Item 5.02 Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On March 6, 2018, and as part of its annual compensation review process, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the "Committee") of Aerohive Networks, Inc. (the "Company") approved certain adjustments to the severance agreements for Mr. David Flynn, the Company's President and Chief Executive Officer, and Mr. Alan Amrod, the Company's Senior Vice President, Products and Marketing, as further described below. Also as part of its annual compensation review, the Committee approved on March 6, 2018 adjustments to annual base salary and cash incentive-based compensation for each of the Company's 2018 named executive officers, as set forth in the chart below.

In making its determinations to make these adjustments, the Committee considered the peer group benchmarking analysis provided by its consultant as well as the respective performance, responsibilities of and further contributions expected from each named executive officer.

These changes, subject to finalization of documentation, will become effective on April 1, 2018, without further Committee action.

Adjustments to Severance Arrangements upon a Change of Control

The Company previously entered Separation and Change in Control Severance Agreements, or the "Severance Agreements," with Messrs. Flynn and Amrod, which previously became effective for Mr. Flynn on October 1, 2013 and for Mr. Amrod on November 16, 2015.

As amended and restated, each Severance Agreement provides that if (x) the Company terminates the executive's employment without Cause and not due to the executive's death or disability, or (y) if the executive terminates his employment for Good Reason, and in each case, the termination does not occur during the period beginning 30 days prior to and ending 12 months following a Change in Control, the executive will receive the following severance: (i) a lump sum cash payment equal to 12 months (in the case of Mr. Flynn) and nine (9) months (in the case of Mr. Amrod) of the executive's base salary then in-effect, and (ii) reimbursements for a period of up to 12 months (in the case of Mr. Flynn), and nine (9) months (in the case of Mr. Amrod) for payments of COBRA continuation coverage.

Each Severance Agreement further provides that if (x) the Company terminates the executive's employment without Cause and not due to the executive's death or disability, or (y) the executive terminates his employment for Good Reason, and in each case the termination occurs during the period beginning 30 days prior to and ending 12 months following a Change in Control, then in lieu of the severance benefits described above, the executive will receive the following severance: (i) a lump sum severance payment equal to 12 months of the executive's base salary in-effect immediately prior to the Change in Control or employment termination, whichever is greater, plus an amount equal to 100 percent of the greater of (a) the executive's recent actual annual bonus or (b) the executive's then-target annual bonus, (ii) a lump sum severance payment equal to 100 percent of the greater of (a) the executive's recent actual annual bonus or (b) the executive's then-target annual bonus, in each case prorated for partial year of service for the year in which the employment termination occurs, (iii) reimbursements for continuing payments of COBRA continuation coverage for a period of up to 12 months, (iv) 100 percent vesting of any equity awards outstanding as of the date of employment termination, with any performance-based awards deemed achieved at 100 percent of the applicable target levels, and (v) stock options and stock appreciation rights outstanding as of the employment termination date will have a post-termination exercisability period that ends on the later of (a) the date 12 months following the employment termination date, or (b) the date 90 days following the lapse of any underwriter lock-up period or insider trading black-out period in effect on the employment termination date, provided that no award may be exercised after expiration of the award's maximum term.

Each Severance Agreement provides that to receive the foregoing severance and benefits, the executive must first sign and not revoke a release of claims in the Company's favor. Each Severance Agreement also provides that if the severance benefits provided in the Severance Agreement or otherwise payable to the executive would constitute "parachute payments" that would subject the executive to any excise tax under the golden parachute rules under the Internal Revenue Code, the severance benefits will either be delivered in full or delivered to a lesser extent so as not to be subject to the excise tax, whichever of the foregoing amounts would provide the executive the greater amount of severance benefits on an after-tax basis.
