Notice Regarding the Scheduled Delisting of American Depositary Shares ( ADSs ) from the New York Stock Exchange ( NYSE )

NTT DOCOMO, INC. (the Company ) hereby announces that, further to its announcement on April 28, 2016 regarding its intention of delisting from the NYSE, the Company has notified the NYSE on March 19, 2018 (Eastern Time in the U.S.) that it will apply for the voluntary delisting of its ADSs from the NYSE. Please see below for details.

1. Reasons for the Application for Voluntary Delisting of ADSs from the NYSE

The Company listed the ADSs on the NYSE in March 2002 mainly to boost the liquidity of the Company's shares by giving more opportunities to foreign investors and to expand the Company's avenues for procuring funds. Since then, the Company has made efforts to enhance disclosures for shareholders and investors with the goal of deepening their understanding of the Company, in addition to complying with the disclosure requirements of U.S. securities laws and regulations, providing consolidated financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States ( U.S. GAAP ), and establishing internal controls in accordance with the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.

Meanwhile, the external environment has significantly changed as indicated by the increases in trading volume of Japanese stocks through stock exchanges in Japan by overseas investors due to the internationalization of the Japanese financial and capital markets, as well as the narrowing of the gap between U.S. and Japanese disclosure standards with respect to financial reporting due to a series of amendments to Japanese laws and regulations and accounting standards.

In this environment, the Company believes the significance to continue listing on the NYSE has faded, taking into account the fact that the trading volume of its ADSs on the NYSE accounts for only a small fraction of the total trading volume of the Company's shares. Therefore, the Company has decided to apply for voluntary delisting of its ADSs from the NYSE and for termination of registration of its ADSs with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC ) under the U.S. Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act ).

3. Implementation Schedule of Delisting from the NYSE and Termination of Registration with the SEC

Edgar Filing: NTT DOCOMO INC - Form 6-K

March 19, 2018	The Company to provide the NYSE with a written pre-notice of the delisting application
April 2, 2018 (planned)	The Company to file Form 25 with the SEC for delisting from the NYSE and deregistration with the SEC

Table of Contents

April 13, 2018 (planned)	Delisting from the NYSE to become effective and the Company to file Form 15F with the SEC to terminate its reporting obligations under the Exchange Act.
July 2018 (planned)	Deregistration with the SEC to become effective and termination of the Company's reporting obligations under the Exchange Act to become effective.

* The schedule provided above, including the anticipated effective dates, may be delayed if the SEC objects to the delisting, requests an extended review or for other reasons.

4. Future Plans

Even after delisting its ADSs from the NYSE, the Company intends to maintain its American Depositary Receipt program in the United States and anticipates that its ADSs will continue to be traded in the United States on the over-the-counter market.

While the Company's reporting obligations under the Exchange Act (including the obligation to file annual reports on Form 20-F) will be terminated, the Company will continue to disclose financial statements and other information, in English, on the Company's website to ensure that its overseas shareholders and investors will continue to have appropriate information about the Company.

In addition, the Company is considering preparing and disclosing its financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ( IFRS ) beginning with the three months ending June 30, 2018.
