PROSPECTUS SUMMARY

The following summary is qualified in its entirety by the more detailed information and financial statements including the notes thereto, appearing elsewhere in this prospectus. Because it is a summary, it does not contain all of the information you should consider before investing in our common stock. You should carefully read the entire prospectus including the Risk Factors section and the documents and information incorporated by reference into it.

Corporate Information

Our Company, Unity Wireless Corporation, is a Delaware corporation incorporated on October 1, 1998 (formerly Sonic Systems Corporation). We have four wholly-owned subsidiaries, Unity Wireless Systems Corporation, a British Columbia corporation, Unity Wireless Microwave Systems Ltd., an Israel corporation, Celerica Ltd, a Delaware corporation, and Celletra Inc., an Israel corporation.

Our Business

Unity Wireless is a world-class provider of wireless coverage enhancement solutions for cellular operators and custom subsystems for network infrastructure manufacturers. We maintain a website at www.unitywireless.com. Information contained on our website does not form part of this prospectus.

Number of Shares Outstanding

There were 133,281,975 shares of our common stock issued and outstanding as at January 4, 2007.

The Offering

This prospectus covers the resale by the selling stockholders named in this prospectus of up to 206,607,279 shares of our common stock. The offered shares were acquired by the selling security holders in transactions which were exempt from the registration and prospectus delivery requirements of the Securities Act of 1933. Our expected expenses for registering these securities are approximately $15,000.

There were 133,281,975 shares of our common stock issued and outstanding as at January 4, 2007. In addition, as at January 4, 2007, we had an additional 265,225,876 shares reserved for issuance upon exercise of conversion of outstanding options, warrants, convertible debentures and other convertible securities. Our common stock currently trades on the OTCBB.

The selling stockholders may sell their shares of our common stock at prevailing market prices, privately negotiated prices, or otherwise as stated in the Plan of Distribution. We will not receive any of the proceeds of the shares of common stock offered by the selling stockholders, however we will receive the proceeds from the exercise of warrants.

Summary of Financial Data

SPECIAL NOTE REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Form SB-2 contains forward-looking statements. For this purpose, any statements contained in this Form SB-2 that are not statements of historical fact may be deemed to be forward-looking statements. You can identify forward-looking statements by those that are not historical in nature, particularly those that use terminology such as "may," "will," "should," "expects," "anticipates," "contemplates," "estimates," "believes," "plans," "projected," "predicts," "potential," or "continue" or the negative of these similar terms. In evaluating these forward-looking statements, you should consider various factors, including those listed below under the heading "Risk Factors". The Company's actual results may differ significantly from the results projected in the forward-looking statements. The Company assumes no obligation to update forward-looking statements.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in our common stock involves a number of very significant risks. You should carefully consider the following risks and uncertainties in addition to other information in this prospectus in evaluating our company and its business before purchasing shares of our company's common stock. Our business, operating results and financial condition could be seriously harmed due to any of the following risks. The risks described below are not the only ones facing our company. Additional risks not presently known to us may also impair our business operations. You could lose all or part of your investment due to any of these risks.

Risks Associated with our Business

We have had negative cash flows from operations and if we are not able to obtain further financing our business operations may fail.

To date we have had negative cash flows from operations and we have been dependent on sales of our equity securities and debt financing to meet our cost requirements. As of September 30, 2006, we had working deficiency of $4,753,353. We do not expect positive cash flow from operations in the near term. We may not be able to obtain additional equity or debt financing on acceptable terms when we need it. We have pledged all of our assets to secure convertible notes that we issued in August 2004, February 2005, March 2005, February 2006, and November 2006.

We may conduct offerings in the future in which case your shareholdings will be diluted.

Since our inception, we have relied on equity sales of our common stock to fund our operations. We may conduct further equity offerings in the future to finance our current projects or to finance subsequent projects that we decide to undertake. If common stock is issued in return for additional funds, the price per share could be lower than that paid by our current stockholders. We anticipate continuing to rely on equity sales of our common stock in order to fund our business operations. If we issue additional stock, your percentage interest in us will be diluted. The result of this could reduce the value of your stock.

There is substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern.

We expect to incur operating losses and negative cash flow until our products gain market acceptance sufficient to generate a commercially viable and sustainable level of sales. These circumstances raise substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern, as described in our independent auditors' report on the December 31, 2005 consolidated financial statements. The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of that uncertainty.

We depend on a limited number of customers and if we are unable to diversify our customer base and we lose one or more of these customers, then our revenues may decrease significantly.

We had sales of $4,657,884 for the nine-month ended September 30, 2006. Three customers accounted for 62.32% of sales with one representing 31.13% of sales, another representing 20.56% of sales and another representing 10.63%. No other customer accounted for more than 10% of our sales.

We depend on experienced management and if we are unable to retain or hire such management in the future, then our ability to produce innovative and competitive products could be adversely affected

We depend on the services of our senior management team. The loss of the services of any one of these persons, or an inability to recruit and retain additional qualified personnel, could have a material adverse effect on our business. We have no plans at present to obtain key person life insurance for any of our officers and directors. We are also dependent on highly qualified technical and engineering personnel. If we are unable to retain or hire such management and key technical employees, our ability to generate revenues could be adversely affected, as would our continued business operations. We have not entered into employment or non-competition agreements with our executive officers.

We operate in a highly competitive industry and our failure to compete effectively may adversely affect our ability to generate revenue.

The wireless communications industry is characterized by rapidly evolving technology and intense competition. We may be at a disadvantage to other companies having more technical staff, established market share and greater financial and operational resources. Some of our competitors have achieved greater brand recognition and technologies than we currently enjoy. We may not be able to successfully compete.

We hold no patents on our technology and may not be able to protect our proprietary technology.

Other than a provisional patent application filed in the United States and Israel for our multi-carrier linear amplifier and repeaters, respectively, we do not have any patents on our technology or products. We rely on a combination of copyright, trade secret, trademark and patent laws to protect our proprietary intellectual property.

Unanticipated warranty costs could affect the ongoing demand for our products and our ability to operate profitably.

Our products are relatively new to their respective markets and lack extensive field operating experience. While we have tested our products for failure in certain circumstances, there can be no assurance that our products will continue to operate satisfactorily after sustained field use. If a substantial number of products are returned and accepted for warranty replacement, the cost to us could have a material adverse effect on our business.

We have a significant amount of aged payables and if we are unable to pay such amounts or if a creditor decides to take legal action against us, we may have to scale down or cease the operation of our business.

As at September 30, 2006, we had accounts payable and accrued liabilities of $9,983,795, of which approximately $5,720,916 represented payables to trade creditors. To date, these creditors have been co-operating with us to accept a delayed payment of these outstanding payables. If one or more of these creditors is no longer willing to accept delayed payments and demands immediate payment of any such amounts, then our cash position and our need for further financing may become immediate. If we are unable to raise the funds to pay off such aged payables, then our continued operations may be negatively affected, and we may have to scale down our even cease the operation of our business.

Risks Associated with our Common Stock

Trading of our stock may be restricted by the SEC's penny stock regulations which may limit a stockholder's ability to buy and sell our stock.

The Securities and Exchange Commission has adopted regulations which generally define "penny stock" to be any equity security that has a market price (as defined) less than $5.00 per share or an exercise price of less than $5.00 per share, subject to certain exceptions. Our securities are covered by the penny stock rules, which impose additional sales practice requirements on broker-dealers who sell to persons other than established customers and "accredited investors". These requirements may have the effect of reducing the level of trading activity in the secondary market for the stock that is subject to these penny stock rules. Consequently, these penny stock rules may affect the ability of broker-dealers to trade our securities. We believe that the penny stock rules discourage investor interest in and limit the marketability of our common stock.

Other Risks

Substantially all of our assets and a majority of our directors and officers are outside the United States, with the result that it may be difficult for investors to enforce within the United States any judgments obtained against us or any of our directors or officers.

Substantially all of our assets are located outside the United States and we do not currently maintain a permanent place of business within the United States. In addition, a majority of our directors and officers are nationals and/or residents of countries other than the United States, and all or a substantial portion of such persons' assets are located outside the United States. As a result, it may be difficult for investors to enforce within the United States any judgments obtained against us or our officers or directors, including judgments predicated upon the civil liability provisions of the securities laws of the United States or any state thereof. Consequently, you may be effectively prevented from pursuing remedies under U.S. federal securities laws against them.

USE OF PROCEEDS

We will not receive any of the proceeds from the sale of the shares of our common stock being offered for sale by the selling stockholders. We will, however, receive proceeds upon exercise of the warrants and these proceeds will be used for general working capital purposes. We will incur all costs associated with this registration statement and prospectus.

DETERMINATION OF THE OFFERING PRICE

The selling stockholders may sell their shares of our common stock at prevailing market prices, privately negotiated prices, or otherwise as stated in the Plan of Distribution .

SELLING SECURITY HOLDERS

The table sets forth certain information regarding the beneficial ownership of shares of common stock by the selling stockholders as of November 30, 2006, and the number of shares of common stock covered by this prospectus. All shares offered hereby are being registered pursuant to registration agreements with the Company.

The selling stockholders may offer and sell, from time to time, any or all of the 190,962,834 shares of common stock to be registered. No estimate can be given as to the amount or percentage of these shares of common stock that will be held by the selling stockholders upon termination of the offering.

The table indicates the shares that are offered hereby that are issuable upon conversion of convertible notes, the exercise of warrants issued in private placements, or in lieu of interest on convertible notes. The table also indicates, under the title Shares in the preceding column that are registered hereunder, the shares registered hereby that were issued (i) to settle amounts owed for services; (ii) in lieu of interest on convertible notes, and (iii) upon conversion or exercise of previously registered securities.

We may require the selling security holders to suspend the sales of the securities offered by this prospectus upon the occurrence of any event that makes any statement in this prospectus or the related registration statement untrue in any material respect or that requires the changing of statements in these documents in order to make statements in those documents not misleading.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The selling stockholders may, from time to time, sell all or a portion of the shares of common stock on any market upon which the common stock may be listed or quoted (currently the OTC Bulletin Board), in privately negotiated transactions or otherwise. Such sales may be at fixed prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to the market prices or at negotiated prices. The shares of common stock being offered for resale by this prospectus may be sold by the selling stockholders by one or more of the following methods, without limitation:

block trades in which the broker or dealer so engaged will attempt to sell the shares of common stock as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction; purchases by broker or dealer as principal and resale by the broker or dealer for its account pursuant to this prospectus;

(b)

(c) an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of the applicable exchange;

ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker solicits purchasers;

privately negotiated transactions;

- (f) market sales (both long and short to the extent permitted under the federal securities laws);
- (g) at the market to or through market makers or into an existing market for the shares;
- (h) through transactions in options, swaps or other derivatives (whether exchange listed or otherwise); and
- (i) a combination of any of the aforementioned methods of sale.

In the event of the transfer by any of the selling stockholders of its secured convertible notes, share purchase warrants or shares of common stock to any pledgee, donee or other transferee, we will amend this prospectus and the registration statement of which this prospectus forms a part by the filing of a post-effective amendment in order to have the pledgee, donee or other transferee in place of the selling stockholder who has transferred his, her or its shares.

In effecting sales, brokers and dealers engaged by the selling stockholders may arrange for other brokers or dealers to participate. Brokers or dealers may receive commissions or discounts from a selling stockholder or, if any of the broker-dealers act as an agent for the purchaser of such shares, from a purchaser in amounts to be negotiated which are not expected to exceed those customary in the types of transactions involved. Broker-dealers may agree with a selling stockholder to sell a specified number of the shares of common stock at a stipulated price per share. Such an agreement may also require the broker-dealer to purchase as principal any unsold shares of common stock at the price required to fulfil the broker-dealer commitment to the selling stockholder if such broker-dealer is unable to sell the shares on behalf of the selling stockholder. Broker-dealers who acquire shares of common stock as principal may thereafter resell the shares of common stock from time to time in transactions which may involve block transactions and sales to and through other broker-dealers, including transactions of the nature described above. Such sales by a broker-dealer could be at prices and on terms then prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to the then-current market price or in negotiated transactions. In connection with such resales, the broker-dealer may pay to or receive from the purchasers of the shares commissions as described above.

The selling stockholders and any broker-dealers or agents that participate with the selling stockholders in the sale of the shares of common stock may be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of the Securities Act in connection with these sales. In that event, any commissions received by the broker-dealers or agents and any profit on the resale of the shares of common stock purchased by them may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act.

From time to time, any of the selling stockholders may pledge shares of common stock pursuant to the margin provisions of customer agreements with brokers. Upon a default by a selling stockholder, their broker may offer and sell the pledged shares of common stock from time to time. Upon a sale of the shares of common stock, the selling stockholders intend to comply with the prospectus delivery requirements under the Securities Act by delivering a prospectus to each purchaser in the transaction. We intend to file any amendments or other necessary documents in compliance with the Securities Act which may be required in the event any of the selling stockholders defaults under any customer agreement with brokers.

To the extent required under the Securities Act, a post effective amendment to this registration statement will be filed disclosing the name of any broker-dealers, the number of shares of common stock involved, the price at which the common stock is to be sold, the commissions paid or discounts or concessions allowed to such broker-dealers, where applicable, that such broker-dealers did not conduct any investigation to verify the information set out or incorporated by reference in this prospectus and other facts material to the transaction.

We and the selling stockholders will be subject to applicable provisions of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations under it, including, without limitation, Rule 10b-5 and, insofar as a selling stockholder is a distribution participant and we, under certain circumstances, may be a distribution participant, under Regulation M. All of the foregoing may affect the marketability of the common stock. See below under Regulation M for a discussion on this regulation.

All expenses of the registration statement including, but not limited to, legal, accounting, printing and mailing fees are and will be borne by us. Any commissions, discounts or other fees payable to brokers or dealers in connection with any sale of the shares of common stock will be borne by the selling stockholders, the purchasers participating in such transaction, or both.

Any shares of common stock covered by this prospectus which qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act, as amended, may be sold under Rule 144 rather than pursuant to this prospectus. In general, under Rule 144, any person (or persons whose shares are aggregated) including persons deemed to be affiliates, whose restricted securities have been fully paid for and held for at least one year from the later of the date of issuance by us or acquisition from an affiliate, may sell such securities in broker's transactions or directly to market makers, provided that the number of shares sold in any three-month period may not exceed the greater of one percent of the then-outstanding shares of our common stock or the average weekly trading volume of our shares of common stock in the over-the-counter market during the four calendar weeks preceding the sale. Sales under Rule 144 are also subject to certain notice requirements and the availability of current public information about our company. After two years have elapsed from the later of the issuance of restricted securities by us or their acquisition from an affiliate, such securities may be sold without limitation by persons who are not affiliates under the rule.

Blue Sky Restrictions on Resale

If a selling security holder wants to sell shares of our common stock under this registration statement in the United States, the selling stockholders will need to comply with state securities laws, also known as Blue Sky laws with regard to secondary sales. All states offer a variety of exemptions from registration of secondary sales. Many states, for example, have an exemption for secondary trading of securities registered under Section 12(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or for securities of issuers that publish continuous disclosure of financial and non-financial information in a recognized securities manual, such as Standard & Poor's. The broker for a selling stockholder will be able to advise the stockholder as to which states have an exemption for secondary sales of our common stock.

Any person who purchases shares of our common stock from a selling stockholder pursuant to this prospectus, and who subsequently wants to resell such shares will also have to comply with Blue Sky laws regarding secondary sales.

Regulation M

During such time as we may be engaged in a distribution of any of the shares we are registering by this registration statement, we are required to comply with Regulation M. In general, Regulation M precludes any selling security holder, any affiliated purchasers and any broker-dealer or other person who participates in a distribution from bidding for or purchasing, or attempting to induce any person to bid for or purchase, any security which is the subject of the distribution until the entire distribution is complete. Regulation M defines a distribution as an offering of securities that is distinguished from ordinary trading activities by the magnitude of the offering and the presence of special selling efforts and selling methods. Regulation M also defines a distribution participant as an underwriter, prospective underwriter, broker, dealer, or other person who has agreed to participate or who is participating in a distribution.

Regulation M under the Exchange Act prohibits, with certain exceptions, participants in a distribution from bidding for or purchasing, for an account in which the participant has a beneficial interest, any of the securities that are the subject of the distribution. Regulation M also governs bids and purchases made in order to stabilize the price of a security in connection with a distribution of the security. We have informed the selling shareholders that the anti-manipulation provisions of Regulation M may apply to the sales of their shares offered by this prospectus, and we have also advised the selling shareholders of the requirements for delivery of this prospectus in connection with any sales of the common stock offered by this prospectus.

Penny Stock Rules

The Securities Exchange Commission has also adopted rules that regulate broker-dealer practices in connection with transactions in penny stocks. Penny stocks are generally equity securities with a price of less than $5.00 (other than securities registered on certain national securities exchanges or quoted on the NASDAQ system provided that current price and volume information with respect to transactions in such securities is provided by the exchange or system).

The shares offered by this prospectus constitute penny stock under the Securities and Exchange Act. The shares will remain penny stock for the foreseeable future. The classification of penny stock makes it more difficult for a broker-dealer to sell the stock into a secondary market, which makes it more difficult for a purchaser to liquidate his or her investment. Any broker-dealer engaged by the purchaser for the purpose of selling his or her shares in our company will be subject to the penny stock rules.

The penny stock rules require a broker-dealer, prior to a transaction in a penny stock not otherwise exempt from those rules, deliver a standardized risk disclosure document prepared by the Commission, which:

- contains a description of the nature and level of risk in the market for penny stocks in both public offerings and secondary trading;
- contains a description of the broker's or dealer's duties to the customer and of the rights and remedies available to the customer with respect to a violation to such duties or other requirements;
- contains a brief, clear, narrative description of a dealer market, including bid and ask prices for penny stocks and the significance of the spread between the bid and ask price;
- contains a toll-free telephone number for inquiries on disciplinary actions;
- defines significant terms in the disclosure document or in the conduct of trading penny stocks; and
- contains such other information and is in such form (including language, type, size, and format) as the Commission shall require by rule or regulation.

The broker-dealer also must provide, prior to effecting any transaction in a penny stock, the customer:

- with bid and offer quotations for the penny stock;
- the compensation of the broker-dealer and its salesperson in the transaction;
- the number of shares to which such bid and ask prices apply, or other comparable information relating to the depth and liquidity of the market for such stock; and
- monthly account statements showing the market value of each penny stock held in the customer's account.

In addition, the penny stock rules require that prior to a transaction in a penny stock not otherwise exempt from those rules; the broker-dealer must make a special written determination that the penny stock is a suitable investment for the purchaser and receive the purchaser's written acknowledgment of the receipt of a risk disclosure statement, a written agreement to transactions involving penny stocks, and a signed and dated copy of a written suitability statement. These disclosure requirements will have the effect of reducing the trading activity in the secondary market for our stock because it will be subject to these penny stock rules. Therefore, stockholders may have difficulty selling those securities.

Canadian Resale Restrictions

As our principal executive offices are located in British Columbia, Canada, distributions of our securities are subject to the securities laws of British Columbia and Canada. In addition, we are a reporting with the Securities commissions of the Provinces of British Columbia and Alberta. Under Canadian provincial laws, most securities distributed by a company that is reporting under the securities laws of a province, are subject to a hold period of four months from the date of issuance. In the case of securities that are exercisable or convertible into common stock, the underlying common stock has the same hold period as the original security. Accordingly, unless the hold period does not apply, selling shareholders that have not held their securities for at least four months may not lawfully resell those securities into Canada until expiry of the four month hold period. Where the four month hold period is applicable and not expired, we may place a legend denoting the hold period on the certificate representing common stock acquired by a selling shareholder on exercise or conversion of warrants or convertible debt.

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

Other than as set forth below, we know of no material, active or pending legal proceedings against our company, nor are we involved as a plaintiff in any material proceeding or pending litigation. There are no proceedings in which any of our directors, officers or affiliates, or any registered or beneficial shareholder, is an adverse party or has a material interest adverse to our interest.

The Corporation is currently a party to two actions in the Supreme Court of British Columbia, Vancouver Registry, brought by two different suppliers of the Corporation for approximately $400,000 in total. We dispute the allegations and are defending the claim and filed a counterclaim. No trial date has been set. The matter is at a very preliminary stage. It is the opinion of management, based in part on advice of legal counsel, that the ultimate resolution of these contingencies, to the extent not previously provided for, will not have a material adverse effect on the financial condition of the Corporation.

David Goldschmidt, a director of the Company, is the General Partner of Valley Venture Capital L.P. and in this capacity exercises voting rights on behalf of the fund.

DESCRIPTION OF SECURITIES

We are authorized to issue 400,000,000 shares of common stock $0.001 par value and up to 5,000,000 shares of preferred stock on such terms as the Board may determine. As at November 30, 2006, we had 127,170,864 shares of common stock outstanding and 90,000 Series B convertible non-redeemable preferred shares. Each share of the Series B preferred stock is convertible into 1,000 shares of common stock and will be automatically converted into 1,000 shares of common stock on the earlier of the election of the holder or 30 days following the Corporation's second annual general meeting.

Each outstanding share of common stock is entitled to one vote on all matters submitted to a vote of stockholders. There are no cumulative voting rights. All outstanding shares of our common stock are duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable.

The holders of outstanding shares of common stock are entitled to receive dividends out of assets legally available at such times and in such amounts as our Board of Directors may from time to time determine. Holders of common stock will share equally on a per share basis in any dividend declared by the Board of Directors. We have not paid any dividends on our common stock and do not anticipate paying any cash dividends on such stock in the foreseeable future. We have not declared any dividends since incorporation and do not anticipate that we will do so in the foreseeable future. We are restricted from declaring dividends on our common shares pursuant to a Convertible Note and Warrant Purchase Agreements dated August 31, 2004, February 11, 2005, March 24, 2005, February 28, 2006, and December 13, 2006 for so long as any of these issued convertible notes are outstanding.

In the event of a merger or consolidation, all holders of common stock will be entitled to receive the same per share consideration.

The preferred shares could, in certain instances, render more difficult or discourage a merger, tender offer, or proxy contest and thus potentially have an "anti-takeover" effect, especially if preferred shares were issued in response to a potential takeover. In addition, issuances of authorized preferred shares can be implemented, and have been implemented by some companies in recent years, with voting or conversion privileges intended to make acquisition of the corporation more difficult or more costly. Such an issuance could deter the types of transactions which may be proposed or could discourage or limit the stockholders' participation in certain types of transactions that might be proposed (such as a tender offer), whether or not such transactions were favored by the majority of the stockholders, and could enhance the ability of officers and directors to retain their positions.

INTEREST OF NAMED EXPERTS AND COUNSEL

No expert or counsel named in this prospectus as having prepared or certified any part of this prospectus or having given an opinion upon the validity of the securities being registered or upon other legal matters in connection with the registration or offering of the common stock was employed on a contingency basis or had, or is to receive, in connection with the offering, a substantial interest, directly or indirectly, in the registrant or any of its parents or subsidiaries. Nor was any such person connected with the registrant or any of its parents, subsidiaries as a promoter, managing or principal underwriter, voting trustee, director, officer or employee.

This prospectus and registration statement contains consolidated financial statements as at September 30, 2006 for the three and nine-months ended September 30, 2006 and 2005 that have not been audited. The consolidated financial statements as at December 31, 2005 and 2004 and for the years then ended that are contained in this prospectus and registration statement have been audited by KPMG LLP, independent registered public accounting firm as set forth in their report accompanying the consolidated financial statements and have been included herein in reliance upon such report, and upon the authority of said firm as experts in accounting and auditing. The audit report covering the December 31, 2005 consolidated financial statements contains an explanatory paragraph that states our recurring losses from operations raise substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern. The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of that uncertainty.

Morton and Company provided the opinion attached hereto as Exhibit 5.1 stating that the securities being sold pursuant to the Registration Statement are duly authorized and will be, when issued in the manner described in the Registration Statement, legally and validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable.

LEGAL MATTERS

The validity of the shares of common stock being offered hereby was passed upon for us by Morton & Company.

DISCLOSURE OF COMMISSION POSITION OF INDEMNIFICATION FOR SECURITIES ACT LIABILITIES

Our bylaws provide that directors and officers shall be indemnified by us to the fullest extent authorized by the Delaware General Corporation Law, against all expenses and liabilities reasonably incurred in connection with services for us or on our behalf.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 (the "Act") may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the small business issuer pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the small business issuer has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.

Business Development

Unity Wireless Corporation was incorporated in the State of Delaware on October 1, 1998 under the name Sonic Systems Corporation. Sonic Systems Corporation changed its name to Unity Wireless Corporation on July 17, 2000.

During the period from December 1998 until June 2001 we were engaged in the traffic control business. In November 2000 we entered the business of designing, developing and manufacturing RF (Radio Frequency) power amplifiers for the wireless network infrastructure industry. During 2001, we focused on developing new products and expanding our marketing, sales and global distribution network. Since 2003, we have focused on securing development projects and supply agreements with customers and prospective customers, and on developing new RF power amplifiers and related products.

On June 8, 2006, the Corporation through its wholly owned subsidiary, Unity Wireless Microwave Systems Ltd. (UW Microwave) acquired Avantry Ltd. (Avantry) pursuant to the terms of a merger agreement dated February 15, 2006 (Merger Agreement). Avantry is in the business of offering a comprehensive transmission product line of integrated microwave radio and optical transport systems for carrying flexible combinations of voice and data traffic. The Corporation acquired Avantry in order to obtain a complementary set of products to the Corporation. Under the term of the Merger Agreement, Unity Wireless Corporation acquired the net assets of Avantry in exchange for $1,750,000 of convertible promissory notes that are convertible into common stock at $0.25 per shares and warrants to purchase an aggregate of 600,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $0.40. The convertible promissory notes and related warrants have been valued at their fair value of $1,755,147.

On July 3, 2006, the Corporation through its wholly owned subsidiary, Unity Wireless Acquisition Corporation (UW Acquisition) acquired Celerica Inc. (Celerica). Celerica specializes in extending RF coverage and optimizing network capacity distribution of mobile communications in urban, suburban and rural areas, using optical wireless, fiber optics and microwave technology. Under the terms of the merger agreement, the Corporation acquired the net assets of Celerica in exchange for 20,000 shares of Series A convertible non-redeemable preferred shares. The preferred shares have been valued at a fair value of $2,000,000 based on multiplying the Corporation's common shares market price as of the closing date of the acquisition by the number of common stock issuable upon conversion.

On August 17, 2006, the Corporation acquired Celletra Ltd. (Celletra). Celletra specializes in technology that provides wireless operators with solutions to achieve optimal coverage and to improve coverage and capacity of existing cells. Under the terms of the purchase agreement, the Corporation acquired the net assets of Celletra in exchange for 70,000 shares of Series B convertible non-redeemable preferred shares and contingent consideration of 20,000 shares of Series B convertible non-redeemable preferred shares and warrants to purchase 40,000,000 shares of common stock at a prices between $0.20 and $0.30 expiring August 17, 2009 (or 40,000 shares of Series B Convertible Shares should there not be sufficient authorized shares of common stock). The contingent consideration is payable upon Celletra achieving revenues from January 1, 2006 to June 30, 2006 and binding purchase orders as of June 30, 2006 of not less than $6,400,000. On the acquisition date, the contingent consideration criteria had been met and the contingent consideration was issued.

Our Current Business

Principal Products

Unity Wireless products are divided into two main lines. The first is Coverage Enhancement Solutions (CES), such as repeaters, and tower mounted amplifiers, that are utilized by Wireless Network Operators to extend coverage and manipulate capacity so that their overall network performance is enhanced in the most cost effective manner. The second area of Unity's business is supplying high power amplifiers (HPA) and related subsystems to the large Original Equipment Manufacturers (OEM) of base transceiver stations (BTS or base stations). Base stations are the main radio system in any wireless network and Unity has developed over 40 HPA models that are used in cellular, personal communication services (PCS), paging, wireless local loop (WLL) and third generation (3G) BTSs. Almost all of our products are custom made or are adapted for each customer's particular requirements.

Substantially all of our long-lived assets and principal business operations are located in British Columbia, Canada and Yokne am, Israel. Revenues from operations were approximately $4,657,884 in the nine-month ended September 30, 2006 and $4,634,158 in the nine-month ended September 30, 2005. A summary of sales by geographic region for the nine-month ended September 30, 2006 and 2005 is as follows:

Place	Nine Months Ended September 30, 2006 (in thousands)	% of Total Period Sales	Nine Months Ended September 30, 2005 (in thousands)	% of Total Period Sales

Product Research and Development

During the nine-month ended September 30, 2006 and 2005, we spent $1,615,568 and $1,642,193, respectively, on research and development activities, including stock-based compensation expenses of $51,469 and $46,285, respectively.

In the most recent two years, we have augmented our research and development capabilities by adding experienced hardware and software engineers to our product development team. We devote a large portion of our research and development resources towards next generation products and towards developing products for customers that we consider to have long-term revenue and growth potential.

Sales and Marketing of Our Products

Our principal customers include both direct sales to operators of wireless networks and sales to the original equipment manufacturers (OEMs) which sell their products to operators of wireless networks.

We sell our products through independent sales agents who are paid on a commission basis and through sales individuals who are employed on a full time basis. We seek to identify and engage sales representatives who will sell our products in additional markets.

Our sales to date have been by way of purchase orders that typically cover periods ranging from several months to one year. We have no sales agreements that extend beyond one year.

Manufacturing and Suppliers

We subcontract a portion of our manufacturing processes to qualified companies with a history of quality assurance. This reduces the need for capital expenditures for manufacturing facilities and staff, and allows us to utilize specialists in each stage of manufacturing. Alternate contract manufacturers are available should any of our existing contract manufacturers cease to provide services to us.

The process to assemble, test and tune many of our current products is labor intensive. We assemble, configure, tune and test our products and radio frequency circuitry in our facilities located in Burnaby, British Columbia, and Yokne'am, Israel, for low volume production orders. We rely on contract manufacturers in Canada and our facility in China for our high volume production orders.

The principal raw materials used in the production of our products are mostly standard electronic, plastic and hardware components. We have from time to time experienced difficulties in obtaining raw materials and we reduce supply risk by using alternate suppliers.

Our arrangements with suppliers are on a short-term basis. To date we have not entered into any long-term arrangements.

Competition and Competitive Advantage

Within our market, there are two dominant companies and a number of smaller ones. The dominant companies -- Powerwave and Andrew -- collectively represent a significant portion of sales. These companies are vertically integrated suppliers of RF power amplifiers, components, antenna systems, primarily to customers in the telecom and defense industries, and supply the largest OEM vendors in our industry.

To compete, we focus on specific niches within the wireless network infrastructure, seek to enter into partnerships with leading edge technology vendors, and maintain a low overhead / outsourced manufacturing model. We believe our size, infrastructure technology and location allow us to provide our customers with economically attractive and timely responses to their individual requests.

Intellectual Property

We rely on a combination of trademarks and trade secrets to protect our intellectual property. We execute confidentiality and non-disclosure agreements with our management and engineering employees and limit access to our proprietary information.

Trade-Marks

We use the trade-mark "Unity Wireless," which is registered in Canada. We intend to register the "Unity Wireless" trade-mark in the U.S. and other countries.

Service and Product Warranty

We offer a standard warranty of one year on parts and labor from date of shipment and on occasion offer a warranty period of up to two years. We repair units under warranty at our cost and return the units freight prepaid back to the customer. We generally warranty a repaired unit for the remainder of the original warranty period or for one year from the repair date, whichever is longer.

Our warranties specifically exclude all liabilities for "special, incidental, direct, indirect, or consequential damages or expenses whatsoever" arising from the functioning or use of, or inability to use, the warranted products. No warranties are made in the event that product has been improperly installed, subjected to abuse or negligence, or tampered with. Consumer protection and other laws may limit our ability to limit our liability or to exclude certain types of damages.

Government Regulation

Our products are sold as components that form part of larger systems. The manufacturer or integrator of the systems must test them for compliance with Federal Communications Commission (FCC) standards to avoid radio frequency emissions that could interfere with other radio frequency transmissions or similar regulatory standards in other countries. We do not test our amplifier products for compliance at the component level. Nonetheless, if a system in which our amplifiers are included fails to satisfy applicable standards, whether due to emissions from our amplifiers or other causes, sales of our amplifiers would be adversely affected.

Significant Customers

We had sales of $4,657,884 for the nine-month ended September 30, 2006. Three customers accounted for 62.32% of sales with one representing 31.13% of sales, another representing 20.56% of sales and another representing 10.63%. No other customer accounted for more than 10% of our sales.

Employees

We currently employ 70 people, of which all are employed on a full-time basis.

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR PLAN OF OPERATION

The following discussion of the financial condition, changes in financial condition, and results of operations of Unity Wireless Corporation should be read in conjunction with our most recent financial statements and notes appearing: (1) the Form 10-QSB for the three and nine months ended September 30, 2006; and (2) the Form 10-KSB for the year ended December 31, 2005, which were filed on November 15, 2006 and March 31, 2006, respectively. The following discussion contains forward-looking statements that reflect our plans, estimates and beliefs. Our actual results could differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements. Factors that could cause or contribute to such differences include, but are not limited to, those discussed below and elsewhere in this registration statement, particularly in the section entitled "Risk Factors" beginning on page of this prospectus

Our consolidated financial statements are stated in United States Dollars and are prepared in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles.

Results of Operations

Three months Ended September 30, 2006 and September 30, 2005

Sales

Net sales in the third quarter of 2006 were $1,517,857, an increase of 59.82% or $568,157, from $949,700 in the third quarter of 2005. This increase was primarily due to revenues recorded from the acquired businesses.

Cost of Goods Sold and Operating Expenses

Cost of goods sold in the third quarter of 2006 was $1,098,499 resulting in a gross margin of $419,358 or 27.63% of net sales, compared to $747,835 in the third quarter of 2005 resulting in a gross margin of $201,865, or 21.26% of net sales. The increase in gross margin percentage is primarily the result of the reduced component pricing as our level of component purchases has increased due to increased business activity and cost reductions associated with our China facility which is increasingly performing final assembly for the Company's products. Cost of goods sold includes stock-based compensation expense of $4,151 in the third quarter of 2006 versus $6,165 in the third quarter of 2005.

Research and development expenses in the third quarter of 2006 were $723,935, an increase of $330,191 or 83.86%, from $393,744 in the third quarter of 2005. This change was primarily the result of decreased expenses due to additional processes established around the development of new products which has resulted in more effective use of materials and improved labor utilization which was offset by additional expenses related to the acquired businesses.

Research and development expense includes stock-based compensation expense of $11,791 in the third quarter of 2006 versus $9,001 in the third quarter of 2005.

Sales and marketing expenses in the third quarter of 2006 were $544,031, an increase of $409,458, or 304.26%, from $134,573 in the third quarter of 2005. This increase was primarily to the result of additional sales initiatives that include additional sales personnel on staff, increased travel expenses to visit new customers and additional expenses relating to the acquired businesses. Sales and marketing expenses include stock-based compensation expense of $13,820 in the third quarter of 2006 versus the expenses of $9,091 in the third quarter of 2005.

Exchange loss (gain) in the third quarter of 2006 was $5,520, an increase of $12,429, from ($6,909) in the third quarter of 2005 due to fluctuations in the currency exchange rate between the U.S. and Canada.

Interest expense for the third quarter of 2006 was $184,172, an increase of $111,334, from $72,838 in the third quarter of 2005. This increase was primarily to the result of the increase in interest payable to note holders of the convertible debenture issued in February of 2006.

General and administrative expenses in the third quarter of 2006 were $749,708, an increase of $334,319 or 80.48%, from $415,389 in the third quarter of 2005. This increase was primarily the result of the additional expenses relating to the acquired businesses. General and administrative expenses include stock-based compensation expense of $63,460 in the third quarter of 2006 versus $113,393 in the third quarter of 2005.

Accretion of interest and loss on debt settlement for the third quarter of 2006 were $62,829, a decrease of $53,148, compared to $115,977 in the third quarter of 2005. This decrease was primarily due to the result of the modification of the terms of the debentures which were issued in August 2004 and February 2005. The modification of the terms was made on February 28, 2006.

Fair value adjustment on warrants and conversion feature liability of ($54,290) relates to fair value adjustments for the conversion feature and warrants related to convertible debenture financing of $2,200,000, in the amount of $14,118, and to the 40,000,000 warrants issued related to a fair value adjustment relating to the acquisition of Celletra Ltd., in the amount of ($68,408).

Loss in the third quarter of 2006 was $2,349,095, an increase of $1,331,557, or 130.86%, from a loss of $1,017,538 in the third quarter of 2005. The increase was primarily a result of the acquisitions completed in the third quarter of 2006.

Nine months Ended September 30, 2006 and September 30, 2005

Sales

Net sales in the nine month period ended of 2006 were $4,657,884, an increase of 0.51% or $23,726, from $4,634,158 in the nine month period ended of 2005.

Cost of Goods Sold and Operating Expenses

Cost of goods sold during the nine month period ended period of 2006 was $3,577,474 resulting in a gross margin of $1,080,410 or 23.20% of net sales, compared to $3,594,544 in the nine month period ended of 2005 resulting in a gross margin of $1,039,614, or 22.43% of net sales. Cost of goods sold includes stock-based compensation expense of $15,562 in the nine month period ended of 2006 versus $18,153 in the nine month period ended of 2005.

Research and development expenses in the nine month period ended of 2006 were $1,615,568, a decrease of $26,625 or 1.62%, from $1,642,193 in the nine month period ended of 2005. This change was primarily the result of decreased expenses due to additional processes established around the development of new products which has resulted in more effective use of materials and improved labor utilization which was offset by additional expenses related to the acquired businesses. Research and development expense includes stock-based compensation expense of $51,469 in the nine month period ended of 2006 versus $46,285 in the nine month period ended of 2005.

Sales and marketing expenses in the nine month period ended of 2006 were $999,098, an increase of $602,251, or 151.76%, from $396,847 in the nine month period ended of 2005. This increase was primarily to the result of additional sales initiatives that include additional sales personnel on staff, increased travel expenses to visit new customers and additional expenses relating to the acquired businesses. Sales and marketing expenses include stock-based compensation expense (recovery) of $42,996 in the nine month period ended of 2006 versus ($30,368) in the nine month period ended of 2005.

Exchange loss in the nine month period ended of 2006 was $55,046, an increase of $19,917, from $35,129 in the nine month period ended of 2005 due to fluctuations in the currency exchange rate between the U.S. and Canada.

Interest expense for the nine month period ended of 2006 increased by $181,408 to $385,285 from $203,877 in the nine month period ended of 2005. This increase was primarily to the result of the increase in interest payable to note holders of the convertible debenture issued in February of 2006.

General and administrative expenses in the nine month period ended of 2006 were $1,639,916, an increase of $271,399, or 19.83%, from $1,368,517 in the nine month period ended of 2005. This increase was primarily the result of the additional expenses relating to the acquired businesses.. General and administrative expenses include stock-based compensation expense of $232,047 in the nine month period ended of 2006 versus $506,705 in the nine month period ended of 2005.

Accretion of interest and loss on debt settlement for the nine month period ended of 2006 were $1,681,178, an increase of $969,980, compared to $711,198 in the nine month period ended of 2005. This increase was primarily the result of the interest accretion in relation to convertible debentures issued since August 2004 and loss on debt settlement related to modifications to the terms of the debentures which were issued in August 2004 and February 2005.

Fair value adjustment on warrants and conversion feature liability of $591,424 relates to fair value adjustments for the conversion feature and warrants related to convertible debenture financing of $2,200,000, in the amount of $659,831, and to the 40,000,000 warrants issued related to a fair value adjustment relating to the acquisition of Cellertra Ltd., in the amount of ($68,408).

Loss in the nine month period ended of 2006 increased by 50.18%, or $1,786,922, to $5,348,039, from $3,561,117 in the nine month period ended of 2005. The increase was primarily a result of the acquisitions completed in the third quarter of 2006.

Years Ended December 31, 2005 and 2004

Sales

Net sales in 2005 were $4,905,579, a decrease of $114,981 or 2.29%, from net sales of $5,020,560 in 2004. This decrease was primarily due to fluctuations in the delivery of our production volume projects.

Cost of Goods Sold and Operating Expenses

Cost of goods sold during 2005 was $3,792,999, a decrease of $411,336 or 9.78%, from $4,204,335 in 2004. Cost of goods sold includes stock-based compensation expenses of $27,265 in 2005 versus $18,835 in 2004.

The gross margin for the year ended December 31, 2005 of $1,112,580 or 22.68% of net sales represented an increase from a gross margin of $816,225 or 16.26% of net sales for the year ended December 31, 2004. This primarily reflects lower per unit purchase costs of product components because of increased purchase volumes, as well as more efficient production processes.

Research and development expenses for the year ended December 31, 2005 were $2,631,598, an increase of $1,401,189 or 113.88%, from $1,230,409 for the year ended December 31, 2004. This increase was primarily due to a substantial increase in the number of research and development projects in 2005. The Stock-based compensation expense for research and development was $57,059 in 2005 versus $38,385 in 2004.

Sales and marketing expenses for the year ended December 31, 2005 were $615,953, an increase of $56,768 or 10.15%, from $559,185 for the year ended December 31, 2004. The increase primarily reflects the engagement of additional sales personnel, increased travel expenses to visit new customers and additional trade show exhibition expenses. Sales and marketing expenses include stock-based compensation recovery of $16,520 in 2005 versus an expense at $63,430 in 2004.

Depreciation and amortization expenses for the year ended December 31, 2005 were $266,267, an increase of $193,671 or 266.78% from $72,596 in 2004. The increase is primarily due to an increase in depreciable assets leased under capital leases.

Exchange loss for 2005 was $103,681, a decrease $78,869 or 43.2%, from $182,550 for the year ended 2004. The increase was due to the fluctuations in the currency exchange rate between the U.S. and Canada.

Interest expenses for 2005 were $276,993, an increase of 197,288 or 247.52%, from $79,705 in 2004. The increase was primarily due to the increase in interest payable on convertible debenture issued in August of 2004 and the first quarter of 2005.

General and administrative expenses for 2005 were $1,805,067, an increase of $124,627 or 7.42%, from $1,680,440 in 2004. General and administrative expenses include stock-based compensation expense of $590,014 in 2005 versus $685,552 for 2004.

Accretions of interest and debt settlement expenses for 2005 were $888,467, an increase of $619,304 or 230.09% from $269,163 in 2004. This increase reflects the issuance of convertible debentures in August of 2004 and the first quarter of 2005.

Other earnings in 2005 were $nil, a decrease of $14,133 from 2004.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Since our inception, we have been dependent on investment capital and debt financing as our primary sources of liquidity. We had an accumulated deficit at September 30, 2006 of $32,620,525. During the nine-month period ended September 30, 2006, we incurred a net loss, after stock-based compensation, of $5,348,039.

During the nine-month period ended September 30, 2006, our cash position was increased by $652,236. This increase was primarily due to convertible debentures issued in the period and cash acquired as part of the acquisitions of Avantry, Cellastra and Celerica. The primary use of cash was for our continued operations.

During the nine-month period ended September 30, 2006, the Corporation issued 2,925,479 common shares in settlement of $342,642 of accounts payable, 555,555 common shares upon exercise of warrants for cash proceeds of $72,222, and 200,000 common shares upon exercise of options for cash proceeds of $34,000.

During the nine-month period ended September 30, 2006, we purchased $8,574 in equipment.

Other than leases for premises, leased vehicles and equipment commitments for an aggregate of $1,121,724 through 2009, we have no material commitments outstanding at September 30, 2006.

Our capital requirements are difficult to plan in light of our current strategy to expand our customer base and to develop new products and technologies. We do not expect positive cash flow from operations in the near term. We may not be able to obtain additional equity or debt financing on acceptable terms when we need it. We have pledged all of our assets to secure convertible notes that we issued in August 2004, February 2005, March 2005 and February 2006. We may be required to obtain the consent of certain of our investors prior to the issuance of our common stock or common stock equivalents and prior to entering into an agreement to assume certain liabilities. Our operations to date have been primarily financed by sales of our equity securities and debt financing. We are restricted from declaring dividends on our common shares pursuant to Convertible Note and Warrant Purchase Agreements dated August 31, 2004, February 11, 2005, March 24, 2005 and February 28, 2006 for so long as any of these issued convertible notes are outstanding. As of September 30, 2006, we had working deficit of $4,753,353. Our operations presently are generating negative cash flow, and we do not expect positive cash flow from operations in the near term.

Our ability to continue as a going concern is dependent upon obtaining further financing, successful and sufficient market acceptance of our current products and any new product offerings that we may introduce, the continuing successful development of our products and related technologies, and, finally, achieving a profitable level of operations. The issuance of additional equity securities by us could result in a significant dilution in the equity interests of our current stockholders. Obtaining commercial loans, assuming those loans would be available, will increase our liabilities and future cash commitments.

Due to the uncertainty of our ability to meet our current operating and capital expenses, in their report on the annual consolidated financial statements for 2005, our independent auditors included an explanatory paragraph regarding concerns about our ability to continue as a going concern. Our consolidated financial statements contain additional note disclosures describing the circumstances that lead to this disclosure by our independent auditors.

Business Combination

a) On June 8, 2006, the Company completed the merger by and among the Company, Unity Wireless Microwave Systems Ltd. (UW Microwave), an Israeli corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company, and Avantry Ltd. (Avantry), pursuant to the terms of a merger agreement entered into by and among the parties effective February 15, 2006 (Merger Agreement). Under the term of the Merger Agreement, Unity Wireless Corporation acquired all of the assets of Avantry in exchange for $1,750,000 of convertible promissory notes that are convertible into common stock at $0.25 per shares and warrants to purchase an aggregate of 600,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $0.40.

Avantry offers a comprehensive transmission product line of integrated microwave radio and optical transport systems for carrying flexible combinations of voice and data traffic. Avantry s product line offering includes:

- Radio Ring IP A point-to-point high capacity microwave radio with integrated SDH ADM and Ethernet Switching technologies.

- WitLink A point-to-point low to medium capacity microwave radio for carrying PDH voice and Ethernet traffic.

Optisky A new generation of SDH optical access system integrating voice and data for the Metropolitan Area Network (MAN).

The high technology industry, in which Avantry is involved, is highly competitive and is characterized by the risks of rapidly changing technologies as well as penetration into world market required investment of considerable resources and continuous development efforts. Avantry's future success is dependent upon several factors including the technological quality and price / performance of its products relative to those of its competitors. There can be no assurance that Avantry will be able to maintain the high technological quality of its product or to continue to develop or market its new products effectively.

b) On July 3, 2006, the Company completed the merger pursuant to the terms of a merger agreement. Under the term of the Celerica Agreement, the Company acquired the net assets of Celerica in exchange for 20,000 shares of Series A convertible non-redeemable preferred shares. Each share of the Series A preferred stock will automatically convert into 1,000 shares of common stock. The preferred shares have been initially valued at a fair value of $2,000,000 based on multiplying the stock price as of the date of the agreement by the number of common stock that the preferred stock is convertible into.

Celerica specializes in extending RF coverage and optimizing network capacity distribution of mobile communications in urban, suburban and rural areas, using optical wireless, fiber optics and microwave technology.

c) On August 17, 2006, the Company completed the purchase pursuant to the terms of a purchase agreement. Under the term of the Celletra Agreement, the Company acquired the net assets of Celletra in exchange for 90,000 shares of Series B convertible non-redeemable preferred shares and warrants to purchase 40,000,000 shares of common stock (or 40,000 shares of Series B Convertible Shares should there not be sufficient authorized shares of common stock). Each share of the Series B preferred stock will automatically convert into 1,000 shares of common stock. The preferred shares have been initially valued at a fair value of $9,000,000 based on multiplying the stock price as of the date of the agreement and the closing date by the number of non contingent and contingent common stock, respectively, which the preferred stock is convertible into. The warrants have been initially valued at a fair value of $2,026,533 calculated using the Black-Scholes valuation model.

Celletra specializes in technology that provides wireless operators with solutions to achieve optimal coverage and to improve coverage and capacity of existing cells.

Inflation

We do not believe that inflation has had a significant impact on our consolidated results of operations or financial condition. There is no seasonal aspects material to the Company's business.

Application of Critical Accounting Policies

Our consolidated financial statements and accompanying notes are prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States. Preparing financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenue, and expenses. These estimates and assumptions are affected by management's application of accounting policies. We believe that understanding the basis and nature of the estimates and assumptions involved with the following aspects of our consolidated financial statements is critical to an understanding of our financials.

Our consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the going concern basis, which assumes the realization of assets and liquidation of liabilities in the normal course of operations. The continuation as a going concern for the foreseeable future is dependent upon the identification and successful completion of additional debt or equity financing or the generation of positive cash flows from operating activities. Our ability to raise financing is, in part, based on market conditions that are outside of our control. If we are not able to continue as a going concern, we would likely not be able to realize on our assets at values comparable to the carrying value or the fair value estimates reflected in the balances set out in the preparation of the consolidated financial statements. Based on the carrying value of assets at December 31, 2005, the inability to continue as a going concern would require liquidation of assets not in the normal course that would primarily impact inventory, equipment and goodwill's recoverable amounts.

Inventory is carried at the lower of cost, determined on an average cost method, and market. Market is considered to be replacement cost for raw materials and net realizable value for work in progress and finished goods. The cost of work in progress and finished goods includes the cost of raw material, direct labour, and an appropriate allocation of related overhead. We provide an allowance that we consider to be reasonable for its non-moving or slow moving inventory items and for items with expected future realizable value lower than cost. Changes in customer demands and requirements in the short term could reduce product demand and prices having a material impact on future realizable value of inventory.

Equipment is recorded at cost less accumulated depreciation. We review these assets for impairments when events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of an asset to future net cash flows expected to be generated by the asset. As actual future net cash flows are uncertain, the estimation process requires us to make reasonable assumptions about future economic trends and events. These trends and events are substantially outside of our control. To the extent that the expected future cash flows generated by the asset are reduced, we may be required to record an impairment charge against the carrying value of the equipment.

Goodwill is the residual amount that results when the purchase price of an acquired business exceeds the sum of the amounts allocated to the identifiable assets acquired, less liabilities assumed, based on their fair values. Goodwill is allocated as of the date of the business combination to our reporting units that are expected to benefit from the synergies of the business combination. Goodwill is not amortized and is tested for impairment annually or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the goodwill might be impaired. The impairment test is carried out in two steps. In the first step, the carrying amount of the reporting unit is compared with its fair value. When the fair value of a reporting unit exceeds its carrying amount, goodwill of the reporting unit is considered not to be impaired and the second step of impairment test is unnecessary. The second step is carried out when the carrying amount of a reporting unit exceeds its fair value, in which case the implied fair value of the reporting unit's goodwill is compared with its carrying amount to measure the amount of the impairment loss, if any. The implied fair value of the reporting unit's goodwill is determined in the same manner as the value of goodwill is determined in a business combination described in the preceding paragraph, using the fair value of the reporting unit as if it was the purchase price. When the carrying amount of a reporting unit exceeds the implied fair value of the goodwill, an impairment loss is recognized in an amount equal to the excess and is presented as a separate line item in the earnings statement before extraordinary items and discontinued operations. We consider ourselves to operate as a single reporting unit. Fair value of the reporting unit is measured by reference to such factors as estimated future cash flows and the market value of our common shares. Changes in these factors could impact future impairment conclusions.

On an ongoing basis, we record our best estimate of our warranty obligations related to products sold. A liability for estimated warranty expense is established by a charge against costs of goods sold at the time revenue is recognized as the products are sold. These estimates are made after the consideration of contractual warranty obligations and historical experience. The subsequent actual costs incurred for warranty claims serve to reduce the product warranty liability that we have estimated. Unforeseen events, including increased technological difficulties with products, could occur that have not been anticipated in estimating the warranty provision. Additional costs or estimates will be recognized as determinable.

We recognize revenue when criteria specified in generally accepted accounting principles have been met. Specifically, revenue from products is recognized once a sale arrangement exists, delivery has occurred, the revenue is determinable and collectability is reasonably assured, which is upon the later of shipment or when title passes to the customer depending on the contractual terms. We do not enter into sales arrangements having post contract customer support or rights of return. We record deferred revenue when cash is received in advance of the revenue recognition criteria (discussed above) being met. Although we have no current intention of doing so, changes in our business model could impact the timing of recognition in our consolidated financial statements.

DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY

Our executive and head offices are located at 7438 Fraser Park Drive, Burnaby, British Columbia, V5J 5B9. ⁽²⁾ Compensation in 2005 consisted of $140,000 for serving a full year as our Chief Executive Officer and President of which $30,000 was paid in shares. Compensation in 2004 consisted of $84,530 for serving a full year as our Chief Executive Officer and President. Compensation in 2003 consisted of $72,000 for serving a full year as our Chief Executive Officer and President. On March 18, 2005, Mr. Kenig received options to acquire 1,250,000 shares of common stock. On March 22, 2004, Mr. Kenig received options to acquire 100,000 shares of common stock and on April 2, 2004 Mr. Kenig received options to acquire a further 250,000 shares of common stock. On September 15, 2003 Mr. Kenig received 800,000 options as partial compensation for serving as our Chief Executive Officer and President.

⁽³⁾ Mr. Pretty was appointed as our Chief Financial Officer on April 1, 2004. On April 1, 2004, Mr. Pretty received options to acquire 500,000 shares of Common Stock. On March 18, 2005, Mr. Pretty received options to acquire 25,000 shares of Common Stock.

The following table sets forth for each of the Named Executive Officers certain information concerning stock options granted to them during the year ended December 31, 2005. We have never issued stock appreciation rights. We grant options that generally vest quarterly over three years at an exercise price equal to the fair market value of a share of common stock as determined by its closing price on the OTC Bulletin Board on the date of grant. The term of each option granted is generally five years from the date of grant. Options may terminate before their expiration dates if the optionee's status as an employee is terminated or upon the optionee's death or disability.

Ilan Kenig Chief Executive Officer ⁽²⁾	1,250,000 ⁽³⁾	42.3%	$0.27	March 18, 2010
Dallas Pretty Chief Financial Officer ⁽⁴⁾	25,000 ⁽⁵⁾	0.8%	$0.27	March 18, 2010

⁽²⁾ Mr. Kenig was appointed as our Chief Executive Officer on October 31, 2002 and as our President on April 1, 2002.

⁽³⁾ Ilan Kenig received 1,250,000 options on March 18, 2005 that are exercisable at $0.27 per share and vest over three years.

⁽⁴⁾ Mr. Pretty was appointed as our Chief Financial Officer on April 1, 2004.

⁽⁵⁾ Dallas Pretty received 25,000 options on March 18, 2005 that are exercisable at $0.27 per share and vest over three years.

The following table sets forth for each Named Executive Officer certain information concerning the number of shares subject to both exercisable and unexercisable stock options as of December 31, 2005. The values for "in-the-money" options are calculated by determining the difference between the fair market value of the securities underlying the options as of December 31, 2005 ($0.16 per share) and the exercise price of the individual's options.

EMPLOYMENT CONTRACTS AND TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT AND CHANGE IN CONTROL ARRANGEMENTS

There are no employment agreements between us or any of our subsidiaries and any of our Named Executive Officers.

Our company has no plans or arrangements in respect of remuneration received or that may be received by any Named Executive Officers of our company to compensate such officers in the event of termination of employment (as a result of resignation, retirement, change of control) or a change of responsibilities following a change of control, where the value of such compensation exceeds $100,000 per Named Executive Officer.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS

Our directors receive $1,000 per board meeting and $500 per committee meeting. Our Audit Committee Chairman receives $12,000 per year. Directors are entitled to reimbursement of expenses incurred in attending meetings. In addition, our directors are entitled to participate in our stock option plan. Members of our board of directors receive annual grants of options as follows:

Director	25,000 options
Audit Committee Chairman	25,000 options
Audit Committee Member	5,000 options

There are no arrangements or plans in which we provide pension, retirement or similar benefits for directors or executive officers. We have no material bonus or profit sharing plans pursuant to which cash or non-cash compensation is or may be paid to our directors or executive officers, except that stock options may be granted under the plan.

As of December 31, 2005, this maximum number was 18,177,079. All outstanding options will be subject to the provisions of the new plan.

Where options issued after January 18, 2001 have an exercise price in a currency that is not either the (a) functional currency of our company or (b) the currency in which the employee is paid, the options are to be accounted for as variable plan options and compensation expense will be recorded equal to changes in the market value of the underlying shares at each reporting period.

Stock options become exercisable at dates determined by our board of directors at the time of granting the option and generally have initial terms of five years.

The fair value of each option granted in the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004 was estimated on the date of the grant using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following weighted-average assumptions: no dividend yield; volatility of 154% (2004 - 175%) based on weekly stock price; risk-free interest rate of 3.25% (2004 - 3.25%) and expected lives between one to five years. The weighted-average fair value of options granted during the years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004 was $0.21 and $0.45 respectively.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

(Expressed in United States dollars)

(Prepared in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles)

Three and nine months ended September 30, 2006 and 2005 (unaudited)

Basis of presentation:

The accompanying interim unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States for interim financial information and with the instructions to Form 10-QSB. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by the United States generally accepted accounting principles for a complete set of annual consolidated financial statements.

In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting solely of normally recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. Operating results for the nine-month period ended September 30, 2006 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the year ended December 31, 2006 or for any other period.

For further information, refer to the consolidated financial statements and footnotes thereto included in Unity Wireless Corporation's (the Corporation) annual report on Form 10-KSB for the year ended December 31, 2005. Except as indicated in note 11(c), the accounting policies applied in the preparation of these interim consolidated financial statements are consistent with those applied in the consolidated financial statements filed with the Corporation's annual report.

Certain comparative figures have been reclassified to conform to the presentation adopted in the current year. Note 8(d) describes a restatement that has been reflected in these interim consolidated financial statements for the nine months ended September 30, 2006.

These financial statements have been prepared on the going concern basis under which an entity is considered to be able to realize its assets and satisfy its liabilities in the ordinary course of business. Operations to date have been significantly financed by debt and equity transactions. At September 30, 2006, the Corporation requires additional financing to continue to operate at current levels throughout the year. Accordingly, the Corporation's future operations are dependent upon the identification and successful completion of additional debt and equity financing, the continued support of creditors and stockholders, and, ultimately, the achievement of profitable operations. There can be no assurances that the Corporation will be successful. If it is not, the Corporation will be required to reduce operations or liquidate assets. The Corporation will continue to evaluate its projected expenditures relative to its available cash and to seek additional means of financing in order to satisfy its working capital and other cash requirements. The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability of assets and classification of assets and liabilities that might be necessary should the Corporation be unable to continue as a going concern.

Significant accounting policies:

The financial statements have been prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America using the same accounting policies and methods of application as those disclosed in the Corporation's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2005, except as disclosed below and 11(c).

(a) Amounts funded for employees' rights upon retirement:

Amounts funded for employees' rights upon retirement represent contributions to severance pay funds and cash surrender life insurance policies that are recorded at their current redemption value.

Recent accounting pronouncements:

In July 2006, the FASB issued Financial Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes, (FIN 48) as an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes (SFAS 109). This Interpretation clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an enterprise's financial statements in accordance with SFAS 109 and prescribes a recognition threshold of more-likely-than-not to be sustained upon examination. Measurement of the tax uncertainty occurs if the recognition threshold has been met. This Interpretation also provides guidance on derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure, and transition. FIN 48 will be effective for us beginning January 1, 2007. Differences between the amounts recognized in the statements of financial position prior to the adoption of FIN 48 and the amounts reported after adoption should be accounted for as a cumulative-effect adjustment recorded to the beginning balance of retained earnings. The impact of the adoption of this Interpretation on the Corporation's consolidated financial statements has not yet been determined.

In September 2006, the FASB issued SFAS No. 157, Fair Value Measurements, which defines fair value, establishes a framework for measuring fair value in generally accepted accounting principles, and expands disclosures about fair value measurements. SFAS No. 157 does not require any new fair value measurements, but provides guidance on how to measure fair value by providing a fair value hierarchy used to classify the source of the information. SFAS No. 157 is effective for fiscal years beginning after November 15, 2007. The impact of the adoption of SFAS No. 157 on the Corporation's consolidated financial statements has not yet been determined.

In September 2006, the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) issued Staff Accounting Bulletin No. 108 (SAB 108) which provides interpretive guidance on how the effects of the carryover or reversal of prior year misstatements should be considered in quantifying the materiality of a current year misstatement. SAB 108 is effective for fiscal years ending after November 15, 2006. The impact of the adoption of SAB 108 on the Corporation's consolidated financial statements has not yet been determined.

3. Business combination:

a) On June 8, 2006, the Corporation through its wholly owned subsidiary, Unity Wireless Microwave Systems Ltd. (UW Microwave) acquired Avantry Ltd. (Avantry). Avantry specializes in offering a comprehensive transmission product line of integrated microwave radio and optical transport systems for carrying flexible combinations of voice and data traffic.

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, the Corporation acquired the net assets of Avantry in exchange for $1,750,000 of convertible promissory notes that are convertible into common stock at $0.25 per share and warrants to purchase an aggregate of 600,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $0.40. The convertible promissory notes and related warrants have been valued at their fair value of $1,755,147 (See note 8(e)).

The transaction has been accounted for as a business combination by the purchase method, with Unity Wireless Corporation identified as the acquirer. The Corporation's consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss include the operating results of Avantry Ltd. from June 8, 2006, the date of acquisition.

The following table summarizes the preliminary allocation of the purchase price and related acquisition costs to the fair value of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed at the date of acquisition.

3. Business combination (continued):

b) On July 3, 2006, the Corporation through its wholly owned subsidiary, Unity Wireless Acquisition Corporation (UW Acquisition) acquired Celerica Inc. (Celerica). Celerica specializes in extending RF coverage and optimizing network capacity distribution of mobile communications in urban, suburban and rural areas, using optical wireless, fiber optics and microwave technology.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, the Corporation acquired the net assets of Celerica in exchange for 20,000 shares of Series A convertible non-redeemable preferred shares (see note 10(a)). The preferred shares have been valued at a fair value of $2,000,000 based on multiplying the Corporation's common shares market price as of the closing date of the acquisition by the number of common stock issuable upon conversion.

The transaction has been accounted for as a business combination by the purchase method, with Unity Wireless Corporation identified as the acquirer. The Corporation's consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss include the operating results of Celerica Inc. from July 3, 2006, the date of acquisition.

The following table summarizes the preliminary allocation of the purchase price and related acquisition costs to the fair value of the assets acquired and liabilities assumed at the date of acquisition.

3. Business combination (continued):

c) On August 17, 2006, the Corporation acquired Celletra Ltd. (Celletra). Celletra specializes in technology that provides wireless operators with solutions to achieve optimal coverage and to improve coverage and capacity of existing cells

Under the terms of the purchase agreement, the Corporation acquired the net assets of Celletra in exchange for 70,000 shares of Series B convertible non-redeemable preferred shares (see note 10(b)) and contingent consideration of 20,000 shares of Series B convertible non-redeemable preferred shares and warrants to purchase 40,000,000 shares of common stock at a prices between $0.20 and $0.30 expiring August 17, 2009 (or 40,000 shares of Series B Convertible Shares should there not be sufficient authorized shares of common stock). The contingent consideration is payable upon Celletra achieving revenues from January 1, 2006 to June 30, 2006 and binding purchase orders as of June 30, 2006 of not less than $6,400,000. On the acquisition date, the contingent consideration criteria had been met and the contingent consideration was issued.

The 90,000 preferred shares have been valued at a fair value of $9,000,000 based on multiplying the Corporation s common share market price as of the closing date of the acquisition by the number of common stock into which the preferred stock is convertible. The warrants have been valued at a fair value of $2,026,533 calculated using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following weighted-average assumptions: no dividend yield; volatility of 108%; a risk-free interest rate of 4.01% and expected term of 3 years.

The transaction has been accounted for as a business combination by the purchase method, with Unity Wireless Corporation identified as the acquirer. The Corporation s consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss include the operating results of Celletra Ltd. from August 17, 2006, the date of acquisition.

Convertible debentures:

On February 28, 2006, the Corporation entered into an agreement with the convertible debenture holders relating to the debentures issued on August 2004, to extend the maturity of the remaining debentures of $950,000 to February 28, 2009, to reduce the conversion price of the debentures from $0.20 to $0.16 per share of common stock and to reduce the exercise price of the 1,125,000 remaining warrants from $0.20 to $0.16 per share of common stock. The modifications to the terms of the convertible debenture have been accounted for as a debt settlement. As a result, a loss on settlement of $270,237 has been recognized and the carrying value of the outstanding debentures has been adjusted to its fair value.

During the nine-month period ended September 30, 2006, accretion of $52,638 has been recorded as a charge to the statement of operations, and an increase in the carrying value of the liability, and $270,237 was charged to the statement of operations as a loss of settlement due to modifications to the terms of the debentures. During the nine-month period ended September 30, 2006, no debentures were converted. As at September 30, 2006, $950,000 of these debentures remain outstanding. No beneficial conversion option has been recognized under the modified terms.

On February 28, 2006 the Corporation entered into an agreement with the convertible debenture holders relating to the debentures issued on February 2005, to extend the maturity of the remaining debentures of $1,350,000 to February 28, 2009, to reduce the conversion price of the debentures from $0.20 to $0.16 per share of common stock and to reduce the exercise price of 2,500,000 and 1,125,000 remaining warrants from $0.20 to $0.10 and $0.16, respectively, per share of common stock. The modifications to the terms of the convertible debenture have been accounted for as a debt settlement. As a result, a loss on settlement of $1,182,485 has been recognized and the carrying value of the outstanding debentures has been adjusted to its fair value.

During the nine-month period ended September 30, 2006, accretion of $68,881 has been recorded as a charge to the statement of operations, and an increase in the carrying value of the liability, and $1,182,485 was charged to the statement of operations as a loss of settlement due to modifications to the terms of the debentures. During the nine-month period ended September 30, 2006, no debentures were converted. As at September 30, 2006, $1,350,000 of these debentures remain outstanding. No beneficial conversion option has been recognized under the modified terms.

During March 2005, the Corporation received gross cash proceeds of $500,000 from the issuance of 8% redeemable convertible debentures and warrants of the Corporation. During the nine month period ended September 30, 2006, accretion of $85,210 has been recorded as a charge to the statement of operations, and an increase in the carrying value of the liability. During the nine-month period ended September 30, 2006, no debentures were converted. As at September 30, 2006, $266,964 of these debentures remain outstanding.

During February 2006, the Corporation realized gross cash proceeds of $2,200,000 from the issuance of 8% redeemable convertible notes of the Corporation plus 6,875,000 share purchase warrants on the completion of a private placement effected pursuant to Regulation D under the Securities Act of 1933. The agreement was signed on February 28, 2006 and the notes are to mature on February 28, 2009. The notes are convertible into common stock at the option of the holders at $0.16 per share provided that the notes and related warrants are convertible into a maximum aggregate of 10,000,000 shares of common stock. Also, subject to certain conditions, the Corporation can force conversion of the notes if the volume weighted average price of the common stock is at least $0.32 for 20 consecutive trading days. Interest on these notes is payable quarterly. At the option of the Corporation, and subject to certain conditions being met, the Corporation may make quarterly interest payments in cash or in common stock of the Corporation. If the Corporation elects to settle with shares, the number of shares issuable is calculated by reference to the market price at that time. Each warrant issued entitles the holder to purchase one of the Corporation's common shares and is exercisable at a price of $0.16 on or before February 28, 2011, on which date the warrants will expire.

During the quarter ended September 30, 2006, the original accounting for these convertible debentures, which reflected the warrants and beneficial conversion option as equity items, was retroactively restated to reflect the following accounting.

At the date of issuing the convertible note, the Corporation calculated the fair value of warrants issued at $1,056,170 and recorded this value as long-term liability as the Corporation does not have sufficient authorized shares available to permit the exercise of these warrants into common shares. The fair value of the warrants was calculated using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following assumptions: no dividend yield; volatility of 143%; a risk-free interest rate of 4% and an expected term of five years.

Of the remaining value of the convertible debentures of $1,143,829, the fair value of the conversion feature on those debentures which can not be converted to common stock due to insufficient authorized common share capital being available, amounting to $311,953, has been recorded as warrant and conversion feature liability on the balance sheet. The intrinsic value of the beneficial conversion option of $831,876 on the remaining convertible debentures where there is sufficient authorized common share capital to allow conversion has been recorded as additional paid-in capital.

The warrants and conversion feature recorded as a liability on the balance sheet are recorded at fair value with any changes in fair value for each subsequent reporting period recorded as a charge or credit to the statement of operations until such time as an increase in authorized share capital is approved by the Corporation's stockholders.

On the approval date, the fair values of the warrants issued and the conversion feature recorded as a liability will be reclassified to equity. For the nine-month period ended September 30, 2006, the fair value of the warrants and liability portion of the conversion feature has decreased by $659,832 resulting in a credit being recorded in the statement of operations. During the nine-month period ended September 30, 2006, no debentures were converted and accretion of $35 has been recorded as a charged to the statement of operations. As at September 30, 2006, $2,200,000 of these debentures remain outstanding.

On June 12, 2006 (See note 3(a)), the Corporation issued $1,750,000 of non-interest bearing convertible promissory notes that are convertible into common stock at $0.25 per share and warrants to purchase an aggregate of 600,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $0.40 per share to complete the acquisition of Avantry. The notes mature on June 12, 2007. Each warrant issued entitles the holder to purchase one of the Corporation's common shares and is exercisable at a price of $0.40 on or before June 8, 2009, on which date the warrants will expire.

For accounting purposes, the Corporation recorded additional paid-in capital of $71,064 relating to the fair value of warrants issued. The remaining balance of $1,684,083 at the date of issuance was recorded as a current liability.

There was no intrinsic value of the beneficial conversion feature. The carrying value of the liability is being accreted to the redemption value of the debentures over the period from June 12, 2006 to the initial maturity date of June 12, 2007.

During the nine month period ended September 30, 2006, accretion of $21,692 has been recorded as a charge to the statement of operations, and an increase in the carrying value of the liability. There were no debentures converted during the nine-month period ended September 30, 2006. As at September 30, 2006, the face value of $1,750,000 of these debentures remain outstanding.

9. Employee's rights upon retirement:

Under Israeli law and labor agreements, the Corporation's Israel subsidiaries are is required to pay severance benefits to its dismissed employees and employees leaving its employment under certain circumstances. The liability for severance benefits is covered mainly by deposits with insurance companies in the name of the employee and / or by purchase of insurance policies. The liability is calculated on the basis of the latest salary of the employee multiplied by the number of years of employment as of the balance sheet date. The provision for employee severance benefits included in the balance sheet represents the total liabilities for such severance benefits, while the assets held for severance benefits included in the balance sheet represents the Corporation's Israeli subsidiaries contributions to severance pay funds and to insurance policies.

10. Preferred shares:

Series A convertible non-redeemable preferred shares

The Series A convertible non-redeemable preferred shares were issued for the acquisition of Celerica. Each share of the Series A preferred stock will automatically convert into 1,000 shares of common stock upon approval of an increase of authorized share capital at the Corporation's next annual general meeting. The Series A preferred stock has a par value of $0.001 and a preference on liquidation of $0.16 per share on an as converted basis. As at September 30, 2006, 20,000 Series A convertible non-redeemable preferred shares were outstanding.

Under EITF 00-19, as the conversion feature of the preferred shares is not exercisable as the Company does not have sufficient authorized capital, the fair value of the conversion feature of $1,999,999 has been classified as a non-current liability with the residual value of $1 recorded as equity. The conversion feature recorded as a non-current liability, will be carried at fair value with changes in fair value recorded as a charge or credit to the statement of operations until an increase in authorized share capital is approved by the Corporation's stockholders. On the approval date, the fair value of the liability portion of the conversion feature will be reclassified from liability to equity. For the nine-month period ended September 30, 2006, there was no change to the fair value of the conversion feature between July 3, 2006, the issue date and September 30, 2006.

Series B convertible non-redeemable preferred shares

The Series B convertible non-redeemable preferred shares were issued for the acquisition of Celletra. Each share of the Series B preferred stock will be converted into 1,000 shares of common stock upon approval of an increase of authorized share capital and at the election of the preferred share holders or will be automatically converted into 1,000 shares of common stock on the later of the approval date or thirty days after the Corporation's second annual general meeting. The Series B preferred stock has a par value of $0.001. As at September 30, 2006, 90,000 Series B convertible non-redeemable preferred shares were outstanding.

Under EITF 00-19, as the conversion feature of the preferred shares is not exercisable as the Company does not have sufficient authorized capital, the fair value of the conversion feature of $8,999,999 has been classified as a non-current liability with the residual value of $1 recorded as equity. The conversion feature recorded as a non-current liability, will be carried at fair value with changes in fair value recorded as a charge or credit to the statement of operations until an increase in authorized share capital is approved by the Corporation's stockholders. On the approval date, the fair value of the liability portion of the conversion feature will be reclassified from liability to equity. For the nine-month period ended September 30, 2006, there was no change to the fair value of the conversion feature between August 17, 2006, the issue date and September 30, 2006.

Stock option plan:

Prior to January 1, 2006, the Corporation accounted for employee stock-based awards under the fair value method of SFAS 123, Accounting for Stock Based Compensation as amended by FASB Statement No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation Transition and Disclosure. Effective January 1, 2006, the Corporation adopted Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 123R, "Share-Based Payment" ("SFAS 123R"). SFAS 123R requires measurement of compensation cost for employee stock-based awards based upon fair value over the requisite service period for awards expected to vest. Furthermore, under SFAS 123R, liability based awards are recorded at fair value through to their settlement date.

Pursuant to the provisions of SFAS 123R, the Corporation applied the modified-prospective transition method. Under this method, the fair value provision of SFAS 123R is applied to new employee share-based payment awards granted or awards modified, repurchased or cancelled after December 31, 2005. Measurement and attribution of compensation cost for unvested awards at December 31, 2005, granted prior to the adoption of SFAS 123R, are recognized based upon the provisions of SFAS No. 123, after adjustment for estimated forfeitures. SFAS 123R requires forfeitures to be estimated at the time of grant and revised, if necessary, in subsequent periods if actual forfeitures differ from those estimates. Under SFAS No. 123 the Corporation had recognized forfeitures as they occurred. The cumulative impact of estimating forfeitures instead of accounting for forfeitures as they occur was not material to the consolidated financial statements.

The fair value of stock options are determined using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model, which is consistent with the valuation techniques previously utilized for recording stock-based compensation expense reflected in the consolidated statement of operations under SFAS No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation Transition and Disclosure. As a result, there was no material impact of adopting SFAS No. 123R on the financial statements of the Corporation. The Corporation has recorded $342,074 and $540,775 of stock-based compensation expense during the nine months ended September 30, 2006 and 2005, respectively, and there was no change in the previously reported basic and diluted loss per share in the first nine months of 2005.

The Corporation grants options to employees and non-employees. The fair value of employee and non-employee grants in 2006 and 2005 was calculated using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following weighted-average assumptions: no dividend yield; volatility of 143% (2005 154%) based on daily stock price; risk-free interest rate of 3.25% (2005 3.25%) and expected lives between 1 to 5 years.

Increase in reserved for issuance	936,207	-
Balance, September 30, 2006	11,468,286	7,445,000	$ 0.24

The intrinsic value of a stock option is calculated as the quoted market price of the stock at the balance sheet date less the amount an employee must pay to acquire the stock. As at March 31, 2006, June 30, 2006 and September 30, 2006, the intrinsic value of exercisable options was nil. The aggregate intrinsic value of stock options exercised during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2006 was nil.

The weighted-average grant-date fair value of stock options granted during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2006 was nil and $0.12, respectively.

As of September 30, 2006, total unrecognized compensation cost related to unvested stock options was $237,003 and is expected to be recognized over a weighted-average period of 3.23 years.

Contingent liabilities:

The Corporation is currently a party to two actions in the Supreme Court of British Columbia, Vancouver Registry, brought by two different suppliers of the Corporation for approximately $400,000 in total.

The Corporation provides for costs related to contingencies when a loss is probable and the amount is reasonably determinable. It is the opinion of management, based in part on advice of legal counsel, that the ultimate resolution of these contingencies, to the extent not previously provided for, will not have a material adverse effect on the financial condition of the Corporation.

(b)

Contingent liability on sale of products:

(i)

Under a license agreement, the Corporation is committed to make royalty payments based on the sales of products using certain technologies. Royalties are calculated based on 5% to 6% of sales of licensed products sold integrating the XNN Technology into various products to a minimum of $150,000 within twelve months subsequent to the first commercial sales of the integrated product. No such sales have occurred to September 30, 2006.

(ii)

Under an agreement with the Government's National Research Council Canada IRAP (IRAP) program, the Corporation received conditionally repayable government assistance amounting to $368,275 (CDN$483,491) to support the development of a multi-carrier linear power amplifier. Under the terms of the agreement, an amount up to a maximum of $534,000 (CDN$725,236) is to be repaid at a rate of 1.5% of quarterly gross revenue commencing on September 1, 2003, on a quarterly basis. For the nine months ended September 30, 2006, the Corporation recorded $58,387 (CDN$66,545) as royalties expense and $69,512 (CDN $88,694) in 2005.

(iii)

Under an agreement with the Canada Israel Industrial Research & Development Foundation, the Corporation is eligible to receive conditionally repayable government assistance amounting to $262,078 (CDN$350,000) to support the development of a multi-carrier linear power amplifier. To date, the Corporation claimed gross proceeds of $98,622 (CDN$ 116,667) in 2005, which have been recorded as government grant income as a reduction of expenses incurred. Under the terms of the agreement, commencing with the first commercial transaction, the assistance is repayable to the extent of 2.5% of yearly gross sales until 100% of the grant has been repaid. As of September 30, 2006, the Corporation has not yet commenced the commercialization of such product, and thus no repayment is required.

The Corporate Israeli s subsidiaries were granted by Canada Israel Industrial Research & Development Foundation (CIIRDF) and by the Office of the Chief Scientist of the Israeli Ministry of Industry and Trade (the OCS) approval for CIIRDF grants and OCS participation in the cost of several research programs. In return the Corporate Israeli s subsidiaries are committed to pay royalties at a rate of 3% to 5% of the sales of the approved products, up to 100% of the amount of the grants received, with the addition of interest at LIBOR. Under certain conditions, the Corporate Israeli s subsidiaries commitment to pay royalties at the rates mentioned above and the total obligation for royalties shall increase. The Corporate Israeli s subsidiaries are committed to pay increased royalties for income derived from the above mentioned sale of rights.

The grants are deducted from research and development expenses. The Corporate Israeli s subsidiaries are entitled to the grants only upon incurring research and development expenditures. The Corporate Israeli s subsidiaries are not obliged to repay any amount received from the OCS if the research effort is unsuccessful or if no products are sold. However, under certain limited circumstances, the OCS may withdraw its approval of a research program or amend the terms of its approval. Upon withdrawal of approval, the Corporate Israeli s subsidiaries may be required to refund the grants, in whole or in part, with or without interest, as the OCS determines.

The Corporate Israeli s subsidiaries total obligation for royalties, based on royalty-bearing government participation, totaled approximately $14,242,000 as of September 30, 2006.

Such amount excludes potential increase resulting from the abovementioned sale of rights.

(v) Avantry received government grants from the Fund for the Encouragement of Marketing Activities Abroad (The Fund) as participation in the funding of an approved marketing plan for 2002. Avantry is committed to pay royalties to the Israeli Government at a rate of 4% of the increase in sales per year up to 100% of the amount of the grants received, with the addition of interest at LIBOR, computed on the increase in export sales beginning with the end of the first year after the year of the approved plan. These payments will continue until the grants are fully repaid.

Under certain limited circumstances, the Fund may withdraw its approval of the marketing plan. Upon withdrawal of approval, Avantry may be required to refund the grants, in whole or in part, with or without interest, as the Fund determines.

The aggregate liability in respect of the said grants on September 30, 2006 amounts to $72,000.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders of

Unity Wireless Corporation

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Unity Wireless Corporation as of December 31, 2005 and 2004, and the related consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive loss, stockholders equity(deficit), and cash flows for the years then ended. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Corporation's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Unity Wireless Corporation as of December 31, 2005 and 2004, and the results of its operations and its cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

The accompanying financial statements have been prepared assuming that the Corporation will continue as a going concern. As discussed in note 2 to the financial statements, the Corporation has suffered recurring losses from operations that raise substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans in regard to these matters are also described in note 2. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

UNITY WIRELESS CORPORATION

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

(Expressed in United States dollars)

(Prepared in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles)

Years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004

Nature of business:

Unity Wireless Corporation (the Corporation) was incorporated in Delaware on October 1, 1998 under the name Sonic Systems Corporation (Sonic Delaware). Sonic Delaware changed its name to Unity Wireless Corporation on July 17, 2000. The Corporation is a designer, developer and manufacturer of wireless technologies and produces high power linear radio frequency (RF) amplifiers. High power linear RF amplifiers are used in both mobile and fixed wireless voice; Internet and data base station and repeater networks and support Cellular, PCS (Personal Communications Services), Paging and WLL (Wireless Local Loop) frequencies.

Future operations:

During the year, the Corporation incurred a loss, inclusive of stock-based compensation, of $5,450,408 (2004 - $3,318,998) and used cash in operations of $2,227,633 (2004 - $2,600,558).

These financial statements have been prepared on the going concern basis under which an entity is considered to be able to realize its assets and satisfy its liabilities in the ordinary course of business. Operations to date have been primarily financed by both current and long-term debt and equity transactions. At December 31, 2005, the Corporation will require additional financing to continue to operate at current levels throughout 2006. Accordingly, the Corporation's future operations are dependent upon the identification and successful completion of additional long-term or permanent equity financing, the continued support of creditors and shareholders, and, ultimately, the achievement of profitable operations. There can be no assurances that the Corporation will be successful. If it is not, the Corporation will be required to reduce operations or liquidate assets. The Corporation will continue to evaluate its projected expenditures relative to its available cash and to seek additional means of financing in order to satisfy its working capital and other cash requirements. The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability of assets and classification of assets and liabilities that might be necessary should the Corporation be unable to continue as a going concern.

UNITY WIRELESS CORPORATION

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

(Expressed in United States dollars)

(Prepared in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles)

Years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004

3.

Significant accounting policies:

Principles of consolidation:

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Corporation and its wholly-owned subsidiary, Unity Wireless Systems Corp. (Unity Systems). All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated.

Use of estimates:

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, particularly the recoverability of inventory, equipment and goodwill, and liabilities (particularly product warranty) and the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

(c)

Financial instruments:

(i)

Fair values:

At December 31, 2005, the Corporation has the following financial instruments: cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities, loans payable, and convertible debentures. The carrying values of these financial instruments are considered to approximate fair value based on their short-term nature. Based on borrowing rates currently available to the Corporation, the carrying values of the obligations under capital lease approximate their fair values.

The Corporation accounts for its derivative financial instruments in accordance with SFAS No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and for Hedging Activities. This statement requires the Corporation to recognize derivatives on its balance sheet at fair value. The gains or losses resulting from changes in the fair value of derivative instruments will either be recognized in current earnings or in other comprehensive income, depending on the use of the derivative and whether the hedging instrument is effective or ineffective when hedging changes in fair value. For a derivative not designated as a hedging instrument, the gain or loss is recognized in earnings in the period of change of value. The Corporation did not hold any derivative instruments and was not involved in any hedging activities at December 31, 2005 or 2004.

(Prepared in accordance with United States generally accepted accounting principles)

Significant accounting policies (continued):

Concentrations of credit risk:

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Corporation to concentrations of credit risk are primarily accounts receivable. The Corporation maintains a reserve for potential credit losses based on a risk assessment of its customers.

(d)

Cash and cash equivalents:

Cash equivalents include short-term deposits, which are all highly liquid securities with a term to maturity of three months or less when acquired. Short-term deposits are valued at cost.

Inventory:

Inventory is carried at the lower of cost, determined on an average cost method, and market. Market is considered to be replacement cost for raw materials and net realizable value for finished goods. The cost of finished goods includes the cost of raw material, direct labor, and an appropriate allocation of related overhead.

(f)

Capital assets:

Capital assets are stated at cost. Depreciation is computed on a declining balance basis over the estimated useful lives of the assets as follows:

Asset	Rate
Computer equipment and software	30%
Computer equipment and software - leased	30%
Furniture and fixtures	20%
Production and R&D equipment	20%
Production and R&D equipment - leased	20%

Goodwill:

Goodwill is the residual amount that results when the purchase price of an acquired business exceeds the sum of the amounts allocated to the identifiable assets acquired, less liabilities assumed, based on their fair values. Goodwill is allocated as of the date of the business combination to the Corporation's reporting units that are expected to benefit from the synergies of the business combination.

Goodwill is not amortized, but is tested for impairment annually, or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that the goodwill might be impaired. The impairment test is carried out in two steps. In the first step, the carrying amount of the reporting unit is compared with its fair value. When the fair value of a reporting unit exceeds its carrying amount, goodwill of the reporting unit is considered not to be impaired and the second step of impairment test is unnecessary. The second step is carried out when the carrying amount of a reporting unit exceeds its fair value, in which case the implied fair value of the reporting unit's goodwill is compared with its carrying amount to measure the amount of the impairment loss, if any. The implied fair value of the reporting unit's goodwill is determined in the same manner as the value of goodwill is determined in a business combination described in the preceding paragraph, using the fair value of the reporting unit as if it was the purchase price. When the carrying amount of a reporting unit exceeds the implied fair value of its goodwill, an impairment loss is recognized in an amount equal to the excess and is presented as a separate line item in the statement of operations before extraordinary items and discontinued operations. No impairment has been recognized to December 31, 2005.

Impairment of long-lived assets:

Long-lived assets, such as equipment, are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. Recoverability of assets to be held and used is measured by a comparison of the carrying amount of the assets to future undiscounted net cash flows expected to be generated by the assets. If such assets are considered to be impaired, the impairment to be recognized is measured by the amount by which the carrying amount of the assets exceeds the fair value of the assets. Assets to be disposed of are reported at the lower of the carrying amount or fair value less costs to sell.

Income taxes:

Income taxes are accounted for under the asset and liability method. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases and operating loss and tax credit carryforwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. To the extent that it is not considered to be more likely than not that a deferred tax asset will be realized, a valuation allowance is provided.

(k)

Advertising costs:

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred.

Foreign currency translation:

As of April 1, 2005, the Corporation adopted the U.S. dollar as its functional currency. The Corporation has done this because the U.S. dollar is the currency in which it incurs all of its revenues, all of its financing and a significant portion of its costs. The Corporation's subsidiary, Unity Wireless Systems Corp., also uses the U.S. dollar as its functional currency. Under this method, monetary assets and liabilities denominated in a foreign currency are remeasured into U.S. dollars at the rate of exchange in effect at the balance sheet date. Other assets and revenue and expense items are remeasured using the rate of exchange prevailing at their respective transaction dates. Exchange gains and losses resulting from the remeasurement of foreign denominated monetary assets and liabilities into U.S. dollars are reflected in earnings (loss) for the period.

(m) Revenue recognition:

Revenue from products is recognized once a sale arrangement exists, delivery has occurred, the revenue is determinable and collectibility is reasonably assured, which is upon the later of shipment or when title passes to the customer depending on the contractual terms. The Corporation does not enter into sales arrangements having post contract customer support or rights of return. The Corporation records deferred revenue when cash is received in advance of the revenue recognition criteria being met.

Product warranty:

A liability for estimated warranty expense is established by a charge against cost of goods sold at the time revenue is recognized as products are sold. The subsequent costs incurred for warranty claims serve to reduce the product warranty liability. The actual warranty costs the Corporation will ultimately pay could differ materially from this estimate (note 14(c)).

(o)

Research and development:

Research and development costs are expensed as incurred.

Stock option plan:

Effective January 1, 2004, the Corporation adopted FASB Statement No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation - Transition and Disclosure, using the modified prospective method. Under the modified prospective method of adoption selected by the Corporation, the employee and non-employee stock-based compensation expense recognized in the year ended December 31, 2005 is the same as that which would have been recognized for the same period had the recognition provision of SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-based Compensation, been applied from its original effective date. Results for prior periods have not been restated.

The fair value of each option granted in 2005 and 2004 was calculated using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model with the following weighted-average assumptions: no dividend yield; volatility of 154% (2004 - 175%) based on weekly stock price; risk-free interest rate of 3.25% (2004 - 3.25%) and expected lives between 1 to 5 years.

The weighted-average fair value of options granted during 2005 and 2004 was $0.21 and $0.45 respectively.

Loss per common share:

The basic loss per share is computed by dividing the loss attributable to common stockholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for that period. Escrow shares with time-based vesting which are not contingently returnable are included in the basic loss per share computation. Diluted loss per share is computed using the treasury stock method, giving effect to all dilutive potential common shares that were outstanding during the period except to the extent where anti-dilutive.

Government assistance:

Government assistance consists of government grants. Government grants are received for specific research and development projects approved by the agency. The Corporation follows the cost reduction method of accounting for government assistance, whereby the benefit of the assistance is recognized as a reduction in the cost of the related asset or credited against the expenses incurred in the statement of operations, as determined by the terms and conditions of the agreement under which the assistance is provided to the Corporation and the nature of the costs incurred. Government assistance is recognized when receipt of the assistance is reasonably assured. Reasonable assurance is based on the Corporation's past experience with claims and collections. Certain government assistance has a contingent liability for repayment. The liability to repay government assistance is recognized in the period in which conditions arise that will cause government assistance to be repayable.

Comprehensive loss:

Comprehensive loss measures all changes in stockholders' equity from transactions and other events and circumstances from non-owner sources. For the periods presented, other comprehensive loss comprises only foreign currency translation.

(t)

Certain comparative figures have been reclassified to conform to the presentation adopted in the current year.

(u)

Related party transactions in the normal course of operations are measured at the exchange amount, which is the amount of consideration established and agreed to by the related parties.

Recent pronouncements:

In November 2005, the FASB issued FSP FAS 115-1 and FAS 124-1, The Meaning of Other-Than-Temporary Impairment and Its Application to Certain Investments (FSP 115-1), which provides guidance on determining when investments in certain debt and equity securities are considered impaired, whether that impairment is other-than-temporary, and on measuring such impairment loss. FSP 115-1 also includes accounting considerations subsequent to the recognition of an other-than temporary impairment and requires certain disclosures about unrealized losses that have not been recognized as other-than-temporary impairments. FSP 115-1 is required to be applied to reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2005 and is required to be adopted in the first quarter of fiscal 2006. The impact of the adoption of FSP 115-1 will have on the Corporation's consolidated financial statements is not yet determinable.

In June 2005, the Emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) reached a consensus on EITF Issue No. 05-6, Determining the Amortization Period for Leasehold Improvements Purchased after Lease Inception or Acquired in a Business Combination (EITF 05-6). EITF 05-6 requires that leasehold improvements that are placed in service significantly after and not contemplated at or near the beginning of the lease term be amortized over the shorter of the useful life of the assets or a term that includes required lease periods and renewals that are deemed to be reasonably assured at the date the leasehold improvements are purchased. EITF 05-6 was effective for the fourth quarter of 2005. EITF 05-6 did not have a significant impact on the Corporation's consolidated financial statements.

In May 2005, the FASB issued SFAS No. 154, Accounting Changes and Error Corrections a replacement of APB Opinion No. 20 and FASB Statement No. 3 (SFAS No. 154). SFAS No. 154 requires retrospective application as the required method for reporting a change in accounting principle, unless impracticable or a pronouncement includes specific transition provisions. SFAS No. 154 also requires that a change in depreciation, amortization or depletion method for long-lived, nonfinancial assets be accounted for as a change in accounting estimate effected by a change in accounting principle. This statement carries forward the guidance in APB Opinion No. 20, Accounting Changes, for the reporting of the correction of an error and a change in accounting estimate. SFAS No. 154 is effective beginning January 1, 2006. SFAS No. 154 is not expected to have a significant impact on the Corporation's consolidated financial statements.

In March 2005, the FASB issued Interpretation No. 47 (FIN 47), Accounting for Conditional Asset Retirement Obligations an interpretation of FASB Statement No. 143. FIN 47 clarifies that an entity is required to recognize a liability for the fair value of a conditional asset retirement obligation when incurred if the liability's fair value can be reasonably estimated. The FIN also clarifies when an entity would have sufficient information to reasonably estimate the fair value of an asset retirement obligation. FIN 47 was effective in the fourth quarter of 2005. FIN 47 did not have a significant impact on the Corporation's consolidated financial statements.

In December 2004, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued revised Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123 entitled Share-Based Payment (FAS No. 123R). This revised statement addresses accounting for stock-based compensation and results in the fair value of all stock-based compensation arrangements, including options, being recognized as an expense in a company's financial statements as opposed to supplemental disclosure in the notes to financial statements. The revised Statement eliminates the ability to account for stock-based compensation transactions using APB Opinion No. 25. FAS No. 123R is effective for public entities that file as small business issuers as of the beginning of the first interim or annual reporting period that begins after December 15, 2005. Although, the Corporation does not expect the adoption of FAS No. 123R to have a material effect on its consolidated financial statements as the Corporation presently expenses stock-based compensation to employees by the fair value method (note 3(p)), it has not completed its analysis of the implications of this standard.

In November 2004, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 151 entitled Inventory Costs an amendment of ARB No. 43, Chapter 4 (FAS No. 151). This statement amends the guidance in ARB No. 43 to clarify the accounting for abnormal amounts of idle facility expense, freight, handling costs and spoilage.

FAS No. 151 requires that these items be recognized as current period charges. The Corporation has adopted FAS No. 151, which had no effect on the consolidated financial statements.

Convertible debenture:

(a) During August 2004, the Corporation received gross cash proceeds of $1,250,000 from the issuance of 8% redeemable convertible debentures of the Corporation plus 3,750,000 share purchase warrants on the completion of a private placement effected pursuant to Regulation D under the Securities Act of 1933. The agreement was signed on August 31, 2004 and the debentures mature on August 31, 2006. The debentures are convertible at the option of the holder at any time or automatically convert into common stock, subject to volume limitations, if the closing price of the common stock during a designated period is not less than $0.30. The conversion price of the debentures is $0.20 per share of common stock. Interest on these debentures is payable quarterly. At the option of the Corporation, and subject to certain conditions being met, the Corporation may make quarterly interest payments in cash or in common stock of the Corporation. If the Corporation elects to settle with shares, the number of shares issuable is calculated by reference to the market price at that time.

Each warrant issued entitles the holder to purchase one of the Corporation's common shares and is exercisable at a price of $0.20 on or before August 31, 2009, on which date the warrants will expire.

For accounting purposes, the Corporation calculated the fair value of warrants issued with the convertible debenture, using the Black-Scholes option pricing model and the intrinsic value of the beneficial conversion feature, which totaled $705,266, and initially recorded these values as additional paid-in capital. The intrinsic value of the beneficial conversion feature is the amount by which the fair value of the underlying common shares at the date of the agreement exceeded the value of shares issuable based on the carrying value of the debenture, after reducing such carrying value for the fair value of the warrants. These assigned values were recorded as a reduction to the amount initially assigned to the debentures and as additional paid-in capital. The remaining balance of $544,734 was recorded as a long-term liability. The carrying value of the liability is being accreted to the redemption value of the debentures over the period from August 31, 2004 to the initial maturity date of August 31, 2006.

During 2005, accretion of $345,004 has been recorded as a charge to the statement of operations, and an increase in the carrying value of the liability. Also during 2005, $200,000 of these debentures were converted into 1,000,000 common shares in accordance with their original terms. As at December 31, 2005, $950,000 of these debentures remain outstanding.

(b) During February 2005, the Corporation received gross cash proceeds of $1,500,000 from the issuance of 8% redeemable convertible debentures of the Corporation plus 4,500,000 share purchase warrants on the completion of a private placement effected pursuant to Regulation D under the Securities Act of 1933. The agreement was signed on February 11, 2005 and the debentures mature on February 11, 2007. The debentures are convertible at the option of the holder at any time or automatically convert into common stock, subject to volume limitations, if the closing price of the common stock during a designated period is not less than $0.30. The conversion price of the debentures is $0.20 per share of common stock. Interest on these debentures is payable quarterly. At the option of the Corporation, and subject to certain conditions being met, the Corporation may make quarterly interest payments in cash or in common stock of the Corporation. If the Corporation elects to settle with shares, the number of shares issuable is calculated by reference to the market price at that time.

Each warrant issued entitles the holder to purchase one of the Corporation's common shares and is exercisable at a price of $0.20 on or before February 11, 2010, on which date the warrants will expire.

For accounting purposes, the Corporation calculated the fair value of warrants issued with the convertible debenture, using the Black-Scholes option pricing model and the intrinsic value of the beneficial conversion feature, which totaled $1,452,175, and initially recorded these values as additional paid-in capital. The intrinsic value of the beneficial conversion feature is the amount by which the fair value of the underlying common shares at the date of the agreement exceeded the value of shares issuable based on the carrying value of the debenture, after reducing such carrying value for the fair value of the warrants. These assigned values were recorded as a reduction to the amount initially assigned to the debentures and as additional paid-in capital. The remaining balance of $47,825 was recorded as a long-term liability. The carrying value of the liability is being accreted to the redemption value of the debentures over the period from February 11, 2005 to the initial maturity date of February 11, 2007.

During 2005, accretion of $294,098 has been recorded as a charge to the statement of operations, and an increase in the carrying value of the liability. Also during 2005, $150,000 of these debentures were converted into 750,000 common shares in accordance with their original terms. As at December 31, 2005, $1,350,000 of these debentures remain outstanding.

Income taxes:

At December 31, 2005, the Corporation has US tax net operating loss carryforwards approximating $2,842,025 which will begin to expire in 2019.

The Corporation has Canadian tax net operating losses of approximately $15,754,000 which expire as follows:

2006	$	1,653,000
2007	$	3,450,000
2008	$	1,287,000
2009	$	2,990,000
2010	$	1,274,000
2011	$	1,856,000
2015	$	3,244,000

Deferred income taxes reflect the net effects of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for income tax purposes. The Corporation has recognized a valuation allowance equal to the deferred tax assets due to the uncertainty of realizing the benefits of the assets.

Expected tax recovery of $1,891,292, which amount has been calculated by applying the statutory tax rate of 34.7% to the loss before income taxes of $5,450,408, differs from income tax expense of $nil due primarily to the existence of loss carryforwards created in the year, the tax benefit of which has been offset by an increase in the valuation allowance.

Contingent liabilities:

Contingent liability on sale of products:

(i)

Under a license agreement, the Corporation is committed to royalty payments based on the sales of products using certain technologies. Royalties are paid between 5% to 6% of sales of licensed products sold integrating the XNN Technology into various products to a minimum of $150,000 within twelve months subsequent to the first commercial sales of the integrated product. No such sales have occurred to December 31, 2005.

(ii)

Under an agreement with the Government's National Research Council Canada IRAP (IRAP) program, the Corporation received conditionally repayable government assistance amounting to $368,275 (CDN$483,491) to support the development of a multi-carrier linear power amplifier. Under the terms of the agreement, an amount up to a maximum of $534,000 (CDN$725,236) is to be repaid at a rate of 1.5% of quarterly gross revenue commencing on September 1, 2003, on a quarterly basis. For December 31, 2005, the Corporation recorded $73,584 (CDN$89,781) as royalties expense and $75,308 (CDN $98,006) in 2004.

(iii)

Under an agreement with the Canada Israel Industrial Research & Development Foundation, the Corporation is eligible to receive conditionally repayable government assistance amounting to $262,078 (CDN$350,000) to support the development of a multi-carrier linear power amplifier. To date, the Corporation claimed gross proceeds of $98,622 (CDN$ 116,667) in 2005, nil in 2004 and $163,456 (CDN$ 233,333) in 2003, which have been recorded as government grant income, a reduction of expenses incurred. Under the terms of the agreement, commencing with the first commercial transaction, the assistance is repayable to the extent of 2.5% of yearly gross sales until 100% of the grant has been repaid. As at December 31, 2005, the Corporation has not yet commenced the commercialization of such product, and thus no repayment is required.

The Corporation recognizes royalty obligations as determinable in accordance with agreement terms.

Related party transactions:

During the year ended December 31, 2005, the Corporation incurred professional fees of $9,428(2004 - $8,974) from a company owned by a director of the Corporation and incurred nil (2004 - $32,275) consulting fees from a company owned by a former director of the Corporation. These amounts are included in general and administrative expenses.

Subsequent events:

(i) Subsequent to December 31, 2005, the Corporation realized gross cash proceeds of $2,200,000 from the issuance of 8% redeemable convertible notes(Notes) of the Corporation plus 6,875,000 share purchase warrants on the completion of a private placement effected pursuant to Regulation D under the Securities Act of 1933. The agreement was signed on February 28, 2006 and the Notes are to mature on February 28, 2009. The Notes are convertible into common stock at the option of the holders at $0.16 per share, provided that until July 1, 2006 the Notes are convertible into a maximum aggregate of 10,000,000 shares of common stock. Also, subject to certain conditions, the Corporation can force conversion of the Notes if the volume weighted average price of the common stock is at least $0.32 for 20 consecutive trading days. Interest on these notes is payable quarterly. At the option of the Corporation, and subject to certain conditions being met, the Corporation may make quarterly interest payments in cash or in common stock of the Corporation. If the Corporation elects to settle with shares, the number of shares issuable is calculated by reference to the market price at that time. Each warrant issued entitles the holder to purchase one of the Corporation's common shares and is exercisable at a price of $0.16 on or before February 28, 2011, on which date the warrants will expire.

(ii) Effective February 15, 2006, the Company entered into a merger agreement (the "Agreement") dated February 7, 2006 with Avantry Ltd., an Israeli corporation ("Avantry"), for the merger of Avantry into Unity Wireless Microwave Systems Ltd., a newly formed Israeli corporation that is wholly owned by the Corporation.

At the closing the Corporation will issue to the shareholders of Avantry convertible promissory notes of the Corporation in the aggregate principal amount of USD $1,750,000 and warrants to purchase an aggregate of 600,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of USD $0.40 a share.

The closing of the transaction is subject to standard closing conditions, including regulatory approvals.

RECENT SALES OF UNREGISTERED SECURITIES

Item 2. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds

Within the past three years, we have sold the following securities pursuant to available exemptions from the registration requirement under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933.

During November of 2006 we issued warrants to purchase 1,500,000 shares of our common stock at $0.10 per share and warrants to purchase 1,500,000 shares of our common stock at $0.15 per share, to private investors that provided a $1,500,000 bridge loan bearing interest at 8% per annum. The offer and sale of the warrants were exempt from registration in reliance on the provisions of Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933 (the Act). The resales of the shares of common stock underlying the warrants are being registered in this registration statement.

On December 13, 2006, we sold to private investors secured convertible notes (Notes) in the aggregate principal amount of $1,350,000. The Notes are convertible into shares of our common stock at $0.09 per share. Purchasers of the Notes also received warrants to purchase 7,500,000 shares of our common stock at $0.10 per share (Warrants). The offer and sale of the Notes and the Warrants were exempt from registration in reliance on the provisions of Regulation S, and Rule 506 of Regulation D under the Act. The resales of the shares of common stock underlying the Notes, interest payable on the Notes for the ensuing 12 month period, and Warrants are being registered in this registration statement.

In December of 2006, we reduced from $0.16 to $0.09 the per share conversion price of $3,400,000 in aggregate principal amount of secured convertible notes previously issued to investors, and reduced from $0.16 to $0.10 the per share exercise price of 7,375,000 warrants previously issued to these investors. The reduction in the conversion price and exercise price were in consideration of the agreement of these investors to allow a financial institution, providing a line of credit, to have a first priority over our accounts receivable. The investors further agreed to extend the maturity date of the prior notes from February 28, 2009 to December 13, 2009. The repricing and extension of the foregoing secured convertible notes and warrants was made pursuant to Regulation S. The resales of the shares of common stock underlying such secured convertible notes and warrants are being registered in this registration statement.

In December of 2006 we issued to Oceana Partners, LLC 750,000 shares of common stock and warrants to purchase 791,667 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $0.10 per share, in exchange for investment banking and analyst coverage services rendered.

In December of 2006 we issued to Cambria Capital, LLC warrants to purchase 388,889 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $0.10 per share, in exchange for investment banking services rendered.

In December of 2006 and January of 2007 we sold to private investors 17,055,511 common shares in the aggregate principle amount of $1,534,996. Purchasers of the shares also received warrants to purchase 25,583,267 shares of our common stock at $0.10 per share (Warrants). The offer and sale of the Shares and the Warrants were exempt from registration in reliance on the provisions of Regulation S, and Rule 506 of Regulation D under the Act. The resales of the shares of common stock and Warrants are being registered in this registration statement.

In December of 2006 and January of 2007 we issued to Meitav Underwriting Ltd. warrants to purchase 1,023,331 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $0.10 per share, in exchange for investment banking services rendered.

Effective August 17, 2006, we completed the purchase of Celletra, Ltd., an Israel corporation, pursuant to the terms of a purchase agreement entered into by and among the parties effective July 17, 2006. As a result of the purchase, Celletra has become a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. In connection with the purchase of Celletra, we issued 90,000 shares of Series B convertible non-redeemable preferred shares and warrants to purchase 40,000,000 shares of common stock at a prices between $0.10 and $0.30 expiring December 13, 2011. The offer and sale of the Class B Shares and warrants were exempt from registration in reliance on the provisions of Regulation S under the Act. The resales of the shares of common stock underlying the warrants are being registered in this registration statement.

UNDERTAKINGS

The undersigned company hereby undertakes that it will:

(1)

file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement to:

(a)

include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act; reflect in the prospectus any facts or events which, individually or together, represent a fundamental change in the information in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement; and include any additional or changed material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement;

(2)

For the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each of the post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of the securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof; and

(3)

Remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of Unity Wireless pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, Unity Wireless has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission that type of indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against said liabilities (other than the payment by Unity Wireless of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of Unity Wireless in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by the director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, Unity Wireless will, unless in the opinion of our counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of the issue.

SIGNATURES

In accordance with the requirements of the Securities Act, the registrant certifies that it has reasonable grounds to believe that it meets all of the requirements of filing on Form SB-2 and authorized this registration statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, in the City of Burnaby, British Columbia on January 4, 2006.
