Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On May 5, 2016, the Board of Directors (the Board) of Cadence Design Systems, Inc. (Cadence) approved amendments to Cadence's form of director and officer indemnification agreement (Indemnity Agreement). The Indemnity Agreement contains certain updates and other minor revisions to Cadence's previous form. The Indemnity Agreement will be the form used for all newly appointed directors and executive officers, and for existing directors and officers who elect to enter into the Indemnity Agreement, it shall terminate, supersede and replace any prior indemnity agreements previously entered into between Cadence and such individuals.

Pursuant to the Indemnity Agreement, each director or officer party thereto will be indemnified to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law against all expenses, liability and loss (including, without limitation, attorneys' fees, judgments, fines, forfeitures, ERISA excise and other taxes and penalties, and amounts paid or to be paid in settlement) actually and reasonably incurred or suffered by such director or officer in connection with his service as a director, officer, employee or agent of Cadence. The Indemnity Agreement further provides procedures for the determination of an indemnitee's right to receive indemnification and the advancement of expenses.

Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Effective May 5, 2016, an Executive Severance Plan (the Severance Plan) was adopted by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Cadence (the Compensation Committee) which will provide certain severance benefits to individuals promoted to or hired as executive officers of Cadence, to the extent designated as a participant by the Compensation Committee. The employment agreements Cadence previously entered into with certain of its executive officers containing severance provisions will remain in effect and such executive officers will not participate in the Severance Plan.

The Compensation Committee also determined that Neil Zaman, Senior Vice President, Worldwide Field Operations and a named executive officer, shall be a participant in the Severance Plan. Mr. Zaman will be entitled to the benefits as provided below.

Under the Severance Plan, if a participant's employment is terminated by Cadence without Cause (as defined in the Severance Plan) and not due to death or Permanent Disability (as defined in the Severance Plan), the participant will be entitled to the benefits provided for in the Transition and Release Agreement which is an exhibit to the Severance Plan (the Transition Agreement) in exchange for the participant's execution and delivery of general release of claims in favor of Cadence. The Transition Agreement provides that the participant will continue to perform services for Cadence in a non-executive capacity for one-year following the participant's termination of employment (the Transition). In exchange for such services during the Transition, the participant shall receive the following payments and benefits: (i) accelerated vesting, as of the date of the participant's Transition commencement, of outstanding unvested equity compensation awards, other than awards with performance-based vesting criteria, that would have vested over a specified period (12 months for Mr. Zaman), and unvested equity compensation awards that are subject to performance-based vesting criteria and that are outstanding as of the date of Transition commencement shall continue to vest through the end of the applicable performance period to the extent the applicable performance conditions are satisfied, provided (A) any such performance period ends during the participant's Transition period only, and (B) the participant remains employed pursuant to the Transition Agreement through the end of the applicable performance period; (ii) provided the participant elects COBRA coverage, payment of the participant's COBRA premiums during the Transition period of up to one year; (iii) a monthly salary of $4,000 per month salary, payable for up to six months commencing on the first pay date that is at least seven months after the participant's Transition commencement; (iv) a lump-sum payment equal to one year's base salary at the highest rate in effect during the participant's employment, payable on the date that is seven months after the date of the participant's Transition commencement; and (v) a specified lump-sum payment (for Mr. Zaman, equal to 100% of one year's base salary at the highest rate in effect during his employment), payable 60 days following the one-year anniversary of the participant's Transition commencement, provided the participant does not resign from employment with Cadence and Cadence does not terminate the participant's employment with Cadence due to material breach of the duties under the Transition Agreement.

In addition, the Transition Agreement provides that if, within three months before or 13 months after a Change in Control (as defined in the Severance Plan), the participant's employment is terminated without Cause or the participant terminates his employment due to a Constructive Termination (as defined in the Severance Plan), then, in exchange for the participant's execution and delivery of the Transition Agreement and general releases, the participant will be entitled to the following benefits: (A) in lieu of the acceleration described in clause (i) above, all of the participant's outstanding unvested equity compensation awards will immediately vest in full (unless specifically provided to the contrary in the equity grant agreement); (B) the lump-sum payment specified in clause (iv) above increased by 50%; and (C) the lump-sum payment specified in clause (v) above increased by 50%.

The Severance Plan also provides that if the participant's employment is terminated due to death or Permanent Disability, the participant will be entitled to the following payments and benefits if the participant's estate executes and delivers a general release in favor of Cadence: (i) accelerated vesting, as of the date of the participant's termination of employment, of outstanding unvested time-based equity compensation awards that would have vested over the succeeding 12-month period, and such awards and all previously vested equity awards shall remain exercisable for 24 months from the date of the participant's termination of employment (but not later than the expiration of the term of the applicable award); and (ii) solely in the case of termination of employment due to Permanent Disability and provided the participant elects COBRA coverage, payment of the participant's COBRA premiums for one year following such termination.

The foregoing is a summary only and does not purport to be a complete description of all of the terms, provisions, covenants and agreements contained in the Severance Plan and the Transition Agreement and is subject to and qualified in its entirety by reference to the Severance Plan and the exhibits thereto, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10.01 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.
