In connection with Mr. Huizinga’s resignation, the Company entered into a transition agreement and release with Mr. Huizinga on July 11, 2016 (the “Transition Agreement”) and consulting agreement with Mr. Huizinga as of the same date (the “Consulting Agreement”). The Transition Agreement entitles Mr. Huizinga to continued salary and benefits during his employment through September 30, 2016. The Transition Agreement includes a release of claims by Mr. Huizinga in favor of the Company. Pursuant to the Consulting Agreement, Mr. Huizinga will provide consulting services to the Company upon the termination of his employment through September 30, 2017 (the “Consulting Period”), to assist with the transition of his duties and responsibilities. Mr. Francis, 48, previously served as managing director, equity research at RBC Capital Markets from November 2013 to July 2016. The second restricted stock unit award will cover 75,000 shares of the Company’s common stock (the “Performance-Based RSU”). Portions of the Performance-Based RSU are eligible to be earned based on the Company’s achievement of various levels of thirty trading day average stock price targets (or transaction price targets, in the case of a change in control), with vesting generally occurring one year following the date the option is earned, so long as Mr. Francis has remained in continuous service with the Company.

If Mr. Francis’ employment is terminated by the Company without cause or if he voluntarily resigns for good reason, he will be entitled to the following severance payments and benefits: (i) a cash payment in an amount equal to up to twelve months of his then current annual base salary; (ii) Company paid COBRA premiums for up to 12 months, (iii) vesting acceleration of the Time Based RSU to the extent the award otherwise would have vested had he remained employed for an additional 12 months, and (iv) vesting acceleration of the Performance Based RSU with respect to the portion of the award (if any) for which the applicable performance goals had been met as of the date of employment termination. Mr. Francis’ receipt of the

On July 8, 2016, the Compensation Committee approved a Form of Notice of Stock Option Grant and Stock Option Agreement with performance-based vesting and Form of Notice of Stock Unit Grant and Stock Unit Agreement with performance based vesting (“Form of PSU Agreement”), under the Company’s 2014 Equity Incentive Plan. As of the same date, the Compensation Committee also approved the grant of the Performance-Based RSU to Mr. Francis in accordance with the terms described above, and performance-based restricted stock units to each of Robert S. Hurley and Tom G. Tsao covering 20,000 shares and 25,000, shares, respectively, of the Company’s common stock, effective as of August 16, 2016. The awards granted to Messrs. Hurley and Tsao are eligible to be earned based on the same criteria as described with respect to the Performance Based RSU above. Each of these awards was granted under the Equity Plan and otherwise is subject to the terms and conditions of the Form of PSU Agreement.

Further, on July 8, 2016, the Compensation Committee approved a form of severance letter agreement and authorized the entry into such severance letter agreement with each of Messrs. Tsao and Hurley (the “Severance Letter”). The Severance Letters provide that in the event of a termination of the executive’s employment with the Company without cause and other than due to death or disability, the executive will receive severance benefits of continued base salary for six (6) months and Company-paid continued medical coverage for up to six (6) months. These severance benefits are subject to a release of claims by the executive in favor of the Company.
