Item 4.02 - Non-Reliance on Previously Issued Financial Statements or a Related Audit Report or Completed Interim Review.

Edgar Filing: DENTSPLY INTERNATIONAL INC /DE/ - Form 8-K

The following information is furnished pursuant to Item 4.02 related to the restatement of the Company's financial statements.

(a) In its press release dated November 1, 2006, Dentsply International Inc. (the "Company") noted that it would be restating certain financial statements based on the recent review of accounting policies related to the classification of certain short term investments as cash equivalents in the Company's consolidated balance sheets and its corresponding presentation in the consolidated statements of cash flows. This review was completed by management, the Audit and Finance Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company (the "Audit Committee"), and the Company's independent registered public accounting firm. On November 1, 2006, the Company's management and Audit Committee concluded that the following previously issued financial statements should no longer be relied upon due to the identification of certain errors: (i) the consolidated balance sheet as of June 30, 2006 and the consolidated statements of cash flows for the six months ended June 30, 2006 and 2005 included in the Company's Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended June 30, 2006, (ii) the consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2006 and the consolidated statements of cash flows for the three months ended March 31, 2006 and 2005 included in the Company's Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended March 31, 2006, (iii) the consolidated balance sheets as of December 31, 2005 and 2004, the consolidated statements of cash flows for the fiscal years ended December 31, 2005 and 2004, and the related report of the independent registered public accounting firm included in the Company's previously filed annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005. These errors had no impact on the Company's total current assets, total assets, total stockholders' equity, net income (loss), earnings (loss) per share, or cash flows from operating activities.

The errors underlying the conclusion that the above mentioned financial statements should no longer be relied upon were identified during the third quarter of 2006 as a result of a reassessment by the Company of its classification of time deposits with original maturity dates at the date of purchase in excess of 90 days as cash equivalents. As a result of this reassessment, it has been determined that these time deposits were incorrectly classified as cash equivalents based strictly on the stated maturity date on the acknowledgement of the deposits being in excess of 90 days, despite the fact that the time deposits held by the Company are highly liquid deposits with a liquidity feature that provides the Company with access to the full principal amount of the deposits within generally a one to two day period. It was further determined that these time deposits with original maturity dates at the date of purchase in excess of 90 days should have been classified as short-term investments on the Company's consolidated balance sheet instead of as cash equivalents, and should also have been reflected as investing activities in the Company's consolidated statement of cash flows.

In addition to the restatement of those reports previously identified, the Company also will restate its statement of cash flows for the interim period ended September 30, 2005, previously issued on Form 10-Q, when it files its report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ending September 30, 2006.

The impact of the error on the respective financial statements is as follows:
