Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(e) Employment Agreement and Change in Control Agreements With Named Executive Officers. On July 18, 2018, Northwest Bank (the “Bank”), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Northwest Bancshares, Inc. (the “Company”), entered into a new employment agreement (the “Employment Agreement”) with Ronald J. Seiffert, President and Chief Executive Officer. The new Employment Agreement replaces Mr. Seiffert’s existing employment agreement. The term of the Employment Agreement is 24 months. The Employment Agreement will be extended on each November 1 for a period of 12 months unless terminated as provided in the Employment Agreement.

Under the Employment Agreement, Mr. Seiffert is entitled to a base salary of $650,000. The Employment Agreement provides for participation in company-wide employee benefit plans and in executive incentive and benefit plans. Mr. Seiffert may terminate his employment for “good reason,” which includes (i) any reduction in base salary or benefits; (ii) a failure to elect or reelect or to appoint or reappoint him as President, Chief Executive Officer and a director of the Bank, or the Company, or failure to nominate him as a director of the Company; (iii) change in function, duties, or responsibilities, which would cause his position to become one of lesser responsibility, importance, or scope; (iv) relocation of his principal place of employment by more than 30 miles from its location on July 18, 2018; (v) liquidation or dissolution of the Bank or Company; or (vi) a material breach of the Employment Agreement by the Company or the Bank.

In the event the Employment Agreement is terminated for good reason or in the event the Company or the Bank terminates Mr. Seiffert’s employment for any reason other “cause” (as defined in the Employment Agreement), Mr. Seiffert will be entitled to receive a cash lump sum equal to three times his base salary plus three times his highest bonus during the prior three years, paid within 30 days after his termination of employment, unless a six month delay in the payments is required to comply with Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code. In addition, the Bank will continue to provide nontaxable medical and dental benefits for Mr. Seiffert and his eligible dependents for three years. All severance payments are contingent upon Mr. Seiffert signing, and not revoking a release of all claims against the Company and the Bank. In the event of termination due to disability, the Bank will pay Mr. Seiffert an amount equal to the difference between benefits provided under the Bank’s disability plan and the amount of Mr. Seiffert’s base salary for the longer of the remaining term of the Employment Agreement, or one year following the termination of his employment due to disability. In the event of death during the term of the Employment Agreement, the Bank will pay Mr. Seiffert’s estate his base salary for a period of one year, and will continue to provide nontaxable medical and dental benefits for his eligible dependents for three years. In the event of termination of Mr. Seiffert’s employment (other than due to a change in control), Mr. Seiffert is prohibited from competing with the Company or the Bank within 50 miles of his principal place of employment for one year following termination of employment.
