BANCOLOMBIA S.A ANNOUNCES THAT THE SUPERIOR COURT OF BOGOTA DISMISSES THE ANNULMENT ACTION FILED BY THE BANK

Medellín, Colombia, March 5, 2008

Today the Superior Court of Bogota dismissed a complaint filed by Bancolombia S.A (Bancolombia) on February 17, 2004 that sought the annulment of a January 30, 2004 arbitral award (the Arbitral Award) of compensation to a class of minority shareholders of the former Banco de Colombia. The court rejected the grounds for annulment advanced by Bancolombia.

Under the Arbitral Award, shareholders of the former Banco de Colombia will be entitled to compensation if they: (i) fulfill the requirements established in articles 55 and 66 of Law 472 of 1998, (ii) fulfill the requirements established in the Arbitral Award, (iii) timely became parties to the class action or have timely accepted the outcome of the Arbitral Award, and (iv) have not elected to be excluded from the Class Action or its outcome.

Bancolombia notes that it has taken a provision in its financial statements for the full amount of the compensation awarded and that payment of the Arbitral Award will have no material effect on its financial statements.

Background of the Proceedings

An arbitral tribunal (the Arbitral Tribunal) was formed after Mr. Luis Alberto Durán Valencia and other minority shareholders filed a complaint against Bancolombia and some of its majority shareholders in the context of the merger between Banco de Colombia and Bancolombia. The Arbitral Tribunal rendered the Arbitral Award on January 30, 2004, rejected most of the claims of Mr. Durán Valencia and the other plaintiffs, and released the shareholders of Bancolombia of all liability.

The Arbitral Tribunal found that Bancolombia's actions in the acquisition of, and subsequent merger with, Banco de Colombia were in compliance with the law and with the authorizations granted by the government authorities. The Arbitral Tribunal, however, ordered Bancolombia to compensate shareholders of the former Banco de Colombia for certain asserted damages.

According to the Arbitral Tribunal, these former shareholders of Banco de Colombia were damaged by an alleged shortfall in the capitalization of Bancolombia after the merger in 1998. The Arbitral Tribunal estimated the damages to be Ps. 14,646 million, which, with interest, amounted at the time of the Arbitral Award to Ps. 22.408 million. After subtracting certain fees and expenses awarded to Bancolombia by the Arbitral Tribunal, Bancolombia was directed to pay Ps.19,213 million.

Bancolombia notes that one of the arbitrators, Mr. Rafael H. Gamboa, dissented from the majority decision of the Arbitral Tribunal. Mr. Gamboa concluded that the conduct of Bancolombia during the merger was entirely in accordance with the applicable laws and the authorizations by governmental authorities and that Bancolombia owed no compensation to the complaining shareholders.

Bancolombia filed the complaint seeking annulment of the Arbitral Award on February 17, 2004. The Annulment Complaint sought annulment on the grounds set forth in sections 6 and 7 of article 163 of Decree 1818 of 1998.
