Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

As previously reported, on October 25, 2017, Cindy M. Sanborn, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, and Fredrik J. Eliasson, Executive Vice President and Chief Sales and Marketing Officer, notified the Board of Directors (the Board) of CSX Corporation (CSX or the Company) of their intention to resign from the Company and from their respective positions with the Company effective November 15, 2017. Additionally, on October 25, 2017, Ellen M. Fitzsimmons, Executive Vice President, Law and Public Affairs, General Counsel and Corporate Secretary, notified the Board of her intention to retire from the Company and resign her positions with the Company effective November 15, 2017.

On November 14, 2017, the Company entered into a Separation Agreement with each of Ms. Sanborn, Mr. Eliasson and Ms. Fitzsimmons. The Separation Agreements provide that each of Ms. Sanborn, Mr. Eliasson and Ms. Fitzsimmons will receive substantially the benefits set forth in the Company's Section 16 Officer Severance Plan, consisting of: (1) a lump sum cash payment equal to two times the employee's then base salary, (2) a lump sum payment of 100% of the employee's target incentive opportunity for the year of separation, (3) credit for an additional three years of age and two years of service for purposes of calculating the employee's pension benefit and (4) pro-rata vesting of the employee's unvested equity awards, with any performance-based awards remaining subject to satisfaction of pre-established performance goals, except that the performance award under the Company's 2017 Management Incentive Compensation Plan will be paid at 200% of the employee's target incentive opportunity; provided, however, that Mr. Eliasson will receive a portion of the payments described above periodically during the year following his separation from the Company rather than in a lump sum. In addition, notwithstanding the effective date of their resignations, each of Ms. Sanborn, Mr. Eliasson and Ms. Fitzsimmons will continue to receive their respective compensation and benefits through February 15, 2018, during which time they will support the Company's management transition.

On November 8, 2017, the Board extended the coverage of the Company's Section 16 Officer Severance Plan through February 22, 2019 for Frank A. Lonegro, the Company's Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. The Severance Plan provides eligible employees with severance payments and benefits in the event that an eligible employee's employment with the Company or one of the Company's subsidiaries is terminated either (a) involuntarily by the Company for any reason other than for cause, or (b) voluntarily by the eligible employee for good reason. As discussed above, the severance payments and benefits to be provided, subject to the employee's execution of a release of claims, are as follows: (1) a lump sum cash payment equal to two times the employee's then base salary, (2) a lump sum payment of one times the employee's target bonus for the year of separation, (3) credit for an additional three years of age and two years of service for purposes of calculating the employee's pension benefit and (4) pro-rata vesting of the employee's unvested equity awards with any performance-based awards remaining subject to satisfaction of pre-established performance goals. Absent such extension, Mr. Lonegro's coverage under the Section 16 Officer Plan would have expired on February 22, 2018.

The above summaries of the Separation Agreements and the Company's Section 16 Officer Severance Plan do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the full text of the Separation Agreement between each of Ms. Sanborn, Mr. Eliasson and Ms. Fitzsimmons and the Company, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibits 10.1, 10.2 and 10.3, and the Company's Section 16 Officer Severance Plan, a copy of which was attached as Exhibit 10.4 to the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on February 27, 2017. Each of the Separation Agreements and the Company's Section 16 Officer Severance Plan are incorporated by reference in this Current Report on Form 8-K.

Item 8.01. Other Events.
