Item 8.01 Other Events.

Georgia-Pacific met last week with the IRS to explore possible avenues for the Company to pay, on behalf of bondholders, the tax due in respect of interest on the State of Oregon Economic Development Revenue Bonds (Georgia-Pacific Corporation 1995 Project), Series 157, and to settle the other outstanding bond examinations noted in the Company's Form 8-K filed on June 21, 2005. Georgia-Pacific and the IRS have agreed to meet again to continue these discussions in the near future.

Some of the matters discussed in this Form 8-K concerning future events or circumstances, including the tax-exempt status of bonds that are under IRS examination and any settlement with the IRS regarding bonds constitute forward-looking statements and are based upon the Company's current expectations and beliefs concerning such events or circumstances. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which are based on information known today and speak only as of the date of this filing. Actual events or circumstances may differ materially as a result of a number of factors, many of which are outside the control of the Company, including, among other things, final determinations of the IRS regarding the tax-exempt status of bonds under examination or other series of bonds issued to finance solid waste disposal facilities at other Georgia-Pacific mills, the willingness of the IRS to enter into a settlement or settlements with the Company on acceptable terms, if at all, and the applicability to the Company of IRS or court decisions involving bonds issued for similar purposes on behalf of other companies, which may establish precedents regarding the taxability of such bonds.
