PROXY STATEMENT

---

Approximate Mailing Date:
September 23, 2003

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of Burlington Coat Factory Warehouse Corporation (the "Company") to be voted at the Annual Meeting of Stockholders of the Company to be held on Thursday, October 30, 2003, at the offices of the Company, 1830 Route 130, Burlington, New Jersey 08016 at 11:00 o'clock in the morning, New Jersey time, for the purposes set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting of Stockholders.

The Board of Directors has fixed the close of business on September 12, 2003, as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to receive notice of, and to vote at, the forthcoming Annual Meeting of Stockholders or any adjournment thereof. Any person giving a proxy in the form accompanying this statement has the power to revoke it at any time prior to its exercise. A proxy may be revoked by attendance and voting at the meeting or by written notice to the Secretary of the Company received at the Company's offices at 1830 Route 130, Burlington, New Jersey 08016 prior to the date of the Annual Meeting. When proxies are returned properly executed, the shares represented thereby will be voted as directed in the executed proxy.

The expenses for soliciting proxies for the forthcoming Annual Meeting of Stockholders are to be paid by the Company. Solicitation of proxies may be made by means of personal calls upon, or telephonic or telegraphic communications with, stockholders or their personal representatives by directors, officers and employees of the Company, who will not be specially compensated for such services.

The Bylaws of the Company provide that, except as provided by law or by the Company's Certificate of Incorporation, the holders of a majority of the capital stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote at a meeting of stockholders, present in person or represented by proxy, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Neither Delaware law nor the Certificate of Incorporation of the Company provides for a different quorum for the matters to be submitted to a vote of the Stockholders at the forthcoming Annual Meeting of Stockholders. For the purposes of determining the presence of a quorum at the forthcoming Annual Meeting of Stockholders, all shares of stock represented by ballots or proxies presented at the meeting shall be counted whether or not such ballots or proxies shall include stockholder directed abstentions or broker non-votes on one or more matters; provided, however, that a ballot or proxy presented by a broker on which it has indicated that it does not have discretionary authority to vote on any matter shall not be counted towards the presence of a quorum.

Directors will be elected by a plurality of the votes of the shares of stock cast by stockholders present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote, assuming there is a quorum. Thus assuming there is a quorum, abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on determining the outcome of the election of directors.

With respect to approval of the annual award of shares to the members of the Audit Committee, for purposes of New York Stock Exchange listing requirements, the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast at a meeting where a majority of the outstanding Stock has voted on the proposal is required; therefore, abstentions will be counted as negative votes, and broker non-votes will have the effect of negative votes if the total number of votes cast does not constitute a majority of the outstanding stock of the Company. With respect to the ratification of the appointment of auditors, the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of stock held by stockholders present in person or represented by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote is required; therefore, abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted as negative votes.

All stockholder meeting proxies, ballots and tabulations that identify individual stockholders are kept confidential, and no such documents shall be available for examination, nor shall the identity of any stockholder be disclosed, except as may be required by law. Votes are counted by the employees of American Stock Transfer Company, the Company's independent transfer agent and registrar, and certified by the Inspector of Election, who is also an employee of American Stock Transfer Company.

During the fiscal year ended May 31, 2003, the Board of Directors held four meetings. Each director attended seventy-five percent or more of the meetings of the Board of Directors held during the fiscal year ended May 31, 2003. The Board of Directors has established an Executive Committee, an Audit Committee, and a Stock Incentive Committee, but has not established any nominating or compensation committee or any other committee performing similar functions. The Executive Committee consists of Monroe G. Milstein and Andrew R. Milstein. The Executive Committee acts, within certain limits, in the absence of the full Board on matters other than major corporate transactions, when convening the full Board is impractical. During the fiscal year ended May 31, 2003, the Executive Committee took actions by unanimous written consent in lieu of formal meetings. The Stock Incentive Committee consists of Monroe G. Milstein and Harvey Morgan and administers the Company's 2002 Stock Incentive Plan. The Audit Committee oversees the general policies and practices of the Company concerning accounting, financial reporting, and internal auditing and financial controls and works with the Company's independent auditors. During the year ended May 31, 2003, the members of the Audit Committee were Harvey Morgan, Irving Drillings and Roman Ferber. The Audit Committee held eight meetings during the year ended May 31, 2003.

Audit Committee Report

The Audit Committee is comprised of three outside directors, all of whom are independent under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange. The Board of Directors has approved and adopted a written charter for the Audit Committee setting forth the Audit Committee's duties and responsibilities. The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed the Company's audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2003 with management and with the Company's independent auditors, Deloitte & Touche LLP. The Audit Committee has discussed with Deloitte & Touche LLP the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61 relating to the conduct of the audit. The Audit Committee has received the written disclosures and the letter from Deloitte & Touche LLP required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, and has discussed with Deloitte & Touche LLP their independence. For the fiscal year ended May 31, 2003, Deloitte & Touche LLP charged Company audit fees of $491,527 and non-audit service fees of $107,110, none of which was for financial information systems design and implementation. The non-audit services fees include the following:

$54,800 for the audit of the Company's 401(k) and profit sharing plans; $40,950 for tax services; and $11,360 for planning services related to the requirements of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002. The Audit Committee has considered the compatability of the provision of non-audit services with maintaining the auditor's independence. Based on the Audit Committee's review of the audited financial statements and the review and discussions described in this report, the Audit Committee recommended to the Board of Directors that the audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2003 be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended May 31, 2003 for filing with the S.E.C.

This report is submitted by the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors:

Harvey Morgan, Chairman                      Irving Drillings
 Roman Ferber

Report on Executive Compensation

The Company's current executive compensation program consists of primarily two elements: (1) base salary, reviewed annually and adjusted in light of the Company's performance for the year and the individual executive's contribution to that performance, and (2) incentive compensation consisting of stock awards, principally stock options. Additionally, Company executives participate in the Company's 401(k) Profit Sharing Plan (a defined contribution retirement plan).

Executive compensation is determined primarily by Monroe G. Milstein, the Company's founder and Chairman. In making decisions on compensation, Monroe Milstein consults with certain of the Company's principal executive officers, namely, Andrew R. Milstein, Stephen E. Milstein and Mark A. Nesci, who, together with Monroe G. Milstein, act as an informal compensation committee. However, the decision on executive compensation is made by Monroe Milstein, based on his evaluation of the executive's performance for the Company, subject to review by the Board of Directors.

An executive's performance at the Company is evaluated based upon the executive's areas of responsibility at the Company. While objective factors such as increase in sales and profitability in areas under an executive's management are considered, subjective factors such as the executive's ability to manage people and to contribute to the cohesiveness of the management structure as well as the creativity and innovativeness with which an executive performs his duties for the Company are weighed. The executive's compensation then, in turn, is linked to his or her performance and tied to the long-term financial success of the Company, as measured by stock performance, by the use of stock awards. The Company believes that the value of such stock awards will, in the long-term, reflect the financial performance of the Company.

In determining an executive's compensation, the executive's ownership of a substantial amount of stock of the Company and familial relationship to the Company's founder are considered in addition to such executive's performance at the Company. For this reason, such executives are relatively less well compensated in terms of salary than such individuals otherwise might be.

In keeping with this philosophy, the salary of Monroe G. Milstein, the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, has not been increased in the past three years, and, in fact, is approximately $72,000 less than his salary was in 1983, the year of the Company's initial public offering. Net income of the Company was approximately $12 million at the end of fiscal 1983 and approximately $65 million at the end of fiscal 2003. Stockholders equity at the end of fiscal 1983 was approximately $79,504,000 and at the end of fiscal 2003 was $788,021,000. For fiscal 2003, the Company's Common Stock traded in a range from $15.40 to $22.91 and traded at $17.05 at the end of the fiscal year.

Insider Participation

Monroe G. Milstein, Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer, is principally responsible for determining compensation for all executive officers of the Company. In making compensation decisions, Monroe G. Milstein consults from time to time with Andrew R. Milstein, Stephen E. Milstein and Mark A. Nesci, who are officers of the Company. In addition, Monroe G. Milstein is a member of the Stock Incentive Committee. However, he is not eligible to receive options under the Company's 2002 Stock Incentive Plan.

Mr. Mandel is the brother-in-law of Andrew Milstein, a director and executive officer of the Company. Mr. Mandel retained approximately one-third of the amount paid to him, with the remainder paid to other third parties who performed services under Mr. Mandel's direction. The Company believes that the terms of these transactions were at least as favorable to the Company as those that could have been obtained from unrelated third parties

On November 16, 1999, the Company made a loan to Mark A. Nesci, Executive Vice President, Chief Operating Officer and Director of the Company, in the amount of $204,345. The loan was made in the form of a demand note having an annual interest rate of 5.57% for the purpose of enabling Mr. Nesci to purchase shares of the Company's Common Stock pursuant to expiring options. On June 1, 2002, the demand note was replaced with a five-year term note with a principal balance of $204,345 and an annual interest rate of 4.64%. As of July 31, 2003, the aggregate amount of Mr. Nesci's indebtedness to the Company was $157,605. The loan is secured by a mortgage on Mr. Nesci's residence.

Each director who served on the Audit Committee received 100 shares of the Company's common stock, $1.00 par value, and $1,000 for service as a member of the Audit Committee. No additional compensation is paid for membership on any other committee established by the Board of Directors. #### SECTION 16(a) BENEFICIAL OWNERSHIP REPORTING COMPLIANCE

SECTION 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), requires the Company's officers and directors and persons who own more than ten percent of a class of the Company's equity securities registered under the Exchange Act (collectively, the "Reporting Persons") to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the Securities and Exchange Commission and to furnish the Company with these reports.

Based upon the Company's review of the copies of reports received by it and upon written representations received from the Reporting Persons, the Company believes that all filings required to be made by the Reporting Persons during the period from June 2, 2002 to May 31, 2003 were made on a timely basis.

PROPOSAL NUMBER TWO

APPROVAL OF THE ANNUAL AWARD OF 100 SHARES OF COMPANY COMMON STOCK TO MEMBERS OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

On June 24, 2002, the Board of Directors adopted a resolution, by unanimous vote of disinterested directors, setting the annual compensation for service as a member of the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors at 100 shares (the "Shares") of Company common stock and $1,000. The Shares are to be issued in each fiscal year after the first fiscal quarter of the Company out of the treasury stock of the Company. The Shares will not be registered and, accordingly, shall constitute "restricted securities" under Rule 144 of the Securities Act of 1933. Recently enacted changes to the rules of the New York Stock Exchange require that the award of the Shares must be approved by the Company's stockholders.

The Board of Directors recommends that the stockholders vote FOR approval of the annual award of 100 shares of Company common stock to members of the Audit Committee.
