Section 8 – Other Events

Item 8.01. Other Events

On April 25, 2019, a stipulation of dismissal (the “Stipulation of Dismissal”) was filed in the Delaware Court of Chancery in which the parties to two complaints involving TSR, Inc. (the “Company”) and members of the Company’s board of directors (the “Board”) agreed to the dismissal of all claims asserted by and against the parties in those complaints, without prejudice, which does not bar the claims from being re-asserted. Each of the complaints that was the subject of the Stipulation of Dismissal was previously disclosed by the Company.

One of the two complaints that was the subject of the Stipulation of Dismissal was filed by Fintech Consulting, LLC (“Fintech”), a stockholder of the Company, in the Delaware Court of Chancery on November 1, 2018 against the current members of the Board, and purported to be a stockholder derivative lawsuit on behalf of the Company. The complaint sought a declaration that certain anti-takeover measures were invalid, a declaration that no change in control of the Company had occurred for purposes of the Company’s stockholder rights plan or the employment agreement between the Company and Christopher Hughes, the Company’s Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer, unspecified money damages, and attorneys’ fees and costs.

The second of the two complaints that was the subject of the Stipulation of Dismissal was filed by Susan Paskowitz, a stockholder of the Company, in the Delaware Court of Chancery on November 6, 2018 against Fintech, the members of the Board, and the Company as a nominal defendant. Ms. Paskowitz alleged in the complaint that the stockholder rights plan adopted by the Company is reasonable and that the relief that Fintech was seeking in its derivative suit against the Company described in the preceding paragraph was excessive and not in the best interest of the Company’s stockholders. Ms. Paskowitz further alleged in the complaint that the Board’s approval of a change-in-control agreement with Christopher Hughes and an amendment to the Company’s by-laws that eliminated the stockholders’ right to call a special meeting of the stockholders, are unreasonable and were adopted in breach of the Board’s fiduciary duties. Ms. Paskowitz purported to bring the complaint directly, and in the alternative, derivatively on behalf of the Company.

The Stipulation of Dismissal does not have any effect on (1) the complaint previously filed by Ms. Paskowitz on October 16, 2018 in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, Queens County, against the Company, Joseph F. Hughes, Winifred M. Hughes, certain current and former directors of the Company, Zeff Capital, L.P., QAR Industries, Inc. and Fintech, or (2) the complaint filed by the Company on December 21, 2018 in the United States District Court, Southern District of New York, against Zeff Capital, L.P., Zeff Holding Company, LLC, Daniel Zeff, QAR Industries, Inc., Robert Fitzgerald, Fintech d/b/a ApTask, and Tajuddin Haslani, each of which was previously disclosed.
