All such purchases were funded by working capital, which may, at any given time, include margin loans made by brokerage firms in the ordinary course of business.

Item 4.

Purpose of Transaction.

Each of the Reporting Entities acquired beneficial ownership of the shares of Common Stock to which this Statement relates in the ordinary course of business in order to obtain a significant equity position in the Company, the Common Stock of which, in the opinion of the Reporting Entities, is undervalued and represents an attractive investment opportunity.

On July 2 and July 24, 2014, representatives of Barington Capital Group, L.P. (Barington), including James A. Mitarotonda, Barington's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, and August Vlak, a Senior Advisor to Barington, met with representatives of the Company, including Leonard F. Leganza, the Company's Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer. During these meetings, the Barington representatives informed Mr. Leganza that they believed that the Company has underperformed its value potential for a substantial period of time and that shareholder value could be significantly improved by growing the Company through acquisitions, as well as by accelerating organic growth and increasing product innovation. The Barington representatives informed Mr. Leganza that they could help the Company improve shareholder value, and Mr. Leganza asked if they would send him a proposal regarding ways Barington could assist the Company.

At the request of Mr. Leganza, Mr. Mitarotonda sent a letter to Mr. Leganza on July 30, 2014 to summarize ways in which Barington believes it can assist in the growth and development of the Company, including by assisting the Company in conducting a strategic review, identifying and reviewing acquisition candidates and helping with integration planning. In the letter, Mr. Mitarotonda proposed that the Company add two directors to the Company's Board of Directors recommended by Barington that are reasonably acceptable to its current directors, as well as grant to Barington for the assistance Barington offered restricted shares of Common Stock that would vest in specified increments if the Company's stock price meets or exceeds certain thresholds.

By letter to Mr. Mitarotonda that was received by Barington on September 29, 2014 (the Eastern Letter), Mr. Leganza informed Mr. Mitarotonda, among other things, that while the Board would welcome proposals regarding potential acquisition opportunities and would expect to compensate Barington if a transaction was successfully consummated, the Board believes that the Company's in-house resources are adequate in the other areas where Barington offered assistance. Mr. Leganza also informed Mr. Mitarotonda that while the Board is aware that it has not added new directors to the Board in many years, it is the Board's belief that a board with fewer members is more agile and can be more attentive to issues with more meaningful input from each Board member. Mr. Leganza noted that while the Board remains open to further discussion on this subject, there are no proposed changes to the composition of the Board as of now.

On September 29, 2014, Mr. Mitarotonda and Mr. Mr. Leganza also spoke by telephone following Barington's receipt of the Eastern Letter. During this conversation, Mr. Mitarotonda informed Mr. Leganza that he was disappointed by the Eastern Letter and the Company's record in value creation. He asked Mr. Leganza to reconsider Barington's suggestion that the Company add new directors to the Board proposed by Barington, which directors he believes can assist the Company in creating substantial long-term shareholder value. Mr. Leganza suggested that the parties continue their discussions, and asked Mr. Mitarotonda to propose dates for an in-person meeting.

The Reporting Entities intend to continue to engage in discussions with Mr. Leganza concerning Board representation as well as the business and operations of the Company.

None of the Reporting Entities have any present plans or proposals that relate to or would result in any of the actions specified in clauses (a) through (j) of the instructions to Item 4 of Schedule 13D, except as set forth herein or as would occur upon or in connection with any of the proposed actions discussed herein. The Reporting Entities intend to review their investment in the Company on a continuing basis. Depending on various factors including, without limitation, the Company's response to the suggestions and proposals of the Reporting Entities, actions taken by management and the Board of Directors of the Company, the Company's financial position and strategic direction, the price levels of the shares of Common Stock, other investment opportunities available to the Reporting Entities, conditions in the securities markets and general economic and industry conditions, the Reporting Entities may in the future take such actions with respect to their investment in the Company as they deem appropriate including, without limitation, making proposals to the Company concerning changes to the capitalization, ownership structure or operations of the Company, purchasing additional shares of Common Stock, selling some or all of their shares of Common Stock, engaging in short selling of or any hedging or similar transactions with respect to the Common Stock, seeking Board representation and/or otherwise changing their intention with respect to any and all matters referred to in clauses (a) through (j) of the instructions to Item 4 of Schedule 13D.
