KANSAS CITY SOUTHERN FILES FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION TO PRESERVE ITS RIGHTS PENDING DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Kansas City Southern (KCS) (NYSE:KSU) today filed in the Delaware Court of Chancery a motion for a preliminary injunction to preserve the parties' positions while KCS seeks to resolve its dispute over Grupo TMM, S.A.'s (TMM) attempt to terminate the Acquisition Agreement. As previously announced, under the Acquisition Agreement TMM agreed to sell its shares of Grupo Transportacion Ferroviaria Mexicana, S.A. de C.V. (GTFM), the corporate parent of the Mexican railway company TFM, S.A. de C.V. (TFM). KCS has asked for an expedited hearing on its motion for a preliminary injunction.

On Friday, August 29, 2003, KCS delivered to TMM a formal Notice of Dispute pursuant to the Acquisition Agreement, initiating procedures that will lead to arbitration in New York if the parties' executives are unable to settle the matter through negotiations.

Also on Friday, KCS filed a complaint in the Delaware Chancery Court alleging that TMM had breached the Acquisition Agreement and seeking a final order requiring TMM not to sell GTFM or take other actions outside of the ordinary course of business, so as to preserve the assets and business of the Mexican railroad while the parties follow the dispute resolution procedures provided for in the Acquisition Agreement.

On August 23, 2003, TMM sent a notice to KCS claiming to terminate the Acquisition Agreement, because the TMM shareholders had failed to approve the Acquisition Agreement at an August 18, 2003 meeting. KCS's Notice of Dispute and Complaint points out that the Acquisition Agreement does not provide that a negative shareholder vote is a basis for termination, and that the Agreement remains in effect until December 31, 2004, during which time the shareholders may vote differently.

More important, KCS contends that TMM breached its commitment under the Acquisition Agreement to use commercially reasonable efforts to see that all obligations to closing the transaction are fulfilled, and specifically to use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain the approval of its shareholders and its bondholders.

The Agreement was negotiated and signed by TMM Chairman Jose Serrano, who is also the controlling shareholder of TMM. Based upon TMM's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, KCS believes that Jose Serrano controls over 80% of the voting shares. KCS believes that TMM's and Jose Serrano's actions concerning the TMM shareholders vote violate the Acquisition Agreement.

If the parties are unable to resolve their disputes through the informal process established by the Acquisition Agreement, KCS will seek an arbitration award compelling TMM to honor its agreement to sell its controlling shares of GTFM to KCS. The motion for preliminary injunction is intended to prevent TMM from taking any action to diminish the value of GTFM or to interfere with the process of obtaining and maintaining governmental approvals of the acquisition, while the parties carry out the dispute resolution process.

KCS believes that in the days following its purported termination of the Acquisition Agreement, TMM has shown it is willing to take actions to try to stop the governmental approval process and to commit TFM to extraordinary contracts to the railway's detriment.

In addition to the Acquisition Agreement, which remains valid through December 31, 2004, KCS has, under the GTFM bylaws, a right of first refusal regarding the sale of TMM's interest in GTFM. As KCS has noted previously, it will enforce its rights and will pursue all appropriate legal or administrative actions against any person or entities involved in interfering with KCS and its agreements with TMM.

KCS also reaffirms its commitment to continue working in good faith with the appropriate Mexican authorities and other relevant parties. KCS remains committed to the creation of NAFTA Rail and is convinced that NAFTA Rail will be a strong competitor in the rail sector by providing a seamless, efficient and competitive rail service to shippers in North America.

In addition, KCS announced today that consistent with the schedule set out by the Surface Transportation Board (STB) to review KCS's plans to acquire control of The Texas Mexican Railway Company (Tex Mex), KCS filed its comments replying to the opposition comments, which were filed on August 4. In its reply, KCS requested the Board to proceed with its review of the Tex Mex transaction.
