Personal

Married to Mary, and we have two children: Caroline age 21 and Mary Catherine age 19. Hobbies: family, computers, and exercise

Roxanna Weber, CEO of eMax Worldwide, Inc., stated, "We at eMax have suffered a great loss with the death of my husband. Chuck was my best friend of 28 years and 18 of those years we were married. Chuck and I started this company with the mission of making a positive difference in areas of entertainment, media, broadcasting and the internet industries. Everyone at eMax is mourning the loss of a fabulous kind and generous man who always worked with a unique vision and major integrity. With the loss of Chuck I am driven even harder now to finish what we began together as a single vision over 18 years ago, More than ever before our world needs to be able to turn the TV or radio on and see and hear content that feeds families with moral values than what we are forced to see on our broadcast systems today. Since May, the company had been quietly preparing for Chucks Weber's potential loss and we are so grateful to the new and senior management that has taken center to help the company move forward with its business activities and operations during the past and in the future months ahead. We are also very excited about the addition of LevelStock.com handling our current investor relations for the company. The new management appointments come from the company's past history working with the named individuals as recent advisors to the Board this past year and the principals of LevelStock.com and which I have worked with in earlier years and have first hand experience and working relationships with each and every new added officer to the EMAX family.

Shareholders can contact LevelStock.com directly for questions relating to the company.
