by your nominee and carefully follow the instructions provided.

Table of Contents

This will allow you to attend the Meeting and vote your COS Shares in person. Be sure to register with the Transfer Agent when you arrive at the Meeting.

CAN I APPOINT SOMEONE ELSE AS PROXYHOLDER?

Yes. Whether or not you attend the Meeting, you have the right to appoint a Person, who does not need to be a Shareholder, to represent you at the Meeting and vote your COS Shares according to your voting instructions. To exercise this right, insert the name of the Person you wish to act as proxyholder, or complete another proper form of proxy.

WHO IS SOLICITING MY PROXY?

Management is soliciting your proxy and the costs of doing so are being borne by Canadian Oil Sands. In addition to soliciting proxies by mail, directors, officers and employees of the Corporation may also, without additional compensation, solicit proxies in person or by phone, fax or other form of electronic communication.

HOW WILL MY PROXY BE VOTED?

Your proxyholder, whether it is the Management nominees or another nominee designated by you, must vote according to the instructions you have given. If you do not convey any instructions and appoint a proxyholder, your proxyholder will be entitled to decide your vote for you. If you do not give any instructions and appoint the Management nominees as proxyholder, or your proxyholder does not give specific instructions, your COS Shares will be voted FOR the Amalgamation Resolution and in such Management nominee's discretion with respect to any other matter that may properly come before the Meeting.

WHAT IF THERE IS AN AMENDMENT OR VARIATION TO THE AMALGAMATION RESOLUTION?

The enclosed form of proxy gives the nominee named in it the authority to use their discretion on voting on amendments or variations of the item to be voted on, and on any other matters properly brought before the Meeting. Proxyholders will vote using their best judgment under this discretionary authority.

As at the date of this Circular, none of the Corporation, the COS Board or Management knows of any variations or amendments to the proposed items of business or any additional matters that may be presented for consideration at the Meeting.

CAN I CHANGE MY MIND ONCE I HAVE SUBMITTED MY PROXY?

Yes. You can revoke your proxy at any time before it is acted upon.

As a registered Shareholder, if your proxy was submitted by mail, you can revoke it in writing with the Transfer Agent at the address shown on the proxy form at any time up to and including the second Business Day preceding the date of the Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof, or in person on the day of the Meeting. You may also revoke a previously given proxy by completing, signing and validly depositing a proxy bearing a later date, by personally attending the Meeting and voting your COS Shares in person, or in any other manner permitted by law. If you conveyed your voting instructions by telephone or internet then conveying new instructions will revoke your prior instructions. See Appointment and Revocation of Proxy Revocation of Proxy.

If you are a Beneficial Shareholder, contact your nominee for instructions on how to revoke your proxy.

HOW ARE MY COS SHARES VOTED WHEN A BALLOT IS CALLED?

Voting on all resolutions will be by ballot. Your COS Shares will be voted as you specified in your voting instructions or in your proxy. If you do not specify how to vote, then your COS Shares will be voted FOR the Amalgamation Resolution.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

Solicitation of Proxies by Management

This Circular is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies from Shareholders by Management for use at the Meeting, and at any adjournment or postponement thereof.

Unless otherwise directed by the Shareholders appointing them as proxy, the nominees named in the enclosed form of proxy intend to vote FOR the Amalgamation Resolution.

Costs and Manner of Solicitation

Solicitation of proxies will be primarily by mail, but directors, officers and employees of the Corporation may, without special compensation, solicit proxies in person or by telephone, facsimile or other form of electronic communication. The Corporation is not sending proxy-related materials directly to non-objecting beneficial owners and it plans to have such materials distributed by intermediaries. The Corporation is paying for intermediaries to send proxy-related materials to both non-objecting beneficial owners and objecting beneficial owners. The cost of this solicitation of proxies and the preparation and mailing of this Circular will be borne by the Corporation.

APPOINTMENT AND REVOCATION OF PROXY

Appointment of Proxy

If you wish to have your COS Shares voted at the Meeting by proxy, you must submit a properly completed instrument of proxy to Computershare Trust Company of Canada, 8th floor, 100 University Avenue, Toronto, Ontario, M5J 2Y1 (Attention: Proxy Department). In order to be valid and acted upon at the Meeting, properly completed forms of proxy must be received by the Transfer Agent not less than forty-eight (48) hours (excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) before the Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof. The Chair of the Meeting has the ability to waive or extend the proxy cut-off without notice at their discretion.

You are only entitled to receive notice of, and to vote or act at, the Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof if you were a Shareholder of record at the close of business on the Record Date (Friday, February 19, 2016). If you became a Shareholder after the Record Date, except as provided for in the ABCA, you cannot vote at the Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof. In accordance with the ABCA, to the extent that a registered Shareholder transfers the ownership of any COS Shares after the Record Date and the transferee of those COS Shares establishes ownership and demands, not later than ten days before the Meeting to be included in the list of Shareholders eligible to vote at the Meeting, such transferee will be entitled to vote those COS Shares at the Meeting.

If you want to appoint a proxy, you must do so in a written document appointing a proxy and the document must be executed by you or by your duly authorized attorney in writing. If you are a corporation, the document must be executed under corporate seal by your duly authorized officer or attorney. An instrument of proxy signed by a Person acting as attorney or in some other representative capacity should expressly reflect such capacity (following his or her signature) and should be accompanied by the appropriate instrument evidencing his or her qualification and authority to so act.

If you receive more than one form of proxy because you own COS Shares registered in different names or addresses, each form of proxy should be completed and returned.

The nominees designated in the enclosed form of proxy furnished by Management are directors and officers of the Corporation. If you are entitled to vote at the Meeting, you may appoint a Person other than those named in the enclosed form of proxy to attend and act for and on behalf of you at the Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof. To exercise this right, you must insert the name of the Person you want to represent you (who does not need to be a Shareholder) in the blank space provided in the enclosed form of proxy and submit such form in the manner described above, or submit another appropriate instrument of proxy.

Revocation of Proxy

If you have submitted a form of proxy, you may revoke it at any time prior to the exercise of that proxy by depositing an instrument in writing executed by you or your attorney or authorized agent, either with Computershare Trust Company of Canada, 8th Floor, 100 University Avenue, Toronto, Ontario, M5J 2Y1 (Attention: Proxy Department) at any time up to and including the second last Business Day preceding the date of the Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof, or with the Chair of the Meeting on the day of the Meeting or prior to the commencement of the adjourned or postponed meeting. Upon making either such deposits, your prior proxy is revoked. You may also revoke a previously given proxy by completing, signing and validly depositing a proxy bearing a later date, by personally attending the Meeting and voting your COS Shares in person, or in any other manner permitted by law. If you conveyed your voting instructions by telephone or internet then conveying new instructions will revoke your prior instructions.

Voting of Proxies and Exercise of Discretion by Proxyholders

On any ballot taken at the Meeting, the nominees named in the enclosed form of proxy will vote the COS Shares in respect of which they have been appointed nominee in accordance with the directions of the Shareholders appointing them. In the absence of such direction, the COS Shares represented by valid instruments of proxy executed in favour of the Management nominees and deposited in the manner described above will be voted FOR the Amalgamation Resolution.

The enclosed form of proxy gives the nominees named in the proxy form discretionary authority regarding any amendments or variations of the matters identified in the proxy and Notice of Meeting. The proxy form also gives the nominees discretionary authority to act on any other matters that may properly come before the Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof. At the date of this Circular, none of the Corporation, the Board or Management knows of any such amendments, variations or other matters that may be presented for consideration at the Meeting.

Advice to Beneficial Holders of COS Shares

The information set forth in this section is very important to you if you do not hold COS Shares in your own name. If you hold COS Shares through a broker, nominee or other intermediary or otherwise in a manner other than as a registered holder of COS Shares, you should note that only proxies deposited by Persons whose names appear on the records of the Corporation as the registered holders of COS Shares will be recognized and acted upon at the Meeting.

COS Shares that are listed in an account statement provided to you by a broker, nominee or other intermediary are probably not registered in your own name on the records of the Corporation. Such COS Shares are more likely to be registered in the name of your broker, nominee or other intermediary or an agent of that broker, nominee or other intermediary. In Canada, most such COS Shares are registered in the name of CDS & Co. (the registration name for CDS, which acts as nominee for many Canadian brokerage firms). COS Shares held by brokers, nominees or other intermediaries on your behalf can only be voted (for or against resolutions) at your direction. Without specific instructions, brokers, nominees and other intermediaries are prohibited from voting COS Shares for their clients. You should ensure that instructions regarding the voting of your COS Shares are communicated to the appropriate Person before the deadline.

Applicable regulatory policy in Canada requires brokers and other intermediaries to seek voting instructions from you in advance of Shareholder meetings. Each broker, nominee or other intermediary has its own mailing procedures and provides its own return instructions to clients. You should carefully follow these procedures and instructions to ensure that your COS Shares are voted at the Meeting.

In some cases, the form of proxy or VIF provided to you by or on behalf of your broker, nominee or other intermediary is very similar, even identical, to the enclosed form of proxy being solicited by Management. The purpose of the form of proxy or VIF provided by or on behalf of a broker, nominee or other intermediary, however, is limited to instructing the registered holder (the broker, nominee or other intermediary, or an agent thereof) how to vote on your behalf.

Most brokers now delegate responsibility for obtaining voting instructions from clients to Broadridge. Broadridge typically supplies VIFs, mails a VIF to you and asks you to return the VIF to Broadridge or follow specified telephone or internet-based voting procedures. Broadridge then tabulates the results of all instructions received and provides appropriate instructions regarding the voting of COS Shares to be represented at the Meeting. If you receive a VIF from Broadridge, you cannot use that form to vote your COS Shares directly at the Meeting, but must instead return the VIF to Broadridge or complete the telephone or internet-based voting procedures well in advance of the Meeting to have such COS Shares voted at the Meeting on your behalf.

Although you may not be recognized directly at the Meeting for the purposes of voting COS Shares registered in the name of your broker, nominee or other intermediary, you may attend the Meeting as proxyholder for the registered holder and vote your COS Shares in that capacity. If you wish to attend the Meeting and indirectly vote your own COS Shares, you must do so as proxyholder for the registered holder. To do this, you should enter your own name in the blank space on the form of proxy or VIF provided to you and return the document to your broker, nominee or other intermediary (or the agent of your broker, nominee or other intermediary) in accordance with their instructions well in advance of the Meeting.

Procedure and Votes Required

In order to be effective, the Amalgamation Resolution must be approved by: (i) at least 66 $\frac{2}{3}$ % of the votes cast by Shareholders present in person or by proxy at the Meeting and entitled to vote at the Meeting in accordance with the ABCA, and (ii) at least a simple majority of the votes cast by minority Shareholders present in person or by proxy at the Meeting and entitled to vote at the Meeting in accordance with MI 61-101.

Suncor currently holds approximately 73% of the issued and outstanding COS Shares and it may acquire additional COS Shares prior to the Meeting under the Offer. All COS Shares that are acquired by Suncor pursuant to the Offer are entitled to be treated as minority COS Shares for the purpose of voting on the Amalgamation Resolution, and Suncor has advised that it intends to vote all of its COS Shares in favour of the Amalgamation.

The Amalgamation Resolution must also be approved by the sole shareholder of Newco. Holdco, being the sole shareholder of Newco, has executed a written resolution in its capacity as sole shareholder of Newco approving the Amalgamation.

VOTING SECURITIES AND PRINCIPAL HOLDERS THEREOF

Each COS Share entitles the holder of such COS Share to one vote on all matters coming before the Meeting. Only Shareholders of record as of the close of business on the Record Date (Friday, February 19, 2016) are entitled to receive notice of the Meeting. As at the close of business on February 18, 2016, there were 484,614,325 COS Shares issued and outstanding.

If you are shown as a Shareholder on the Shareholder list kept by the Transfer Agent on the Record Date, you will be entitled to vote at the Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof on the basis of one vote for each COS Share shown opposite your name on Canadian Oil Sands register of Shareholders. Except as provided in the ABCA, no Person who becomes a Shareholder after the Record Date will be entitled to vote or act at the Meeting or any adjournment or postponement thereof. In accordance with the ABCA, to the extent that a registered Shareholder transfers the ownership of any COS Shares after the Record Date and the transferee of those COS Shares establishes ownership and demands, not later than ten days before the Meeting to be included in the list of Shareholders eligible to vote at the Meeting, such transferee will be entitled to vote those COS Shares at the Meeting.

To the knowledge of the Corporation, and the Corporation's directors and executive officers, other than Suncor, no Person or company beneficially owns, or controls or directs, directly or indirectly, 10% or more of the issued and outstanding COS Shares. As at February 18, 2016, to the knowledge of the Transfer Agent and the Corporation, Suncor holds 352,902,151 COS Shares, representing approximately 73% of the issued and outstanding COS Shares and, after reasonable inquiry, none of the directors, officers or other insiders of the Corporation nor any associate, affiliate of the Corporation, any Person acting jointly or in concert with the Corporation or an insider of the Corporation hold any COS Shares. As noted above, Suncor may acquire additional COS Shares prior to the date of the Meeting.

INTEREST OF INFORMED PERSONS IN MATERIAL TRANSACTIONS

Other than as disclosed herein, to the knowledge of the directors and officers of the Corporation, no informed person (as defined in NI 51-102) or any of their respective associates or affiliates, has had any material interest, direct or indirect, in any transaction of Canadian Oil Sands since January 1, 2015 or in any proposed transaction that has materially affected or would materially affect Canadian Oil Sands or its subsidiaries.

The Transfer Agent acts as the registrar and transfer agent for the COS Shares, and receives fees for its services in such capacities and is also reimbursed for all expenses properly incurred.

THE AMALGAMATION

Background to the Amalgamation

On October 5, 2015, Suncor made an offer to purchase all of the issued and outstanding COS Shares (and associated rights issued under any shareholder rights plan of the Corporation) on the basis of 0.25 of a Suncor Share for each COS Share. On December 3, 2015, Suncor extended the expiry time of the Offer to January 8, 2016 and on January 8, 2016 Suncor further extended the expiry time of the Offer to January 27, 2016. During the week of January 11, 2016, Suncor had ongoing discussions with a number of the Corporation's larger Shareholders to ascertain their position in respect of the Offer. In conjunction with these meetings with Shareholders, on Thursday, January 14, 2016, Suncor and the Corporation commenced discussions with a view to potentially negotiating a supported transaction, and discussions and negotiations between Suncor and the Corporation and their respective legal counsel continued in the ensuing days. On January 16, 2016, the COS Board met to discuss potential amendments to the Offer and provided executive management of Canadian Oil Sands with authority to continue negotiations on certain terms, including authorization and approval to enter into the Support Agreement and agree to the other amendments to the Offer. On January 17, 2016, following further negotiations between Suncor and the Corporation and their respective legal advisors, Suncor and the Corporation entered into the Support Agreement pursuant to which, among other things, Suncor agreed to amend certain terms and conditions of the Offer and to increase the consideration offered to 0.28 of a Suncor Share for each COS Share. In turn, the COS Board determined that the Offer, as amended, was in the best interests of Canadian Oil Sands and agreed to recommend to Shareholders that they deposit their COS Shares to the Offer. On January 22, 2016, the COS Board issued the COS Notice of Change unanimously recommending that Shareholders accept and tender their Shares to the Offer, and Suncor issued the Fourth Notice of Variation and Change formally amending the terms of the Offer and extending the expiry time of the Offer to February 5, 2016. On February 5, 2016 Suncor announced that it had taken up and paid for approximately 73% of the issued and outstanding COS Shares on February 5, 2016 and announced the commencement of the Mandatory Extension Period thereby further extending the expiry time of the Offer to February 22, 2016.

As at February 18, 2016, pursuant to the Offer, Suncor has taken up and paid for 352,902,151 COS Shares (representing approximately 73% of the COS Shares issued and outstanding). In connection with the Mandatory Extension Period and prior to the expiry of the Offer, Suncor may take up and pay for any additional COS Shares tendered and not withdrawn prior to such take up.

On February 8, 2016, Ian A. Bourne, Gerald W. Grandey, Arthur N. Korpach, Ryan M. Kubik, Donald J. Lowry, Sarah E. Raiss, John K. Read, Brant Sangster, Wesley R. Twiss and John B. Zaozirny resigned from the COS Board and were replaced by Mel E. Benson, Alister Cowan, Maureen McCaw, Stephen D.L. Reynish and E.F.H. (Harry) Roberts. As a result of these changes, E.F.H. (Harry) Roberts has been appointed as Chair of the COS Board. Mel E. Benson, Maureen McCaw and E.F.H. (Harry) Roberts are independent directors within the meaning of NI 52-110 and have each been appointed to the Corporation's Audit Committee.

In addition to the changes to the COS Board, on February 8, 2016, certain members of the Corporation's executive leadership team, being Ryan Kubik (President and Chief Executive Officer), Robert Dawson (Chief Financial Officer), Trudy Curran (Senior Vice President, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary) and Darren Hardy (Senior Vice President, Operations) resigned and Alexander (Sandy) Martin was appointed President and Chief Executive Officer, Jolienne Guillemaud was appointed Chief Financial Officer and Jacqueline Moore was appointed Corporate Secretary.

In the Offer and Circular, Suncor disclosed that if Suncor took up and paid for less than 90% of the COS Shares under the Offer (calculated on a fully-diluted basis), or a compulsory acquisition under the ABCA was not available or Suncor elected not to pursue such compulsory acquisition, Suncor intended to acquire the remainder of the COS Shares by way of amalgamation, statutory arrangement, capital reorganization or other transaction, for consideration per COS Share not less than, and in the same form as, the consideration paid by Suncor under the Offer (a Subsequent Acquisition Transaction). Accordingly, on February 19, 2016, the COS Board approved the Amalgamation and the Amalgamation Agreement and on February 19, 2016, Suncor, Newco, Holdco and the Corporation executed the Amalgamation Agreement. Canadian Oil Sands agreed in the Amalgamation Agreement to call the Meeting and present the Amalgamation Resolution to the Shareholders for approval as part of a Subsequent Acquisition Transaction as disclosed in the Offer and Circular. The consideration to be received by Shareholders (other than Suncor and Dissenting Shareholders) in connection with the Amalgamation is the same form and amount of consideration offered to Shareholders under the Suncor Offer.

Approval of the COS Board

On February 19, 2016, the COS Board approved the Amalgamation and the Amalgamation Agreement and recommends that Shareholders vote FOR the Amalgamation Resolution. This Circular has also been approved and the delivery of this Circular to Shareholders has been authorized by the COS Board. Given their nomination to the COS Board by Suncor and their affiliation with Suncor, in accordance with the ABCA, all directors, other than E.F.H. (Harry) Roberts, who voted at the meeting declared their interest in respect of the Amalgamation prior to voting to approve the Amalgamation and the Amalgamation Agreement.

Reasons for the Amalgamation

In reaching the above-described approval, the COS Board noted that the completion of the Subsequent Acquisition Transaction was in accordance with Suncor's previously publicly disclosed intention as contained in the Offer and Circular and is also a requirement of the Support Agreement negotiated by Suncor and the Corporation on January 17, 2016.

For additional details with respect to Suncor's reasons for undertaking the Offer and this Subsequent Acquisition Transaction and the proposed benefits of the transaction for Shareholders, Shareholders are urged to consult the Offer and Circular including the pro forma financial information provided therein.

Shareholder Approvals

MI 61-101 requires that, unless exempted, in addition to any other required securityholder approval, in order to complete a business combination, going private transaction or a related party transaction, as applicable, the approval of a majority of the votes cast by minority holders of the affected securities be obtained.

MI 61-101 also provides that the COS Shares acquired by Suncor pursuant to the Offer may be treated as minority COS Shares and may be voted or considered voted in favour of the Amalgamation if the consideration per COS Share under the Amalgamation is at least equal in value to and is in the same form as the consideration per COS Share paid under the Offer and certain other conditions are met. All of the 352,902,151 COS Shares acquired by Suncor under the Offer to date, representing approximately 73% of the issued and outstanding COS Shares as of February 18, 2016, are entitled to be treated as minority COS Shares, and Suncor has advised that they will be voted in favour of the Amalgamation Resolution. Accordingly, Suncor holds a sufficient number of COS Shares to ensure the Amalgamation Resolution is approved.

Holdco, which holds the one issued and outstanding Newco Common Share, has executed a written resolution in its capacity as the sole shareholder of Newco approving the Amalgamation and the Amalgamation Agreement.

Terms of the Amalgamation

If the Amalgamation Resolution is approved and the conditions set out in the Amalgamation Agreement are satisfied, on the Effective Date, the Corporation and Newco will amalgamate and continue as one corporation. As a result of the Amalgamation, the property of both the Corporation and Newco will become the property of Amalco and Amalco will continue to be liable for the obligations of both the Corporation and Newco. Immediately after the Amalgamation, Amalco will continue to carry on the operations of the Corporation and will have the same assets and liabilities. Holdco and Suncor will be the only holders of Amalco Common Shares following the Amalgamation. Following the completion of the Amalgamation, Suncor has advised that it intends to amalgamate Holdco and Amalco such that the resulting entity, operating under the name Suncor Energy Ventures Corporation , will be a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Suncor and will continue to carry on the operations of the Corporation and have the same assets and liabilities as the Corporation.

Upon the completion of the Amalgamation on the Effective Date, Shareholders (other than Dissenting Shareholders and Suncor) will be entitled to receive 0.28 of a Suncor Share for each COS Share held. Holders who intend to have their COS Shares exchanged for Suncor Shares as described herein must complete and return the enclosed Letter of Transmittal and any other required documentation in accordance with the procedure specified in the Letter of Transmittal. See Procedures for Receiving Payment below.

Certain Canadian and U.S. federal income tax implications of the Amalgamation and the purchase of the COS Shares are discussed in greater detail in this Circular. See Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations and Certain United States Federal Income Tax Considerations below.

Dissenting Shareholders who have complied with the provisions of section 191 of the ABCA will be entitled to be paid the fair value of their COS Shares, by the Corporation (or its successor) in accordance with the ABCA. See The Amalgamation Right to Dissent below and Appendix C to this Circular.

The Amalgamation Agreement

The following is a summary of certain material terms of the Amalgamation Agreement. This summary has been included to provide Shareholders with factual information respecting the terms of the Amalgamation Agreement and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text thereof, a copy of which is included as Appendix B to this Circular. Readers are urged to consult the full text of the Amalgamation Agreement for further information.

Factual disclosures about the Corporation and Suncor and their respective affiliates contained in this Circular or in the Corporation's or Suncor's public reports filed with securities regulators may supplement, update or modify the factual disclosures about the Corporation, Suncor and/or their respective affiliates contained in the Amalgamation Agreement. The representations, warranties and covenants made in the Amalgamation Agreement by the Corporation, Suncor and their respective affiliates were made solely to the parties to, and solely for the purposes of, the Amalgamation Agreement and as of specific dates and were qualified and subject to important limitations agreed to by the parties thereto in connection with negotiating the terms of the Amalgamation Agreement. In particular, in reviewing the representations and warranties contained in the Amalgamation Agreement and described in this summary, it is important to bear in mind that the representations and warranties were negotiated with the principal purposes of establishing the circumstances in which a party to the Amalgamation Agreement may have the right not to consummate the Amalgamation if the representations and warranties of the other party prove to be untrue due to a change in circumstance or otherwise, and allocating risk between the parties to the Amalgamation Agreement, rather than establishing matters as facts. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may have changed since the date of the Amalgamation Agreement. Shareholders and other investors should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any description thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts of the Corporation, Suncor or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates.

The Amalgamation will be carried out pursuant to sections 181 and 182 of the ABCA, and will be effected in accordance with the terms of the Amalgamation Agreement among the Corporation, Newco, Holdco and Suncor. Upon approval by the Shareholders, satisfaction of all other conditions as provided in the Amalgamation Agreement and the filing of articles of amalgamation, the Amalgamation will become effective on the Effective Date.

The Effective Date of the Amalgamation is expected to be March 21, 2016. On the Effective Date, the Corporation and Newco will amalgamate and continue as one corporation, Amalco, and:

- (a) each Dissenting Shareholder shall cease to have any rights as a Shareholder other than the right to be paid by Canadian Oil Sands (or its successor) in accordance with the provisions of the ABCA the fair value in respect of COS Shares held by such Dissenting Shareholder;
- (b) each issued and outstanding COS Share (other than those COS Shares held by Dissenting Shareholders and those COS Shares held by Suncor) shall be automatically converted into 0.28 of a Suncor Share;
- (c) each issued and outstanding COS Share held by Suncor shall be automatically converted into one Amalco Common Share; and

- (d) the one issued and outstanding Newco Common Share shall be automatically converted in that number of Amalco Common Shares that is equal to the number of COS Shares held by all Shareholders, other than Suncor, immediately prior to the completion of the Amalgamation.

In no event will a Shareholder be entitled to a fractional Suncor Share. Where the aggregate number of Suncor Shares to be issued to a registered Shareholder as consideration under the Amalgamation would result in a fraction of a Suncor Share being issuable, the number of Suncor Shares to be received by such registered Shareholder will be either rounded up (if the fractional interest is 0.5 or more) or down (if the fractional interest is less than 0.5) to the nearest whole number. In calculating such fractional interests, all COS Shares registered in the name of, or beneficially held by, a registered Shareholder or their nominee shall be aggregated.

Following the completion of the Amalgamation, Amalco will continue to operate under the name Suncor Energy Ventures Holding Corporation. Immediately after the Amalgamation, Amalco will continue to carry on the operations of the Corporation with the same assets and liabilities. Further, following the completion of the Amalgamation, it is anticipated that Amalco and Holdco will undertake an amalgamation pursuant to the ABCA and will continue as one corporation such that the subsequently formed entity, operating under the name of Suncor Energy Ventures Corporation, will be a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Suncor and will continue to carry on the operations of the Corporation and have the same assets and liabilities as the Corporation.

In accordance with the ABCA, upon the Effective Date:

- (a) the amalgamation of the Corporation and Newco and their continuance as one corporation, Amalco, under the terms and conditions prescribed in the Amalgamation Agreement, will be effective;
- (b) the property of each of the Corporation and Newco will continue to be the property of Amalco;
- (c) Amalco will continue to be liable for the obligations of each of the Corporation and Newco;
- (d) any existing cause of action, claim or liability to prosecution with respect to either the Corporation or Newco or both will be unaffected;
- (e) any civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding pending by or against either the Corporation or Newco may be continued to be prosecuted by or against Amalco;
- (f) any conviction against, or ruling, order or judgment in favour of or against either of the Corporation or Newco may be enforced by or against Amalco; and
- (g) the articles of amalgamation will be deemed to be the articles of incorporation of Amalco and the certificate of amalgamation to be issued in respect of the Amalgamation shall be deemed to be the certificate of incorporation of Amalco.

The respective obligations of Suncor, the Corporation, Newco and Holdco to consummate the transactions contemplated by the Amalgamation Agreement, and in particular the Amalgamation, are subject to the satisfaction, on or before the Effective Date, of the following conditions, any of which may be waived by the mutual consent of the parties without prejudice to their right to rely on any other condition:

- (a) the Amalgamation Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, including in particular the Amalgamation, shall have been approved by the shareholders of each of the Corporation and Newco in accordance with the provisions of the ABCA and any other applicable regulatory requirements;
- (b) all necessary governmental or regulatory approvals, orders, rulings, exemptions and consents in respect of the Amalgamation shall have been obtained on terms satisfactory to Suncor, the Corporation, Holdco and Newco or any applicable governmental or regulatory waiting period shall have expired or been terminated;
- (c) Suncor shall have provided the Depositary with a sufficient number of Suncor Shares to be issued to the former Shareholders (other than Suncor and Dissenting Shareholders) pursuant to the Amalgamation; and

- (d) Newco and the Corporation shall be satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for believing that at the effective time of the Amalgamation and after payment of the consideration pursuant to the Amalgamation (i) Amalco will be able to pay its liabilities as they become due, and (ii) the realizable value of Amalco's assets will not be less than the aggregate of its liabilities.

The Amalgamation Agreement may, prior to the issuance of a certificate of amalgamation, be terminated by the COS Board or the board of directors of Newco notwithstanding the approval thereof by the Shareholders and the sole shareholder of Newco.

The Amalgamation Agreement may at any time and from time to time be amended by written agreement of the parties thereto without, subject to applicable law, further notice to or authorization on the part of their respective shareholders and any such amendment may, without limitation: (a) change the time for performance of any of the obligations or acts of the parties thereto; (b) waive compliance with or modify any of the covenants contained therein and waive or modify performance of any of the obligations of the parties thereto; or (c) waive compliance with or modify any other conditions precedent contained therein; provided that no such amendment shall change the provisions thereof regarding the consideration to be received by the Shareholders and the sole shareholder of Newco for their COS Shares or Newco Common Shares, as the case may be, without approval of such shareholders, given in the same manner as required for the approval of the Amalgamation.

For a further description of the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the Amalco Common Shares, see Schedule A to the Amalgamation Agreement and for a further description of the rights, privileges, restrictions and conditions attaching to the Suncor Shares, see Appendix D to this Circular.

Dissenting Shareholders will be entitled to be paid the fair value of their COS Shares in accordance with and subject to compliance with the provisions of section 191 of the ABCA. For a full description of such dissent rights, see "The Amalgamation Right to Dissent" below and Appendix C to this Circular.

Procedure for the Amalgamation to Become Effective

If the Shareholders approve the Amalgamation Resolution on the basis described herein, Canadian Oil Sands currently expects that the Effective Date will be March 21, 2016. Although Suncor's and Canadian Oil Sands' objective is to have the Effective Date occur as soon as possible after the Meeting, the Effective Date could be delayed for a number of reasons.

Plans for Canadian Oil Sands Following Completion of the Amalgamation

If the Amalgamation Resolution is approved, as soon as practicable after the Effective Date Canadian Oil Sands expects that the COS Shares will be de-listed from the TSX. In addition, in connection with the Amalgamation, Canadian Oil Sands expects that applications will be made to cease Canadian Oil Sands as a reporting issuer in all provinces of Canada in which it currently is a reporting issuer.

Following the Amalgamation, it is anticipated that Amalco and Holdco will undertake an amalgamation pursuant to the ABCA and will continue as one corporation such that the subsequently formed entity, operating under the name of Suncor Energy Ventures Corporation, will be a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Suncor and will continue to carry on the operations of the Corporation and have the same assets and liabilities as the Corporation.

Valuation and Other Exemptions

Canadian Oil Sands is a reporting issuer (or the equivalent) under applicable Canadian securities legislation in all provinces of Canada and is, among other things, subject to the applicable securities laws in all of the provinces of Canada.

MI 61-101 is intended to regulate certain transactions to ensure equality of treatment to securityholders generally by requiring enhanced disclosure, approval by a majority of securityholders excluding interested or related parties, independent valuations and, in certain instances, approval and oversight of the transaction by a special committee of independent directors. The protections of MI 61-101 generally apply to business combinations and going private transactions, respectively, which terminate the interests of securityholders without their consent.

Table of Contents

MI 61-101 provides that, unless exempted, an issuer proposing to carry out such a transaction is required to engage an independent valuator to prepare a valuation of the affected securities and provide to the holders of the affected securities a summary of such valuation. Canadian Oil Sands and Suncor are relying on an exemption from the valuation requirement under MI 61-101 for a second step business combination completed within 120 days after the expiry of a formal take-over bid for consideration at least equal to and in the same form as that paid to holders of COS Shares tendered to the take-over bid, and provided certain tax and other stipulated disclosure is included in the take-over bid disclosure documents, all of which have been satisfied.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Amalgamation

Each of Mel E. Benson, Alister Cowan, Maureen McCaw, and Stephen D.L. Reynish, who were appointed to the COS Board following the take up of COS Shares by Suncor pursuant to the Offer, also serve as directors or executive officers of Suncor. Each of Alexander (Sandy) Martin, Jolienne Guillemaud and Jacqueline Moore, who were appointed officers of the Corporation following the take up of COS Shares by Suncor pursuant to the Offer, are also employees of Suncor. As at February 18, 2016, Suncor holds approximately 73% of the total COS Shares outstanding. The Amalgamation is being proposed in order to allow Suncor to acquire the COS Shares not deposited under the Offer such that Amalco, as the successor to Canadian Oil Sands, will become an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of Suncor. As noted above, none of the current members of the COS Board or Management holds, directly or indirectly, any COS Shares.

Expenses of the Amalgamation

The estimated fees, costs and expenses of Canadian Oil Sands in connection with the Amalgamation including, without limitation, filing fees, legal and accounting fees, and printing and mailing costs are anticipated to be approximately $750,000.

Procedures for Receiving Payment

Registered Shareholders who are not Dissenting Shareholders

A Letter of Transmittal is enclosed with this Circular for use by registered Shareholders for the surrender of Share Certificates. The details for the surrender of Share Certificates to the Depositary and the addresses of the Depositary are set out in the Letter of Transmittal. Provided that a registered Shareholder has delivered to the Depositary a properly completed Letter of Transmittal, together with all Share Certificate(s) which immediately before the Effective Date represented such Shareholder's COS Shares, as applicable, along with such other documents and instruments as the Depositary and Suncor may require, Suncor shall cause the Depositary to register the required number of Suncor Shares in the name of such Shareholder and issue a DRS Advice in the name of such Shareholder as soon as practicable and in any event within three Business Days following the later of the Effective Date and the date of deposit with the Depositary of the requisite documentation, unless the Shareholder indicates to Canadian Oil Sands that he or she wishes to pick-up the DRS Advice the Shareholder is entitled to receive, in which case the DRS Advice will be made available at the office of the Depositary for pick-up. If the Amalgamation is not completed, the surrendered Share Certificates will be returned by the Depositary. Under no circumstances will any amount be paid by Suncor, the Corporation, Amalco, the Depositary or any of their successors or affiliates by reason of any delay in paying the Amalgamation Consideration or otherwise.

In the event any Share Certificate which immediately before the Effective Date represented COS Shares has been lost, stolen or destroyed, a registered Shareholder should complete the Letter of Transmittal as fully as possible and forward it, together with a letter explaining the loss, to the Depositary. The Depositary will assist in making arrangements for the necessary affidavit (which may include a bonding requirement) for payment of the Amalgamation Consideration in accordance with the Amalgamation.

The method of delivery of Share Certificates, the Letter of Transmittal and all other required documents is at the option and risk of the Person surrendering them. Canadian Oil Sands recommends that such documents be delivered by hand to the Depositary, at the office noted in the Letter of Transmittal, and a receipt obtained therefor, or if mailed, that registered mail, with return receipt requested, be used, and that proper insurance be obtained.

Suncor, Amalco (or any successor of Amalco) and/or the Depositary shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from any consideration otherwise payable to any Shareholder, pursuant to the Amalgamation or in connection with any related transaction, such amounts as Amalco or the Depositary is required or entitled to deduct and withhold with respect to such payment under the Tax Act or any provision of provincial, state, local or foreign tax law, in each case, as amended or succeeded and subject to the provisions of any applicable income tax treaty between Canada and the country where the holder is resident. To the extent that amounts are so withheld, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes as having been paid to the Shareholder in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made, provided that such withheld amounts are actually remitted in accordance with applicable law to the appropriate taxing authority.

Beneficial Shareholders

Beneficial Shareholders whose COS Shares are registered in the name of an intermediary or other nominee should contact that intermediary or nominee for instructions and assistance in delivering share certificates representing those COS Shares.

Prescription Period

On the Effective Date, the name of each registered Shareholder will be removed from the Canadian Oil Sands register of Shareholders and replaced accordingly, and the Share Certificate(s) held by such former holders of COS Shares will represent only the right to receive, upon such surrender, the Amalgamation Consideration (without interest), and in the case of a Dissenting Shareholder, the right to receive fair value for the COS Shares held. Subject to applicable laws respecting unclaimed property, any Share Certificate which prior to the Effective Date represented issued and outstanding COS Shares which has not been surrendered together with such other documents or instruments required for the holder to receive the Amalgamation Consideration, on or prior to the fifth anniversary of the Effective Date, such holder will be deemed to have donated and forfeited to Amalco (or its successor) on such fifth anniversary any Amalgamation Consideration (together with any dividends and distributions with respect thereto but net of any applicable withholdings under the Tax Act) held by the Depository for such holder.

Right to Dissent

The procedure to be followed by a Dissenting Shareholder who intends to dissent from the Amalgamation Resolution, as described in this Circular, and who wishes to require the Corporation to acquire the Dissenting Shareholder's COS Shares and pay the fair value thereof, determined as of the close of business on the last Business Day before the day on which the Amalgamation Resolution is adopted, is set out in section 191 of the ABCA. Any Shareholder who wishes to dissent should take note that the exercise of dissent rights must be done in strict compliance with section 191 of the ABCA in order to be effective. It is strongly recommended that any Shareholder wishing to exercise a right to dissent seek legal advice, as failure to comply strictly with the provisions of section 191 of the ABCA may prejudice any such rights.

Section 191 provides that a Dissenting Shareholder may only make a claim under section 191 with respect to all the shares of a class held by the Dissenting Shareholder or on behalf of any one beneficial owner and registered in the name of the Dissenting Shareholder. One consequence of this provision is that a Dissenting Shareholder may only exercise the right to dissent under section 191 in respect of shares which are registered in that Shareholder's name. In many cases, shares beneficially owned by a Person (such Shareholders being referred to herein as Beneficial Shareholders) are registered either: (a) in the name of an intermediary that the Beneficial Shareholder deals with in respect of the COS Shares (such as a bank, trust company, securities dealer or broker, a trustee or administrator of self-administered RRSs, RRIAs, RESPs, TFSAs and similar plans, their nominees and others); or (b) in the name of a clearing agency (such as CDS) of which the intermediary is a participant. Accordingly, a Beneficial Shareholder will not be entitled to exercise the right to dissent under section 191 directly (unless the COS Shares are re-registered in the Beneficial Shareholder's name). A Beneficial Shareholder who wishes to exercise the right to dissent should immediately contact the intermediary or nominee that the Beneficial Shareholder deals with in respect of his, her or its COS Shares and either: (i) instruct the intermediary to exercise the right to dissent on the Beneficial Shareholder's behalf (which, if the COS Shares are registered in the name of CDS or another clearing agency, would require that the COS Shares first be re-registered in the name of the intermediary); or (ii) instruct the intermediary to re-register the shares in the name of the Beneficial Shareholder, in which case the Beneficial Shareholder would have to exercise the right to dissent directly.

A Dissenting Shareholder who wishes to invoke the provisions of section 191 of the ABCA must send to the Corporation (c/o Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP, Suite 3500, 855 10th Street S.W., Calgary, Alberta T2P 4J8, Attention: Chad Schneider) before the Meeting or deposit with the Chair of the Meeting at the Meeting, a written objection to the Amalgamation Resolution (a dissent notice). The ABCA does not provide, and the Corporation will not assume, that a vote against the Amalgamation Resolution constitutes a dissent notice. An application by the Corporation (which for the purposes of this section will include any successors by way of amalgamation to the Corporation), or by a Dissenting Shareholder if he, she or it has sent a dissent notice as described above, may be made to the Court after the adoption of the Amalgamation Resolution to fix the fair value of the COS Shares held by the Dissenting Shareholder. The fair value is to be determined as of the close of business on the last Business Day before the date on which the Amalgamation Resolution was adopted. If an application is made to the Court, the Corporation shall, unless the Court otherwise orders, send to each Dissenting Shareholder, at least ten days before the date on which the application is returnable if the Corporation is the applicant or within ten days after the Corporation is served with a copy of the application if the Dissenting Shareholder is the applicant, a written offer to pay an amount considered by the COS Board (or the successor thereto) to be the fair value of the COS Shares. Every such offer is to be made on the same terms and is to contain or be accompanied by a statement showing how the fair value was determined.

Upon the occurrence of the earliest of: (i) the Amalgamation becoming effective; (ii) the making of an agreement between the Corporation and the Dissenting Shareholder as to the payment to be made by the Corporation for the Dissenting Shareholder's COS Shares; or (iii) a pronouncement of the Court fixing the fair value of the COS Shares; a Dissenting Shareholder ceases to have any rights as a Shareholder of Canadian Oil Sands, other than the right to be paid the fair value of such COS Shares by the Corporation in the amount agreed to between the Corporation and the Dissenting Shareholder or in the amount fixed by the Court, as the case may be. Until one of these three events occurs, the Dissenting Shareholder may withdraw the dissent notice or the Corporation may rescind the Amalgamation Resolution and in either event, the dissent and appraisal proceedings in respect of such Dissenting Shareholder will be discontinued.

Dissenting Shareholders will not have any right other than those granted under the ABCA to have their COS Shares appraised or to receive the fair value thereof.

This summary is expressly subject to section 191 of the ABCA, the text of which is reproduced in its entirety in Appendix C to the Circular. The Corporation is not required to notify, and the Corporation will not notify, Shareholders of the time periods within which action must be taken in order for a Shareholder to perfect the Shareholder's dissent rights.

INFORMATION CONCERNING CANADIAN OIL SANDS

Canadian Oil Sands is a public investment vehicle that provides a non-diversified pure play ownership interest in Syncrude, a large oil sands mining project holding high-quality strategic oil sands leases, and the Syncrude Joint Venture, a joint venture formed for the purpose of governing the Syncrude Project. Syncrude is located near Fort McMurray, Alberta, Canada and operates oil sands mines, bitumen extraction plants, an upgrading complex and utilities plants that collectively produce a single high quality, light, sweet synthetic crude oil blend, referred to as Syncrude Sweet Premium, which has an average gravity of about 32° API, low sulphur content of less than 0.2 per cent, a diesel cetane number of approximately 40 and a jet fuel smoke point of approximately 19 millimeters. The Corporation's business is its indirect ownership of Syncrude and the marketing and sales of upgraded synthetic crude oil derived from such ownership, as well as other products related to such Syncrude interest.

The Syncrude Joint Venture is owned as various undivided interests by the Syncrude Participants and has produced upgraded synthetic crude oil since 1978. The assets of the Syncrude Joint Venture are operated and managed by SCL, which is owned by the Syncrude Participants in the same proportions as their interest in the Syncrude Joint Venture. SCL is a single purpose company that employs the SCL workforce and holds its retirement plans but has no significant tangible or capital assets. The Syncrude management committee governs the Syncrude Joint Venture and each Syncrude Participant nominates a representative to the committee, which is charged with making significant decisions and setting the strategic direction for the operation of the Syncrude Joint Venture.

Table of ContentsDescription of Securities

The Corporation is authorized to issue an unlimited number of COS Shares and up to a maximum of 10,000,000 preferred shares, issuable in series. The holders of COS Shares are entitled to receive notice of and to attend all meetings of shareholders and vote at any such meeting on the basis of one vote for each COS Share held. As no preferred shares are issued and outstanding, the holders of COS Shares are entitled to receive any dividend declared by the COS Board and to receive the remaining property of the Corporation on a liquidation, dissolution or winding-up of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, or on any other return of capital or distribution of assets of the Corporation among its shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs. As at February 18, 2016, an aggregate of 484,614,325 COS Shares were issued and outstanding.

Dividends

Dividend payments have historically been determined on a quarterly basis by the COS Board in the context of current and expected crude oil prices, economic conditions, Syncrude's operating performance, and the Corporation's capacity to finance operating and investing obligations. Dividend levels have been established with the intent of absorbing short-term market volatility over several quarters while maintaining a strong balance sheet to reduce exposure to potential oil price declines, cost increases or major operational upsets.

Shareholders should consult the discussion regarding the volatility and lack of certainty on dividends under "Risk Factors" in the COS AIF. The Corporation's two year dividend history is set out below.

Payment Date	Amount per COS Share
November 30, 2015	$0.05
August 31, 2015	$0.05
May 29, 2015	$0.05
February 27, 2015	$0.05

August 29, 2014	$0.35
May 30, 2014	$0.35

In accordance with the terms of the Support Agreement, the Corporation has suspended its dividend payments. On February 19, 2016, in connection with the Offer, the Corporation also terminated its previously suspended Premium Dividend, Dividend Reinvestment and Optional Share Purchase Plan.

Following the completion of the Amalgamation, Shareholders who retain Suncor Shares will receive dividends in respect of such Suncor Shares as, if and when declared and paid in accordance with Suncor's dividend policies. Shareholders who did not validly tender their COS Shares pursuant to and prior to the expiry of the Offer will not be entitled to receive Suncor's first quarter 2016 dividend of $0.29 per Suncor Share payable on March 25, 2016 to Suncor Shareholders of record on March 4, 2016 in respect of any Suncor Shares received pursuant to the Amalgamation as the completion of the Amalgamation will not occur until after the March 4, 2015 Suncor dividend record date. See "Information Concerning Suncor Dividends" below for further information respecting the amount and timing of historical Suncor dividend payments.

Shareholders are entitled to receive any dividend declared by the Suncor Board on the Suncor Shares and to participate in a distribution of Suncor's assets among the Suncor Shareholders for the purpose of winding up its affairs. The holders of the Suncor Shares shall be entitled to share equally, share for share, in all distributions of such assets.

Petro-Canada Public Participation Act

The Petro-Canada Public Participation Act requires that the articles of Suncor include certain restrictions on the ownership and voting of voting shares of Suncor. The Suncor Shares are voting shares. No Person, together with associates of that Person, may subscribe for, have transferred to that Person, hold, beneficially own or control otherwise than by way of security only, or vote in the aggregate, voting shares of Suncor to which are attached more than 20% of the votes attached to all outstanding voting shares of Suncor. Additional restrictions include provisions for suspension of voting rights, forfeiture of dividends, prohibitions against share transfer, compulsory sale of shares, and redemption and suspension of other shareholder rights. The Suncor Board may at any time require holders of, or subscribers for, voting shares, and certain other Persons, to furnish statutory declarations as to ownership of voting shares and certain other matters relevant to the enforcement of the restrictions. Suncor is prohibited from accepting any subscription for, and issuing or registering a transfer of, any voting shares if a contravention of the individual ownership restrictions results. Suncor's articles, as required by the Petro-Canada Public Participation Act, also include provisions requiring Suncor to maintain its head office in Calgary, Alberta; prohibiting Suncor from selling, transferring or otherwise disposing of all or substantially all of its assets in one transaction, or several related transactions, to any one Person or group of associated Persons, or to non-residents, other than by way of security only in connection with the financing of Suncor; and requiring Suncor to ensure (and to adopt, from time-to-time, policies describing the manner in which Suncor will fulfill the requirement to ensure) that any member of the public can, in either official language of Canada (English or French), communicate with and obtain available services from Suncor's head office and any other facilities where Suncor determines there is significant demand for communication with, and services from, that facility in that language.

Further details of the rights, privileges and restrictions attached to the Suncor Shares is set forth at Appendix D to this Circular.

Dividends

The Suncor Board has established a practice of paying dividends on a quarterly basis. Suncor reviews its dividend policy from time-to-time with regard to its financial position, financing requirements for growth, cash flow and other factors which the Suncor Board considers relevant. The Suncor Board approved an increase in the quarterly dividend to $0.23 per Suncor Share from $0.20 per Suncor Share in the first quarter of 2014 and in July 2014, the Suncor Board approved a per share increase of $0.05 to Suncor's quarterly dividend to $0.28 per Suncor Share. The Suncor Board further increased Suncor's quarterly dividend to $0.29 per Suncor Share in July 2015. Dividends are paid subject to applicable law, if, as and when declared by the Suncor Board.

The Suncor Board has approved a dividend of $0.29 per Suncor Share payable on March 25, 2016 to Suncor Shareholders of record on March 4, 2016. Former Shareholders whose COS Shares have been taken up by Suncor prior to the dividend record date of March 4, 2016 will be entitled to receive this dividend in respect of the Suncor Shares received in exchange for their COS Shares, provided that they continue to hold the Suncor Shares on the record date. Shareholders who do not validly tender to the Offer prior to its expiry and whose Shares are not taken up by Suncor before the March 4, 2016 dividend record date, as well as Shareholders whose COS Shares are ultimately exchanged for Suncor Shares pursuant to the Amalgamation, will not be entitled to receive this dividend in respect of the Suncor Shares received in exchange for their Shares, as the completion of the Amalgamation will not occur until after the record date for the payment of the dividend by Suncor.

Risk Factors

Whether or not the Amalgamation is completed, Suncor will continue to face many of the risk factors that it currently faces with respect to its business and affairs. Readers are urged to consult the information set out under the heading Risk Factors in the Suncor AIF, which is incorporated by reference herein. In addition, readers should consider the following additional risk factors relating to the Amalgamation.

The Suncor Shares issued in connection with the Amalgamation may have a market value different than expected.

Pursuant to the Amalgamation, if consummated, Shareholders will receive 0.28 of a Suncor Share for each of their COS Shares. This number of Suncor Shares per COS Share will not be adjusted to reflect any change in the market value of Suncor Shares that may occur, whether prior to, on or after the date of mailing of this Circular, the date of the Meeting, the effective date of the Amalgamation or otherwise. The market value of Suncor Shares may vary significantly from the market value at the dates referenced in the Circular. For example, during the 12 month period ended on February 18, 2016, the trading price of Suncor Shares on the TSX varied from a low of $27.32 to a high of $40.93 and closed on February 18, 2016 at $33.00. Variations may occur as a result of changes in, or market perceptions of changes in, the business, operations or prospects of Suncor, regulatory considerations, general market and economic conditions, and other factors over which the neither Suncor nor the Corporation has control.

The issuance of Suncor Shares as consideration under the Offer or in connection with the Amalgamation could adversely affect the market price of the Suncor Shares.

If all of the COS Shares remaining outstanding after the initial take-up by Suncor of COS Shares pursuant to the Offer on February 5, 2016 are either tendered to the Offer or exchanged for Suncor Shares pursuant to the Amalgamation, up to an estimated additional 135,692,011 Suncor Shares will be available for trading in the public market based on the estimated number of COS Shares that will be issued and outstanding at the time that the Offeror takes up and pays for any remaining COS Shares pursuant to the Offer and at the effective date of the Amalgamation. The overall increase in the number of Suncor Shares may lead to sales of such shares or the perception that such sales may occur, either of which may adversely affect the market for, and the market price of, Suncor Shares. The perceived risk of substantial sales of Suncor Shares, as well as any actual sales of such Suncor Shares in the public market, could adversely affect the market price of the Suncor Shares.

Dissent and appraisal rights may be exercised in respect of a substantial percentage of Shares.

As described elsewhere in this Circular, Shareholders may exercise dissent and appraisal rights in connection with the Amalgamation. If the statutory procedures governing dissent rights are complied with, there may be a judicial determination of the fair value required to be paid to such Dissenting Shareholders for their COS Shares that is different from the consideration to be paid pursuant to the Amalgamation. There is no assurance that the Amalgamation can be completed without Shareholders exercising dissent rights in respect of a substantial number of Shares, which could result in the requirement to make a substantial cash payment that could have an adverse effect on Suncor's financial position and liquidity.

Suncor may not realize all of the anticipated benefits and synergies from the completion of the transaction.

The Offer has been made and the Amalgamation has been proposed with the expectation that their successful completion will result in certain synergies and costs savings. These anticipated benefits will depend in part on whether the operations of the Corporation and Suncor can be integrated in an efficient and effective manner. The integration of the two companies may present challenges to management of Suncor and Suncor may encounter unanticipated delays, liabilities and costs. There can be no assurance that the operational or other synergies that Suncor anticipates to realize in the combined entity will be ultimately realized, or that the integration of the two companies' operations will be timely or effectively accomplished, or will ultimately result in cost reductions.

CERTAIN CANADIAN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

In the opinion of Blake, Cassels & Graydon LLP, special counsel to Canadian Oil Sands and counsel to Suncor, the following summary describes, as of the date hereof, the principal Canadian federal income tax considerations under the Tax Act of the Amalgamation generally applicable to a Beneficial Shareholder who, at all relevant times, for purposes of the Tax Act holds COS Shares and will hold any Suncor Shares received pursuant to the Amalgamation as capital property, deals at arm's length with Canadian Oil Sands, Suncor, Newco and Holdco and is not affiliated with Canadian Oil Sands, Suncor, Newco or Holdco and holds its COS Shares as capital property for the purposes of the Tax Act (a Holder). Generally, COS Shares and Suncor Shares will be considered capital property to a Holder provided the Holder does not hold such shares in the course of carrying on a business of buying and selling securities or as part of an adventure or concern in the nature of trade.

This summary is based on the current provisions of the Tax Act in force as of the date hereof and counsel's understanding of the current administrative policies and assessing practices of the CRA published in writing prior to the date hereof. This summary takes into account all specific proposals to amend the Tax Act that have been publicly announced by or on behalf of the Minister of Finance (Canada) prior to the date hereof (the Tax Proposals) and assumes that the Tax Proposals will be enacted in the form proposed. No assurance can be given that the Tax Proposals will be enacted in the form proposed, or at all. This summary does not otherwise take into account or anticipate any other changes in Law, whether by judicial, governmental or legislative decision or action or changes in the administrative policies or assessing practices of the CRA, nor does it take into account provincial, territorial or foreign income tax legislation or considerations, which may differ materially from those described in this summary.

This summary is not applicable to Shareholders who acquired COS Shares pursuant to employee compensation plans. In addition, this summary does not apply to a Holder (i) that is a financial institution for purposes of certain rules (referred to as the mark-to-market rules applicable to securities held by financial institutions), (ii) an interest in which is a tax shelter investment, (iii) that is a specified financial institution, (iv) that reports its Canadian tax results in a currency other than Canadian currency, or (v) that has entered, or will enter, into, with respect to COS Shares or Suncor Shares, as the case may be, a derivative forward agreement, each as defined in the Tax Act. Such Holders should consult their own tax advisors.

This summary is of a general nature only and is not, and is not intended to be, nor should it be construed to be, legal or tax advice or representations to any particular Holder. This summary is not exhaustive of all Canadian federal income tax considerations. Accordingly, Holders are urged to consult their own legal and tax advisors with respect to the tax consequences to them having regard to their particular circumstances, including the application and effect of the income and other tax laws of any country, province or other jurisdiction that may be applicable to the Holder.

Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations for Holders Resident in Canada

This part of the summary is applicable to a Holder who, at all relevant times, for purposes of the Tax Act is, or is deemed to be, resident in Canada (a Resident Holder). Certain Resident Holders may be entitled to make or may have already made the irrevocable election permitted by subsection 39(4) of the Tax Act, the effect of which may be to deem to be capital property of any COS Shares and Suncor Shares (and all other Canadian securities, as defined in the Tax Act) owned by such Resident Holder in the taxation year in which the election is made and in all subsequent taxation years. Resident Holders whose COS Shares or Suncor Shares might not otherwise be considered to be capital property should consult their own tax advisors concerning this election.

Exchange of COS Shares

COS Shares held by Resident Holders (other than Dissenting Shareholders) will be exchanged for Suncor Shares on the Amalgamation.

A Resident Holder who receives Suncor Shares in exchange for COS Shares on the Amalgamation will not realize any capital gain or capital loss as a result of the exchange. Such Holder will be considered to have disposed of its COS Shares for proceeds of disposition equal to the aggregate adjusted cost base of the COS Shares to the Holder immediately before the Amalgamation and to have acquired such Suncor Shares at an aggregate cost equal to such proceeds of disposition. This cost will be averaged with the adjusted cost base of all other Suncor Shares held by the Holder as capital property for the purpose of determining the adjusted cost base of each Suncor Share held by the Holder.

Dissenting Resident Holders

In the view of counsel, the tax consequences to a Resident Holder who exercises the right to dissent pursuant to the ABCA (for the purposes of this section Dissent Rights) in respect of the Amalgamation (in each case, a Dissenting Resident Holder) are unclear. The obligation to pay fair value to Dissenting Resident Holders is an obligation of Canadian Oil Sands, but the timing of the payment will not occur until after the Amalgamation at which point Canadian Oil Sands will be part of Amalco. Under one interpretation, a Dissenting Resident Holder who is paid fair value of such Dissenting Resident Holder's COS Shares by Canadian Oil Sands may be deemed to have received a taxable dividend equal to the amount, if any, by which the cash received in respect of the fair value of such Resident Holder's COS Shares (other than in respect of interest awarded by the court) exceeds the paid-up capital of such COS Shares to the Resident Holder as determined under the Tax Act. In such circumstances, a Dissenting Resident Holder will also be considered to have disposed of COS Shares for proceeds of disposition equal to the cash received in respect of the fair market value of such Dissenting Resident Holder's COS Shares less an amount in respect of interest, if any, awarded by a court and the amount of any deemed dividend.

Table of Contents

Alternatively, since the payment to Dissenting Resident Holders is not made until after the Amalgamation, a Dissenting Resident Holder who is paid the fair value of such Dissenting Resident Holder's COS Shares by Amalco may realize a capital gain (or a capital loss) equal to the amount, if any, by which the cash received in respect of the fair value of such Resident Holder's COS Shares (other than in respect of interest awarded by the court) exceeds (or is less than) the aggregate of the adjusted cost base of such COS Shares to the Resident Holder and any reasonable costs of disposition. For a description of the tax treatment of capital gains and capital losses, see Taxation of Capital Gains and Capital Losses below. The CRA has adopted an administrative position supporting this interpretation in certain circumstances. Dissenting Resident Holders should consult their own tax advisors with respect to the Canadian federal income tax consequences of exercising their Dissent Rights, including whether the CRA administrative position would be applicable in this case.

A Dissenting Resident Holder will be required to include in computing its income any interest awarded by a court in connection with the Amalgamation. In addition, a Dissenting Resident Holder that, throughout the relevant taxation year, is a Canadian controlled private corporation (as defined in the Tax Act) may be liable to pay a refundable tax of 10 $\frac{2}{3}$ % on its aggregate investment income (as defined in the Tax Act), including interest income. For taxation years that begin before 2016, the former 6 $\frac{2}{3}$ % rate of refundable tax is prorated according to the number of days in the taxation year that are before 2016. Dissenting Resident Holders should consult their own tax advisors with respect to the Canadian federal income tax consequences of exercising their Dissent Rights.

*Holding and Disposing of Suncor SharesDividends

A Resident Holder will be required to include in computing its income for a taxation year any dividends received (or deemed to be received) on its Suncor Shares. In the case of a Resident Holder that is an individual (other than certain trusts), such dividends will be subject to the gross-up and dividend tax credit rules applicable to taxable dividends received from taxable Canadian corporations, including the enhanced gross-up and dividend tax credit applicable to any dividends designated by Suncor as eligible dividends in accordance with the provisions of the Tax Act. A dividend received (or deemed to be received) by a Resident Holder that is a corporation will generally be deductible in computing the corporation's taxable income. In certain circumstances, subsection 55(2) of the Tax Act (as proposed to be amended by Tax Proposals released on July 31, 2015) will treat a taxable dividend received by a Resident Holder that is a corporation as proceeds of disposition or a capital gain. Resident Holders that are corporations are urged to consult their own tax advisors having regard to their particular circumstances.

A Resident Holder that is a private corporation, as defined in the Tax Act, or any other corporation controlled, whether because of a beneficial interest in one or more trusts or otherwise, by or for the benefit of an individual (other than a trust) or a related group of individuals (other than trusts), will generally be liable to pay a refundable tax of 38 $\frac{1}{3}$ % under Part IV of the Tax Act on dividends received (or deemed to be received) on Suncor Shares to the extent such dividends are deductible in computing the Resident Holder's taxable income for the taxation year. A Resident Holder that, throughout the relevant taxation year, is a Canadian-controlled private corporation (as defined in the Tax Act) may be liable to pay a refundable tax of 10 $\frac{2}{3}$ % on its aggregate investment income (as defined in the Tax Act), including any dividends or deemed dividends that are not deductible in computing taxable income. For taxation years that begin before 2016, the former 6 $\frac{2}{3}$ % rate of refundable tax is prorated according to the number of days in the taxation year that are before 2016. Taxable dividends received by an individual (including certain trusts) may give rise to a liability for alternative minimum tax as calculated under the detailed rules set out in the Tax Act.

Dispositions

Generally, on a disposition or deemed disposition of a Suncor Share (other than in a tax deferred transaction), a Resident Holder will realize a capital gain (or a capital loss) equal to the amount, if any, by which the proceeds of disposition exceed (or are less than) the aggregate of the adjusted cost base to the Resident Holder of the Suncor Share immediately before the disposition or deemed disposition and any reasonable costs of disposition. For a description of the tax treatment of capital gains and capital losses, see Taxation of Capital Gains and Capital Losses below.

Taxation of Capital Gains and Capital Losses

Generally, a Resident Holder is required to include in computing its income for a taxation year one-half of the amount of any capital gain (a taxable capital gain) realized by a Resident Holder in the year. A Resident Holder is required to deduct one-half of the amount of any capital loss (an allowable capital loss) realized by a Resident Holder in a taxation year from taxable capital gains realized by the Resident Holder in that year (subject to and in accordance with rules contained in the Tax Act). Allowable capital losses for a taxation year in excess of taxable capital gains for that year generally may be carried back and deducted in any of the three preceding taxation years or carried forward and deducted in any subsequent taxation year against net taxable capital gains realized in such years, to the extent and under the circumstances described in the Tax Act.

The amount of any capital loss realized by a Resident Holder that is a corporation on the disposition of a Suncor Share may be reduced by the amount of certain dividends received (or deemed to be received) by the Resident Holder on such share (or on a share for which such share is substituted or exchanged) to the extent and under circumstances prescribed by the Tax Act. Similar rules may apply where shares are owned by a partnership or a trust of which a corporation, trust or partnership is a beneficiary or a member. Resident Holders to whom these rules may be relevant should consult their own tax advisors.

Additional Refundable Tax

A Resident Holder that, throughout the relevant taxation year, is a Canadian-controlled private corporation (as defined in the Tax Act) may be liable to pay a refundable tax of 10 $\frac{2}{3}$ % on its aggregate investment income (as defined in the Tax Act), including any taxable capital gains. For taxation years that begin before 2016, the former 6 $\frac{2}{3}$ % rate of refundable tax is prorated according to the number of days in the taxation year that are before 2016.

Eligibility for Investment

The Suncor Shares, provided they are listed on a designated stock exchange as defined in the Tax Act (which currently includes the TSX and the NYSE) at the time of issuance pursuant to the Amalgamation, will be qualified investments under the Tax Act for trusts governed by a RRSP, a RRIF, a RESP, a deferred profit sharing plan, a registered disability savings plan and a TFSA. In the case of an RRSP, RRIF or TFSA, provided the holder of the TFSA or the annuitant of the RRSP or RRIF, as the case may be, deals at arm's length with and does not have a significant interest (within the meaning of the Tax Act) in Suncor, the Suncor Shares will not be a prohibited investment under the Tax Act for such RRSP, RRIF or TFSA. Prospective holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding their particular circumstances.

Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations for Holders Not Resident in Canada

This portion of the summary is generally applicable to a Holder who, at all relevant times, for purposes of the Tax Act is resident in the U.S., is not, and is not deemed to be, resident in Canada and does not use or hold, and is not deemed to use or hold, the COS Shares in a business carried on in Canada (a Non-Resident Holder). This part of the summary is not applicable to Non-Resident Holders that are insurers carrying on an insurance business in Canada and elsewhere.

Exchange of COS Shares

COS Shares held by Non-Resident Holders (other than Dissenting Shareholders) will be exchanged for Suncor Shares as a result of the Amalgamation.

Table of Contents

A Non-Resident Holder who receives Suncor Shares in exchange for COS Shares on the Amalgamation will not realize a capital gain or capital loss as a result of the exchange. The Non-Resident Holder will be considered to have disposed of the COS Shares for proceeds of disposition equal to the aggregate adjusted cost base of the COS Shares to the Non-Resident Holder immediately before the effective time of the Amalgamation and to have acquired such Suncor Shares at an aggregate cost equal to such proceeds of disposition. This cost will be averaged with the adjusted cost base on all other Suncor Shares held by the Non-Resident Holder for the purposes of determining the adjusted cost base of each Suncor Share held by the Non-Resident Holder.

Non-Resident Holders who dispose of COS Shares that are taxable Canadian property (as defined in the Tax Act) should consult their own tax advisors concerning the potential requirement to file a Canadian income tax return depending on their particular circumstances. For a description of the definition of taxable Canadian property, see Dissenting Non-Resident Holders below.

Dissenting Non-Resident Holders

In the view of counsel, the tax consequences to a Non-Resident Holder who exercises Dissent Rights in respect of the Amalgamation (in each case, a Dissenting Non-Resident Holder) are unclear. The obligation to pay fair value for Dissenting Non-Resident Holders is an obligation of Canadian Oil Sands, but the timing of the payment will not occur until after the Amalgamation at which point Canadian Oil Sands will be part of Amalco. Under one interpretation, a Dissenting Non-Resident Holder who is paid fair value of such Dissenting Non-Resident Holder's COS Shares by Canadian Oil Sands may be deemed to have received a taxable dividend equal to the amount, if any, by which the cash received in respect of the fair value of such Dissenting Non-Resident Holder's COS Shares (other than in respect of interest awarded by the court) exceeds the paid-up capital of such COS Shares to the Dissenting Non-Resident Holder as determined under the Tax Act. In such circumstances, a Dissenting Resident Holder will also be considered to have disposed of COS Shares for proceeds of disposition equal to the cash received in respect of the fair market value of such Dissenting Non-Resident Holder's COS Shares less an amount in respect of interest, if any, awarded by a court and the amount of any deemed dividend.

Alternatively, since the payment to Dissenting Non-Resident Holders is not made until after the Amalgamation, a Dissenting Non-Resident Holder who is paid the fair value of such Dissenting Non-Resident Holder's COS Shares by Amalco may realize a capital gain (or a capital loss) equal to the amount, if any, by which the cash received in respect of the fair value of such Dissenting Non-Resident Holder's COS Shares (other than in respect of interest awarded by the court) exceeds (or is less than) the aggregate of the adjusted cost base of such COS Shares to the Dissenting Non-Resident Holder as determined under the Tax Act and any reasonable costs of disposition (for a description of the tax treatment of capital gains and capital losses, see Taxation of Capital Gains and Capital Losses above). The CRA has adopted an administrative position supporting this interpretation in certain circumstances. Dissenting Non-Resident Holders should consult their own tax advisors with respect to the Canadian federal income tax consequences of exercising their Dissent Rights, including whether the CRA administrative position would be applicable in this case.

In light of the uncertainty concerning the tax consequences to a Non-Resident Holder who exercises Dissent Rights under the Amalgamation, counsel has been advised by Suncor that following the Amalgamation, Suncor intends to cause Canadian Oil Sands or Amalco to withhold and remit the amount that Canadian Oil Sands or Amalco reasonably believes it is required to remit under the Tax Act to the Receiver General of Canada and such amount will not be delivered by Canadian Oil Sands or Amalco to the Non-Resident Holder. Non-Resident Holders who believe that they are entitled to a refund of all or part of any amount remitted to the Receiver General of Canada should consult with their own advisors with respect to filing a Canadian income tax return and/or such other documents as may be necessary to seek a refund of such amount from the CRA.

A Dissenting Non-Resident Holder will generally not be subject to tax under the Tax Act in respect of any capital gain realized on a disposition of COS Shares pursuant to the exercise of their Dissent Rights unless such COS Shares are considered to be taxable Canadian property to such Dissenting Non-Resident Holder that is not exempt from tax under the Tax Act pursuant to the terms of an applicable income tax treaty. Dissenting Non-Resident Holders whose COS Shares may constitute taxable Canadian property should consult their own tax advisors.

Provided that the COS Shares are listed on a designated stock exchange (as defined in the Tax Act, which currently includes the TSX) at the time of disposition, the COS Shares will generally not constitute taxable Canadian property to a Dissenting Non-Resident Holder at the time of the Amalgamation, unless at any time during the 60-month period immediately preceding the disposition of the COS Shares: (a) one or any combination of (i) the Dissenting Non-Resident Holder, (ii) persons with whom the Non-Resident Holder does not deal at arm's length, and (iii) partnerships in which the Non-Resident Holder or a person described in (ii) holds a membership interest directly or indirectly through one or more partnerships, has owned 25% or more of the issued shares of any class or series of shares of Canadian Oil Sands; and (b) more than 50% of the fair market value of the COS Share was derived directly or indirectly, from one or a combination of (i) real or immovable property situated in Canada, (ii) Canadian resource property (as defined in the Tax Act), (iii) timber resource property (as defined in the Tax Act), and (iv) options in respect of, or interests in, or for civil law, rights in, property in any of the foregoing whether or not the property exists.

Where a Dissenting Non-Resident Holder receives interest in connection with the exercise of Dissent Rights in respect of the Amalgamation, the interest will not be subject to Canadian withholding tax under the Tax Act.

Holding and Disposing of Suncor Shares

Dividends

Dividends paid or credited on the Suncor Shares or deemed to be paid or credited on the Suncor Shares to a Non-Resident Holder will be subject to Canadian withholding tax at the rate of 25%, subject to any reduction in the rate of withholding to which the Non-Resident Holder is entitled under an applicable income tax convention. Where the Non-Resident Holder is a U.S. resident entitled to benefits under the Canada-United States Tax Convention (1980) and is the beneficial owner of the dividends, the rate of Canadian withholding tax applicable to dividends is generally reduced to 15%.

Dispositions

A Non-Resident Holder will not be subject to tax under the Tax Act on any capital gain realized on a disposition or deemed disposition of a Suncor Share, unless the Suncor Share is taxable Canadian property to the Non-Resident Holder for purposes of the Tax Act. For a description of taxable Canadian property see Dissenting Non-Resident Holders above, as analogous tests will apply in respect of the Suncor Shares. In addition, where a Non-Resident Holder acquires Suncor Shares in exchange for COS Shares that are taxable Canadian property, the Suncor Shares will be deemed to be taxable Canadian property for the 60 month period that commences on the Effective Date. Non-Resident Holders who dispose of Suncor Shares that are taxable Canadian property should consult their own tax advisors with respect to the Canadian income tax consequences of the disposition and the potential requirement to file a Canadian income tax return in respect of the disposition depending on their particular circumstances.

CERTAIN UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following discussion is a summary of certain U.S. federal income tax consequences to Shareholders of their participation in the Amalgamation and of ownership of Suncor Shares. This summary is based on certain assumptions with respect to Canadian Oil Sands and the execution of the Amalgamation. This discussion only addresses U.S. Holders (as defined below) that hold their COS Shares and Suncor Shares as capital assets within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code) (generally, assets held for investment). This discussion is general in nature and does not discuss all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to a particular holder in light of the holder's particular circumstances or to certain types of holders subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax laws (such as insurance companies, tax-exempt organizations, partnerships or other pass-through entities, persons holding COS Shares or Suncor Shares as part of a hedging, integrated, conversion, wash sale or constructive sale transaction or a straddle, financial institutions, brokers, dealers in securities or currencies, traders that elect to mark-to-market their securities, persons that acquired COS Shares in connection with employment or other performance of services, persons that have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar and persons who have ceased to be U.S. citizens or to be taxed as resident aliens). Furthermore, this discussion does not address the tax consequences to U.S. Holders that own or have owned, directly or by attribution, 5% or more, by voting power or value, of the outstanding equity interests of Canadian Oil Sands or U.S. Holders that following the Amalgamation will own, directly or by attribution, 5% or more, by voting power or value, of the outstanding equity interests of Suncor. In addition, this discussion does not consider the effect of the U.S. federal alternative minimum tax or any foreign, U.S. state, U.S. local or other tax Laws, or any other U.S. federal tax considerations (e.g., estate or gift tax) apart from the U.S. federal income tax considerations, that may be applicable to particular holders. This discussion is based on the Code and applicable U.S. Treasury regulations, rulings, administrative pronouncements and judicial decisions thereunder and the Canada-U.S. Tax Treaty, in each case, as of the date hereof, all of which are subject to change or differing interpretations at any time with possible retroactive effect.

EACH SHAREHOLDER IS URGED TO CONSULT ITS U.S. TAX ADVISORS REGARDING THE POTENTIAL U.S. TAX CONSEQUENCES OF PARTICIPATING IN THE AMALGAMATION AND OWNERSHIP OF SUNCOR SHARES, IN LIGHT OF SUCH SHAREHOLDER'S INDIVIDUAL CIRCUMSTANCES, AS WELL AS THE CONSEQUENCES OF THE TAX LAWS OF ANY FOREIGN, STATE OR LOCAL TAXING JURISDICTION.

As used herein, a U.S. Holder means a beneficial owner of COS Shares or Suncor Shares that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes: (i) an individual citizen or resident of the United States; (ii) a corporation (or other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any State thereof or the District of Columbia; (iii) an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or (iv) a trust if (a) such trust has validly elected to be treated as a U.S. person for U.S. federal income tax purposes or (b) a U.S. court is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of such trust and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of such trust.

If a partnership holds COS Shares or Suncor Shares, the tax treatment of a partner in such partnership will generally depend upon the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. Holders of COS Shares or Suncor Shares that are partnerships (and partners in such partnerships) are urged to consult their own U.S. tax advisors as to the consequences of the partnership participating in the Amalgamation.

U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Amalgamation for U.S. Holders

Suncor intends for the Offer, the Amalgamation and the subsequent amalgamation between Amalco and Holdco, taken together (the exchange transaction), to be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code (a reorganization). If the exchange transaction is so treated, a U.S. Holder generally will not recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes. The determination of whether the exchange transaction will qualify for such treatment depends on the resolution of complex issues and facts and as a result, it is uncertain as to whether the exchange transaction will qualify as a tax-free reorganization or a fully taxable transaction. In addition, no ruling from the IRS concerning the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the exchange transaction has been obtained and none is expected to be requested. Thus, there can be no assurance that the exchange transaction will be treated as a reorganization and that the IRS will not challenge the tax consequences described herein.

If the exchange transaction fails to qualify as a reorganization, then, subject to the PFIC rules discussed below, a U.S. Holder will generally recognize capital gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes equal to the difference between the U.S. dollar value of the amount realized (equal to the cash and/or the fair market value of Suncor Shares to which such U.S. Holder is entitled under the exchange transaction) and the U.S. Holder's tax basis, determined in U.S. dollars, in the Shares. Such capital gain will generally be long term capital gain, on which a non-corporate U.S. Holder is generally taxed at preferential rates, if the Shares were held for more than one year. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations. The gain or loss will generally be income or loss from sources within the United States for foreign tax credit limitation purposes.

Medicare Tax

A U.S. Holder that is an individual or estate, or a trust that does not fall into a special class of trusts that is exempt from such tax, is subject to a 3.8% tax on the lesser of (1) the U.S. Holder's net investment income (or undistributed net investment income in the case of an estate or trust) for the relevant taxable year and (2) the excess of the U.S. Holder's modified adjusted gross income for the taxable year over a certain threshold (which in the case of individuals is between U.S.$125,000 and U.S.$250,000, depending on the individual's circumstances). A holder's net investment income generally includes its dividend income and its net gains from the disposition of COS Shares, unless such dividend income or net gains are derived in the ordinary course of the conduct of a trade or business (other than a trade or business that consists of certain passive or trading activities). U.S. Holders that are individuals, estates or trusts are urged to consult their U.S. tax advisors regarding the applicability of the Medicare tax to income and gains recognized in respect of the Amalgamation.

PFIC Rules

Certain adverse consequences could apply to a U.S. Holder upon exchange of COS Shares pursuant to the Amalgamation if Canadian Oil Sands is or was treated as a PFIC for any taxable year during which the U.S. Holder holds or held Shares. In general, Canadian Oil Sands would be considered a PFIC with respect to a U.S. Holder if, for any taxable year in which such U.S. Holder holds or held COS Shares, after applying certain look through rules, either (a) at least 75% of the gross income of Canadian Oil Sands for the taxable year is passive income or (b) at least 50% of the value, determined on the basis of a quarterly average, of Canadian Oil Sands' gross assets is attributable to assets that produce or are held for the production of passive income. For this purpose, passive income generally includes interest, dividends, rents, annuities, royalties and certain gains.

Suncor has not undertaken to ascertain whether the Corporation is treated as a PFIC, including following Suncor's acquisition of control of the Corporation on February 5, 2016. On February 24, 2015, in a publicly filed document, the Corporation indicated, that, as of that date, it believed that it is reasonable to take the position that it is not a PFIC. Nevertheless, the determination of PFIC status is fundamentally factual in nature and depends on the application of complex U.S. federal income tax rules which are subject to differing interpretations. Consequently, no assurance can be provided that the Corporation is not and has not been classified as a PFIC.

If Canadian Oil Sands is a PFIC for any taxable year during which a U.S. Holder holds the COS Shares, the PFIC rules may cause U.S. Holders to be subject to adverse tax consequences on the exchange of COS Shares for Suncor Shares and additional filing requirements. U.S. Holders are urged to consult their own U.S. tax advisors regarding the application of PFIC rules to their participation in the Amalgamation.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Information reporting requirements may apply with respect to a holder that participates in the Amalgamation. A U.S. Holder may also be subject to backup withholding at a current rate of 28% with respect to the proceeds of participating in the Amalgamation unless the holder (1) comes within certain exempt categories and demonstrates this fact or (2) provides a correct taxpayer identification number, certifies as to no loss of exemption from backup withholding and otherwise complies with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. A U.S. Holder may be asked to provide its correct taxpayer identification number and certify that it is not subject to backup withholding.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax. U.S. Holders generally may obtain a refund of any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules that exceed their income tax liability by filing a refund claim with the IRS.

Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations for U.S. Holders Related to Ownership of Suncor Shares

Distributions on Suncor Shares

Under the U.S. federal income tax laws, and subject to the PFIC rules discussed below, the gross amount of any dividend Suncor pays to a U.S. Holder out of its accumulated earnings and profits (as determined for U.S. federal income tax purposes) is subject to U.S. federal income taxation. Dividends that constitute qualified dividend income will be taxable to a noncorporate U.S. Holder at the preferential rates applicable to long-term capital gains provided that the U.S. Holder holds the Suncor Shares for more than 60 days during the 121-day period beginning 60 days before the ex-dividend date and meets other holding period requirements. Dividends Suncor pays with respect to Suncor Shares generally will be qualified dividend income.

A U.S. Holder must include any Canadian tax withheld from the dividend payment in this gross amount even though such holder does not in fact receive it. The dividend is taxable to a U.S. Holder when the U.S. Holder receives the dividend, actually or constructively. The dividend will not be eligible for the dividends-received deduction generally allowed to U.S. corporations in respect of dividends received from other U.S. corporations. The amount of the dividend distribution that a U.S. Holder must include in income will be the U.S. dollar value of the Canadian dollar payments made, determined at the spot Canadian/U.S. dollar rate on the date the dividend distribution is includible in the U.S. Holder's income, regardless of whether the payment is in fact converted into U.S. dollars. Generally, any gain or loss resulting from currency exchange fluctuations during the period from the date the U.S. Holder includes the dividend payment in income to the date the holder converts the payment into U.S. dollars will be treated as ordinary income or loss and will not be eligible for the special tax rates applicable to qualified dividend income. The gain or loss generally will be income or loss from sources within the United States for foreign tax credit limitation purposes. Distributions in excess of current and accumulated earnings and profits, as determined for U.S. federal income tax purposes, will be treated as a non-taxable return of capital to the extent of the U.S. Holder's basis in the Suncor Shares and thereafter as capital gain. However, Suncor does not expect to calculate earnings and profits in accordance with U.S. federal income tax principles. Accordingly, a U.S. Holder should expect to generally treat distributions Suncor makes as dividends.

Subject to certain limitations, the Canadian tax withheld in accordance with the Canada-U.S. Tax Treaty and paid over to Canada will be creditable or deductible against the U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability. Special rules apply in determining the foreign tax credit limitation with respect to dividends that are subject to the preferential tax rates. To the extent a refund of the tax withheld is available to a U.S. Holder under Canadian Law or under the Canada-U.S. Tax Treaty, the amount of tax withheld that is refundable will not be eligible for credit against the U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability.

Dividends will be income from sources outside the United States and will, depending on the U.S. Holder's circumstances, be either passive or general income for purposes of computing the foreign tax credit allowable to the U.S. Holder.

Sale or Other Disposition of Suncor Shares

Subject to the PFIC rules discussed below, a U.S. Holder that sells or otherwise disposes Suncor Shares will recognize gain or loss for U.S. federal income tax purposes equal to the difference between the U.S. dollar value of the amount that the U.S. Holder realizes and such holder's tax basis, determined in U.S. dollars, in the Suncor Shares. Such gain or loss will be capital gain or loss and will be long-term capital gain or loss if the Suncor Shares have been held for more than one year. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations. The gain or loss will generally be income or loss from sources within the United States for foreign tax credit limitation purposes.

Medicare Tax

A U.S. Holder that is an individual or estate, or a trust that does not fall into a special class of trusts that is exempt from such tax, is subject to a 3.8% tax on the lesser of (1) the U.S. Holder's net investment income (or undistributed net investment income in the case of an estate or trust) for the relevant taxable year and (2) the excess of the U.S. Holder's modified adjusted gross income for the taxable year over a certain threshold (which in the case of individuals is between U.S.$125,000 and U.S.$250,000, depending on the individual's circumstances). A holder's net investment income generally includes its dividend income and its net gains from the disposition of Suncor Shares, unless such dividend income or net gains are derived in the ordinary course of the conduct of a trade or business (other than a trade or business that consists of certain passive or trading activities). U.S. Holders that are individuals, estates or trusts are urged to consult their U.S. tax advisors regarding the applicability of the Medicare tax to income and gains in respect of their investment in the Suncor Shares.

PFIC Rules

Suncor believes that Suncor Shares should not be treated as stock of a PFIC for U.S. federal income tax purposes, but this conclusion is a factual determination that is made annually and thus may be subject to change. In general, Suncor will be a PFIC with respect to a U.S. Holder if, for any taxable year in which such holder holds Suncor Shares, after applying certain look through rules, either (i) at least 75% of the gross income of Suncor for the taxable year is passive income or (ii) at least 50% of the value, determined on the basis of a quarterly average, of Suncor's assets is attributable to assets that produce or are held for the production of passive income.

If Suncor were to be treated as a PFIC, unless a holder of Suncor Shares elects to be taxed annually on a mark-to-market basis with respect to the Suncor Shares, gain realized on the sale or other disposition of Suncor Shares would in general not be treated as capital gain. Instead, a U.S. Holder would be treated as if such holder had realized such gain and certain excess distributions ratably over the holding period for the Suncor Shares and would generally be taxed at the highest tax rate in effect for each such year to which the gain was allocated, together with an interest charge in respect of the tax attributable to each such year. With certain exceptions, Suncor Shares will be treated as stock in a PFIC if Suncor were a PFIC at any time during a holder's holding period in the Suncor Shares. Dividends received from Suncor will not be eligible for the special tax rates applicable to qualified dividend income if Suncor is a PFIC (or is treated as a PFIC with respect to a holder of Suncor Shares) either in the taxable year of the distribution or the preceding taxable year, but instead will be taxable at rates applicable to ordinary income.

Information With Respect to Foreign Financial Assets

Owners of specified foreign financial assets with an aggregate value in excess of U.S.$50,000 (and in some circumstances, a higher threshold) may be required to file an information report with respect to such assets with their tax returns. Specified foreign financial assets may include financial accounts maintained by foreign financial institutions as well as the following, but only if they are held for investment and not held in accounts maintained by financial institutions: (i) stocks and securities issued by non-U.S. persons, (ii) financial instruments and contracts that have non-U.S. issuers or counterparties, and (iii) interests in foreign entities. Holders are urged to consult their U.S. tax advisors regarding the application of this reporting requirement to their ownership of Suncor Shares.

Backup Withholding and Information Reporting

Information reporting requirements, on IRS Form 1099, generally will apply to dividend payments or other taxable distributions made to non-corporate U.S. Holders within the United States, and the payment of proceeds to such holders from the sale of Suncor Shares effected at a U.S. office of a broker. Additionally, backup withholding may apply to such payments if the U.S. Holder fails to comply with applicable certification requirements or is notified by the IRS that the U.S. Holder has failed to report all interest and dividends required to be shown on such holder's federal income tax returns.

Backup withholding is not an additional tax. U.S. Holders generally may obtain a refund of any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules that exceed their income tax liability by filing a refund claim with the IRS.

 - (b) the making of an agreement between the shareholder and the corporation as to the payment to be made for the shareholder's shares, notify each dissenting shareholder that it is unable lawfully to pay dissenting shareholders for their shares.

(19) Notwithstanding that a judgment has been given in favour of a dissenting shareholder under subsection (13)(b), if subsection (20) applies, the dissenting shareholder, by written notice delivered to the corporation within 30 days after receiving the notice under subsection (18), may withdraw the shareholder's notice of objection, in which case the corporation is deemed to consent to the withdrawal and the shareholder is reinstated to the shareholder's full rights as a shareholder, failing which the shareholder retains a status as a claimant against the corporation, to be paid as soon as the corporation is lawfully able to do so or, in a liquidation, to be ranked subordinate to the rights of creditors of the corporation but in priority to its shareholders.

(20) A corporation shall not make a payment to a dissenting shareholder under this section if there are reasonable grounds for believing that

On every poll taken at every meeting of the holders of the Junior Preferred Shares as a class, or at any joint

- (e) no person may exercise any other right or privilege ordinarily attached to such voting shares.

(All of the foregoing consequences of a shareholder default are referred to in this Schedule B as a suspension .) Notwithstanding the foregoing, a registered holder of suspended voting shares shall have the right to transfer such voting shares on any securities register of Suncor on a basis that does not result in contravention of the individual share constraint.

4.2 The directors of Suncor shall cancel any suspension of voting shares of a registered holder and reinstate the registered holder to the securities register of Suncor for all purposes if they determine that, following the cancellation and reinstatement, none of such voting shares will be held, beneficially owned or controlled in contravention of the individual share constraint. For greater certainty, any such reinstatement shall permit, from and after the reinstatement, the exercise of all rights and privileges attached to the voting shares so reinstated but, subject to subsection 9.1, shall have no retroactive effect.

5. Sale

5.1 In the event of a shareholder default in respect of any registered holder of voting shares, Suncor may elect by directors determination to sell, on behalf of the registered holder, the excess voting shares thereof, without further notice thereto, on the terms set forth in this section 5 and section 7.

5.2 Suncor may sell any excess voting shares in accordance with this section 5:

- (a) on the principal stock exchange; or

(b) if there is no principal stock exchange, on such other stock exchange or organized market on which the voting shares are then listed or traded as the directors of Suncor shall determine; or

(c) if the voting shares are not then listed on any stock exchange or traded on any organized market, in such other manner as the directors of Suncor shall determine.

5.3 The net proceeds of sale of excess voting shares sold in accordance with this section 5 shall be the net proceeds after deduction of any commission, tax or other cost of sale.

5.4 For all purposes of a sale of excess voting shares in accordance with this section, Suncor is the agent and lawful attorney of the registered holder and the beneficial owner of the excess voting shares.

6. Redemption

6.1 In the event of a shareholder default in respect of any registered holder of voting shares and in the event that the directors of Suncor determine either that Suncor has used reasonable efforts to sell excess voting shares in accordance with section 5 but that such sale is impracticable or that it is likely that such sale would have material adverse consequences to Suncor or the holders of voting shares, Suncor may elect by directors' determination, subject to applicable law, to redeem the excess voting shares thereof, without further notice thereto, on the terms set forth in this section 6 and section 7.

6.2 The redemption price paid by Suncor to redeem any excess voting shares in accordance with this section 6 shall be:

- (a) the average of the closing prices per share of the voting shares on the principal stock exchange (or, if there is no principal stock exchange or if the requisite trading of voting shares has not occurred on the principal stock exchange, such other stock exchange or such other organized market on which such requisite trading has occurred as the directors of Suncor shall determine) over the last 10 trading days on which at least one board lot of voting shares has traded on the principal stock exchange (or such other stock exchange or such other organized market) in the period ending on the trading day immediately preceding the redemption date; or
- (b) if the requisite trading of voting shares has not occurred on any stock exchange or other organized market, on such basis as the directors of Suncor shall determine.

7. Procedures Relating to Sale and Redemption

7.1 In the event of any sale or redemption of excess voting shares in accordance with section 5 or 6, respectively, Suncor shall deposit an amount equal to the amount of the net proceeds of sale or the redemption price, respectively, in a special account in any bank or trust company in Canada selected by it. The amount of the deposit, less the reasonable costs of administration of the special account, shall be payable to the registered holder of the excess voting shares sold or redeemed on presentation and surrender by the registered holder to that bank or trust company of the certificate or certificates representing the excess voting shares. Any interest earned on any amount so deposited shall accrue to the benefit of Suncor.

7.2 From and after any deposit made pursuant to subsection 7.1, the registered holder shall not be entitled to any of the remaining rights of a registered holder in respect of the excess voting shares sold or redeemed, other than the right, to receive the funds so deposited on presentation and surrender of the certificate or certificates representing the excess voting shares sold or redeemed.

7.3 If a part only of the voting shares represented by any certificate is sold or redeemed in accordance with section 5 or 6, respectively, Suncor shall, on presentation and surrender of such certificate and at the expense of the registered holder, issue a new certificate representing the balance of the voting shares.

7.4 So soon as is reasonably practicable after, and, in any event, not later than 30 days after, a deposit made pursuant to subsection 7.1, Suncor shall send a notice to the registered holder of the excess voting shares sold or redeemed and the notice shall state:

- (a) that a specified number of voting shares has been sold or redeemed, as the case may be;

- (b) the amount of the net proceeds of sale or the redemption price, respectively;
- (c) the name and address of the bank or trust company at which Suncor has made the deposit of the net proceeds of sale or the redemption price, respectively; and
- (d) all other relevant particulars of the sale or redemption, respectively.

7.5 For greater certainty, Suncor may sell or redeem excess voting shares in accordance with section 5 or 6, respectively, despite the fact that Suncor does not possess the certificate or certificates representing the excess voting shares at the time of the sale or redemption. If, in accordance with section 5, Suncor sells excess voting shares without possession of the certificate or certificates representing the excess voting shares, Suncor shall issue to the purchaser of such excess voting shares or its nominee a new certificate or certificates representing the excess voting shares sold. If, in accordance with section 5 or section 6, Suncor sells or redeems excess voting shares without possession of the certificate or certificates representing the excess voting shares and, after the sale or redemption, a person establishes that it is a bona fide purchaser of the excess voting shares sold or redeemed, then, subject to applicable law:

D-8

- (a) the excess voting shares held or beneficially owned by the bona fide purchaser are deemed to be, from the date of the sale or redemption by Suncor, as the case may be, validly issued and outstanding voting shares in addition to the excess voting shares sold or redeemed; and
- (b) notwithstanding subsection 7.2, Suncor is entitled to the deposit made pursuant to subsection 7.1 and, in the case of a sale in accordance with section 5, shall add the amount of the deposit to the stated capital account for the class of voting shares issued.

8. Exceptions

8.1 Notwithstanding section 2, the individual share constraint does not apply in respect of voting shares of Suncor that are held:

- (a) by the Minister in trust for Her Majesty in right of Canada;
- (b) by one or more underwriters solely for the purpose of distributing the voting shares to the public; or
- (c) by any person who provides centralized facilities for the clearing of trades in securities and is acting in relation to trades in the voting shares solely as an intermediary in the payment of funds or the delivery of securities, or both.

9. Saving Provisions

9.1 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Schedule B:

- (a) the directors of Suncor may determine to pay a dividend or to make any other distribution on voting shares that would otherwise be prohibited by any other provision of this Schedule B where the contravention of the individual share constraint that gave rise to the prohibition was inadvertent or of a technical nature or it would otherwise be inequitable not to pay the dividend or make the distribution; and
- (b) where a dividend has not been paid or any other distribution has not been made on voting shares as a result of a directors' determination of a contravention of the individual share constraint, or where the amount of a dividend or any other distribution has been restored to Suncor pursuant to paragraph 2.5(b) as a result of a directors' determination of a contravention of the individual share constraint, the directors of Suncor shall declare and pay the dividend, make the distribution, or refund the restored amount, respectively, if they subsequently determine that no such contravention occurred.

9.2 In the event that Suncor suspends or redeems voting shares in accordance with section 4 or 6, respectively, or otherwise redeems, purchases for cancellation or otherwise acquires voting shares, and the result of such action is that any person and the associates of that person who, prior to such action, were not in contravention of the individual share constraint are, after such action, in contravention, then, notwithstanding any other provision of this Schedule B, the sole consequence of such action to that person and the associates of that person, in respect of the voting shares of that person and of the associates of that person held, beneficially owned or controlled at the time of such action, shall be that the number of votes attached to those voting shares shall be reduced to a number that is the largest whole number of votes that may be attached to the voting shares which that person and the associates of that person could hold, beneficially own or control from time to time in compliance with the individual share constraint.

9.3 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Schedule B, a contravention of the individual share constraint shall have no consequences except those that are expressly provided for in this Schedule B. For greater certainty but without limiting the generality of the foregoing:

- (a) no transfer, issue or ownership of, and no title to, voting shares;

D-9

Table of Contents

- (b) no resolution of shareholders (except to the extent that the result thereof is affected as a result of a directors' determination under paragraph 2.5(a)); and

(c) no act of Suncor, including any transfer of property to or by Suncor; shall be invalid or otherwise affected by any contravention of the individual share constraint.

10. Directors' Determinations

10.1 The directors of Suncor shall have the sole right and authority to administer the provisions of this Schedule B and to make any determination required or contemplated hereunder. In so acting, the directors of Suncor shall enjoy, in addition to the powers set forth in this Schedule B, all of the powers necessary or desirable, in their opinion, to carry out the intent and purpose of this Schedule B. The directors of Suncor shall make on a timely basis all determinations necessary for the administration of the provisions of this Schedule B and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if the directors of Suncor consider that there are reasonable grounds for believing that a contravention of the individual share constraint has occurred or will occur, the directors shall make a determination with respect to the matter: Any directors' determination that is not inconsistent with the Petro-Canada Public Participation Act and other applicable law shall be conclusive, final and binding except to the extent modified by any subsequent directors' determination. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the directors of Suncor may delegate, in whole or in part:

- (a) their power to make a directors' determination in respect of any particular matter to a committee of the board of directors; and
- (b) any of their other powers under this Schedule B in accordance with subsection 115(3) or paragraph 121(a) of the Canada Business Corporations Act.

10.2 The directors of Suncor shall make any directors' determination contemplated by section 2:

- (a) after the relevant shareholder's declarations have been requested and received by Suncor, only:
 - (i) on a basis consistent with those shareholder's declarations; or
 - (ii) if the directors of Suncor are of the opinion that the shareholder's declarations do not contain adequate or accurate information and they believe and have reasonable grounds for believing that they will not be provided with shareholder's declarations that do contain adequate and accurate information; or
- (b) whether or not any shareholder's declaration has been requested or received by Suncor, only if the directors of Suncor believe and have reasonable grounds for believing that they have sufficient information to make the directors' determination, that the consequences of the directors' determination would not be inequitable to those affected by it and that it would be impractical, under all the circumstances, to request or to await the receipt of any shareholder's declaration.

10.3 In administering the provisions of this Schedule B, including, without limitation, in making any directors' determination in accordance with subsection 10.2 or otherwise, the directors of Suncor may rely on any information on which the directors consider it reasonable to rely in the circumstances. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the directors of Suncor may rely upon any shareholder's declaration, the securities register of Suncor, the knowledge of any director, officer or employee of Suncor or any advisor to Suncor and the opinion of counsel to Suncor.

10.4 In administering the provisions of this Schedule B, including, without limitation, in making any directors' determination, the directors shall act honestly and in good faith. Provided that the directors of Suncor so act, they shall not be liable to Suncor and neither they nor Suncor shall be liable to any holder or beneficial owner of voting securities or any other person for, nor with respect to any matter arising from or related to, any act or omission to act in relation to this Schedule B. PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED TO BE DELIVERED TO OFFEREES OR PURCHASERS

Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Under Section 124 of the Canada Business Corporations Act (the "CBCA"), a corporation may indemnify a present or former director or officer of the corporation or another individual who acts or acted at the corporation's request as a director or officer, or an individual acting in a similar capacity, of another entity, against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, reasonably incurred by the individual in respect of any civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or other proceeding in which the individual is involved because of that association with the corporation or other entity. A corporation may not indemnify an individual unless the individual (i) acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the corporation, or, as the case may be, to the best interests of the other entity for which the individual acted as a director or officer or in a similar capacity at the corporation's request, and (ii) in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, the individual had reasonable grounds for believing that the conduct was lawful. Each of the aforementioned individuals are entitled to the indemnification provided above from a corporation as a matter of right if they were not judged by the court or other competent authority to have committed any fault or omitted to do anything that the individual ought to have done and if the individual fulfills conditions (i) and (ii) above. A corporation may advance moneys to a director, officer or other individual for the costs, charges and expenses of a proceeding; however, the individual shall repay the moneys if the individual does not fulfill the conditions set out in (i) and (ii) above. The indemnification or the advance of any moneys may be made in connection with a derivative action only with court approval and only if the conditions in (i) and (ii) above are met. Under the CBCA, a corporation may purchase and maintain insurance for the benefit of any of the aforementioned individuals against any liability incurred by the individual in their capacity as a director or officer of the corporation, or in their capacity as a director or officer, or similar capacity, of another entity, if the individual acted in such capacity at the corporation's request.

In accordance with the CBCA, the by-laws of the Registrant provide that the Registrant shall indemnify a director or officer of the Registrant, a former director or officer of the Registrant or a person who acts or acted at the Registrant's request as a director or officer, or in a similar capacity, of another entity, and the heirs and legal representatives of such a person, to the extent permitted under the CBCA. The Registrant also has agreements with each director and officer to provide indemnification to the extent permitted under the CBCA.

A policy of directors' and officers' liability insurance is maintained by the Registrant which insures directors and officers of the Registrant for losses as a result of claims based upon their acts or omissions as directors and officers, including liabilities under the Securities Act, and also reimburses the Registrant for payments made pursuant to the indemnity provisions under the CBCA. The directors and officers are not required to pay any premium in respect of the insurance.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, the Registrant has been informed that in the opinion of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is therefore unenforceable.
